or equity-linked securities of middle market German companies with up to 20% in other Western European companies (with no more than 15% in any single country).

- The European Equity Fund, Inc.—investing primarily in equity or equity-linked securities of companies domiciled in countries that are members of the European Union (with normally at least 80% in securities of issuers in such countries).

Semi-Annual Report

The New Germany
Fund, Inc.

LETTER TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

Dear Shareholder,

For the six months ended June 30, 2014, the New Germany Fund's total return in U.S. dollars (USD) was 2.64% based on net asset value ("NAV") and -2.38% based on market price. During the same period, the total return of the Fund's benchmark, the Midcap Market Performance Index, was 2.76%.¹

Following a robust start to 2014 for the German economy, investors' current focus is predominantly centered on general domestic conditions such as the labor market situation and the consumer's willingness to spend.

Consumer confidence in Germany, as measured by the German Consumer Confidence Index ("GfK") survey, mirrors the aggregate opinion and sentiment of private households concerning their financial and economic situation, unemployment expectations and savings in the coming 12 months.² In the second quarter, the index increased once again, continuing an upward trend that has been intact since the end of 2012. Economic expectations sharply increased and reached a three-year high, while unemployment concerns steadily decreased and reached a three-year low. In line with higher confidence regarding employment and inflation, the willingness to buy significantly increased.

Consumer spending was partly stimulated by the European Central Bank's ("ECB") decision to cut its key interest rate to 0.15 percent and by its introduction of a penalty rate on bank deposits placed with the central bank. In contrast, income expectations among Germans remained almost flat over the second half of the semi-annual period, but maintained their high level due to the continued positive labor market situation and collective wage agreements. Consumption will continue to be a key pillar of the German economy, and is expected to comprise almost 60% of Gross Domestic Product (GDP).³ We remain optimistic regarding the German consumer, as the trends in wages, employment, price inflation and interest rate levels continue to support private consumption.

In contrast to the consumer, German corporate macroeconomic indicators were not as consistent. After the German Purchasing Managers Index ("PMI") rose in February to its highest level since May 2011, its continued development rather resembled a zigzag movement than a clear trend.⁴ At its current level, however, the PMI is well above the expansion level and demonstrates a significant increase since last year.

The German business climate index published by the Ifo Institute reveals a similar pattern.⁵ After reaching a high in February, the index moved sideways, reflecting a continued positive assessment of the current business situation but a less optimistic view on future business developments. In particular, German business fears the impact of the ongoing crisis in Russia/Ukraine, which should have repercussions for the German consumer.

The current business situation is also reflected in industrial orders. Over the past six months, manufacturing orders increased year-over-year but some momentum was lost in recent months. As in previous periods, producer prices decreased year-over-year in May, mainly due to energy pricing. On the macro level, the German economy continued its growth path in the year's first half. Positive contributions were primarily made by domestic demand, while foreign trade subtracted from growth. Exports, the traditional backbone of the German economy, suffered from weakness in the country's trading partners.

The Fund's discount to NAV averaged 9.99% for the six months ended June 30, 2014, compared with a discount of 10.75% for the same period a year earlier.

On July 28, 2014, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors had approved an extension of the current repurchase authorization permitting the Fund to repurchase up to 1,550,000 shares during the period from August 1, 2014 through July 31, 2015.

The Fund also announced that the Board of Directors had adopted a new Discount Management Program whereby the Fund will initiate one contingent tender offer during the period from August 1, 2014 through July 31, 2015 for 5% of the Fund's shares outstanding at 98% of NAV. The terms of the Discount Management Program require the Fund to conduct a tender offer if its shares trade at an average discount to NAV of more than 10% during a 15-week measurement period that has been determined by the Board of Directors. A press release will be issued after the end of the Fund's measurement period detailing the measurement period dates and results.

Economic Outlook

For 2014, we expect a continuing recovery across G4 countries, with global GDP growth of 3.4%.⁶ Despite deeper economic impacts than expected from weather-related factors and the subsequent small downward revision of our growth expectations, recent economic data from the U.S. have begun to firm. We are thus of the opinion that the U.S. will remain in the lead of economic growth and that the Eurozone will follow with a return to positive GDP growth of approximately 1.0%. We expect the cyclical recovery to gain further speed in the course of the year, although at a varying pace throughout the Euro area. While Spain has already shown a remarkable improvement in competitiveness, domestic demand and foreign direct investments, Italy and France still must introduce further measures, e.g., cutting corporate taxes. Again, Germany seems to be guiding the Eurozone out of the crisis, with its economic growth being increasingly driven by domestic demand. Preconditions for stronger growth in the Eurozone will continue to be the creation of a better functioning credit channel. The April lending survey showed that small- and medium-sized companies assessed the availability of bank loans as less negative than previously anticipated. Whether the ECB's decision regarding negative deposit rates will further stimulate the desired behavior remains to be seen.

While global and European growth is forecast to be above last year's levels, many leading indicators have already started to decline. With that in mind, and given the recent lack of momentum in German production and export volumes, we have reduced our exposure to industrials. On the other hand, we have positioned for a strong German consumer through a higher weight in German residential stocks, an overweight in selected retail stocks and a focus on media stocks.

Finally, after some progress in the Russia/Ukraine political crisis over the last few months, the situation recently escalated with the tragic downing of a civil airliner. The EU and the U.S. took a step towards level-three sanctions, which marks a turning point in the dispute. The sanctions' time horizon and Russia's reaction will be decisive for a further escalation or a potential de-escalation. We will watch the situation closely for risks to the downside.

Sincerely,

Christian

INTERVIEW WITH PORTFOLIO MANAGER — PHILIPP SCHWENEKE

Question: What were the reasons behind increasing the weighting of real estate holdings in the portfolio?

Answer: A number of developments took place in the past half year that prompted us to increase the portfolio's exposure to real estate stocks. For starters, the protracted period of a low interest rate environment has been supportive for the real estate sector as investors continue hunting for yield investments. With further impetus from the European Central Bank's interest rate reduction on June 5th, rates have continued to come down, further increasing the attractiveness of the sector. Furthermore, the clarity provided following the introduction of a cap on allowable rent increases, a topic that was hotly debated in the press coming into this year, as well as a significant reduction in share overhang for specific stocks, eliminated two issues that had been weighing on the real estate sector. Add to that the relatively healthy and improving state of the German consumer, it makes for an attractive investment opportunity in our view.

Question: The consumer segment, and in particular the automobile sector, have been preferred holdings in the portfolio. Will this continue?

Answer: We continue to see a positive environment for the German consumer overall and expect that it will continue to be a focus within the portfolio. For the automobile industry specifically, while a solid quarter is still likely, we currently expect no major positive surprises and are more likely to reduce positions in the medium term. We feel that the positive momentum for this industry is coming to an end. With +4% growth, European sales slowed down from the first quarter (+7% year-over-year) with a rising base. Foreign exchange remains a burden for first-quarter results. Overall, we expect company earnings to be solid in the second quarter but expect no major share price catalyst.

Question: Industrial data out of Germany has started to deteriorate. How concerning is this?

Answer: After a good start in 2014, business expectations for the coming months have recently weakened somewhat but remain in positive territory. Key indicators, such as capacity utilization and backlog, worsened as compared to the beginning of the year, causing us to become more cautious on the industrials sector and to reduce the significant overweight that had been in place for some time. The average utilization of installed capacity stood about one percent below the level of the previous quarter and the percentage of firms with a lower production capacity increased. Backlog declined and visibility of orders fell from five months to four months. Reasons for this are mainly the job declines in the developing countries, reinforced by the political crisis in Eastern Europe. The economic data being reported has been very differentiated, however, with some companies complaining about a very slow order intake and lengthy customer decisions. For others, the high capacity utilization and growth financing is a challenge. The mood among German machine builders has cooled down and needs to be observed closely in coming months.

All in all, the tougher sanctions on Russia and the risk of further escalation of the conflict should burden business sentiment and investment activity. This would happen not only through German direct exports to Russia, a fairly low share of Germany's exports, but also through increased uncertainty spreading to other countries as well, as quoted by the German VDMA (association for industrial machine manufacturers in Germany) when they reduced their outlook for 2014 in July. During the first five months of 2014, German exports to Russia have already fallen by 15% year over year. The European Commission expects that sanctions in the EU could result in a decline of GDP by 0.3% this year, and accordingly could hit the German mid-cap universe due to its higher share of export-oriented industrials.

(b) Total investment return based on net asset value reflects changes in the Fund's net asset value during each period. Total return based on market value reflects changes in the market value during each period. Each figure includes reinvestments of dividend and capital gain distributions, if any. These figures will differ depending upon the level of any discount from or premium to net asset value at which the Fund's shares trade during the period.

(c) Includes the effect of a gain realized on the sale of investments not meeting investment compliance policies of the Fund. Excluding this gain, total return would have been 0.52% lower.

 Not Annualized. The ratio for the six months ended June 30, 2014 has not been annualized since the Fund believes it would not be appropriate because the Fund's dividend income is not earned ratably throughout the fiscal year.

THE NEW GERMANY FUND, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS — JUNE 30, 2014 (unaudited)

NOTE 1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The New Germany Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") was incorporated in Maryland on January 16, 1990 as a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company. The Fund commenced investment operations on January 30, 1990. The Fund became a diversified fund on October 26, 2007.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Security Valuation: The Fund calculates its net asset value ("NAV") per share for publication at 11:30 a.m., New York time.

Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Fund's investments. These inputs are summarized in three broad levels. Level 1 includes quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Level 2 includes other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds and credit risk). Level 3 includes significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments). The level assigned to the securities valuations may not be an indication of the risk or liquidity associated with investing in those securities.

Equity securities are valued at the most recent sale price or official closing price reported on the exchange (U.S. or foreign) or over-the-counter market on which they trade prior to the time of valuation. Securities for which no sales are reported are valued at the calculated mean between the most recent bid and asked quotations on the relevant market or, if a mean cannot be determined, at the most recent bid quotation. Equity securities are generally categorized as Level 1.

Investments in open-end investment companies and closed-end investment companies are valued at their NAV each business day and are categorized as Level 1.

Securities and other assets for which market quotations are not readily available or for which the above valuation procedures are deemed not to reflect fair value are valued in a manner that is intended to reflect their fair value as determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Board and are generally categorized as Level 3. In accordance with the Fund's valuation procedures, factors used in determining value may include, but are not limited to, the type of the security; the size of the holding; the initial cost of the security; the existence of any contractual restrictions on the security's disposition; the price and extent of public trading in similar securities of the issuer or of comparable companies; quotations or evaluated prices from broker-dealers and/or the appropriate stock exchange (for exchange-traded securities); an analysis of the company's or issuer's financial statements; an evaluation of the forces that influence the issuer and the market(s) in which the security is purchased and sold; and, with respect to debt securities, the maturity, coupon, creditworthiness, currency denomination and the movement of the market in which the security is normally traded. The value determined under these procedures may differ from published values for the same securities.

Disclosure about the classification of the fair value measurements is included in a table following the Fund's Schedule of Investments.

Securities Transactions and Investment Income: Investment transactions are accounted for on a trade date plus one basis for daily NAV calculation. However, for financial reporting purposes, investment security transactions are reported on trade date. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date net of foreign withholding taxes. Certain dividends from foreign securities may be recorded subsequent to the ex-dividend date as soon as the Fund is informed of such dividends. Realized gains and losses from investment transactions are recorded on an identified cost basis. Proceeds from litigation payments, if any, are included in net realized gain (loss) for investments.

Securities Lending: Brown Brothers Harriman & Co., as lending agent, lends securities of the Fund to certain financial institutions under the terms of the Security Lending

THE NEW GERMANY FUND, INC.

Agreement. The Fund retains the benefits of owning the securities it has loaned and continues to receive interest and dividends generated by the securities and to participate in any changes in their market value. The Fund requires the borrowers of the securities to maintain collateral with the Fund consisting of either cash or liquid, unencumbered assets having a value at least equal to the value of the securities loaned. When the collateral falls below specified amounts, the lending agent will use its best effort to obtain additional collateral on the next business day to meet required amounts under the security lending agreement. The Fund may invest the cash collateral into a joint trading account in an affiliated money market fund pursuant to Exemptive Orders issued by the SEC. Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. receives a management/administration fee (0.12% annualized effective rate as of June 30, 2014) on the cash collateral invested in the affiliated money fund. The Fund receives compensation for lending its securities either in the form of fees or by earning interest on invested cash collateral net of borrower rebates and fees paid to a lending agent. Either the Fund or the borrower may terminate the loan. There may be risks of delay and costs in recovery of securities or even loss of rights in the collateral should the borrower of the securities fail financially. If the Fund is not able to recover securities lent, the Fund may sell the collateral and purchase a replacement investment in the market, incurring the risk that the value of the replacement security is greater than the value of the collateral. The Fund is also subject to all investment risks associated with the reinvestment of any cash collateral received including, but not limited to, interest rate, credit and liquidity risk associated with such investments.

As of the six months ended June 30, 2014, the Fund had securities on loan. The value of the related collateral exceeded the value of the securities loaned at period end.

Foreign Currency Translation: The books and records of the Fund are maintained in United States dollars ("USD").

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currency are translated into United States dollars at the 11:00 a.m. midpoint of the buying and selling spot rates quoted by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. Purchases and sales of investment securities, income and expenses are translated at the rate of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions. Net realized and unrealized gains and losses on foreign currency transactions represent net gains and losses between trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, the acquisition and disposition of foreign currencies, and the difference between the amount of net investment income accrued and the U.S. dollar amount actually received. That portion of both realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments that results from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates is not separately disclosed but is included with net realized and unrealized gain/appreciation and loss/depreciation on investments.

At June 30, 2014, the exchange rate was EUR €1.00 to USD $1.37.

Contingencies: In the normal course of business, the Fund may enter into contracts with service providers that contain general indemnification clauses. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss to be remote.

Taxes: The Fund's policy is to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, which are applicable to regulated investment companies, and to distribute all of its taxable income to its shareholders.

Additionally, the Fund may be subject to taxes imposed by the governments of countries in which it invests and are generally based on income and/or capital gains earned or repatriated. Estimated tax liabilities on certain foreign securities are recorded on an accrual basis and are reflected as components of interest income or net change in unrealized gain/loss on investments. Tax liabilities realized as a result of security sales are reflected as a component of net realized gain/loss on investments.

The Fund has reviewed the tax positions for the open tax years as of December 31, 2013 and has determined that no provision for income tax and/or uncertain tax provisions is required in the Fund's financial statements. The Fund's federal tax returns for the prior three fiscal years remain open subject to examinations by the Internal Revenue Service.

THE NEW GERMANY FUND, INC.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders: The Fund records dividends and distributions to its shareholders on the ex-dividend date. The timing and character of certain income and capital gain distributions are determined annually in accordance with United States federal income tax regulations, which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These differences primarily relate to investments in foreign denominated investments, investments in foreign passive investment companies, recognition of certain foreign-currency gains (losses) as ordinary income (loss) and certain securities sold at a loss. As a result, net investment income (loss) and net realized gain (loss) on investment transactions for a reporting period may differ significantly from distributions during such period. Accordingly, the Fund may periodically make reclassifications among certain of its capital accounts without impacting the NAV of the Fund.

The tax character of current year distributions will be determined at the end of the current fiscal year.

NOTE 2. INVESTMENT ADVISORY AND ADMINISTRATION AGREEMENTS

The Fund is party to an Investment Advisory Agreement with Deutsche Asset & Wealth Management International GmbH ("DeAWMI"). The Fund also has an Administration Agreement with Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. ("DIMA"). DeAWMI and DIMA are affiliated companies.

Under the Investment Advisory Agreement with DeAWMI, DeAWMI directs the investments of the Fund in accordance with its investment objectives, policies and restrictions. DeAWMI determines the securities, instruments and other contracts relating to investments to be purchased, sold or entered into by the Fund.

The Investment Advisory Agreement provides DeAWMI with a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, at the annual rate of 0.80% of the Fund's average weekly net assets up to and including $100 million, 0.60% of such assets in excess of $100 million and up to and including $500 million, and 0.55% of such assets in excess of $500 million.

Accordingly, for the six months ended June 30, 2014, the fee pursuant to the Investment Advisory Agreement was equivalent to an annualized effective rate of 0.66% of the Fund's average daily net assets.

Under the Administration Agreement with DIMA, DIMA provides all of the non-investment advisory services to the Fund. The Administration Agreement provides DIMA with a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, of 0.20% of the Fund's average weekly net assets.

NOTE 3. TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

DeAWM Service Company ("DSC"), an affiliate of DIMA, is the transfer agent, dividend-paying agent and shareholder service agent of the Fund. Pursuant to a sub-transfer agency agreement between DSC and DST Systems, Inc. ("DST"), DSC has delegated certain transfer agent and dividend-paying agent paying functions to DST. DSC compensates DST out of the shareholder servicing fee it receives from the Fund. For the six months ended June 30, 2014, the amount charged to the Fund by DSC aggregated $11,161, of which $1,799 is unpaid.

Deutsche Bank AG, the German parent of DIMA and DeAWMI, and its affiliates may receive brokerage commissions as a result of executing agency transactions in portfolio securities on behalf of the Fund, that the Board determined were effected in compliance with the Fund's Rule 17e-1 procedures. For the six months ended June 30, 2014, Deutsche Bank did not receive brokerage commissions from the Fund.

Certain Officers of the Fund are also officers of DIMA or DeAWMI.

The Fund pays each Director not an "interested person" of DIMA or DeAWMI retainer fees plus specified amounts for attended board and committee meetings.

THE NEW GERMANY FUND, INC.

The Fund may invest cash balances in Central Cash Management Fund, which is managed by DIMA. The Fund indirectly bears its proportionate share of the expenses of Central Cash Management Fund. Central Cash Management Fund does not pay DIMA an investment management fee. Central Cash Management Fund seeks a high level of current income consistent with liquidity and the preservation of capital.

NOTE 6. SHARE REPURCHASES AND TENDER OFFERS

On July 18, 2012, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors has approved the extension of the share repurchase program permitting the Fund to repurchase up to 900,000 shares during the period August 1, 2012 through July 31, 2013. The Fund repurchased 681,860 shares between August 1, 2012 and July 31, 2013. On July 26, 2013, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved an extension of the current repurchase authorization permitting the Fund to repurchase 900,000 shares during the period from August 1, 2013 through July 31, 2014. On June 4, 2014, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved a 400,000 increase to the previously announced share repurchase authorization, resulting in a total authorization of 1,300,000 shares for repurchase during the period from August 1, 2013 through July 31, 2014. The Fund repurchased 1,074,098 shares between August 1, 2013 and June 30, 2014. On July 28, 2014, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved an extension of the current repurchase authorization permitting the Fund to repurchase up to 1,550,000 shares during the period from August 1, 2014 through July 31, 2015.

Repurchases will be made from time to time when they are believed to be in the best interest of the Fund. There can be no assurance that the Fund's repurchases or Discount Management Program will reduce the spread between the market price of the Fund's shares and its NAV per share.

Monthly updates concerning the Fund's repurchase program are available on its web site at deutschefunds.com.

On January 31, 2012, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved a new Discount Management Program (the "New Program") on the same terms as the Fund's then current program. Pursuant to the New Program, the Fund's Board of Directors approved a series of up to four consecutive semi-annual tender offers each for up to 5% of the Fund's outstanding shares of common stock at a price equal to 98% of NAV per share. The Fund will conduct a tender offer if its shares trade at an average discount to NAV of more than 10% during the applicable twelve-week measurement period.

During the first measurement period that commenced on September 10, 2012 and expired on November 30, 2012, the Fund's shares traded at an average discount to NAV of less than 10%. Therefore the Fund was not required to conduct a tender offer.

During the second measurement period that commenced on March 25, 2013 and expired on June 14, 2013, the Fund's shares traded at an average discount to NAV of 10.77%. Therefore, the Fund was required to conduct a tender offer which commenced on July 31, 2013 and expired on August 28, 2013. The Fund accepted 801,417 tendered shares at a price equal to 98% of the NAV per share as of the close of the regular trading session of the New York Stock Exchange on August 29, 2013. Approximately 9,921,048 shares of common stock, or approximately 62% of the Fund's common shares outstanding, were tendered through the expiration date. Because the offer was oversubscribed, not all of the tendered shares were accepted for payment by the Fund. Under the final pro-ration calculation, approximately 8% of the tendered shares were accepted for payment. The shares accepted for payment received cash at a repurchase price of $20.95 per share, which was equal to 98% of the NAV per share on August 29, 2013.

During the third measurement period that commenced on September 16, 2013 and expired on December 6, 2013 and the fourth measurement period that commenced on April 7, 2014 and expired on June 27, 2014, the Fund's shares traded at an average discount to NAV of less than 10%. Therefore, the Fund was not required to conduct a tender offer.

Also on July 28, 2014, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors adopted a new Discount Management Program whereby the Fund will initiate one contingent tender offer during the period from August 1, 2014 through July 31, 2015 for 5% of the Fund's shares outstanding at 98% of NAV. The terms of the Discount Management Program require the Fund to conduct a tender offer if its shares trade at an average discount to NAV of more than 10% during a fifteen-week measurement period that has been determined by the Board of Directors. A press release will be issued after the end of the Fund's measurement period detailing the measurement period dates and results.

NOTE 7. CONCENTRATION OF OWNERSHIP

From time to time, the Fund may have a concentration of several shareholder accounts holding a significant percentage of shares outstanding. Investment activities of these shareholders could have a material impact on the Fund. At June 30, 2014, there were four shareholders that held approximately 22%, 11%, 7% and 5%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the Fund.

NOTE 8. VOLUNTARY CASH PURCHASE AND DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN

At a meeting in May, the Board of Directors approved the appointment of DST Systems, Inc. as plan agent under the Fund's Voluntary Cash Purchase and Dividend Reinvestment Plan.
