FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WALTER HEWLETT COMMENTS ON HISTORIC PUBLIC DECLARATIONS AGAINST MERGER

Palo Alto, CA, March 17, 2002 Walter B. Hewlett, on behalf of The William R. Hewlett Revocable Trust and its trustees, today made the following statement regarding the public opposition to the merger of Hewlett-Packard (NYSE: HWP) with Compaq (NYSE: CPQ):

We continue to be gratified by the public statements made by investors who are against this merger. Whether counting by shares or by number of stockholders, the level of publicly announced opposition to the Compaq merger is historic and unprecedented.

We believe this level of opposition exists because so many HP stockholders have realized that the merger will cause a massive issuance of HP shares, a 35% reduction in HP stockholders' interest in Imaging and Printing, a profitable and growing business, and will cost HP an unprecedentedly high-price. And for what? To make a double down bet on commodity computing.

To date, over 55% of the registered holders (excluding the Hewlett and the Packard interests) have already voted AGAINST the merger on the GREEN proxy card. This includes a very significant number of HP employees, retirees and long-term holders of HP stock. This majority demonstrates widespread opposition to the proposed merger.

The fact that over 20 major institutions have publicly declared their intent to vote AGAINST the merger is not only rare but is indicative of the depth of opposition to the transaction.

Customers have also indicated in significant numbers their concern about an HP/Compaq merger. Even in HP's own surveys this level of concern is substantial.

For mergers to succeed they need broad support. Ask yourself: If this transaction is opposed by so many stockholders, employees and customers, how can it be the right strategic path for HP's future? Stockholders who have not yet voted or have voted for the merger should act now and vote AGAINST.

HP is run by its Board of Directors and management but at the end of the day, HP is not owned by the fiduciaries that act for HP stockholders, but rather by the stockholders themselves. Regarding a matter of such crucial importance as what kind of company HP will be, this is a decision the HP stockholders will themselves decide. More and more stockholders are deciding that they do not want HP to be a weakened manufacturer of low margin computers, and are telling the board publicly that they will not vote for this merger.

We would like to thank all of those who have to date announced that they are voting AGAINST the transaction. These institutions who have disclosed their intent include Banc of America Capital Management, Brandes Investment Partners, The California Public Employees Retirement System, The California State Teachers Retirement System, Dreman Value Management, Fifth Third Asset Management, Loomis Sayles, Matrix Asset Advisors, The New York State Common Retirement System Fund, The New York State Teachers Retirement System, Northstar Asset Management, The Ohio Public Employees Retirement System, The Ontario Teachers Pension Plan, Parnassus Investments, The Public Employees Retirement Association of Colorado, Robert E. Torray & Co., The State of Michigan Retirement Systems, Safeco Asset Management, Victory Capital Management and Wells Fargo.

HP has spent and continues to spend what we estimate to be in the neighborhood of $150 million of HP stockholders' money on a campaign to sell the proposed merger. This is what we believe to be the most EVER spent by any company in any contested merger vote. This includes a last-ditch effort of a costly mailgram to stockholders that follows at least eight HP mailings, which together have cost an estimated $50 million of the total $150 million. In the past months, HP has employed an unprecedented barrage of millions of dollars of advertising in newspapers and magazines, on the Internet, and even billboards in New York's Times Square, all of this in an effort to sell a transaction that the market has continued to oppose. What a waste of stockholders' money for a $25 billion mistake.

Last minute voting instructions. If your shares are held by a bank or broker and you have not yet voted or have voted FOR and want to change your mind, fax your GREEN proxy (or a WHITE one voting AGAINST) to 631-254-7622, attention: VOTE PROCESSING.

Remember, if you already voted a WHITE proxy for the merger and wish to change your vote you have every legal right to do so. Fax your GREEN proxy (or a WHITE one voting AGAINST) to 631-254-7622, attention: VOTE PROCESSING.

If you are a registered stockholder holding your shares directly or a participant in HP's Employee Stock Purchase Plan (ESPP) fax your GREEN proxy to MacKenzie Partners at 212-929-0308.

If you recently received a proxy mailgram from HP management, you can use that proxy mailgram to vote AGAINST the proposed merger. Simply mark the box AGAINST and follow the directions.
