VOTING SHARES

Stockholders of record at the close of business on August 11, 2017, are eligible to vote at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy. As of the record date, 43,774,052 shares of our common stock were outstanding, and 4,800,000 shares of our Class A common stock were outstanding.

Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter to be considered at the Annual Meeting. Each share of Class A common stock is entitled to 10 votes on each such matter. The holders in person or by proxy of shares of our common stock and/or Class A common stock representing a majority of the voting interest of all such shares will constitute a quorum for purposes of the 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. All matters other than the election of directors require the vote of a majority of the voting interest present in person or represented by proxy. The election of directors requires a plurality of the votes cast.

If a quorum is not present in person or by proxy, the holders of shares representing a majority of the voting interest of all such shares present may, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time, until a quorum is present, and at any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

If you hold your shares in “street name,” you will receive instructions from your brokers or other nominees describing how to vote your shares. If you do not instruct your brokers or nominees how to vote your shares, they may vote your shares as they decide as to each matter for which they have discretionary authority under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”). Under the rules of the NYSE, the proposal relating to the ratification of the selection of our independent registered public accounting firm is a discretionary proposal.

There are also non-discretionary matters for which brokers and other nominees do not have discretionary authority to vote unless they receive timely instructions from you. When a broker or other nominee does not have discretion to vote on a particular matter and you have not given timely instructions to the broker or other nominee on how that broker or nominee should vote your shares, a “broker non-vote” results. Although any broker non-vote would be counted as present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, it would be treated as not entitled to vote with respect to non-discretionary matters.

Abstentions occur when stockholders are present at the Annual Meeting but fail to vote or voluntarily withhold their vote for any of the matters upon which the stockholders are voting. Abstentions are counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present and will have the same effect as a vote against proposals other than the election of directors.

Election of Directors. Both the shares of common stock and the shares of Class A common stock have the right of cumulative voting in the election of directors. Cumulative voting means that each stockholder will be entitled to cast as many votes as he or she has the right to cast (before cumulating votes), multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. All such votes may be cast for a single nominee or may be distributed among the nominees to be voted for as the stockholder sees fit. To exercise cumulative voting rights by proxy, a stockholder must clearly designate the number of votes to be cast for any given nominee. Under Delaware law, votes that are withheld from a director’s election will be counted toward a quorum but will not affect the outcome of the vote on the election of a director. Broker non-votes will not be taken into account in determining the outcome of the election. The election of directors requires a plurality of the votes cast, which means that the candidates receiving the highest number of “FOR” votes will be elected.

The following table summarizes the votes required for passage of each proposal and the effect of abstentions and uninstructed shares held by brokers.

Edgar Filing: CAL-MAINE FOODS INC - Form DEF14A

Proposal	Voting Options	Votes Required To Adopt Proposal	Effect of Abstentions	Effect of Broker Non-Votes
No.1: Election of directors	For or withhold on all nominees, or allocate votes among the nominees	Plurality of votes cast	N/A	No effect
No. 2: Approval, on an advisory basis, of the compensation of our named executive officers (“Say on Pay”)	For, against, or abstain	Majority of votes of shares present	Treated as votes against	No effect
No. 3: Approval, on an advisory basis, of the frequency of future advisory votes on the compensation of our named executive officers	Stockholders may select whether such vote should occur every year, every two years or every three years, or stockholders may abstain from voting	Majority of voting interest present in person or by proxy*	Treated as votes against	No effect
No. 4: Ratification of selection of independent registered public accounting firm	For, against or abstain	Majority of voting interest present in person or by proxy	Treated as votes against	N/A

* Because this advisory vote has three possible substantive voting options (every one year, every two years or every three years), we will consider stockholders to have “approved” the frequency selected by a plurality of the votes cast. The option that receives the most favorable votes by stockholders will be considered the preferred frequency and the recommendation of the stockholders.

Shares represented by a properly executed and returned proxy card will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon. If no instructions are indicated, the person or persons named on the proxy card will vote:

FOR the election of the six nominees named in this proxy statement to serve as directors of the Company;

FOR the approval, on an advisory basis, of the compensation of our named executive officers;

In favor of holding an advisory vote on the compensation of our named executive officers EVERY THREE YEARS;

FOR the ratification of our selection of Frost, PLLC as independent registered public accounting firm of the Company for fiscal year 2018; and

In their discretion with respect to any unanticipated matters not included in this proxy statement that may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournments thereof.

In accordance with Delaware law, the Company will appoint two inspectors of election. The inspectors will take charge of and will count the votes and ballots cast at the Annual Meeting and will make a written report on their determination.
