Notice to the Market

COSAN S.A. INDÚSTRIA E COMÉRCIO (Bovespa: CSAN3) hereby announces that, on December 31st. 2009, Cosan has become part of list of employers according to the regulation “Portaria 540/04”. Such regulation determines that a list of employers which have maintained workers under irregular working conditions may be publicized.

Cosan clarifies that the alleged reason for the inclusion of its name on the referred list is related to a services provider to sugarcane suppliers which are also part of Cosan's supply network having infringed a labor regulation in 2007. At that time, a company named José Luiz Bispo Colheita – ME, which provided services to several sugarcane growers in the State of São Paulo, was subject to an investigation from the Ministry of Labor that resulted in findings for unsuitable lodging conditions for José Luiz Bispo Colheita – ME’s employees. Cosan ended up getting involved in the process as jointly liable for such irregularities.

Cosan had no knowledge, at the time, that the company José Luiz Bispo Colheita – ME was infringing such labor rights. Cosan has strict internal policies to comply with the applicable law related to its business. Aware of its social responsibility Cosan in good faith later on adopted several measures among which the payment of all expenses necessary for the regularization of such workers’ lodging conditions. Cosan also took measures to exclude José Luiz Bispo Colheita – ME from its sugarcane supply network.

Cosan vehemently repudiates any kind of practice that infringes labor rights of its employees and the employees of its partners or suppliers. Cosan Group has more than 40.000 employees all lawfully hired according to the Brazilian labor rights (all CLT employees), and develops a strong leadership role with the Federal and Regional Governments in an effort to regulate and improve work conditions in the whole agribusiness productive chain.

Cosan was taken by surprise by the recent events. The company clarifies that it wasn’t aware of the process of its inclusion in the referred list, therefore was deprived from its constitutional right to defend itself against such inclusion. Cosan shall immediately pursue all necessary legal and administrative measures in order to get its name excluded from this list as it considers it to be both untimely and abusive.
