(e) Continuity Agreements

On December 19, 2013, AGL Resources Inc. (the “Company”) entered into individual change in control agreements with certain officers of the Company, including each of the named executive officers – John W. Somerhalder II, Andrew W. Evans, Henry P. Linginfelter, Paul R. Shlanta and Peter I. Tumminello. Each such agreement (which is effective as of January 1, 2014, and replaces a similar agreement that expires on December 31, 2013) provides that the officer will be entitled to receive the following upon a “qualifying termination” (as described below) that occurs in connection with, or within two years following, a change in control event:

- a severance benefit equal to two times the sum of the officer’s base salary plus the average annual incentive compensation for the three years prior to the year of the qualifying termination;
- a prorated annual incentive compensation payment for the year of the qualifying termination, based on the number of days the officer was employed by the Company during that year;
 - a two-year continuation of medical, dental and life insurance benefits;
- potential vesting of all long-term incentive awards under certain circumstances, in accordance with the terms of the plan and/or award agreements under which such awards were granted; and
- outplacement assistance for up to one year; provided that the cost to the Company for such outplacement benefits cannot exceed 25% of the officer’s base salary.

A qualifying termination occurs if the officer’s employment is terminated by the Company without “cause” or by the officer for “good reason” (as defined in the agreement), provided that such termination occurs on or before the second anniversary of the date of the consummation of the change in control. The officer also may receive reimbursement of legal fees in connection with the enforcement of his or her rights under the agreement. The agreement does not provide for a “gross-up” payment related to potential excise taxes if payments under the agreement are deemed “excess parachute payments” under the Internal Revenue Code.

The agreement for each officer is substantially identical. A copy of the form of continuity agreement is attached to this report as exhibit 10.1. The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to such form agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
