Each Fund pays the Chairman of the Board (the Chairman) and each Independent Trustee who is not affiliated with ALPS or Clough or their affiliates. The Chairman receives from each Fund an annual retainer of $16,800 per year plus $1,800 per meeting attended in person and by telephone. The Audit Committee Chairman receives from each Fund an annual retainer of $15,400 per year plus $1,650 per meeting attended in person and by telephone. The Independent Trustees receive from each Fund an annual retainer of $14,000 per year plus $1,500 per meeting attended in person and by telephone. The per meeting fees paid to the Chairman, Audit Committee Chairman and the Independent Trustees are for each regularly scheduled Board meeting for each Fund and any special meeting of the Board convened to address the Funds' more immediate business or regulatory needs. The Chairman, Audit Committee Chairman and each Independent Trustee's actual out-of-pocket expenses relating to their attendance at such meetings are also paid for by the Funds. The aggregate remuneration (not including out-of-pocket expenses) paid to Messrs. Butler, Crescenzi, Mee, Rantzow and Rutledge during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013, by the Clough Global Allocation Fund, Clough Global Equity Fund, and Clough Global Opportunities Fund equaled $121,000, $121,000 and $121,000, respectively.

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013, the Board of each Fund met four times. Each Trustee then serving in such capacity attended at least 75% of the meetings of Trustees and of any Committee of which he is a member.

Leadership Structure of the Board of Trustees

The Board, which has overall responsibility for the oversight of each Fund's investment programs and business affairs, has appointed an Independent Trustee as Chairman of the Board whose role is to preside at all meetings of the Board. The Board has also appointed an Independent Trustee as Vice-Chairman of the Funds. The Chairman is involved, at his discretion, in the preparation of the agendas for the Board meetings. In between meetings of the Board, the Chairman may act as liaison between the Board and the Funds' officers, attorneys and various other service providers, including but not limited to, the Funds' investment adviser, administrator and other such third parties servicing the Funds. The Chairman may also perform other functions as may be delegated by the Board from time to time. The Board believes that the use of an Independent Trustee as Chairman is the appropriate leadership structure for mitigating potential conflicts of interest associated with appointing an Interested Trustee as chairman and facilitates the ability to maintain a robust culture of compliance. The Funds have three standing committees, each of which enhances the leadership structure of the Board: the Audit Committee; the Nominating Committee; and the Executive Committee. The Audit Committee and Nominating Committee are each chaired by, and composed of, members who are Independent Trustees. The Executive Committee consists of two Interested Trustees and one Independent Trustee.

Oversight of Risk Management

Each Fund is confronted with a multitude of risks such as investment risk, counter party risk, valuation risk, political risk, risk of operational failures, business continuity risk, regulatory risk, legal risk and other risks not listed here. The Board recognizes that not all risks that may affect the Funds can be known, eliminated or mitigated. In addition, there are some risks that may not be cost effective or an efficient use of each Fund's limited resources to moderate. As a result of these realities, the Board, through its oversight and leadership, has and will continue to deem it necessary for shareholders of each Fund to bear certain and undeniable risks, such as investment risk, in order for each Fund to operate in accordance with its prospectus, statement of additional information and other related documents.

However, as required under the 1940 Act, the Board has adopted on the Funds' behalf a vigorous risk program that mandates the Funds' various service providers, including the investment adviser, to adopt a variety of processes, procedures and controls to identify various risks, mitigate the likelihood of such adverse events from occurring and/or attempt to limit the effects of such adverse events on a Fund. The Board fulfills its leadership role by receiving a variety of quarterly written reports prepared by the Funds' Chief Compliance Officer (CCO) that: (i) evaluate the operation of the Funds' service providers; (ii) make known any material changes to the policies and procedures adopted by the Funds or their service providers since the CCO's last report and; (iii) disclose any material compliance matter that occurred since the date of the last CCO report. In addition, the Chairman and the Independent Trustees meet quarterly in executive sessions without the presence of any Interested Trustees, the investment adviser, the administrator, or any of their affiliates. This configuration permits the Chairman and the Independent Trustees to effectively receive the information and have private discussions necessary to perform its risk oversight role, exercise independent judgment, and allocate areas or responsibility between the full Board, its various committees and certain officers of the Funds. Furthermore the Independent Trustees have engaged independent legal counsel and auditors to assist the Independent Trustees in performing their responsibilities. As discussed above and in consideration of other factors not referenced herein, the function of the Board with respect to its leadership role concerning risk management is one of oversight and not active management or coordination of the Funds' day-to-day risk management activities.

Audit Committee Reports

The role of the Funds' Audit Committee is to assist the Board in its oversight of: (i) the quality and integrity of Funds' financial statements, reporting process and the independent registered public accounting firm (the independent accountant) and reviews thereof; (ii) the Funds' accounting and financial reporting policies and practices, its internal controls and, as appropriate, the internal controls of certain service providers; (iii) the Funds' compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; and (iv) the independent accountant's qualifications, independence and performance. The Audit Committee is also required to prepare an audit committee report pursuant to the rules of the SEC for inclusion in each Fund's annual proxy statement. Each Audit Committee operates pursuant to an Audit Committee Charter (the Charter) that was most recently reviewed and approved by the Audit Committee on December 5, 2012. The Charter is available at the Funds website, www.cloughglobal.com. As set forth in the Charter, management is responsible for maintaining appropriate systems for accounting and internal control and the Funds independent accountant is responsible for planning and carrying out proper audits and reviews. The independent accountant is ultimately accountable to each Fund s Board and Audit Committee, as representatives of each Fund s shareholders. The independent accountant for the Funds reports directly to the Audit Committee.

In performing its oversight function, at a meeting held on May 21, 2013, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with management of the Funds and the independent accountant, Cohen Fund Audit Services, Ltd. (Cohen), the audited financial statements of the Funds as of and for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013, and discussed the audit of such financial statements with the independent accountant.

In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountant the accounting principles applied by the Funds and such other matters brought to the attention of the Audit Committee by the independent accountant required by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 114, (The Auditor s communication with those charged with Governance) as currently modified or supplemented and No. 61, as amended (AICPA, Professional Standards, Vol. 1 AU section 380), as adopted by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) in Rule 3200T. The Audit Committee also received from the independent accountant the written disclosures and letters required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as adopted by the PCAOB in Rule 3600T and discussed the relationship between the independent accountant and the Funds and the impact that any such relationships might have on the objectivity and independence of the independent accountant.

As set forth above, and as more fully set forth in the Charter, the Audit Committee has significant duties and powers in its oversight role with respect to each Fund s financial reporting procedures, internal control systems and the independent audit process.

The members of the Audit Committees are not, and do not represent themselves to be, professionally engaged in the practice of auditing or accounting and are not employed by the Funds for accounting, financial management or internal control purposes. Moreover, each Audit Committee relies on and makes no independent verification of the facts presented to it or representations made by management or the independent verification of the facts presented to it or representation made by management or the Funds independent accountant. Accordingly, the Audit Committee s oversight does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and/or financial reporting principles and policies, or internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee s considerations and discussions referred to above do not provide assurance that the audit of each Fund s financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards or that the financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Based on its consideration of the audited financial statements and the discussions referred to above with management and the Funds independent accountant, and subject to the limitations on the responsibilities and role of the Audit Committee set forth in the Charter and those discussed above, each Audit Committee recommends to its Board of Trustees that each Fund s audited financial statements be included in the Funds Annual Report for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013.

SUBMITTED BY THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF EACH FUND S BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Richard C. Rantzow, Chairman

Robert L. Butler

Adam D. Crescenzi

John F. Mee

Jerry G. Rutledge

Vincent W. Versaci

May 21, 2013

Each Audit Committee met three times during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013. Each Audit Committee is composed of six Independent Trustees, namely Messrs. Butler, Crescenzi, Mee, Rantzow and Rutledge and Judge Versaci. None of the members of the Audit Committee are interested persons of the Funds.

Based on the findings of the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee has determined that Mr. Richard C. Rantzow is each Fund's audit committee financial expert, as defined in the rules promulgated by the SEC, and as required by NYSE MKT Listing Standards. Mr. Rantzow serves as the Chairman of the Audit Committee for each Fund.

Nominating Committee

Each Fund's Board has a Nominating Committee composed of six Independent Trustees as the term is defined by the NYSE MKT Listing Standards, namely Messrs. Butler, Crescenzi, Mee, Rantzow and Rutledge and Judge Versaci. None of the members of the Nominating Committee are interested persons of the Funds. The Nominating Committee met twice during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013. The Nominating Committee is responsible for identifying and recommending to the Board individuals believed to be qualified to become Board members and officers of the Funds in the event that a position is vacated or created. Mr. Crescenzi serves as Chairman of the Nominating Committee of each Fund.

When such vacancies or creations occur, the Nominating Committee will consider Trustee candidates recommended by a variety of sources to include each Fund's respective shareholders. At a meeting of the Nominating Committee held March 14, 2013, the Nominating Committee recommended the Board of each Fund approve Hon Vincent W. Versaci to stand for election as a Trustee of each Fund. James E. Canty, Trustee of the Fund and founding partner of Clough and Portfolio Manager of the Funds, recommended Hon. Vincent W. Versaci as a nominee. The Nominating Committee has a diversity policy. In considering Trustee candidates, the Nominating Committee will take into consideration the interest of shareholders, the needs of the Board and the Trustee candidate's qualifications, which include but are not limited to, the diversity of the individual's professional experience, education, individual qualification or skills.

Any shareholder recommendation described above must be sent to the applicable Fund's Secretary c/o ALPS. The Funds' Nominating Committee has not adopted any charters. If a charter is adopted by a particular Fund in the future, it will be available at the time on the Funds' website (www.cloughglobal.com).

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee meets periodically to take action, as authorized by the Board, if the Board cannot meet. Members of the Executive Committee are currently Messrs. Burke, Butler and Canty. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013, the Executive Committee met once.

Compensation Committee

The Funds do not have a compensation committee.

Other Board Related Matters

The Funds do not require Trustees to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. No Trustees attended the Funds' Annual Meeting of Shareholders held in 2012.

REQUIRED VOTE

The election of each of the listed nominees for Trustee of a Fund requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of Common Shares represented at each Fund's respective Meeting, if a quorum is present.

EACH FUND'S BOARD, INCLUDING THE INDEPENDENT TRUSTEES, UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE COMMON SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF EACH FUND'S RESPECTIVE NOMINEES.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Cohen, 800 Westpoint Parkway, Suite 1100, Westlake, OH 44145-1524, has been selected to serve as each Fund's independent registered public accounting firm for each Fund's fiscal year ending March 31, 2014. Cohen acted as each Fund's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013. The Funds know of no direct financial or material indirect financial interest of Cohen in any of the Funds. A representative of Cohen will not be present at the Meetings, but will be available by telephone and will have an opportunity to make a statement, if asked, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

On March 16, 2012, the Audit Committees of the Board of Trustees of each of Clough Global Allocation Fund, Clough Global Equity Fund, and Clough Global Opportunities Fund (each individually a Fund, and together, the Funds) dismissed Deloitte & Touche LLP (D&T) as the independent registered public accounting firm of the respective Funds.

During the fiscal years ended March 31, 2011 and the subsequent interim period through March 16, 2012: (1) there were no disagreements with D&T on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of D&T, would have caused D&T to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its report, and (2) there were no reportable events as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1) of Regulation S-K. The audit report of D&T on each of the Fund's financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2011 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor were such reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

Also on March 16, 2012, the Audit Committees of each of the Funds engaged Cohen Fund Audit Services, Ltd. (Cohen) as the independent registered public accounting firm to audit the financial statements of the respective Funds for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2012. During the fiscal years ended March 31, 2011 and the subsequent interim period through March 16, 2012, none of the Funds nor anyone on their behalf consulted with Cohen regarding either: (1) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on any of the Funds' financial statements, and no written report or oral advice was provided to any of the Funds that Cohen concluded was an important factor considered by the respective Funds in reaching a decision as to an accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue or (2) any matter that was the subject of a disagreement or reportable event as defined in Item 304(a)(1) of Regulation S-K.

The Audit Committees of each of the Funds dismissed D&T from its engagement as the independent registered public accounting firm to audit the financial statements of the respective Funds as a result of an independence issue that D&T brought to the Audit Committees' attention. Specifically, Deloitte Consulting LLP (Deloitte Consulting), a firm affiliated with D&T, purchased certain intellectual property in May 2006 from an entity and certain individuals, including Andrew C. Boynton, (the Consulting Trustee) who served as a Trustee of each of the Funds until his resignation on September 28, 2012. In connection with the purchase, and subsequent to this purchase, Deloitte Consulting and its affiliates (together, Deloitte) engaged the Consulting Trustee to provide consulting services. The amounts paid to the Consulting Trustee in connection with the purchase and consulting services were significant to the Consulting Trustee. Deloitte ceased using the Consulting Trustee's services in 2010, with the final payment for services to the Consulting Trustee occurring in 2011.

D&T conducted an investigation of the facts and circumstances surrounding the business relationships described above and the extent to which they may have impacted D&T's audit process with respect to the financial statements of each of the Funds. D&T informed the Audit Committees of each of the Funds that D&T believes that the Consulting Trustee's relationship with Deloitte had no impact on the objectivity, integrity or impartiality of the audit teams conducting the audits of the Funds' financial statements. In reaching this conclusion, D&T informed the Audit Committees of each of the Funds that it had considered that the engagement partners and the primary audit managers of the D&T audit engagement teams who conducted the audits of the financial statements of each of the Funds were unaware of the initial purchase and of the Consulting Trustee's consulting relationship with Deloitte and, as a result, the audit teams' objectivity, integrity and impartiality was not impacted in conducting the audits of the respective Funds' financial statements. D&T acknowledged that certain aspects of the relationships described above with the Consulting Trustee caused a breach of D&T's compliance with the SEC's independence rules relating to business relationships with audit clients. D&T has further informed the Audit Committees of each of the Funds that, based upon D&T's investigation of the facts and circumstances, D&T does not believe that its prior audit reports with respect to any of the Funds' financial statements need to be withdrawn.

In addition to the information provided by D&T, the Audit Committees considered that, to their knowledge and based upon their investigation: none of the current or former members of the Audit Committees (other than the Consulting Trustee who was providing the services to Deloitte) and none of the employees of ALPS Funds Services, the administrator of the Funds, that had responsibility for the functions that the administrator performed for the Funds during the relevant period, was aware that the Consulting Trustee had sold intellectual property, or was providing services, to Deloitte. The Consulting Trustee also confirmed to the other members of the Audit Committees that he had not attempted directly or indirectly to influence D&T's planning or conduct of the audits of the Funds' financial statements.

Based on their reviews, the Audit Committees, with the Consulting Trustee who provided the services to Deloitte abstaining: (1) determined that it does not appear that the Consulting Trustee attempted to influence at any time D&T's planning or conduct of the audits of the Fund's financial statements, (2) determined that D&T's objectivity, integrity and professional skepticism was not impaired, and (3) agrees with the conclusion that the prior audit reports with respect to each of the Funds' financial statements need not be withdrawn.

Principal Accounting Fees and Services

The following table sets forth for each Fund the aggregate fees billed by Cohen for each Fund's fiscal year ended March 31, 2012 and D March 31, 2013 and D&T for tax services for each Fund's fiscal year ended March 31, 2012 as a result of professional services rendered for:

- (1) Audit Fees for professional services provided by Cohen for the audit of each Fund's annual financial statements or services that are normally provided by the accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements;
- (2) Audit-Related Fees for assurance and related services by Cohen that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit of each Fund's financial statements and are not reported under Audit Fees ;
- (3) Tax Fees for professional services by Cohen or D&T for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning; and
- (4) All Other Fees for products and services provided by Cohen other than those services reported in above under Audit Fees, Audit Related Fees and Tax Fees .

Each Fund's Charter requires that the Audit Committee pre-approve all audit and non-audit services to be provided by the independent registered public accountant to a Fund and all non-audit services to be provided by the independent registered public accountant to the Fund's investment adviser and service providers controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Fund's investment adviser (affiliates) that provide on-going services to a Fund (a Covered Services Provider), if the engagement relates directly to the operations and financial reporting of a Fund. Each Audit Committee may delegate its responsibility to pre-approve any such audit and permissible non-audit services to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, and the Chairman of the Audit Committee must report to the Fund's Audit Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting after the Chairman of the Audit Committee's pre-approval of such services, his decision(s). The Audit Committee may also establish detailed pre-approval policies and procedures for pre-approval of such services in accordance with applicable laws, including the delegation of some or all of an Audit Committee's pre-approval responsibilities to other persons (other than the investment adviser or a Fund's officers). Pre-approval by an Audit Committee of any permissible non-audit services is not required so long as: (i) the aggregate amount of all such permissible non-audit services provided to a Fund, the investment adviser, and any Covered Services Provider constitutes not more than 5% of the total amount of revenues paid by a Fund to its independent accountant during the fiscal year in which the permissible non-audit services are provided; (ii) the permissible non-audit services were not recognized by a Fund at the time of the engagement to be non-audit services; and (iii) such services are promptly brought to the attention of the applicable Audit Committee and approved by the Audit Committee or Audit Committee Chairman prior to the completion of the audit. All of the audit and audit-related services and tax services described above for which Cohen billed the Funds fees for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013, , were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

The Investment Adviser and Administrator

Clough is the investment adviser for each of the Funds, and its business address is One Post Office Square, 40th Floor, Boston, Massachusetts 02109.

ALPS is the administrator for each of the Funds, and its business address is 1290 Broadway, Suite 1100, Denver, Colorado 80203.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the 1934 Act and Section 30(h) of the 1940 Act, and the rules thereunder, require the Funds' officers and Trustees, officers and directors of the investment adviser, affiliated persons of the investment adviser, and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of a registered class of a Fund's Common Shares to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and the NYSE MKT and to furnish the Funds with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on a review of the reports filed, each Fund believes that during fiscal year ended March 31, 2013, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to each Fund's officers, Trustees and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with.

Broker Non-Votes and Abstentions

The affirmative vote of a plurality of votes cast for each nominee by the holders entitled to vote for a particular nominee is necessary for the election of a nominee.

For the purpose of electing nominees, abstentions or broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the election. Abstentions or broker non-votes, however, will be considered to be present at the Meeting for purposes of determining the existence of each Fund's quorum.

Shareholders of the Funds will be informed of the voting results of its Meeting in the Funds' Semi-Annual Report dated September 30, 2013.

OTHER MATTERS TO COME BEFORE THE MEETING

The Trustees of the Funds do not intend to present any other business at the Meeting, nor are they aware that any shareholder intends to do so. If, however, any other matters, including adjournments, are properly brought before a Meeting, the persons named in the accompanying form of proxy will vote thereon in accordance with their judgment.

Shareholder Communications with Board of Trustees

Shareholders may mail written communications to each Fund's Board, to committees of the Board or to specified individual Trustees in care of the Secretary of the Funds, 1290 Broadway, Suite 1100, Denver, Colorado 80203. All shareholder communications received by the Secretary will be forwarded promptly to the applicable Board, the relevant Board's committee or the specified individual Trustees, as applicable, except that the Secretary may, in good faith, determine that a shareholder communication should not be so forwarded if it does not reasonably relate to a Fund or its operations, management, activities, policies, service providers, Board, officers, shareholders or other matters relating to an investment in a Fund or is purely ministerial in nature.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Any shareholder proposal to be considered for inclusion in the Fund's proxy statement and form of proxy for the annual meeting of shareholders to be held in 2013 should have been received by the Secretary of a Fund no later than January 29, 2013. In addition, pursuant to the Fund's By-Laws, a shareholder is required to give to a Fund notice of, and specified information with respect to, any proposals that such shareholder intends to present at the 2014 annual meeting no earlier than December 30, 2013, and no later than January 29, 2014. Under the circumstances described in, and upon compliance with, Rule 14a-4(c) under the 1934 Act, a Fund may solicit proxies in connection with the 2014 annual meeting which confer discretionary authority to vote on any shareholder proposals of which the Secretary of a Fund does not receive notice in accordance with the aforementioned date. Timely submission of a proposal does not guarantee that such proposal will be included.
