AUSTINS' DISSIDENTS CHANGE PLANS AGAIN
SHAREHOLDERS MEETING CANCELLED

ROANOKE, VA. (SEPTEMBER 6, 2002)--The four dissident shareholders of Austins Steaks and Saloon, Inc. (OTC Bulletin Board: STAK), parent company of The Western Sizzlin Corporation, have cancelled their request for a special shareholders meeting where a decision was to be made on the composition of the Board of Directors.

Austins had announced yesterday that the Company had called the meeting for October 14 in Atlanta at the request of the dissidents. However, the dissidents revoked their request today.

"The Company is attempting to comply with the requests of the dissidents," said Vic Foti, CEO/President of Austins, "but they now have changed their minds twice. We apologize for any confusion or inconvenience this latest change may have on our shareholders."

Originally, the dissidents attempted to replace six members of the Board through what is called a "consent solicitation," in which shareholders are asked to act without a meeting. Then, they changed their strategy and requested a special shareholders meeting. Now, they have changed their minds again and have resorted to the "consent solicitation" method a second time.

"The dissidents seem to be confused about how to go about the process, so shareholders may well have doubts about their claims that they can improve the performance of the Company," said Foti.

Austins Board of Directors is opposing the attempt by the four dissident shareholders to remove six of the nine directors and elect new board members. "The four have been long time franchisees and were supportive of actions of the Board when they were Board members," said Foti. "They all have been a part of the reason we are where we are today. We urge shareholders not to sign any materials from the dissidents," said Foti.
