ITEM 8.01 Other Events

Merger Closing Date

Old National Bancorp (Old National) and Anchor Bancorp Wisconsin Inc. (Anchor) anticipate that the proposed merger of Anchor with and into Old National (the Merger) will occur on May 2, 2016. The closing remains subject to the adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated January 11, 2016, by and between Old National and Anchor (the Merger Agreement) by the Anchor stockholders at the Special Meeting of Anchor Stockholders on April 29, 2016 and satisfaction of all other conditions described in the Merger Agreement.

Proposed Settlement of Litigation Related to the Merger

On February 25, 2016, a putative class action complaint was filed in the United States District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin, by an individual purporting to be a stockholder of Anchor. The lawsuit is captioned Parshall v. Anchor Bancorp Wisconsin, Inc., et al., Case No. 16-CV-120 (W.D. Wis.), and alleges state law breach of fiduciary duty claims against the Anchor's board for, among other things, seeking to sell Anchor through an allegedly defective process, for an unfair price and on unfair terms. The lawsuit seeks, among other things, to enjoin the consummation of the Merger and damages. The complaint alleges that Old National aided and abetted the Anchor directors' breaches of fiduciary duty. The complaint also includes federal law claims alleging that the registration statement omitted certain material information.

On March 31, 2016, the plaintiff and defendants entered into a memorandum of understanding (the MOU) setting forth their agreement in principle to settle the litigation. While the defendants deny the allegations in the complaint, they have agreed to enter into the MOU to avoid the costs and disruptions of any further litigation and to permit the timely closing of the Merger. The MOU describes the terms that the parties have agreed to include in the settlement agreement, subject to confirmatory discovery by the plaintiff, and describes the actions that the parties will take or refrain from taking between the date of the MOU and the date that the settlement agreement is finally approved by the court.

The MOU, among other things, requires supplemental disclosures that the defendants have included in the proxy statement and prospectus dated March 29, 2016. The MOU also provides that the settlement agreement will include an injunction against proceedings in connection with the complaint and any additional complaints concerning claims that will be covered by the settlement agreement. In addition, the MOU provides that the settlement agreement will include a release on behalf of the plaintiff, along with other members of the class of Anchor stockholders certified for purposes of the settlement agreement, in favor of the defendants and their related parties from any claims that arose from or are related to the Merger. The defendants have agreed to pay the plaintiff's attorneys' fees and expenses as awarded by the court, subject to court approval of the settlement agreement and the consummation of the Merger. There can be no assurance that the parties will ultimately enter into the settlement agreement or that the court will approve the settlement even if the parties were to enter into such settlement agreement. In such event, the MOU may be rendered null and void and of no force and effect.
