PRELIMINARY SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED JANUARY 19, 2018

PROXY STATEMENT FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS OF ASB FINANCIAL CORP.

and

PROSPECTUS OF PEOPLES BANCORP INC.

MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Peoples Bancorp Inc. (Peoples) and ASB Financial Corp. (ASB) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of October 23, 2017 (the Merger Agreement), which provides for the merger of ASB with and into Peoples (the Merger). Consummation of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including, but not limited to, obtaining the requisite vote of the shareholders of ASB and the approval of the Merger by various regulatory agencies.

The board of directors of ASB, which unanimously approved the Merger, has called a special meeting of its shareholders to vote on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. The time, date and place of the ASB special meeting is as follows: 1:00 p.m. local time, on March 9, 2018, at The Lofts on Gallia, 840 Gallia Street, Portsmouth, Ohio 45662. The adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of ASB requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of ASB s common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, shareholders of ASB will be entitled to receive for each ASB common share either: (i) $20.00 in cash, or (ii) 0.5920 Peoples common shares. ASB shareholders may elect to convert their ASB shares into cash, Peoples common shares or a combination of cash and Peoples common shares.

The form of consideration to be received by each ASB shareholder is subject to reallocation in order to ensure that no more than 15% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of cash and no less than 85% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of Peoples common shares. The reallocation, if any, of the mix of consideration payable to ASB shareholders in the Merger will not be known until Peoples calculates the results of the cash and stock elections made by ASB shareholders.

Additionally, the value of the merger consideration received by ASB shareholders receiving Peoples common shares or a combination of Peoples common shares and cash will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the completion of the Merger based upon the market value of Peoples common shares. Therefore, at the time of the ASB special meeting, ASB shareholders will not know or be able to calculate the precise market value of the stock consideration they would be entitled to receive upon completion of the Merger if they receive Peoples common shares.

Peoples will not issue any fractional common shares in connection with the Merger. Instead, each holder of ASB common shares who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a Peoples common share (after taking into account all ASB common shares owned by such holder at the effective time of the Merger) will receive cash, without interest, in an amount equal to the Peoples fractional common share to which such holder would otherwise be entitled, multiplied by $20.00.

If, prior to the effective time of the Merger and during the time period specified in the Merger Agreement, both the market value of Peoples common shares and the NASDAQ Bank Index drop below certain pre-determined thresholds, ASB will have the right to terminate the Merger Agreement, unless Peoples increases the exchange ratio for the stock portion of the merger consideration to an extent specified in the Merger Agreement. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Termination of the Merger Agreement on page 53 for a more complete description of these circumstances.

This document is a proxy statement that ASB is using to solicit proxies for use at its special meeting of shareholders to be held on March 9, 2018, to vote on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. It is also a prospectus relating to Peoples' offer and sale of its common shares in connection with the Merger. This proxy statement/prospectus describes the special meeting, the Merger proposal and other related matters.

ASB's board of directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement, and FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following are answers to certain questions that you may have regarding the ASB special meeting and the Merger. You are urged to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section may not provide all the information that might be important to you in determining how to vote. Additional important information is also contained in the appendices to, and the documents incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

A: You are receiving this proxy statement/prospectus because Peoples Bancorp Inc. (Peoples) and ASB Financial Corp. (ASB) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of October 23, 2017 (the Merger Agreement), attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A, pursuant to which ASB will be merged with and into Peoples (the Merger). Immediately following the Merger, American Savings Bank, fsb, a federal savings bank and a wholly-owned subsidiary of ASB (American Savings Bank), will merge with and into Peoples Bank, an Ohio chartered commercial bank and wholly owned subsidiary of Peoples (Peoples Bank), with Peoples Bank being the surviving entity, which transaction is referred to as the subsidiary bank merger. The Merger Agreement must be adopted and approved by the holders of at least a majority of ASB s common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting, in accordance with Section 1701.78 of the Ohio General Corporation Law (OGCL) and ASB s articles of incorporation, as amended.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the Merger and the special meeting of the shareholders of ASB, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed proxy card will allow you to vote your ASB common shares without attending the special meeting. Your vote is important. We encourage you to vote as soon as possible.

Q: Why do Peoples and ASB want to merge?

A: ASB believes that the Merger is in the best interests of its shareholders and other constituencies because, among other reasons, the merger consideration will provide enhanced value and increased liquidity to ASB shareholders. Furthermore, as a result of the Merger, ASB will become part of a larger banking institution, improving its ability to compete with larger financial institutions and better serve its customers needs, while maintaining the community bank philosophy that both institutions currently share.

Peoples believes that the Merger will benefit Peoples and its shareholders by enabling Peoples to further expand into the markets currently served by ASB and strengthening the competitive position of the combined organization. Furthermore, Peoples believes its increased asset size after the Merger will create additional economies of scale and provide opportunities for asset and earnings growth in an extremely competitive banking environment. To review the reasons for the Merger in more detail, see THE MERGER on page 28 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What will ASB shareholders receive in the Merger?

A: Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, shareholders of ASB will be entitled to receive for each ASB common share either: (i) $20.00 in cash or (ii) 0.5920 Peoples common shares. ASB shareholders may elect to convert their ASB shares into cash, Peoples common shares or a combination of cash and Peoples common shares.

The form of consideration you elect to receive will be subject to reallocation in order to ensure that no more than 15% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of cash and no less than 85% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of Peoples common shares. Therefore, your ability to receive cash will depend on the elections of other ASB shareholders. The reallocation, if any, of the mix of consideration payable to ASB shareholders in the Merger will not be known until Peoples calculates the results of the cash and stock elections made by ASB shareholders. See The Merger Agreement Reallocation of ASB Shareholder Elections beginning on page 48.

Peoples will not issue any fractional common shares in connection with the Merger. Instead, each holder of ASB common shares who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a Peoples common share (after taking into account all ASB common shares owned by such holder at the effective time of the Merger) will receive cash, without interest, in an amount equal to the Peoples fractional common share to which such holder would otherwise be entitled, multiplied by $20.00.

Q: Will the value of the merger consideration change between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the time the Merger is completed?

A: Yes. In all likelihood, the value of the merger consideration received by ASB shareholders receiving Peoples common shares or a combination of Peoples common shares and cash will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the completion of the Merger based upon the market value of Peoples common shares. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, at least 85% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of Peoples common shares. Any fluctuation in the market price of Peoples common shares after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus will change the value of the Peoples common shares that ASB shareholders who elect to receive stock (or who receive stock pursuant to a reallocation) will receive and the total value of the consideration received in the Merger. On October 23, 2017, which was the last business day on which Peoples common shares traded preceding the public announcement of the proposed Merger, the closing price of Peoples common shares was $33.03, which, after giving effect to the 0.5920 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $19.55 per share. As of January 16, 2018, the most reasonably practicable date before the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price of Peoples common shares was $33.76, which, after giving effect to the 0.5920 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $19.99 per share. The market price of Peoples common shares will likely fluctuate before the Merger is completed. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for Peoples common shares.

Table of Contents

Q: How do ASB shareholders make their election to receive cash, Peoples common shares or a combination of both?

A: If you are an ASB shareholder of record, you will receive an election form, which you should complete and return, along with your ASB stock certificate(s), according to the instructions printed on the election form. The election deadline will be fifteen business days prior to the effective date of the merger (which we refer to as the election deadline). The election form will be mailed to each holder of record of ASB common shares approximately forty business days prior to the election deadline. Peoples will also make an election form available if requested by an ASB shareholder of record following the mailing of the election forms and before the election deadline. If you do not send in the election form with your stock certificate(s) by the election deadline, you will be treated as though you had not made an election.

If you own ASB common shares in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee and you wish to make an election, you should seek instructions from the bank, broker or other nominee holding your shares concerning how to make an election. If you or your bank, broker or other nominee do not complete this process by the election deadline, you will be treated as though you had not made an election.

Q: Can I change my election?

A: You may change your election at any time prior to the election deadline by submitting to Wells Fargo Shareowner Services (Peoples exchange agent under the Merger Agreement) written notice accompanied by a properly completed and signed, revised election form. You may revoke your election by submitting written notice to Wells Fargo Shareowner Services prior to the election deadline. ASB shareholders will not be entitled to change or revoke their elections following the election deadline. If you instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to submit an election for your shares, you must follow their directions for changing those instructions.

Q: What happens if I do not make a valid election or make no election to receive cash, Peoples common shares or a combination of both?

A: If you do not return a properly completed election form or return an election form with no designation of merger consideration by the election deadline specified in the election form, your ASB common shares will be considered No Election Shares. No Election Shares will be converted into the right to receive Peoples common shares.

Q: Does ASB anticipate paying any dividends prior to the effective date of the Merger?

A: Yes. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, ASB is permitted to pay to its shareholders: (i) its usual and customary cash dividend of no greater than $0.18 per share, per quarter, until the quarter in which the closing of the Merger occurs, and (ii) a special cash dividend in the quarter in which the closing of the Merger occurs equal to the difference between (1) ASB's usual and customary dividend of no greater than $0.18 per share and (2)(i) the per share dividend Peoples declares to be paid during that quarter and after the closing of the Merger, multiplied by (ii) the exchange ratio of 0.5920.

Q: When and where will the ASB special meeting of shareholders take place?

A: The special meeting of shareholders of ASB will be held at 1:00 p.m., local time, on March 9, 2018, at The Lofts on Gallia, 840 Gallia Street, Portsmouth, Ohio 45662.

Q: What matters will be considered at the ASB special meeting?

A: The shareholders of ASB will be asked to: (1) vote to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement; (2) vote to approve the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement; and (3) vote on any other business which properly comes before the special meeting.

Table of Contents

Q: Is my vote needed to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement?

A: The adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of ASB requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of ASB's common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. The directors of ASB, who, collectively, beneficially own 255,630 ASB common shares, or approximately 12.9% of ASB's outstanding common shares, entered into a voting agreement with Peoples, pursuant to which they agreed, subject to certain terms and conditions, to vote all of their shares in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement.

The special meeting may be adjourned, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the ASB common shares represented, in person or proxy, at the special meeting is required to adjourn the special meeting.

Q: How do I vote?

A: If you were the record holder of ASB common shares as of January 23, 2018, you may vote in person by attending the special meeting or, to ensure that your ASB common shares are represented at the special meeting, you may vote your shares by signing and returning the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided.

If you hold ASB common shares in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee, please see the discussion below regarding shares held in street name.

Q: What will happen if I fail to vote or abstain from voting?

A: If you fail to vote or if you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card with respect to the proposal to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal.

If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card with respect to the proposal to approve the adjournment of the ASB special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal.

The failure to vote, however, will have no effect on the proposal to approve the adjournment of the ASB special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

Q: How do I vote if I own shares through the ASB KSOP?

A: If you participate in the ASB Employee Stock Ownership & 401(k) Plan (the KSOP), which owns approximately 110,683 ASB common shares, you will receive a vote authorization form for the plan that reflects all shares that you may direct the trustees to vote on your behalf under the plan. The trustees will vote all shares held by the KSOP, but each KSOP participant may direct the trustees how to vote the ASB common shares allocated to his or her account. The trustees will vote (i) all allocated shares for which they receive instructions, as instructed by the participants to whom the shares have been allocated, and (ii) all allocated shares for which timely and complete instructions are not received in the same proportion as the shares for which instructions are received.

Q: How will my shares be voted if I return a blank proxy card?

A: If you sign, date and return your proxy card and do not indicate how you want your ASB common shares to be voted, then your shares will be voted FOR the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and, if necessary, FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies.

Q: If my ASB common shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee in street name, will my broker, bank or other nominee vote my shares for me?

A: No. You must provide your broker, bank or nominee (the record holder of your common shares) with instructions on how to vote your ASB common shares. Please follow the voting instructions provided by your broker, bank or nominee. If you do not provide voting instructions to your broker, bank or nominee, then your ASB common shares will not be voted by your broker, bank or nominee.

If you are an ASB shareholder and you do not instruct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares, your broker, bank or other nominee may not vote your shares on the proposal to approve the Merger, which broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST such proposal; and your broker, bank or other nominee may not vote your shares on the adjournment proposal, which broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote count for such proposal.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have submitted my proxy?

A: Yes. If you are a record holder of your shares, you may change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the special meeting by:

filing a written notice of revocation with the President of ASB, at 503 Chillicothe Street, Portsmouth, Ohio 45662;

executing and returning another proxy card with a later date than the earlier proxy card you wish to revoke, which later proxy card must be received by the President of ASB, at 503 Chillicothe Street, Portsmouth, Ohio 45662, before it is voted at the special meeting; or attending the special meeting and either giving notice of revocation in person, or voting by ballot at the special meeting.

Your attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.

If you hold your ASB common shares in street name and you have instructed your broker, bank or nominee to vote your ASB common shares, you must follow directions received from your broker, bank or nominee to change your vote.

Q: Can I change or revoke my voting instruction under the KSOP after I have mailed my signed voting instruction card?

A: Yes. You can change or revoke previously given voting instructions by 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time on March 8, 2018, by filing with the trustees either a written notice of revocation or a properly completed and signed voting instruction card bearing a later date.

Q: If I do not favor the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement, what are my rights?

A: If you are an ASB shareholder as of January 23, 2018, the record date, and you do not vote your shares in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement, you will have the right under Section 1701.85 of the OGCL to demand the fair cash value for your ASB common shares. To exercise your dissenters' rights, you must deliver to ASB a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of your shares before the vote on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement is taken at the special shareholders' meeting. The demand for payment must include your address, the number and class of ASB common shares owned by you, and the amount you claim to be the fair cash value of your ASB common shares, and should be mailed to: ASB Financial Corp., Attention: John J. Kuntz, 503 Chillicothe Street, Portsmouth, Ohio 45662. ASB shareholders who wish to exercise their dissenters' rights must: (i) vote against the Merger or elect not to return the proxy card, and (ii) deliver written demand for payment prior to the ASB shareholder vote. For additional information regarding dissenters' rights, see THE MERGER Dissenters' Rights on page 43 of this proxy statement/prospectus and the complete text of the applicable sections of Section 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. No holder of Peoples common shares is entitled to exercise any rights of a dissenting shareholder under the OGCL.

Q: When is the Merger expected to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the Merger as quickly as we can. We expect to complete the Merger in the second quarter of 2018, assuming shareholder approval and all applicable regulatory approvals have been received by that date and all other conditions precedent to the Merger have been satisfied or waived.

Q: Should I send in my ASB stock certificates now?

A. As addressed above under "How do ASB Shareholders make their election to receive cash, Peoples common shares or a combination of both?" you may send in your stock certificates with the election materials that are being sent to you separately. Do not, however, send in your stock certificates with your proxy card.

ASB Financial Corp.

ASB Financial Corp.

503 Chillicothe Street

Portsmouth, Ohio 45662

Phone: (740) 354-3177

ASB Financial Corp. is a savings and loan holding company registered under the Home Owners' Loan Act, as amended, and was incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio in 1995. ASB's wholly-owned subsidiary, American Savings Bank, fsb, operates four offices in the Portsmouth region including offices in Wheelersburg and Waverly, Ohio and South Shore, Kentucky and, in the Cincinnati region, two retail branches in Montgomery and Madeira, as well as loan production offices in Milford and Dent.

ASB is a full service community thrift offering a range of commercial and personal banking services. Deposit services include a variety of checking accounts, savings accounts and certificates of deposit.

At September 30, 2017, ASB, on a consolidated basis, had total assets of approximately $293 million, total loans of approximately $247 million, total deposits of approximately $206 million and total shareholders' equity of approximately $29 million. ASB's common shares are quoted on the OTC Pink Open Market under the symbol ASBN.

The Merger (page 28)

The Merger Agreement provides that, if all of the conditions are satisfied or waived, ASB will be merged with and into Peoples, with Peoples surviving. Immediately following the Merger, American Savings Bank will be merged with and into Peoples Bank. The Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and is incorporated in this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. We encourage you to carefully read the Merger Agreement, as it is the legal document that governs the Merger.

What ASB Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger (page 46)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, shareholders of ASB will be entitled to receive for each ASB common share either: (i) $20.00 in cash or (ii) 0.5920 Peoples common shares.

ASB shareholders may elect to convert their ASB shares into cash, Peoples common shares or a combination of cash and Peoples common shares. The form of consideration to be received by each ASB shareholder is subject to reallocation in order to ensure that no more than 15% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of cash and no less than 85% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of Peoples common shares.

Additionally, the value of the merger consideration received by ASB shareholders receiving Peoples common shares or a combination of Peoples common shares and cash will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the completion of the Merger based upon the market value of Peoples common shares. Therefore, at the time of the ASB special meeting, ASB shareholders will not know or be able to calculate the precise market value of the stock consideration they would be entitled to receive upon completion of the Merger if they receive Peoples common shares.

In addition, if, prior to the effective time of the Merger and during the time period specified in the Merger Agreement, both the market value of Peoples common shares and the NASDAQ Bank Index drop below certain pre-determined thresholds, ASB will have the right to terminate the Merger Agreement, unless Peoples increases the exchange ratio for the stock portion of the merger consideration to an extent specified in the Merger Agreement.

Peoples will not issue any fractional common shares in connection with the Merger. Instead, each holder of ASB common shares who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a Peoples common share (after taking into account all ASB common shares owned by such holder at the effective time of the Merger) will receive cash, without interest, in an amount equal to the Peoples fractional common share to which such holder would otherwise be entitled, multiplied by $20.00.

Exchange of ASB Common Shares (page 47)

Approximately 40 business days prior to the election deadline (the election deadline occurring fifteen business days prior to the effective date of the Merger), Wells Fargo Shareowner Services (the Exchange Agent) will mail you an election form and transmittal materials, which will include instructions for making an election and exchanging your ASB stock certificates for cash consideration or Peoples common shares, as the case may be. Peoples common shares will be issued by book-entry transfer.

A special meeting of shareholders of ASB will be held at 1:00 p.m., local time, on March 9, 2018, at The Lofts on Gallia, 840 Gallia Street, Portsmouth, Ohio 45662, for the purpose of considering and voting on the following matters:

a proposal to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement;

a proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement; and any other business which properly comes before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. The ASB board of directors is presently unaware of any other business to be transacted at the special meeting.

You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned ASB common shares as of the close of business on January 23, 2018. As of January 16, 2018, a total of 1,979,034 ASB common shares were outstanding and eligible to be voted at the ASB special meeting. As of the same date, there were no ASB preferred shares outstanding or eligible to be voted at the ASB special meeting.

Required Vote (page 24)

The adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 989,518 ASB common shares, which is a majority of the ASB common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the ASB special meeting. A majority of ASB's outstanding common shares must be present, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting to constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the ASB common shares represented, in person or proxy, at the special meeting is required to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

The directors of ASB, who collectively have the power to vote 255,630 ASB common shares, or approximately 12.9% of the outstanding ASB common shares, entered into a voting agreement with Peoples on October 23, 2017, pursuant to which they agreed, subject to certain terms and conditions, to vote all of their shares in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. No non-director executive officer of ASB nor any other ASB shareholder included in the table on page 57 of this proxy statement/prospectus has executed a voting agreement with Peoples nor has any such person committed to Peoples or ASB that such person will vote in favor of any of the matters being presented to the ASB shareholders at the special meeting. Excluding such shares held by ASB directors, the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 733,888 ASB common shares, or 42.6% of the outstanding shares not previously committed under the voting agreement.

Gregory G. Eagan and Wesley D. Lyon act as trustees for the KSOP, which holds 110,683 ASB common shares. Each participant in the KSOP will have the right to instruct the trustees on how to cast the votes attributable to the participant's allocated shares, and the trustees will vote any shares with respect to which a participant has not provided instruction in the same proportion as the shares for which instructions are received.

Recommendation to ASB Shareholders (page 24)

The board of directors of ASB unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. The board of directors of ASB believes that the Merger is fair to and in the best interests of ASB and its shareholders, and, as a result, the directors unanimously recommend that ASB shareholders vote FOR the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

In reaching this decision, the board of directors of ASB considered many factors which are described in the section captioned THE MERGER ASB s Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the ASB Board of Directors beginning on page 30 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Opinion of ASB s Financial Advisor (page 33)

On October 23, 2017, Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. (Boenning) rendered its opinion to the board of directors of ASB that as of the date of the opinion, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the aggregate merger consideration to be received in the Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to ASB s shareholders. The full text of Boenning s written opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached to this document as Annex C. ASB shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. Boenning s written opinion is addressed to the board of directors of ASB and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of ASB common shares should vote with respect to the Merger or any other matter.

We intend that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Internal Revenue Code), and that, generally, for federal income tax purposes (i) no gain or loss will be recognized by Peoples or ASB as a result of the Merger, (ii) ASB shareholders who receive solely Peoples common shares in the Merger will recognize no gain or loss (other than the gain or loss to be recognized as to cash received in lieu of fractional Peoples common shares), and their tax basis in and holding periods for Peoples common shares received may vary among shares if blocks of ASB common shares were acquired at different times or for different prices, (iii) ASB shareholders who receive solely cash in the Merger will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and their tax basis in their shares, (iv) ASB shareholders receiving both Peoples common shares and cash for their ASB common shares generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of (a) their gain realized and (b) the amount of cash received in the Merger, and (v) ASB shareholders who exercise dissenters' rights and receive solely cash in exchange for ASB common shares in the Merger will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and their tax basis in their shares.

All ASB shareholders should read carefully the description under the section captioned THE MERGER Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 40 of this proxy statement/prospectus and should consult their own tax advisors concerning these matters. All ASB shareholders should consult their tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences of the Merger to them, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local, foreign or other tax laws.

Interests of Directors and Officers of ASB (page 38)

The directors and executive officers of ASB have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of ASB shareholders generally. These include:

upon the consummation of the Merger, and subject to certain other conditions, payments to be paid to certain executive officers pursuant to employment agreements and/or change in control agreements;

the ability of the directors of ASB, at their discretion, to serve on a Peoples advisory board for a period of at least one year following the Merger for a fee of $500 per director for each bi-monthly meeting; and coverage under a directors' and officers' insurance policy for six years following the effective date of the Merger.

ASB's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in approving the Merger Agreement. See THE MERGER Interests of ASB Directors and Officers in the Merger beginning on page 38 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Dissenters' Rights of ASB Shareholders (page 43)

Under Ohio law, ASB shareholders who do not vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and deliver a written demand for payment for the fair cash value of their ASB common shares prior to the ASB special meeting, will be entitled, if and when the Merger is completed, to receive the fair cash value of their ASB common shares. The right to make this demand is known as dissenters' rights. ASB shareholders' right to receive the fair cash value of their ASB common shares, however, is contingent upon strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 1701.85 of the OGCL. An ASB shareholder's failure to vote against the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such shareholder's dissenters' rights, provided that such shareholder does not vote in favor of the Merger Agreement or return an unmarked proxy card.

For additional information regarding your dissenters' rights, see THE MERGER Dissenters' Rights on page 43 of this proxy statement/prospectus and the complete text of Section 1701.85 of the OGCL attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. If you should have any questions regarding your dissenters' rights, you should consult with your own legal advisers.

Certain Differences in Shareholder Rights (page 55)

When the Merger is completed, some ASB shareholders will receive Peoples common shares and, therefore, will become Peoples shareholders. As Peoples shareholders, your rights will be governed by Peoples' Amended Articles of Incorporation, and Regulations, as well as Ohio law. Notably, ASB shareholders will own less of the combined company and as such will have decreased voting power. See COMPARISON OF CERTAIN RIGHTS OF ASB AND PEOPLES SHAREHOLDERS beginning on page 55 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page 38)

The Merger cannot be completed until Peoples receives the required regulatory approvals, which include the approval of both the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Federal Reserve) and the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions (ODFI). Peoples intends to file an application to both the Federal Reserve and ODFI for the bank merger, as well as a waiver request to the Federal Reserve relating to the approval of the holding company merger.

Conditions to the Merger (page 48)

As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the Merger Agreement, the completion of the Merger depends on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by ASB s shareholders and receipt of the required regulatory approvals, in addition to satisfaction of, or where legally permissible, waiver of, other customary conditions. Although Peoples and ASB anticipate the closing of the Merger will occur in the second quarter of 2018, neither Peoples nor ASB can be certain when, or if, the conditions to the Merger will be satisfied or, where permissible, waived, or that the Merger will be completed. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions to Consummation of the Merger beginning on page 48 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 53)

Peoples and ASB may mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective, whether before or after ASB shareholder approval, if the board of directors of each approves such termination by vote of a majority of the members of its board of directors. In addition, either Peoples or ASB, acting alone, may terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective under the following circumstances:

if any of the required regulatory approvals is denied;

if there is a material breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement that cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days of notice of the breach;

by a vote of a majority of the members of its board of directors, in the event that the Merger has not been consummated by September 30, 2018, unless the failure to complete the Merger by that date is due to the knowing action or inaction of the party seeking to terminate;

by a vote of a majority of the members of its board of directors, in the event that (i) regulatory approval has been denied, (ii) ASB shareholders do not adopt and approve the Merger Agreement at the ASB special shareholder meeting, or (iii) the SEC advises that it will not declare this registration statement effective; or if ASB desires to enter into a superior competing transaction (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or ASB's board changes its recommendation in favor of the transaction, in each case after payment to Peoples of the termination fee described below.

ASB, acting alone, may also terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective upon written notice to Peoples:

if, prior to the effective time of the Merger and during the time period specified in the Merger Agreement, both the market value of Peoples common shares and the NASDAQ Bank Index drop below certain pre-determined thresholds; provided, however, that Peoples will have the right to prevent ASB's termination by increasing the exchange ratio for the stock portion of the Merger consideration pursuant to a formula set forth in the Merger Agreement.

See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Termination of the Merger Agreement on page 53 for a more complete description of these circumstances.

Acquisition Proposals and Termination Fee (page 54)

Because ASB has entered into the Merger Agreement, a binding legal agreement, if ASB or American Savings Bank desires to terminate the Merger Agreement in favor of entering into a superior competing transaction with any third party, ASB must pay Peoples the sum of $1,500,000. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Acquisition Proposals and Termination Fee beginning on page 54 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Table of ContentsNon-GAAP Financial MeasuresTangible Capital Measures

Peoples management uses tangible capital measures to evaluate the adequacy of Peoples stockholders equity. Such ratios represent non-GAAP financial information since their calculation removes the impact on the consolidated balance sheets of intangible assets acquired through acquisitions. Peoples management believes this information is useful to investors since it facilitates the comparison of Peoples operating performance, financial condition and trends to peers, especially those without a similar level of intangible assets to that of Peoples. Further, intangible assets generally are difficult to convert into cash, especially during a financial crisis, and could decrease substantially in value should there be deterioration in the overall franchise value. As a result, tangible equity represents a conservative measure of the capacity for Peoples to incur losses but remain solvent.

The following table reconciles the calculation of these non-GAAP financial measures to amounts shown in Peoples selected historical consolidated financial data:

Efficiency Ratio

The efficiency ratio is a key financial measure used to monitor performance. The efficiency ratio is calculated as total other expenses (less amortization of other intangible assets) as a percentage of fully tax-equivalent net interest income plus non-interest income. This measure is non-GAAP since it excludes amortization of other intangible assets and all gains and/or losses included in earnings, and uses fully tax-equivalent net interest income.

Pre-Provision Net Revenue

Pre-provision net revenue (PPNR) has become a key financial measure used by federal bank regulatory agencies when assessing the capital adequacy of financial institutions. PPNR is defined as net interest income plus non-interest income minus total other expenses and, therefore, excludes the provision for, or recovery of, loan losses and all gains and losses included in earnings. As a result, PPNR represents the earnings capacity that can be either retained in order to build capital or used to absorb unexpected losses and preserve existing capital.

Table of ContentsUNAUDITED COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table sets forth for Peoples and ASB certain historical, pro forma and pro forma-equivalent per share financial information as of and for the year ended December 31, 2016, and as of and for the nine months ended September 30, 2017. The information in the table below, in part, is derived from and should be read together with the historical Consolidated Financial Statements of Peoples that are incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. The unaudited pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect certain anticipated costs and benefits of the Merger and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had the Merger been consummated at the beginning of the periods presented. The pro forma data gives effect to the Merger and is based on numerous assumptions and estimates. The pro forma combined per share data and ASB equivalent pro forma per share data are prepared assuming 995,850 Peoples common shares will be issued in the Merger, although anywhere from 995,850 to 1,171,588 Peoples common shares could be issued depending upon the cash and stock elections of ASB's shareholders. We present this information to reflect the fact that certain ASB shareholders will receive Peoples common shares in exchange for their ASB common shares exchanged in the Merger. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Merger Consideration on page 46.

- (2) No dividend was declared during this quarter because ASB's dividend policy was changed to move the declaration and payment of the dividend to the first month following the end of a quarter.

Table of ContentsRISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the heading CAUTIONARY STATEMENT ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS commencing on page 22 and the matters discussed under the caption Risk Factors in the Annual Report on Form 10-K filed by Peoples for the year ended December 31, 2016 and other reports filed with the SEC, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote on adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement.

Risks Related to the Merger

The market value of Peoples common shares you receive in the Merger may decrease if there are fluctuations in the market price of Peoples common shares following the Merger.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, shareholders of ASB will be entitled to receive for each ASB common share (i) $20.00 in cash or (ii) 0.5920 Peoples common shares. ASB shareholders may elect to convert their ASB shares into cash, Peoples common shares or a combination of cash and Peoples common shares, subject to reallocation as further described under THE MERGER AGREEMENT Reallocation of ASB Shareholder Elections on page 48 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

ASB does not have a right to terminate the Merger Agreement based upon changes in the market price of Peoples common shares, subject to the limited exception described below. Accordingly, the dollar value of Peoples common shares to ASB shareholders who receive stock upon completion of the Merger will depend upon the market value of Peoples common shares at the time of completion of the Merger, which may be lower or higher than the closing price of Peoples common shares on the last full trading day preceding public announcement that Peoples and ASB entered into the Merger Agreement, the last full trading day before the date this proxy statement/prospectus was mailed or the date of the ASB special meeting. The market values of Peoples common shares and ASB common shares have varied since Peoples and ASB entered into the Merger Agreement and will continue to vary in the future due to changes in the business, operations or prospects of Peoples and ASB, market assessments of the Merger, regulatory considerations, market and economic considerations, and other factors, most of which are beyond Peoples and ASB's control. Accordingly, at the time of the ASB special meeting, ASB shareholders will not know or be able to calculate the precise market value of the stock consideration they would be entitled to receive upon completion of the Merger if they receive Peoples common shares. ASB shareholders should obtain current market quotations for Peoples common shares. See MARKET PRICE AND DIVIDEND INFORMATION on page 17 for ranges of historic market prices of Peoples common shares.

ASB has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement if, prior to the effective time of the Merger and during the time period specified in the Merger Agreement, both the market value of Peoples common shares and the NASDAQ Bank Index drop below certain pre-determined thresholds; provided, however, that Peoples will have the right to prevent ASB's termination by increasing the exchange ratio for the stock portion of the Merger consideration pursuant to a formula set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You may not receive the form of merger consideration that you elect.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, shareholders of ASB will be entitled to receive after the Merger is completed, for each ASB common share: (i) $20.00 in cash or (ii) 0.5920 Peoples common shares. The form of consideration to be received by each ASB shareholder is subject to reallocation in order to ensure that no more than 15% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of cash and no less than 85% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of Peoples common shares. The Merger Agreement contains proration and allocation methods to achieve this result. If you elect to receive all cash and the available cash is oversubscribed, then you will receive a portion of the merger consideration in the form of Peoples common shares. If you elect a combination of cash and Peoples common shares and the available cash is oversubscribed, you will not receive the specific combination you requested. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Reallocation of ASB Shareholder Elections.

Peoples could experience difficulties in managing its growth and effectively integrating the operations of ASB.

The earnings, financial condition and prospects of Peoples after the Merger will depend in part on Peoples ability to integrate successfully the operations of ASB and to continue to implement its own business plan. Peoples may not be able to fully achieve the strategic objectives and projected operating efficiencies anticipated in the Merger. The costs or difficulties relating to the integration of ASB with the Peoples organization may be greater than expected or the cost savings from any anticipated economies of scale of the combined organization may be lower or take longer to realize than expected. Inherent uncertainties exist in integrating the operations of any acquired entity, and Peoples may encounter difficulties, including, without limitation, loss of key employees and customers, and the disruption of its ongoing business or possible inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies. These factors could contribute to Peoples not fully achieving the expected benefits from the Merger.

Table of Contents

The Merger Agreement limits ASB's ability to pursue alternatives to the Merger, may discourage other acquirers from offering a higher valued transaction to ASB and may, therefore, result in less value for the ASB shareholders.

The Merger Agreement contains a provision that, subject to certain limited exceptions, prohibits ASB from maintaining, initiating, soliciting or encouraging any inquiries or the making of any proposal that could reasonably be expected to lead to a competing proposal to acquire ASB. In addition, if ASB desires to terminate the Merger Agreement in favor of such competing proposal, the Merger Agreement provides that ASB must pay a $1,500,000 termination fee to Peoples. These provisions of the Merger Agreement could discourage other companies from trying to acquire ASB even though such other companies might be willing to offer greater value to ASB's shareholders than Peoples has offered in the Merger Agreement. The payment of the termination fee, if paid, also could have a material adverse effect on ASB's financial condition.

The fairness opinion obtained by ASB from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances prior to the Merger.

Boenning & Scattergood, Inc., the financial advisor to ASB, delivered a written fairness opinion to the board of directors of ASB dated October 23, 2017. The fairness opinion states that, as of the date of the opinion, the merger consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of ASB common shares. However, the fairness opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date on which it was delivered, including changes to the operations and prospects of Peoples or ASB, changes in general market and economic conditions, or other changes. Should any such changes occur, it may alter the relative value of Peoples and ASB.

ASB shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management of the combined organization.

The Merger will result in ASB's shareholders having an ownership stake in the combined company that is smaller than their current stake in ASB. Upon completion of the Merger, we estimate that continuing Peoples shareholders will own between 93.98% and 94.84% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the combined company, and former ASB shareholders will own between 5.16% and 6.02% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the combined company, depending upon the stock and cash elections of ASB's shareholders. Consequently, ASB shareholders, as a general matter, will have less influence over the management and policies of the combined company after the effective time of the Merger than they currently exercise over the management and policies of ASB.

Failure to complete the Merger could negatively impact the value of ASB common shares and future businesses and financial results of Peoples and ASB.

If the Merger is not completed, the ongoing businesses of Peoples and ASB may be adversely affected and Peoples and ASB will be subject to several risks, including the following:

ASB may be required, under certain circumstances, to pay Peoples a termination fee of $1,500,000 under the Merger Agreement;

Peoples and ASB will be required to pay certain costs relating to the Merger, whether or not the Merger is completed, such as legal, accounting, financial advisor and printing fees;

under the Merger Agreement, ASB is subject to certain restrictions regarding the conduct of its business before completing the Merger, which may adversely affect its ability to execute certain of its business strategies; and matters relating to the Merger may require substantial commitments of time and resources by Peoples and ASB management, which could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that may have been beneficial to Peoples and ASB as independent companies, as the case may be.

In addition, if the Merger is not completed, ASB may experience negative reactions from its customers and employees. Some ASB employees may resign and obtain other employment as a result of the potential Merger. ASB also could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the Merger.

The Peoples common shares to be received by ASB shareholders upon completion of the Merger will have different rights from ASB shares.

Upon completion of the Merger, ASB shareholders will no longer be shareholders of ASB but will instead become shareholders of Peoples, and their rights as shareholders of Peoples will continue to be governed by the Ohio Revised Code and by Peoples Amended Articles of Incorporation and Regulations. The terms of Peoples Amended Articles of Incorporation and Regulations are in some respects materially different than the terms of ASB's articles of incorporation, as amended, and Regulations.

Table of Contents

See COMPARISON OF CERTAIN RIGHTS OF ASB AND PEOPLES SHAREHOLDERS on page 55 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Completion of the Merger is subject to many conditions and if these conditions are not satisfied or waived, the Merger will not be completed.

The respective obligations of Peoples and ASB to complete the Merger are subject to the fulfillment or written waiver of many conditions, including approval by the requisite vote of the ASB shareholders, receipt of requisite regulatory approvals, absence of orders prohibiting completion of the Merger, effectiveness of the registration statement of which this document is a part, the continued accuracy of the representations and warranties by both parties, and the performance by both parties of their covenants and agreements. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions to Consummation of the Merger on page 48 of this proxy statement/prospectus. These conditions to the consummation of the Merger may not be fulfilled and, accordingly, the Merger may not be completed. In addition, if the Merger is not completed by September 30, 2018, either Peoples or ASB, by a vote of a majority of the members of its entire board, may choose not to proceed with the Merger, or the parties can mutually decide to terminate the Merger Agreement at any time, before or after approval by the requisite vote of the ASB shareholders. In addition, Peoples or ASB may elect to terminate the Merger Agreement in certain other circumstances. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Termination of the Merger Agreement on page 53 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a more complete description of these circumstances.

ASB will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Merger on employees, customers, suppliers and vendors may have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of ASB, which could negatively affect Peoples and ASB's combined business operations. These uncertainties may impair ASB's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel, depositors and borrowers pending the consummation of the Merger, as such personnel, depositors and borrowers may experience uncertainty about their future roles following the consummation of the Merger. Additionally, these uncertainties could cause customers (including depositors and borrowers), suppliers, vendors and others who deal with ASB to seek to change existing business relationships with ASB or fail to extend an existing relationship with ASB. In addition, competitors may target each party's existing customers by highlighting potential uncertainties and integration difficulties that may result from the Merger.

The pursuit of the Merger and the preparation for the integration may place a burden on each company's management and internal resources. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business concerns and any difficulties encountered in the transition and integration process could have a material adverse effect on each company's business, financial condition and results of operations. Retention of certain employees by ASB also may be challenging while the Merger is pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Peoples after the Merger. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with ASB, ASB's business could be harmed.

In addition, in the Merger Agreement ASB has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course prior to closing and is restricted from taking certain actions without Peoples' consent while the Merger is pending. These restrictions may, among other matters, prevent ASB from pursuing otherwise attractive business opportunities, selling assets, incurring indebtedness, engaging in significant capital expenditures in excess of certain limits set forth in the Merger Agreement, entering into other transactions or making other changes to ASB's business prior to consummation of the Merger or termination of the Merger Agreement. These restrictions could have a material adverse effect on ASB's business, financial condition and results of operations. Please see the section entitled THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions to Consummation of the Merger beginning on page 48 for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to ASB.

Following the Merger, a high percentage of the combined company's loan portfolio will remain in Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia and in commercial and residential real estate. Deteriorations in economic conditions in this area or in the real estate market generally could be more harmful to the combined company compared to more diversified institutions.

As of September 30, 2017 approximately $175.58 million, or 71%, of ASB's loan portfolio was comprised of residential real estate loans, and $58.48 million, or 23%, of ASB's loan portfolio was comprised of commercial real estate loans. As of September 30, 2017, approximately $499.04 million, or 21%, of Peoples' loan portfolio was comprised of residential real estate loans, and $867.17 million, or 37%, of Peoples' loan portfolio was comprised of commercial real estate loans. As a result of the Merger, the combined company's loan portfolio, as of September 30, 2017, would have consisted of $674.62 million, or 26%, of residential real estate loans and $925.65 million, or 36%, of commercial real estate loans.

Inherent risks of commercial real estate (CRE) lending include the cyclical nature of the real estate market, construction risk and interest rate risk. The cyclical nature of real estate markets can cause CRE loans to suffer considerable distress. During these times of distress, a property's performance can be negatively affected by tenants deteriorating credit strength and lease expirations caused by economic deterioration or over-supply conditions. Even if borrowers are able to meet their payment obligations, they may find it difficult to refinance their full loan amounts at maturity due to declines in property value. Other risks associated with CRE lending include regulatory changes and environmental liability. Regulatory changes in tax legislation, zoning, environmental regulation, or similar external conditions that may affect property values and the economic feasibility of existing and proposed real estate projects. Environmental liability as a result of contamination may decrease the real estate collateral's value or render the collateral worthless. Furthermore, the cost that may be imposed on a responsible borrower for the remediation of a contaminated property may severely impair the borrower's ability to repay the loan.

The combined company's CRE loan portfolio will be concentrated in Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia. There are a wide variety of economic conditions within the local markets of these states in which most of the combined company's CRE loan portfolio will be situated. Rates of employment, consumer loan demand, household formation, and the level of economic activity can vary widely from state to state and among metropolitan areas, cities and towns. Metropolitan markets comprise various submarkets where property values and demand can be affected by many factors, such as demographic makeup, geographic features, transportation, recreation, local government, school systems, utility infrastructure, tax burden, building-stock age, zoning and building codes, and available land for development. Despite the Merger, as a result of the continued high concentration of the combined company's loan portfolio, the combined company may be more sensitive, compared to more diversified institutions, to future disruptions in, and deterioration of, this market, which could lead to losses which could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the combined company.

Risks Related to the Combined Company if the Merger is Completed

The integration of the banks will present significant challenges that may result in the combined business not operating as effectively as expected or in the failure to achieve some or all of the anticipated benefits of the transaction.

The benefits and synergies expected to result from the proposed transaction will depend in part on whether the operations of American Savings Bank can be integrated in a timely and efficient manner with those of Peoples Bank. Peoples Bank may face challenges in consolidating its functions with those of American Savings Bank, and integrating the organizations, procedures and operations of the two businesses. The integration of Peoples Bank and American Savings Bank will be complex and time-consuming, and the management of both companies will have to dedicate substantial time and resources to it. These efforts could divert management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from day-to-day operational matters during the integration process. Failure to successfully integrate the operations of Peoples Bank and American Savings Bank could result in the failure to fully achieve some of the anticipated benefits from the transaction, including cost savings and other operating efficiencies, and Peoples Bank may not be able to capitalize on the existing relationships of American Savings Bank to the extent anticipated, or it may take longer, or be more difficult or expensive than expected to achieve these goals. This could have an adverse effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of Peoples and/or Peoples Bank after the transaction.

Unanticipated costs relating to the Merger could reduce Peoples' future earnings per share.

Peoples and Peoples Bank believe that each has reasonably estimated the likely costs of integrating the operations of Peoples Bank and American Savings Bank, and the incremental costs of operating as a combined company. However, it is possible that unexpected transaction costs such as taxes, fees or professional expenses or unexpected future operating expenses such as increased personnel costs or increased taxes, as well as other types of unanticipated adverse developments, could have a material adverse effect on the results of operations and financial condition of the combined company. If unexpected costs are incurred, the Merger could have a dilutive effect on Peoples' earnings per share. In other words, if the Merger is completed, the earnings per Peoples common share could be less than anticipated or even less than they would have been if the Merger had not been completed.

Estimates as to the future value of the combined company are inherently uncertain. You should not rely on such estimates without considering all of the information contained or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Any estimates as to the future value of the combined company, including estimates regarding the earnings per share of the combined company, are inherently uncertain. The future value of the combined company will depend upon, among other factors, the combined company's ability to achieve projected revenue and earnings expectations and to realize the anticipated synergies described in this proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to the risks and uncertainties described in this proxy statement/prospectus, including these risk factors. Accordingly, you should not rely upon any estimates as to the future value of the combined company, whether made before or after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus by Peoples and ASB's respective management or affiliates or others, without considering all of the information contained or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks Related to Peoples Business

You should read and consider risk factors specific to Peoples' business that will also affect the combined company after the Merger, described in Peoples' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, as updated by subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are filed by Peoples with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this document. See INCORPORATION OF CERTAIN DOCUMENTS BY REFERENCE on page 58 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, and include information about possible or assumed future results of operations of Peoples after the Merger is completed as well as information about the Merger. Words such as believes, expects, anticipates, estimates, intends, would, could, should, may, or similar expressions, or the negatives thereof, are intended to identify forward-looking statements, but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. Many possible events or factors could affect the future financial results and performance of each of Peoples and ASB before the Merger or Peoples after the Merger, and could cause those results or performance to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements.

The ability to predict results or the actual effects of the combined company's plans and strategies is inherently uncertain. Some of the factors that may cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those identified in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled RISK FACTORS beginning on page 18, as well as the following:

the parties' ability to promptly and effectively integrate the businesses of Peoples and ASB, and of American Savings Bank and Peoples Bank, including unexpected transaction costs, including the costs of integrating operations, severance, professional fees and other expenses;

the risk that the expected cost savings, synergies and other financial benefits from the Merger may not be realized or take longer than anticipated to be realized;

lower than expected revenues or earnings following the Merger;

higher than expected loan losses following the Merger;

the diversion of management's time on issues related to the Merger;

greater than expected deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption following the Merger, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees;

the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the proposed Merger is not obtained or is obtained subject to non-standard conditions that are not anticipated;

the failure of ASB's shareholders to adopt and approve the Merge Agreement;

general economic conditions, either nationally, in Ohio or in certain MSAs in Ohio that are less favorable than expected resulting in, among other things, a deterioration of the quality of the combined company's loan portfolio and the demand for its products and services;

changes in interest rates, deposit flows, loan demand and real estate values;

material changes in the value of Peoples common shares;

changes in estimates of future reserve requirements based upon the periodic review thereof under relevant regulatory and accounting requirements;

inaccuracy of Peoples or ASB's management's assumptions and estimates used in applying critical accounting policies;

a decline in the sale price of Peoples common shares before the completion of the Merger, including as a result of the financial performance of Peoples, or of ASB, or more generally due to broader stock market movements and the performance of financial companies and peer group companies;

inflation and interest rate, securities market and monetary fluctuations; changes in interest rates, spreads on earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, and interest rate sensitivity;

the risk of litigation related to the Merger or the exercise of dissenters' rights and related costs and expenses;

an increase in competitive pressures among depository and other financial institutions that affects pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues;

changes in laws and regulations (including laws and regulations concerning taxes, banking and securities) with which Peoples and ASB must comply;

the effects of, and changes in, trade, monetary and fiscal policies and laws, including interest rate policies of the Federal Reserve;

legislation affecting the financial services industry as a whole, and/or Peoples and its subsidiaries, individually or collectively;

governmental and public policy changes;

Peoples' inability to integrate the ASB acquisition and any future acquisition targets or increased difficulty, time-consumption or cost than expected in doing so; and the impact on Peoples' businesses, as well as on the risks set forth above, of various domestic or international military or terrorist activities or conflicts.

Additional factors that may cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those discussed under "Risk Factors" and those discussed in the filings of Peoples with the SEC that are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, which are available online at www.sec.gov. See WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION at the beginning of this document.

Because these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, Peoples' and ASB's actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or the date of any document incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the Merger or other matters addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus, and attributable to Peoples or ASB or any person acting on their behalf, are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this CAUTIONARY STATEMENT ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS. Peoples and ASB undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, unless obligated to do so under the federal securities laws.

THE SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS OF ASB

This section contains information about the ASB special meeting at which ASB shareholders will have the opportunity to vote on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. The ASB board of directors is mailing this proxy statement/prospectus to you, as an ASB shareholder, on or about January 29, 2018. Together with this proxy statement/prospectus, the ASB board of directors also is sending to you a notice of the ASB special meeting and a form of proxy that the ASB board of directors is soliciting for use at the ASB special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of the ASB special meeting.

Time, Date and Place

The ASB special meeting of shareholders is scheduled to be held at 1:00 p.m., local time, on March 9, 2018, at The Lofts on Gallia, 840 Gallia Street, Portsmouth, Ohio 45662, including any adjournments of the special meeting.

Matters to be Considered

At the special meeting, the shareholders of ASB will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

a proposal to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement;

a proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement; and any other business which properly comes before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. The board of directors of ASB is unaware of any other business to be transacted at the special meeting.

Recommendation of the ASB Board of Directors

The board of directors of ASB believes that the Merger with Peoples is in the best interests of ASB shareholders and recommends that you vote (1) FOR the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and (2) FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting of ASB shareholders, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies. See THE MERGER Recommendation of the ASB Board of Directors.

Record Date; Shares Outstanding and Entitled to Vote

The board of directors of ASB has fixed the close of business on January 23, 2018, as the record date for determining the ASB shareholders who are entitled to notice of and to vote at the ASB special meeting of shareholders. Only holders of ASB common shares at the close of business on the record date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the ASB special meeting.

As of the close of business on January 16, 2018, there were 1,979,034 ASB common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. As of the same date, there were no shares of ASB preferred stock outstanding. The ASB common shares were held of record by approximately 165 shareholders. Each ASB common share entitles the holder to one vote on all matters properly presented at the special meeting.

Votes Required; Quorum

Your vote is important. ASB's articles of incorporation, as amended, require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of ASB's common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the ASB special meeting in order to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement. Approval of an adjournment of the special meeting requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of ASB common shares represented, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting.

Brokers who hold ASB common shares in street name for the beneficial owners cannot vote these ASB common shares for or against the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement without specific instructions from the beneficial owners. If (1) you fail to vote, (2) you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, or (3) your ASB common shares are held in street name and you fail to instruct your broker how to vote, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement.

A quorum, consisting of the holders of a majority of the outstanding ASB common shares, must be present in person or by proxy at the ASB special meeting before any action, other than the adjournment of the special meeting, can be taken. Properly executed proxy cards marked ABSTAIN and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

The ASB board of directors does not expect any matter other than the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and, if necessary, the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies, to be brought before the ASB special meeting. If any other matters are properly brought before the special meeting for consideration, ASB common shares represented by properly executed proxy cards will be voted, to the extent permitted by applicable law, in the discretion of the persons named in the proxy card in accordance with their best judgment.

Share Ownership of Directors and Officers; Voting Agreement

As of January 16, 2018, the directors and executive officers of ASB and their affiliates collectively owned 295,597 ASB common shares, or approximately 14.94% of ASB's outstanding shares.

On the date of the execution of the Merger Agreement, all of the directors of ASB entered into a voting agreement with Peoples pursuant to which they agreed, subject to certain terms and conditions, to vote all of their shares in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. As of January 16, 2018, these directors owned an aggregate of 255,630 ASB common shares, an amount equal to approximately 12.9% of the outstanding ASB common shares.

When considering the ASB board of directors' recommendation that you vote in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that, in addition to their interests as shareholders of ASB, the directors and executive officers of ASB have financial interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of shareholders of ASB. See THE MERGER Interests of ASB's Directors and Officers in the Merger beginning on page 38.

Solicitation and Revocation of Proxies

A proxy card accompanies each copy of this proxy statement/prospectus mailed to ASB shareholders. Your proxy is being solicited by the board of directors of ASB. Whether or not you attend the special meeting, the ASB board of directors urges you to return your properly executed proxy card as soon as possible. If you return your properly executed proxy card prior to the special meeting and do not revoke it prior to its use, the ASB common shares represented by that proxy card will be voted at the special meeting or, if appropriate, at any adjournment of the special meeting. ASB common shares will be voted as specified on the proxy card or, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, will be voted FOR the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and, if necessary, FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies.

If you have returned a properly executed proxy card, you may revoke it at any time before it is voted at the special meeting by:

filing a written notice of revocation with the President of ASB, at 503 Chillicothe Street, Portsmouth, Ohio 45662;

executing and returning another proxy card with a later date; or attending the special meeting and either giving notice of revocation in person, or voting by ballot at the special meeting.

Your attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.

If you hold your ASB common shares in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, you must provide your broker, bank or nominee (the record holder of your shares) with instructions on how to vote your shares. Your broker, bank or other nominee will provide you with a proxy card and voting instructions. If you have instructed your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your common shares, you must follow the directions received from your broker, bank or other nominee to later change or revoke your voting instructions.

ASB will bear its own cost of solicitation of proxies on behalf of the ASB board of directors. Proxies will be solicited by mail, and may be further solicited by additional mailings, personal contact, telephone, facsimile or electronic mail, by directors, officers and employees of ASB, none of whom will receive additional compensation for their solicitation activities. ASB will also pay the standard charges and expenses of brokerage houses, voting trustees, banks, associations and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, who are record holders of ASB common shares not beneficially owned by them, for forwarding this proxy statement/prospectus and other proxy solicitation materials to, and obtaining proxies from, the beneficial owners of ASB common shares entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Participants in the ASB KSOP

If you participate in the KSOP, you will receive a vote authorization form for the plan that reflects all shares that you may direct the trustees to vote on your behalf under the KSOP. Please be aware that the trustees of the plan may establish a deadline for submitting your voting instructions that is before the time of the ASB special meeting.

Under the terms of the KSOP, the trustees vote all shares held by the KSOP, but each KSOP participant may direct the trustee how to vote the common shares allocated to his or her account. As all ASB shares held by the KSOP are allocated to the accounts of participants, the trustees will vote all the allocated shares held in the KSOP as instructed by the participants to whom they have been allocated, and vote all allocated shares for which timely and complete voting instructions are not received in the same proportion as the shares for which instructions are received.

PROPOSALS SUBMITTED TO ASB SHAREHOLDERS

ASB Merger Proposal

As discussed throughout this proxy statement/prospectus, ASB is asking its shareholders to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement. ASB shareholders should carefully read this document in its entirety for more detailed information regarding the Merger Agreement and the Merger. In particular, shareholders are directed to, and encouraged to read carefully in its entirety, the copy of the Merger Agreement attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Vote Required for Approval

The affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of ASB common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement.

Recommendation of the ASB Board of Directors

THE ASB BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE MERGER PROPOSAL.

ASB Adjournment Proposal

The ASB special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to permit, among other things, the solicitation of additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the ASB special meeting to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement. If, at the time of the ASB special meeting, the number of common shares of ASB present or represented and voting in favor of the Merger Agreement proposal is insufficient to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, ASB intends to move to adjourn the ASB special meeting in order to enable the ASB board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the proposal. In that event, ASB will ask the ASB shareholders to vote only upon the adjournment proposal and not the merger proposal.

In the ASB adjournment proposal, ASB is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the ASB board of directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to the proxy holders to adjourn the ASB special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If the ASB shareholders approve the adjournment proposal, ASB could adjourn the ASB special meeting and any adjourned session of the ASB special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from ASB shareholders who have previously voted. If, after the adjournment, a new record date is fixed for the adjourned special meeting, notice of the adjourned special meeting will be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Vote Required for Approval

The affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of votes cast at the ASB special meeting is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted as votes cast and will not affect the outcome of this proposal.

Recommendation of the ASB Board of Directors

THE ASB BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL.

Other Matters to Come Before the Special Meeting

No other matters are intended to be brought before the ASB special meeting by ASB, and ASB does not know of any matters to be brought before the ASB special meeting by others. If, however, any other matters properly come before the ASB special meeting, the persons named in the proxy will vote the shares represented thereby in accordance with their best judgment on any such matter.

THE MERGER

The Proposed Merger

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of ASB with and into Peoples, with Peoples surviving (the Merger). Immediately following the Merger, and upon receipt of the required regulatory approvals, American Savings Bank will be merged with and into Peoples Bank, with Peoples Bank surviving the subsidiary bank merger. The Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and is incorporated in this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. You are encouraged to read the Merger Agreement carefully, as it is the legal document that governs the Merger.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

Upon completion of the Merger, shareholders of ASB will be entitled to receive for each ASB common share either: (i) $20.00 in cash, or (ii) 0.5920 Peoples common shares. ASB shareholders may elect to convert their ASB shares into cash, Peoples common shares or a combination of cash and Peoples common shares. However, the form of consideration to be received by each ASB shareholder is subject to reallocation in order to ensure that no more than 15% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of cash and no less than 85% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of Peoples common shares.

Background of the Merger

From time to time over the past several years, ASB's board of directors has met with professional financial advisors, including Boenning, to review the overall transaction market for community banks, and ASB's strategic options, such as growth through acquisition, a merger of equals or a strategic merger. Over this same period, ASB's board regularly addressed items of concern for many community banks of ASB's size, including increasing regulatory compliance cost, in terms of both time and dollars, and the pressures of a declining local market, market area saturation and shareholder return. At the same time, the board was faced with succession planning concerns for the most senior positions at ASB and American Savings Bank. In addition, the directors have remained mindful of the limited liquidity of ASB's common shares, and the fact that any need or desire by a large shareholder to sell a substantial number of shares in a short period of time could depress the price for an unknown period and negatively affect other shareholders in the process.

On April 24, 2017, ASB's board met with Boenning for a market update. Following Boenning's presentation, the board discussed yet again the myriad challenges facing ASB and American Savings Bank going forward, and decided that it was the appropriate time to more thoroughly consider strategic options, including a sale. The following day, ASB's board unanimously decided to retain Boenning as its financial advisor in that process.

Over the course of the next few months, Boenning worked with ASB's management to prepare a confidential information memorandum for distribution to interested parties, as well as assembling a virtual data room for any resulting due diligence process. Once these materials were completed, Boenning began to contact potential transaction partners during the week of July 24, 2017.

Boenning contacted a total of 25 parties with approval of the ASB board. These parties were selected on the basis of discussions between Boenning and ASB's management to identify parties that could potentially have both a strategic interest in ASB's markets and an ability to pay an acceptable premium. Of those 25 parties, 16 declined the opportunity without reviewing detailed information about ASB and nine parties signed confidentiality agreements and reviewed the materials. On July 25, 2017, Peoples executed a confidentiality agreement, was given the confidential information memorandum and began to review information on ASB.

On August 17, 2017, nonbinding indications of interest were received from four parties, including Peoples, and on August 22, 2017, Boenning met with the ASB board to review the indications received. The board decided that it would only proceed with the three highest bidders, and instructed Boenning to contact the bidders and ask them to consider increasing their price in order to be considered for diligence.

On August 23, 2017, management of Peoples and ASB had a call with Boenning to discuss ASB's current earnings and outlook and to answer other questions. Similar calls were held with the two other parties.

On August 25, 2017, Peoples and one other party submitted increased indications of interest. One bidder declined the opportunity to increase its indication, effectively withdrawing from the process. Peoples' indication was increased to a range of $18.00 - $20.00 in an all-stock deal. The board decided to proceed to due diligence with Peoples and two other parties.

Over the course of the next two weeks, the remaining three bidders, Peoples, Company A and Company B, reviewed materials provided in the virtual data room and communicated with Boenning to answer questions or request additional information. Throughout this period, Peoples, Company A and Company B continued to spend significant time reviewing materials in the data room.

Table of Contents

On September 12 and 13, 2017, ASB's management held due diligence meetings with management of Company A. Following the due diligence meetings on September 12, ASB's board joined and received a presentation from Company A's management regarding its banking franchise and why its stock would be an attractive potential investment for ASB's shareholders if a merger with Company A were to occur. That same week, ASB held similar in-person management diligence meetings with Peoples at offsite locations in Chillicothe, Ohio on September 14 and in Columbus, Ohio on September 15.

On September 18, 2017, before its scheduled due diligence meeting with ASB's management, Company B notified ASB and Boenning that it was withdrawing from the process for reasons that it said were unrelated to ASB. Also on September 18, 2017, Boenning sent a letter to both Peoples and Company A regarding the matters their final bids should address. This letter also requested that their best and highest bids be submitted to Boenning by the close of business on September 29, 2017.

On September 21, 2017, ASB's board met with Charles W. Sulerzyski, the President and CEO of Peoples, at an offsite location in Chillicothe. Mr. Sulerzyski made a presentation to the board regarding Peoples, its banking franchise and why Peoples' common shares would potentially be attractive to ASB's shareholders if ASB were to merge with Peoples.

On September 29, 2017, Peoples submitted a revised bid equal to an indicated value of $20.00 per share, with a fixed exchange ratio to be determined based on an average trading price of Peoples common shares prior to signing of the definitive agreement. Peoples' bid also provided for both a cash and stock election, provided that no more than 20% of ASB's common shares could be exchanged for cash. On that same day, Company A notified Boenning and ASB that it would not submit a final bid and would withdraw from the process. Company A's withdrawal left Peoples as the only remaining bidder.

Also on September 29, 2017, ASB's management discovered that the amount of the expected data processing termination fee provided to the bidders in due diligence had been incorrect. The corrected amount would equate to an additional after-tax termination cost of $0.41 per ASB share. Thus, ASB's management knew that it would need to disclose the difference to Peoples. Factoring in the increased termination costs, Peoples' bid would effectively be reduced from $20.00 per share to $19.59.

On October 3, 2017, the ASB board met in Cincinnati at the offices of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP (Vorys), ASB's counsel, to consider the Peoples bid, and to determine whether ASB should move forward with the process to sell or continue to operate independently. The board discussed, among other things, management succession issues, Peoples' banking franchise, the prospects of the combined bank and the liquidity of Peoples shares as compared to ASB's shares. The board also discussed the regulatory and cost burdens and challenges of remaining independent, and the fact that ASB was better positioned now than it had ever been for a possible sale, and that, given various uncertainties, there was significant risk that ASB's standing as a seller could potentially slip if it waited a few years and then looked again to sell.

ASB's board also considered that, because the offer involved a cash and stock mix, the implied market value of the consideration could fluctuate between deciding to move ahead, the signing of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the transaction due to changes in the market price of Peoples' stock. Thus, anticipated changes in the price of Peoples' shares between signing and closing, as well as historical volatility and expectations of performance after the closing, were important considerations for the directors in determining to proceed.

Boenning was then asked to contact Raymond James & Associates, Inc. (Raymond James), Peoples' financial advisor, to inform them of the unexpected increase in data processing termination fees. While Boenning and Raymond James were discussing the increased costs and its impact, Mr. Kuntz and Mr. Stephenson were asked to step out of the room so that ASB's non-employee directors could discuss these considerations among themselves. Following this, Mr. Kuntz and Mr. Stephenson were asked to rejoin the meeting, and Boenning also rejoined the meeting. After further discussion, ASB's board asked Boenning to inform Raymond James that, despite the unexpected increase in data processing termination costs, ASB would not enter into merger negotiations with Peoples at an implied price per share less than $20.00. ASB's board also decided to ask Peoples to increase the cash portion of the merger consideration to 30%. Boenning then relayed that information to Raymond James.

Raymond James then contacted Boenning to inform them that Peoples had agreed to keep its bid at $20.00 per share for the cash portion, with the same exchange ratio methodology in place to determine the exchange ratio at the time of signing the definitive agreement. Given the increased termination costs, however, Peoples insisted that a maximum of 15% of ASB's shares could be converted to cash, with the rest being converted to Peoples shares at the exchange ratio.

ASB's board considered this revised offer and unanimously decided to proceed to negotiate a merger agreement with Peoples. Boenning then informed Raymond James of that decision and the following morning Mr. Kuntz called Mr. Sulerzyski and informed him personally of the board's decision.

Following these communications, Dinsmore & Shohl LLP (Dinsmore), counsel to Peoples, began preparing the definitive merger agreement. During this time, each of ASB and Peoples reviewed extensive information about the other, and members of each company's management teams met over the course of several weeks to discuss due diligence items.

On October 6, 2017, Dinsmore circulated to Vorys and Boenning an initial draft of the merger agreement and a draft of an employment agreement for Michael J. Veeneman, who oversees ASB's Cincinnati Mortgage Origination Division. In its bid, Peoples stated that it must enter into an agreement with Mr. Veeneman prior to or concurrently with the merger agreement. Vorys, Boenning and ASB began their review of the draft merger agreement and Mr. Veeneman and his counsel began separately negotiating his employment agreement with Peoples.

On October 9, 2017, after some additional diligence, Peoples submitted a final bid reflecting the previously agreed-upon terms while ASB and its advisors continued to review the merger agreement. Peoples continued to conduct due diligence on ASB. Concurrently, ASB began preparation of disclosure schedules to be delivered at the signing of the merger agreement.

On October 11, 2017, Vorys returned a revised draft of the merger agreement to Dinsmore for its review, and on October 13 Dinsmore sent a further revised draft to Vorys. ASB and its advisors reviewed the proposed revisions while management continued preparing disclosure schedules and providing diligence materials to Peoples. Throughout these negotiations, Mr. Veeneman and his counsel continued to separately negotiate his proposed employment agreement with Peoples and Dinsmore.

On October 16, 2017, Vorys sent a further revised agreement to Dinsmore. By this time, there were only a few remaining open items. On October 18, 2017, Mr. Kuntz, Mr. Stephenson, Mr. Veeneman and a Boenning representative traveled to Marietta, Ohio and met at Peoples' headquarters with Mr. Sulerzyski, members of Peoples management and a Raymond James representative to discuss and negotiate the remaining open issues.

Following this meeting, on October 17 and October 19, 2017, Dinsmore sent Vorys further revisions to the merger agreement. By this point the agreement was substantially complete and over the next several days Vorys and Dinsmore worked on finalizing the language of the agreement, as well as completing the disclosure schedules. On October 19, 2017, ASB's directors were provided copies of the merger agreement for their review prior to the upcoming board meeting. During this period, Mr. Veeneman and his counsel also finalized the terms of his proposed employment agreement.

On October 23, 2017, ASB's board met to review the terms of the merger agreement with Vorys and to receive Boenning's fairness opinion. All of ASB's directors were present in person at the meeting. Vorys reminded the directors of their fiduciary duties to ASB's shareholders, and reviewed the proposed merger agreement in detail. The directors extensively discussed and considered the merger agreement, including the financial terms, representations and warranties, covenants and limitations on ASB's operations prior to closing, the limitations on alternative acquisition proposals following signing the agreement, termination provisions and the termination fee.

Boenning then reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and orally rendered to ASB's board an opinion, which was confirmed later that evening by a written opinion dated October 23, 2017, that the consideration to be received by ASB's shareholders in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders as of that date. See THE MERGER Opinion of ASB's Financial Advisor on page .

After lengthy discussion and review of the merger agreement and numerous factors, which are set forth below under the heading THE MERGER ASB's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the ASB Board of Directors, ASB's board unanimously determined that the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the consideration to be paid to ASB's shareholders, were fair to, and the Merger was advisable and in the best interests of, ASB and its shareholders. The board unanimously adopted and approved the Merger Agreement, authorized Mr. Kuntz to execute and deliver it, and directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted for consideration and adoption and approval by ASB's shareholders at the special meeting. The parties then executed the Merger Agreement on October 23, 2017 and announced the transaction prior to the opening of the markets on the morning of October 24, 2017.

ASB's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the ASB Board of Directors

ASB's board determined that the Merger and the merger consideration were in the best interests of ASB and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that ASB's shareholders vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement.

In its deliberations and in making its determination, ASB's board considered many factors, including, without limitation, the following, which are not presented in order of priority:

the form and amount of merger consideration (which includes Peoples common shares), and the ability of ASB's shareholders to participate in the future performance of the combined company;

Table of Contents

the ability of ASB's shareholders to receive some cash instead of Peoples common shares, if they so choose; the financial analysis prepared by Boenning and Boenning's opinion dated as of October 23, 2017 that the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of ASB common shares;

the quarterly dividend historically paid by Peoples;

the belief of ASB's board that Peoples is a high-quality financial services company with a similar approach to customer service and increasing shareholder value;

the potential ability of the combined company to increase shareholder value and to create opportunities for enhanced earnings and dividends;

the significantly increased stock liquidity that would be created for ASB's shareholders;

the continuing consolidation in the financial institutions industry;

the benefits of doing a transaction now versus risks and uncertainties of waiting to do so;

the size of the resulting institution, which would permit more efficient competition in a highly competitive industry;

increased regulatory burdens on financial institutions;

future uncertainties in the regulatory and economic climate;

succession planning concerns for senior management positions at ASB and American Savings Bank;

the current and prospective business and economic environment in which ASB and Peoples operate, including local and regional economic conditions;

the similarities of the markets served by ASB and Peoples;

the business, earnings, operations, financial condition, capital levels and asset quality of ASB and Peoples;

Peoples' intention to retain American Savings Bank's existing locations and the belief of the ASB board that Peoples will retain many of American Savings Bank's employees, enabling American Savings Bank's customers to continue to interact with many of the same employees at the banking locations with which they are familiar;

the increased lending opportunities in the communities served by ASB as a result of the combined bank's increased lending limits; and the effect of the Merger on ASB's employees, including the prospects for continued employment and the other benefits agreed to be provided by Peoples to ASB's employees.

The following negative factors were also considered:

the loss of autonomy associated with being an independent financial institution;

the possibility that the Merger will not be consummated, resulting in negative effects on ASB from costs incurred, the diversion of management and employee attention, employee attrition and the potential effect on business and customer relationships;

the lack of assurance that all conditions to closing will be satisfied, including the risks of failure to get regulatory or shareholder approval;

possible hesitation of American Saving Bank's customers to engage with a larger financial institution;

the restrictions on the conduct of ASB's and American Savings Bank's business prior to completion of the Merger, which could have a negative effect on ASB's condition and results of operations;

Table of Contents

the possibility of litigation in connection with the Merger;

the lack of a fairness opinion as of the time of the closing of the Merger;

changes to the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration that will occur prior to closing due to changes in the price of Peoples common shares;

the fact that the market price of Peoples common shares after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those that affect ASB's and Peoples' market prices currently; and the reduced share ownership percentage and voting and management control that ASB's shareholders will have in the combined company.

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by ASB's board is not intended to be exhaustive but includes all material factors considered by ASB's board in arriving at its determination to approve, and to recommend that ASB's shareholders vote to approve and adopt, the Merger Agreement. ASB's board did not assign any relative or specific weights to the above factors, and individual directors may have given differing weights to each factor.

The board of directors of ASB approved the Merger Agreement by a unanimous vote of the directors. The board believes that the Merger is in the best interests of ASB and its shareholders, and, as a result, the directors unanimously recommend that ASB's shareholders vote FOR the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement.

Peoples' Reasons for the Merger

Peoples believes that the Merger is in the best interests of Peoples and its shareholders. In reaching this determination, the Peoples board of directors consulted with senior management, Peoples' financial advisor and legal counsel, and considered the projected pro forma impact of the Merger and a number of other factors, including, without limitation, the following, which are not presented in order of priority:

the long-term interests of Peoples and its shareholders, as well as the interests of its employees, customers, creditors and the communities in which Peoples operates;

the compatibility of the cultures of Peoples and ASB, particularly with respect to meeting local banking needs and fostering strong community ties;

an enhanced market share in Ohio with increased high-quality, low-cost core deposits;

the Merger will expand and enhance Peoples existing franchise in the attractive market of Hamilton County;

the anticipated operating efficiencies, cost savings, new branding and opportunities for revenue enhancements of the combined bank following the completion of the Merger, and the likelihood that they would be achieved after the Merger;

the anticipated increase in mortgage origination capability with the addition of American Savings Bank s successful Cincinnati Mortgage Origination Division;

the Merger should assist Peoples in maintaining its status as an independent holding company and Peoples Bank as a community bank; and the ability of Peoples to maintain its strong capital position and fund the cash portion of the transaction through current operations while also permitting the merged banks to maintain a strong capital position that will allow the organization to expand within its new markets.

While management of Peoples believes that revenue opportunities will be achieved and costs savings will be obtained following the Merger, Peoples has not quantified the amount of enhancements or projected the areas of operation in which such enhancements will occur.

Table of Contents

All business combinations, including the Merger, also include certain risks and disadvantages. The material potential risks and disadvantages to Peoples and its shareholders that Peoples board of directors and management identified and the board of directors considered include the following material matters, which are not presented in order of priority:

potential run-off of deposits and loans following announcement and/or the closing of the Merger;

the potential for diversion of management attention during the period prior to the completion of the Merger and after the Merger while merging American Savings Bank's business with Peoples Bank;

the costs to be incurred in connection with the Merger, including the transaction expenses arising from the Merger Agreement and the Merger;

the risk that projected earnings, tangible book value increases and/or cost savings will not materialize or will be less than expected;

the likelihood that Peoples common shares may trade down post-announcement and/or post-Merger;

the risk that ASB's loans and other items were not appropriately valued; and the risk that ASB terminates the Merger Agreement by reason of a superior competing proposal.

In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger, the Peoples board did not find it useful to and did not attempt to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the factors it considered. Further, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. In addition, the Peoples board did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination. Rather, the board conducted an overall analysis of the factors it considered material, including thorough discussions with, and questioning of, Peoples management.

After deliberating with respect to the proposed merger with ASB, considering, among other things, the factors discussed above, the Peoples board of directors approved the Merger Agreement and the Merger with ASB and declared the Merger advisable.

There can be no certainty that the above benefits of the merger anticipated by the Peoples board of directors will occur. Actual results may vary materially from those anticipated. For more information on the factors that could affect actual results, see CAUTIONARY STATEMENT ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS and RISK FACTORS.

Boenning's opinion is based upon quantitative analyses and information derived from publicly available information regarding Peoples and Boenning's modeling assumptions discussed with the respective management teams of ASB and Peoples, as well as other market, economic, financial and other conditions as they existed and could be evaluated only as of the date of its opinion and accordingly, it speaks to no other period. Boenning expresses no opinion as to the prices at which Peoples' securities may trade at any time. Nothing in Boenning's opinion is to be construed as constituting tax advice or a recommendation to take any particular tax position, nor does Boenning's opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, as to which Boenning understands that Peoples has obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals. Boenning's opinion is for the information of ASB's Board in connection with its

This opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on Boenning's part to any party or person.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Boenning performed a variety of financial analyses that are summarized below. This summary does not purport to be a complete description of such analyses. Boenning believes that its analyses and the summary set forth herein must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of such analyses and the factors considered therein, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the analyses and processes underlying its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Boenning considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it. The range of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described below should not be taken to be Boenning's view of the actual value of ASB.

In its analyses, Boenning made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of ASB or Peoples. Any estimates contained in Boenning's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual future values or results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the actual prices at which companies or their securities actually may be sold. No company or transaction utilized in Boenning's analyses was identical to ASB or Peoples or the Merger. Accordingly, an analysis of the results described below is not mathematical; rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other facts that could affect the public trading value of the companies to which they are being compared. None of the analyses that Boenning performed was assigned a greater significance by Boenning than any other, nor does the order of analyses described represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Boenning. The analyses described below do not purport to be indicative of actual future results, or to reflect the prices at which ASB common shares or Peoples common shares may trade in the public markets, which may vary depending upon various factors, including, without limitation, changes in interest rates, dividend rates, market conditions, economic conditions and other factors that influence the price of securities.

In accordance with customary investment banking practice, Boenning employed generally accepted valuation methods in reaching its opinion. The following is a summary of the material financial analyses that Boenning used in providing its opinion on October 23, 2017. Some of the summaries of financial analyses are presented in tabular format. In order to more fully understand the financial analyses that Boenning used, you should read the tables, together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of Boenning's financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, and if viewed in isolation, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses that Boenning performed. The summary data set forth below do not represent and should not be viewed by anyone as constituting conclusions reached by Boenning with respect to any of the analyses performed by it in connection with its opinion. Rather, Boenning made its determination as to the fairness to the holders of ASB common shares of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of the analyses performed. Accordingly, the data included in the summary tables and the corresponding imputed ranges of value for ASB should be considered as a whole and in the context of the full narrative description of all of the financial analyses set forth in the following pages, including the assumptions underlying these analyses. Considering the data included in the summary table without considering the full narrative description of all of the financial analyses, including the assumptions underlying these analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses that Boenning performed.

In connection with rendering its opinion and based upon the terms of the Merger Agreement it reviewed, Boenning assumed the effective aggregate indicated merger consideration to be $39.6 million and the per share merger consideration to be $20.00, based on Peoples' 20-day volume-weighted average closing stock price as of October 20, 2017, of $33.78249.

Comparison of Selected Companies. Boenning reviewed and, as reflected in Table 1 below, compared the multiples and ratios of the offer price to ASB's book value, tangible book value, latest 12 months earnings per share, assets, and deposits, as well as the ratio of ASB's tangible book premium (defined as the difference of the aggregate offer price and ASB's tangible book value) to core deposits, such multiples referred to herein as the pricing multiples, with the median pricing multiples for the current trading prices, after the application of a 28.7% assumed control premium, referred to as the adjusted trading price, of the common stocks of a peer group of 22 selected public banks and thrifts with assets between $200 million and $450 million, tangible common equity / tangible assets between 7% and 10% and latest 12 months return on average tangible common equity between 8% and 12%, excluding merger targets. The 28.7% equity control premium is the median one day stock price premium for all bank and thrift merger and acquisition deals announced since January 1, 2000, based on data from S&P Global Market Intelligence.

Analysis of Bank Merger Transactions. Boenning analyzed certain information relating to recent transactions in the banking industry, consisting of (i) 15 Ohio bank and thrift transactions announced since January 1, 2015 with disclosed pricing, excluding mergers of equals (as defined by S&P Global Market Intelligence) (MOEs), referred to below as Group A; (ii) 12 bank and thrift deals announced since January 1, 2015 with target headquarters outside a metropolitan statistical area (as defined by the United States Office of Management and Budget), assets between $150 million and $600 million, latest 12 months return on average equity between 7% and 13% and disclosed pricing, excluding MOEs, referred to below as Group B; and (iii) 20 nationwide bank and thrift deals announced since January 1, 2015 with target assets between $150 million and $400 million, tangible equity / tangible assets between 6.5% and 10%, prior three year average return on average equity between 6% and 9%, and disclosed pricing, excluding MOEs, referred to below as Group C. Boenning then reviewed and compared the pricing multiples of the offer price and the pricing multiples of the selected transaction values for Group A, Group B and Group C.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Discounted cash flow analysis approximates the value of a share of stock to an acquiror by calculating the present value of the target's dividendable cash flow in perpetuity. This analysis assumed a short-term earnings growth rate of 6.0% and a long-term growth rate of 2.0%, as well as a short-term balance sheet growth rate of 4.0% and a long-term growth rate of 2.0%, based on guidance from ASB's management. The estimated cost savings of 26.3% in 2018 and 35.0% of estimated annual expenses thereafter, transaction costs of $8.5 million pre-tax and gross credit mark of approximately 1.4% of ASB's total loans (equal to $1.9 million net of ASB's loan loss reserve) were based on guidance provided by Peoples. A discount rate of 13.25% was determined using the Capital Asset Pricing Model and the Build-Up Method, both of which take into account certain factors such as the current risk free rate, the beta of bank stocks compared to the broader market and risk premiums for small, illiquid stocks and for commercial bank stocks, as well as comparable company returns on tangible common equity. The average of the three methods was approximately 13.25%. Sensitivity analyses for discount rates and cost savings ranged from 11.25% to 15.25% and 30% to 40%, respectively. The present value of ASB common shares calculated using discounted cash flow analysis ranged from $13.00 per share to $25.88 per share based on the cost savings estimates and discount rates used, compared to the offer price of $20.00 per share. This analysis does not purport to be indicative of actual future results and does not purport to reflect the prices at which shares of ASB common shares may trade in the public markets. A discounted cash flow analysis was included because it is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, including earnings growth rates, dividend payout rates and discount rates.

Present Value Analysis. Applying present value analysis to ASB's theoretical future earnings, dividends and tangible book value, Boenning compared the offer price for one share of ASB common shares to the present value of one share of ASB common shares on a stand-alone basis. The analysis was based upon management's projected earnings growth, a range of assumed price / earnings ratios, a range of assumed price / tangible book value ratios and a 13.25% discount rate, which was determined using the Capital Asset Pricing Model and the Build-Up Method, both of which take into account certain factors such as the current risk free rate, the beta of bank stocks compared to the broader market and risk premiums for small, illiquid stocks and for commercial bank stocks, as well as comparable company returns on tangible common equity. The average of the three methods was approximately 13.25%. The valuation was completed with a sensitivity analysis on the discount rate ranging from 11.25% to 15.25%. Boenning derived the terminal price / earnings multiple of 18.0x and terminal price / tangible book value multiple of 141.6% from the three-year median trading multiples of the SNL Bank < $500 Million Index as of October 20, 2017. Sensitivity analyses for terminal price / earnings and price / tangible book ranged from 14.3x to 21.7x and 126.3% to 156.9%, respectively, each representing two standard deviations above or below the median. The present value of ASB common shares on a standalone basis is $15.44 to $26.00 per share based on price / earnings multiples, and $13.71 to $19.29 per share based on price / tangible book value multiples, compared to the offer price of $20.00 per share. This analysis does not purport to be indicative of actual future results and does not purport to reflect the prices at which ASB common shares may trade in the public markets. A present value analysis was included because it is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, including earnings growth rates, dividend payout rates and discount rates.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Boenning analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the Merger, assuming the following: (i) the Merger is completed March 31, 2018; (ii) each ASB common share will be eligible to receive consideration of $20.00 or 0.5920 Peoples common share; (iii) estimated pre-tax cost savings of approximately 35% of ASB's non-interest expense on an annual basis ($4.3 million annualized pre-tax fully phased-in), recognized 75% in 2018 and 100% in 2019; (iv) estimated one-time transaction-related costs of approximately $8.5 million pre-tax are expensed prior to closing; (v) ASB's performance was calculated in accordance with earnings forecasts developed in conjunction with ASB management; (vi) Peoples' performance was calculated in accordance with Peoples' consensus analyst estimates; and (vii) certain other assumptions pertaining to costs and expenses associated with the transaction, intangible amortization, opportunity cost of cash and other items. The analyses indicated that the Merger (excluding transaction expenses) would be accretive to the combined company's projected earnings per share for 2018 and for the full year 2019, but dilutive to ASB's per share equivalent earnings for 2018 and the full year 2019 and dilutive to ASB's per share equivalent tangible book value for 2018 and the full year 2019. Additionally, the combined company's regulatory capital ratios would exceed regulatory guidelines for well capitalized. The actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

As described above, Boenning's opinion was just one of the many factors taken into consideration by the ASB board in making its determination to approve the Merger.

Boenning, as part of its investment banking business, regularly is engaged in the valuation of assets, securities and companies in connection with various types of transactions, including, without limitation, mergers, acquisitions, private placements, public offerings and valuations for various other purposes, and in the determination of adequate consideration in such transactions. In the ordinary course of Boenning's business as a broker-dealer, it may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, ASB, Peoples, and their respective affiliates. In the ordinary course of business, Boenning may also actively trade the securities of ASB and Peoples for its own account and for the accounts of customers and accordingly may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Boenning is acting as ASB's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for its services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. Boenning also received a fee for rendering the fairness opinion. Boenning's fee for rendering the fairness opinion was not contingent upon any conclusion that Boenning reached or upon completion of the Merger. ASB has also agreed to indemnify Boenning against certain liabilities that may arise out of Boenning's engagement.

Prior Engagements by ASB and Peoples. Except for the arrangements between Boenning and ASB described in the preceding paragraph, Boenning has not had any material relationship with Peoples during the past two years in which compensation was received or was intended to be received. Boenning advised and received compensation from ASB in 2015 relating to the evaluation of an acquisition opportunity, although no transaction was consummated at that time. Boenning has otherwise provided no investment banking services to ASB during the past two years in which compensation was received or was intended to be received. Boenning may provide services to Peoples in the future (and to ASB if the Merger is not consummated), although as of the date of Boenning's opinion, there was no agreement to do so nor any mutual understanding that such services are contemplated.

Boenning was engaged in July 2013 by ASB to serve as placement agent for a private placement of ASB common shares. The offering ultimately closed on December 27, 2013 and Boenning was paid a commission for its role. Certain employees of Boenning purchased shares in this offering. The aggregate number of such shares is well under 1% of ASB's outstanding shares. The value of the shares is not material to the net worth of the employees, and Boenning does not believe that such ownership has any bearing on Boenning's representation of ASB or on Boenning's fairness opinion.

Boenning's opinion was approved by Boenning's fairness opinion committee. Boenning did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any of the officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Merger Agreement, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received by the holders of ASB common shares in the Merger.

Regulatory Approvals Required

The proposed Merger must receive approval from both ODFI and the Federal Reserve before it may be consummated. The approval of any regulatory applications merely implies the satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, which does not include review of the adequacy or fairness of the merger consideration to ASB shareholders. Furthermore, regulatory approvals do not constitute or imply any endorsement or recommendation of the Merger or the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Interests of ASB's Directors and Officers in the Merger

As described below, some of ASB's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of ASB shareholders generally. The ASB board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in approving the Merger Agreement.

Potential Payments Under Employment and Change in Control Agreements with American Savings Bank

American Savings Bank is party to certain employment and/or change in control agreements with certain executive officers. Pursuant to those agreements, upon the change in control caused by the Merger, the employees will be entitled to a lump sum payment if their employment with Peoples Bank terminates within one year following the Merger, due to termination by Peoples Bank or termination by the employee after certain changes in the compensation or employment circumstances of the employee. In connection with the Merger, Peoples has agreed to pay the lump sums under these agreements within five days of the effective date of the Merger and otherwise in accordance with the terms of such agreements.

John J. Kuntz has an employment agreement with American Savings Bank. Under the terms of the agreement, (i) if Mr. Kuntz's employment is terminated without cause within one year following the Merger, or if Mr. Kuntz voluntarily terminates his employment for good reason within one year following the Merger due to certain changes in the conditions of Mr. Kuntz's employment, or (ii) if Mr. Kuntz is terminated prior to the Merger, at the request of Peoples or otherwise in connection with the Merger, then Mr. Kuntz will be entitled to receive approximately 2.99 times his base amount, as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) and 280G(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, within 30 days of the effective date of his termination in accordance with (i) and (ii) above.

Michael J. Veeneman has an employment agreement with American Savings Bank. Under that agreement, (i) if Mr. Veeneman's employment is terminated within two years following the Merger, or if Mr. Veeneman voluntarily terminates his employment within two years following the Merger due to certain changes in the conditions of Mr. Veeneman's employment, or (ii) if Mr. Veeneman is terminated prior to the Merger at the request of Peoples or otherwise in connection with the Merger, then Mr. Veeneman will be entitled to receive approximately two times his base salary together with the total of incentive payments he had received for the 12 months prior to the termination, and his medical and dental benefits shall continue for two years following his termination provided that such medical and dental benefits shall become secondary to those provided by a subsequent employer. However, as described below under Continued Employment, Mr. Veeneman waived these potential benefits when he entered into an employment agreement with Peoples Bank.

Jack A. Stephenson has a change in control agreement with American Savings Bank. Under that agreement, (i) if Mr. Stephenson's employment is terminated within one year following the Merger (other than for cause), or if Mr. Stephenson voluntarily terminates his employment for good reason within one year following the Merger due to certain changes in the conditions of Mr. Stephenson's employment, or (ii) if Mr. Stephenson is terminated within six months prior to the Merger, at the request of Peoples or otherwise in connection with the Merger, then Mr. Stephenson will be entitled to receive approximately two times his annual base salary most recently set prior to the Merger, and his health insurance premiums shall be paid in accordance with COBRA for two years or until the earlier date that Mr. Stephenson is included in another employer's health insurance plan as a full-time employee.

Sherri K. Collins has a change in control agreement with American Savings Bank. Under that agreement, (i) if Ms. Collins's employment is terminated within one year following the Merger (other than for cause), or if Ms. Collins voluntarily terminates her employment for good reason within one year following the Merger due to certain changes in the conditions of Ms. Collins employment, or (ii) if Ms. Collins is terminated within six months prior to the Merger, at the request of Peoples or otherwise in connection with the Merger, then Ms. Collins will be entitled to receive approximately one times her annual base salary most recently set prior to the Merger, and her health insurance premiums shall be paid in accordance with COBRA for one year or until the earlier date that Ms. Collins is included in another employer's health insurance plan as a full-time employee.

Gregory G. Eagan has a change in control agreement with American Savings Bank. Under that agreement, (i) if Mr. Eagan's employment is terminated within one year following the Merger (other than for cause), or if Mr. Eagan voluntarily terminates his employment for good reason within one year following the Merger due to certain changes in the conditions of Mr. Eagan's employment, or (ii) if Mr. Eagan is terminated within six months prior to the Merger at the request of Peoples or otherwise in connection with the Merger, then Mr. Eagan will be entitled to receive approximately one times his annual base salary most recently set prior to the Merger, and his health insurance premiums shall be paid in accordance with COBRA for one year or until the earlier date that Mr. Eagan is included in another employer's health insurance plan as a full-time employee.

Continued Employment

In addition, Peoples Bank has entered into an employment agreement with Michael J. Veeneman, to be effective upon the completion of the Merger. Mr. Veeneman will be an at-will employee and will receive a base annual salary of $125,000. Mr. Veeneman will be eligible to receive annual bonuses based on loan production, as well as pursuant to the terms of Peoples Bank's equity incentive plan. Additionally, Mr. Veeneman will receive an award of 4,000 restricted Peoples common shares and a one-time stay bonus of $480,000. Under certain circumstances, upon Mr. Veeneman's termination, he will be subject to customary non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions, as well as a clawback of a portion of his stay bonus.

As to the other individuals discussed above, Peoples has agreed to pay them change in control payments within five days of the effective date of the Merger and otherwise in accordance with the terms of such agreements. Such payments are not conditioned on the employee's termination. The anticipated payments under the agreements are set forth below. Health insurance and related benefits will be paid in accordance with the respective agreements and are not included in the lump sum payment amounts below.

Recipient	Change in Control Lump Sum Payment ⁽¹⁾
John J. Kuntz	$ 688,849
Michael J. Veeneman ⁽²⁾	$ 480,000
Jack A. Stephenson	$ 286,762
Sherri K. Collins	$ 109,273
Gregory G. Eagan	$ 130,189

(1) These amounts are based on the following assumptions and estimates:

the assumption that each of the executive officers other than Mr. Veeneman will be terminated within one year after the consummation of the Merger;

no value being attributed to the premium payment health insurance coverage that shall be paid pursuant to their respective change in control or employment agreements;

the assumption that no indemnification will be paid to any executive officer; and no value being attributed to coverage under the directors and officers liability policy as the premium for the policy is based on providing coverage for all covered individuals as a group, including persons other than those included in this table.

- (2) This amount represents the lump sum payment to be paid to Mr. Veeneman by Peoples Bank following the effective date of the Merger, pursuant to the employment agreement Mr. Veeneman entered into with Peoples Bank on October 23, 2017.

Severance Payments

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, subject to any regulatory restrictions, Peoples has agreed to pay to each employee, including officers, of ASB or American Savings Bank who (i) is not subject to an existing contract providing for severance and/or a change in control payment, (ii) is an employee of ASB or American Savings Bank immediately before the effective time of the Merger, (iii) has been an employee of ASB or American Savings Bank for at least six months prior to the effective time of the Merger, and (iv) is not offered continued employment by Peoples or any of its subsidiaries in a similar position for at least six months after the effective time of the Merger, a severance amount equal to two weeks base pay multiplied by the number of whole years of service of such employee with ASB or American Savings Bank, less applicable local, state and federal tax withholding; provided, however, that the minimum severance payment will equal four weeks of base pay, and the maximum severance payment will not exceed 26 weeks of base pay.

Table of Contents

Further, for any employee of ASB or American Savings Bank participating in ASB's or American Savings Bank's group health program at the effective time of the Merger who is entitled to a severance payment, the employee will be able to purchase health insurance coverage for the employee and for any spouse or other dependent covered by ASB's or American Savings Bank's group health program at the effective time of the Merger, at the full premium rate for the entire COBRA period.

Advisory Board

Peoples has agreed to establish and maintain, for a period of one year following the effective date of the Merger, an advisory board that will be comprised of all of the directors of ASB who desire to participate. The advisory board will meet every other month during the one year period, and each member of the advisory board will be entitled to receive a fee in the amount of $500 per meeting attended.

Indemnification and Directors and Officers Liability Insurance

For a period of six years following the effective time of the Merger and subject to compliance with applicable state and federal laws, Peoples will indemnify each person who served as a director or officer of ASB before the effective time of the Merger to the fullest extent provided by ASB's governing documents, from and against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that the person was an officer or director of ASB. In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that, prior to the Merger, ASB will purchase up to six years of extended tail coverage available under its current directors' and officers' liability insurance policy.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

This section describes the intended, material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to Peoples, ASB, and U.S. holders of ASB common shares who exchange their common shares for cash, Peoples common shares, or a combination of cash and Peoples common shares pursuant to the Merger. Peoples and ASB intend for the Merger to be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, and Peoples and ASB intend that each will be a party to a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. The closing of the Merger is conditioned upon the receipt by ASB of an opinion of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, tax counsel to ASB, dated as of the effective date of the Merger, substantially to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth in that opinion (including factual representations contained in certificates of officers of Peoples and ASB), the Merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. This section summarizes the matters addressed in the tax opinion of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part.

Peoples and ASB have not requested and do not intend to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger, and the tax opinion to be delivered in connection with the Merger is not binding on the IRS. Consequently, there is no assurance of the accuracy of the anticipated U.S. federal income tax consequences to Peoples, ASB, and the U.S. holders of ASB common shares described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The following discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, existing final, temporary and proposed Treasury Department regulations promulgated thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. holder is a beneficial owner of ASB common shares who, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is:

a citizen or resident of the U.S.;

a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the U.S. or any state or political subdivision thereof;

a trust that (1) is subject to (A) the primary supervision of a court within the U.S. and (B) the authority of one or more U.S. persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Department regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

Table of Contents

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds ASB common shares, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partnership, or a partner in such partnership, holding ASB common shares, you should consult your tax advisor.

This discussion addresses only those holders of ASB common shares that hold their ASB common shares as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code (generally, property held for investment), and does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders of ASB common shares in light of their individual circumstances or to holders of ASB common shares that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

S corporations or other pass-through entities and investors in those entities;

retirement plans or pension funds;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers or brokers in stocks and securities, or foreign currencies;

traders in securities that elect to use the mark-to-market method of accounting;

regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

persons that exercise dissenters' rights;

persons that hold ASB common shares as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other risk management transaction;

persons that purchase or sell their ASB common shares as part of a wash sale;

expatriates or persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar; persons that are not U.S. holders; and persons that acquired their ASB common shares through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

In addition, this discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax, U.S. federal estate or gift tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the Merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010. Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to a holder of ASB common shares may be complex. All holders of ASB common shares should consult with their tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences of the Merger to them, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local, foreign and other tax laws. In addition, because a holder of ASB common shares may receive a mix of cash and stock despite having made a cash election or stock election, it will not be possible for holders of ASB common shares to determine the specific tax consequences of the Merger to them at the time of making the election.

Reorganization Treatment

The Merger is intended to be a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, and Peoples and ASB are each intended to be a party to a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Table of Contents

If the intended reorganization treatment is respected by the IRS and the courts, then the material U.S. federal income tax consequences described below are anticipated.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to Peoples and ASB

No Gain or Loss. No gain or loss will be recognized by Peoples or ASB as a result of the Merger.

Tax Basis. The tax basis of the assets of ASB in the hands of Peoples will be the same as the tax basis of such assets in the hands of ASB immediately prior to the Merger.

Holding Period. The holding period of the assets of ASB to be received by Peoples will include the period during which such assets were held by ASB.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders of ASB Common Shares who Receive a Combination of Cash and Peoples Common Shares

A U.S. holder of ASB common shares will recognize gain (but not loss) with respect to the Peoples common shares and cash such U.S. holder receives pursuant to the Merger, in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the Peoples common shares and the amount of cash received by such U.S. holder, exceeds such U.S. holder's basis in its ASB common shares, and (ii) the amount of cash received by such U.S. holder (other than any cash received in lieu of a fractional Peoples common share, as discussed below under Cash In Lieu of Fractional Shares). Subject to possible dividend treatment (as discussed in more detail under Possible Dividend Treatment, below), gain that U.S. holders of ASB common shares recognize in connection with the Merger generally will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if such holders have held their ASB common shares for more than one year at the effective time of the Merger. Long-term capital gain of certain non-corporate U.S. holders of ASB common shares, including individuals, is generally taxed at preferential rates. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

The tax basis of the Peoples common shares received by a U.S. holder of ASB common shares described above (including a fractional Peoples common share, if any, deemed issued and redeemed by Peoples) will be the same as the tax basis of the ASB common shares surrendered in exchange for the Peoples common shares and cash, reduced by the amount of cash received by such a U.S. holder in the Merger (other than any cash received in lieu of a fractional Peoples common share), and increased by any gain recognized by such a U.S. holder in the Merger (including any portion of the gain that is treated as a dividend (as described below), but excluding any gain or loss resulting from the deemed issuance and redemption of a fractional Peoples common share). The holding period for Peoples common shares received by such a U.S. holder (including a fractional Peoples common share, if any, deemed to be issued and redeemed by Peoples) will include such U.S. holder's holding period for ASB common shares surrendered in exchange for the Peoples common shares.

If a U.S. holder of ASB common shares acquired different blocks of ASB common shares at different times or at different prices, any gain or loss will be determined separately with respect to each block of ASB common shares. In computing the amount of gain recognized, if any, a U.S. holder of ASB common shares may not offset a loss realized on one block of shares against the gain realized on another block of shares. U.S. holders of ASB common shares should consult with their tax advisors regarding the manner in which Peoples common shares and cash received in the Merger should be allocated among different blocks of ASB common shares and regarding their bases and holding periods in the particular Peoples common shares received in the Merger.

Tax Consequences to ASB Shareholders who Receive Only Peoples Common Shares

No gain or loss will be recognized by a U.S. holder of ASB common shares who receives solely Peoples common shares (except for cash received in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below) in exchange for all of its ASB common shares. The tax basis of the Peoples common shares received by such a U.S. holder of ASB common shares in the exchange will be equal (except for the tax basis attributable to any fractional Peoples common share, as discussed below) to the basis of ASB common shares surrendered by such U.S. holder in exchange for Peoples common shares. The holding period of the Peoples common shares received by such a U.S. holder (including any fractional Peoples common share) will include the holding period of ASB common shares surrendered in exchange for Peoples common shares.

Tax Consequences to ASB Shareholders who Receive Only Cash

A U.S. holder of ASB common shares that receives solely cash in exchange for all of its ASB common shares, or properly exercises its dissenters' rights, and is not treated as constructively owning Peoples common shares after the Merger under the circumstances referred to below under Possible Dividend Treatment) will recognize a gain or loss for federal income tax purposes equal to the difference between the cash received and such U.S. holder's tax basis in ASB common shares surrendered in exchange for the cash. Such gain or loss will be a capital gain or loss, provided that such shares were held as capital assets of the U.S. holder at the effective time of the Merger. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period is more than one year. The Internal Revenue Code contains limitations on the extent to which a taxpayer may deduct capital losses from ordinary income.

Table of ContentsCash in Lieu of Fractional Shares

A U.S. holder of ASB common shares that receives cash in lieu of a fractional Peoples common share generally will be treated as having received such fractional share and then having received such cash in redemption of such fractional share. Gain or loss generally will be recognized based on the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share and the portion of the U.S. holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis in the ASB common shares surrendered that is allocable to the fractional share. Subject to possible dividend treatment (as discussed in more detail under Possible Dividend Treatment, below), such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period for its ASB common shares exceeds one year at the effective time of the Merger. The Internal Revenue Code contains limitations on the extent to which a taxpayer may deduct capital losses from ordinary income.

Possible Dividend Treatment

In some cases described above, the gain recognized by a U.S. holder of ASB common shares could be treated as having the effect of the distribution of a dividend under the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Code, in which case such gain would be treated as dividend income. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon each holder's particular circumstances, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, U.S. holders of ASB common shares should consult with their tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules to their particular circumstances.

Backup Withholding and Reporting Requirements

Under certain circumstances, cash payments made to a U.S. holder of ASB common shares pursuant to the Merger may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28% of the cash payable to the U.S. holder, unless the U.S. holder furnishes its taxpayer identification number in the manner prescribed in applicable Treasury Department regulations, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

A U.S. holder of ASB common shares that receives Peoples common shares as a result of the Merger should retain records pertaining to the Merger, including records relating to the number of shares and the tax basis of such U.S. holder's ASB common shares. Each U.S. holder of ASB common shares that is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and that is a significant holder that receives Peoples common shares in the Merger will be required to file a statement with such U.S. federal income tax return in accordance with Treasury Department regulations Section 1.368-3 setting forth such U.S. holder's tax basis in the ASB common shares surrendered, the fair market value of the Peoples common shares and cash received in the Merger, and certain other information.

The preceding discussion of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger is included in this proxy statement/prospectus for general information only, and is intended only as a summary of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to you.

Each holder of ASB common shares should consult with his, her or its own tax advisor regarding the specific tax consequences to the holder of the Merger, including the application and effect of state, local and foreign income and other tax laws.

Accounting Treatment

The Merger will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of ASB will be recorded and assumed at estimated fair values at the time the Merger is consummated. The excess of the estimated fair value of Peoples common shares issued and the cash proceeds paid over the net fair values of the assets acquired, including identifiable intangible assets, and liabilities assumed will be recorded as goodwill and will not be deductible for income tax purposes. Goodwill will be subject to an annual test for impairment and the amount impaired, if any, will be charged as an expense at the time of impairment.

Dissenters Rights

Shareholders of ASB are entitled to certain dissenters rights pursuant to Sections 1701.84(A) and 1701.85 of the OGCL. Section 1701.85 generally provides that shareholders of ASB will not be entitled to such rights without strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 1701.85, and failure to take any one of the required steps may result in the termination or waiver of such rights. Specifically, any ASB shareholder who is a record holder of ASB common shares on January 23, 2018, the record date for the ASB special meeting, and whose shares are not voted in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement may be entitled to be paid the fair cash value of such ASB common shares after the effective time of the Merger.

Table of Contents

To be entitled to such payment, a shareholder:

must deliver to ASB a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares held by such shareholder before the vote on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement proposal is taken;

must not vote in favor of adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement; and must otherwise comply with Section 1701.85.

An ASB shareholder's failure to vote against the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such shareholder's dissenters' rights. Any written demand must specify the shareholder's name and address, the number and class of shares held by him, her or it on the ASB record date, and the amount claimed as the fair cash value of such ASB common shares.

See the text of Section 1701.85 of the OGCL attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus for specific information on the procedures to be followed in exercising dissenters' rights. ASB is notifying each of the holders of record of its common shares as of January 23, 2018, that dissenters' rights are available and intends that this proxy statement/prospectus constitute such notice.

If ASB so requests, dissenting shareholders must submit their share certificates to ASB within 15 days of such request, for endorsement on such certificates by ASB that a demand for appraisal has been made. Failure to comply with such a request will terminate the shareholder's dissenters' rights. Any such certificates will be promptly returned to the dissenting shareholders by ASB. If ASB and any dissenting shareholder cannot agree upon the fair cash value of ASB common shares, either may, within three months after service of demand by the shareholder, file a petition in the Common Pleas Court of Scioto County, Ohio, for a determination of the fair cash value of such dissenting shareholder's ASB common shares. The fair cash value of an ASB common share to which a dissenting shareholder is entitled to under Section 1701.85 will be determined as of the day prior to the special meeting. The court may appoint one or more appraisers to determine the fair cash value and, if the court approves the appraisers' report, judgment will be entered for the fair cash value, and the costs of the proceedings, including reasonable compensation of the appraisers, will be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable.

If an ASB shareholder exercises his or her dissenters' rights under Section 1701.85, all other rights with respect to such shareholder's ASB common shares will be suspended until ASB purchases the shares, or the right to receive the fair cash value is otherwise terminated. Such rights will be reinstated should the right to receive the fair cash value be terminated other than by the purchase of the shares.

The foregoing description of the procedures to be followed in exercising dissenters' rights available to holders of ASB common shares pursuant to Section 1701.85 of the OGCL may not be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 1701.85 attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. Ensuring perfection of dissenters' rights can be complicated. The procedural rules are specific and must be followed precisely. An ASB shareholder's failure to comply with these procedural rules may result in his or her becoming ineligible to pursue dissenters' rights.

Resale of Peoples Common Shares

Peoples has registered its common shares to be issued in the Merger with the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of Peoples common shares issued in the Merger will be imposed solely as a result of the Merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of Peoples common shares issued to any ASB shareholder who may become an affiliate of Peoples for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. The term affiliate is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act and generally includes executive officers and directors of Peoples, and shareholders beneficially owning 10% or more of the outstanding Peoples common shares.

Table of ContentsEmployee MattersGenerally

The Merger Agreement provides that employees of ASB or American Savings Bank who become employees of Peoples as a result of the Merger will, as determined by Peoples, participate in either ASB's or American Savings Bank's employee benefit plans or, as soon as administratively practicable, in the employee benefit plans sponsored by Peoples for Peoples' employees. Peoples will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that employees of ASB or American Savings Bank will receive credit for their years of service with ASB or American Savings Bank, as applicable, for participation and vesting purposes under the applicable Peoples employee benefit plans, to the extent such plans permit, including credit for years of service and for seniority under vacation and sick pay plans and programs. In addition, to the extent ASB or American Savings Bank employees participate in Peoples' group health plan instead of continued participation in ASB's group health plan, Peoples will waive all restrictions and limitations for pre-existing conditions under Peoples' group health plan and provide each such employee and their eligible dependents with credit for any deductibles paid prior to the completion of the Merger under ASB's group health plan (to the same extent that such credit was given under such plan prior to the completion of the Merger) in satisfying any applicable deductible or maximum out-of-pocket requirements under any Peoples' group health plan.

Employee Severance

Subject to any regulatory restrictions, Peoples has agreed to pay to each employee of ASB or American Savings Bank who (i) is not subject to an existing contract providing for severance and/or a change in control payment, (ii) is an employee of ASB or American Savings Bank immediately before the effective time of the Merger, (iii) has been an employee of ASB or American Savings Bank for at least six months prior to the effective time of the Merger, and (iv) is not offered continued employment in a similar position by Peoples or any of its subsidiaries for at least six months after the effective time of the Merger, a severance amount equal to two weeks base pay multiplied by the number of whole years of service of such employee with ASB or American Savings Bank, less applicable local, state and federal tax withholding; provided, however, that the minimum severance payment will equal four weeks of base pay, and the maximum severance payment will not exceed 26 weeks of base pay; provided further, that the base pay for any hourly employee will be determined based on such employee's rate of pay at the effective time of the Merger and the average hours worked by such employee over the 12 months preceding the completion of the Merger, or such shorter period of time that such employee was employed by ASB or American Savings Bank.

Further, for any employee of ASB or American Savings Bank participating in ASB's or American Savings Bank's group health program at the effective time of the Merger who is entitled to a severance payment, the employee will be able to purchase health insurance coverage for the employee and for any spouse or other dependent covered by ASB's or American Savings Bank's group health program at the effective time of the Merger, at the full premium rate for the entire COBRA period.

In exchange for the severance pay described above, terminated employees will be required to execute a final and binding general release in which such employee releases and waives any and all claims the employee may have against Peoples and its affiliates.

Lump Sum Payment for Paid Time Off

Each ASB or American Savings Bank employee will receive a lump sum cash payment within 10 days after the earlier of such employee's termination of employment or the completion of the Merger, equal to the product of (i) such employee's hourly rate of pay on the date of the completion of the Merger, multiplied by (ii) the difference between

(A) the number of hours of accrued and unused paid-time-off and vacation for such employee as of that date, and
(B) for any such employee who continues to be employed by Peoples after the Merger, the number of hours of paid-time-off and vacation such employee would be credited with under Peoples plans.

ASB's Employee Stock Ownership & 401(k) Plan

ASB is required to terminate the KSOP effective immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger. In addition, as soon as feasible after the closing of the Merger, Peoples will take commercially reasonable steps to allow ASB or American Savings Bank employees who continue as employees of Peoples or Peoples Bank to participate in the Peoples 401(k) Plan and to accept roll-overs of benefits from the KSOP to the Peoples 401(k) Plan.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a description of the material terms of the Merger Agreement. A complete copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. We encourage you to read the Merger Agreement carefully, as it is the legal document that governs the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties of ASB and Peoples. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information contained in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties delivered in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from the standard of materiality generally applicable to statements made by a corporation to shareholders, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters of fact. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, or for any other purpose, at the time they were made or otherwise.

The Merger and Subsidiary Bank Merger

Pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, ASB will merge with and into Peoples, with Peoples surviving the Merger and continuing as an Ohio corporation and a registered financial holding company. Immediately following the Merger, Peoples will cause American Savings Bank to be merged with and into Peoples Bank, with Peoples Bank surviving the subsidiary bank merger and continuing as an Ohio chartered commercial bank.

Effective Time

Peoples and ASB will cause the effective time of the Merger to occur as soon as practicable after the last of the conditions precedent set forth in the Merger Agreement have been satisfied or waived. Unless Peoples and ASB otherwise agree in writing, the effective time of the Merger will not be later than September 30, 2018. The Merger will become effective upon the latest to occur of (i) the filing of a certificate of merger with the Ohio Secretary of State, or (ii) at a later time that Peoples and ASB agree to in writing and specify in the certificate of merger.

Peoples and ASB currently anticipate closing the Merger and filing the certificate of merger with the Ohio Secretary of State in the second quarter of 2018.

Merger Consideration

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, shareholders of ASB will be entitled to receive for each ASB common share either: (i) $20.00 in cash or (ii) 0.5920 Peoples common shares. ASB shareholders may elect to convert their ASB shares into cash, Peoples common shares or a combination of cash and Peoples common shares, subject to reallocation in order to ensure that no more than 15% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of cash and no less than 85% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of Peoples common shares.

Peoples will not issue any fractional common shares in connection with the Merger. Instead, each holder of ASB common shares who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a Peoples common share (after taking into account all ASB common shares owned by such holder at the effective time of the Merger) will receive cash, without interest, in an amount equal to the Peoples fractional common share to which such holder would otherwise be entitled, multiplied by $20.00.

The Merger Agreement also requires that the merger consideration be adjusted if the number of ASB common shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger exceeds the number of shares outstanding as of the date the Merger Agreement was signed, except to the extent such increase is due to ASB's issuance of common shares pursuant to the dividend reinvestment feature of the KSOP. Additionally, to preserve the status of the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, if the aggregate value of the Peoples common shares to be issued, based upon the closing price of Peoples common shares as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market® on the trading day immediately preceding the effective time of the Merger, would be less than 40% of the sum of (i) the total cash consideration and (ii) the total share consideration, then Peoples will be required to increase the aggregate stock consideration and decrease the aggregate cash consideration proportionately such that the total share consideration equals at least 40% of the total consideration.

At the effective time of the Merger, ASB common shares will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be cancelled and cease to exist, and holders of ASB common shares will cease to be, and will have no rights as, shareholders of ASB, other than to receive the merger consideration pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement (and dissenters' rights under Section 1701.85 of the OGCL in the case of ASB common shares as to which the holder has properly exercised dissenters' rights).

Table of ContentsElection and Payment Procedures; Surrender of Certificates

Approximately forty business days prior to the election deadline (the election deadline occurring fifteen days prior to the effective date of the Merger), an election form (Election Form) will be mailed to each holder of record of ASB common shares; provided, however, that if the effectiveness of this proxy statement/prospectus occurs less than forty business days prior to the anticipated election deadline, then the Election Form shall be mailed at that time.

Each Election Form will permit the holder (or in the case of nominee record holders, the beneficial owner through proper instructions and documentation) (i) to elect to receive Peoples common shares with respect to all of such holder's ASB common shares, (ii) to elect to receive cash with respect to all of such holder's ASB common shares, (iii) to elect to receive cash with respect to some of such holder's ASB common shares and to receive Peoples common shares with respect to such holder's remaining ASB common shares, or (iv) to indicate that such holder makes no election with respect to such holder's ASB common shares (No Election Shares). Any ASB common shares with respect to which the holder has elected to receive cash are hereinafter referred to as Cash Election Shares, and any ASB common shares with respect to which the holder has elected to receive Peoples common shares are hereinafter referred to as Stock Election Shares. Any ASB common shares with respect to which the holder thereof has not made, as of the Election Deadline (as defined below), an election by submission to Wells Fargo Shareowner Services, as Peoples exchange agent (the Exchange Agent), of an effective, properly completed Election Form will be deemed to be No Election Shares. Any shares held by holders exercising their dissenters' rights will be deemed to be Cash Election Shares for purposes of reallocation of the merger consideration, if applicable.

Any election to receive cash, Peoples common shares or a combination of cash and Peoples common shares will be considered to have been properly made by an ASB shareholder only if the Exchange Agent receives a properly completed Election Form by the deadline set forth in the Election Form (the Election Deadline), accompanied by one or more certificates (Old Certificate(s)) (or customary affidavits and, if required by Peoples, indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such Old Certificates) representing all ASB common shares covered by such Election Form, together with duly executed transmittal materials included with the Election Form. Any ASB shareholder who does not return an Election Form prior to the Election Deadline will receive a transmittal letter from the Exchange Agent as soon as practicable after the Election Deadline. The transmittal letter to be mailed will be deemed properly completed only if accompanied by the Old Certificates. Such shares will be deemed No Election Shares and are to be converted into Peoples common shares upon the Exchange Agent's receipt of a properly completed transmittal letter.

Any submitted Election Form may be revoked or changed by written notice to the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline. The Exchange Agent will be required to make all determinations as to when any election, modification or revocation has been received and whether any such election, modification or revocation has been properly made.

Promptly after the effective time of the Merger, the Exchange Agent will cause evidence of Peoples common shares (in book-entry form) into which a shareholder's ASB common shares were converted in the Merger, and a check in respect of cash to be paid as part of the merger consideration and in respect of any fractional share interests or dividends or distributions which such shareholder is entitled to receive, to be delivered to the shareholder. No interest will be paid on any cash to be paid in exchange for ASB common shares or in respect of any fractional share interests, dividends or distributions which any shareholder is entitled to receive under the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Until surrendered, each ASB stock certificate will be deemed after the effective time of the Merger to represent only the right to receive, upon surrender of such certificate, Peoples common shares (in book-entry form) and a check in an amount equal to the sum of the cash to be paid to the holder as part of the merger consideration, any cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional Peoples common shares to which the holder is entitled under the terms of the Merger Agreement and any cash to be paid in respect of any dividends or distributions to which the holder may be entitled under the Merger Agreement or with respect to his or her Peoples common shares (in each case, without interest).

An ASB shareholder will not be entitled to receive payment of any dividends or distributions with respect to Peoples common shares with a record date occurring after the effective time of the Merger until the shareholder has followed the procedures described above for surrendering his or her ASB stock certificates. After an ASB shareholder has properly surrendered his or her ASB share certificates in exchange for Peoples common shares, the shareholder will be entitled to receive any dividends or distributions on Peoples common shares with a record date occurring on or after the effective time of the Merger. No interest will be paid on any such dividends or distributions.

If any ASB share certificate has been lost, wrongfully taken, or destroyed, the transmittal materials received from the Exchange Agent will explain the steps that the ASB shareholder must take.

Reallocation of ASB Shareholder Elections

All elections by ASB shareholders are subject to the allocation procedures described in the Merger Agreement. These procedures are intended to ensure that no more than 15% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of cash and no less than 85% of the aggregate merger consideration will consist of Peoples common shares. As a result, the Merger Agreement describes procedures to be followed if ASB shareholders in the aggregate elect to receive more cash than Peoples has agreed to issue as part of the merger consideration. These procedures are summarized below:

If the number of Cash Election Shares multiplied by the per share cash consideration of $20.00 is greater than 15% of the aggregate merger consideration, then:

each of the Stock Election Shares and No Election Shares will receive Peoples common shares;

the Exchange Agent will designate among the Cash Election Shares (other than dissenting shares), a sufficient number of such shares to receive Peoples common shares (Reallocated Stock Shares) such that the product of (a) the number of remaining Cash Election Shares, multiplied by (b) the per share cash consideration, equals 15% of the aggregate merger consideration, and each of the Reallocated Stock Shares will be converted into the right to receive Peoples common shares; and each of the Cash Election Shares (other than dissenting shares) that are not Reallocated Stock Shares will receive cash.

If the number of Cash Election Shares multiplied by the cash consideration is less than 15% of the aggregate merger consideration, then all No Election Shares and all Stock Election Shares will receive Peoples common shares and all Cash Election Shares will receive cash.

Neither ASB nor Peoples is making any recommendation as to whether ASB shareholders should elect to receive cash or Peoples common shares in the Merger. Each ASB shareholder must make his or her own decision with respect to such election.

No guarantee can be made that you will receive the amount of cash you elect. As a result of the reallocation procedures and other limitations outlined in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the Merger Agreement, you may receive cash in an amount that varies from the amount you elected to receive.

Indemnification and Directors and Officers Liability Insurance

For a period of six years following the effective time of the Merger and subject to compliance with applicable state and federal laws, Peoples will indemnify each person who served as a director or officer of ASB before the effective time of the Merger, to the fullest extent provided by ASB's governing documents, from and against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that the person was an officer or director of ASB. In addition, ASB will purchase six years of extended tail coverage available under its current directors' and officers' liability insurance policy.

NASDAQ Stock Listing

Peoples common shares currently are listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market[®] under the symbol PEBO. The shares to be issued to ASB's shareholders as merger consideration also will be eligible for trading on the NASDAQ Global Select Market[®]. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Peoples will cause the Peoples common shares to be issued pursuant to the Merger to be approved for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market[®].

Expenses of the Merger

Peoples and ASB are each required to bear their own expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

Termination by Mutual Consent. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Peoples and ASB may mutually consent to terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective, if the board of directors of each approves the termination by a majority vote.

Termination by either Peoples or ASB. Either Peoples or ASB, acting alone, upon written notice to the other party may terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective, if the Peoples or ASB board of directors approves the termination by a vote of a majority of the members of its board of directors in the following circumstances:

if there is a material breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement that cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days of notice of the breach;

in the event that the Merger has not been consummated by September 30, 2018, unless the failure to complete the Merger by that date is due to the knowing action or inaction of the party seeking to terminate;

in the event that (i) regulatory approval has been denied, (ii) ASB's shareholders do not adopt and approve the Merger Agreement at the special meeting, or (iii) the SEC advises that it will not declare this registration statement effective; or if ASB desires to enter into a superior competing transaction (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or if ASB's board changes its recommendation in favor of the Merger, in each case after payment to Peoples of the termination fee described below.

Termination by ASB. ASB, acting alone, may also terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective upon written notice to Peoples:

if, at any time during the five-day period commencing on the first day following the date on which all regulatory approvals necessary for consummation of the Merger have been received, which is referred to as the determination date, both of the following conditions are satisfied:

the average of the volume weighted daily closing sale price of Peoples common shares as reported on the NASDAQ for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding such specified date, which is referred to as the Peoples market value, is less than (a) the volume average weighted closing sale price of Peoples common shares on the NASDAQ during the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of execution of the Merger Agreement, which is referred to as the Peoples market price, multiplied by (b) 0.80; and the number obtained by (a) dividing the Peoples market value on the determination date by (b) Peoples market price, is less than the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the average of the closing prices of the NASDAQ Bank Index for the 10 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date by (y) the closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index on the last trading day immediately preceding the date of the first public announcement of entry into the merger agreement, which is known as the index ratio, and subtracting 0.20 from the quotient;

If the ASB board of directors exercises the termination right described immediately above, Peoples will have the option to increase the merger consideration to equal a quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of the Peoples market price, the exchange ratio, and the index ratio minus 0.20, and the denominator of which is equal to the Peoples market value on the determination date. If Peoples elects to increase the merger consideration pursuant to the preceding sentence, no termination will occur.

in the event that ASB desires to enter into a superior competing transaction after compliance with the requirements under the Merger Agreement, including the payment of the $1,500,000 termination fee, as discussed more thoroughly below under THE MERGER AGREEMENT Acquisition Proposals and Termination Fee.

In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated and the Merger abandoned, Peoples and ASB will have no liability or further obligation to the other party, except for continued compliance with certain surviving covenants and agreements identified in the Merger Agreement and, in the case of termination to pursue a superior competing transaction, payment of the termination fee of $1,500,000. In addition, the termination of the Merger Agreement will not relieve a breaching party from liability for any willful breach of the Merger Agreement giving rise to such termination.

Voting Agreement

Under the Merger Agreement, the directors of ASB executed a voting agreement pursuant to which they agreed to vote such ASB common shares owned by the directors in favor of the Merger. ASB directors collectively own 255,630 ASB common shares.

Acquisition Proposals and Termination Fee

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, ASB and American Savings Bank must not, and must cause their officers, directors, employees and other agents not to, directly or indirectly, continue or otherwise maintain, initiate, solicit or encourage (including by way of furnishing information or assistance), or take any other action to facilitate, any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or reasonably may be expected to lead to, any competing proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), or enter into or maintain discussions or negotiate with any third party in furtherance of or relating to such inquiries or to obtain a competing proposal, or agree to or endorse any competing proposal, unless (i) ASB's board of directors, after consultation with and based upon the advice of legal counsel, determines in good faith that it must enter into negotiations or discussions with another party that has made an unsolicited acquisition proposal in order to fulfill its fiduciary duties to ASB shareholders under applicable law, and (ii) before furnishing any information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with another party, ASB provides immediate written notice to Peoples of such action and ASB receives from the third party a confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable than those governing the confidentiality between Peoples and ASB.

In the event that ASB or American Savings Bank determines in good faith to pursue a superior competing transaction and terminate the Merger Agreement in order to fulfill its fiduciary duties to the shareholders of ASB under applicable law, ASB must, in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement, pay to Peoples in immediately available funds the sum of $1,500,000.

Amendment

The Merger Agreement may be amended or modified at any time prior to the effective time of the Merger by an agreement in writing signed by Peoples and ASB, except that the Merger Agreement may not be amended after the ASB special meeting if such amendment would void adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by ASB's shareholders under Ohio law.

Table of ContentsCOMPARISON OF CERTAIN RIGHTS OF ASB AND PEOPLES SHAREHOLDERS

Peoples and ASB are each incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio and, accordingly, the rights of their shareholders are governed by Ohio law and their respective articles of incorporation and regulations. Those shareholders of ASB that do not exercise dissenters' rights will receive Peoples common shares in the Merger and, therefore, will become shareholders of Peoples. Their rights as shareholders of Peoples will be governed by the Ohio Revised Code and by Peoples' Amended Articles of Incorporation (its Articles) and Regulations (its Regulations), while ASB shareholders are currently governed by the Ohio Revised Code and by ASB's articles of incorporation, as amended (its Articles), and Regulations (its Regulations). Although the rights of the holders of Peoples common shares and those of the holders of ASB common shares are similar in many respects, there are some differences. These differences relate to differences between provisions of Peoples' Articles and ASB's Articles, and differences between provisions of the Regulations of Peoples and the Regulations of ASB.

The following chart compares certain rights of the holders of ASB common shares to the rights of holders of Peoples common shares in areas where those rights are materially different. This summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of such differences and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the relevant provisions of Ohio law and the respective corporate governance instruments of ASB and Peoples.

For purposes of this Agreement, the term Election Deadline shall mean 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the fifteenth (15th) business day prior to the Effective Date, but not including, the date of mailing of the Election Form, or such other date upon which Peoples and ASB shall mutually agree to prior to the Effective Time. make appropriate payment of (A) the Per Share Cash Consideration, (B) cash in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 3.03(i), and (C) any dividends or distributions on account of Peoples Common Shares to be exchanged for ASB Common Shares with a record date occurring on or after the Effective Time, and without any interest on any such cash, dividends or distributions (the Exchange Fund) to be paid pursuant to this Article III in exchange for outstanding ASB Common Shares. Promptly after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall distribute Peoples Common Shares and make payment of the Exchange Fund as provided herein. The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or to exercise any rights of ownership with respect to the Peoples Common Shares held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold in trust for the recipients of the Peoples Common Shares until distributed thereto pursuant to the provision of this Agreement all dividends or other distributions paid or distributed with respect to such Peoples Common Shares for the account of the persons entitled thereto.

(i) Appropriate transmittal materials (the Letter of Transmittal) in a form satisfactory to Peoples and ASB shall be mailed by the Exchange Agent as soon as practicable after the Election Deadline to each holder of record of ASB Common Shares as of the Election Deadline who did not previously submit a completed Election Form. A Letter of Transmittal will be deemed properly completed only if accompanied by the Old Certificates to be converted thereby.

(ii) The Letter of Transmittal shall (A) specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Old Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Old Certificates to the Exchange Agent; (B) be in a form and contain any other provisions as Peoples and ASB may reasonably determine; (C) include information concerning procedures in the case of lost, stolen or destroyed Old Certificates; and (D) include instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Old Certificates in exchange for the Aggregate Consideration. Upon the effective surrender of the Old Certificates to the Exchange Agent, together with a properly completed and duly executed Letter of Transmittal, the holder of such Old Certificates shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate representing that number of whole shares of Peoples Common Shares that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Sections 3.01 and 3.03, if any, and a check in the amount equal to the cash that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Sections 3.01 and 3.03, if any (including any cash in lieu of fractional Peoples Common Shares, if any, that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Sections 3.01 and 3.03, and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.03). Old Certificates so surrendered shall be canceled. As soon as practicable following receipt of the properly completed Letter of Transmittal and any necessary accompanying documentation, but in any event not more than five (5) business days, the Exchange Agent shall distribute Peoples Common Shares and cash as provided herein. If there is a transfer of ownership of any shares of ASB Common Shares not registered in the transfer records of ASB, the applicable portion of the Aggregate Consideration shall be issued to the transferee thereof only if the Old Certificates representing such ASB Common Shares are presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required, in the reasonable judgment of Peoples and the Exchange Agent, to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid.

(iii) No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to Peoples Common Shares issued pursuant to this Agreement shall be remitted to any person entitled to receive shares of Peoples Common Shares hereunder until such person surrenders his or her Old Certificates in accordance with this Section 3.03. Upon the surrender of such person's Old Certificates, such person shall be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions, without interest thereon, which subsequent to the Effective Time had become payable but not paid with respect to shares of Peoples Common Shares represented by such person's Old Certificates.

(h) Release of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of ASB for six months after the Effective Time shall be paid to Peoples. Any shareholders of ASB who have not theretofore complied with this Article III shall thereafter look only to Peoples for payment of the Aggregate Consideration.

(i) No Fractional Peoples Common Shares.

(i) No certificates or scrip representing fractional Peoples Common Shares shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Old Certificates, and such fractional Peoples Common Share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a shareholder of the Surviving Corporation.

(ii) Each holder of ASB Common Shares who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional Peoples Common Share shall receive from the Exchange Agent an amount of cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying (A) the fractional Peoples Common Share interest to which such holder (after taking into account all ASB Common Shares held at the Effective Time by such holder) would otherwise be entitled by (B) the Per Share Cash Consideration. For the avoidance of doubt, payments made pursuant to this Section 3.03(i) shall not be included in determining the Aggregate Cash Consideration or any limits on the amount thereof.

(j) No Liability. None of Peoples, ASB, the Exchange Agent or the Surviving Corporation shall be liable to any former holder of ASB Common Shares for any payment of the Per Share Stock Consideration, the Per Share Cash Consideration, any cash in lieu of a fractional Peoples Common Share interest, or any dividends or distributions with respect to Peoples Common Shares delivered to a public official if required by any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(k) Withholding Rights. Peoples or the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of ASB Common Shares such amounts as Peoples or the Exchange Agent is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any other provision of domestic or foreign tax law (whether national, federal, state, provincial, local or otherwise). To the extent that amounts are so withheld and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority by Peoples or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the ASB Common Shares.

The Surviving Corporation may from time to time, in the case of one or more Persons, waive one or more of the rights provided to it in this Article III to withhold certain payments, deliveries and distributions; and no such waiver shall constitute a waiver of its rights to withhold any such payment, delivery or distribution in the case of any Person.

(n) Stock Splits, Recapitalization, etc. If, prior to the Effective Time, the outstanding Peoples Common Shares or ASB Common Shares shall have been increased, decreased, or changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities, in any such case as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, or there shall be any extraordinary dividend or distribution, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Per Share Stock Consideration and the Per Share Cash Consideration to give holders of ASB Common Shares the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such event.

(o) Reorganization Adjustment. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, to preserve the status of the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, if the aggregate value of the Peoples Common Shares to be issued in connection with the Merger (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding the value of fractional shares for which cash is to be paid pursuant to Section 3.03(i)), based upon the closing price of the Peoples Common Shares as reported on The NASDAQ Global Select Market on the trading day immediately preceding the Effective Date (the Total Share Consideration), would be less than 40% of the sum of (i) the Total Cash Consideration and (ii) the Total Share Consideration (collectively, the Total Consideration), then Peoples shall increase the Aggregate Stock Consideration and decrease the Aggregate Cash Consideration proportionately and to the minimum extent necessary for the Total Share Consideration to be equal to 40% of the Total Consideration (calculated using such increased Aggregate Stock Consideration and decreased Aggregate Cash Consideration). For purposes of this Agreement, the Total Cash Consideration shall be the sum of (i) the total amount of Aggregate Cash Consideration paid pursuant to Section 3.03(d)(i)(3) or 3.03(d)(ii); (ii) cash paid in lieu of fractional Peoples Common Shares pursuant to Section 3.03(i); and (iii) cash paid to holders of Dissenting Shares.

FORM OF VOTING AGREEMENT

THIS VOTING AGREEMENT (this Agreement) is entered into as of October 23, 2017, by and among Peoples Bancorp Inc., a financial holding company incorporated under Ohio law (Peoples), ASB Financial Corp., a savings and loan holding company incorporated under Ohio law (ASB), and the undersigned shareholders of ASB (collectively, the Shareholders).

WHEREAS, the Shareholders collectively own [_____] shares of common stock, no par value, of ASB Financial Corp., a savings and loan holding company incorporated under Ohio law (ASB), (such common shares, together with all shares of ASB stock which may hereafter be acquired by the Shareholders prior to the termination of this Agreement, but excluding for all purposes any such shares held in a fiduciary capacity, shall be referred to herein as the Shares);

WHEREAS, Peoples and ASB propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (the Merger Agreement), which provides, among other things, that ASB will merge with and into Peoples pursuant to the Parent Merger (this and other capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Merger Agreement); and

WHEREAS, Peoples and ASB have made it a condition to their entering into the Merger Agreement that the Shareholders agree to vote the Shares in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement, subject to the terms of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

Voting of Shares

1.1 Voting Agreement. Each Shareholder, individually and not jointly, hereby agrees that, during the time this Agreement is in effect, at any meeting of the shareholders of ASB, however called, and in any action by consent of the shareholders of ASB, such Shareholder shall vote such Shareholder's Shares (i) in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement (as amended from time to time) and (ii) against any proposal for any recapitalization, merger, sale of assets or other business combination between ASB or any of its Subsidiaries and any person or entity other than Peoples or any of its Subsidiaries. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that nothing contained herein is intended to restrict any Shareholder from voting or otherwise acting in the Shareholder's capacity as a director of ASB or American Savings Bank with respect to any matter.

ARTICLE 2

Representations and Warranties

Each of the Shareholders, individually and not jointly, hereby represents and warrants to Peoples as follows:

This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by such Shareholder and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Shareholder, enforceable against such Shareholder in accordance with its terms.

2.2 No Conflict.

(a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Shareholder does not, and the performance of this Agreement by him, her or it will not, (i) conflict with or violate any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree applicable to him, her or it or by which the Shares are bound or (ii) result in any breach of or constitute a default (or event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become a default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of a lien or encumbrance on any of the Shares held by him, her or it pursuant to, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, agreement, lease, license, permit, franchise or other instrument or obligation to which such Shareholder is a party or by which such Shareholder or any Shares held by him, her or it are bound, except for any such conflicts, violations, breaches, defaults or other occurrences which would not prevent or delay the performance by such Shareholder of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Shareholder does not, and the performance of this Agreement by him, her or it will not, require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any federal, state, local or foreign regulatory body.

ANNEX B

Dissenters Rights Under Section 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law

1701.85 Dissenting shareholders compliance with section fair cash value of shares.

(A)(1) A shareholder of a domestic corporation is entitled to relief as a dissenting shareholder in respect of the proposals described in sections 1701.74, 1701.76, and 1701.84 of the Revised Code, only in compliance with this section.

(2) If the proposal must be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation involved, the dissenting shareholder shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of a meeting of the shareholders at which the proposal is to be submitted, and such shares shall not have been voted in favor of the proposal.

(3) Not later than 20 days before the date of the meeting at which the proposal will be submitted to the shareholders, the corporation may notify the corporation's shareholders that relief under this section is available. The notice shall include or be accompanied by all of the following:

(a) A copy of this section;

(b) A statement that the proposal can give rise to rights under this section if the proposal is approved by the required vote of the shareholders;

(c) A statement that the shareholder will be eligible as a dissenting shareholder under this section only if the shareholder delivers to the corporation a written demand with the information provided for in division (A)(4) of this section before the vote on the proposal will be taken at the meeting of the shareholders and the shareholder does not vote in favor of the proposal.

(4) If the corporation delivers notice to its shareholders as provided in division (A)(3) of this section, a shareholder electing to be eligible as a dissenting shareholder under this section shall deliver to the corporation before the vote on the proposal is taken a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the shareholder seeks relief. The demand for payment shall include the shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.

(5) If the corporation does not notify the corporation's shareholders pursuant to division (A)(3) of this section, not later than ten days after the date on which the vote on the proposal was taken at the meeting of the shareholders, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment to the dissenting shareholder of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, which demand shall state the dissenting shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the dissenting shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.

(6) If a signatory, designated and approved by the dissenting shareholder, executes the demand, then at any time after receiving the demand, the corporation may make a written request that the dissenting shareholder provide evidence of the signatory's authority. The shareholder shall provide the evidence within a reasonable time but not sooner than 20 days after the dissenting shareholder has received the corporation's written request for evidence.

(7) The dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (A)(3) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 of the Revised Code and a dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (A)(5) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.801 of the Revised Code shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date on which the agreement of merger was adopted by the directors of that corporation. Within 20 days after the dissenting shareholder has been sent the notice provided in section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment with the same information as that provided for in division (A)(4) of this section.

(8) In the case of a merger or consolidation, a demand served on the constituent corporation involved constitutes service on the surviving or the new entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation. In the case of a conversion, a demand served on the converting corporation constitutes service on the converted entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the conversion.

(9) If the corporation sends to the dissenting shareholder, at the address specified in the dissenting shareholder's demand, a request for the certificates representing the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder, within 15 days from the date of the sending of such request, shall deliver to the corporation the certificates requested so that the corporation may endorse on them a legend to the effect that demand for the fair cash value of such shares has been made. The corporation promptly shall return the endorsed certificates to the dissenting shareholder. A dissenting shareholder's failure to deliver the certificates terminates the dissenting shareholder's rights as a dissenting shareholder, at the option of the corporation, exercised by written notice sent to the dissenting shareholder within 20 days after the lapse of the 15-day period, unless a court for good cause shown otherwise directs. If shares represented by a certificate on which such a legend has been endorsed are transferred, each new certificate issued for them shall bear a similar legend, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares. Upon receiving a demand for payment from a dissenting shareholder who is the record holder of uncertificated securities, the corporation shall make an appropriate notation of the demand for payment in its shareholder records. If uncertificated shares for which payment has been demanded are to be transferred, any new certificate issued for the shares shall bear the legend required for certificated securities as provided in this paragraph. A transferee of the shares so endorsed, or of uncertificated securities where such notation has been made, acquires only the rights in the corporation as the original dissenting holder of such shares had immediately after the service of a demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares. A request under this paragraph by the corporation is not an admission by the corporation that the shareholder is entitled to relief under this section.

(B) Unless the corporation and the dissenting shareholder have come to an agreement on the fair cash value per share of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder or the corporation, which in case of a merger or consolidation may be the surviving or new entity, or in the case of a conversion may be the converted entity, within three months after the service of the demand by the dissenting shareholder, may file a complaint in the court of common pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation that issued the shares is located or was located when the proposal was adopted by the shareholders of the corporation, or, if the proposal was not required to be submitted to the shareholders, was approved by the directors. Other dissenting shareholders, within that three-month period, may join as plaintiffs or may be joined as defendants in any such proceeding, and any two or more such proceedings may be consolidated. The complaint shall contain a brief statement of the facts, including the vote and the facts entitling the dissenting shareholder to the relief demanded. No answer to a complaint is required. Upon the filing of a complaint, the court, on motion of the petitioner, shall enter an order fixing a date for a hearing on the complaint and requiring that a copy of the complaint and a notice of the filing and of the date for hearing be given to the respondent or defendant in the manner in which summons is required to be served or substituted service is required to be made in other cases. On the day fixed for the hearing on the complaint or any adjournment of it, the court shall determine from the complaint and from evidence submitted by either party whether the dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair cash value of any shares and, if so, the number and class of such shares. If the court finds that the dissenting shareholder is so entitled, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and to recommend a decision on the amount of the fair cash value. The appraisers have power and authority specified in the order of their appointment. The court thereupon shall make a finding as to the fair cash value of a share and shall render judgment against the corporation for the payment of it, with interest at a rate and from a date as the court considers equitable. The costs of the proceeding, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable. The proceeding is a special proceeding and final orders in it may be vacated, modified, or reversed on appeal pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure and, to the extent not in conflict with those rules, Chapter 2505 of the Revised Code. If, during the pendency of any proceeding instituted under this section, a suit or proceeding is or has been instituted to enjoin or otherwise to prevent the carrying out of the action as to which the shareholder has dissented, the proceeding instituted under this section shall be stayed until the final determination of the other suit or proceeding. Unless any provision in division (D) of this section is applicable, the fair cash value of the shares that is agreed upon by the parties or fixed under this section shall be paid within 30 days after the date of final determination of such value under this division, the effective date of the amendment to the articles, or the consummation of the other action involved, whichever occurs last. Upon the occurrence of the last such event, payment shall be made immediately to a holder of uncertificated securities entitled to payment. In the case of holders of shares represented by certificates, payment shall be made only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing the shares for which the payment is made.

Table of Contents

(C)(1) If the proposal was required to be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation, fair cash value as to those shareholders shall be determined as of the day prior to the day on which the vote by the shareholders was taken and, in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, fair cash value as to shareholders of a constituent subsidiary corporation shall be determined as of the day before the adoption of the agreement of merger by the directors of the particular subsidiary corporation. The fair cash value of a share for the purposes of this section is the amount that a willing seller who is under no compulsion to sell would be willing to accept and that a willing buyer who is under no compulsion to purchase would be willing to pay, but in no event shall the fair cash value of a share exceed the amount specified in the demand of the particular shareholder. In computing fair cash value, both of the following shall be excluded:

(a) Any appreciation or depreciation in market value resulting from the proposal submitted to the directors or to the shareholders ;

(b) Any premium associated with control of the corporation, or any discount for lack of marketability or minority status.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the fair cash value of a share that was listed on a national securities exchange at any of the following times shall be the closing sale price on the national securities exchange as of the applicable date provided in division (C)(1) of this section:

(a) Immediately before the effective time of a merger or consolidation;

(b) Immediately before the filing of an amendment to the articles of incorporation as described in division (A) of section 1701.74 of the Revised Code;

(c) Immediately before the time of the vote described in division (A)(1)(b) of section 1701.76 of the Revised Code.

(D)(1) The right and obligation of a dissenting shareholder to receive fair cash value and to sell such shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, and the right and obligation of the corporation to purchase such shares and to pay the fair cash value of them terminates if any of the following applies:

(a) The dissenting shareholder has not complied with this section, unless the corporation by its directors waives such failure;

(b) The corporation abandons the action involved or is finally enjoined or prevented from carrying it out, or the shareholders rescind their adoption of the action involved;

(c) The dissenting shareholder withdraws the dissenting shareholder's demand, with the consent of the corporation by its directors;

(d) The corporation and the dissenting shareholder have not come to an agreement as to the fair cash value per share, and neither the shareholder nor the corporation has filed or joined in a complaint under division (B) of this section within the period provided in that division.

(2) For purposes of division (D)(1) of this section, if the merger, consolidation, or conversion has become effective and the surviving, new, or converted entity is not a corporation, action required to be taken by the directors of the corporation shall be taken by the partners of a surviving, new, or converted partnership or the comparable representatives of any other surviving, new, or converted entity.

(E) From the time of the dissenting shareholder's giving of the demand until either the termination of the rights and obligations arising from it or the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all other rights accruing from such shares, including voting and dividend or distribution rights, are suspended. If during the suspension, any dividend or distribution is paid in money upon shares of such class or any dividend, distribution, or interest is paid in money upon any securities issued in extinguishment of or in substitution for such shares, an amount equal to the dividend, distribution, or interest which, except for the suspension, would have been payable upon such shares or securities, shall be paid to the holder of record as a credit upon the fair cash value of the shares. If the right to receive fair cash value is terminated other than by the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all rights of the holder shall be restored and all distributions which, except for the suspension, would have been made shall be made to the holder of record of the shares at the time of termination.

Additionally, we assume that the Merger is, in all respects, lawful under applicable law.

We have assumed that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Also, in rendering our opinion, we have assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals for the consummation of the Merger, no conditions will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the combined entity or contemplated benefits of the Merger, including, without limitation, the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the Merger.

Our opinion is based upon information provided to us by the respective management teams of ASB and Peoples, as well as market, economic, financial and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated only as of the date hereof and accordingly, it speaks to no other period. or a recommendation to take any particular tax position, nor does our opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, as to which we understand that Peoples has obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals. Our opinion is for the information of ASB's Board of Directors in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to the Board of Directors of ASB in connection with the Merger or a recommendation to any shareholder of ASB as to how such shareholder should vote or act with respect to the Merger. This opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on Boenning & Scattergood, Inc.'s part to any party or person. This opinion is directed solely to ASB's Board of Directors and is not to be quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, in a registration statement, prospectus, proxy statement or in any other document, nor shall this opinion be used for any other purpose, without our prior written consent, except that, if required by applicable law, this opinion may be referenced and included in its entirety in any filing made by Peoples in respect to the Merger with the Securities and Exchange Commission; provided, however, any description of or reference to our opinion or to Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. be in a form reasonably acceptable to us and our counsel. We shall have no responsibility for the form or content of any such disclosure, other than the opinion itself.

Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. (Boenning), as part of its investment banking business, regularly is engaged in the valuation of assets, securities and companies in connection with various types of transactions, including, without limitation, mergers, acquisitions, private placements, public offerings and valuations for various other purposes, and in the determination of adequate consideration in such transactions. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Peoples, ASB, and their respective affiliates. In the ordinary course of business, we may also actively trade the securities of ASB and Peoples for our own account and for the accounts of customers and accordingly may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

We are acting as ASB's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion. Our fee for rendering this opinion is not contingent upon any conclusion that we may reach or upon completion of the Merger. ASB has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities that may arise out of our engagement. Boenning has not had any material relationship with Peoples during the past two years in which compensation was received or was intended to be received. Boenning advised and received compensation from ASB in 2015 relating to the evaluation of an acquisition opportunity, although no transaction was consummated at that time. Boenning has otherwise provided no investment banking services to ASB during the past two years in which compensation was received or was intended to be received. Boenning may provide services to Peoples in the future (and to ASB if the Merger is not consummated), although as of the date of this opinion, there is no agreement to do so nor any mutual understanding that such services are contemplated.

Boenning was engaged in July 2013 by ASB to serve as placement agent for a private placement of common stock. The offering ultimately closed on December 27, 2013 and Boenning was paid a commission for its role.

Certain employees of Boenning purchased shares in this offering. The aggregate number of such shares is well under 1% of ASB's outstanding shares. The value of the shares is not material to the net worth of the employees, and we do not believe that such ownership has any bearing on our representation of the ASB or on our fairness opinion.

This opinion has been approved by Boenning's fairness opinion committee. We do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any of the officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Merger Agreement, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received by the holders of Company Common Shares in the Merger.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Company Common Shares pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Sincerely,
Boenning & Scattergood, Inc.

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

(a) Ohio General Corporation Law

Section 1701.13(E) of the Ohio Revised Code grants corporations broad powers to indemnify directors, officers, employees and agents. Section 1701.13(E) provides:

(E)(1) A corporation may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if the person had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

(2) A corporation may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any of the following:

(a) Any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of the person's duty to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court of common pleas or the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court of common pleas or such other court shall deem proper;

(b) Any action or suit in which the only liability asserted against a director is pursuant to Section 1701.95 of the Revised Code.

(3) To the extent that a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter in the action, suit, or proceeding, the person shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding.

(4) Any indemnification under division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section. Such determination shall be made as follows:

(a) By a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors of the indemnifying corporation who were not and are not parties to or threatened with the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section;

(b) If the quorum described in division (E)(4)(a) of this section is not obtainable or if a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel other than an attorney, or a firm having associated with it an attorney, who has been retained by or who has performed services for the corporation or any person to be indemnified within the past five years;

(c) By the shareholders;

(d) By the court of common pleas or the court in which the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section was brought.

Any determination made by the disinterested directors under division (E)(4)(a) or by independent legal counsel under division (E)(4)(b) of this section shall be promptly communicated to the person who threatened or brought the action or suit by or in the right of the corporation under division (E)(2) of this section, and, within ten days after receipt of that notification, the person shall have the right to petition the court of common pleas or the court in which the action or suit was brought to review the reasonableness of that determination.

(5)(a) Unless at the time of a director's act or omission that is the subject of an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, the articles or the regulations of a corporation state, by specific reference to this division, that the provisions of this division do not apply to the corporation and unless the only liability asserted against a director in an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section is pursuant to section 1701.95 of the Revised Code, expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by a director in defending the action, suit, or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director in which the director agrees to do both of the following:

(i) Repay such amount if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that his action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation;

(ii) Reasonably cooperate with the corporation concerning the action, suit, or proceeding.

(b) Expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent in defending any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, may be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, as authorized by the directors in the specific case, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent to repay that amount, if it ultimately is determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

(6) The indemnification or advancement of expenses authorized by this section shall not be exclusive of, and shall be in addition to, any other rights granted to those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses under the articles, the regulations, any agreement, a vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacities and as to action in another capacity while holding their offices or positions, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of that person. A right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses arising under a provision of the articles or the regulations shall not be eliminated or impaired by an amendment to that provision after the occurrence of the act or omission that becomes the subject of the civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, or proceeding for which the indemnification or advancement of expenses is sought, unless the provision in effect at the time of that act or omission explicitly authorizes that elimination or impairment after the act or omission has occurred.

(7) A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance or furnish similar protection, including, but not limited to, trust funds, letters of credit, or self-insurance, on behalf of or for any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under this section. Insurance may be purchased from or maintained with a person in which the corporation has a financial interest.

(8) The authority of a corporation to indemnify persons pursuant to division (E)(1) or (2) of this section does not limit the payment of expenses as they are incurred, indemnification, insurance, or other protection that may be provided pursuant to divisions (E)(5), (6), and (7) of this section. Divisions (E)(1) and (2) of this section do not create any obligation to repay or return payments made by the corporation pursuant to division (E)(5), (6), or (7).

(9) As used in division (E) of this section, corporation includes all constituent entities in a consolidation or merger and the new or surviving corporation, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, trustee, member, manager, or agent of such a constituent entity, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent entity as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this section with respect to the new or surviving corporation as the person would if the person had served the new or surviving corporation in the same capacity.

(b) Regulations of Peoples

The Regulations of Peoples contains the following provisions with respect to the indemnification of directors and officers:

Article Five Indemnification and Insurance

Section 5.01. Mandatory Indemnification. The corporation shall indemnify any officer or director of the corporation who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (including, without limitation, any action threatened or instituted by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation (domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys fees, filing fees, court reporters fees and transcript costs), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A person claiming indemnification under this Section 5.01 shall be presumed, in respect of any act or omission giving rise to such claim for indemnification, to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal matter, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, and the termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, rebut such presumption.

Section 5.02. Court-Approved Indemnification. Anything contained in the Regulations or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding:

(A) the corporation shall not indemnify any officer or director of the corporation who was a party to any completed action or suit instituted by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation (domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, in respect of any claim, issue or matter asserted in such action or suit as to which he shall have been adjudged to be liable for acting with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation or misconduct (other than negligence) in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite such adjudication of liability, and in view of all the circumstances of the case, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to such indemnity as such Court of Common Pleas or such other court shall deem proper; and

(B) the corporation shall promptly make any such unpaid indemnification as is determined by a court to be proper as contemplated by this Section 5.02.

Section 5.03. Indemnification for Expenses. Anything contained in the Regulations or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding, to the extent that an officer or director of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 5.01, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be promptly indemnified by the corporation against expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys fees, filing fees, court reporters fees and transcript costs) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

Section 5.04. Determination Required. Any indemnification required under Section 5.01 and not precluded under Section 5.02 shall be made by the corporation only upon a determination that such indemnification of the officer or director is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 5.01. Such determination may be made only (A) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors of the corporation who were not and are not parties to, or threatened with, any such action, suit or proceeding, or (B) if such a quorum is not obtainable or if a majority of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel other than an attorney, or a firm having associated with it an attorney, who has been retained by or who has performed services for the corporation, or any person to be indemnified, within the past five years, or (C) by the shareholders, or (D) by the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio or (if the corporation is a party thereto) the court in which such action, suit or proceeding was brought, if any; any such determination may be made by a court under division (D) of this Section 5.04 at any time [including, without limitation, any time before, during or after the time when any such determination may be requested of, be under consideration by or have been denied or disregarded by the disinterested directors under division (A) or by independent legal counsel under division (B) or by the shareholders under division (C) of this Section 5.04]; and no failure for any reason to make any such determination, and no decision for any reason to deny any such determination, by the disinterested directors under division (A) or by independent legal counsel under division (B) or by shareholders under division (C) of this Section 5.04 shall be evidence in rebuttal of the presumption recited in Section 5.01. Any determination made by the disinterested directors under division (A) or by independent legal counsel under division (B) of this Section 5.04 to make indemnification in respect of any claim, issue or matter asserted in an action or suit threatened or brought by or in the right of the corporation shall be promptly communicated to the person who threatened or brought such action or suit, and within ten days after receipt of such notification such person shall have the right to petition the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio or the court in which such action or suit was brought, if any, to review the reasonableness of such determination.

Section 5.05. Advances for Expenses. Expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, filing fees, court reporters' fees and transcript costs) incurred in defending any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 5.01 shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding to or on behalf of the officer or director promptly as such expenses are incurred by him, but only if such officer or director shall first agree, in writing, to repay all amounts so paid in respect of any claim, issue or other matter asserted in such action, suit or proceeding in defense of which he shall not have been successful on the merits or otherwise:

(A) if it shall ultimately be determined as provided in Section 5.04 that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as provided under Section 5.01; or

(B) if, in respect of any claim, issue or other matter asserted by or in the right of the corporation in such action or suit, he shall have been adjudged to be liable for acting with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation or misconduct (other than negligence) in the performance of his duty to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite such adjudication of liability, and in view of all the circumstances, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to all or part of such indemnification.

Section 5.06. Article Five Not Exclusive. The indemnification provided by this Article Five shall not be exclusive of, and shall be in addition to, any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification may be entitled under the Articles or the Regulations or any agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an officer or director of the corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

Section 5.07. Insurance. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance or furnish similar protection, including but not limited to trust funds, letters of credit, or self-insurance, on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation (domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the obligation or the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article Five. Insurance may be purchased from or maintained with a person in which the corporation has a financial interest.

Section 5.08. Certain Definitions. For purposes of this Article Five, and as examples and not by way of limitation:

(A) A person claiming indemnification under this Article Five shall be deemed to have been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 5.01, or in defense of any claim, issue or other matter therein, if such action, suit or proceeding shall be terminated as to such person, with or without prejudice, without the entry of a judgment or order against him, without a conviction of him, without the imposition of a fine upon him and without his payment or agreement to pay any amount in settlement thereof (whether or not any such termination is based upon a judicial or other determination of the lack of merit of the claims made against him or otherwise results in a vindication of him); and

(B) References to an other enterprise shall include employee benefit plans; references to a fine shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to serving at the request of the corporation shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner not opposed to the best interests of the corporation within the meaning of that term as used in this Article Five.

Section 5.09. Venue. Any action, suit or proceeding to determine a claim for indemnification under this Article Five may be maintained by the person claiming such indemnification, or by the corporation, in the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio. The corporation and (by claiming such indemnification) each such person consent to the exercise of jurisdiction over its or his person by the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio in any such action, suit or proceeding.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement;
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and
 - (iii)

To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment will be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time will be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
 - (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (b) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

- (d) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (c) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment will be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time will be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (e) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
- (f) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the proxy statement/prospectus which forms a part of the registration statement pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.
- (g) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
