ITEM 1.01

ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On November 9, 2006, we received a letter contract from the United States Marine Corps. This is an Indefinite Delivery/Indefinite Quantity award with a maximum ordering quantity of 200 Joint EOD Rapid Response Vehicles and 80 Buffalo vehicles, subject to definitization. If fully exercised by the U.S. Marine Corps, the total estimated contract value will be $214,124,450. Also on November 9, 2006, we received the first delivery order pursuant to the letter contract to provide the U.S. Marine Corps with 100 Joint EOD Rapid Response Vehicles and 44 Buffalo vehicles with associated manuals, deployment kits, field representative support and training. The total value of this initial order is approximately $125,000. We anticipate that the U.S. Marine Corps will order the maximum quantity under the letter contract.

The foregoing description of the terms and conditions of the letter contract is qualified in its entirety by, and made subject to, the more complete information set forth in the letter contract filed as exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein.

This report may contain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. We generally use words such as believe, may, could, will, intend, expect, anticipate, plan, and similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements for many reasons, including the risks described in our Form 10-K and other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Although we believe the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, they relate only to events as of the date on which the statements are made, and our future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements may not meet these expectations. We do not intend to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this document to conform these statements to actual results or to changes in our expectations, except as required by law.
