Copa Airlines Announces Direct Service to Maracaibo, Venezuela

The Airline Will Add Six New Cities in 2006, Increasing Its Route Network to 36 Destinations, Including Major Cities Throughout North, South, Central America and the Caribbean

PANAMA CITY, May 5 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Copa Airlines, a subsidiary of Copa Holdings, S.A. (NYSE: CPA), announced today that it will begin direct flights to Maracaibo, Venezuela with six flights a week, starting July 24, 2006. Maracaibo is Venezuela's second largest city and the capital of the state of Zulia, the most important oil-producing state.

This year, the company will also be initiating flight service to Manaus, Brazil, and Santiago de los Caballeros in the Dominican Republic on July 15; to San Pedro Sula, Honduras, on July 24; to Montevideo, Uruguay, on August 15; and in the last quarter of the year, to Port of Spain, Trinidad & Tobago.

We are pleased to offer our passengers six new destinations and are moving forward with our plans for the airline's growth in the region, said Jorge Garcia, Commercial Vice President of Copa Airlines. Passengers will be able to continue making their connections quickly and efficiently to numerous destinations serviced by Copa in North, Central and South America and the Caribbean through our Hub of the Americas in Panama, he added. This flight will depart from Panama every day except Friday at 7:58 p.m., arriving in Maracaibo at 10:30 p.m. The return flight will depart Maracaibo every day except Saturday at 8:35 a.m., and will arrive in Panama at 9:15 a.m.

The new flight to Maracaibo is in addition to two daily direct flights Copa Airlines currently offers between Panama and Caracas.

The Panama-Maracaibo route will be serviced by the Embraer 190AR aircraft, which have a capacity of 94 passengers: 10 in business class ( Clase Ejecutiva ) and 84 in economy class, and are equipped with the most advanced technology.

Copa Airlines, a subsidiary of Copa Holdings, S.A. (NYSE: CPA), is one of the leading passenger airlines in Latin America. Operating from its strategic location at the Hub of the Americas in the Republic of Panama, Copa currently offers approximately 92 daily scheduled flights to 30 destinations in 20 countries in North, Central and South America and the Caribbean. In addition, Copa provides passengers with access to flights to more than 120 other international destinations through codeshare agreements with Continental Airlines and other airlines. Copa and Continental also share a strategic alliance partnership that includes joint participation in Continental's award-winning frequent flyer program, OnePass. Copa Airlines offers nonstop service to Panama City from four U.S. cities: daily from New York City, twice daily from Miami, daily from Los Angeles, and five times a week from Orlando.
