Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 27, 2006, Mentor Corporation ("Mentor") received a binding offer (the "Offer") from Coloplast A/S ("Coloplast") to purchase Mentor's surgical urology and clinical and consumer healthcare business segments (collectively, the "Urology Business") for total consideration of $463,225,000, of which $456,137,500 would be in cash and $7,087,500 in non-cash consideration (the "Transaction"). The Offer is binding on Coloplast and capable of being accepted by Mentor until 11:59 p.m., California time, on July 31, 2006.

If Mentor accepts the Offer, the parties would execute a definitive purchase agreement relating to the Transaction. The definitive purchase agreement as proposed by Coloplast would contain customary representations and warranties, covenants by Mentor regarding the operation of its business between the date of signing of any such definitive purchase agreement and the date of the closing of the Transaction, and indemnification provisions whereby each party would agree to indemnify the other for breaches of representations and warranties, breaches of covenants and other matters, with Mentor's liability for breaches of representations and warranties generally limited to 15% of the purchase price. The definitive purchase agreement as proposed by Coloplast would also provide for the establishment of an escrow fund of $10 million, to be withheld from the purchase price, to secure Mentor's indemnification obligations with respect to breaches of its representations and warranties. In addition, Mentor would agree not to enter into or engage in a business that competes with the Urology Business, on a worldwide basis, for a period of seven years following the closing of the Transaction. The Transaction proposed by Coloplast would be subject to customary closing conditions, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and the receipt of the considered advice from French Works Councils.

In consideration of the Offer, Mentor has agreed that during the irrevocable period of the Offer, Mentor will not solicit any proposal or offer from, or enter into any discussions or negotiations with, any third party regarding any acquisition of the Urology Business or any material portion of the assets of the Urology Business.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 27, 2006, Mentor issued a press release relating to its receipt of the Offer from Coloplast. The text of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated in its entirety herein by reference.
