On January 31, 2007, Spectra Energy Corp (Spectra Energy) announced that it had settled its contract dispute with Citrus Trading Corporation (Citrus) and agreed to pay Citrus $100 million. This litigation was a contingency matter of a subsidiary of Duke Energy Corporation (Duke Energy) on December 31, 2006, and as a result, Duke Energy will recognize a reserve as of December 31, 2006, in the amount of $100 million. Duke Energy had previously announced in December 2006 that it had made a settlement offer related to this matter and would recognize a reserve of $45 million. This contingency matter was assigned to Spectra Energy in connection with Duke Energy s separation of Spectra Energy on January 2, 2007, and under the terms of the separation agreements, Spectra Energy bears the financial liability for the settlement. As a result of the settlement and separation agreements, Duke Energy does not expect any future charges or other obligations related to this matter.
