- (1) The annualized rates of return are calculated on a semi-annual bond equivalent basis with compounding.
- (2) The Starting Level (the closing level of the Index on October 31, 2016.)

The above figures are for purposes of illustration only and may have been rounded for ease of analysis. The actual amount you receive at stated maturity and the resulting pre-tax rates of return will depend on the actual Ending Level.

How the Redemption Amount at Maturity is Calculated

The Redemption Amount at Maturity will be determined as follows:

- If the Ending Level is greater than the Starting Level, then the Redemption Amount at Maturity will equal the lesser of:

(a) the Principal Amount + (Principal Amount x Participation Rate x Percentage Change) and (b) the Capped Value

- If the Ending Level is less than or equal to the Starting Level, but greater than or equal to the Threshold Level, the Redemption Amount at Maturity will be equal to $1,000

- If the Ending Level is less than the Threshold Level, the Redemption Amount at Maturity will be equal to:

Principal Amount + [Principal Amount × (Percentage Change + Threshold Percentage)]

If the Ending Level is less than the Threshold Level, you will receive less, and possibly 80% less, than the Principal Amount of your Securities at maturity.

EURO STOXX 50[®] Index Daily Closing Levels*

*The graph above sets forth the daily closing levels of the Index for the period from January 2, 2004 to October 31, 2016. The closing level on October 31, 2016 was 3,055.25. The historical performance of the Index is not an indication of the future performance of the Index during the term of the Securities.

Selected Risk Considerations

The risks set forth below are discussed in detail in Additional Risks in the pricing supplement, Additional Risk Factors Specific to the Notes in the product prospectus supplement and Risk Factors in the prospectus supplement and prospectus. Please review those risk disclosures carefully.

- The inclusion of dealer spread and projected profit from hedging in the original offering price is likely to adversely affect secondary market prices.
- Risk of Loss at Maturity: Any payment on the Securities at maturity depends on the Percentage Change of the Index. The Bank will only repay you the full principal amount of your Securities if the Percentage Change is equal to or greater than -20.00%. If the Percentage Change is less than -20.00%, meaning the percentage decline from the Starting Level to the Ending Level is greater than the 20.00% Threshold Percentage, you will receive less than the your initial investment and will have a 1-to-1 downside exposure to the decrease in the value of the Index in excess of 20.00%. Accordingly, you may lose up to 80% of your investment in the Securities if the percentage decline from the Starting Level to the Ending Level is greater than 20.00%.
- The downside market exposure to the Index is buffered only at maturity.

- Your potential Redemption Amount at Maturity is limited by the Capped Value.
- The Bank's estimated value of the Securities is lower than the original offering price of the Securities.
- The Bank's estimated value does not represent future values of the Securities and may differ from other's estimates.
- The Bank's estimated value is not determined by reference to credit spreads for our conventional fixed-rate debt.
- The Securities differ from conventional debt securities.
- No Interest: The Securities will not bear interest and, accordingly, you will not receive any interest payments on the Securities.
- Your investment is subject to the credit risk of The Bank of Nova Scotia.
- The Securities are subject to market risk.
- An Investment in the Securities Is Subject to Risks Associated with Non-U.S. Securities.
- The U.K.'s referendum to leave the European Union may adversely affect the performance of the Reference Asset.
- The participation rate applies only at maturity.
- The Redemption Amount at Maturity is not linked to the level of the Index at any time other than the Calculation Day.
- If the levels of the Index or the Index constituent stocks change, the market value of your Securities may not change in the same manner.
- Holding the Securities is not the same as holding the Index constituent stocks.
- There is no assurance that the investment view implicit in the Securities will be successful.
- The Index reflects price return only and not total return.
- Past performance is not indicative of future performance.
- We may sell additional Securities at a different issue price.
- Changes affecting the Index could have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities.
- The Bank cannot control actions by the sponsor of the Index and the sponsor of the Index has no obligation to consider your interests.

- The eurozone financial crisis could negatively impact investors in the Securities.
- The price at which the Securities may be sold prior to maturity will depend on a number of factors and may be substantially less than the amount for which they were originally purchased.
- The Securities lack liquidity.
- Hedging activities by the Bank may negatively impact investors in the Securities and cause our respective interests and those of our clients and counterparties to be contrary to those of investors in the Securities.
- Market activities by the Bank or the underwriters for their own respective accounts or for their respective clients could negatively impact investors in the Securities.
- The Bank, the Underwriters and their respective affiliates regularly provide services to, or otherwise have business relationships with, a broad client base, which has included and may include the issuers of the Index constituent stocks.
- Other investors in the Securities may not have the same interests as you.
- The calculation agent can postpone the Calculation Day for the Securities if a market disruption event with respect to the Index occurs.
- There is no affiliation between any Index constituent stock issuer or the sponsor of the Index and us, and neither we nor any of the underwriters is responsible for any disclosure by any of the Index constituent stock issuers or the sponsor of the Index.
- A participating dealer or its affiliates may realize hedging profits projected by its proprietary pricing models in addition to any selling concession, creating a further incentive for the participating dealer to sell the Securities to you.
- Uncertain Tax Treatment: Significant aspects of the tax treatment of the Securities are uncertain. You should consult your tax advisor about your own tax situation. See Canadian Income Tax Consequences and U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences in the pricing supplement.
