What They're Saying about AT&T + DIRECTV

Expanded Opportunities for Full-Time Union Labor Employment

American Federation of Labor & Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO):

"The combination of AT&T and DirecTV will result in a stronger competitor to the dominant cable industry, providing consumers with more options, putting pressure on prices and improving service in the video market."

"The AT&T/DirecTV merger will also bring benefits to employees. AT&T respects the rights of its employees to make their own choice about union representation, and is now the largest full-time unionized employer in the U.S. . . . [W]e believe the AT&T/ DirecTV merger will be in the best interest of both workers and consumers."1

Communication Workers of America (CWA):

"[T]he proposed AT&T/DirecTV merger can provide real benefits to workers and consumers. . . . By combining DirecTV's nationwide video service with AT&T's broadband and wireless service, the merged company can improve broadband speed and services, and make even more content available for millions of customers. AT&T/DirecTV will be a stronger competitor to the cable industry throughout the U.S., another plus for consumers."

"The merged company will provide employment opportunities for tens of thousands of employees at both companies. AT&T respects the right of employees to make their own choice about union representation."

"The public interest is served by expanding access to high speed broadband services. AT&T's commitment to provide high speed Internet services to 15 million non-urban locations, with at least 2 million of these provided with Gigapower fiber to the premise service, is a positive move toward expanding Internet access and availability to more Americans." 2
