Item 3.03 Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

On September 14, 2010, the board of directors (the Board) of Western Alliance Bancorporation (the Company) (1) approved an amendment to the Company's Amendment and Restated By-laws (the By-laws Amendment) to prohibit certain acquisitions of the Company's common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (Common Stock), (2) approved, subject to the approval of the Company's stockholders, an amendment to the Company's Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended (the Articles Amendment), to prohibit certain acquisitions of Common Stock, and (3) called a Special Meeting of the Company's stockholders to be held on November 30, 2010 (the Special Meeting), to vote on the Articles Amendment.

The terms of the By-laws Amendment and Articles Amendment are identical in substance. They are intended to protect the Company's ability to use certain tax assets, such as net operating loss carryforwards, capital loss carryforwards and certain built-in losses (the Tax Benefits), to offset future taxable income. If the Company were to experience an ownership change, as defined in Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code), its ability to utilize these Tax Benefits to offset future taxable income could be significantly limited. Generally, an ownership change will occur if the percentage of the Common Stock owned by one or more five percent stockholders increases by more than 50 percentage points over the lowest percentage of stock owned by such stockholders at any time during the prior three-year period.

The By-laws Amendment is intended to reduce the likelihood that the Company will experience an ownership change by prohibiting any Person (as defined below) from acquiring shares if such acquisition would result in a Person owning 4.9% or more of the outstanding shares of the Company's then-outstanding Common Stock, or any existing 4.9% or greater holder from acquiring any additional shares of Common Stock, in each case, without the written approval of the Board. The Board may approve an acquisition that would otherwise violate the restrictions of the By-laws Amendment, if the Board determines that such acquisition is in the best interests of the Company. As used herein, Person means any individual or legal entity, including a group of persons treated as an entity pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.382-3(a)(1)(i).

For purposes of determining the existence and identity of, and the amount of Common Stock owned by, any stockholder, the Company is entitled to rely on the existence or absence of filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission of Schedules 13D and 13G (or any similar filings) as of any date, subject to the Company's actual knowledge of the ownership of its Common Stock.

The By-laws Amendment will expire on the earlier of: (i) the repeal of Section 382 of the Code or any successor statute if the Board expressly determines that the By-laws Amendment is no longer necessary for the preservation of Tax Benefits, (ii) the beginning of a taxable year of the Company to which the Board determines that no Tax Benefits may be carried forward, or (iii) December 31, 2013. The Board is also permitted to accelerate or extend the expiration date of the By-laws Amendment to the extent it deems necessary or advisable to protect or preserve the Tax Benefits.

The foregoing is a description and summary of the By-law Amendment, and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the By-laws Amendment (as adopted and effective on September 14, 2010), which is filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on 8-K.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

The information set forth under Item 3.03 of this Current Report on Form 8-K with respect to the By-laws Amendment is incorporated into this Item 5.03 by reference.
