Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

As described in Items 4.01(a) and (b) below, Silicon Graphics, Inc. (the Company or Registrant), has dismissed Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and engaged KPMG LLP (KPMG) as its new independent registered public accounting firm. As described in the third paragraph of Item 4.01(a)(iii) below, the change in independent registered public accounting firms is not the result of any disagreement with Ernst & Young.

Item 4.01 (a) Previous Independent Accountants

- (i) On June 19, 2006, the Company dismissed Ernst & Young as its independent registered public accounting firm. The Company's Audit Committee made the decision to change independent accountants and that decision was approved, ratified and adopted by the Company's Board of Directors.
- (ii) The report of Ernst & Young on the consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended June 25, 2004 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. The report of Ernst & Young on the consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended June 24, 2005 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified, but was modified as to uncertainty due to substantial doubt regarding the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.
- (iii) In connection with their audits for the years ended June 25, 2004 and June 24, 2005 and in the subsequent interim periods through June 19, 2006, there have been no disagreements with Ernst and Young on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst & Young would have caused them to make reference thereto in their reports on financial statements for such years.
- (iv) The Company has requested Ernst & Young to furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements. A copy of such letter, dated June 21, 2006, is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Form 8-K.

Item 4.01 (b) New Independent Accountants

On June 19, 2006, the Company engaged KPMG as the Registrant's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2006, and to perform procedures related to the financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, beginning with, and including, the quarter ended March 31, 2006. The Audit Committee made the decision to engage KPMG and that decision was approved, adopted and ratified by the Company's Board of Directors. The Company has not consulted with KPMG during its two most recent fiscal years or during any subsequent interim period prior to its appointment as auditor regarding either (i) the application of accounting principle to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed; or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Registrant's consolidated financial statements, and neither a written report was provided to the Company nor oral advice was provided that KPMG concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue; or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions) or a reportable event (within the meaning of Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K).

In deciding to select KPMG, the Audit Committee considered KPMG's experience and expertise related to public companies undergoing bankruptcy and reorganization as well as reviewed auditor independence issues and existing commercial relationships with KPMG. The Audit Committee concluded that KPMG has no commercial relationship that would impair its independence and had the appropriate expertise that the Company required regarding its current operations.

Ernst & Young had been the Company's independent registered public accounting firm since 1981. The Audit Committee and the Company thank Ernst & Young for its service to the Company over the past 25 years. The Audit Committee and the Company believe Ernst & Young consistently provided quality services to the Company. The Company expects to similarly receive long-term quality service from KPMG.
