Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 7, 2019, Carbonite, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among the Company, Matterhorn Acquisitions, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (“Acquisition Corp.”), Webroot Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Webroot”), and Shareholder Representative Services LLC, solely in its capacity as the Stockholder Representative.

The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Acquisition Corp. will be merged with and into Webroot, with Webroot continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (the “Merger”). At the effective time of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of Series A Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Series A Shares”), and each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Common Shares” and, together with the Series A Shares, the “Shares”) of Webroot (other than the Shares (i) held in treasury by Webroot or owned by any direct or indirect subsidiary of Webroot or (ii) held by stockholders who did not vote in favor of the Merger, consent thereto in writing or otherwise contractually waive or agree to refrain from exercising their rights to appraisal and who have demanded properly in writing appraisal for such shares in accordance with Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware) will be converted into the right to receive a portion of the aggregate cash consideration payable in respect of the Merger, which will consist of $618.5 million to be adjusted as provided in the Merger Agreement with respect to cash, debt, transaction expenses and working capital (the “Merger Consideration”). Each outstanding and unexercised stock option of Webroot (other than those described in the following sentence) will be terminated and cancelled upon the consummation of the Merger in exchange for a cash payment based on the Merger Consideration (net of option exercise price and applicable taxes). All options of Webroot that have a per Common Share exercise price equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration per share or which are then unvested will be cancelled without consideration upon the consummation of the Merger.

The consummation of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including (i) the expiration or termination of any waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (ii) the absence of any law or order prohibiting consummation of the Merger, (iii) with respect to the Company’s obligation to consummate the Merger, the absence of any Material Adverse Effect with respect to Webroot and its subsidiaries, (iv) with respect to the Company’s obligation to consummate the Merger, the receipt of the Webroot Stockholder Consent executed by stockholders of Webroot holding not less than 90% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares and Series A Shares of Webroot (voting together as a single class and on an as-converted to Common Shares basis), inclusive of the Common Shares and Series A Shares or exercise of the “Bring Along Right” and waiver of appraisal rights as set forth in Webroot’s voting agreement, (iv) the continuing accuracy of each party’s representations and warranties, (v) the performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Merger Agreement, and (vi) the satisfaction of other customary conditions. The consummation of the Merger is not subject to a financing condition. The Merger is expected to be consummated in the first quarter of 2019.

The Merger Agreement also includes customary termination provisions for both Webroot and the Company, including if the Merger has not been consummated by May 8, 2019, which date is subject to extension in certain circumstances with respect to regulatory clearance.

The Merger Agreement contains representations, warranties, and covenants by the parties that are customary for a transaction of this nature. Webroot’s stockholders will have no obligation to indemnify the Company under the Merger Agreement for breaches of Webroot’s representations or warranties (with the exception of breaches related to Webroot’s fundamental representations and other than in the case of fraud), and the Company’s recourse for any such breaches of Webroot’s representations and warranties will be limited to a representations and warranties insurance policy to be purchased by the Company prior to the Closing.

On February 7, 2019, following execution of the Merger Agreement, Webroot delivered the irrevocable written consent of stockholders holding (i) approximately 87% of the outstanding Common Shares and Series A Shares (voting together as a single class and on an as-converted to Common Shares basis) and (ii) all of the outstanding Series A Shares, approving and authorizing the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement and adopting the Merger Agreement, waiving any applicable notice provisions in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the Company’s governing documents and the stockholders agreements and waiving any applicable appraisal rights in accordance with the DGCL (the “Webroot Stockholder Consent”). The Webroot Stockholder Consent is sufficient to satisfy the stockholder vote requirement for the Merger under applicable law and Webroot’s governing documents.

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, the Company entered into a financing commitment letter (the “Commitment Letter”) with Barclays Bank PLC, Citizens Bank, N.A. and Royal Bank of Canada for (i) a seven-year senior secured term loan facility of $550 million (the "Term Loan Facility") and (ii) a five-year senior secured revolving credit facility (the "Revolving Facility" and, together with the Term Loan Facility, the "Facilities"). The Company will fund the transaction with existing cash and the Term Loan Facility. The Facilities will be subject to certain customary representations, warranties and covenants. The funding of the Facilities is subject to the Company's compliance with customary terms and conditions precedent as set forth in the Commitment Letter, including the execution and delivery of definitive documentation consistent with the Commitment Letter and the substantially simultaneous consummation of the Merger on terms consistent with the Merger Agreement.

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, certain members of Webroot's management team have entered into employment agreements and restrictive covenant agreements with the Company which will become effective upon consummation of the Merger.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is summary in nature and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full and complete terms of the Merger Agreement. A copy of the Merger Agreement will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2019, if not otherwise filed prior to that. When filed, the Form 10-Q or other form or report will also be available on the Company's website at carbonite.com. The above description of the Merger Agreement is not intended to provide any other factual information about Webroot, the Company, or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties, and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and only as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made by each party to the other for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between them. In addition, certain representations and warranties may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to investors and may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties, and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by Webroot or the Company. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties, or covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Webroot, the Company, or any of their respective subsidiaries, affiliates, or businesses.
