TARO PROVIDES PRELIMINARY 2011 FULL YEAR AND Q4 RESULTS

Hawthorne, NY, February 10, 2012 - Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. ("Taro," or the "Company," Pink Sheets: TAROF) today provided unaudited financial results for the quarter and full year ended December 31, 2011.

Fourth Quarter 2011 Highlights vs. 2010

Net sales of $148.1 million, increased $45.5 million, or 44.3%,
Gross profit, as a percentage of net sales was 71.6%, compared to 59.6%, principally driven by increased selling prices on select products in the U.S. market as overall volumes were flat,
Selling, marketing, general and administrative expenses decreased $6.2 million, or 22.0%,
Operating income of $74.5 million, or 50.3% of net sales, compared to $21.6 million, or 21.0% of net sales,
Net income was negatively impacted by foreign exchange (FX) expense of $6.3 million, compared to $3.7 million,
Net income attributable to Taro was $62.4 million, compared to $16.5 million, an increase of $45.9 million, resulting in diluted earnings per share of $1.40 compared to $0.38.

Year to Date 2011 Highlights vs. 2010

Net sales of $505.7 million, increased $113.1 million, or 28.8%,
Gross profit, as a percentage of net sales was 65.2%, compared to 59.5%,
Selling, marketing, general and administrative expenses decreased $14.0 million, or 13.0%,
Operating income of $204.0 million, or 40.3% of net sales, compared to $86.5 million, or 22.0% of net sales,
Net income was favorably impacted by FX income of $6.9 million, compared to FX expense of $5.3 million - a $12.2 million benefit,
Net income attributable to Taro was $182.7 million compared to $64.1 million, a $118.6 million increase, resulting in diluted earnings per share of $4.11 compared to $1.53.

Taro's Interim Chief Executive Officer, Jim Kedrowski, stated, "We are very pleased with both 2011's fourth quarter and full year performance. The successful execution of our strategic plans and changes we have implemented are reflected in these solid financial results. The Company's performance across all markets was very positive, however, a significant portion of the quarter's growth in net sales and profits was derived from price increases on select products in the U.S. market and may not be sustainable."

Cash Flows and Balance Sheet Highlights

Cash flows from operations were $181.4 million compared to $70.5 million in 2010, Cash, including marketable securities, increased $170.0 million from December 31, 2010 to $258.8 million, Trade accounts receivable increased primarily from increased sales in the U.S., Other receivables and prepaid expenses increased primarily as a result of increases in current deferred tax assets, Inventories increased due to our strategic focus to increase inventory levels to better serve our customers, Other assets decreased due to the utilization of deferred tax assets in the U.S., Total debt decreased $14.7 million to $44.7 million at December 31, 2011, Trade payables and other current liabilities increased largely due to increases in taxes payable in Canada and Israel and Medicaid and indirect rebates in the U.S.

FDA Filings

During the quarter, Taro filed an Abbreviated New Drug Application (“ANDA”) for one product with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (“FDA”). For the year, Taro has filed ANDAs for three products and has received approval for ANDAs representing seven products. Additionally, ANDAs for 23 products (including four tentative approvals) and one New Drug Application await FDA approval.

The Company cautions that the foregoing financial information is presented on an unaudited basis and is subject to change. Final audited results will be included in the Company's Form 20-F to be filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) in April 2012.

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENTS

The unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the same basis as the annual consolidated financial statements and, in the opinion of management, reflect all adjustments necessary to present fairly the financial condition and results of operations of the Company. The unaudited consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements included in the Company's report on Form 20-F, as filed with the SEC.

Certain statements in this release are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, but are not limited to, statements that do not describe historical facts and statements that refer or relate to events or circumstances the Company “estimates,” “believes,” or “expects” to happen or similar language, and statements with respect to the Company's financial performance, availability of financial information, and estimates of financial results and financial information for 2011. Although the Company believes the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements to be based on reasonable assumptions, it can give no assurances that its expectations will be attained. Factors that could cause actual results to differ include the evaluation of the Sun Pharma tender offer by Taro's Board of Directors, acceptance of the offer by Taro Shareholders, approval, if any required, by regulatory authorities, the possible unavailability of financial information, actions of the Company's lenders and creditors, general domestic and international economic conditions, industry and market conditions, changes in the Company's financial position, litigation brought by any party in any court in Israel, the United States, or any country in which Taro operates, regulatory actions and legislative actions in the countries in which Taro operates, and other risks detailed from time to time in the Company's SEC reports, including its Annual Reports on Form 20-F. Forward-looking statements are applicable only as of the date on which they are made. The Company undertakes no obligations to update, change or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, additional or subsequent developments or otherwise.
