IMPROVED CORPORATE GOVERNANCE FOR AT&T COMCAST SHAREHOLDERS

Comcast

- o Roberts family has 3% of stock but 87% of vote
- o Roberts family controls all matters requiring shareholder approval
- o Comcast shareholders have few corporate governance-based rights

AT&T Comcast

- o Roberts family voting rights limited to 33% of voting rights
- o For 10 years:
 - * Roberts family cannot receive a control premium not shared with public shareholders
 - * Roberts family cannot sell shares outside family without approval of public shareholders
- o Majority of Board to consist of independent directors
- o For 2005 election and beyond, independent directors are the majority of the nominating committee
- o Shareholders have right to elect all directors after first full year of new Company's operations
- o Annual election of all directors (67% of S&P 500 companies have staggered elections)

Edgar Filing: AT&T CORP - Form DEFA14A

- o Shareholders have ability to nominate and replace directors

14

RISKS OF VOTING AGAINST THE AT&T COMCAST CHARTER PROVISION

- o Voting down the charter provision effectively terminates the merger
- o Failure to complete merger leaves AT&T with a large debt burden
- o Alternative debt-reduction strategies could result in lower value for AT&T shareholders, have onerous tax consequences, and have execution risk
- o Other strategic alternatives offered less attractive economics and corporate governance, and higher execution risks
- o No assurance that Comcast will renegotiate charter provisions

15

[AT&T LOGO]

AT&T CONSUMER TRACKING STOCK PROPOSAL

- o Maximize value to shareholders by creation of separate securities for distinctly different businesses
 - * Consumer - income-oriented investors
 - * Business - value-oriented investors
- o Due to regulatory and financial limitations, tracking stock was best alternative
- o Anticipated to be a tax-free distribution to shareholders; not a targeted public offering
- o Issue when and if appropriate market receptivity exists
- o Expected to have a meaningful dividend
- o No negative corporate governance tie-ins bundled into creation of tracking stock

Edgar Filing: AT&T CORP - Form DEFA14A

- * Tracking stock incentive thresholds and employee stock purchase plans meet ISS guidelines
- o Voting rights balanced to economic interest

16

[AT&T LOGO]

DIFFERENTIATION OF AT&T CONSUMER SERVICES

Business Strategy /
Growth Initiatives

- o Strategic standalone business with industry-leading assets

Management

- o Includes complete leadership team, including CEO; extensive experience in relevant industries

Financial Strength

- o Prudent capitalization; strong balance sheet of parent

Dividend Policy

- o 2/3rds of current dividends would be allocated to tracking stock

Operating Performance

- o Consistently met or exceeded expectations

17

[AT&T LOGO]

REVERSE STOCK SPLIT

- o 1-for-5 reverse stock split reduces shares outstanding from 3.6 billion to approximately 700 million
- * Shares outstanding will be in line with level prior to cable acquisitions

Edgar Filing: AT&T CORP - Form DEFA14A

- * Targeted for implementation concurrent with the close of the AT&T Comcast transaction
- * Authorized common shares proportionately reduced to eliminate excess issuable shares
- o Maintains maximum flexibility for institutional holders
- o Brings stock price in line with other companies in broad market indices

[AT&T LOGO]

CONCLUSION: AT&T RESTRUCTURING PROPOSALS SUMMARY

- o AT&T Comcast provides AT&T shareholders with best value and future growth prospects for AT&T Broadband business
- o AT&T Comcast merger results in best deleveraging outcome for the remaining AT&T enterprise and best foundation for shareholder value creation
- o Consumer Services Tracking Stock offers potential value in appropriate market conditions, and provides greater transparency to distinctly different businesses
- o AT&T Comcast and Tracking Stock governance issues were carefully considered and addressed by the AT&T Board of Directors
- o Failure to support AT&T Comcast charter puts shareholders at risk

We urge AT&T shareholders to vote FOR the restructuring proposals
