Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 9, 2015, a purported stockholder of Windstream Holdings, Inc. (“Windstream”) filed a putative class action lawsuit in the Delaware Court of Chancery, captioned Doppelt v. Windstream Holdings, Inc., et al., C.A. No. 10629-VCN. Plaintiff alleges that Windstream’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) breached their fiduciary duties by causing Windstream to issue a proxy statement that allegedly omitted material information in connection with a special meeting of stockholders scheduled to be held on February 20, 2015 to vote on certain amendments to Windstream Corporation’s charter and to approve a 1 for 6 reverse stock split (the “Special Meeting”). Plaintiff seeks to enjoin the Special Meeting until additional public disclosures are made. Windstream and the Board believe the lawsuit is without merit and plan to vigorously defend against the claims made in the lawsuit. A hearing is scheduled for February 19, 2015.

Information about the matters to be considered at the Special Meeting can be found in the definitive proxy statement dated January 9, 2015 that Windstream has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and mailed to stockholders. Such proxy statement includes information about Windstream’s directors and executive officers and their ownership of Windstream’s common stock who may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from Windstream’s stockholders with respect to the proposals for which stockholder approval is being sought. Investors are urged to read the definitive proxy statement (including any amendments and supplements) and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC because they contain important information about Windstream and the proposed transaction. The definitive proxy statement and other documents relating to the proposed transaction can be obtained free of charge from the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov and Windstream’s website at www.windstream.com. In addition, these documents can also be obtained free of charge from Windstream Holdings upon written request to the Corporate Secretary at 4001 Rodney Parham Road, Little Rock, Arkansas 72212.
