NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1-- ORGANIZATION

Nature of Business

I-Trax.com, Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated in the state of Delaware on May 23, 1969 under the name Marmac Corporation. During December 1979, the Company changed its name to I-Trax Industries International, Inc. During April 1996, in connection with the acquisition of assets and the assumption of liabilities of various medical practices (which reverted back to the original owners during 1997), the Company changed its name to U.S. Medical Alliance, Inc. The Company, on August 27, 1999, changed its name to I-Trax.com, Inc. prior to the merger discussed below.

Edgar Filing: I TRAX INC - Form 10QSB/A

Prior to the Company's considering a merger with Memberlink, on September 3, 1999, it had entered into a Software and Proprietary Product Corporate License Agreement ("License Agreement"), a Technical Service Agreement ("Technical Agreement") and a Management Service Agreement ("Management Agreement") with Memberlink for the use and exploitation of certain proprietary software created by Memberlink. In consideration for the technical and management support from Memberlink, the Company paid a $10,000 per month management fee to Memberlink and issued an aggregate of 2,000,000 shares of its common stock to its officers and to key personnel responsible for the successful implementation and customization of the proprietary software. As consideration for the license, the Company issued 3,000,000 shares to Member Link Systems, Inc. ("Memberlink"), which were subsequently cancelled as a result of the merger discussed below.

Pursuant to a merger agreement dated as of December 14, 1999 (with an effective date of December 30, 1999), the Company issued 8,000,082 shares of its common stock in exchange for all the issued and outstanding common stock of Member-Link Systems, Inc. ("Memberlink"). Memberlink, also a Delaware corporation, was a health information technology company which had developed certain software technology which it sold and licensed to various organizations, including but not limited to governmental agencies.

I-TRAX.COM, INC. NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1-- ORGANIZATION (cont'd)

Nature of Business (cont'd)

The merger of the Company and Memberlink has been treated as a recapitalization of Memberlink with Memberlink as the accounting acquirer (reverse acquisition). The accompanying financial statements reflect this transaction as if it had occurred on January 1, 1998. Such transaction is considered a capital transaction whereby Memberlink contributed its stock for the net assets of the Company. Upon consummation of the merger on December 30, 1999, the shareholders of Memberlink received 8,000,082 shares of the Company's common stock, which in addition to the previously owned shares represented 60% of the outstanding common stock immediately after the merger. Simultaneously with the merger, Memberlink's former President was elected as the Company's President. Upon consummation of the merger transaction the Company was recapitalized and Memberlink ceased to exist with the Company being the surviving entity. No goodwill or intangibles were recorded as the public shell (the Company) only had nominal assets and based on the reverse acquisition accounting rules, the merger is valued at the net tangible assets of the Company.

The Company has incurred substantial losses since incorporation. As of June 30, 2000, the accumulated deficit was $2,619,183. Moreover, the Company expects that its operating losses will continue for the foreseeable future. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is primarily based on raising sufficient equity to meet its objectives

NOTE 2-- INTERIM RESULTS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instruction to Form 10-QSB and Items 303 and 310(B) of Regulation S-B. In the opinion of management, the unaudited financial statements have been prepared on the same basis as the annual financial statements and reflect all adjustments, which include only normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the financial position as of June 30, 2000 and the results of the operations and cash flows for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2000 and 1999. The results for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2000 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for any subsequent quarter or the entire fiscal year ending December 31, 2000. The balance sheet at December 31, 1999 has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date.

I-TRAX.COM, INC. NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

NOTE 2-- INTERIM RESULTS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION (cont'd)

The Company recognizes revenues in accordance with Statement of Position 97-2 "Software Revenue Recognition" as further modified by Statement of Position 98-9 "Modification of SOP 97-2, "Software Revenue Recognition with Respect to Certain Transactions". SOP 97-2 was effective January 1, 1998 and generally requires revenue earned on software arrangements involving multiple elements such as software products, upgrades, enhancements, post-contract customer support, installation and training to be allocated to each element based on the relative fair value of the elements. SOP 98-9 amends SOP 97-2 to require that an entity recognize revenue for multiple element arrangements by means of the "residual method" when (1) there is vendor-specific objective evidence ("VSOE") of the fair values of all the undelivered elements that are not accounted for by means of long-term contract accounting, (2) VSOE of fair value does not exist for one or more of the delivered elements, and (3) all revenue recognition criteria of SOP 97-2 (other than the requirement for VSOE of the fair value of each delivered element) are satisfied.

Revenue from software development contracts is recognized on a percentage-of-completion method with progress to completion measured based upon labor hours incurred or achievement of contract milestones.

Revenue from re-sale of hardware and software, obtained from vendors, is recognized at the time hardware and software is delivered to customers.

Deferred revenue represents funds received in advance in excess of revenue recognized.

Software Development Costs

In accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) No. 86, Accounting for the Costs of Computer Software to be Sold, Leased or Otherwise Marketed, the Company capitalizes software development and production costs once technological feasibility has been achieved. Software development costs incurred prior to achieving technological feasibility are included in research and development expense in the accompanying statement of operations.

Capitalized software development costs are reported at the lower of unamortized cost or net realizable value. Commencing upon the initial product release or when software development revenue has begun to be recognized, these costs are amortized, based on current and future revenue for each product with an annual minimum equal to the straight-line amortization over the remaining estimated economic life of the product, generally two to five years.

NOTE 2-- INTERIM RESULTS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION (cont'd)

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and regulations. It is suggested that these unaudited financial statements be read in conjunction with our audited financial statements and notes thereto for the year ended December 31, 1999 as included in our report on Form 10-SB filed on April 10, 2000.

NOTE 3-- CONVERTIBLE NOTE PAYABLE

The $37,500 convertible note payable was repaid in full during the quarter ended March 31, 2000.

NOTE 4-- DUE TO RELATED PARTIES

Due to related parties as of June 30, 2000 amounting to $48,048 is comprised of the following:

- i) Advances made by a former officer of Memberlink amounting to $35,683. The former officer and current shareholder of the Company had agreed to a repayment schedule at a rate of

Edgar Filing: I TRAX INC - Form 10QSB/A

$3,000 per month until fully paid, without interest, commencing April 2000. During July 2000, such note was converted into common stock in connection with the Company's confidential private placement memorandum. (See note 6 (c)).

- ii) Advances made by a current officer of the Company (previously an officer of Memberlink) amounting to $679. The amount is due on demand and is non-interest bearing.
- iii) Advances made by a relative of the officer discussed in (ii) above amounting to $11,686. The amount is also due on demand and is non-interest bearing.

NOTE 5 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

a) Lack of Insurance

The Company, through March 14, 2000, did not maintain any liability insurance or any other form of general insurance. Although the Company is not aware of any claims resulting from product malfunctions or any other type, there is no assurance that none exists.

b) Significant customers and vendors

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2000, the Company had two unrelated customers, which accounted for 52% and 48% of total revenues. For the three and six months ended June 30, 1999, the Company had one unrelated customer, which accounted for 100% and 86% of total revenues. As of June 30, 2000, the Company had three unrelated customers, which accounted for 13%, 13% and 64%, respectively of accounts receivables.

(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 5 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES (cont'd)

c) Office Lease

On October 22, 1999, the Company entered into a non-cancelable lease agreement for its technology and product development office pursuant to a five year lease expiring October 31, 2004 with annual rent at approximately $162,000 before annual escalations.

On April 10, 2000, the Company entered into a non-cancelable lease agreement for its executive offices pursuant to a five year lease expiring June 29, 2005 with annual rent of approximately $123,000 per year before annual escalations.

The Company's approximate future minimum rental payments under non-cancelable operating leases in effect on June 30, 2000 are as follows:

2000	$	189,888
2001		292,005
2002		299,315
2003		306,804
2004		284,152
Thereafter		66,390

	$	1,438,554

Prior to October 1999, the Company rented office space on a month to month basis at a rate of approximately $2,500 per month.

Rent expense for the three months ended June 30, 2000 and 1999 amounted to approximately $58,000 and $10,500, respectively. Rent expense for the six months ended June 30, 2000 and 1999 amounted to approximately $102,000 and $18,000, respectively.

d) Employment Agreements

i) On June 1, 1999, Memberlink entered into three employment agreements with certain officers of the Company. The employment agreements expire on May 31, 2002 with annual salaries ranging from $125,000 to $175,000. Subsequent to December 31, 1999, the Company began renegotiating two of these employment agreements. The third of these employment agreements was terminated pursuant to a Settlement Agreement effective April 4, 2000. In the Settlement Agreement, the Company agreed to pay the terminated employee $50,000, payable in $10,000 monthly installments commencing April 15, 2000 as settlement payments for which such employee is to continue to render services as requested by the Company during the period of such installments. The Company also agreed to arrange for the sale of 70,000 shares of common stock in the Company held by the employee at a price of $1.25 per share which was deemed to be the market value at date of settlement.

I-TRAX.COM, INC. NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

d) Employment Agreements (cont'd)

ii) The Company entered into an employment agreement on November 29, 1999, with an individual to act as the Company's Chief Medical Officer at an annual salary of $85,000. In addition, the Company agreed to grant options to purchase 100,000 shares of common stock in accordance with the Company's newly established 2000 Equity Compensation Plan (see note 6(c)). Such options will vest in increments to be determined, but in no event, later than November 29, 2002.

e) Judgments

Edgar Filing: I TRAX INC - Form 10QSB/A

During 1998, several judgments were entered against the Company while it was operating as U.S. Medical Alliance, relating to, among other things, the Company's prior line of business of managing physician practices. The allegations made in the underlying suits relate to wrongful discharge, general breach of contract, breach of equipment lease agreements and miscellaneous vendor claims. The aggregate amount of such judgements entered against the Company and certain associated physicians was approximately $600,000. As of June 30, 2000, the Company has settled one of the judgements of $43,875 for $35,000. Such payment has been applied first to the $22,500 reserve the Company had established as of December 31, 1999 with the remaining balance of $12,500 charged to operations.

The remaining outstanding judgments are currently being negotiated for settlements. The Company estimates that the remaining judgments will be settled for an aggregate of approximately $164,000, for which an accrual has been made as of June 30, 2000 and included in accounts payable and accrued expenses.

f) Profit sharing plan

During the second quarter 2000, the Company established a 401(k) profit sharing plan covering certain qualified employees, which includes employer participation in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The plan allows participant to make pretax contributions and the Company matches certain percentages of employee contributions depending on a number of factors including the participant's length of service. The profit sharing portion of the plan is discretionary and noncontributory. All amounts contributed to the plan are deposited into a trust fund administered by an independent trustee. As of June 30, 2000 no contributions have been made by the Company.

g) Capital lease obligation

In April 2000, the Company acquired a telephone system for $34,290 by entering into capital lease obligations with interest at approximately 10.1% per annum, requiring 60 monthly payments of $731 which include principal and interest. The lease is secured by the related equipment.

Less: Amounting representing interest		9,564

Edgar Filing: I TRAX INC - Form 10QSB/A

Present value of net minimum lease payments	$	34,290

At June 30, 2000 computer equipment under capital leases are carried at a book value of $34,290.

NOTE 6-- STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

a) Sale of common stock

During January and February 2000, the Company sold an aggregate of 1,800,000 shares of its common stock at $1 per share yielding net proceeds of approximately $1,794,881 after certain offering expenses. Such shares were sold pursuant to Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933.

b) 2000 Equity Compensation Plan

During February 2000 (as amended during March 2000), the Company established the 2000 Equity Compensation Plan (the "Plan") to provide (i) designated employees of the Company and its subsidiaries, (ii) certain consultants and advisors who perform services for the Company or its subsidiaries, and (iii) non-employee members of the Board of Directors of the Company with the opportunity to receive grants of incentive stock options, non-qualified stock options and restricted stock. The aggregate number of shares of common stock of the Company that may be issued or transferred under the Plan is 3,000,000 shares. The maximum aggregate number of shares of common stock that shall be subject to grants made under the Plan to any individual during any calendar year shall be 350,000 shares. The exercise price of any incentive stock option granted under the plan shall not be less than the fair market value of the stock on the date of grant, as determined in good faith by the board of directors.

Through June 30, 2000, the Company has granted an aggregate of 1,505,500 incentive and non-qualified stock options pursuant to the above plan with exercise prices ranging between $1 and $2 per share. Such options are subject to various vesting periods ranging from June 2000 to May 2003.

In addition, during the six months ended June 30, 2000, the Company granted 265,000 non-plan options to consultants. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2000, the Company recorded $127,500 and $240,000 consulting expenses on account of such options.

on the grant date, allows companies to continue applying APB 25 if certain pro forma disclosures are made assuming hypothetical fair value method application. The Company has elected not to disclose any pro forma disclosures since it has determined that the hypothetical fair value of the options is equal to or less than the exercise price of the options.

c) Confidential Private Placement Memorandum

During May 2000, the Company commenced the May 2000 Confidential Private Placement Memorandum ("the Offering") pursuant to Rule 506 of Regulation D under the securities act of 1933. The offering was initially comprised of 1,000,000 shares of its $.001 par value common stock at $2 per share. As of June 30, 2000, no shares were sold by the Company. Through the middle of July, the Company has sold an aggregate of 674,750 shares yielding proceeds of $1,349,500. During July 2000, the Board of Directors approved an amendment to the offering by increasing the number of shares offered from 1,000,000 to 2,500,000 with the same $2 per share price.

NOTE 7-- SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Letter of Intent

During July 2000, the Company entered into a non-binding letter of intent to exchange its common stock for all outstanding membership interest of iSummit, LLC, a privately held, New York City based company doing business under the name MyFamilyMD. As a result of this transaction, MyFamilyMD will become wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

The Company expects to issue up to five million shares of its common stock in this transaction. Two million of the five million shares are forfeitable depending on whether MyFamilyMD achieves certain performance targets mutually established by the parties.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Basis of Presentation

The following discussion of the financial condition and related results of operations of I-Trax.com, Inc. (the "Company") should be reviewed in conjunction with the financial statements of the Company and related notes appearing on the preceding pages as well as the Company's audited financial statement for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1999, attached to our Registration Statement on Form 10-SB, filed on April 10, 2000, and the Company's unaudited financial statements for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2000.

Unaudited results of operations for the three and six months periods ended June 30, 2000 are compared to the unaudited results of operations for the comparable periods ended June 30, 1999. Such information is based upon the historical financial information available as of the dates indicated. Results of operations for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2000 are not necessarily indicative of results to be attained for any other period.

Statements regarding the Company's expectations as to financial results and other aspects of its business set forth herein or otherwise made in writing or orally by the Company may constitute forward looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Although the Company believes that its expectations are based on reasonable assumptions within the bounds of its knowledge of its business and operations, there can be no assurance that actual results will not differ materially from its expectations. Factors that might cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, uncertainty of future profitability, changing economic conditions and demand for the Company's products.

Introduction

We were incorporated in the State of Delaware under the name of Marmac Corporation in May 1969. In December 1979, we changed the Company's name to Ibox Industries International, Inc. On April 1, 1996, we purchased the assets of certain physician practices, changed the Company's name to U.S. Medical Alliance, Inc., and commenced operations as a physician practice management company.

As U.S. Medical Alliance, we completed one additional physician practice acquisition. However, we did not have adequate liquidity and capital resources to withstand the downturn in the physician practice management industry, nor the ability to acquire profitable physician practices.

During 1997, the Company, formerly known as US Medical Alliance, Inc., ceased doing its business activities as a physician practice management company and embarked on a program of winding down such activities, returning physician practice assets to physicians in exchange for cancellation of stock in the Company issued for such assets, and settling its obligations. During 1998, the Company had no operations. In August, 1999, six principal stockholders of the Company purchased 4,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock for $400,000 to raise working capital which enabled the Company to enter into a license agreement, a technical services agreement and a management services agreement with Member-Link Systems, Inc. ("Member-Link"), a health information technology company, to own and develop the Internet application of an immunization tracking system known as "I-Trax." As consideration for these agreements, we issued 3,000,000 shares of our Common Stock to Member-Link and an aggregate of 2,000,000 shares of our Common Stock to certain executive officers of Member-Link. We also changed our name to "I-Trax.com, Inc." on August 27, 1999.

Effective as of December 30, 1999, Member-Link merged with and into us pursuant to a Merger Agreement dated as of December 14, 1999. In the merger, each of the 1,809,686 outstanding shares of Common Stock of Member-Link was converted into a right to receive 4.4207 shares of our Common Stock. An aggregate of 8,000,082 shares of our Common Stock was issued in the merger. The 3,000,000 shares of our Common Stock held of record by Member-Link at the time of the merger were canceled. As a further consequence of the merger, each of the license agreement, the technical services agreement and management services agreement were canceled.

Edgar Filing: I TRAX INC - Form 10QSB/A

The Company believes that the merger of Member-Link into the Company effective as of December 30, 1999 will have substantial impact on its future operating results.

Overview

The Company has historically developed enterprise or client server applications for collecting disease specific data at the point of care. In the first fiscal quarter of 2000, the Company began to develop its Internet applications. No such Internet applications have been deployed in this fiscal quarter. The Company intends to continue to increase its expenditures primarily in the areas of product development, client services, business development, and sales and marketing. As a result, the Company expects to continue to incur substantial operating losses over the next nine to twelve months.

The Company's current primary sources of revenues are license fees and product development fees it charges its customers. In the future, the Company expects to generate a significant portion of its revenue from subscriptions to the Company's products delivered over the Internet.

Results of Operations

Six Months Ended June 30, 2000 Compared to Six Months Ended June 30, 1999. Total revenues for the six-month period ended June 30, 2000 decreased to $64,227 as compared to $236,819 for the six-month period ended June 30, 1999, due primarily to the Company's continued migration to an Internet model as well as normal sales cycles. Cost of revenue was $45,513 for the six-month period ended June 30, 2000 as compared to $188,299 for the prior comparable period, consisting primarily of computer hardware, networking and consulting.

The aggregate operating expenses, net of cost of revenue for the six-month period ended June 30, 2000 increased to $1,870,447 as compared to $501,606 for the prior comparable period. The significant increase in the aggregate operating expenses, net of cost of revenue was due primarily to the Company's selling, general and administrative expenses, which equaled $1,748,295 during this period as compared to $400,435 for the prior comparable period. Selling, general and administrative expenses consisted primarily of compensation for legal, finance, sales, management, travel, rent, telephone and consulting services. This increase resulted primarily from increased costs necessary to support the growth of the Company's business activities. The Company intends to continue to increase the amounts spent in these categories in future periods to support continued growth and expansion.

The Company did not incur any research and development expenses for the six-month period ended June 30, 2000, as compared to $89,588 for the six-month period ended June 30, 1999. Although the Company has expensed its research and development costs in the past, the Company intends to capitalize a significant percentage of the costs associated with the development of its Internet versions of its existing products in the future.

Three Months Ended June 30, 2000 Compared to Three Months Ended June 30, 1999.

Total revenues for the three-month period ended June 30, 2000 increased to $64,227 as compared to $12,869 for the three-month period ended

Edgar Filing: I TRAX INC - Form 10QSB/A

June 30, 1999. Cost of revenue was $45,513 for the three-month period ended June 30, 2000 as compared to $64,216 for the prior comparable period, consisting primarily of computer hardware, networking and consulting.

The aggregate operating expenses, net of cost of revenue for the three-month period ended June 30, 2000 increased to $1,222,278 as compared to $350,907, net of cost of revenue for the prior comparable period. The significant increase in the aggregate operating expenses was due primarily to the Company's selling, general and administrative expenses, which equaled $1,143,983 during this period as compared to $299,684 for the prior comparable period. Selling, general and administrative expenses consisted primarily of compensation for legal, finance, sales, management, travel, rent, telephone and consulting services. This increase resulted primarily from increased costs necessary to support the growth of the Company's business activities. The Company intends to continue to increase the amounts spent in these categories in future periods to support continued growth and expansion.

The Company did not incur any research and development expenses for the three-month period ended June 30, 2000, as compared to $47,881 for the three-month period ended June 30, 1999. Although the Company has expensed its research and development costs in the past, the Company intends to capitalize a significant percentage of the costs associated with the development of its Internet versions of its existing products in the future.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's accumulated deficit of $2, 619,183 from inception through June 30, 2000 has been funded through capital contributions from the sale of its Common Stock. On February 20, 2000, the Company completed a private placement of 1,800,000 shares of its Common Stock at $1.00 per share, yielding to the Company aggregate proceeds of $1,800,000, to fund the next phase of the Company's expansion.

In addition, in May 2000 the Company initiated a second private placement of 1,000,000 shares of its Common Stock at $2.00 per share, seeking to raise an additional $2,000,000. No money was raised pursuant to this private placement during the quarter ended June 30, 2000. In July 2000, however, the Company sold an aggregate of 674,750 shares of Common Stock, yielding to the Company an aggregate of $1,349,500. Furthermore, in July 2000, the Board of Directors of the Company authorized an amendment to the May private placement, authorizing the Company to raise an aggregate of $5,000,000. The aggregate funds the Company intends to raise in the May 2000 private placement, as amended in July 2000, will be used to fund operations and to accelerate the Company's product development efforts. The Company believes that these funds, together with anticipated revenue, will be sufficient to meet the Company's present business expansion requirements until the end of the second quarter of 2001. Although the Company plans to seek additional capital during that period, there can be no assurance that such financing will be available on acceptable terms, if at all.

At June 30, 2000, the Company's cash and cash equivalents were $84,699. The Company's principal source of liquidity is the cash obtained from the private placements described above. The Company currently has no available credit facilities.

During 1998, while the Company was operating as U.S. Medical Alliance, several judgments were entered against the Company and two physicians who were at one time the principal executive officers of U.S. Medical Alliance. The judgments relate to, among other things, the Company's prior line of business of managing physician practices. The allegations made in the underlying suits relate to wrongful discharge, general breach of contract, breach of equipment lease agreements and miscellaneous vendor claims. The aggregate amount of such judgments entered against the Company and such physicians is approximately $600,000. None of the plaintiffs in the underlying suits has attempted to collect from the Company on the judgments.

Edgar Filing: I TRAX INC - Form 10QSB/A

In an effort to resolve these matters, the Company has settled one judgment in an original amount of $43,875 for $35,000 during the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2000 and will attempt to settle the balance of the judgments during the second half of fiscal 2000.

The Company believes that it is legally entitled to indemnification by the two physicians for its costs of settling such judgments pursuant to a settlement agreement, entered into on March 20, 1997, among several parties, including US Medical Alliance and such physicians. To preserve its claims under such settlement agreement against one of these physicians, on May 12, 2000 the Company filed a proof of claim in a voluntary Bankruptcy Court proceeding pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court, District of New Jersey, initiated by such physician in February 1999. Despite its belief that it is entitled to indemnification, the Company does not expect to recover any of its costs in settling such judgments from such physician.

Factors Affecting the Company's Business and Prospects

The Company expects to experience significant fluctuations in its future quarterly operating results due to a variety of factors, many of which are outside the Company's control. These issues are discussed more fully in the Risk Factors section in Item 1 of this Form 10-SB.

Market Risk

The Company has no material interest-bearing assets or liabilities, nor does the Company have any current exposure for changes in foreign currency exchange rates. The Company does not use derivatives or other financial instruments. The Company's financial instruments consist of cash and receivables. The market values of these financial instruments approximate book value.

Inflation

The financial statements are presented on a historical cost basis and do not fully reflect the impact of prior years' inflation. While the U.S. inflation rate has been modest for several years, inflation issues may impact the Company's business in the future. The ability to pass on inflation costs is an uncertainty due to general economic conditions and competitive situations.

Year 2000 Preparation

Software failures due to calculations using Year 2000 dates are a known risk. Although the most critical date (January 1, 2000) has occurred without incident in our software, problems with Year 2000 software could nonetheless result in system failures or miscalculations causing disruptions of operations, including, among others, a temporary inability to process transactions, send invoices or engage in similar normal business activities. To date, the Company has experienced very few problems related to Year 2000 testing and those requiring modification have been fixed. The Company does not believe that there is material exposure to the Year 2000 issue with respect to its electronic commerce transaction processing and online activity since these systems correctly define the Year 2000. The Company is nonetheless conducting an analysis to determine whether others with whom the Company does business have Year 2000 issues on a continual basis.

Edgar Filing: I TRAX INC - Form 10QSB/A

The Company has not incurred any material expenses in addressing Year 2000 compliance to date.
