VOTING RIGHTS

Each share of the Company's common stock (the "Common Stock") entitles the holder thereof to one vote on matters to be acted upon at the 2017 Annual Meeting, including the election of directors. Votes cast in person or by proxy at the 2017 Annual Meeting will be tabulated by Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., the Inspector of Elections. Any proxy that is returned using the form of proxy enclosed or voted by Internet according to the instructions included on the proxy card will be voted in accordance with the instructions thereon, and if no instructions are given, will be voted: (i) FOR the election of all of the director nominees as described in Proposal One; (ii) FOR approval of amending the Company's Amended and Restated 2000 Stock Plan as described in Proposal Two; (iii) FOR the nonbinding advisory resolution regarding the compensation of the Company's named executive officers under Proposal Three; (iv) FOR the nonbinding advisory resolution on the frequency of holding future votes regarding executive compensation described in Proposal Four; (v) FOR ratification of the appointment of BDO USA, LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm described in Proposal Five; (vi) ABSTAIN with respect to the stockholder proposal described in Proposal Six; and (vii) as the proxy holders deem advisable in their sole discretion on any other matters that may properly come before the 2017 Annual Meeting. A stockholder may indicate on the enclosed proxy or its substitute that it is abstaining from voting on a particular matter (an "abstention"). A broker may indicate on the enclosed proxy or its substitute that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter (a "broker non-vote"). Abstentions and broker non-votes are each tabulated separately.

The Inspector of Elections will determine whether or not a quorum is present at the 2017 Annual Meeting. In general, Delaware law and our bylaws provide that a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, constitutes a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes of shares that are entitled to vote are treated as shares that are present in person or represented by proxy for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

In determining whether a proposal has been approved, abstentions are treated as present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote, but not as voting for such proposal, and hence have the same effect as votes against such proposal, while broker non-votes are not treated as present in person or represented by proxy but not entitled to vote, and hence have no effect on the vote for such proposal.

RECORD DATE AND SHARE OWNERSHIP

Holders of record of Common Stock as of the close of business on December 5, 2016 have the right to receive notice of and to vote at the 2017 Annual Meeting. On December 5, 2016, the Company had issued and outstanding 291,252,461 shares of Common Stock.

Table of Contents

PROXIES

Proxies for use at the 2017 Annual Meeting are being solicited by the Company from its stockholders. Any person giving a proxy in the form accompanying this Proxy Statement has the power to revoke it at any time before its exercise by (i) filing with the Secretary of the Company a signed written statement revoking his or her proxy or (ii) submitting an executed proxy bearing a date later than that of the proxy being revoked. A proxy may also be revoked by attendance at the 2017 Annual Meeting and the election to vote in person. Attendance at the 2017 Annual Meeting will not by itself constitute the revocation of a proxy.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Proposals of stockholders that are intended to be presented at the Company's 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must comply with the requirements of SEC Rule 14a-8 and must be received by the Company no later than August 23, 2017 in order to be included in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the meeting. A stockholder proposal or a nomination for director for the Company's 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders that is not to be included in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the meeting must be received by the Company no earlier than October 2, 2017 and no later than November 1, 2017. The Company's bylaws require that certain information and acknowledgements with respect to the proposal or nomination be set forth in the stockholder's notice. A copy of the relevant bylaw provision is available upon written request to Nuance Communications, Inc., One Wayside Road, Burlington, MA 01803, Attention: Investor Relations. Further, our Amended and Restated Bylaws dated as of November 6, 2007 (the "Bylaws") were filed as Exhibit 3.1 to our Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on November 13, 2007 and may be accessed through the SEC's website at www.sec.gov/edgar.

PROXY SOLICITATION COSTS

The expense of solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, certain officers, directors and Company employees, who will receive no additional compensation for their services, may solicit proxies by telephone or in person. The Company is required to request brokers and nominees who hold stock in their name to furnish this proxy material to beneficial owners of the stock and will reimburse such brokers and nominees for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in so doing. In addition, we have engaged Alliance Advisors to assist in the solicitation of proxies and provide related advice and informational support for a service fee of $25,000 plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Board of Director Meetings and Committees

The Board of Directors held a total of eight meetings (including regular and special meetings) during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2016. Each director attended at least 75% of the aggregate number of meetings of the Board of Directors and the committees of the Board of Directors on which he or she served.

Board Independence

The Board of Directors has determined that Ms. Martin and each of Messrs. Finocchio, Frankenberg, Janeway, Laret and Quigley are independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market.

The Board's Leadership Structure

The Board currently combines the role of Chairman and Chief Executive. The Board believes that the Chief Executive Officer is best situated to serve as Chairman because he is the director most familiar with the Company's business and industry and is therefore best able to identify the strategic priorities to be discussed by the Board. The Board believes that combining the role of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer facilitates information flow between management and the Board and fosters strategic development and execution. The Board has appointed Robert Frankenberg as the lead independent director. The lead independent director serves as the focal point for independent directors, coordinating feedback to the CEO on behalf of the independent directors regarding business issues and board management. The lead independent director and the other independent directors meet regularly without the CEO present.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Audit Committee currently consists of Messrs. Finocchio, Frankenberg, Laret and Quigley, each of whom is independent within the meaning of the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, applicable U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, rules and the listing standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market. The Audit Committee held seven meetings during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2016. Mr. Frankenberg serves as Chairman of the Audit Committee.

The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Finocchio and Frankenberg are audit committee financial experts as defined by Item 407(d)(5)(ii) of Regulation S-K of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Mr. Finocchio's relevant experience includes his service as chairman and chief executive officer of a technology company, executive leadership positions at various technology companies, and other board memberships. Mr. Frankenberg's relevant experience includes his service as the Chief Executive Officer of Novell, Inc., where he actively supervised that company's principal financial officer, and his service as a member of several other audit committees.

The Audit Committee reviews the engagement of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, reviews annual financial statements, considers matters relating to accounting policy and internal controls, reviews whether non-audit services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm affect the accountants' independence and reviews the scope of annual audits in accordance with a written Audit Committee Charter.

The Audit Committee Report is included in this Proxy Statement. In addition, the Board of Directors adopted an Amended and Restated Charter for the Audit Committee in March 2015, a copy of which is available on the Company's Web site at <http://www.nuance.com/company/company-overview/company-policies/corporate-governance/audit-committee/index.htm>.

The Compensation Committee oversees, evaluates and approves compensation plans, policies and practices applicable to, and approves the compensation of, the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee also administers the Company's equity-based incentive compensation except to the extent that authority to administer the plans has been delegated to the Chief Executive Officer to administer such plans as to non-executive personnel. The Board of Directors adopted a written charter for the Compensation Committee in March 2014, a copy of which is available on the Company's Web site at <http://www.nuance.com/company/company-overview/company-policies/corporate-governance/compensation-committee/index.htm>.

The Compensation Committee Report and the Compensation Discussion and Analysis are included elsewhere in this Proxy Statement.

Governance Committee

The Governance Committee currently consists of Ms. Martin and Mr. Laret each of whom is independent within the meaning of the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, applicable SEC rules and the listing standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market. Ms. Martin serves as the Chairman of the Governance Committee. The Governance Committee held one meeting during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2016.

The Governance Committee oversees the corporate governance practices of the Board of Directors. The Governance Committee also recommends to the full Board of Directors the composition of the Board's standing committees and oversees the evaluation of the Board and its committees.

The Board of Directors adopted a written charter for the Governance Committee in March 2004, a copy of which is available on the Company's Web site at <http://www.nuance.com/company/company-overview/company-policies/corporate-governance/governance-committee/index.htm>.

The Nominating Committee also recommends to the Board on an annual basis the candidates to be nominated by the Board for election as directors at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders.

The Board of Directors adopted a written charter for the Nominating Committee in April 2004, a copy of which is available on the Company's Web site at <http://www.nuance.com/company/company-overview/company-policies/corporate-governance/nominating-committee/index.htm>.

Consideration of Director Nominees

Stockholder Nominees

The Nominating Committee will consider properly submitted stockholder nominations for candidates for membership on the Board of Directors as well as candidates recommended for consideration by the Nominating Committee as described below under Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Directors. Any stockholder nominations must comply with the requirements of the Company's Bylaws and should include all information relating to such nominee as would be required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for the election of such nominee as a director pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act, such nominee's written consent to be named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected, as well as a written statement executed by such nominee acknowledging that as a director of the Company, such nominee will owe a fiduciary duty under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware exclusively to the Company and its stockholders. In addition, stockholder nominations should be submitted within the time frame as specified under Stockholder Proposals above and addressed to: Nuance Communications, Inc., Attention: General Counsel, One Wayside Road, Burlington, MA 01803.

A stockholder that instead desires to merely recommend a candidate for consideration by the Nominating Committee shall direct the recommendation in writing to Nuance Communications, Inc., Attention: General Counsel, One Wayside Road, Burlington, MA 01803, and must include the candidate's name, home and business contact information, detailed biographical data and qualifications, information regarding any relationships between the candidate and the Company within the last three years and evidence of the nominating person's ownership of Company stock.

Director Qualifications

In discharging its responsibilities to nominate candidates for election to the Board of Directors, the Nominating Committee has not specified any minimum qualifications for serving on the Board of Directors. However, the Nominating Committee endeavors to evaluate, propose and approve candidates with business experience and personal skills in technology, finance, marketing, financial reporting and other areas that may be expected to contribute to an effective Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee seeks to ensure that the Board of Directors is composed of individuals who have experience relevant to the needs of the Company and who, consistent with the Company's values and standards, have the highest professional and personal ethics. Candidates should be committed to enhancing stockholder value and should have sufficient time to carry out their duties and to provide insight and practical wisdom based on experience.

Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Directors

The Nominating Committee utilizes a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating director nominees. Candidates may come to the attention of the Nominating Committee through current members of the Board of Directors, professional search firms, stockholders or other persons. These candidates are evaluated at regular or special meetings of the Nominating Committee and may be considered at any point during the year. As described above, the Nominating Committee will properly submitted stockholder nominations and recommendations for candidates for the Board of Directors. Following verification of the stockholder status of persons proposing candidates, nominations and recommendations are aggregated and considered by the Nominating Committee. If any materials are provided by a stockholder in connection with the nomination or recommendation of a director candidate, such materials are forwarded to the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee also reviews materials provided by professional search firms or other parties in connection with a nominee who is not proposed by a stockholder.

Annual Meeting Attendance

Although we do not have a formal policy regarding attendance by members of the Board of Directors at our annual meetings of stockholders, directors are encouraged to attend annual meetings of the Company. All of our then-nine directors on our Board attended the 2016 annual meeting of stockholders in person or telephonically.

Communication with the Board of Directors

Although we do not have a formal policy regarding communications with the Board of Directors, stockholders who are interested in communicating with the Board of Directors are encouraged to do so by submitting an email to generalcounsel@nuance.com or by writing to us at Nuance Communications, Inc., Attention: General Counsel, One Wayside Road, Burlington, MA 01803. Code of Ethics

Our Board of Directors adopted an amended and restated Code of Business Conduct and Ethics applicable to all of our directors, officers and employees. Our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics can be found on our website: <http://www.nuance.com/company/company-overview/company-policies/corporate-governance/code-of-ethics/index.htm>. Such a request should be made in writing and addressed to Nuance Communications, Inc., Attention: Investor Relations, One Wayside Road, Burlington, MA 01803.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

In 2006, the Board of Directors adopted stock ownership guidelines for our executive officers and the non-employee directors. These guidelines were adopted to further align the interests of our executive officers and non-employee directors with the interests of our stockholders. Under these guidelines, the target share ownership levels are five times base salary for our chief executive officer, three times base salary for our other executive officers, and three times the annual cash retainer for the non-employee directors. Shares of the Company's common stock subject to outstanding and unexercised options, whether or not vested, as well as shares of the Company's common stock subject to outstanding and unvested restricted stock awards are not counted for purposes of satisfying these guidelines. We have not specified a time period during which individuals must be in compliance with the guidelines, however, until an individual has reached the appropriate target level, he or she is required to retain 25% of the net shares received as a result of the exercise of stock options or vesting of restricted stock or restricted stock unit awards. Satisfaction of the stock ownership guidelines is calculated based on the closing market price of the Company's common stock on a quarterly basis.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

Our corporate governance principles are set forth in our Corporate Governance Guidelines, which are available on our website at <http://investors.nuance.com/phoenix.zhtml?c=110330&p=irol-govhighlights>. These guidelines cover, among other items, the following significant topics:

Board Selection Process and Qualifications. The Nominating Committee is responsible reviewing the skills and characteristics required of prospective Board members, and is responsible for recommending to the Board candidates for directorship. Among the criteria the Board may consider are experience and diversity; and with respect to diversity, the Board may consider such factors as gender, race, ethnicity, differences in professional background, experience at policy making levels in business, finance and technology and other areas, education, skill, and other individual qualities and attributes. The Company does not have a formal policy with regard to the consideration of diversity in identifying Director nominees; however, the Board endorses the value of seeking qualified directors from backgrounds otherwise relevant to the Company's mission, strategy and business operations and perceived needs of the Board at a given time.

Director's Eligibility, Education, and Term of Office. Directors may not serve on the Board of Directors of more than four other public companies without first obtaining specific approval from the Board. Each director is required to notify the Chairman, the Lead Independent Director and the Chair of the Nominating Committee upon a change in principal professional responsibilities. The Governance Committee may consider such change of status in recommending to the Board whether the director should continue serving as a member of the Board. Directors who are not nominated for re-election by the Board must retire from the Board at the conclusion of any term during which the director reaches the age of seventy-five years. The Board encourages, and the Company will reimburse the costs associated with, directors participating in continuing director education. The Board believes that term limits may result in the loss of long-serving directors who over time have developed unique and valuable insights into the Company's business and therefore can provide a significant contribution to the Board. As a result, there are no term limits on Board service.

Board Leadership. The leadership of the Board shall include a Chairman of the Board and, if the Chairman of the Board is an employee, a lead independent director designated by the Governance Committee. The lead independent director, who shall be independent under the independence rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market, shall serve as the focal point for independent directors in resolving conflicts with the Chief Executive Officer, or other independent directors, and coordinating feedback to the Chief Executive Officer on behalf of independent directors regarding business issues and Board management.

Committees. The current committee structure of the Board includes the following standing committees: Audit, Compensation, Governance and Nominating. Additional committees may be created or disbanded upon approval of the Board. The Governance Committee recommends, and the full Board approves, the composition of the Board's standing committees. The charters of each standing committee are reviewed periodically with a view to delegating committees with the authority of the Board concerning specified matters appropriate to such committee.

Board's Role in Risk Oversight

The Board has an active role, as a whole and also at the committee level, in overseeing management of Company risk. This role is one of informed oversight rather than direct management of risk. The Board regularly reviews and consults with management on strategic direction, challenges and risks faced by the Company. The Board also reviews and discusses with management quarterly financial results and forecasts. The Audit Committee of the Board oversees management of financial risks, including investment and foreign currency fluctuation risk mitigation policies. The Compensation Committee of the Board is responsible for overseeing the management of risks relating to and arising from the Company's compensation plans and arrangements. These committees provide regular reports generally on a quarterly basis to the full Board.

Management has responsibility for the direct management and oversight of legal, financial and commercial compliance matters, which includes identifying areas of risk and implementing policies, procedures and practices to mitigate the identified risks. Additionally, the Chief Financial Officer, the Chief Accounting Officer and Sr. Director of Corporate Compliance provide regular reports to the Audit Committee concerning financial, tax and compliance related risks. Management also provides the Audit Committee with periodic reports on the Company's compliance programs and efforts, investment policy and practices, and compliance with debt covenants. Management and the Company's compensation consultant provide analysis of risks related to the Company's compensation programs and practices to the Compensation Committee.

Compensation Risk Assessment

In November 2016, the Compensation Committee and management considered whether the Company's compensation programs for employees create incentives for employees to take excessive or unreasonable risks that could materially harm the Company. The Compensation Committee believes that our compensation programs are typical for our industry and that our compensation policies and practices do not create incentives to take excessive or unreasonable risk.

Daniel D. Tempesta, our Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer;

This CD&A describes the material elements of our executive compensation program in effect during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2016 including the basis for the fiscal 2016 compensation decisions. It also provides an overview of additional information related to our executive compensation, including a discussion of our philosophy, policies, practices, objectives and the process by which our Compensation Committee sets executive compensation.

We utilize a number of different financial measures, both Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP") and non-GAAP, in analyzing and assessing the overall performance of the business, for making operating decisions and for forecasting and planning for future periods. Our annual financial plan is prepared both on a GAAP and non-GAAP basis, and the non-GAAP annual financial plan is approved by our Board of Directors. The Board of Directors and management utilize these non-GAAP measures and results (in addition to the GAAP results) to make certain resource allocation and other managerial decisions. In addition, the Compensation Committee uses non-GAAP revenue and non-GAAP earnings per share targets as elements of its goal setting for executive officers' compensation. Our definitions of these measures, as well as a discussion of how they are used in executive compensation matters, is set forth below in this CD&A. A reconciliation of the non-GAAP to GAAP financial measures is set forth in Annex A.

Executive Summary

Business Transformation

We are a leading provider of voice recognition and natural language understanding solutions. Our four operating segments—Healthcare, Mobile, Enterprise, and Imaging—correspond to the markets in which our solutions and technologies are used. We believe that our diversified product solutions and services offerings present a significant competitive advantage in the marketplace.

Edgar Filing: Nuance Communications, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

In recognition of the pace of technological change and consumer expectations, as reflected in the growing adoption of cloud-based, connected services and highly interactive mobile applications, the deeper integration of virtual assistant capabilities and services, and the increasing shift from speech recognition to natural language understanding, semantic processing, domain-specific reasoning, dialog management capabilities, artificial intelligence, and biometric speaker authentication, in fiscal 2015 our Board of Directors embarked on an aggressive multi-year business transformation to focus our product investments on our best growth opportunities, increase our operating efficiencies, reduce costs, accelerate our transition to recurring revenue business models, and further enhance stockholder value through share buybacks.

Our Board of Directors has determined that this transformation is critical to the Company's ability to maintain and expand its market position. In deciding to proceed with this initiative, it understood that the transformation to recurring revenue models would create downward pressure on near-term revenue, potentially negatively impacting the market price of our common stock during the transition. Nonetheless, the Board of Directors determined that it was important for the Company to focus on driving long-term revenue growth while maintaining its focus on cost containment during this period. In addition, the Board determined it was critical to maintain continuity in our management team during the transformation.

Impact on Executive Compensation Design

While viewed as critical to our future growth and profitability, this transformation has presented challenges. Further, it has required our Board of Directors, as well as our senior executives, to manage our business and the Compensation Committee to consequently design our incentive compensation programs with a largely annual focus; both to enable us to nimbly respond to competitive market developments and ensure that we are able to minimize the impact on our revenues. As a result, the leading imperatives on our business since launching the transformation have been preventing the erosion of our revenue levels and contain costs, objectives that have heavily influenced the design of the incentive compensation programs for our executive officers.

Given these realities, as well as the challenges in recruiting and retaining qualified executive officers, particularly in recent years highly-competitive job market for experienced executive talent, since fiscal 2015 the Compensation Committee has designed our executive compensation program with two overarching objectives – to grant incentive awards designed to focus our executive officers' efforts on addressing our near-term business needs, positioning the Company for future growth and profitability, and promoting the retention of our key executive officers, including our CEO and other senior executives. Accordingly, the Compensation Committee has chosen to:

Emphasize the importance of both maintaining our historical revenue levels as we shift toward recurring revenue models and cost containment by using similar performance measures in both our short-term and long-term incentive compensation programs; and

Structure the long-term incentive awards for our executive officers reporting to the CEO to promote our retention objectives. Consistent with the philosophy and approach, the fiscal 2017 incentive awards for our executive officers have been designed by the Compensation Committee to ensure the successful execution of the remaining business transformation milestones.

Table of Contents

We believe that this highly-focused orientation on near-term business imperatives, which has been tailored to achieve our annual operating plan, has worked well with the objectives of the business transformation. As most recently reflected in our operating results for fiscal 2016, we have made steady progress towards completing the business transformation over recent years. As an example, we have grown our non-GAAP recurring revenues for the past four fiscal years as follows:

Transformation Progress

Throughout fiscal 2016, we intensified efforts to advance our business transformation program that we initiated in fiscal 2015 and, as a result, made substantial progress on this initiative. We intend to continue our transformation program in fiscal 2017, maintaining our cost discipline and prioritizing investments for stronger bookings and revenue growth. Our progress on the business transformation program is reflected in the following highlights:

Cost savings. We have reduced expenditures broadly in cost of goods sold and operating expenses, which has contributed well to our improved, year-over-year performance in operating margins, gross margins, and earnings-per-share. Our initiative has involved reductions in services and products from third parties, real estate site consolidation, streamlining management layers and global labor optimization, including workforce reductions. During fiscal 2016, we achieved the $125.0 million target for annualized cost savings. In fiscal 2017, we expect to maintain strong cost disciplines that will allow us to invest in areas for future revenue growth.

Growth investments. We have reallocated investments to our highest-growth opportunities. As a result, we expect our growth businesses to outpace our few declining businesses. These efforts delivered strong, 4% net new bookings growth in fiscal 2016, which is a leading indicator of future revenue growth. In fiscal 2017, we expect approximately 1% percent organic revenue growth, with additional 2% to 4% organic revenue growth expected in fiscal 2018.

Recurring revenue. In recent years, we have sought to shift our business toward recurring revenue models driven by growing customer preference for cloud and subscription offerings. While the transition has placed pressure on near-term revenue, we believe that, over the long term, this change in business models will improve the sustainability and predictability of our revenue streams and return the Company to organic revenue growth in fiscal 2017.

Share repurchase program. As of September 30, 2016, we have repurchased approximately $707.5 million in shares of our common stock under our Board's $1.0 billion repurchase authorization. In fiscal 2017 our plans incorporate the use of $100.0 million in cash to repurchase shares of our common stock under the program.

Fiscal 2016 Financial Results and Fiscal 2017 Goals

In fiscal 2016, we saw improvement across our key measures as we continued the transition of our business toward recurring revenue models, executed on our transformation program, and positioned the Company for future long-term growth. We also strengthened our competitive position in key markets by advancing our innovation and providing more offerings and solutions to the markets we serve. We believe fiscal 2016's groundwork positions us well for organic growth in fiscal 2017 and beyond.

Our improved performance is evidenced in several key measures, including:

Bookings. In fiscal 2016, total bookings were $2,462.6 million, up 3% from $2,389.0 million in fiscal 2015.

Net New Bookings. In fiscal 2016, total net new bookings were $1,502.3 million, up 4% from $1,450.4 million in fiscal 2015.

Revenue. Fiscal 2016 non-GAAP revenue was $1,979.6 million, up slightly from $1,979.1 million in fiscal 2015. Fiscal 2016 GAAP revenue was $1,948.9 million, up $17.8 million from $1,931.1 million in fiscal 2015.

Recurring Revenue. Total fiscal 2016 non-GAAP recurring revenue at the end of fiscal 2016 was $1,380.3 million and represented 70% of total non-GAAP revenue, compared to $1,314.7 million and 66%, respectively, in fiscal 2015.

Margins. Our fiscal 2016 non-GAAP operating margin was 28.5%, compared to 26.2% in fiscal 2015. Non-GAAP operating margin improvement of 230 basis points, as compared to fiscal 2015, was led by cost discipline across all categories of operating expenses.

Net Income. Fiscal 2016 non-GAAP net income was $454.4 million, or $1.52 per diluted share, compared to $411.6 million, or $1.27 per diluted share, in fiscal 2015. We recognized GAAP net loss of $(12.5) million, or $(0.04) per share, compared to GAAP net loss of $(115.0) million, or $(0.36) per share, in fiscal 2015.

Cash Flow from Operations (CFFO). We reported record full-year CFFO of $565.8 million in fiscal 2016, up 16% compared to $487.6 million in fiscal 2015, benefitting from non-GAAP strong profitability and changes in working capital. CFFO as a percentage of non-GAAP net income was 125%, up from 118% a year ago.

See Annex A for a reconciliation of the non-GAAP to GAAP financial measures.

We anticipate that we will continue with the business transformation during fiscal 2017 and return to organic revenue growth. Accordingly, our Board of Directors expects that we will continue to focus on the following initiatives:

elevating the growth of the company by enhancing our market position with a focus on deepening customer engagements;

continuing to strengthen our core technologies in voice and natural language, and enhance our offerings through increasing use of artificial intelligence, cognitive computing, and machine learning;

continuing our transition to recurring revenue models;

remaining disciplined in our costs; and prioritizing our investments in our highest revenue growth areas.

Fiscal 2016 Business Challenges and Responses

At the beginning of fiscal 2016, we faced a number of challenges that the Compensation Committee needed to address with respect to the oversight of our executive compensation program and making decisions for the current fiscal year.

Table of Contents

Responding to Stockholder Feedback on Executive Compensation Program

Prior to the 2016 annual meeting, our Board of Directors, led by the Compensation Committee, sought to better understand how it could continue to address stockholder concerns about our executive compensation program while continuing to emphasize the annual focus of our business transformation initiative. Continuing an initiative that began following our initial Say-on-Pay failure in fiscal 2013, at the request of the Compensation Committee we contacted stockholders representing 68% of our outstanding shares and met with stockholders representing 36% of outstanding shares.

As in fiscal 2015, we received feedback indicating concern about two key design features of our executive compensation program: the short-term focus of our long-term incentive compensation program and our use of overlapping performance measures for annual and long-term incentive compensation programs.

At our 2016 annual meeting of stockholders, we received 36% support for the stockholder advisory (Say-on-Pay) proposal on the compensation of the Named Executive Officers. While this represented a nearly three-fold increase in support from the prior year advisory stockholder vote, it also marked the third time in past four fiscal years that we failed to receive majority support for our executive compensation program.

Armed with this information, the Compensation Committee conducted an intensive review of our executive compensation program, and assessed the feasibility of re-designing the incentive compensation plans in light of the ongoing business transformation. At the outset, the Compensation Committee noted that, given the timing of the fiscal 2016 executive compensation decisions and the 2016 annual meeting of stockholders, the first opportunity to begin to meaningfully respond to stockholder feedback would not come until establishing the fiscal 2017 executive compensation program. After taking into consideration our stockholders' feedback and weighing these concerns against the understanding of our business imperatives, the Compensation Committee decided to make the following modifications to the executive compensation program for fiscal 2017:

Aligned 100% of the CEO's performance shares issued pursuant to his employment agreement entered into in November 2016 to a relative total Shareholder return (TSR) metric to be measured over the term of his agreement,

Introduced a total stockholder return (TSR) modifier for the performance-based long-term incentive compensation awards to be earned at the end of fiscal 2019; and

Eliminated the overlapping performance measures for annual and long-term incentive compensation awards.

At the same time, the Compensation Committee decided to continue to emphasize in-year performance in the setting of the performance objectives for the short-term and long-term incentive compensation arrangements to ensure the successful execution of the business transformation.

The Compensation Committee is committed to addressing stockholder concerns about our executive compensation program and expects to continue to evaluate potential program design changes in the future, including reducing the overall target total direct compensation opportunity and continuing to link the majority of each executive officer's target total direct compensation opportunity to Company performance.

Fiscal 2016 Compensation Decisions

Consistent with our compensation philosophy and to further the focus on the successful execution of our business transformation, the target total direct compensation opportunities of our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, for fiscal 2016 were directly tied to performance measures designed to focus on our revenue and profitability and, thereby, produce long-term stockholder value given the continuing shift to recurring revenues. At the same time, the Compensation Committee considered the competitive job market, the desire to retain our executive officers so as to not jeopardize the business transformation, and the costs (both direct and indirect) associated with having to replace one or more executive officers when making its compensation decisions.

Table of Contents

Specifically for fiscal 2016, the Compensation Committee took the following actions with respect to the compensation of the Named Executive Officers:

Base salary. Maintained their annual base salaries at their fiscal 2015 levels. In connection with his appointment as our Executive Vice President and General Manager, Mobile Division in January 2016, set Mr. Schassler's annual base salary at $500,000.

Annual Bonus Opportunities. Maintained their target annual bonus opportunities at their fiscal 2015 levels. In connection with his appointment as our Executive Vice President and General Manager, Mobile Division in January 2016, set Mr. Schassler's target annual bonus opportunity at 75% of his annual base salary.

Annual Bonus Payments. Awarded annual bonus payments that ranged from 100% to 125% of their target bonus opportunity based on our level of achievement of the annual performance objectives, except with respect to Mr. Robbins who terminated his employment in November 2016 and was not eligible for a bonus. For additional information on the Compensation Committee's decisions, see the Short-Term Incentive Compensation section below.

Equity Awards. Approved equity awards in amounts that it believed to be competitive, satisfied our retention objectives, and rewarded them for individual performance and expected future contributions. Half of these awards were entirely performance-based, with the exception of Mr. Ricci who received 100% performance-based awards, the value of which will be earned only if they achieve the performance goals established annually for such awards.

Employment Agreement with Mr. Ricci. Entered into negotiations with Mr. Ricci seeking a delay in his expressed interest in retirement by agreeing to an extension of his employment agreement through March 2018 on terms that were mutually satisfactory to both parties. For additional information about the terms and conditions of Mr. Ricci's amended and restated employment agreement, see the following section of this Executive Summary.

Although the Compensation Committee was aware of stockholder concerns about the design of our short-term and long-term incentive compensation programs following our 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, it elected to address these concerns in connection with establishing the compensation arrangements for our executive officers for fiscal 2017. Accordingly, as described above, the Compensation Committee modified the design of the fiscal 2017 annual bonuses to begin to address stockholder concerns and to ensure continued alignment across the Company.

Amended and Restated Employment Agreement with Mr. Ricci

At the beginning of fiscal 2016, the Compensation Committee was made aware of Mr. Ricci's desire to retire at the expiration of his current employment at the end of fiscal 2016. After discussion among its members, our Board of Directors determined that it was in the best interests of the Company and our stockholders to secure Mr. Ricci's continued employment to both ensure the successful completion of the business transformation that he had initiated and led since fiscal 2015 and to provide adequate time for the identification, recruitment, and hiring of his successor and for a seamless transition to such successor.

Accordingly, on behalf of our Board of Directors, the Compensation Committee commenced negotiations with Mr. Ricci for a continuation of his employment through March 2018 on terms and conditions that were mutually satisfactory to both parties. In conducting these negotiations, the Compensation Committee was aware of and took into consideration the following factors:

Mr. Ricci's role for the past 15+ years in turning the Company into the recognized leader in voice and language solutions for businesses and consumers worldwide; his status as a leading visionary in the voice and language solutions sector;

his importance to as our business transformation as we transition our business toward recurring revenue models, thereby positioning the Company for both a return to profitability and future sustained long-term growth;

the potential risks that the Company would face if, at this point in the business transformation, he left the Company, as well as the concerns that such a departure may raise; and the terms and conditions of his then-existing employment agreement, as last amended in November 2015, and the need to ensure that his rights pursuant to that agreement were adequately addressed in any future agreement (including the compensation to which he would be entitled upon the expiration of such agreement).

Consequently, in November 2016, we entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Mr. Ricci. The new agreement runs through March 31, 2018. The key terms and conditions of the new employment agreement are as follows:

Base salary and target annual bonus His base salary and target bonus levels are to remain consistent with levels under his prior employment agreement ($800,000 base salary and target annual bonus of 150% of base salary for fiscal 2017);

Long-term incentive compensation He is to continue to receive an annual long-term incentive compensation opportunity consisting of both performance-based and time-based equity awards for the term of the agreement;

Severance payments upon non-renewal of employment agreement Eliminated the provision giving him the right to trigger termination of the agreement with full severance payment and accelerated vesting of equity awards. Instead, he is eligible to receive a retention payment in the amount of $8,400,000, which will be forfeited if he voluntarily terminates his employment without good reason as defined in Mr. Ricci's employment agreement, prior to March 31, 2018; and

Post-employment compensation In the event of an involuntary termination of employment, he is eligible to receive payments and benefits consistent with the terms of the prior employment agreement (which covers both an involuntary termination of employment in connection with and absent a change-in-control of the Company).

Executive Compensation-Related Policies and Practices

We endeavor to maintain sound executive compensation policies and practices, including compensation-related corporate governance standards, consistent with our executive compensation philosophy. During fiscal 2016, we maintained the following policies and practices, including both policies and practices we have implemented to drive performance and policies and practices that either prohibit or minimize behaviors that we do not believe serve our stockholders' long-term interests:

What We Do

Maintain a Compensation Committee comprised solely of independent directors who have established effective means for communicating with our stockholders regarding their executive compensation ideas and concerns.

Enable the Compensation Committee to engage and retain its own advisors. During fiscal 2016, the Compensation Committee continued to engage Compensia to assist with its responsibilities. Compensia performs no other services for the Company.

The Compensation Committee conducts an annual review of our executive compensation strategy, including a review of the compensation peer group used for comparative purposes, and, to help avoid creating any such risks that would be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on us, an annual review of our compensation-related risk profile.

Edgar Filing: Nuance Communications, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

Design the equity awards granted to our executive officers to vest or be earned over multi-year periods, which is consistent with current market practice, and better serves our long-term value creation goals and retention objectives.

Table of Contents

Design our executive compensation program to use performance-based short-term and long-term incentive compensation awards to align of the long-term interests of our executive officers with the interests of our stockholders.

Provide modest amounts of perquisites and other personal benefits to our executive officers which serve a sound business purpose.

Require that all change-in-control payments and benefits are based on a double-trigger arrangement (that is, they first require both a change-in-control of the Company and a qualifying termination of employment before an executive officer is eligible to receive any such payments and benefits).

Provide that all change-in-control payment and benefit amounts and multiples are within reasonable market norms.

Maintain a rigorous stock ownership policy for our executive officers which require each of them to beneficially own a specified amount of our common stock computed as a multiple of their annual base salary.

Maintain a compensation recovery (clawback) policy which provides that, in the event we are required to prepare an accounting restatement, we may recover from our executive officers any incentive compensation erroneously paid or awarded in excess of what would have been paid under the accounting restatement.

Prohibit our executive officers, employees, and members of our Board of Directors from speculating in our equity securities, including the use of short sales, sales against the box or any equivalent transaction involving our equity securities, or engaging in any other hedging transactions with respect to our equity securities. In addition, we prohibit our employees, executive officers, and members of our Board of Directors from pledging their equity securities or using such securities as collateral for a loan.

What We Do Not Do

- X Offer pension arrangements, defined benefit retirement plans, or nonqualified deferred compensation plans to our executive officers.
- X Provide any tax reimbursement payments or gross-ups in connection with any severance or change-in-control payments or benefits to our executive officers.
- X Pay dividends or dividend equivalents on unvested or unearned restricted stock unit and performance-based restricted stock unit awards.
- X Reprice options to purchase shares of our common stock without stockholder approval.

Compensation Philosophy

Our compensation philosophy is designed to promote our business objectives on the principle that our strategic and operational achievements result from the coordinated efforts of all employees working toward common strategic goals. Our guiding compensation principles focus on:

aligning the interests of our executive officers and our stockholders and customers by offering significant levels of at-risk compensation in the form of a) an annual short-term incentive bonus opportunity, and b) both time-based and performance-based restricted stock unit awards for shares of our common stock so that the long-term incentives available to our executive officers are directly correlated to our financial performance;

paying our executive officers on the basis of their value to the organization;

maintaining a compensation program that ensures compensation levels that are competitive with those of other organizations in our labor markets, based on our current financial condition; and attracting, retaining, and motivating the best employees.

Compensation Objectives and Challenges

Our overall compensation objective is to compensate our executive officers and other employees in a manner that attracts and retains the caliber of individuals needed to manage and staff a dynamic, highly-complex business in an innovative industry. For our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, we seek to align our executive compensation program with the interests of our stockholders by tying a significant portion of their total compensation to the performance of our common stock.

Currently, we face challenges in hiring and retaining executive officers due to a number of factors that contribute to a relatively small pool of executive talent being available. We believe that this makes recruiting and retaining executive officers difficult, and our executive compensation program takes into account and seeks to address these challenges, including the following:

Highly Competitive Voice Recognition and Natural Language Understanding Industry The market for voice recognition solutions and natural language understanding technologies is highly competitive, rapidly evolving, and fragmented, and is subject to changing technologies, shifting customer needs, and the frequent introduction of new products and services. Our position as a pioneer in this innovative and highly-competitive industry makes us a more attractive employer to some executives but a less attractive employer to others. In addition, our success has made our executive officers more attractive as candidates for employment with other companies, creating additional challenges for us to retain them.

Executive Background We hire deeply-experienced managers with specific experience in key functional areas who have operated in a fast-moving environment similar to the one in which we operate. The number of executives with the most desirable experience in our industry is relatively low and these executives are difficult to find. We have expanded our recruiting efforts both geographically and into other industries and sectors, which leads to increased complexity in recruiting efforts and has required us to be more aggressive with our executive compensation packages.

Corporate Environment We are a demanding employer and our fast-moving, challenging culture is not always suited to the executives who comprise the talent pool from which we recruit. Like many companies in very dynamic markets, we place extraordinary demands on executive time and attention. This means that often prospective executives are more focused on equity compensation, and the Compensation Committee applies our compensation practices accordingly. The Compensation Committee believes that offering competitive long-term incentive compensation awards with strong upside opportunities in our compensation packages better aligns the interests of our executive officers and our stockholders. If performance is not achieved, the compensation realized by our executive officers is reduced accordingly.

Replacement Cost When determining the compensation for a current executive officer who has been with us for a substantial period of time, the Compensation Committee takes into consideration what it may cost to hire that executive officer's replacement. The Compensation Committee believes that replacement cost is highly relevant to an executive officer's compensation because it is what we would have to pay if the executive officer left us given the factors described above and it likely approximates the executive officer's own perceived value in the competitive environment for executive talent.

Our objective is to implement strategies for delivering compensation that align current opportunities with the overall software industry, provide sufficient emphasis on pay-for-performance and are appropriately aligned with our financial goals and long-term stockholder returns.

Compensation-Setting Process

Authority, Role, and Operation of the Compensation Committee

The current members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Frankenberg (Chair), Finocchio, and Quigley. Our Board of Directors created the Compensation Committee to discharge its responsibilities relating to the compensation of our executive officers. The Compensation Committee oversees, evaluates and approves compensation plans, policies and practices applicable to, and approves the compensation of, the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee also administers the Company's equity-based incentive compensation except to the extent that authority to administer the plans has been delegated to the Chief Executive Officer to administer such plans as to non-executive personnel.

The Compensation Committee has adopted a written charter approved by our Board of Directors, which discusses in detail its responsibilities, and which is available on our corporate website at <http://www.nuance.com/company/company-overview/company-policies/corporate-governance/compensation-committee/index.htm>.

The Compensation Committee establishes all elements of compensation paid to our CEO and reviews management's recommendations for and approves all elements of compensation paid to our other executive officers, including the other Named Executive Officers. Our CEO, in consultation with our Senior Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer, submits all recommendations regarding the compensation of our other executive officers to the Compensation Committee for its review and approval. The Compensation Committee also reviews the compensation of the non-employee members of our Board of Directors and recommends changes, when appropriate, to our Board of Directors.

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Compensation Committee may engage outside consultants and/or consult with our human resources department from time to time. The Compensation Committee also may obtain advice and assistance from internal or external legal, accounting or other advisers that it selects. Other than delegation of authority to our Chief Executive Officer to grant equity awards to non-executive personnel, the Compensation Committee may delegate any of its responsibilities to one or more subcommittees, to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Compensation Committee did not delegate any responsibilities to a subcommittee during fiscal 2016.

The Compensation Committee reviews the compensation of our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, annually to ensure that it is consistent with our compensation philosophy, corporate and individual performance, changes in the market, and our executive officers' individual responsibilities. During the first quarter of our fiscal year, or in conjunction with the Company-wide performance process, the Compensation Committee conducts a review of the performance of each executive officer, including our CEO.

Our CEO presents to the Compensation Committee his evaluation of each executive officer, which includes a review of his or her contribution and performance during the last fiscal year (compared against the performance objectives that our CEO and Compensation Committee established at the beginning of the fiscal year for the executive officer), strengths, weaknesses, development plans and succession potential. Our human resources department also assists in the performance reviews of our executive officers, all of whom report directly to our CEO.

The Compensation Committee then makes its own assessments using our CEO's presentation and, based on this assessment, approves each executive officer's annual bonus payment, if any, for the last completed fiscal year, including any discretionary adjustments to such awards, and the elements of each executive officer's total direct compensation opportunity, including performance-based compensation, for the current fiscal year, taking into account, in each case, our CEO's evaluation, the scope of the executive officer's responsibilities and experience, and its own evaluation of the competitive market.

The Compensation Committee believes that strong, long-term corporate performance is achieved with a corporate culture that encourages a long-term focus by our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers. At the beginning of fiscal 2016, the Compensation Committee reviewed the key objectives of our operating plan and determined the performance measures that will provide focus on our continued revenue, bookings and earnings-per-share growth. In fiscal 2016, while still in the midst of the business transition which has been focused on strengthening our recurring revenue growth, the Compensation Committee defined the key measures that would best provide a balance between maintaining revenue during this transition and maintaining a focus on earnings-per-share. In fiscal 2016, our CEO's performance objectives were based on achievement of the non-GAAP revenue, bookings and non-GAAP earnings-per-share target levels established by the Compensation Committee that aligned with our fiscal 2016 operating plan, while the performance objectives for the other Named Executive Officers were based on the financial objectives established for the Company as a whole and their respective business functions and responsibilities. The corporate, financial, and individual performance objectives for our executive officers are established in a manner such that target attainment is not assured; meaning that the executive officers' receipt of compensation for performance at or above target will require significant effort on their part.

Role of Compensation Committee Advisor

The Compensation Committee retained Compensia, to serve as its independent advisor for fiscal 2016. Compensia advises the Compensation Committee with respect to trends in executive compensation, compensation peer group selection, the determination and design of compensation plans and arrangements, the assessment of competitive pay levels and mix (for example, the proportion of fixed pay to variable pay and the proportion of annual cash pay to long-term incentive pay), total equity utilization levels compared to market, and setting compensation levels. As part of its engagement, Compensia conducted executive and non-employee director compensation analyses to be used in connection with the Compensation Committee fiscal 2016 compensation actions.

The Compensation Committee may replace an advisor or hire additional advisors at any time. Compensia did not provide any other services to us and received no compensation other than with respect to the services described above.

Based on the consideration of the various factors as set forth in the rules of the SEC and the listing standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market, the Compensation Committee has determined that its relationship with Compensia and the work of Compensia on behalf of the Compensation Committee has not raised any conflict of interest.

Competitive Positioning

Each year, to determine the competitiveness of our overall executive compensation program, the Compensation Committee reviews the compensation for comparable positions within our industry, the historical compensation levels of our executive officers, and the individual performance of executive officers evaluated against their individual objectives established for the preceding fiscal year. The Compensation Committee believes the group of companies that it uses for these purposes constitutes an appropriate peer group because we compete for the same employee pool at the executive level, are in the same or similar industry, and are of generally similar size as measured by revenue and market capitalization. The Compensation Committee obtains compensation data about these companies from compensation surveys, publicly-available proxy statements, and other public filings. In addition, this data is supplemented by Radford executive compensation survey data representing a broader group of technology companies that are of similar size with revenues between $1 billion to $3 billion.

In July 2015, the Compensation Committee, with the assistance of Compensia, updated the compensation peer group to account for changes in our total revenue and revenue growth, market capitalization, and business/industry focus. At that time, the Compensation Committee removed salesforce.com, Inc. from the peer group due to differences in revenue and market capitalization. It also removed Micros Systems, Inc. and TIBCO Software, Inc. from the peer group as a result of their being acquired. Subsequent to the review of the peer group, Informatica Corporation was also acquired, thus causing it to be removed from the peer group. The Compensation Committee added Allscripts Healthcare Solutions, Inc. and Intuit, Inc. to the peer group, noting their financial and business and/or industry similarities to us. The compensation peer group utilized for the remainder of fiscal 2015 and to frame and evaluate the Compensation Committee's fiscal 2016 compensation analysis, consisted of the following companies:

Adobe Systems Incorporated	LinkedIn Corporation
Akamai Technologies, Inc.	PTC, Inc.
Allscripts Healthcare Solutions, Inc.	Red Hat, Inc.
Autodesk, Inc.	Synopsys, Inc.
Cadence Design Systems, Inc.	Teradata Corporation
Cerner Corporation	Verifone Systems, Inc.
Citrix Systems, Inc.	VeriSign, Inc.
Intuit, Inc.

In June 2016, the Compensation Committee, with the assistance of Compensia, updated the compensation peer group to better align to the Company's revenue size and market capitalization, and business/industry focus. At that time, the Compensation Committee removed Adobe Systems Incorporated and Intuit, Inc. from the peer group due to differences in revenue and market capitalization. It also removed LinkedIn Corporation from the peer group as a result of its acquisition. The Compensation Committee added ANSYS, Inc., athenahealth, Mentor Graphics Corporation, Fair Isaac Corporation and Verint Systems, Inc. to the peer group, noting their financial and business and/or industry similarities to us. The compensation peer group utilized for the remainder of fiscal 2016 and to frame and evaluate the Compensation Committee's fiscal 2017 compensation analysis consisted of the following companies:

Akamai Technologies, Inc.	Mentor Graphics Corporation
Allscripts Healthcare Solutions, Inc.	PTC, Inc.
ANSYS, Inc.	Red Hat, Inc.
Athenahealth, Inc.	Synopsys, Inc.

Compensation Elements

In fiscal 2016, the compensation arrangements of our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, comprised the following elements:

base salary;

a performance-based annual bonus opportunity;

long-term incentive compensation in the form of equity awards;

company retirement and other welfare benefits;

personal benefits; and post-employment compensation payments and benefits.

Our compensation philosophy places an emphasis on at-risk pay with a balanced focus between short-term and long-term strategic objectives. Consistent with this philosophy, the majority of the target total direct compensation opportunities of our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, is variable in nature, the payment and value of which depends on our financial results.

To achieve this objective, we use a performance-based annual bonuses that may be paid out in cash or shares of our common stock (with or without additional vesting requirements) or a combination of both cash and shares, of which has mainly been paid in shares of our common stock, and long-term incentive compensation in the form of time-based restricted stock unit awards that may be settled for shares of our common stock, time-based restricted stock awards that may be settled for shares of our common stock, and performance-based restricted stock unit awards that may be settled for shares of our common stock.

The performance measures we establish for the annual bonuses and the performance-based restricted stock unit awards are designed to promote stockholder return, market share increase, and revenue and earnings growth.

Edgar Filing: Nuance Communications, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

For fiscal 2016, the Compensation Committee elected, in consideration of the volatile nature of the software industry, compounded by the major transition of our business to a recurring revenue model, to establish performance measures and related target levels for the performance-based restricted stock unit awards that were based on our fiscal 2016 financial performance as measured by non-GAAP revenue at the corporate and segment levels, corporate and segment level gross and net new bookings, non-GAAP earnings-per-share, segment profit margin, non-GAAP operating expense, and cash flow from operations, while our fiscal 2016 annual bonuses were based on the intersection of non-GAAP revenue and non-GAAP earnings-per-share achievement. These performance measures were selected based on the Compensation Committee's belief that they best position us for sustained growth in the future.

Table of ContentsBase Salary

We use base salary to provide our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, with a basic fixed amount of compensation. Base salary levels reflect each executive officer's responsibilities, performance, and expertise and are intended to be competitive with the base salary levels of comparable positions at the companies in our compensation peer group.

The Compensation Committee establishes base salary levels based, in part, on a review of market data for our compensation peer group, as well as the job performance and level of experience of each individual executive officer, internal pay parity considerations, and replacement costs. Generally, we tie the performance-based incentive compensation opportunities and post-employment compensation arrangements for each executive officer to his or her base salary.

In October 2015, the Compensation Committee reviewed the base salaries of our executive officers, including each of the Named Executive Officers, and determined that no adjustments would be made to their base salary levels for fiscal 2016.

The base salaries of the Named Executive Officers during fiscal 2016 were as follows:

Named Executive Officer	Fiscal 2015 Base Salary	Fiscal 2016 Base Salary	Percentage Change
Mr. Ricci	$ 800,000	$ 800,000
Mr. Tempesta	$ 400,000	$ 400,000
Mr. Bowden	$ 400,000	$ 400,000
Mr. Robbins	$ 450,000	$ 450,000
Mr. Schassler(1)	N/A	$ 500,000	N/A

- (1) In connection with his appointment as our Executive Vice President and General Manager, Mobile Division in January 2016, the Compensation Committee set Mr. Schassler's annual base salary at $500,000. This amount was determined by the Compensation Committee in arms-length negotiations with Mr. Schassler after evaluating the market data of our compensation peer group.

Short-Term Incentive Compensation

Consistent with our compensation philosophy, the Compensation Committee has designed our executive compensation program to ensure that a significant level of our executive officers' target total direct compensation opportunity is at risk. To help accomplish this objective, we provide for performance-based bonus opportunities for our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, based on the achievement of corporate performance objectives established at the beginning of the year.

During fiscal 2016, the Compensation Committee adopted an annual executive bonus performance objectives and payout targets for our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, which was designed to promote the attainment of specific financial objectives (as reflected in our annual operating plan) while, at the same time, supporting our longer-term strategic business objectives, and encouraging leadership and teamwork. The Compensation Committee, after consultation with our CEO, established two financial performance measures, as well as minimum, target, and maximum performance levels for each measure. In addition, each executive officer was assigned a target bonus opportunity that generally reflected his or her position and is expressed as a percentage of his or her base salary. The amount of each executive officer's actual bonus payment was to be based on the extent to which we achieve or exceed the pre-established target level for each performance measure (up to a maximum percentage of 100%) that may be paid out to any executive officer. The Compensation Committee has the authority to modify bonuses up or down as justified by the circumstances.

After the end of the fiscal year, the Compensation Committee reviewed our performance against the financial performance measures and made its bonus decisions. The Compensation Committee had the discretion to approve bonus payments which were higher or lower than an executive officer's target bonus opportunity depending on its evaluation of his or her individual performance for the fiscal year. Annual bonus payments may be paid out in cash or shares of our common stock or a combination of both cash and shares, of which has mainly been paid in shares of our common stock, which may be subject to additional vesting requirements as established by the Compensation Committee.

Target Bonus Opportunities

In November 2015, the Compensation Committee reviewed the fiscal 2016 target bonus opportunity for each executive officer, including each Named Executive Officer, and determined that, at that time, no adjustments were necessary or appropriate.

The target bonus opportunities of the Named Executive Officers for fiscal 2016 were as follows:

Named Executive Officer	Fiscal 2016 Target Bonus Opportunity (as a percentage of base salary)
Mr. Ricci	150%
Mr. Tempesta	75%
Mr. Bowden	75%
Mr. Robbins	78%
Mr. Schassler(1)	75%

- (1) In connection with his appointment as our Executive Vice President and General Manager, Mobile Division in January 2016, the Compensation Committee set Mr. Schassler's target bonus opportunity at 75% of his annual base salary. This amount was determined by the Compensation Committee in arms-length negotiations with Mr. Schassler after evaluating the market data of our compensation peer group.

Corporate Performance Measures

For fiscal 2016, annual bonuses were to be funded based on our actual performance as measured against the intersection of two corporate financial measures, non-GAAP revenue of $2.0 billion and non-GAAP earnings-per-share of $1.39, which the Compensation Committee determined were critical to the successful execution of our fiscal 2016 operating plan.

For purposes of the 2016 bonuses, we calculated non-GAAP revenue and non-GAAP earnings-per-share in the same manner that we calculate this measure for purposes of our quarterly earnings announcements. In performing this calculation, we either included or excluded items in six general categories, each of which are described below.

Acquisition-Related Revenue and Cost of Revenue. We include revenue and cost of revenue related to acquisitions that would otherwise have been recognized but for the purchase accounting treatment of these transactions. Non-GAAP revenue also includes revenue that we would have otherwise recognized had we not acquired intellectual property and other assets from the same customer.

Acquisition-Related Costs, Net. We have completed a number of acquisitions, which result in operating expenses which would not otherwise have been incurred. These acquisition-related costs are included in the following categories: (i) transition and integration costs; (ii) professional service fees and expenses; and (iii) acquisition related adjustments. These categories are further discussed as follows:

Transition and integration costs include retention payments, transitional employee costs, and earn-out payments treated as compensation expense, as well as the costs of integration-related services, including services provided by third-parties;

Professional service fees and expenses include financial advisory, legal, accounting, and other outside services in connection with acquisition activities, and disputes and regulatory matters related to acquired entities; and

Acquisition-related adjustments include items that are required to be marked to fair value each reporting period, such as contingent consideration, and other items related to acquisitions for which the measurement period has ended, such as gains or losses on settlements of pre-acquisition contingencies.

Amortization of Acquired Intangible Assets. We exclude the amortization of acquired intangible assets from the calculation of non-GAAP expense and income measures, including earnings-per-share.

Costs Associated with IP Collaboration Agreement. To gain access to a third party's extensive speech recognition technology and natural language and semantic processing technology, we entered into IP collaboration agreements, with terms that ranged between five and six years and a completion date in fiscal 2016. Depending on the agreement, some or all intellectual property derived from these collaborations will be jointly owned by the two parties. For the majority of the developed intellectual property, we will have sole rights to commercialize such intellectual property for periods ranging between two to six years, depending on the agreement. For non-GAAP purposes, we consider these long-term contracts and the resulting acquisitions of intellectual property from the third-party over the agreements' terms to be an investing activity, outside of its normal, organic, continuing operating activities, and are therefore excluded from our non-GAAP results.

Non-Cash Expenses. We exclude the following non-cash expenses when calculating non-GAAP earnings-per-share: (i) stock-based compensation; (ii) certain accrued non-cash interest; and (iii) certain accrued non-cash income taxes.

Other Expenses. We exclude certain other expenses that are the result of unplanned events and arose outside of the ordinary course of continuing operations when calculating non-GAAP earnings-per-share. Included in these expenses are items such as restructuring charges, asset impairments, and other charges (credits), net. These items also include losses from the extinguishment of our debt and adjustments from changes in fair value of share-based instruments relating to the issuance of our common stock with security price guarantees payable in cash. Other items such as consulting and professional service fees related to assessing strategic alternatives and our transformation program, and gains or losses on non-controlling strategic equity interests, are also excluded.

Fiscal 2016 Bonus Decisions

For fiscal 2016, our reported non-GAAP revenue was $1,979.6 million and our non-GAAP earnings-per-share was $1.52 per share. After reviewing these financial results, the Compensation Committee approved the funding of bonuses at 100% of the target bonus opportunity level as a result of the overachievement on earnings-per-share offsetting the non-GAAP revenue shortfall. With respect to the bonus payments for each of the Named Executive Officers, in November 2016 the Compensation Committee exercised its discretion to approve the bonus payments to each of the Named Executive Officers as follows:

Mr. Ricci received a bonus payment equal to 100% of his target bonus opportunity based on the achievement of the intersection of our non-GAAP revenue and non-GAAP earnings-per-share, in particular the overachievement of the earnings-per-share target.

Mr. Tempesta received a bonus payment equal to 100% of his target bonus opportunity based on the achievement of the intersection of our non-GAAP revenue and non-GAAP earnings-per-share, in particular the overachievement of the earnings-per-share target.

Mr. Bowden received a bonus payment equal to 100% of his target bonus opportunity based on the achievement of the intersection of our non-GAAP revenue and non-GAAP earnings-per-share, in particular the overachievement of the earnings-per-share target.

Mr. Robbins terminated his employment with the Company in November 2016 and did not receive a bonus payment for fiscal 2016.

Table of Contents

Mr. Schassler received a bonus payment equal to 125% of his target bonus opportunity based on his performance in assisting in the achievement of our fiscal 2016 financial results. Mr. Schassler's bonus was enhanced due to his contribution to the strong bookings performance in our Mobile segment in the second half of fiscal 2016.

The fiscal 2016 bonus payments for the Named Executive Officers were made entirely in the form of restricted stock unit awards that are to be settled in shares of our common stock. The number of shares of our common stock subject to these awards was determined by dividing the amount of the bonus earned by the closing market price of our common stock on November 18, 2016, or $16.91 per share, which was the date the Compensation Committee approved the final allocation of the executive officer bonuses. These restricted stock unit awards vested in full on December 2, 2016.

The actual bonus payments to the Named Executive Officers for fiscal 2016 were as follows:

Named Executive Officer	Percentage of Fiscal 2016 Target Bonus Opportunity Earned	Actual Fiscal 2016 Bonus $(1)	Actual Fiscal 2016 Bonus (as a number of shares of common stock)
Mr. Ricci	100%	$ 1,200,000	70,963
Mr. Tempesta	100%	$ 300,000	17,740
Mr. Bowden	100%	$ 300,000	17,740
Mr. Robbins(2)	0%	$
Mr. Schassler(3)	125%	$ 337,178	19,939

- (1) The cash amount was not paid but rather converted into a number of shares of common stock with an equal value based on the closing price of our common stock on the date of grant.
- (2) Mr. Robbins terminated his employment in November 2016 and did not receive a bonus for fiscal 2016.
- (3) Mr. Schassler's base bonus was pro-rated as a result of his effective hire date January 14, 2016. The bonus reflected above is inclusive of a special enhanced recognition bonus provided to Mr. Schassler for his contribution to the strong bookings performance in our Mobile segment in the second half of fiscal 2016.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation Philosophy

Consistent with our compensation philosophy, the Compensation Committee has designed our executive compensation program to provide that a significant level of our executive officers' target total direct compensation opportunity is at risk. All of their long-term incentive compensation is at risk as it is subject to the volatility of our stock price with at least 50% of their long-term incentive compensation delivered in the form of performance-based restricted stock unit awards of which are earned only if the performance targets are achieved.

The Compensation Committee structures these awards to reflect the unique characteristics of our business:

A business in a highly-competitive and rapidly-changing industry;

A business with a long-term growth strategy based on both acquisitions as well as organic growth; and

A business in the midst of a major transformation of our business model.

As a result, the Compensation Committee has determined that it is in our best interests to select the performance measures and set the related target levels for our performance-based restricted stock unit awards using an annual approach, including measures which drive longer-term performance, with the exception of a portion of our CEO's awards as described below. Not only does this approach enable the Compensation

Edgar Filing: Nuance Communications, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

Committee to set performance goals that are responsive to our near-term and long-term objectives, it also minimizes the risk that these goals will become unattainable because of unforeseen or changing circumstances by providing the committee with the opportunity to adapt the measures to the rapidly changing environment. This annual performance period approach also allows the Compensation Committee to be responsive to ever-changing business conditions and maintains focus on key measures in the midst of the transformation of our business model.

Table of Contents

In addition, by determining the size of each performance-based restricted stock unit award at the beginning of each three-year performance cycle, the Compensation Committee is able to ensure that each executive officer has a significant portion of his annual and near-term total direct compensation opportunity at risk, underscoring our emphasis on performance results and reinforcing our retention objectives.

At the same time, the Compensation Committee believes that, consistent with our compensation philosophy, the target total direct compensation opportunities of our executive officers should be predicated on their value to the organization. This is particularly true in the case of Mr. Ricci. As our Chief Executive Officer since September 2000, and Chairman of our Board of Directors since 1999, Mr. Ricci has played a critical role in our ongoing success over the past 16 years, both as our senior executive officer and a visionary in a dynamic and continuously-changing industry. During his tenure, Mr. Ricci has successfully led us through significant strategic acquisitions and business alliances that have transformed us into a leading provider of voice and natural language solutions. At the same time, under his guidance we have embarked on an aggressive plan to transform our business model, with an increasing concentration of our revenue coming from our hosting, term licensing and transaction based offerings, which are recurring revenue streams, and a decreasing proportion of our revenues coming from perpetual license models. Given his industry stature, Mr. Ricci continues to be a potential candidate for leadership positions at other companies that may seek to recruit him with a lucrative compensation package.

The implementation of these principles can be illustrated by the equity awards that the Compensation Committee has granted to Mr. Ricci over the past four fiscal years. Over that period, in recognition of his leadership and to directly link his compensation to our financial and operational performance, a significant portion of Mr. Ricci's target total direct compensation opportunity has consisted of the opportunity to earn shares of our common stock that is heavily weighted towards specific performance objectives. The Compensation Committee, however, did take into consideration the significant feedback that we received from our stockholders and over the last three years has materially reduced the grant value of these awards as depicted in table entitled Chief Executive Officer-Approved Equity Awards.

For purposes of this discussion, the terms issuance date and grant date are defined as follows:

Issuance Date means the date on which the Compensation Committee approved the issuance of equity award to the Named Executive Officers. The per share value of these awards on such date is equal to the closing market price of our common stock as quoted on NASDAQ on the date that the Compensation Committee approves the issuance of the award.

Grant Date means the date on which the vesting or performance terms of the equity awards are known and agreed upon between the Company and the Named Executive Office. The per share value of the awards on such date is equal to the closing market price of our common stock as quoted on NASDAQ on the date that the Compensation Committee approves these terms of the award. For time-based equity awards, the issuance date and grant date are the same as the vesting terms are known when the Compensation Committee issues the award. For performance-based restricted stock unit awards, there will be a difference between the issuance date and the grant date for the second and third installments of the awards as a result of the timing of when the performance measures and related target levels are established for each of these installments.

Chief Executive Officer Long-Term Incentive Compensation Analysis

In response to our shareholders feedback requesting additional clarity on the design of our long-term incentive awards, we have added additional information to provide clarity on the way the Compensation Committee has designed the long-term incentive compensation awards for our executive officers, with a specific emphasis on the awards for Mr. Ricci.

The Approved Equity Award Table that follows is intended to illustrate the following:

Reflect the face value of the awards authorized by the Compensation Committee on each Issuance Date over fiscal years 2012-2017 (that is, the number of shares of our common stock issued multiplied by the stock price on the date of issuance).

Show how the values reflected in table differ from what is reported in the Summary Compensation Table that accompanies this Compensation Discussion and Analysis as a result of the timing of the determination of the performance measures and related target levels for the performance-based stock unit awards by the Compensation Committee. Unlike most companies, which grant and establish the performance measures and related target levels for the entire award at the time of issuance, the Compensation Committee approves the reservation of shares of our common stock for the performance-based stock unit awards at the Issuance Date, but does not select the performance measure or measures and the related target levels for each installment of the awards until the beginning of each one-year performance period. As a result, under the SEC's executive compensation disclosure rules, these subsequent award installments are not reported in the Summary Compensation Table until the fiscal year in which the performance measures and related target levels are established.

Reflect the material reduction in long-term incentive value delivered to Mr. Ricci over this four-year period with emphasis on the fiscal 2016 award that was granted 100% in performance-based units in response to stockholder feedback to align compensation with performance.

The Equity Award Opportunity Table that follows is intended to illustrate the following:

Show the change from face value on the issuance date, as depicted in approved equity award table, to the face value on the Grant Date once the performance measures and related target levels for the fiscal period are established.

Provide a comparison of the Grant Date fair value versus the value on the date the shares are actually earned by Mr. Ricci.

Show that in years when our stock price declined from the Grant Date to the date the shares were actually earned, Mr. Ricci's realized compensation value also declined. Conversely, in a period in which our stock price increased from the grant date to the date the shares were actually earned, Mr. Ricci's realized compensation exceeded the grant date value. Both scenarios demonstrate the strong alignment of Mr. Ricci's long-term incentive award value with the creation of stockholder value.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation Earned

As illustrated by the foregoing tables, a significant portion of Mr. Ricci's long-term incentive compensation opportunity is comprised of performance-based restricted stock unit awards, which derive their value based on our specific financial and operational performance, and time-based restricted stock unit awards, the value of which is dependent on the performance of our stock price (which is directly influenced by our financial and operational performance). This compensation is wholly at risk and contingent on his ability to lead us to achieve our short-term and long-term objectives. The variable nature of these awards and their direct link to our actual business results can be illustrated by the following chart:

Long-Term Incentive Compensation

We provide long-term incentive compensation to our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, in the form RSU awards for shares of our common stock which are to be earned pursuant to both time and performance conditions. The multi-year performance-based and time-based vesting requirements of these equity awards are designed to align the interests of our executive officers and our stockholders and to provide each individual executive officer with a significant incentive to manage us from the perspective of an owner and to remain employed with us.

The Compensation Committee has maintained a multi-year practice whereby at least 50% of the value of all equity awards granted to the Named Executive Officers, would be performance-based awards to be earned or settled based on the achievement of pre-established target levels for one or more performance measures. The Compensation Committee believes that this equity mix provides a more effective alignment of the interests of our executive officers and our stockholders.

The Compensation Committee also believes that the commitment to grant a mix of both time-based and performance-based equity awards enhances our ability to retain our executive officers by providing a portion of their long-term incentive compensation opportunity in the form of full value equity awards (such as RSU awards) that will be earned only if they remain employed with us for several years.

Table of Contents

Typically, the Compensation Committee reviews our executive officers' prior fiscal year's performance at its first meeting of the fiscal year and will grant equity awards if deemed appropriate within the first quarter of the fiscal year. Further, the Compensation Committee determines the value of the equity awards that it grants to each executive officer based on its evaluation of his or her performance, his or her skills, expertise, and experience, his or her expected future contributions, its retention objectives for the executive officer, the status of their outstanding equity awards (including the projected value of these awards in future fiscal years), its evaluation of our financial and operational performance for the preceding fiscal year, and its review of the compensation data described in "Competitive Positioning" above and replacement costs.

Performance Measures

In addition to non-GAAP revenue and non-GAAP earnings-per-share performance measures, certain of the long term incentive equity awards are based on the measurement of gross bookings, net new bookings, cash flow from operations, segment margin, operating expense, and management business objectives important for our long term growth and for maintaining focus on our revenue and earnings-per-share during a major transformation in our business model.

For the purposes of fiscal 2016 equity awards, bookings were defined to represent the estimated gross revenue value of transactions at the time of contract execution, except for maintenance and support offerings. For fixed price contracts, the bookings value represents the gross total contract value. For contracts where revenue is based on transaction volume, the bookings value represents the contract price multiplied by the estimated future transaction volume during the contract term, whether or not such transaction volumes are guaranteed under a minimum commitment clause. The maintenance and support bookings value represents the amounts billed in the period the customer is invoiced.

Net new bookings represents the estimated revenue value at the time of contract execution from new contractual arrangements or the estimated revenue value incremental to the portion of value that will be renewed under pre-existing arrangements.

Recurring revenue represents the sum of recurring product and licensing, on-demand, and maintenance and support revenues as well as the portion of professional services revenue delivered under ongoing subscription contracts. Recurring product and licensing revenue comprises term-based and ratable licenses as well as revenues from royalty arrangements.

Fiscal 2016 Annual Equity Awards

In November 2015, the Compensation Committee approved annual equity awards to our executive officers, including Messrs. Ricci, Bowden, Tempesta and Robbins. (Mr. Schassler received his grant on February 3, 2016 after joining the Company). These awards were granted to Mr. Ricci entirely in the form of PRSU awards and to the other NEOs 50% in the form of RSU awards, and 50% in the form of PRSU awards. The Compensation Committee believed that this combination struck an appropriate balance between creating a long-term retention incentive for our executive officers and establishing performance goals that further align the interests of our executive officers with our business objectives for the next two fiscal years and with increasing stockholder value.

As in prior years, the Compensation Committee determined that, with respect to the PRSU awards, it would establish the performance measures and set target levels for such measures at or shortly after the beginning of each fiscal year covered by the award. As described above in the discussion of Mr. Ricci's long-term incentive compensation, the Compensation Committee believes that, at this time, selecting measures and setting target levels on an annual basis allows it to assess progress and changes in our business and changes in our industry to ensure that the measures and related target levels selected align with our progress and strategic priorities and what it believes are in our long-term best interests.

Retirement, Welfare, and Personal Benefits

We offer our United States employees, including our executive officers, comprehensive health and welfare programs including medical, wellness, dental, vision, disability, life insurance, and accidental death and dismemberment protection. In addition, we offer a Section 401(k) plan and employee stock purchase plan. Our executive officers are offered the same level of benefits as our other employees.

We provide our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, with certain perquisites and personal benefits, including reimbursement for tax and financial planning services, and a car allowance (if applicable), the incremental costs to us of which are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table below. The Compensation Committee believes these personal benefits are reasonable and consistent with our overall executive compensation program, because they better enable us to attract and retain superior individuals for our key executive positions. In addition, these personal benefits are provided to ensure our executive officers' health and financial affairs are taken care of in a manner that enables them to focus their full attention on their respective positions. The Compensation Committee reviews and approves the personal benefits provided to our executive officers on an annual basis.

Enhanced welfare benefits and other personal benefits provided to our CEO and other executive officers are as follows:

An annual medical examination for each executive officer, with the exception of Mr. Ricci who receives a wellness reimbursement allowance of up to $50,000.

With the exception of Mr. Ricci, each executive officer is eligible to receive a $500,000 term life insurance policy at our expense.

Mr. Ricci receives a $1.0 million term life insurance policy at our expense.

Our executive officers are eligible for an enhanced long-term disability benefit that provides for payment of 60% of their eligible earnings capped at a maximum of $18,500 per month, with the exception of Mr. Ricci who is not subject to this maximum limit and has a benefit that provides for payment of 60% of his base salary. In addition, the Named Executive Officers have an enhanced Own Occupation provision that provides for continuation of benefits beyond two years if they cannot return to their own occupation.

Personal aircraft use:

To increase the number of in-person meetings with our customers, as well as to reduce the physical strain of heavy travel schedules, we own a corporate aircraft and also lease charter aircraft from time to time for business-related travel. The Compensation Committee has adopted a policy permitting corporate-owned or leased aircraft to be available for the personal use of Mr. Ricci for his protection and the protection of our assets, and to reduce his travel time and allow him to devote more time to work duties. The Compensation Committee approved personal use of the corporate-owned or leased aircraft by Mr. Ricci in fiscal 2016 and reviews the personal usage on a quarterly basis. We determine the value of personal use of corporate-owned or leased aircraft based on the aggregate incremental cost to us for such use.

A tax and financial planning reimbursement benefit.

Employment Agreements with Mr. Ricci

During his tenure as our CEO, we have reflected the terms and conditions of Mr. Ricci's employment with us in a written employment agreement. Prior to his amended and restated employment agreement described in the Executive Summary above, we last entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Mr. Ricci in November 2011 (the Employment Agreement). This agreement, which had a term of three years, set forth the terms and conditions of his employment, including his compensation and the circumstances under which he would be eligible to receive payments and benefits in the event of his termination of employment, including a termination of employment in connection with a change in control of the Company.

Table of Contents

On November 12, 2013, our Board of Directors approved an amendment to the Employment Agreement (Amendment No. 1) to:

extend its term for an additional year through November 11, 2015 (subject to extension for additional one-year terms upon the mutual written consent of Mr. Ricci and our Board of Directors as provided in the Employment Agreement); and set forth his base salary, target bonus opportunity, and equity awards for fiscal 2014.

In addition, Amendment No. 1 to the Employment Agreement eliminated the tax gross-up related to reimbursements for up to $50,000 of services provided under an enhanced executive medical program, $25,000 of tax and financial planning services, and a $20,000 car allowance. Finally, Amendment No. 1 to the Employment Agreement restricted the post-retirement reimbursement allowance provided in such agreement to a maximum of $25,000 per year and $250,000 in the aggregate.

On June 18, 2015, our Board of Directors approved an additional amendment (Amendment No. 2) to the Employment Agreement to:

extend its term for an additional year through November 11, 2016 (subject to extension for additional one-year terms upon the mutual written consent of Mr. Ricci and our Board of Directors as provided in the Employment Agreement);

provide a commitment to set the performance goals for the performance units aligned to fiscal 2016 no later than the November 2015 Board of Directors meeting with agreement that the fiscal 2016 performance goals will have the same scaling index as used for the fiscal 2015 performance shares. Under mutual agreement, the commitment date to finalize the fiscal 2016 performance goals was extended to be established no later than December 30, 2015; provide for continuation of payment of the allowances and executive wellness benefits through any applicable severance period;

eliminate the post-retirement medical benefit;

increase the continuing payments and benefits if his employment is involuntarily terminated by us other than for cause, including death or disability and a notice of non-renewal as defined in the Employment Agreement, to two times from one and one-half times of his base salary, as then in effect;

increase the continuing payments and benefits if his employment is involuntarily terminated by us as a result of a change in control of the Company to two and one-half times from two times of his base salary, as then in effect;

provide for a lump sum payment of $500,000, less applicable taxes; and provide for treatment of performance-based stock unit awards which are aligned to a fiscal year in which a notice of non-renewal is given. Depending on timing of the notice of non-renewal being triggered, the amendment provides for the treatment of the performance shares as follows:

Trigger of Non-Renewal by the Company prior to April 1 performance shares would be deemed fully achieved at the target performance level and would vest upon termination of the Employment Agreement; or

Trigger of Non-Renewal by Executive prior to April 1 or the Company after April 1 performance shares for first half of the year would be determined based on actual performance for the pro-rated period and would be deemed fully earned at the target performance level for the second half of the year. Shares determined for the first half of the year and deemed earned for the second half of the year at the target performance level would then vest upon the termination of the Employment Agreement. In November 2016, our Board of Directors approved and entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Mr. Ricci. The principal terms and conditions of this agreement are described in the Executive Summary above, as well as in the Company's current report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 17, 2016.

Post-Employment Compensation

On our behalf, the Compensation Committee has entered into agreements with our CEO and certain other executive officers, including each of the other Named Executive Officers, which provide for certain payments and benefits upon certain specified terminations of employment, including certain specified terminations of employment following a change in control of the Company. In exchange for these payments and benefits, each executive officer must release the Company from any claims relating to his or her employment and termination of employment.

We believe that these protections are necessary to help motivate and retain our executive officers and, in some cases, helped induce them to forego other opportunities or leave their then-current employment for the uncertainty of a demanding position in a new and unfamiliar organization. We also believe that these protections will help our executive officers maintain continued focus and dedication to their responsibilities to help maximize stockholder value when analyzing a potential transaction that could involve a change in control of the Company.

The post-employment payments and benefits which the Named Executive Officers are eligible to receive are described in more detail in Employment, Severance, and Change in Control Agreements below.

Other Compensation Policies

Stock Ownership Policy

We believe that our executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, should own and hold shares of our common stock to further align their interests and actions with the interests of our stockholders. Our executive officers are expected to own and hold that number of shares of our common stock that correspond to their position within the Company. We have not specified a time period during which an executive officer must be in compliance with our stock ownership policy, however, until he or she has reached the appropriate ownership level, he or she is required to retain 25% of the net shares received upon the exercise of an option to purchase shares of our common stock or vesting of a restricted stock or restricted stock unit award.

The current expected stock ownership levels are as follows:

Individual Subject to Stock Ownership Policy	Minimum Required Level of Stock Ownership
Chief Executive Officer	Five times current annual base salary
Other Executive Officers	Three times current annual base salary

As of the end of fiscal 2016, our CEO and each of the other Named Executive Officers satisfied his or her stock ownership level as specified above, with the exception of Mr. Schassler who joined the Company in fiscal 2016.

Compensation Recovery Policy

We maintain a compensation recovery (clawback) policy which provides that, in the event that we are required to prepare an accounting restatement, we may recover from any executive officer any incentive compensation erroneously paid or awarded in excess of what would have been paid under the accounting restatement. This policy applies prospectively to incentive compensation paid or awarded after December 7, 2012, its date of adoption, and covers the three-year period preceding the date on which we are required to prepare the accounting restatement.

Equity Award Grant Policy

We grant promotion or retention awards, or newly-hired employee equity awards, on the first day of the month (or the first business day thereafter if such day is not a business day) with the exception of inducement awards, which may be granted promptly following the closing of an acquisition or upon the hiring of an employee. Equity awards issued in lieu of paying cash for non-incentive plan bonuses are granted promptly following final determination of achievement and payout levels by the Compensation Committee and vest shortly after grant.

The Compensation Committee does not grant equity awards in anticipation of the release of material nonpublic information. Similarly, we do not time the release of material nonpublic information about the Company based on equity award grant dates.

Derivatives Trading, Hedging, and Pledging Policies

We prohibit our executive officers and members of our Board of Directors from speculating in our equity securities, including the use of short sales, sales against the box or any equivalent transaction involving our equity securities, or engaging in any other hedging transactions with respect to our equity securities. In addition, we prohibit our employees, executive officers, and members of our Board of Directors from pledging their equity securities or using such securities as collateral for a loan.

Tax and Accounting Considerations

Income Tax Deduction Limitation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code imposes an annual $1 million limit on the deductibility of compensation paid to certain executive officers of public companies, unless the compensation qualifies as performance-based compensation or satisfies the requirements of another exception to the deduction limit. In determining executive compensation, the Compensation Committee considers, among other factors, the possible tax consequences to the Company and to our executive officers of their compensation arrangements. The ultimate tax consequences of these arrangements, including but not limited to tax deductibility by the Company, are subject to many factors, however, that are beyond the Compensation Committee's and the Company's control (such as changes in the tax laws and regulations or interpretations thereof and the timing and nature of various decisions by executive officers regarding the exercise of options to purchase shares of our common stock and other rights).

In addition, the Compensation Committee believes that it is important that it retain maximum flexibility in administering our executive compensation program to meet its stated objectives. For these reasons, although the Compensation Committee considers tax deductibility as one of the factors in determining executive compensation, it does not necessarily limit compensation to those levels or types of compensation that will be deductible. The Compensation Committee will consider alternative forms of compensation consistent with our compensation objectives, which may preserve deductibility when it considers such objectives to be in the best interests of the Company and our stockholders.

Taxation of Parachute Payments

Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code disallows a tax deduction to a company for an excess parachute payment, while Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code imposes a 20% excise tax on any person who receives an excess parachute payment. The Compensation Committee believes that the provision of any tax payment or tax gross-up protection for executive officers in the context of a change in control of the Company is not appropriate, and, therefore, no longer provides for any tax reimbursement or gross-up payment for our executive officers, including our Chief Executive Officer, whose employment agreement does not contain any such provision.

Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation

We follow Financial Accounting Standard Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic 718 (FASB ASC Topic 718) in connection with our share-based compensation awards. FASB ASC Topic 718 requires companies to measure the compensation expense for all share-based payment awards made to employees and directors, including options to purchase shares of the company's stock and restricted stock unit awards that may be settled for shares of the company's stock, based on the grant date fair value of these awards. We perform this calculation for financial reporting purposes and report these amounts in the compensation tables below, even though our executive officers may never realize any value from their awards. FASB ASC Topic 718 also requires companies to recognize the compensation cost of their share-based compensation awards in their income statements over the period that an employee or director is required to render service in exchange for the stock option or other award.

- (1) The amounts reported in this column do not reflect the compensation actually received by the Named Executive Officer. Instead, the amounts reported represent the grant date fair value of the stock awards granted in each covered fiscal year, as computed in accordance to FASB ASC Topic 718. The assumptions used to calculate the grant date fair value of the stock awards reported in the Stock Awards column are set forth under Note 15 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2016 filed with the SEC on November 22, 2016. The amounts reported in the Stock Awards column include performance shares that were issued to Mr. Ricci in prior fiscal year however accounted for in this fiscal period upon establishment of fiscal 2016 performance goals. The table below illustrates the dates the grants were issued to Mr. Ricci and the grant date value of each award.

The actual amount paid to each Named Executive Officer was determined based upon his or her individual performance during the fiscal year. The actual bonus payments to each Named Executive Officer and the form of payment are disclosed in Compensation Disclosure and Analysis above.

EMPLOYMENT, SEVERANCE AND CHANGE IN CONTROL AGREEMENTS

Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Ricci serves as our Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Company entered into an amended and restated employment agreement (the "Employment Agreement") with Mr. Ricci on November 11, 2011. Subject to earlier termination as provided below, the Company will employ Mr. Ricci for a term of three years commencing on November 11, 2011 through November 11, 2014. This term of employment may be extended for successive additional terms of one year each (each, a "Successive One-Year Term") with mutual written notice of intention to extend by the Company and Mr. Ricci at least 180 days prior to the end of the initial three-year term or any Successive One-Year Term. The Company or Mr. Ricci may terminate the Employment Agreement after the initial term or after any Successive One-Year Term by giving written notice of intent to terminate the Employment Agreement (a "Notice of Non-Renewal"). This agreement was subsequently amended on November 12, 2013 (the "Amendment No. 1") which extended the term for an additional year through November 11, 2015.

On June 18, 2015, the Board of Directors approved an amendment to the Employment Agreement (the "Amendment No. 2") which superseded Amendment No. 1 entered into on November 12, 2013. Amendment No. 2 extended the term of the Employment Agreement for an additional year through November 11, 2016. Amendment No. 2 may be extended by mutual written consent of the Company and Mr. Ricci at least 180 days prior to November 11, 2016 or the expiration of any Successive One-Year Term.

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of Amendment No. 2, Mr. Ricci, in his capacity as our Chief Executive Officer, will continue to receive an annual base salary of $800,000, a target annual performance-based incentive award opportunity, based upon the achievement of one or more pre-established financial performance objectives as established by the Compensation Committee, of up to 150% of his base salary. Pursuant to Amendment No. 2, the financial performance objectives to be established by the Compensation Committee for fiscal 2015 will be related to the Company's achievement of pro forma revenue and earnings or other performance target levels. Once the financial performance objectives have been approved by the Compensation Committee, they may not be changed. A further commitment was provided to the Executive whereas the fiscal 2016 goals for the performance units will be established no later than the November 2015 Board of Directors meeting as well as the commitment to maintaining the same scaling index as used for the fiscal 2015 performance shares. Under mutual agreement, the commitment date to finalize the fiscal 2016 performance goals was extended to be established no later than December 30, 2015. In fiscal 2015, Mr. Ricci continued to be eligible for up to $25,000 of tax and financial planning services per calendar year and to receive a $20,000 car allowance per calendar year. Both these allowances were enhanced to provide for continuation of allowances during any applicable severance period. Pursuant to Amendment No. 1, tax gross-up payments for the tax and financial planning services and car allowance were eliminated.

Pursuant to the Amendment No. 2, Mr. Ricci's post-retirement medical benefit that provided for a maximum reimbursement of $250,000 in the aggregate was eliminated. In addition, Mr. Ricci continues to be eligible to receive an enhanced long term disability benefit which provides for 60% of his base eligible earnings and continued payment of premiums by the Company for a $1 million term life insurance policy.

Pursuant to Amendment No. 2, Mr. Ricci would be provided with a lump sum payout of $500,000 in the event he is involuntarily terminated without Cause.

If Mr. Ricci terminates his employment following receipt of a Notice of Non-Renewal from the Company or his employment is terminated by the Company for a reason other than cause, death or disability (each as defined in the Employment Agreement) then, subject to his compliance with the conditions to receive any severance payments or benefits (as defined in the Employment Agreement), as enhanced by Amendment No. 2, he will now be eligible to receive through the term of the Severance Period (as defined below): (i) continuing payments of two (2) times his base salary, calculated by taking the average of the last ninety (90) days of employment, during the Severance Period, plus 150% of his target performance bonus (or the amount actually received in the fiscal year prior to the year of termination of employment, whichever is higher) which had been in effect in the fiscal year ending prior to the year of termination of employment, (ii) continued payment by the Company of the group medical, dental and vision continuation coverage premiums for him and his eligible dependents under the Consolidated Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended (COBRA) during the Severance Period under the Company's group health plans, as then in effect; (iii) continued payment of the annual premium for the remaining term of the life insurance policy in the event of disability or non-renewal; (iv) a lump sum payout of $500,000, less applicable withholding; (v) the continued vesting for a period of twenty-four (24) months for his outstanding stock options and stock purchase right or restricted stock units; and (vi) an extended period of time to exercise any outstanding and vested stock options for a period of two (2) years or until their original expiration date, whichever is earlier.

In the case of termination due to a Notice of Non-Renewal by (a) Mr. Ricci or (b) by the Company between April 1st in any year and one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the end of the Employment Term, then, with respect to any grant of performance-based restricted stock units or shares of performance-based restricted stock for which, as of the date on which the Notice of Non-Renewal is given (the Notice Date), both the applicable performance period has not yet ended and the performance period is scheduled to end in the Company's fiscal year in which the Notice Date occurs, vesting of the units or shares will be determined as follows:

(A) the grant will be divided equally into Parts 1 and 2,

(B) the applicable performance goals for Part 1 shares/units will be based on metrics/milestones aligned to the first half of the fiscal year,

(C) actual performance at the end of the first half of the fiscal year will determine the portion of Part 1 (if any) that is eligible to vest, with any remaining portion of Part 1 being forfeited (subject to subsection (vii) below),

(D) the units or shares that become eligible to vest under Clause (C) above will vest on the last day of the Employment Term if Executive does not terminate his employment before that date,

(E) the original performance goals for the grant will apply to Part 2 and the performance goals will be deemed achieved at one hundred percent (100%) of target levels, thus determining the number of units or shares in Part 2 that are eligible to vest, and

(F) the number of units or shares eligible to vest under Clause (E) will vest on the last day of the Employment Term if Executive does not terminate his employment before that date.

If the Company (a) provides a Notice of Non-Renewal earlier than the last business day of March in any year or (b) terminates Executive for a reason other than Cause, Death or Disability (including following a termination due to a Notice of Non-Renewal but before the end of the Employment Term), then the goals for any unvested performance-based restricted stock units or performance-based shares of restricted stock will be deemed achieved at one hundred percent (100%) of target levels and will be vested on the last day of employment. (For the purposes of clarity, this Section will also apply to any unvested performance-based restricted stock units or performance-based shares of restricted stock not described immediately above.)

Amendment No. 2 also permits Mr. Ricci, after the expiration of Mr. Ricci's eligibility for COBRA described above, to participate in the Company's group medical, dental and vision plans, provided that (A) the Company will not be required to provide such participation if the Company determines that such participation would violate applicable law for the Company or for other participants in the plans, (B) Mr. Ricci, if permitted to so participate, will pay the full cost of such participation as determined by the Company, and (C) Executive's participation, if any, will end no later than a period of ten years after the expiration of his eligibility for COBRA.

If Mr. Ricci's employment with the Company is terminated due to his death or his becoming disabled, then he or his estate (as the case may be) will be eligible, as enhanced by Amendment No. 2, to receive (i) an amount equal two (2) times his base salary at the time of the death or disability plus an amount equal to 100% of his target performance bonus, as then in effect in the fiscal year ending prior to the death or disability, (ii) continued payment of the annual premium for the remaining term of his life insurance policy; (iii) immediate 100% vesting of any stock options or stock awards held by him that were outstanding and unvested immediately prior to his termination of employment, (iv) an extended period of time to exercise any outstanding and vested stock options for a period of two years or until their original expiration date, (v) Company-paid coverage for a period of up to three years or as eligible under COBRA for him (if applicable) and his eligible dependents under the Company's health benefit plans (or, at the Company's option, coverage under a separate plan), providing benefits that are no less favorable than those provided under the Company's plans immediately prior to his death; (vi) a lump sum payment of $500,000, less applicable tax withholding; and (vii) all compensation and benefits from the Company for which he is eligible under other policies or plans.

If, (i) at any time during the employment term Mr. Ricci resigns for good reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement); or (ii) within 12 months following a change of control of the Company (as defined in the Employment Agreement), his employment with the Company is terminated for a reason other than (A) cause, (B) his becoming disabled or (C) his death, then, he will be eligible to receive the severance payments and benefits set forth above and the lump sum payment of $500,000, less applicable tax withholdings; provided, however that he will receive, as enhanced by Amendment No. 2, (i) two and one-half times his base salary as then in effect, (ii) plus an amount equal to two times his target performance bonus which had been in effect in the fiscal year ending prior to the year of termination of employment, and (iii) immediate 100% acceleration of any outstanding and unvested stock options or other equity awards rather than continued vesting over the Severance Period.

If Mr. Ricci terminates employment with the Company (i) after providing a Notice of Non-Renewal or (ii) other than for good reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), or if his employment with the Company is terminated for cause, then he will receive payment of the accrued obligations (as defined in the Employment Agreement) but he will not be eligible to receive any other compensation or benefits (including, without limitation, accelerated vesting of stock options and unvested Stock Awards) from the Company, except to the extent provided under the applicable stock option agreement(s), Company benefit plans or as may be required by law (for example, under COBRA).

For purposes of his Employment Agreement includes Amendment No. 1 and Amendment No. 2, the term "Severance Period" means the period beginning on the date of Mr. Ricci's termination of employment with the Company and ending on the date 18 months later for all reasons other than a termination of employment following a change in control of the Company or for good reason. "Severance Period" for a termination of employment following a change in control of the Company or for a termination of employment by Mr. Ricci for good reason means the period beginning on the date of his termination of employment with the Company and ending on the date twenty-four (24) months later.

Mr. Ricci has agreed not to compete with the Company or solicit the Company's employees or customers during the period in which he is receiving severance payments from the Company. For all termination of employment situations described above, in order for Mr. Ricci to receive the severance payments and benefits described above, he must execute and deliver to the Company, and not revoke, a full general release of claims.

On November 17, 2016, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approved an amendment and restatement of the Company's employment agreement with Paul Ricci, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. On that same day, Mr. Ricci and the Company signed the amended and restated employment agreement (the "New Employment Agreement"). The New Employment Agreement will run through March 31, 2018. Mr. Ricci's annual base salary under the New Employment Agreement will remain unchanged at $800,000 and his target annual bonus will remain at 150% of base salary. His actual bonus earned, if any, will depend on the achievement of performance goals that will be set in advance by the Compensation Committee. Under the New Employment Agreement, Mr. Ricci will be granted time-vested restricted stock awards for 250,000 shares of Company common stock and a performance-based vesting award of 375,000 performance shares. The performance shares will vest based on actual performance versus goals set in advance by the Compensation Committee. The severance payments and benefits in the New Employment Agreement generally were not increased in amount from the prior amounts, but the primary severance payments and non-renewal amounts that Mr. Ricci would have been entitled to following the non-renewal of his employment under the old agreement now will be paid to him following his termination of employment under the New Employment Agreement, except that, under the New Employment Agreement, Mr. Ricci will forfeit the severance and non-renewal payment if he voluntarily terminates employment without good reason (as defined in the New Employment agreement) before March 31, 2018. The non-renewal provisions of the old agreement were not carried over into the New Employment Agreement. Mr. Ricci has indicated his intention to retire as Chief Executive Officer at the end of the term of the New Employment Agreement. The Board of Directors will undertake a search process to choose Mr. Ricci's successor during the term.

The following table describes the estimated payments and benefits that would be received by Mr. Ricci upon a termination of his employment by the Company without cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement) or by him for good reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement) in connection with a change of control of the Company, or due to his retirement, death or disability. For purposes of valuing Mr. Ricci's equity awards, the amounts below are based on a per share price of $14.50 for the Company's common stock, which was the closing market price of the common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on September 30, 2016.

The Tempesta Severance Agreement expands the triggering events for eligibility in connection with a change of control to include a resignation for good reason in addition to termination of employment without cause and, for an eligible triggering event in connection with a change of control, the additional benefits of (i) a lump sum payment equal to 100% of the annual target bonus for the year of termination, or the year preceding the change of control, if greater, and (ii) upon a change of control, performance shares for the year of the change of control will convert to time-based shares and vest in full at target based on continued service through the end of the performance period, or upon earlier termination without cause or for good reason.

The Compensation has determined on an annual basis that it will not exercise the Company's non-renewal right, and the Tempesta Severance Agreement continues through September 30, 2017. The Tempesta Severance Agreement will automatically renew for additional one-year periods unless notice of non-renewal is provided by the Company. If the Tempesta Severance Agreement is not renewed after September 30, 2017, Mr. Tempesta will revert back to his original post-employment benefit terms as set forth in his employment offer letter and letter agreement described above.

Transactions and Relationships with Directors, Director Nominees, Executive Officers and Five Percent Stockholders

We believe that, except as disclosed below, there have not been any transaction or series of transactions during fiscal 2016 to which we were or are to be a participant in which the amount involved exceeds $120,000 and in which any director, nominee for director, executive officer or holder of more than five percent of our Common Stock, or members of any such person's immediate family, had or will have a direct or indirect material interest, other than compensation described in this section and the sections titled "Executive Compensation, Management and Other Information," or "Director Compensation" elsewhere in this proxy statement.

In December 2015, as part of our share repurchase program, we repurchased 1.0 million shares from our Chief Executive Officer, composed of 649,649 outstanding shares and 800,000 vested stock options with a net share equivalent of 350,351 shares, for an aggregate purchase price of $21.4 million. The Repurchase was funded in part by a promissory note in the amount of approximately $125.0 million issued by the Company to Icahn Capital LP (the "Promissory Note"), with the balance funded by the Company's cash on hand. The Promissory Note bore interest at a rate per annum equal to 2.63515% and had a maturity date of June 7, 2016. The Promissory Note was paid in full on April 15, 2016. Table of ContentsPROPOSAL TWO*APPROVAL TO AMEND THE AMENDED AND RESTATED 2000 STOCK PLAN

The stockholders are being asked to approve amendments to the Company's Amended and Restated 2000 Stock Plan (the "2000 Plan"). The proposed amendments to the 2000 Plan are:

A 1,950,000 share increase in the number of shares of Common Stock authorized for issuance under the 2000 Plan, bringing the total authorized for issuance from 73,900,000 shares to 75,850,000 shares; and.

To extend the term of the 2000 Plan by approximately five (5) years such that the 2000 Plan would expire on December 31, 2023. In fiscal 2016, 2015, and 2014, the Company granted gross awards covering a total of 9,679,804 shares, 9,727,179 shares and 10,433,391 shares respectively. Based on our business plan, we currently forecast granting full value awards (in the form of restricted shares and restricted stock units) covering approximately 11,900,000 shares over the coming fiscal period, which is equal to 4.1% of our common shares outstanding as of December 5, 2016. The Board considered the need for grants to retain and reward existing employees, for anticipated new hires and in connection with the acquisition of new businesses. The Company projects cancellation of options and forfeitures of restricted stock and restricted stock unit awards of approximately 1,250,000 shares over the coming fiscal year. If our expectation of cancellations and forfeitures is accurate, our net grants (grants less cancellations and forfeitures) over the next fiscal year would be approximately 10,650,000 shares, or approximately 3.7% of our common shares outstanding as of December 5, 2016. The Company anticipates the requested increase is necessary and appropriate to satisfy anticipated needs of our current business plan. We anticipate seeking approval for additional shares, as needed to cover future grants under our 2000 Plan at our next annual meeting of stockholders. However, a change in business conditions or Company strategy could alter any of these projections.

In considering the requested increase, the Board also took into account certain additional criteria relating to potential impact on shareholders. The potential dilution from the 1,950,000 share increase requested is 0.68%, based on total common shares outstanding (measured as of September 30, 2016). Dilution represents the number of equity awards granted, less cancellations, as a percentage of total outstanding shares. Over the past three fiscal years, the Company's average annual dilution was 2.46%. The Board also considered the Company's historical burn rate, which measures the annual rate at which shares are granted under our equity plans (as a percentage of total outstanding shares) in evaluating the size of the requested share increase. Over the past three fiscal years, our burn rate has averaged 2.96%. The Board also considered the additional overhang, which measures the number of shares subject to equity awards outstanding but unexercised or unvested, plus the number of shares available to be granted, as a percentage of total shares. As of December 5, 2015 the Company had outstanding grants of 1,051,432 stock options, and 9,572,755 restricted stock units. The foregoing, along with 13,314,593 shares remaining available for future grant under our stock plans and the new share request of 1,950,000 shares, would represent approximately 8.16% of our total outstanding common shares as of December 5, 2016 of shares, calculated on a fully diluted basis. Over the past three fiscal years, our overhang has averaged 10.03%. Considering the Company's historical broad-based equity grant practices and the foregoing information, the Board believes the additional share authorization to be appropriate and necessary to meet the objectives of our equity program and in the best interest of shareholders.

We strongly believe that the proposed amendment to the 2000 Plan is essential to the Company's continued success. The Company's employees are its most valuable assets. Stock options and other awards such as those provided under the 2000 Plan are vital to the Company's ability to attract and retain outstanding and highly skilled individuals in the extremely competitive labor markets in which the Company must compete. Such awards also are crucial to our ability to motivate employees to achieve the Company's goals. While the Company does not have any specific plans or commitments to issue stock options or awards under the 2000 Plan at this time, for the reasons stated above and to ensure the Company can continue to grant stock awards to key employees of the Company at levels determined appropriate by the Board and the Compensation Committee of the Board, the stockholders are being asked to approve the amendment to the 2000 Plan.

In fiscal year 2016, we granted 500,000 shares of performance-based awards to our CEO (see CD&A Fiscal 2016 Annual Equity Awards for more detail). The performance-based award was granted on November 20, 2015, and had a face value of $10,040,000. One-hundred (100%) percent of the value of this grant is considered performance-based.

Description of the 2000 Plan

The following general description of the material features of the 2000 Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the 2000 Plan, which is included as Annex B hereto.

General

The purpose of the 2000 Plan is to attract and retain the best available personnel for positions of substantial responsibility with the Company, to provide additional incentive to the employees, directors and consultants of the Company and employees and consultants of its parent and subsidiary companies and to promote the success of the Company's business. The 2000 Plan authorizes the Board of Directors or one or more of its committees to grant stock options, restricted stock units, rights to purchase restricted stock and stock appreciation rights (each an Award).

Administration

The 2000 Plan may generally be administered by the Board or a committee appointed by the Board (as applicable, the Administrator). The Administrator may make any determinations deemed necessary or advisable for the 2000 Plan. To the extent that the Administrator determines it to be desirable to qualify Awards granted hereunder as performance-based compensation within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Code, the 2000 Plan shall be administered by a committee of two or more outside directors within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Code (to enable the Company to receive a federal tax deduction for certain compensation paid under the Plan).

Number of Shares of Common Stock Available Under the Incentive Plan

Assuming stockholders approve this proposal, a total of 1,950,000 shares of Common Stock will be reserved for issuance under the 2000 Plan. As of December 5, 2016, 13,314,593 shares of Common Stock were available for issuance under all our stock plans.

Table of Contents

If any outstanding Award for any reason expires or is terminated or canceled without having been exercised or settled in full, or if shares acquired pursuant to an Award subject to forfeiture are forfeited by the Company, the shares allocable to the terminated portion of such Award or such forfeited shares shall again be available for grant under the 2000 Plan. Shares shall not be deemed to have been granted pursuant to the 2000 Plan (a) with respect to any portion of an Award that is settled in cash or (b) to the extent such shares are withheld in satisfaction of tax withholding obligations. Upon payment in shares pursuant to the exercise of a stock appreciation right, the number of shares available for grant under the 2000 Plan shall be reduced by the total number of shares subject to the stock appreciation right, regardless of the number of shares actually issued in such payment (i.e., shares withheld to satisfy the exercise price of the stock appreciation right will not remain available for issuance under the 2000 Plan). If the exercise price of an option is paid by tender to the Company of shares underlying the option, the number of shares available for grant under the 2000 Plan will be reduced by the net number of shares for which the option is exercised.

Eligibility

Nonstatutory stock options, stock purchase rights (i.e., awards of restricted stock), restricted stock units and stock appreciation rights may be granted under the 2000 Plan to employees, directors and consultants (who may only be natural persons) of the Company and employees and consultants of any parent or subsidiary of the Company. Incentive stock options may be granted only to employees. The Administrator, in its discretion, selects the employees, directors and consultants to whom Awards may be granted, the time or times at which such Awards will be granted, and the exercise price and number of shares subject to each such grant; provided, however, the exercise price of a stock option and a stock appreciation right may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date such Award is granted.

Limitations

Section 162(m) of the Code places limits on the deductibility for federal income tax purposes of compensation paid to certain executive officers of the Company. In order to preserve the Company's ability to deduct the compensation income associated with certain Awards granted to such persons, the 2000 Plan provides that no service provider may be granted, in any fiscal year of the Company, options or stock appreciation rights to purchase more than 1,500,000 shares of Common Stock or 1,000,000 restricted stock awards or restricted stock units. Notwithstanding the limit on grants of options or stock appreciation rights, however, in connection with such individual's initial employment with the Company, he or she may be granted options or stock appreciation rights to purchase up to an additional 1,500,000 shares of Common Stock.

In addition to the foregoing limits, in any fiscal year, non-employee directors may receive awards under the 2000 Plan not exceeding a fair value of $750,000 (increased to $1,000,000 in connection with a director's initial service). While the Company does not currently contemplate making awards non-employee directors under the 2000 Plan, the Board believes it is appropriate and in the best interests of shareholders to include a separate restriction on potential awards to non-employee directors under the 2000 Plan.

Terms and Conditions of Options

Each option is evidenced by a stock option agreement between the Company and the optionee, and is subject to the following terms and conditions:

(a) Exercise Price. The Administrator determines the exercise price of options at the time the options are granted. The exercise price of a stock option may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date such option is granted; provided, however, that the exercise price of an incentive stock option granted to a more than 10% stockholder may not be less than 110% of the fair market value on the date such option is granted. The fair market value of the Common Stock is generally determined with reference to the closing sale price for the Common Stock (or the closing bid if no sales were reported) on the last market trading day prior to the date the option is granted.

The Company's by-laws provide that it may not reduce the exercise price of any stock option, including stock appreciation right, outstanding or to be granted in the future under the 2000 Plan; cancel options in exchange for the re-grant of options at a lower exercise price, whether or not the cancelled options are returned to the available pool for grant; replace underwater options with restricted stock in an exchange, buy-back or other scheme; or replace any options with new options having a lower exercise price or accelerated vesting schedule in an exchange, buy-back or other scheme.

(b) Exercise of Option; Form of Consideration. The Administrator determines when options become exercisable, and may in its discretion; accelerate the vesting of any outstanding option in connection with the termination of a participant's employment with the Company. The means of payment for shares issued upon exercise of an option is specified in each option agreement. The 2000 Plan permits payment to be made by cash, check, other shares of Common Stock of the Company (with some restrictions), cashless exercises, any other form of consideration permitted by applicable law, or any combination thereof.

(c) Term of Option. No stock option or stock appreciation right granted under the 2000 Plan may have a term greater than seven years after the date of grant. In the case of an incentive stock option granted to a 10% shareholder, the term of the option may be no more than five (5) years from the date of grant. No option may be exercised after the expiration of its term.

(d) Termination of Service. The Administrator determines the length of the post-termination exercise period of a stock option. In the absence of a time specified in a participant's Award agreement, a participant may exercise the option within three months of such termination, to the extent that the option is vested on the date of termination, (but in no event later than the expiration of the term of such option as set forth in the option agreement), unless such participant's service relationship terminates due to the participant's death or disability, in which case the participant or the participant's estate or the person who acquires the right to exercise the option by bequest or inheritance may exercise the option, to the extent the option was vested on the date of termination, within 12 months from the date of such termination.

(e) Nontransferability of Options. Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, options granted under the 2000 Plan are not transferable other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and may be exercised during the optionee's lifetime only by the optionee.

(f) Other Provisions. The stock option agreement may contain other terms, provisions and conditions not inconsistent with the 2000 Plan as may be determined by the Administrator.

Stock Purchase Rights

In the case of stock purchase rights, (i.e. rights to acquire restricted stock), unless the Administrator determines otherwise, the Award agreement will grant the Company a repurchase option exercisable upon the termination of the participant's service with the Company for any reason (including death or disability). The purchase price for shares repurchased pursuant to the restricted stock purchase agreement will generally be the original price paid by the purchaser and may be paid by cancellation of any indebtedness of the purchaser to the Company. The repurchase option will lapse at a rate determined by the Administrator including, if the Administrator has determined it is desirable for the stock purchase right to qualify as performance-based compensation for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the repurchase option will lapse based on the achievement of performance goals. The Administrator will determine the number of shares granted pursuant to a stock purchase right, but as discussed above, the Administrator will not be permitted to grant restricted stock and restricted stock units in excess of the limits described above.

Restricted Stock Units

The Administrator may grant restricted stock units under the 2000 Plan. Each restricted stock unit award will be evidenced by an Award agreement that will specify the period of restriction, the number of shares granted and all other terms and conditions as the Administrator may determine in its sole discretion, including, without limitation whatever conditions to vesting it determines to be appropriate. For example, the Administrator may set restrictions based on the achievement of specific performance goals. The Administrator will determine the number of shares granted pursuant to a restricted stock unit award, but as discussed above, the Administrator will not be permitted to grant restricted stock and restricted stock units in excess of the restricted stock limit.

Stock Appreciation Rights

The Administrator may grant stock appreciation rights either alone or in tandem with stock options. A stock appreciation right is the right to receive the appreciation in fair market value of Common Stock between the exercise date and the date of grant. The Company can pay the appreciation in either cash or shares of Common Stock. The Administrator will determine the exercise price of a stock appreciation right, which will be no less than 100% of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant, and the term of each stock appreciation right. Stock appreciation rights will become exercisable at the times and on the terms established by the Administrator, subject to the terms of the 2000 Plan. The Administrator will determine the number of shares granted to a service provider pursuant to a stock appreciation right, subject to the annual grant limit described above.

After termination of service with the Company, a participant will be able to exercise the vested portion of his or her stock appreciation right for the period of time stated in the Award agreement. If no such period of time is stated in a participant's Award agreement, a participant will generally be able to exercise his or her stock appreciation right for (i) three months following his or her termination for reasons other than death or disability, and (ii) one year following his or her termination due to death or disability. In no event will a stock appreciation right be exercised later than the expiration of its term.

Performance Goals

As discussed above, under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the annual compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer and to each of the Company's three other most highly-paid executive officers, other than the Chief Financial Officer, may not be deductible to the extent it exceeds $1.0 million. However, we are able to preserve the deductibility of compensation in excess of $1.0 million if the conditions of Section 162(m) are met. These conditions include stockholder approval of the 2000 Plan, setting limits on the number of Awards that any individual may receive, and for Awards other than options, establishing performance criteria that must be met before the Award actually will vest or be paid.

The 2000 Plan permits us to pay compensation that qualifies as performance-based under Section 162(m). Thus, the Administrator, in its discretion, may make performance goals applicable to a participant during a specified performance period. In the Administrator's discretion, one or more of the following performance goals may apply: annual revenue, cash position, controllable profits, customer satisfaction MBOs, earnings per share, individual objectives, net income, new orders, operating cash flow, operating income, return on assets, return on equity, return on sales, and total shareholder return. Any criteria used may be measured, as applicable, in absolute terms or in relative terms (including passage of time and/or against another company or companies), on a per-share basis, against the performance of the Company as a whole or any segment of the Company, and on a pre-tax or after-tax basis. Following the completion of each performance period, the Administrator will certify in writing whether the applicable performance goals have been achieved for such performance period. A participant will only be eligible to receive payment pursuant to a performance-based award if such performance goals have been achieved, unless otherwise permitted under Section 162(m). In determining the amounts earned by a participant pursuant to an award intended to qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m), the Administrator will have the right to reduce or eliminate (but not to increase) the amount payable at a given level of performance to take into account additional factors that the Administrator may deem relevant to the assessment of individual or corporate performance for the performance period.

Adjustments upon Changes in Capitalization

In the event that the stock of the Company changes by reason of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, combination, reclassification or other similar change in the capital structure of the Company effected without the receipt of consideration, appropriate adjustments will be made in the number and class of shares of Common Stock subject to the 2000 Plan, the number of shares of Common Stock that may be issued pursuant to Awards of restricted stock and restricted stock units, the maximum number of shares of Common Stock that may be issued to service providers in any fiscal year pursuant to Awards, the number and class of shares of stock subject to any outstanding Award, and the exercise price of any such outstanding Award.

Table of Contents

In the event of a liquidation or dissolution, any unexercised Award will terminate. The Administrator may, in its sole discretion, provide that each participant will have the right to exercise all or any part of the Award, including shares as to which the Award would not otherwise be exercisable.

In connection with any merger of the Company with or into another corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, each outstanding Award will be assumed or an equivalent Award substituted by the successor corporation. If the successor corporation refuses to assume an Award or to substitute a substantially equivalent Award, the participant will have the right to exercise his or her option and stock appreciation right as to all of the shares subject to the Award, all restrictions on restricted stock will lapse, and all performance goals or other vesting requirements for restricted stock units will be deemed achieved, and all other terms and conditions met. In such event, the Administrator will notify the participant that the Award is fully exercisable for fifteen (15) days from the date of such notice and that the Award terminates upon expiration of such period.

Amendment and Termination of the Plan

The Board may amend, alter, suspend or terminate the 2000 Plan, or any part thereof, at any time and for any reason. However, the Company will obtain stockholder approval for any amendment to the 2000 Plan to the extent the Board determines it necessary and desirable to comply with applicable law. No such action by the Board or stockholders may alter or impair any Award previously granted under the 2000 Plan without the written consent of the participant. Unless terminated earlier, the 2000 Plan will terminate on August 15, 2023.

Plan Benefits

The amount and timing of Awards granted under the 2000 Plan are determined in the sole discretion of the Administrator and therefore cannot be determined in advance. The benefits or amounts that were received by, or allocated to, the Chief Executive Officer, the other Named Executive Officers, all current executive officers as a group, the current directors of the Company who are not executive officers as a group, and all employees, including all current officers who are not executive officers, as a group under the 2000 Plan for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2016 are set forth in the table below:
