News Release Rights Offering

April 18, 2012

Ivanhoe Mines announces agreement to proceed with a US$1.8 billion rights offering, open to all shareholders, with a standby commitment from Rio Tinto

VANCOUVER, CANADA Ivanhoe Mines announced today that it has agreed to proceed with a rights offering to holders of common shares of Ivanhoe Mines to raise up to approximately US$1.8 billion in gross proceeds as part of a memorandum of agreement with majority shareholder Rio Tinto.

The rights offering will be supported by a standby commitment for the full amount from Rio Tinto, or a member of the Rio Tinto Group.

All existing shareholders of Ivanhoe Mines, subject to applicable law, may participate on an equal, proportional basis in purchasing additional common shares of Ivanhoe Mines at a subscription price of C$8.34.

This rights offering will follow a procedure similar to the rights offering completed by Ivanhoe Mines in January 2011.

The proceeds of the rights offering will be used as part of the comprehensive financing plan to cover all projected capital requirements for the company's flagship Oyu Tolgoi copper-gold-silver mine development project in southern Mongolia for the next four to five years.

Rio Tinto will receive a commitment fee from Ivanhoe Mines equal to 4% of the rights offering's gross proceeds, which Rio Tinto may elect to reinvest in Ivanhoe shares.

Ivanhoe Mines has agreed to file a rights-offering preliminary prospectus with Canadian securities regulators in early May, to be followed by the filing of a final prospectus as soon as practicable, and a registration statement on Form F-10 with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

This news release shall not constitute an offer to sell, nor the solicitation of an offer to buy, any securities in the United States; nor shall there be any sale of securities mentioned in this news release in any state of the United States in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state.
