PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
To Be Held May 2, 2007

The enclosed Proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of Scott s Liquid Gold-Inc., a Colorado corporation (the Company), for use at the Company s Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held at 9:00 a.m., Mountain Time, on Wednesday May 2, 2007 at the Company s offices, 4880 Havana Street, Denver, Colorado, or any adjournment thereof. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of Proxy are first being mailed or given to the shareholders of the Company on or about March 28, 2007.

Any shareholder signing and mailing the enclosed Proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by giving written notice of the revocation to the Company s Corporate Secretary, by voting in person at the meeting or by filing at the meeting a later executed proxy.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL SHAREHOLDERS

All voting rights are vested exclusively in the holders of the Company s $0.10 par value common stock. Each share of the Company s common stock is entitled to one vote. Cumulative voting in the election of directors is not permitted. Holders of a majority of shares entitled to vote at the meeting, when present in person or by proxy, constitute a quorum. On March 13, 2007, the record date for shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting, the Company had 10,533,000 shares of its $0.10 par value common stock issued and outstanding.

When a quorum is present, in the election of directors, those seven nominees having the highest number of votes cast in favor of their election will be elected to the Company s Board of Directors. Consequently, any shares not voted (whether by abstention, broker non-vote or otherwise) have no impact in the election of directors except to the extent the failure to vote for an individual results in another individual receiving a larger number of votes.

Table of Contents

The Company's only executive officers are those who are described in the foregoing table. The officers of the Company are elected annually at the first meeting of the Company's Board of Directors held after each annual meeting of shareholders and serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

There are no family relationships among the executive officers or directors of the Company. There are no arrangements or understandings pursuant to which any of these persons were elected as an executive officer or director.

Directors Meetings and Committees

During the year ended December 31, 2006, the Company had seven directors meetings plus two actions by unanimous written consent. The Company's Board of Directors has both a Compensation Committee and an Audit Committee. The Company does not have a nominating committee.

The primary responsibilities of the Compensation Committee include development of an executive compensation philosophy for the Company; origination of all executive compensation proposals; review of the appropriate mix of variable versus fixed compensation; and review of all transactions between the Company and any executive officer or director, whether or not involving compensation. The Compensation Committee operates under resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors that constitute a charter, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement. There is no authority on the part of the Compensation Committee to delegate any of these functions to other persons. The Committee consists currently of three outside directors of the Company and, in addition, the Chairman of the Board of the Company. Current members of the Compensation Committee are Dennis H. Field (Chairperson), Carl A. Bellini, Gerald J. Laber, and Mark E. Goldstein (with Mr. Goldstein having no vote), each of whom is an independent director as defined in the Nasdaq rules, except for Mr. Goldstein. The Compensation Committee had one meeting during 2006.

The Compensation Committee recommends to the Company's Board of Directors all elements of the compensation of the Company's executive officers. In making decisions regarding the executive compensation, the Compensation Committee requests the comments of the chief executive officer and the other executive officers about their compensation and considers a number of factors. In determining the executive compensation in 2006 and 2007, the Committee considered, among other things, the following matters:

Overview

The objectives of the Company's compensation program.

What the compensation program is designed to reward.

Each element of the compensation.

How does the Company determine the amount (and, where applicable, the formula) for each element?

How does each compensation element and the Company's decisions regarding that element fit into the Company's overall compensation objectives and affect decisions regarding other elements?

Specific Factors

The Compensation Committee has determined that an outside consultant on compensation matters should be used once every three years to provide information about the compensation paid to the Company's executive officers compared to compensation paid by other companies. Most recently, the Compensation Committee engaged The Hay Group in 2004 to provide this type of market analysis. The report from The Hay Group compared each element of the Company's base salary, total cash compensation and total direct compensation for the executive officers to The Hay Group's all company executive compensation survey and to a peer group of 14 companies in the consumer products and specialty chemical industries. The Committee approved of this approach. The Compensation Committee has not engaged a compensation consultant in 2007 in order to save on the costs; the Committee will review this decision in the second half of 2007.

The Board of Directors determines the fees paid to the non-employee directors. The Board does so without the use of a compensation consultant. The fees for the non-employee directors result from discussions between the executive officers and each of the non-employee directors as to a reasonable amount. The Company pays the same director fees to all non-employee directors.

The Audit Committee has as its primary responsibilities the appointment of the independent auditor for the Company, the pre-approval of all audit and non-audit services, and assistance to the Board of Directors in monitoring the integrity of the financial statements of the Company, the independent auditor's qualifications, independence and performance and the Company's compliance with legal requirements. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, a copy of which was attached as an exhibit to the Company's proxy statement for the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders. The current members of the Audit Committee are Gerald J. Laber (Chairperson), Carl A. Bellini and Dennis H. Field. Each member of the Audit Committee is an independent director as defined in the Nasdaq rules. Mr. Laber has the professional experience deemed necessary to qualify as an audit committee financial expert under rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee had six meetings during 2006.

Nomination Process

The Board of Directors of the Company does not have a nominating committee. The full Board of Directors performs the functions of a nominating committee. The Board of Directors believes that it does not need a separate nominating committee because the full Board is relatively small, has the time to perform the functions of selecting Board nominees and in the past has acted unanimously in regard to nominees.

In considering an incumbent director whose term of office is to expire, the Board of Directors reviews the director's overall service during the person's term, the number of meetings attended, level of participation and quality of performance. In the case of new directors, the directors on the Board of Directors are asked for suggestions as to potential candidates, discuss any candidates suggested by a shareholder of the Company and apply the criteria stated below. The Company may engage a professional search firm to locate nominees for the position of director of the Company. However, to date the Board of Directors has not engaged professional search firms for this purpose. A selection of a nominee by the Board of Directors requires a majority vote of the Company's directors. The Board of Directors consists of seven members of which Carl A. Bellini, Dennis H. Field and Gerald J. Laber are independent as defined in Nasdaq rules.

The board seeks candidates for nomination to the position of director who have excellent decision-making ability, business experience, particularly those relevant to consumer products, personal integrity and a high reputation and who meet such other criteria as may be set forth in a writing adopted by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Pursuant to a policy adopted by the Board of Directors, the directors will take into consideration a director nominee submitted to the Company by a shareholder; provided that the shareholder submits the director nominee and reasonable supporting material concerning the nominee by the due date for a shareholder proposal to be included in the Company's proxy statement for the applicable annual meeting as set forth in rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission then in effect. See Shareholder Proposals below.

Director Attendance at Company Annual Meetings

The Company does not have a policy regarding attendance by members of the Board of Directors at the Company's annual meeting of shareholders. The Company has always encouraged its directors to attend its annual meeting. In 2006, all directors attended the Company's annual meeting of shareholders.

Stockholder Communications With the Board

Historically, the Company has not had a formal process for stockholder communications with the Board of Directors. The Company does not believe a formal process for handling stockholder communications is necessary because the Board of Directors reviews and considers all material communications from stockholders.

Table of Contents

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Company has a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that reflects long-standing positions of the Company and contains additional provisions. The Code applies to all employees, including executive officers, and to directors. The Code concerns, among other things, compliance with applicable law, the avoidance of conflicts of interest, no trading by such a person if the person is aware of information that may be considered material, a prohibition on taking corporate opportunities, competing fairly and honestly, diversity as an asset, the Company's efforts to provide a safe and healthful work environment, recordkeeping, confidentiality, proper use of Company assets and payments to government personnel. The Code sets forth steps which may be followed if there is a situation where it is difficult to know right from wrong. A copy of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics may be obtained upon request to: Secretary, Scott's Liquid Gold Inc., 4880 Havana Street, Denver, Colorado 80239.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Mr. Dennis Field serves on both the Compensation Committee and the Audit Committee. From 1978 to 1982, Mr. Field was President and Chief Operating Officer of Aquafilter Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company which manufactured cigarette filters. After leaving Aquafilter Corporation, Mr. Field had virtually no contact with the Company from the date of his resignation to 1991 when he was asked to join the Company's Board. Prior to 1991, he was Executive Vice President/General Manager, U.S. Division, of Faberge. Mr. Field has a distinguished career with significant consumer product companies.

During 2006, none of the Company's executive officers served on the board or compensation committee of another entity which had one of its executive officers serve as a director of the Company or a member of the Company's Compensation Committee.
