Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Subordinated Debt Financing

On October 12, 2006, Halo Technology Holdings, Inc. ("Halo" or the "Company") entered into that certain Subscription Agreement (the "Subscription Agreement") for the sale of the certain convertible promissory notes (each a "Note" and collectively, the "Notes") and warrants (the "Warrants") to acquire common stock in the Company. In connection with these transactions, the Company and the investors entered into certain subordination agreements concerning the priority of the Company's debt, and certain ancillary agreements, which are all described below.

Convertible Notes

The Company sold Notes in the aggregate principal amount of One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000) under the Subscription Agreement and received $1,500,000 in cash from the Investor. The Notes are convertible into common stock at any time at the option of the holder. The maturity date of the Notes is three years after the date of issuance. In the event that the Notes are not converted by the maturity dates of the Notes, any principal outstanding will then be due and payable. Interest on outstanding principal amounts accrues at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum and is payable in shares of the Company's common stock. The Company may prepay the amount due under the Notes at any time, provided that the Company make a proportional prepayment on any other Notes sold under the Subscription Agreement. If the holder of the Notes elects to convert the Note into common stock, the holder will receive a number of shares equal to the amount of principal being converted, divided by the conversion price, which is $0.68, subject to change as provided in the Note. In addition, the Company issued Notes in the aggregate principal amount of One Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($1,250,000) under the Subscription Agreement in exchange for 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

Warrants

Pursuant to the Subscription Agreement the Company issued Warrants to purchase a number of shares of the Company's common stock equal to 50% of the number of shares which would be issued upon conversion of the Notes. Accordingly, the Company issued warrants to acquire 1,102,942 shares of common stock in connection with the issuance of Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $1,500,000. The warrants have a conversion price of $.80 per share (subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments as provided in the Warrant) and are exercisable for a period of 5 years. The Company did not issued warrants in connection with the issuance of the $1,250,000 Note.

Subscription Agreement

The material terms of the Subscription Agreements are as follows. The Company and the investors (the "Investors") under the Subscription Agreements made certain representations and warranties customary in private financings, including representations from the Investors that they are "accredited investors" as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D ("Regulation D") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

The Company undertakes to register the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Notes, and upon conversion of the Warrants (together, the "Registrable Shares") via a suitable registration statement pursuant to the registration rights set forth in the Subscription Agreement. If a registration statement covering the Registrable Shares has not been declared effective no later than 120 days from the closing, the Investors will receive certain penalties either in cash or in additional shares of common stock as set forth in the Subscription Agreement. The Investors will also have rights to participate in up to $5,000,000 of any future equity or convertible debt offerings by the Company.

Letter Agreement with Lead Investor

On October 12, 2006, the Company entered into a letter agreement (the "Vision Agreement") with Vision Opportunity Master Fund, Ltd. ("Vision"). In consideration for Vision's entering into the Subscription Agreement and acting as lead investor, in addition to the Notes and Warrants that were issued pursuant to the Subscription Agreement, the Company also issued to Vision warrants to purchase a number of shares of the Company's common stock equal to 50% of the number of shares which would be issued upon conversion of the Notes purchased by Vision. Accordingly, the Company issued to Vision additional warrants (the "Additional Warrants") to acquire 1,102,942 shares of common stock in connection with the issuance of Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $1,500,000.

Furthermore, the Company agreed that, for as long as Vision is a holder of at least 25% of the Notes or Warrants purchased under the Subscription Agreement (or the shares of Common Stock issuable upon the conversion or exercise thereof), Vision will have the right to nominate one director to the Company's board of directors. The Company shall recommend that its shareholders approve such nomination at any shareholders' meeting for the election of directors or in connection with any written consent of shareholders of the election of directors.

Under the Vision Agreement, the Company agreed to reduce its parent company overhead by a minimum of 25% within six (6) months of the Closing and represented that it shall use at least $5 million of the estimated $6 million in proceeds from the sale of its Gupta subsidiary to reduce the amount of its indebtedness to Fortress Credit Corp.
