(hereinafter the Corporation, the Company, Berkshire, we, us and our ) of proxies in the accompanying form for a Special Meeting of Shareholders to be held on January __, 2010 at [time] and at any adjournment or postponement thereof. As of the close of business on November 30, 2009, the record date for the Special Meeting (the Record Date ), the Corporation had outstanding and entitled to vote [__] shares of Class A Common Stock (hereinafter called Class A Stock ) and [__] shares of Class B Common Stock (hereinafter called Class B Stock ). Each share of Class A Stock is entitled to one vote per share and each share of Class B Stock is entitled to one-two-hundredth (1/200th) of one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders of the Corporation.

The presence at the meeting, in person or by proxy, of the following shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business: (1) the holders of Class A Stock and Class B Stock holding in the aggregate a majority of the voting power of the Corporation's outstanding stock entitled to vote, (2) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Class A Stock, and (3) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Class B Stock. ## 1. APPROVAL OF RESTATEMENT OF CURRENT RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

The Board of Directors has unanimously approved, has declared to be advisable and is recommending to the shareholders of the Corporation for approval, the restatement of the Corporation's existing Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended (the Current Certificate) to effect the following changes: (1) effect a 50-for-1 stock split of the Corporation's Class B Stock, and, in connection with such stock split, inversely proportionally adjust the economic and voting rights of each share of Class B Stock and proportionally adjust the conversion yield of each share of the Corporation's Class A Stock, (2) increase the number of shares of Class B Stock that the Corporation is authorized to issue, from 55,000,000 shares to 3,225,000,000 shares, and increase the total number of shares of all classes of stock that the Corporation is authorized to issue by the number of additional shares of Class B Stock, from 57,650,000 total shares to 3,227,650,000 total shares, (3) decrease the par value of each share of Class B Stock from $0.1667 to $0.0033, (4) clarify the language of Article Fourth Section 2.B. of the Current Certificate to provide that the Class B Stock may be split on the effective date of the restatement of the Current Certificate without splitting the Class A Stock, and (5) remove the requirement to issue physical stock certificates for shares of Class B Common Stock upon conversion of shares of Class A Stock (the proposed restatement of the Current Certificate to effect all of these changes, which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, the Restated Certificate).

In addition to the changes described above, the Restated Certificate will incorporate all prior amendments to the Current Certificate, which prior amendments have already been approved and are on file in Delaware as part of the documents constituting the Current Certificate. The changes proposed to be made to the Current Certificate are marked as additions or deletions in Exhibit A. The summary contained herein of the changes to be effected by the Restated Certificate should be read in conjunction with and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Restated Certificate set forth in Exhibit A.

If the Restated Certificate is approved by (1) a majority of the voting power of the outstanding Class A Stock and Class B Stock, voting together as a single class, (2) a majority of the outstanding Class A Stock, voting as a separate class, and (3) a majority of the outstanding Class B Stock, voting as a separate class, the Restated Certificate will become effective upon filing with the Delaware Secretary of State and the occurrence of the effective time specified at the time of such filing, which is expected to occur promptly after the Special Meeting.

Purpose and Effects of the Changes Proposed to the Current Certificate

The proposed Restated Certificate would effect a 50-for-1 stock split of the Corporation's Class B Stock. As a result, at the effective time of the Restated Certificate, each outstanding share of Class B Stock will be subdivided into fifty (50) shares of Class B Stock. The Restated Certificate includes inversely proportional adjustments to the economic and voting rights of the Class B Stock, which are necessary to leave holders of Class B Stock with the same economic and voting rights relative to Class A Stock upon the split of each share of Class B Stock into 50 shares of Class B Stock. In each place where the Current Certificate specifies that a share of Class B Stock is entitled to one-thirtieth ( $1/30^{\text{th}}$ ) of that to which a share of Class A Stock is entitled, this ratio will be changed to one-fifteen-hundredth ( $1/1,500^{\text{th}}$ ). The voting power of each share of Class B Stock will be decreased from the current ratio of one-two-hundredth ( $1/200^{\text{th}}$ ) of the vote of one share of Class A Stock to one-ten-thousandth ( $1/10,000^{\text{th}}$ ) of the vote of one share of Class A Stock. In addition, the par value of each share of Class B Stock will be changed to \$0.0033 from the current par value of \$0.1667 per share of Class B Stock. Similarly, certain changes are necessary to leave holders of Class A Stock with the same economic rights relative to the Class B Stock upon the effectiveness of the Class B stock split. The Restated Certificate proportionally adjusts the conversion yield of each share of the Corporation's Class A Stock, so that upon the effectiveness of the stock split, each share of Class A Stock may be converted into one thousand five hundred (1,500) shares of Class B Stock rather than thirty (30) shares of Class B Stock, and proportionally increases from thirty (30) to one thousand five hundred (1,500) the number of shares of Class B Stock that must be reserved for conversion of each outstanding share of Class A Stock.

Berkshire does not have enough authorized but unissued shares of Class B Stock to subdivide each outstanding share of Class B Stock into fifty (50) shares of Class B Stock. In addition, Berkshire does not have enough authorized but unissued shares of Class B Stock to permit conversions of outstanding shares of Class A Stock to shares of Class B Stock on a post-split basis or to be able to issue each currently authorized but unissued share of Class A Stock, in light of the requirement that we keep reserved the number of shares of Class B Stock issuable upon conversion of each outstanding share of Class A Stock. The Restated Certificate would increase the number of shares of Class B Stock that the Corporation is authorized to issue, from 55,000,000 shares to 3,225,000,000 shares. This increase would provide us with sufficient authorized and unissued shares of Class B Stock for each of these purposes, based on our outstanding shares of Class A Stock and Class B Stock as of the date of this proxy statement. To permit this increase in the number of authorized shares of Class B Stock, the proposed Restated Certificate would also increase the total number of shares of all classes of stock that the Corporation is authorized to issue by the number of additional authorized shares of Class B Stock, from 57,650,000 shares to 3,227,650,000 shares.

The proposed Restated Certificate would also clarify the language of Article Fourth Section 2.B. in the Current Certificate to provide that the Class B Stock may be split on the effective date of the Restated Certificate without splitting the Class A Stock.

In addition, the proposed Restated Certificate would remove the requirement to issue physical stock certificates for shares of Class B Stock upon conversion of shares of Class A Stock. However, holders of Class B Stock will still be permitted to hold physical stock certificates representing their Class B Stock if they elect to do so.

Except as stated above, the Restated Certificate does not include any amendments to the powers, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the Class A Stock or the Class B Stock.

Except for the proposed stock split that is the subject of this proxy statement, the Corporation has no present plans, arrangements, commitments, agreements, or intent to issue any of the additional shares of Class B Stock that will be authorized by adoption of the Restated Certificate, other than upon conversion of Class A Stock or in connection with issuance of post-split Class B Stock in our proposed acquisition of Burlington Northern Santa Fe Corporation ( BNSF ).

The proposed Class B stock split is intended to reduce the issuance of fractional shares to BNSF shareholders in our proposed acquisition of BNSF, and to facilitate the rollover of certain BNSF equity compensation awards into equity compensation awards with respect to Class B Stock. However, the Corporation's Board of Directors believes that the split is advisable regardless of the BNSF transaction, and thus the Class B stock split is not contingent on the closing of the BNSF acquisition and, if approved by our shareholders, is expected to be effective prior to the date of such closing.

The Corporation will apply for listing of the new shares of Class B Stock to be issued on the New York Stock Exchange.

As of the Record Date, there were [__] shares of Class B Stock outstanding and held by our shareholders. If the Restated Certificate is approved by our shareholders, as a result of the 50-for-1 Class B Stock split, and based on the number of outstanding shares of Class B Stock as of the Record Date, we estimate there would be approximately [__] shares of Class B Stock issued and outstanding immediately after such stock split. Therefore, after the 50-for-1 stock split, the total shares of Class B Stock issued and outstanding would be approximately [__], out of a total of 3,225,000,000 authorized shares of Class B Stock. As noted above, additional shares of Class B Stock (and Class A Stock) will be issued in connection with our proposed acquisition of BNSF.

Adoption of the Restated Certificate, including the proposed stock split, will not affect the proportionate economic rights or voting power of existing shareholders, as the aggregate share holdings of each shareholder will continue to represent the same percentage interest in the Company with the same relative rights between our Class A Stock and our Class B Stock.

The 50-for-1 split of Class B Stock should be tax-free under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The holding period of the Class B Stock received pursuant to the split, for purposes of determining whether capital gain or loss on a sale or exchange is long-term or short-term, will include the period during which the shareholder held his or her pre-split Class B Stock. A shareholder who receives Class B Stock pursuant to the split must allocate the basis of the existing Class B Stock among the shares received pursuant to the split in proportion to the relative fair market value of such shares on the date of distribution. This discussion should not be considered as tax or investment advice, and the tax consequences of the Class B Stock split may not be the same for all holders of Class B Stock. Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors regarding their individual federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences.

Each share of Class A Stock is currently convertible into thirty shares of Class B Stock at the option of the shareholder. The Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock shall sometimes hereinafter be referred to collectively as the Common Stock. At the effective time of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation, each one (1) issued share of Class B Common Stock shall be subdivided into fifty (50) shares of Class B Common Stock.

1. Preferred Stock. The Board of Directors is authorized, subject to limitations prescribed by law and the limitation on authorized Preferred Stock stated above in this Article FOURTH, to provide for the issuance of shares of Preferred Stock in one or more series, and, by filing a certificate pursuant to the applicable law of the State of Delaware, to establish from time to time the number of shares to be included in any series, and to fix the designation, powers, preferences and rights of the shares of each such series and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof.

The authority of the Board of Directors with respect to each series of Preferred Stock shall include, but not be limited to, determination of the following:

- (a) The number of shares constituting that series and the distinctive designation of that series;

Dividends on outstanding shares of Preferred Stock shall be paid or declared and set apart for payment before any dividends shall be paid or declared and set apart for payment on shares of Common Stock with respect to the same dividend period.

from capital, surplus or earnings, the amount specified for each particular series, together with any dividends accrued or in arrears, for every share of their holdings of Preferred Stock before any distribution of the assets shall be made to the holders of Common Stock, and shall be entitled to no other or further distribution. If upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the assets available for distribution to holders of shares of Preferred Stock of all series shall be insufficient to pay such holders the full preferential amount to which they are entitled, then such assets shall be distributed ratably among the shares of all series of Preferred Stock in accordance with the respective preferential amounts (including unpaid cumulative dividends, if any, as provided by the Board of Directors) payable with respect thereto.

Neither the consolidation nor merger of the Corporation with or into any other corporation, nor any sale, lease, exchange or conveyance of all or any part of the property, assets or business of the Corporation shall be deemed to be a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation within the meaning of this Article FOURTH.

The issuance of ~~certificates for~~ shares of Class B Common Stock ~~issuable~~ upon the conversion of shares of Class A Common Stock shall be made without charge to the converting holder; provided, however, that if any certificate is to be issued in a name other than that of the record holder of the shares being converted, the Corporation shall not be required to issue or deliver any such certificate unless and until the person requesting the issuance thereof shall have paid to the Corporation the amount of any tax that may be payable with respect to any transfer involved in the issuance and delivery of such certificate or has established to the satisfaction of the Corporation that such tax has been paid.

The Corporation covenants that it will at all times reserve and keep available, solely for the purpose of issuance upon conversion of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock, a number of shares of Class B Common Stock equal to ~~thirty (30)~~ one thousand five hundred (1,500) times the number of shares of Class A Common Stock then outstanding, in addition to the number of shares of Class B Common Stock then outstanding; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to preclude the Corporation from satisfying its obligation to issue shares of Class B Common Stock upon conversion of Class A Common Stock by delivery of purchased or redeemed shares of Class B Common Stock which are held in the treasury of the Corporation.
