NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 1 1-K, 1 0-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed, on June 16, 2006, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) issued a comment letter to Q.E.P. Co., Inc. (the Company). As a result of discussions with the SEC, the Company determined to restate its financial results for certain periods. The full details of the issues related to the restatement are included in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed September 14, 2006, as amended.

The Company is in the process of completing its revised calculations related to the restatement of its financial results for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2006 and the quarter ended May 31, 2006. The Company intends to file an amended February 28, 2006 Form 10-K and an amended May 31, 2006 Form 10-Q to reflect such restated financials as soon as practicable. Given the timing of the quarterly filing requirements for the second quarter of fiscal 2007 and the restatements, the Company could not complete the current 10-Q filing without unreasonable effort or expense.

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that reflect the Company's judgment and involve risks and uncertainties as of the date of this report. These forward looking statements, among others, include those related to the timing of the completion of the restatement of the Company's financial statements, and the filing of amended reports on Forms 10-Q/A and 10-K/A. Actual events or results may differ materially from the results predicted or from any other forward-looking statements made by, or on behalf of, the Company and should not be considered as an indication of future events or results. Potential risks and uncertainties include, among other things: the timing of completion of the Company's restatement and filing of its amended historical financial statements and the additional risks and important factors described in the Company's other reports filed with the SEC, which are available at the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>. All of the statements in this report on Form 12b-25 are made as of October 16, 2006, and the Company undertakes no duty to update this information.

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form NT 10-Q
