Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 23, 2014, Simulations Plus, Inc., a California corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Agreement”) with Cognigen Corporation, a New York corporation (“Cognigen”). Under the terms of the Agreement, at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement, the Company will pay the shareholders of Cognigen total consideration of $7,000,000, consisting of $2,800,000 of cash and $5,200,000 worth of newly-issued, unregistered shares of the Company’s common stock, a portion of which is to be held back by the Company. The Agreement provides for a two-year market stand-off period in which the newly-issued shares may not be sold.

Pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions of the Agreement, at the closing Cognigen will merge with and into a newly-formed, wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (“Acquisition Sub”), with Acquisition Sub surviving the merger.

In the Agreement, Cognigen has made certain representations and warranties to the Company and the parties agreed to certain covenants. Among the covenants set forth in the Agreement, neither Cognigen nor any of its representatives may participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or provide any information to, any person or entity with respect to any potential acquisition transaction or enter into any agreement with respect to such a transaction.

Under the Agreement, the shareholders of Cognigen, all of whom are parties to the Agreement, have agreed to indemnify the Company for damages which it may incur as a result of, among other things, inaccuracies in or breaches of representations, warranties and covenants. The Agreement provides that $1,800,000 of the total consideration, comprised of cash in the amount of $720,000 and $1,080,000 worth of shares of the Company’s common stock, is to be held back for two years in order to satisfy any indemnifiable claims that may arise pursuant to the terms of the Agreement.

Consummation of the proposed merger is subject to various closing conditions, including the parties obtaining necessary consents and approval by the Board of Directors of both the Company and Cognigen. The closing date of the proposed merger is anticipated to be September 2, 2014.

Other than with respect to the Agreement, there is no material relationship between the Company and Cognigen.

A copy of the definitive Agreement will be filed as an exhibit to the Company’s periodic reports to be filed pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
