Item 4. Description of Securities.

The deferred compensation obligations (the Deferred Compensation Obligations) represent PNC's unsecured obligations to pay deferred compensation from time to time in the future pursuant to the terms of the Plans.

DCIP

Under the terms of the DCIP, PNC provides eligible employees with the opportunity to defer up to 20% of base salary and/or up to 75% of eligible short-term incentive pay earned with respect to a plan year. Participation in the DCIP is limited to a select group of management or highly compensated employees. Participation in the DCIP is voluntary, and participants may elect to allocate deferred compensation into various investment options. A participant may change the deemed investment alternatives from time to time as set forth in the DCIP.

A participant may elect to receive distribution of his or her accounts under the DCIP upon his or her separation from service (in a lump sum or in annual installments for between two and 10 years or a combination of a partial lump sum followed by installment payments) and/or on up to five specified dates (in a lump sum). Except in the case of a participant's retirement on or after reaching age 55 and accruing five years of service, all of the participant's accounts will be distributed in a lump sum in connection with his or her separation from service. In the event of a participant's death, all of the participant's accounts will be distributed to his or her beneficiaries in a lump sum. A participant may be permitted to withdraw all or a portion of his or her accounts in the case of an unforeseeable emergency that causes severe financial hardship. All distributions of participant accounts under the DCIP are paid in cash.

The right of the participants to any amounts deferred or invested in the DCIP are not transferable or assignable and will not be subject to alienation, encumbrance, garnishment, attachment, execution or levy of any kind, voluntary or involuntary, except when, where and if compelled by applicable law.

PNC's Administrative Committee has absolute authority to determine eligibility for benefits and to administer, interpret, construe and vary the terms of the DCIP. The DCIP may be amended or terminated by the Personnel and Compensation Committee pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth therein, provided that no modification, amendment or termination will be made that would have the effect of decreasing the amount payable to any participant or beneficiary hereunder without the consent of such participant or beneficiary. PNC's Board of Directors (the Board), the Personnel and Compensation Committee of the Board, the Administrative Committee, PNC's Investment Committee (which is appointed to oversee DCIP investments), or their respective delegates may delegate authority under the terms of the DCIP, to the extent permitted by applicable law or requirement.

The DCIP is intended to constitute a top hat plan within the meaning of Sections 201(2), 301(a)(3) and 401(a) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended. Deferrals under the DCIP will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax until they are distributed to the participant in accordance with the terms of the DCIP. The DCIP is also intended to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Director Plan

Non-employee members of the Board may elect to defer all or part of their compensation earned for services performed as a member of the Board. Participation in the Director Plan is voluntary and participants may elect to allocate deferred compensation into various investment options.

Deferred amounts are paid in cash either in a lump sum or installments, either upon the director's retirement or on a specified date in accordance with the elections made by participants.

The value of a participant's account ordinarily will be distributed to the participant or the participant's beneficiary (in the case of the participant's death) upon the participant's separation from service. Amounts payable or credited under the Director Plan may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged or encumbered or be subject in any manner to alienation or anticipation.

The Director Plan is administered by the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board, unless otherwise determined by the Board. The Director Plan may be terminated or amended at any time by the Board or by the applicable committee, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth therein, without the consent of any participant, provided that any termination or amendment will not, without the consent of the participant (or designated beneficiary) adversely affect such participant's rights with respect to compensation or amounts credited to his or her accounts.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The legal opinion regarding the validity of the securities to be issued is rendered by Alicia G. Powell, Corporate Secretary and Managing Chief Counsel of PNC. Ms. Powell beneficially owns or has the rights to acquire an aggregate of less than 1% of PNC's common stock.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

PNC is incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Sections 1741 and 1742 of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, as amended (the "PBCL"), provide that a Pennsylvania corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that the person is or was a representative of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the action or proceeding, provided that certain standards are met, including that the person acted in good faith and with the reasonable belief that the particular action was in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. In the case of an action brought by or in the right of the corporation, indemnification of any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to the action by reason of the fact that the person is or was a representative of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action is permitted if such person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. No indemnification is permitted under this provision, however, in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that it is judicially determined that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for the expenses that the court of common pleas or other court deems proper.

Section 1743 of the PBCL provides, in general, that a corporation must indemnify any representative of a business corporation who has been successful on the merits, or otherwise, in defense of any action or proceeding referred to in Section 1741 or Section 1742 or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred therein. Under Section 1745 of the PBCL, a corporation may pay the expenses of a director or officer incurred in defending an action or proceeding in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking from such person to repay the amounts advanced, if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification from the corporation.

Section 1746 of the PBCL provides that the foregoing provisions shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under, among other things, any by-law provision, provided that no indemnification may be made in any case where the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness.

Our By-Laws provide for the mandatory indemnification of directors and officers in accordance with and to the full extent permitted by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as in effect at the time of such indemnification. Our By-Laws also eliminate, to the maximum extent permitted by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the personal liability of directors for monetary damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action as a director, except in any case such elimination is not permitted by law.

Section 1747 of the PBCL provides, in general, that a corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a representative of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another entity against any liability asserted against the person in any capacity, or arising out of the person's status as such, regardless of whether the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against that liability under the provisions of the PBCL.

PNC has purchased directors and officers liability insurance covering certain liabilities that may be incurred by its directors and officers in connection with the performance of their duties.

The foregoing is only a general summary of certain aspects of Pennsylvania law and PNC's By-Laws relating to indemnification of directors and officers, and does not purport to be complete. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the detailed provisions of Sections 1741, 1742, 1743, 1745, 1746 and 1747 of the PBCL and the By-Laws of PNC.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

For the list of exhibits, see the Exhibit Index to this Registration Statement, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that Paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and each filing of the DCIP's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
