at the balance sheet date. The results of operations are translated at average exchange rates during the period. The effects of exchange rate fluctuations in translating assets and liabilities of the Company into U.S. dollars are accumulated and reflected as a currency translation adjustment in the accompanying statements of shareholders' equity. Transactions gains and losses are included in net income. There are no material transaction gains or losses in the accompanying financial statements for the period presented. The functional currency used in the preparation of financial statements is the Chinese RMB while the currency used to present the financial statements is the U.S. dollar. The functional currency is the currency in which the Company operates and it largely reflects the economic substance of the underlying events and circumstance of the Company.

Employee Benefits Plan of the Subsidiary

Regarding the Subsidiary's employee benefits plan, China has been undergoing a significant reform process on its employee welfare and fringe benefits administration. Any enterprise operating in China is subject to government-mandated employee welfare and fringe benefit contribution as a part of operating expense to State Administration of Labor Affairs. However, the Subsidiary doesn't participate in this multi-employer defined contribution plan to provide employees with certain retirement, medical and other fringe benefits.

Commitments and Contingencies

Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigations, fines and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the assessment and/or remediation can be reasonably estimated.

NOTE 9 – Equity

The paid-in capital of the Company is HKD 10,000 (equivalent to USD 1,285) that has been fully paid as of September 30 and March 31, 2011. Mr. Danny Qing Chang paid HKD 10,000, taking 100% of the paid-in capital of the Company.

Pursuant to PRC laws and regulations, the Subsidiary is required to set aside at least 10% of the after-tax profits on an annual basis to a general reserve. This reserve should be used for the development of the enterprise and may not be used towards the payment of dividends. As of September 30, 2011 and March 31, 2011, the reserve was USD 786,407 and USD 703,444, respectively, included as part of retained earnings.

NOTE 10 – Income Tax

The income tax rates applicable to the Company and the Subsidiary are 16.5% and 25%, respectively. The income tax expense for the six months ended September 30, 2011 and for the period ended March 31, 2011 is as follows:

	Period ended September 30, 2011	Period ended March 31, 2011
Current taxes	$ 276,543	$ 214,612
Deferred taxes	(1,845)	(21,585)
Net income tax expense	$ 274,698	$ 193,027

Income tax expense attributable to income from continuing operations differed from the amounts computed by applying the US federal statutory income tax rate of 34% primarily due to the difference in income tax rates between US and China.

The Company adopted ASC 740, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. In assessing the recoverability of its deferred tax assets, the management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of the deferred tax assets is dependent on the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. The management considers historical and projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment.

The management of the Company believes that the Company will continue to make profits in the future and hence deferred tax assets should be recognized as of September 30, 2011.

Deferred income taxes reflect the net effects of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Significant components of net deferred tax assets and liabilities as of September 30, 2011 and March 31, 2011 are as follows:

	September 30, 2011	March 31, 2011

Special reserve *	581,158	486,854
	$ 636,433	$ 563,115

*Pursuant to PRC laws and regulations, the Subsidiary is required to accrue a special reserve for safety of production. The reserve is based on the volume of production of the mine. The formula is the production volume times the defined ratios set by the government. This fund should be used to improve safety of the manufacturing condition of the Subsidiary and is prohibited for the declaration of dividends. As of September 30 and March 31, 2011, the special reserve was USD 581,158 and 486,854, respectively, included as part of other non-current liabilities.

NOTE 12 – Leases

The Subsidiary in China signed an agreement with the local village neighborhood committee to mine the hills. The duration of the agreement is from November 2, 2007 to May 1, 2018. According to the signed agreement, the initial down payment is RMB 5 million which was paid by the Subsidiary before October 15, 2007. The annually payments are calculated based on the exploitation volume at 2.5%, which should be paid on the quarterly basis. For the six month period ended September 30, 2011 and for the period ended March 31, 2011, the payments for this lease was USD 68,204 and USD 356,000, respectively.

NOTE 13 – Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of the Company's current assets and current liabilities approximate their carrying value because of their short-term maturity. Such financial instruments are classified as current and are expected to be liquidated within the next twelve months.

NOTE 14 – Commitments and Contingencies

Based on the above-mentioned signed agreement (Note 12) and the term of minimum payment within the first 5 years, the Subsidiary in China needs to pay about USD 967,000 until November 2012.

As of the date of the report, the Company had no material contingent liabilities.

NOTE 15 – Subsequent Events after Balance Sheet Date

After the share transfer transaction between the Company and the former shareholders of the Subsidiary was completed, the Subsidiary applied for the foreign-investment approval from the authorized government of P.R.C. On April 26, 2011, the Subsidiary got the final foreign-investment approval from the Foreign Investment Administration of P.R.C. However, as of the date of this report, the updated business license of the Subsidiary has not yet been obtained from the local industry and commercial bureau.

Besides the above matter, the management has evaluated the subsequent events and determined that there were no material events affecting the financial statements of the Company requiring recognition or disclosure.

Item 2. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of H&F Ironman Limited (“HK Ironman”)

This Proxy Statement contains forward-looking statements. These statements relate to future events or HK Ironman’s future financial performance. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as “may,” “will,” “should,” “expect,” “plan” “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential” or “continue,” the negative or other comparable terminology. These statements are only predictions. Actual events or results may differ materially. Factors that may cause HK Ironman’s results to differ include, but are not limited to changes in the scope or timing of HK Ironman’s projects; changes in demand for iron ore; changes in availability of raw materials which could cause delays or cancellations of key contracts; the timing, rescheduling or cancellation of significant customer contracts and agreements, or consolidation by or the loss of key customers; failure to successfully integrate acquired operations; and competition in the marketplace which could reduce revenues and profit margins.

Although HK Ironman believes that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, there is no guarantee of future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. Moreover, neither HK Ironman, nor any other person, assumes responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the forward-looking statements. HK Ironman is under no obligation to update any of the forward-looking statements. HK Ironman believes this information is useful to investors because it provides a basis for measuring the operating performance of HK ironman’s business and cash flow. The following discussion should be read in conjunction with its audited consolidated financial statements and the related notes and other financial information appearing elsewhere in this proxy statement. Readers are also urged to carefully review and consider the various disclosures made by IGC, which attempt to advise interested parties of the factors that affect IGC’s revenues and performance.

Overview

HK Ironman was incorporated as H&F Ironman Limited, a private limited company, on December 20, 2010 in Hong Kong with a registered office at Room 17 6/F Shun on Commercial Building 112-114, Des Voeux Road Central, Hong Kong. HK Ironman’s sole asset is its ownership of a 95% equity interest in Linxi HeFei Economic and Trade Co., Ltd. (“PRC Ironman”), which was incorporated in China on January 8, 2008. HK Ironman was formed for the express purpose of acquiring and owning PRC Ironman. HK Ironman acquired PRC Ironman in January 2011. As a result of that acquisition, PRC Ironman is now considered an equity joint venture (“EJV”) because of its foreign ownership through HK Ironman.

PRC Ironman was incorporated as Linxi Hefei Economic & Trade Co., Ltd. in China on January 8, 2005. PRC Ironman is engaged in the processing and extraction of iron ore from sand and dirt at its beneficiation plant on 2.2 square kilometers of hills, with iron ore deposits of well over 3 million tons in southwest LinXi in the autonomous region of Inner Mongolia. Linxi is located in eastern Inner Mongolia and is under the administration of Chifeng City. The city of Chifeng, Inner Mongolia is located 250 miles from Beijing, 185 miles from Tianjin Port and 125 miles from Jinzhou Port and well connected by roads, planes and railroad.

PRC Ironman’s technique for extracting ore consists of two processes. First, naturally occurring sand mixed with sparse amounts of iron ore is processed through a dry separation process, which uses magnets to extract loosely bound iron ore. Water is then used as a solvent to remove dirt and sand. The slurry containing water, dirt, sand and iron ore is then further purified by passing it through magnets in a wet extraction process. The end result is high-grade iron ore that has a 65-67% iron (Fe) content. PRC Ironman currently produces 66% iron ore, and then sells the high-grade ore to steel mills and other traders in China. Its customers are mostly traders and steel mills located mostly around the port of Tianjin, China.

Edgar Filing: - Form

PRC Ironman's business objective is to operate and grow an environmentally friendly company that extracts and processes ore from barren hills and leaves in place a sustainable green environment. PRC Ironman has a license to operate in the hills until the year 2018. PRC Ironman is located in southwest LinXi in the autonomous region of Inner Mongolia. PRC Ironman's office is in the capital city of Chifeng. It has access via highways to Tianjin port, which provides access to steel mills in the northeastern part of China. PRC Ironman customers mostly come to its site to pick up the refined and processed high-grade ore.

Company Overview

HK Ironman operates a beneficiation plant through its subsidiary in China, PRC Ironman. PRC Ironman's business is to mine, extract and process high-grade iron ore from the sand located in the hills of Inner Mongolia. It currently operates on an area of 2.2 square kilometers with estimated reserves of over 3 million tons, which at about $140 per ton translates to about $420 million of available iron reserves. Prices of ore have moved from a high of $180 per ton at the end of 2010 to about $116 per ton and recently have moved up to the $130-$140 per ton range. PRC Ironman's permit to mine is for 6.6 square kilometers. However, it currently operates on an area of 2.2 square miles, but is free to expand. Therefore the actual potential reserves are over $1.2 billion over the 6.6 square kilometers. Expanding the operations to a larger footprint would require an expansion of the equipment used to process and produce high-grade ore.

PRC Ironman's plant extracts iron ore from the sand by using two processes. The first process is a dry separation process. Trucks of sand are poured into a separator that employs 19 magnets. The magnets separate the sand from the iron ore. About 35 trucks of sand are distilled to one truck of higher iron content sand. In one day PRC ironman may process as much as 30,000 tons of sand through the dry separators. The second process is a wet process, which involves mixing the processed sand and ore with water and then using magnets to separate the ore from the slurry. The entire process is continuous and runs during daylight. The sand that is separated from the ore is redistributed to the hills. The water is filtered and reused up to three times before pumping it to grass, plants and shrubs that are planted in the hills to create a sustainable environment. Approximately, for every two trucks of sand from the dry separator PRC Ironman generates one truck of 65- 67% high-grade iron ore. In summary, about 70 trucks of sand are used to extract one truckload of processed high-grade ore.

Core Business Competencies, competition and seasonality

As the infrastructure of China is built out, the demand for raw materials and especially steel is very high. China is a net importer of iron ore from Australia, Brazil, India and other countries. China is the largest mineral trader in the world accounting for 25% of the trading in 2010. The iron ore and steel global trade in 2010 was about $395 billion and China accounted for $83 billion or 21.1 % of the global trade. Global prices for iron ore are set through negotiations between China Steel and the large suppliers Rio Tinto, BHP Billiton, and Vale. Once prices are set the rest of the global markets follow that pricing. Prices for iron ore have increased about 7 fold from 2003 to a high of $180 per metric ton at the end of 2010. In 2011, iron ore prices have been between $130 and $150 per metric ton.

The core competencies of PRC Ironman are 1) its access to the sand ore in the hills of Inner Mongolia, 2) its knowledge, history and ability to work in Inner Mongolia and Mongolia, 3) its strong relationships at the appropriate levels of government in the autonomous region of Inner Mongolia, 4) in-depth knowledge of the licensing process for mines and 5) its knowledge of logistics in the autonomous region of Inner Mongolia. PRC ironman's customers include local traders and steel mills near the port of Tianjin. Other than about 10 kilometers of dirt road leading over a bridge and over the hills, the access to Tianjin port and steel mills located there is excellent consisting of multi-lane highways. The competition in the immediate area consists of three other operators and is fairly limited mainly because demand for ore within China is currently so high that the market can absorb almost any amount of ore that is produced.

In 2011, the area of Chifeng and Inner Mongolia was subject to inclement weather. Typically the months of May through September are rainy. On average the rainfall is between 1.1 inches per month to a high of 4.7 inches per month, typically in July. This level of rainfall is not disruptive to the production of ore and in most cases the plant is operational. However, in 2011, the area received very heavy rainfall that caused flooding through the region. It had a serious impact on PRC Ironman's operations, as PRC Ironman could not operate the mines and the plant for over four months. The heavy rains and flooding destroyed over 16,000 houses and over 6000 hectares of farmland. It also destroyed the bridge connecting our production facilities to the main highways. No damage was sustained to the plant because the plant is located high in the hills. However during that time PRC Ironman was unable to produce ore. The rains have since stopped and the floodwaters have receded and PRC Ironman is back in operation.

PRC Ironman has a work force of about 120 employees, consultants and contract workers mostly in Chifeng with a sales and liaison office in Beijing. The work force consists mostly of truck drivers, engineers, accountants, sales personnel and executives. The truck drivers tend to be contract workers. PRC Ironman has represented to IGC that it is in compliance with local labor regulations and PRC Ironman tends to be the employer of choice as there are very few industries in the area. We currently do not participate in a multi-employer defined contribution plan to provide employees with certain retirement, medical and other fringe benefits because most of our workforce is contract workers that are employed thru agencies or other companies.

China has strict environmental regulations and PRC Ironman represents that it is in compliance with these regulations. As part of the mandate in the area, PRC Ironman has undertaken a conservation effort as well as an effort to create a sustainable environment. PRC Ironman actively plants grass and shrubs in the hills after they are excavated and uses the water from the processing plant to irrigate the grass and shrubs.

PRC Ironman buys and sells in only one currency, the RMB. Prices for ore are set in USD and then converted to RMB. PRC Ironman has no currency risk. However PRC Ironman is subject to price volatility. HK Ironman is located in Hong Kong and PRC Ironman is located in China. The accounts for both companies are kept in Chinese GAAP and the functional currency is RMB. PRC Ironman maintains an English language web site at www.hfironman.net.

Effects of the Acquisition

HK Ironman will account for the Acquisition as a change of ownership. No new shares will be issued to the purchasers of HK Ironman. Shares held by the current shareholders will be sold to the purchasers in exchange for shares of the purchaser. The Acquisition of 100% of HK Ironman's stock by IGC will be tax free to HK Ironman and PRC Ironman.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires HK Ironman management to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. HK Ironman has based its estimates and judgments on assumptions that it finds reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from such estimates under different conditions and could have a material impact on the financial statements, and it is possible that such changes could occur in the near term.

Significant estimates and assumptions are used when accounting for certain items, such as but not limited to, revenue recognition, the useful lives and the evaluation of impairment of property and equipment, the income tax, the contingencies and the provision for impairment of receivables and advances. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

The summarized balance sheet for HK Ironman and the statement of income is shown below.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

HK Ironman being incorporated on December 20, 2010, hence there were no operations for the six months period ended September 2010.

Six Months Ended September 30, 2011 compared to period ended March 31, 2011

Revenues

Total revenue was USD 3.04 million in the half year ended September 30, 2011, and USD 1.05 million for the period ended March 31, 2011, an increase of 188%, which was majorly because the revenues for the period ended March 31, 2011 only included the period from December 20, 2010 to March 31, 2011 against the six months September revenues. The revenues for the six months period from April 2011 to September 30, 2011 reflect only about two months of operations as the plant was shut down for over four months because of heavy rainfall and flooding. PRC Ironman had to wait for the floodwaters to recede and the bridge connecting its plant to the main highways to be rebuilt. It has since been rebuilt and logistics are once moving.

Expenses

HK Ironman's expenses principally consisted of materials, employee compensation and benefits, depreciation and amortization, interest expense and general and administrative expense. In the six months ended September 30, 2011, total expenses increased by USD 1.28 million, or 198%, as compared with the period ended March 31, 2011. Cost of revenue increased by USD 1.22 million, or 48%, as compared with the period ended March 31, 2011. The increase was due to the different periodicity under comparison and due to higher scale of operation during the six months period ended September 30, 2011. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by USD 69 thousand, or 203%, as compared with the period ended March 31, 2011. The increase was due to the different period under comparison and due to higher scale of operation during the six months period ended September 30, 2011. During the time that the plant was shut down PRC Ironman incurred general and administrative expenses, which decreased its overall operating margins.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

HK Ironman's senior management establishes the overall liquidity and capital policies of the company. Its liquidity and funding risk management policies are designed to ensure that HK Ironman is able to access adequate financing to service its financial obligations when they are due. The principal sources of financing for the business are stockholders' equity and short-term borrowings from banks.

As of September 30, 2011, HK Ironman's net capital exceeded the net capital requirements. During the six months ended September 30, 2011, HK Ironman showed $7.66 million in cash and cash equivalents, up from $149,993 at the end of March 31, 2011. Of the cash shown at the end of September 30, 2011, $4.8 million was generated from the realization of a short-term loan receivable, $1.1 million from income during the six-month period, and about $1.2 million from a change in current liability and the rest from receivables, and other sources. Prior to September 30, 2011 PRC Ironman had kept most of its cash as a deposit with an unrelated party. However during the quarter, ended September 30, 2011, pursuant to discussions with IGC, that money which in the March 31, 2011 statements is booked as Other Current Assets was brought back into the bank account of PRC Ironman. It thus moved from Other Current assets to Cash and cash equivalents. HK Ironman did not make any investments in property plant and equipment during the six months ended September 30, 2011, and was not engaged in any investing or financing activity.

HK Ironman believes that its net income and existing cash balances will be sufficient to meet its cash requirements for the next twelve months. In the longer term, the company believes future cash requirements will continue to be met by its cash from operations, credit arrangements and equity financings as required.

Accounting Developments and their impact on HK Ironman

In January 2010, the FASB issued an amendment to the accounting standards related to the disclosures about an entity's use of fair value measurements. Under these amendments, entities will be required to provide enhanced disclosures about transfers into and out of the Level 1 (fair value determined based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities) and Level 2 (fair value determined based on significant other observable inputs) classifications, provide separate disclosures about purchases, sales, issuances and settlements relating to the tabular reconciliation of beginning and ending balances of the Level 3 (fair value determined based on significant unobservable inputs) classification and provide greater disaggregation for each class of assets and liabilities that use fair value measurements. Except for the detailed Level 3 roll-forward disclosures, the new standard was effective for the Company for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 31, 2009. The adoption of this accounting standards amendment did not have a material impact on the HK Ironman's disclosure or consolidated financial results. The requirement to provide detailed disclosures about the purchases, sales, issuances and settlements in the roll-forward activity for Level 3 fair value measurements is effective for HK Ironman for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 31, 2010. The adoption of this accounting standard did not have a material impact on the HK Ironman's disclosure or consolidated financial results.

Table of Contents

In December 2010, the FASB issued a new accounting standard, which requires that Step 2 of the goodwill impairment test be performed for reporting units whose carrying value is zero or negative. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2010 and interim periods within those years. Adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on the HK Ironman's disclosure or consolidated financial results.

In December 2010, the FASB issued new guidance clarifying some of the disclosure requirements related to business combinations that are material on an individual or aggregate basis. Specifically, the guidance states that, if comparative financial statements are presented, the entity should disclose revenue and earnings of the combined entity as though the business combination(s) that occurred during the current year occurred as of the beginning of the comparable prior annual reporting period only. Additionally, the new standard expands the supplemental pro forma disclosure required by the authoritative guidance to include a description of the nature and amount of material, non-recurring pro forma adjustments directly attributable to the business combination in the reported pro forma revenue and earnings. This guidance became effective January 1, 2011. Adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on the HK Ironman's disclosure or consolidated financial results.

In May 2011, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued ASU No. 2011-04, "Fair Value Measurement: Amendments to Achieve Common Fair Value Measurement and Disclosure Requirements in U.S. GAAP and IFRS". This update defines fair value, clarifies a framework to measure fair value and requires specific disclosures of fair value measurements. The guidance is effective for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after January 1, 2012 and is required to be applied retrospectively. HK Ironman does not expect adoption of this guidance to have a material impact on its financial condition or results of operations.

In June 2011, the FASB issued ASU 2011-05, which is now part of ASC 220: "Presentation of Comprehensive Income". The new guidance will require companies to present the components of net income and other comprehensive income either as one continuous statement or as two consecutive statements. It eliminates the option to present components of other comprehensive income as part of the statement of changes in stockholders' equity. The standard does not change the items, which must be reported in other comprehensive income. These provisions are to be applied retrospectively and will be effective for us as of January 1, 2012. Because this guidance impacts presentation only, it will have no effect on HK Ironman's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors
H&F Ironman Limited

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of H&F Ironman Limited (the Company) as of March 31, 2011 and the related consolidated statements of operations, shareholders' equity and cash flows for the period then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of H&F Ironman Limited at March 31, 2011 and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for the period then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

NOTE 1 – Organization and Nature of Business

H&F Ironman Limited (the “Company”) is a private limited Company incorporated on December 20, 2010 in Hong Kong. The registered capital of the Company is HKD 10,000, equaling to USD 1,285, in which Mr. Danny Qing Chang holds 100%.

This Company in turn operates through one subsidiary in China that is in the business of processing and trading iron ore. The Company has an investment ownership of ninety-five percent (95%) of Linxi HeFei Economic and Trade Co., Ltd.. The ownership transfer was completed on January 18, 2011.

Linxi HeFei Economic and Trade Co., Ltd. (the “Subsidiary”) is a private limited company established on January 8, 2008 in Linxi, the People’s Republic of China (“PRC”). The Subsidiary obtained a business license (No.15042400000821), which was issued by the State Administration of Industry and Commerce of Linxi, PRC.

The Subsidiary’s registered operation period is 20 years. The main business of the subsidiary based in the PRC is processing and trading of minerals.

The remaining five (5%) percent of the equity in the Subsidiary is owned by its current Chairman Mr. Zhang Hua based in Chifeng, PRC.

Accounting treatment of acquisition

The acquisition transaction of the Subsidiary was determined to be a common control transfer in accordance with the guidance in ASC 805, Business Combinations (erstwhile SFAS No. 141R and EITF 02-5). Accordingly, such acquisition was accounted under the pooling of interest method whereby no adjustments were made to the carrying value of assets and liabilities.

NOTE 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of preparation of consolidated financial statements

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) to reflect the financial position and results of operations of the Company.

Accounting Period

The Company’s fiscal year is from April 1 to next March 31.

Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and the Subsidiary, after the elimination of inter-company accounts and transactions.

Table of Contents

Non-controlling Interests

Non-controlling interests in the Company's consolidated financial statements result from the accounting for non-controlling interests in the Subsidiary. Non-controlling interests represent the Subsidiary's earnings and components of other comprehensive income that are attributed to the non-controlling parties' equity interests. The Company consolidates the Subsidiary into its consolidated financial statements. Net earnings attributed to non-controlling interests represent the share of net earnings that is attributed to the equity that is owned by the current chairman of the Subsidiary. Transactions between the Company and the Subsidiary have been eliminated in the consolidated financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue has been recognized when all of the following criteria have been satisfied:

Revenue is recognized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the sales price is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured. Revenue from sale of goods is recognized when substantial risks and rewards of ownership are transferred to the buyer under the terms of the contract.

For the sale of goods, the timing of the transfer of substantial risks and rewards of ownership is based on the contract terms negotiated with the buyer. The Company considers the guidance provided under ASC 615 in determining revenue from sales of goods. Considerations have been given to all four conditions for:

- Contract – Persuasive evidence of our arrangement with the customers;
- Delivery – Based on the terms of the contracts, the Company assesses whether the underlying goods have been delivered and therefore the risks and rewards of ownership are completely transferred;
- Fixed or determinable price – The Company enters into contracts where the price for the goods being sold is fixed and not contingent upon other factors.
- Collection is deemed probable – At the time of recognition of revenue, the Company makes an assessment of its ability to collect the receivable arising on the sale of the goods and determines that collection is probable.

Revenue for any sale is recognized only if all of the four conditions set forth above are met. These criteria are assessed by the Company at the time of each sale. In the absence of meeting any of the criteria set out above, the Company defers revenue recognition until all of the four conditions are met.

Table of Contents

Accounts Receivable

The Company evaluates the collectability of selected accounts receivable on a case-by-case basis and makes adjustments to the bad debt reserve for expected losses. The Company considers factors such as ability to pay, bankruptcy, credit ratings and payment history. For all other accounts, the Company estimates reserves for bad debts based on general aging, experience and past-due status of the accounts. If circumstances related to customers change, estimates of recoverability would be further adjusted.

Inventories

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost (weighted average) or estimated net realizable value and includes the cost of materials, labor and manufacturing overhead. The Company periodically reviews inventory for evidence of slow-moving or obsolete parts, and the estimated reserve is based on management's reviews of inventories on hand, compared to estimated future usage and sales and the likelihood of obsolescence.

Property and Equipment

Properties and equipment are recorded at cost and are stated net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation expense is determined using the straight-line method over the shorter of the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Machinery	10 years
Electronic equipment	3-5 years
Vehicles	10 years
Buildings	5-20 years
Others	5-10 years

Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Expenditures, which significantly increase value or extend lives, are capitalized. Upon retirement or disposition of plant and equipment, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is recognized in income.

Impairment

The Company evaluates the carrying value of its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable. Such evaluation relies on a number of financial factors, including operating results, future anticipated cash flows, business plans and certain economic projections and non-financial factors such as changes in operating environment, competitive information, impact of change in government policies, etc.

For assets that the Company intends to hold for use, if the total of the expected future undiscounted cash flows produced by the assets is less than the carrying amount of the assets, a loss is recognized for the difference between the fair value and carrying value of the assets. For assets the Company intends to dispose of by sale, a loss is recognized for the amount by which the estimated fair value less cost to sell is less than the carrying value of the assets. Fair value is determined based on quoted market prices, if available, or other valuation techniques including discounted future net cash flows.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Edgar Filing: - Form

Financial instruments of the Company are primarily comprised of cash, accounts receivable, account payables and accrued liabilities. As of March 31, 2011, the carrying values approximated their fair values.

F-93

Table of Contents

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes that requires an entity to recognize deferred tax liabilities and assets. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequence attributable to the difference between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts in the financial statements. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the enacted tax rate expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that included the enacted date. A valuation allowance is established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

The income tax rate applicable to the profits of the holding Company is 16.5%. Further pursuant to the New Income Tax Law effective on January 1, 2008, the applicable income tax rate for the Subsidiary in China is 25%.

Leased Mineral Rights

Initial costs to obtain leased mineral rights are capitalized and amortized to operations as depletion expense within the leased periods, using the straight-line method. Depletion expenses are included in depreciation and amortization on the accompanying statement of operations and were USD 16,986 for the period ended March 31, 2011.

Currency Translation

The accounts and operations of the Company are translated in accordance with ASC 830, "Foreign Currency Matters," which requires that assets and liabilities of foreign operations be translated using the exchange rate in effect at the balance sheet date. The results of operations are translated at average exchange rates during the period. The effects of exchange rate fluctuations in translating assets and liabilities of the Company into U.S. dollars are accumulated and reflected as a currency translation adjustment in the accompanying statements of shareholders' equity. Transactions gains and losses are included in net income. There are no material transaction gains or losses in the accompanying financial statements for the period presented. The functional currency used in the preparation of financial statements is the Chinese RMB while the currency used to present the financial statements is the U.S. dollar. The functional currency is the currency in which the Company operates and it largely reflects the economic substance of the underlying events and circumstance of the Company.

Employee Benefits Plan of the Subsidiary

Regarding the Subsidiary's employee benefits plan, China has been undergoing a significant reform process on its employee welfare and fringe benefits administration. Any enterprise operating in China is subject to government-mandated employee welfare and fringe benefit contribution as a part of operating expense to State Administration of Labor Affairs. However, the Subsidiary doesn't participate in this multi-employer defined contribution plan to provide employees with certain retirement, medical and other fringe benefits.

Commitments and Contingencies

Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigations, fines and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the assessment and/or remediation can be reasonably estimated.

Table of Contents

NOTE 3 – Accounts Receivables

The accounts receivable, net of allowances, amounted to $ 4,080,331 as of March 31, 2011. The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts based on present and prospective financial condition of the customer and the inherent credit risk. Accounts receivable are not collateralized. The allowance amounts to $ 72,055 as of March 31, 2011.

NOTE 4 – Inventories

The inventories are comprised of:

	March 31, 2011
Low-value goods	$ 1,567
Finished goods	-
Total	$ 1,567

The management of the Company believes that no inventory reserve was necessary as of and for the period ended March 31, 2011.

NOTE 5 – Other Assets

Other current assets consist of the following:

	March 31, 2011
Prepaid expenses	$ -
Amount due from staff	524,800
Amount due from third party	533,830
Interest – bearing loan to third party	4,816,461
Total	$ 5,875,091

The management of the Company believes that no provision for other receivables and prepayments was necessary for the period ended March 31, 2011. Amount due from staff and amount due from third party are short-term advances and they are expected to be collected within one year.

Table of Contents

NOTE 6 –Property, Plant and Equipment

A summary of property and equipment is as follows:

	March 31, 2011
Plant	$ 2,613,387
Machinery	2,943,708
Electronic equipment	1,826
Vehicles	35,987
Others	24,481
Total Cost	$ 5,619,389
Accumulated depreciation	1,262,114
Total, net	$ 4,357,275

Depreciation expense for the period ended March 31, 2011 amounts to USD 151,606.

As of March 31, 2011, machinery totaling a carrying amount of RMB 8.8 million (equivalent to USD 1.34 million) has been pledged against the short-term bank loan.

NOTE 7 –Short-term Bank Borrowings

As of March 31, 2011, the Company had a bank loan amounting to RMB 3 million (equivalent to USD 457,568) from Linxi Urban Credit Cooperatives. The maturity date of the loan is November 30, 2011 and the annual interest rate is 12.474%. The machinery was pledged as collateral for the loan, and hence the borrowing is in the nature of a secured liability.

NOTE 8 – Related Party Transactions and Balances

The followings are related parties where a control relationship exists:

Name	Relationship
Danny Qing Chang	Major Investor
Zhang Hua	Five percent minority interest holder at the Subsidiary

Table of Contents

Amount due to/ from related parties:

	Balance as of March 31, 2011
Due from related parties
Zhang Hua	$61,010

The above ending balances were generated from the loans that were from the Company to the related parties.

	Balance as of March 31, 2011
Due to related parties
Zhang Hua	$293,978

The above related party is the shareholder who transferred the shares of the Subsidiary.

NOTE 9 – Equity

The paid-in capital of the Company is HKD 10,000 (equivalent to USD 1,285) that has been fully paid as of March 31, 2011. Mr. Danny Qing Chang paid HKD 10,000, taking 100% of the paid-in capital of the Company.

Pursuant to PRC laws and regulations, the Subsidiary is required to set aside at least 10% of the after-tax profits on an annual basis to a general reserve. This reserve should be used for the development of the enterprise and may not be used towards the payment of dividends. As of March 31, 2011 the reserve was USD 703,444 included as part of retained earnings.

NOTE 10 – Income Tax

The income tax rates applicable to the Company and the Subsidiary are 16.5% and 25%, respectively. The income tax expense for the period ended March 31, 2011 is as follows:

	Period ended March 31, 2011
Current taxes	$ 214,612
Deferred taxes	(21,585)
Net income tax expense	$ 193,027

Table of Contents

Income tax expense attributable to income from continuing operations differed from the amounts computed by applying the US federal statutory income tax rate of 34% primarily due to the difference in income tax rates between US and China.

The Company adopted ASC 740, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. In assessing the recoverability of its deferred tax assets, the management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of the deferred tax assets is dependent on the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. The management considers historical and projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment.

The management of the Company believes that the Company will continue to make profits in the future and hence deferred tax assets should be recognized as of March 31, 2011.

Deferred income taxes reflect the net effects of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Significant components of net deferred tax assets and liabilities as of March 31, 2011 are as follows:

	March 31, 2011
Deferred tax assets:
Depreciation and amortization	$ -
Accrual accounting for financial reporting whereas cash accounting for tax purpose	165,963
Others
Net deferred tax assets	$ 165,963

NOTE 11 – Other Payables and Accruals

Other current payables and accruals consist of the following:

	March 31, 2011
Statutory dues payable	$ 4,068,962
Employee related liabilities	25,992
Other liabilities	132,266
	$ 4,227,220

Table of Contents

Other non-current liabilities consist of the following:

	As of March 31, 2011
Provision for expense	$ 76,261
Special reserve *	486,854
	$ 563,115

*Pursuant to PRC laws and regulations, the Subsidiary is required to accrue a special reserve for safety of production. The reserve is based on the volume of production of the mine. The formula is the production volume times the defined ratios set by the government. This fund should be used to improve safety of the manufacturing condition of the Subsidiary and is prohibited for the declaration of dividends. As of March 31, 2011, the special reserve was USD 486,854 included as part of other non-current liabilities.

NOTE 12 – Leases

The Subsidiary in China signed an agreement with the local village neighborhood committee to mine the hills. The duration of the agreement is from November 2, 2007 to May 1, 2018. According to the signed agreement, the initial down payment is RMB 5 million which was paid by the Subsidiary before October 15, 2007. The annual payments are calculated based on the exploitation volume at 2.5% which should be paid on the quarterly basis. For the period ended March 31, 2011, the payment for this lease was USD 356,000.

NOTE 13 – Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of the Company's current assets and current liabilities approximate their carrying value because of their short-term maturity. Such financial instruments are classified as current and are expected to be liquidated within the next twelve months.

NOTE 14 – Commitments and Contingencies

Based on the above-mentioned signed agreement (Note 12) and the term of minimum payment within the first 5 years, the Subsidiary in China needs to pay around USD 967,000 until November 2012.

As of the date of the report, the Company had no material contingent liabilities.

NOTE 15 – Subsequent Events after Balance Sheet Date

After the share transfer transaction between the Company and the former shareholders of the Subsidiary was completed, the Subsidiary applied for the foreign-investment approval from the authorized government of P.R.C. On April 26, 2011, the Subsidiary got the final foreign-investment approval from the Foreign Investment Administration of P.R.C. However, as of the date of this report, the updated business license of the Subsidiary has not yet been obtained from the local industry and commercial bureau.

Besides the above matter, the management has evaluated the subsequent events and determined that there were no material events affecting the financial statements of the Company requiring recognition or disclosure.

The Board of Directors
Linxi HeFei Economic and Trade Co., Ltd. Trade Limited

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Linxi HeFei Economic and Trade Co., Ltd. (the "Company") as of March 31, 2011 and March 31, 2010 and the related statements of operations, statement of shareholders' equity and comprehensive income and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Linxi HeFei Economic and Trade Co., Ltd. at March 31, 2011 and March 31, 2010 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

NOTE 1 – Organization and Nature of Business

Linxi HeFei Economic and Trade Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) is a private limited company established on January 8, 2008 in Linxi, the People’s Republic of China (“PRC”). The Company obtained the business license (No.150424000000821), which was issued by the State Administration of Industry and Commerce of Linxi, PRC.

The registered capital of the Company is RMB 2 million, equaling to USD 273,800, in which Mr. Zhang Hua took 80% and Mr. Xu Jianjun took the remaining 20%. Mr. Zhang Hua and Mr. Xu Jiajun transferred 75% and 20% respectively to H&F Ironman Limited on January 18, 2011. Thus, as of March 31, 2011, 95% of the Company’s registered capital is held by H&F Ironman Limited.

The Company’s registered operation period is 20 years. The main business of the Company is processing and trading of mineral.

NOTE 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of preparation of financial statements

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) to reflect the financial position and results of operations of the Group.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue has been recognized when all of the following criteria have been satisfied:

Revenue is recognized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the sales price is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured. Revenue from sale of goods is recognized when substantial risks and rewards of ownership are transferred to the buyer under the terms of the contract.

Table of Contents

For the sale of goods, the timing of the transfer of substantial risks and rewards of ownership is based on the contract terms negotiated with the buyer. The Company considers the guidance provided under ASC 615 in determining revenue from sales of goods. Considerations have been given to all four conditions for:

- Contract – Persuasive evidence of our arrangement with the customers;
- Delivery – Based on the terms of the contracts, the Company assesses whether the underlying goods have been delivered and therefore the risks and rewards of ownership are completely transferred;
- Fixed or determinable price – The Company enters into contracts where the price for the goods being sold is fixed and not contingent upon other factors.
- Collection is deemed probable – At the time of recognition of revenue, the Company makes an assessment of its ability to collect the receivable arising on the sale of the goods and determines that collection is probable.

Revenue for any sale is recognized only if all of the four conditions set forth above are met. These criteria are assessed by the Company at the time of each sale. In the absence of meeting any of the criteria set out above, the Company defers revenue recognition until all of the four conditions are met.

Accounts Receivable

The Company evaluates the collectability of selected accounts receivable on a case-by-case basis and makes adjustments to the bad debt reserve for expected losses. The Company considers factors such as ability to pay, bankruptcy, credit ratings and payment history. For all other accounts, the Company estimates reserves for bad debts based on general aging, experience and past-due status of the accounts. If circumstances related to customers change, estimates of recoverability would be further adjusted. The Company recognized a provision for doubtful accounts of USD 83,272 in 2011 and USD 9,566 in 2010.

Inventories

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost (weighted average) or estimated net realizable value and includes the cost of materials, labor and manufacturing overhead. The Company periodically reviews inventory for evidence of slow-moving or obsolete parts, and the estimated reserve is based on management’s reviews of inventories on hand, compared to estimated future usage and sales and the likelihood of obsolescence.

Property and Equipment

Properties and equipment are recorded at cost and are stated net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation expense is determined using the straight-line method over the shorter of the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Machinery	10 years
Electronic equipment	3-5 years
Vehicles	10 years
Buildings	5-20 years
Others	5-10 years

Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Expenditures, which significantly increase value or extend lives, are capitalized. Upon retirement or disposition of plant and equipment, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is recognized in income.

F-107

Table of Contents

Impairment

The Company evaluates the carrying value of its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable. Such evaluation relies on a number of financial factors, including operating results, future anticipated cash flows, business plans and certain economic projections and non-financial factors such as changes in operating environment, competitive information, impact of change in government policies, etc.

For assets that the Company intends to hold for use, if the total of the expected future undiscounted cash flows produced by the assets is less than the carrying amount of the assets, a loss is recognized for the difference between the fair value and carrying value of the assets. For assets the Company intends to dispose of by sale, a loss is recognized for the amount by which the estimated fair value less cost to sell is less than the carrying value of the assets. Fair value is determined based on quoted market prices, if available, or other valuation techniques including discounted future net cash flows.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Financial instruments of the Company are primarily comprised of cash, accounts receivable, account payables and accrued liabilities. As of March 31, 2011 and 2010, the carrying values approximated their fair values.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes which requires an entity to recognize deferred tax liabilities and assets. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequence attributable to the difference between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts in the financial statements. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the enacted tax rate expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that included the enacted date. A valuation allowance is established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

Pursuant to the New Income Tax Law effective on January 1, 2008, the applicable income tax rate of the Company is 25%.

Leased Mineral Rights

Costs to obtain leased mineral rights are capitalized and amortized to operations as depletion expense within the leased periods, using the straight-line method. Depletion expenses are included in depreciation and amortization on the accompanying statement of operations and were USD 64,734 and USD 64,000 for the years ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, respectively.

Currency Translation

The accounts and operations of the Company are translated in accordance with ASC 830, "Foreign Currency Matters," which requires that assets and liabilities of international operations be translated using the exchange rate in effect at the balance sheet date. The results of operations are translated at average exchange rates during the year. The effects of exchange rate fluctuations in translating assets and liabilities of the Company into U.S. dollars are accumulated and reflected as a currency translation adjustment in the accompanying statements of shareholders' equity. Transactions gains and losses are included in net income. There are no material transaction gains or losses in the accompanying financial statements for the years presented. The functional currency used in the preparation of financial statements is RMB while the presentation currency used is the US dollar. The functional currency is the currencies in which the Company operates and it largely reflects the economic substance of the underlying events and circumstance of the Company.

Edgar Filing: - Form

Table of Contents

Employee Benefits Plan

China has been undergoing a significant reform process on its employee welfare and fringe benefits administration. Any enterprise operating in China is subject to government-mandated employee welfare and fringe benefit contribution as a part of operating expense to State Administration of Labor Affairs. However, the Company doesn't participate in this multi-employer defined contribution plan to provide employees with certain retirement, medical and other fringe benefits.

Commitments and contingencies

Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigations, fines and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the assessment and/or remediation can be reasonably estimated.

NOTE 3 – Accounts Receivables

The accounts receivable, net of allowances, amounted to $ 4,080,331 and $ 468,731 as of March 31, 2011 and 2010, respectively. The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts based on present and prospective financial condition of the customer and the inherent credit risk. Accounts receivable are not collateralized.

The activity in the allowance for doubtful debts for accounts receivable is as follows:

	March 31, 2011	March 31, 2010
Allowance at the beginning of the year	$ 9,560	$ -
Additional provision created during the year	62,495	9,560
Write-offs /reversals charged against allowances	-	-
Allowance at the end of the year	$ 72,055	$ 9,560

NOTE 4 – Inventories

The inventories are comprised of:

	March 31, 2011	March 31, 2010
Low-value goods	$ 1,567	$ 3,340
Finished goods	-	-
Total	$ 1,567	$ 3,340

The management of the Company believes that no inventory reserve was necessary as of and for the year ended March 31, 2011 and 2010.

Table of Contents

NOTE 5 – Other Assets

Other current assets consist of the following:

	March 31, 2011	March 31, 2010
Prepaid expenses	$ -	$ 19,251
Amount due from staff	524,800	64,574

Accumulated depreciation	1,262,114	739,976
Total, net	$ 4,357,275	4,457,003

As of March 31, 2011, machinery with the carrying amount of RMB 8.8 million (equivalent USD 1.34 million) has been pledged against the short-term bank loan.

NOTE 7 –Short-term Bank Borrowings

As of March 31, 2011, the Company had a bank loan amounting RMB 3 million (equivalent USD 457,568) from Linxi Urban Credit Cooperatives. The maturity date of the loan is November 30, 2011 and the annual interest rate is 12.474%. The entire loan was pledged by the machinery and hence the borrowing is in the nature of a secured liability.

NOTE 9 – Equity

The Company has issued only one class of shares designated as “common stock”. Each holder of shares of common stock is entitled to one vote for each share held. The paid-in capital of the Company is USD 273,800, which has been fully paid as of March 31, 2011. Mr. Zhang Hua paid USD 219,040, taking 80% and Mr. Xu Jianjun paid USD 54,760, taking the remaining 20%. On January 18, 2011, Mr. Zhang Hua and Mr. Xu Jianjun signed a stock transfer agreement with H&F Ironman Limited to transfer 95% of the registered capital of the Company to H&F Ironman Limited. The transaction has been submitted to the Foreign Investment Administration for getting the foreign-investment approval. As of the report date, the new business license hasn’t been obtained. Please see NOTE 15 Subsequent Events after Balance Sheet Date.

Pursuant to PRC laws and regulations, the Company is also required to set aside at least 10% of the after-tax profits on an annual basis, naming general reserve. This reserve should be used for the development of the Company and is prohibited to the declaration of dividends. . As of March 31, 2011 and 2010, such reserves were USD 703,444 and USD 106,353, respectively, included as part of retained earnings.

NOTE 10 – Income Tax

The income tax rate applicable to the Company is 25%.

The income tax expense during the years ended March 31, 2011 and 2010 consists of the following:

	Year ended March 31, 2011	Year ended March 31, 2010
Current taxes	$ 2,108,817	$ 404,060
Deferred taxes	(97,620)	(63,672)
Net income tax expense	$ 2,011,197	$ 340,388

Income tax expense attributable to income from continuing operations differed from the amounts computed by applying the US federal statutory income tax rate of 34% primarily due to the difference in income tax rates between US and China.

The Company adopted ASC 740, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. In assessing the recoverability of its deferred tax assets, the management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of the deferred tax assets is dependent on the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. The management considers historical and projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment.

The management of the Company believes that the Company will make a profit in the future and deferred tax assets should be recognized as of March 31, 2011 and March 31, 2010.

Table of Contents

Deferred income taxes reflect the net effects of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Significant components of net deferred tax assets and liabilities as of March 31, 2011 and 2010 are as follows:

	March 31, 2011	March 31, 2010
Deferred tax assets:
Depreciation and amortization	$ -	$ -
Accrual accounting for financial reporting whereas cash accounting for tax purpose	165,963	63,712

NOTE 11 – Other Payables and Accruals

Other current payables and accruals consist of the following:

	March 31, 2011	March 31, 2010
Statutory dues payable	$ 4,068,962	$ 1,439,154
Employee related liabilities	25,992	13,852
Other liabilities	53,872	751,408
	$ 4,148,826	$ 2,204,414

Other non-current liabilities consist of the following:

	March 31, 2011	March 31, 2010
Provision for expenses	$ 76,261	$ 36,623
Special Reserve *	486,854	205,571
	$ 563,115	$ 242,194

*Pursuant to PRC laws and regulations, the Company is required to accrue a special reserve for safety production condition based on the production volume of mine. The formula is the production volume times the defined ratios set by the government. This fund should be used to improve safety of manufacturing condition of the Company and is prohibited to the declaration of dividends. As of March 31, 2011 and 2010, such special reserves were USD 486,854 and USD 205,571, respectively included as part of other non-current liabilities.

Table of Contents

NOTE 12 – Leases

The Company signed the agreement with local village neighborhood committee to exploit the mine from the lands. The duration of the agreement is from November 2, 2007 to May 1, 2018. According to the signed agreement, the initial down payment is RMB 5 million that was paid by the Company before October 15, 2007. The annual payments are calculated based on the exploitation volume at 2.5%, which should be paid on the quarterly basis. Within the first 5 years, the minimum payment is RMB 10 million (equivalent USD 1.56 million). For the years ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, the payments for this lease were USD 356,000 and USD 147,000, respectively.

NOTE 13 – Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of the Company's current assets and current liabilities approximate their carrying value because of their short-term maturity. Such financial instruments are classified as current and are expected to be liquidated within the next twelve months.

NOTE 14 – Commitments and Contingencies

Based on the above-mentioned signed agreement (Note 12) and the term of minimum payment within first 5 years, the Company needs to pay about USD 967,000 until November 2012.

Up to the date of the report, the Company had no material contingent liabilities.

NOTE 15 – Subsequent Events after Balance Sheet Date

Subsequent to the stock transfer agreement dated January 18, 2011, between H&F Ironman Limited and Linxi HeFei Economic and Trade Co., Ltd. , the Company got the final foreign-investment approval from the Foreign Investment Administration on April 26, 2011. However, as of the report date (August 22, 2011), the updated business license has not yet been obtained from the local industry and commercial bureau.

Besides the above matter, the management has evaluated the subsequent events and determined that there were no material events affecting the financial statements of the Company requiring recognition or disclosure.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the stated premises and for and in consideration of the mutual benefits to be derived, and the representation and warranties, conditions and promises herein contained and intending to be legally bound, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

REPRESENTATIONS, COVENANTS AND WARRANTIES BY IGC

As an inducement to and to obtain the reliance of HK Ironman and HK Ironman Shareholders, IGC represents and warrants as follows:

Section 1.1 Organization.

IGC is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of Maryland and has the corporate power and is duly authorized, qualified, franchised and licensed under all applicable laws, regulations, ordinances and orders of public authorities to own all of its properties and assets and to carry on its business in all material respects as it is now being conducted, including qualification to do business as a foreign corporation in the jurisdiction in which the character and location of the assets owned by it or the nature of the business transacted by it requires qualification. The execution and delivery of this Agreement does not, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof will not, violate any provision of IGC's articles of incorporation or bylaws. IGC has the power, authority and legal right and has taken all action required by law, its articles of incorporation, its bylaws, or otherwise to authorize the execution and delivery of this Agreement. Details of IGC are incorporated herein by reference as Disclosed in its Annual Report on Form 10/K and Form 10/K/A for the Financial Year Ended (FYE) March 31, 2011 and its Amendment, and on subsequent Form 10-Q and Form 8-K and other filings made with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) through Closing Date.

Section 1.2 Capitalization.

The authorized capitalization of IGC consists of about 150,000,000 shares of Securities, $.01 par value per share; and 100,000 shares of preferred stock. As of June 30, 2011, IGC has 20,960,433 common shares issued and outstanding and none of the preferred shares are issued.

As Disclosed, all issued and outstanding shares are legally issued, fully paid and non-assessable and there are no Undisclosed shares issued in violation of the preemptive or other rights of any person. There are no Undisclosed warrants or options authorized or issued.

Section 1.3 Subsidiaries.

The subsidiaries and investments of IGC are set out in Exhibit 3 and as Disclosed.

Section 1.4 Tax Matters: Books and Records.

- (a) The books and records, financial and others, of IGC are in all material respects complete and correct and have been maintained in accordance with good business accounting practices; and
- (b) IGC has no Undisclosed statutory liabilities including Undisclosed tax liabilities with respect to the payment of any country, federal, state, county, or local taxes.

Section 1.5 Litigation and Proceedings.

There are no Undisclosed actions, suits, proceedings or investigations pending or threatened against or affecting IGC or its properties, at law or in equity, before any court or other governmental agency or instrumentality, domestic or foreign or before any arbitrator of any kind that would have a material adverse affect on the business, operations, financial condition or income of IGC. IGC is not in default of any Undisclosed judgment, order, writ, injunction, decree, award, rule or regulation of any court, arbitrator or governmental agency.

Section 1.6 Material Contract Defaults.

IGC is not in default in any material respect under the terms of any outstanding contract, agreement, lease or other commitment which is material to the business, operations, properties, assets or condition of IGC, and there is no event of default in any material respect under any such contract, agreement, lease or other commitment in respect of which IGC has not taken adequate steps to prevent or rectify such a default from occurring.

Section 1.7 Information.

The information concerning IGC as Disclosed is complete and accurate in all material respects and does not contain any untrue statements of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to make the statements made in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

Section 1.8 Title and Related Matters.

IGC has good and marketable title to and is the sole and exclusive owner of all of its properties, inventory, interest in properties and assets, real and personal (collectively, the "Assets") free and clear of all liens, pledges, charges or encumbrances. IGC owns free and clear of any liens, claims, encumbrances, royalty interests or other restrictions or limitations of any nature whatsoever and all procedures, techniques, marketing plans, business plans, methods of management or other information utilized in connection with IGC's business. No third party has any right to, and IGC has not received any notice of infringement of or conflict with asserted rights of other with respect to any product, technology, data, trade secrets, know-how, proprietary techniques, trademarks, service marks, trade names or copyrights which, singly or in the aggregate, if the subject of an unfavorable decision ruling or finding, would have a materially adverse affect on the business, operations, financial conditions or income of IGC or any material portion of its properties, assets or rights.

Section 1.9 Contracts.

On the Closing Date:

(a) There are no material contracts, agreements, franchises, license agreements, or other commitments to which IGC is a party or by which it or any of its properties are bound;

(b) IGC is not a party to any contract, agreement, commitment or instrument or subject to any charter or other corporate restriction or any judgment, order, writ, injunction, decree or award materially and adversely affects, or in the future may (as far as IGC can now foresee) materially and adversely affect, the business, operations, properties, assets or conditions of IGC.

Section 1.10 Compliance with Laws and Regulations.

To the best of IGC's knowledge and belief, IGC has complied with all applicable statutes and regulations of any federal, state or other governmental entity or agency thereof, except to the extent that noncompliance would not materially and adversely affect the business, operations, properties, assets or condition of IGC or would not result in IGC incurring material liability.

Section 1.11 Approval of Agreement.

The Board of Directors of IGC has authorized the execution and delivery of this Agreement and has approved the transactions contemplated herein.

Section 1.12 Material Transactions or Affiliations.

Other than as Disclosed there are no material contracts or agreements of arrangement between IGC and any person, who was at the time of such contract, agreement or arrangement an officer, director or person owning of record, or known to beneficially own ten percent (10%) or more of the issued and outstanding Securities of IGC and which is to be performed in whole or in part after the date hereof. IGC has no commitment, whether written or oral, to lend any funds to, borrow any money from or enter into material transactions with any such affiliated person.

Section 1.13 No Conflict With Other Instruments.

The execution of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not result in the breach of any term or provision of, or constitute an event of default under, any material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust or other material contract, agreement or instrument to which IGC is a party or to which any of its properties or operations are subject.

Section 1.14 Governmental Authorizations.

IGC has all licenses, franchises, permits or other governmental authorizations legally required to enable it to conduct its business in all material respects as conducted on the date hereof. Except for compliance with, NYSE, federal and state securities and corporation laws, as hereinafter provided, no authorization, approval, consent or order of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any court or other governmental body is required in connection with the execution and delivery by IGC of this Agreement.

Section 1.15 Shareholder's Approval

The consummation of this transaction will require an affirmative vote and approval by a majority of the shareholders of IGC.

Section 1.16 Ownership of Stock.

IGC is the lawful owner of the stock to be delivered to the shareholders of HK Ironman or its designees/nominees and such stock shall be free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and claims of every kind and character, other than SEC mandated legends and any of the foregoing arising from actions by the shareholders of HK Ironman (collectively, "Encumbrances") as of the Closing Date. The delivery to the shareholders of HK Ironman of the stock pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement will transfer to the shareholders of Ironman valid title thereto, free and clear of any and all Encumbrances. The stock of IGC held by the shareholders of HK ironman will be subject to customary public company insider, 10% ownership restrictions and may be sold subject to an effective registration statement.

Section 1.17 Approval by Disinterested Board Committee.

The Board of Directors of IGC have (i) duly established a special committee, comprised solely of independent directors of IGC who have no direct or indirect financial interest in the proposed transactions (the "Special Committee"), for the purpose of reviewing the transactions on behalf of the Board of Directors, and (ii) provided the Special Committee with the financial means necessary to retain all those financial, legal and other advisers that the Special Committee deems appropriate in connection with fulfilling its duties. The Special Committee has (x) reviewed and discussed the Transactions with its financial and legal advisers and with any other advisers it deemed appropriate, (y) determined, in good faith, that the Transactions are fair and reasonable to the Company, as contemplated by Section 2-419 of the Maryland General Corporation Law, and (iii) made its recommendation to the full Board of the Company.

ARTICLE II

(c) Danny Qing Chang shall be responsible for the collection of all moneys due to HK Ironman and its subsidiaries including but not limited to loans and receivables. Danny Qing Chang will also be responsible for the payment of Taxes, Royalty, VAT, penalties and other liabilities that are not set out in the U.S.GAAP audited financial statements and in the financial statement for the quarter ended June 30, 2011 as presented in Exhibit 5.

Section 3.5 Information.

The information concerning HK Ironman and its subsidiary as set forth in this Agreement and provided to the USGAAP auditor and the Legal Due Diligence Team employed by IGC is complete and accurate in all material respects and does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit a material fact required to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

Section 3.6 Title and Related Matters.

HK Ironman and its subsidiary have good and marketable title to and is the sole and exclusive owner of all of its properties, inventory, interests in properties and assets, real and personal, including but not limited to all internet domain names, vehicles, equipments and other assets (collectively, the "Assets") free and clear of all liens, pledges, charges or encumbrances. Except to the extent as set forth in Exhibit 6, HK Ironman and its subsidiary own free and clear of any liens, claims, encumbrances, royalty interests or other restrictions or limitations of any nature whatsoever and all procedures, techniques, marketing plans, business plans, methods of management or other information utilized in connection with its business. Except as set forth in the attached Exhibit 6, no third party has any right to, and HK Ironman and its subsidiary have not received any notice of infringement of or conflict with asserted rights of others with respect to any product, technology, data, trade secrets, know-how, proprietary techniques, trademarks, service marks, trade names or copyrights which, singly or in the aggregate, if the subject of an unfavorable decision, ruling or finding, would have a materially adverse affect on the business, operations, financial conditions or income of HK Ironman and/or its subsidiary, PRC Ironman, or any material portion of its properties, assets or rights.

Section 3.7 Litigation and Proceedings.

There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or threatened by or against or affecting HK Ironman or its subsidiary at law or in equity, before any court or other governmental agency or instrumentality, domestic or foreign or before any arbitrator of any kind that would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, financial condition, income or business prospects of HK Ironman or its subsidiary. HK Ironman does not have any knowledge of any default on its part or on the part of its subsidiary with respect to any judgment, order, writ, injunction, decree, award, rule or regulation of any court, arbitrator or governmental agency or instrumentality.

Section 3.8 Contracts.

On the Closing Date:

- (a) Except for those enumerated in Exhibit 7, there are no material contracts, agreements, franchises, license agreements, or other commitments to which HK Ironman is a party to or by which it or any of its subsidiary or properties are bound;
- (b) HK Ironman or its subsidiary is not a party to any contract, agreement, commitment or instrument or subject to any charter or other corporate restriction or any judgment, order, writ, injunction, decree or award which materially and adversely affects, or in the future may (as far as HK Ironman or its subsidiaries can now foresee) materially and adversely affect, the business, operations, properties, assets or conditions of HK Ironman or its subsidiary; and
- (c) Except as shown on the balance sheet for the Year ended March 31, 2011; HK Ironman and its subsidiary is not a party to any material oral or written: (i) contract for the employment of any officer or employee; (ii) profit sharing, bonus, deferred compensation, stock option, severance pay, pension, benefit or retirement plan, agreement or arrangement covered by Title IV of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, as amended; (iii) agreement, contract or indenture relating to the borrowing of money; (iv) guaranty of any obligation for the borrowing of money or otherwise, excluding endorsements made for collection and other guaranties of obligations, which, in the aggregate exceeds $10,000; (v) consulting or other contract with an unexpired term of more than one year or providing for payments in excess of $10,000 in the aggregate; (vi) collective bargaining agreement; and (vii) contract, agreement, or other commitment involving payments by it for more than $10,000 in the aggregate.

Section 3.9 No Conflict With Other Instruments.

The execution of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not result in the breach of any term or provision of, or constitute an event of default under, any material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust or other material contract, agreement or instrument to which HK Ironman or its subsidiary is a party or to which any of its properties or operations are subject.

Section 3.10 Material Contract Defaults.

To the best of HK Ironman's and PRC Ironman's knowledge and belief, HK Ironman and its subsidiary are not in default in any material respect under the terms of any outstanding contract, agreement, lease or other commitment which is material to the business, operations, properties, assets or condition of HK Ironman or its subsidiary, and there is no event of default in any material respect under any such contract, agreement, lease or other commitment in respect of which HK Ironman or its subsidiary has not taken adequate steps to prevent such a default from occurring.

Section 3.11 Governmental Authorizations.

To the best of HK Ironman's and PRC Ironman's knowledge, HK Ironman and its subsidiary has all licenses, franchises, permits and other governmental authorizations that are legally required to enable them to conduct their business operations in all material respects as conducted on the date hereof. Except for compliance with federal and state securities or corporation laws, no authorization, approval, consent or order of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any court or other governmental body is required in connection with the execution and delivery by HK Ironman of the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 3.12 Compliance with Laws and Regulations.

To the best of HK Ironman's and PRC Ironman's knowledge and belief, HK Ironman and its subsidiary has complied with all applicable statutes and regulations of any federal, state or other governmental entity or agency thereof, except to the extent that noncompliance would not materially and adversely affect the business, operations, properties, assets or condition of, HK Ironman or its subsidiary, or would not result in HK Ironman or its subsidiary incurring any material liability.

Section 3.13 Insurance.

All of HK Ironman and its subsidiary's insurable properties are insured for the benefit of HK Ironman directly or indirectly under valid and enforceable policy or policies containing substantially equivalent coverage and will be outstanding and in full force for a minimum of one year after the Closing Date.

Section 3.14 Approval of Agreement.

The Board of Directors of HK Ironman and PRC Ironman have authorized the execution and delivery of this Agreement and have approved the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 3.15 Material Transactions or Affiliations.

As of the Closing Date, there will exist no material contract, agreement or arrangement between HK Ironman, and any person who was at the time of such contract, agreement or arrangement an officer, director or person owning of record, or known by HK Ironman to own beneficially, ten percent (10%) or more of the issued and outstanding Common Shares of HK Ironman and which is to be performed in whole or in part after the date hereof except with regard to an agreement with HK Ironman shareholders providing for the distribution of cash to provide for payment of federal and state taxes on Subchapter S income. HK Ironman has no commitment, whether written or oral, to lend any funds to, borrow any money from or enter into any other material transactions with, any such affiliated person.

ARTICLE IV

Section 6.1 Access to Properties and Records.

Prior to closing, IGC and HK Ironman will each afford to the officers and authorized representatives of the other full access to the properties, books and records of each other, so that each may have full opportunity to make such reasonable investigation as it shall desire to make of the affairs of the other and each will furnish the other with such additional financial and operating data and other information as to the business and properties of each other including all its subsidiaries, as the other shall from time to time reasonably request.

Section 6.2 Registration Rights.

IGC agrees, that at its own expense, within (60) days of the Closing Date, it will prepare and file a registration statement with the SEC to register the Exchange Shares, and use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to be declared effective as soon as reasonably practicable.

Section 6.3 Funds Flow

The Parties agree that the revenue generated by PRC Ironman, will be able to flow from PRC Ironman to its holding company i.e. HK Ironman, outside of China. Further, the funds so transferred outside of China, may be used for future acquisitions and/or general corporate purposes. The Parties further agree that the mechanism and modalities for the fund flow under this provision will be determined in consultation with local counsel in the People's Republic of China.

Section 6.4 Third Party Consents.

IGC and HK Ironman agree to cooperate with each other in order to obtain any required third party consents to this Agreement and the transactions herein contemplated.

Section 6.5 Actions Prior to and Subsequent to Closing.

(a) From and after the date of this Agreement until the Closing Date, except as permitted or contemplated by this Agreement, IGC, HK Ironman and PRC Ironman BVI will each use its best efforts to:

- (i) maintain and keep its properties in states of good repair and condition as at present, except for depreciation due to ordinary wear and tear and damage due to casualty;
- (ii) maintain in full force and effect insurance comparable in amount and in scope of coverage to that now maintained by it; and
- (iii) perform in all material respects all of its obligations under material contracts, leases and instruments relating to or affecting its assets, properties and business.

(b) From and after the date of this Agreement until the Closing Date, IGC and HK Ironman or PRC Ironman will not, without the prior consent of the other:

- (i) except as otherwise specifically set forth herein, make any change in its articles of incorporation or bylaws;
- (ii) declare or pay any dividend on its outstanding Common Shares, except as may otherwise be required by law, or effect any stock split or otherwise change its capitalization, except as provided herein;
- (iii) enter into or amend any employment, severance or agreements or arrangements with any directors or officers;
- (iv) grant, confer or award any options, warrants, conversion rights or other rights not existing on the date hereof to acquire any Common Shares; or
- (v) purchase or redeem any Common Shares.

Section 6.6 Indemnification.

(a) IGC hereby agrees to indemnify HK Ironman and PRC Ironman, each of the officers, agents and directors and current shareholders of HK Ironman and PRC Ironman as of the Closing Date against any loss, liability, claim, damage or expense (including, but not limited to, any and all expense whatsoever reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any litigation, commenced or threatened or any claim whatsoever), to which it or they may become subject to or rising out of or based on any inaccuracy appearing in or misrepresentation made in this Agreement. The indemnification provided for in this paragraph shall survive the Closing and consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and termination of this Agreement; and

(b) Ironman hereby agree to indemnify IGC, each of the officers, agents, directors and current shareholders of IGC as of the Closing Date against any loss, liability, claim, damage or expense (including, but not limited to, any and all expense whatsoever reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any litigation, commenced or threatened or any claim whatsoever), to which it or they may become subject arising out of or based on any inaccuracy appearing in or misrepresentation made in this Agreement. The indemnification provided for in this paragraph shall survive the Closing and consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

of HK Ironman or its subsidiary.

Section 7.5 No Material Adverse Change.

Prior to the Closing Date, there shall not have occurred any material adverse change in the financial condition, business or operations of nor shall any event have occurred which, with the lapse of time or the giving of notice, may cause or create any material adverse change in the financial condition, business or operations of HK Ironman or its subsidiary.

Section 7.6 Approvals.

To the best of HK Ironman's and PRC Ironman's knowledge and belief, HK Ironman and PRC Ironman have complied with all applicable statutes and regulations of any federal, state or other governmental entity or agency thereof and has obtained requisite approvals, unless waived by the IGC in writing, to enable it to execute the present Agreement for the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein.

Section 7.7 Due Diligence.

Completion of a business, financial, accounting tax, technical, legal and regulatory due diligence of HK Ironman and its subsidiary to the reasonable satisfaction of IGC.

Section 7.8 US GAAP Audit.

The completion of a USGAAP audit for the Financial Year Ended (FYE) March 31, 2011 and March 31, 2010 by a PCAOB registered top tier audit firm and the completion and delivery of unaudited quarterly statements.

Section 7.9 Other Items.

IGC shall have received from HK Ironman such further documents, certificates or instruments relating to the transactions contemplated hereby as IGC may reasonably request.

ARTICLE VIII

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO OBLIGATIONS OF IRONMAN

The obligations of Ironman under this Agreement are subject to the satisfaction, at or before the Closing date (unless otherwise indicated herein), of the following conditions:

Section 8.1 Accuracy of Representations.

The representations and warranties made by IGC in this Agreement were true when made and shall be true as of the Closing Date (except for changes therein permitted by this Agreement) with the same force and effect as if such representations and warranties were made at and as of the Closing Date, and IGC shall have performed and complied with all covenants and conditions required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by IGC prior to or at the Closing. HK Ironman shall have been furnished with a certificate, signed by a duly authorized executive officer of IGC and dated the Closing Date, to the foregoing effect.

Section 8.2 Board of Directors' Approval.

The Board of Directors of HK Ironman shall have approved this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein.

Section 8.3 Shareholder Approval.

The shareholders of HK Ironman shall have approved the proposal for approval of the transaction contemplated in the present Agreement.

Section 8.4 Officer's Certificate.

HK Ironman shall be furnished with a certificate dated the Closing Date and signed by a duly authorized officer of IGC to the effect that: (a) the representations and warranties of IGC set forth in the Agreement and in all Exhibits and other documents furnished in connection herewith are in all material respects true and correct as if made on the Closing Date; and (b) IGC has performed all covenants, satisfied all conditions, and complied with all other terms and provisions of the Agreement to be performed, satisfied or complied with by it as of the Closing Date.

Section 8.5 No Material Adverse Change.

Prior to the Closing Date, there shall not have occurred any material adverse change in the financial condition, business or operations of nor shall any event have occurred which, with the lapse of time or the giving of notice, may cause or create any material adverse change in the financial condition, business or operations of IGC.

Section 8.6 1933 Exchange Act Compliance.

IGC must file any necessary reports to become and stay current with its 1933 Exchange Act filings up to and including the Closing Date of this Agreement. This shall include, but not be limited to, all annual and quarterly filings.

Section 8.7 Approvals.

To the best of IGC's knowledge and belief, IGC has complied with all applicable statutes and regulations of any federal, state or other governmental entity or agency thereof and has obtained requisite approvals, unless waived by the Parties in writing, to enable it to execute the present Agreement for the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein.

Section 8.8 Due Diligence.

Completion of a business, financial, accounting tax, technical, legal and regulatory due diligence of IGC and its subsidiaries to the reasonable satisfaction of HK Ironman.

ARTICLE IX

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Section 9.1 Amicable Settlement

If any dispute arises between IGC and Ironman, during the subsistence of this Agreement or thereafter, in connection with the validity, interpretation, implementation or alleged breach of any provision of this Agreement or regarding a question, including the question as to whether the termination of this Agreement by one Party hereto has been legitimate ("Dispute"), the disputing Parties hereto shall endeavor to settle such Dispute amicably. The attempt to bring about an amicable settlement shall be considered to have failed if not resolved within 30 days from the date of the Dispute.

Section 9.2 Arbitration

(1) If the Parties are unable to amicably settle the Dispute in accordance with Clause 9.1 within the period specified therein, any Party to the Dispute shall be entitled to serve a notice invoking this Clause and make a reference to an arbitration panel of three arbitrators. Each party to the dispute shall appoint one arbitrator within 30 days of receipt of the notice of the Party making the reference, and the two arbitrators, so appointed shall appoint a third arbitrator. The Arbitration proceedings shall be held in accordance with the Maryland Uniform Arbitration Act. The decision of the arbitration panel shall be binding on all the Parties to the Dispute.

(2) The place of the arbitration shall be Maryland, USA.

(3) The proceedings of arbitration shall be in English language.

- (4) The arbitration proceedings shall be governed by the laws of Maryland and the Maryland courts (including any appellate Court) in Maryland shall have exclusive jurisdiction.
- (5) The cost and expenses of the arbitration, including, without limitation, the fees of the arbitration and the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by each Party to the dispute or claim and each Party shall pay its own fees, disbursements and other charges of its Counsel, except as may be otherwise determined by the Arbitrator. The Arbitrator would have the power to award interest on any sum awarded pursuant to the arbitration proceedings and such sum would carry interest, if awarded, until the actual payment of such amounts.
- (6) Any award made by the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on each of Parties that were parties to the dispute. The Parties expressly agree to waive the applicability of any Applicable Laws and regulations that would otherwise give the right to appeal the decisions of the Arbitrator so that there shall be no appeal to any Court of Law for the award of the Arbitrator, except a Party shall not challenge or resist any enforcement action taken by other Party in any Court of Law in whose favor and award of the Arbitrator was given.

ARTICLE X

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.1 Brokers and Finders.

Each party to this Agreement represents and warrants that it is under no obligation, express or implied, to pay certain finders in connection with the bringing of the Parties together in the negotiation, execution, or consummation of this Agreement. The Parties each agree to indemnify the other against any claim by any third person for any commission, brokerage or finder's fee or other payment with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby based on any alleged agreement or understanding between the indemnifying party and such third person, whether express or implied from the actions of the indemnifying party.

Section 10.2 Law, Forum and Jurisdiction.

This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Maryland, United States of America.

Section 10.3 Notices.

Any notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be sufficiently given if personally delivered to it or sent by registered mail or certified mail, postage prepaid, or by prepaid telegram addressed as follows:

or such other addresses as shall be furnished in writing by any party in the manner for giving notices hereunder, and any such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been given as of the date so delivered, mailed or telegraphed.

Section 10.4 Attorneys' Fees.

In the event that any party institutes any action or suit to enforce this Agreement or to secure relief from any default hereunder or breach hereof, the breaching Parties shall reimburse the non-breaching Parties for all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection therewith and in enforcing or collecting any judgment rendered therein.

Section 10.5 Confidentiality.

Each party hereto agrees with the other party that, unless and until the transactions contemplated by this Agreement have been consummated, they and their representatives will hold in strict confidence all data and information obtained with respect to another party or any subsidiary thereof from any representative, officer, director or employee, or from any books or records or from personal inspection, of such other party, and shall not use such data or information or disclose the same to others, except: (i) to the extent such data is a matter of public knowledge or is required by law to be published; and (ii) to the extent that such data or information must be used or disclosed in order to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (iii) such disclosure is required by law or by a regulatory body.

Section 10.6 Assignment.

This Agreement and the rights and liabilities hereunder shall bind and inure to the benefit of the respective successors of the Parties hereto, but no party shall assign or transfer any of its rights and liabilities hereunder to any other person without the prior written consent of the other Parties, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

Section 10.7 Knowledge.

Each party is presumed to have full knowledge of all information set forth in the other party's Exhibits delivered pursuant to this Agreement.

Section 10.8 Third Party Beneficiaries.

This contract is solely between the Parties and except as specifically provided, no director, officer, stockholder, employee, agent, independent contractor or any other person or entity shall be deemed to be a third party beneficiary of this Agreement.

Section 10.9 Entire Agreement.

This Agreement represents the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement alone fully and completely expresses the agreement of the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof. There are no other courses of dealing, understanding, agreements, representations or warranties, written or oral, except as set forth herein. This Agreement may not be amended or modified, except by a written agreement signed by all Parties hereto.

Section 10.10 Survival; Termination.

The representations, warranties and covenants of the respective Parties shall survive the Closing Date and the consummation of the transactions herein contemplated for 36 months.

Section 10.11 Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which taken together shall be but a single instrument.

Section 10.12 Amendment or Waiver.

Every right and remedy provided herein shall be cumulative with every other right and remedy, whether conferred herein, at law or in equity, and may be enforced concurrently herewith, and no waiver by any party of the performance of any obligation by the other shall be construed as a waiver of the same or any other default then, theretofore, or thereafter occurring or existing. At any time prior to the Closing Date, this Agreement may be amended by a written consent by all Parties hereto, with respect to any of the terms contained herein, and any term or condition of this Agreement may be waived or the time for performance hereof may be extended by a written consent by the party or Parties for whose benefit the provision is intended.

Section 10.13 Expenses.

Each party herein shall bear all of their respective costs and expenses incurred in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement and in the consummation of the transactions provided for herein and the preparation thereof including due diligence, legal opinions that may be required for closing and/or otherwise and for any governmental or regulatory requirements as the case may be.

HK Ironman shall bear the expenses associated with the USGAAP audit. IGC shall bear the expenses associated with due diligence and all regulatory filings in the United States.

Section 10.14 Headings; Context.

The headings of the sections and paragraphs contained in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and do not form a part hereof and in no way modify, interpret or construe the meaning of this Agreement.

Section 10.15 Benefit.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure only to the benefit of the Parties hereto, and their permitted assigns hereunder. This Agreement shall not be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party.

Section 10.16 Public Announcements.

Except as may be required by law, neither party shall make any public announcement or filing with respect to the transactions provided for herein without the prior consent of the other party hereto.

Section 10.17 Severability.

In the event that any particular provision or provisions of this Agreement or the other agreements contained herein shall for any reason hereafter be determined to be unenforceable, or in violation of any law, governmental order or regulation, such unenforceability or violation shall not affect the remaining provisions of such agreements, which shall continue in full force and effect and be binding upon the respective Parties hereto.

Section 10.18 Failure of Conditions; Termination.

In the event of any of the conditions specified in this Agreement shall not be fulfilled on or before the Closing Date, either of the Parties have the right either to proceed or, upon prompt written notice to the other, to terminate and rescind this Agreement. In such event, the party that has failed to fulfill the conditions specified in this Agreement will liable for the other Parties' legal fees. The election to proceed shall not affect the right of such electing party reasonably to require the other party to continue to use its efforts to fulfill the unmet conditions.

Section 10.19 No Strict Construction.

The language of this Agreement shall be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning and intentment, and not strictly for or against either party hereto, regardless of who drafted or was principally responsible for drafting the Agreement or terms or conditions hereof.

Section 10.20 Execution Knowing and Voluntary.

In executing this Agreement, the Parties severally acknowledge and represent that each: (a) has fully and carefully read and considered this Agreement; (b) has been or has had the opportunity to be fully apprized by its attorneys of the legal effect and meaning of this document and all terms and conditions hereof; (c) is executing this Agreement voluntarily, free from any influence, coercion or duress of any kind.

Section 10.21 Amendment.

This Agreement and any of the terms contained herein may be amended by mutual consent in writing signed by both the parties at any time.
