Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On January 6, 2005, Big Lots, Inc. (the Company) provided a retention package (the Retention Package) to certain of its officers (the Affected Officers). The purpose of the Retention Package was to provide additional incentives for the Affected Officers to remain with the Company while it selected and integrated a new Chief Executive Officer. As a part of the Retention Package, the Company awarded to the Affected Officers restricted common shares of the Company. The restricted stock awards were made in accordance with the Company's 1996 Performance Incentive Plan, as amended, and a Restricted Stock Award Agreement dated January 6, 2005. The restricted stock awards vest equally over a three year period and will fully vest if the Affected Officer is involuntarily terminated for any reason other than cause before the lapse of such three year period. The restricted stock grants will be forfeited, in whole or in part, as applicable, if the Affected Officer voluntarily terminates his or her employment or if the Affected Officer is terminated for cause before all shares have vested.

Unless the Affected Officer makes a special election under Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Affected Officer is required to pay income taxes on the restricted shares when, if and to the extent the shares vest, and the Company is required to withhold taxes in an equal amount. Upon vesting, each Affected Officer also has the option of surrendering a portion of his or her shares in order to allow the Company to satisfy its tax withholding obligation. The Company believes that each of the Affected Officers surrendered or otherwise disposed of shares to pay the income taxes and, in accordance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Act), each of the Affected Officers that is an officer (as such term is defined by Rule 16a-1 of the Act) has caused or will cause a Form 4 to be filed to report his or her disposition of the Company's shares.

By furnishing the information in this Item 7.01 and the exhibits to this Form 8-K, the Company is not making an admission as to the materiality of any information in this Form 8-K or any exhibit.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
