Pursuant to the Original Agreement, as amended by the First Amendment, Mr. Gupta agreed that, for a period ending on July 21, 2008 (the Covered Period), he would not directly or indirectly acquire any additional securities of the Company, except for acquisitions pursuant to the exercise of stock options that had been granted to him by the Company. The Second Amendment amends the Original Agreement (as amended by the First Amendment) to extend the Covered Period, as defined in the Original Agreement, to include the period from 12:00 a.m. on July 22, 2008 to and including 11:59 p.m. on July 21, 2009. Item 8.01. Other Events.

Investigation by the Special Litigation Committee

As disclosed previously, effective December 24, 2007, the Board formed the SLC in response to the consolidated complaint In re infoUSA, Inc. Shareholders Litigation, Consol. Civil Action No. 1956-CC (Del. Ch.) (the Derivative Litigation), and in response to an informal investigation of the Company by the SEC and the related SEC request for the voluntary production of documents concerning related party transactions, expense reimbursement, other corporate expenditures and certain trading in the Company's securities. The SLC retained independent legal counsel to assist with conducting an internal investigation of these matters.

On July 16, 2008, the SLC approved a series of remedial actions and decisions which are described below. The SLC reviewed, among other things: (i) related party transactions, including transactions between the Company and entities controlled by the chief executive officer (or a family member of the chief executive officer) of the Company; (ii) expense reimbursements, including those for lodging, flights, meals, private club memberships, the use of the chief executive officer's residences, and legal fees incurred by the chief executive officer; and (iii) certain other corporate expenditures, including for the usage of private aircraft, a yacht and automobiles, premiums for life insurance policies, salaries of several employees and grants of stock options. Based on its review, the SLC determined that various related party transactions, expense reimbursements and corporate expenditures were excessive.

The SLC is cooperating with the SEC and The NASDAQ Stock Market with respect to its findings from the investigation and related remedial actions.

Remedial Actions Approved by the Special Litigation Committee

Based on its investigation of the matters described above, the SLC approved a series of remedial actions and decisions which are described below. The SLC's remedial framework is designed to continue in effect at least until December 31, 2013 (other than the standstill and voting agreements with Mr. Gupta described below).

In connection with the Derivative Litigation, Mr. Gupta has orally agreed to pay the Company $9 million over five years pursuant to a payment schedule, subject to the execution of a definitive settlement agreement and upon court approval of the settlement.

As described in Item 1.01 of this Form 8-K, the Company and Mr. Gupta entered into the Second Amendment, which will expire on July 21, 2009 (a copy of the Second Amendment is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3).

The SLC and Mr. Gupta have orally agreed that, subject to the execution of a definitive settlement agreement and upon court approval of the settlement, Mr. Gupta will enter into a voting agreement with the Company, pursuant to which Mr. Gupta will agree to support, through and including the 2010 annual stockholders meeting, the election of the nominees for election as directors recommended by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board.

As described in Item 5.02 of this Form 8-K, effective July 16, 2008, the positions of chief executive officer and chairman of the Board were separated. As a result, Bill L. Fairfield, currently the Board's lead independent director, has been appointed to serve as the chairman of the Board effective July 16, 2008.

As described in Item 5.02 of this Form 8-K, the Audit Committee of the Board, in consultation with the chief executive officer, will identify and hire a new chief financial officer. The termination or replacement of the new chief financial officer (or any successor) will require the concurrence of the Audit Committee of the Board.

A new position of executive vice president for business conduct and general counsel (the EVP for Business Conduct and General Counsel) has been created. The EVP for Business Conduct and General Counsel will, among other things: (i) supervise all legal and compliance functions and have responsibility for coordinating with internal auditors regarding the review of related party transactions; (ii) develop and administer business conduct and ethics policies for the Company (relating to insider trading, conflicts of interest, related party transactions and other matters) and monitor compliance with such policies; and (iii) approve certain expense reimbursement requests. The EVP for Business Conduct and General Counsel is retained by the independent directors of the Board and reports directly to the chairman of the Board under terms and conditions of employment determined exclusively by the independent directors of the Board. As described in Item 5.02 of this Form 8-K, John H. Longwell, the Company's current general counsel and secretary, will serve as the acting EVP for Business Conduct and General Counsel, until the position is permanently filled.

A new delegation of authority protocol to be approved by the independent directors of the Board will be developed to specify the size of transactions each officer is permitted to enter into on behalf of the Company. The protocol will require the sale of the Company yacht and prohibit the future ownership or leasing of yachts. Pursuant to the protocol, the following will require prior approval by the EVP for Business Conduct and General Counsel: Consulting agreements in excess of specified dollar amounts; charitable contributions in excess of a specified per-gift or aggregate annual amount; the purchase or lease of aircraft (including whole or partial interests) or motor vehicles (not including conventional car rentals); mortgage or rental payments on offices, homes, apartments or any other real property not used exclusively for business purposes; and club membership fees.

All company reimbursements for expenses will be subject to uniform, company-wide policies and procedures.

The independent directors of the Board will cause to be implemented and approve a business expense policy applicable to all employees of the Company. The policy will prohibit any reimbursement for non-business expenditures without pre-approval by the EVP for Business Conduct and General Counsel. The policy will prohibit the reimbursement of any expense that is not authorized under the Company's business expense policy. The policy will also provide clear guidance as to determining what is and what is not a proper business expenditure. In this regard, the policy will prohibit the use of Company resources (including corporate credit cards) for personal travel or entertainment; prohibit the personal use of yachts or airplanes at Company expense; require restitution of any expenditure later deemed personal and include a compensation hold-back feature to ensure that restitution is made when necessary; and ensure that non-business expenses that are reimbursed to the Company are properly accounted for (including, for example, being treated as compensation if appropriate).

The independent directors of the Board will cause to be implemented and approve detailed policies governing all employees regarding perquisites. Such policies will prohibit home office allowances.

The independent directors of the Board will cause to be implemented and approve a related party transaction policy. Among other measures, the policy will:

A mandatory director and executive officer training program addressing fiduciary duties will be instituted, which will include an orientation program for new directors, internal corporate governance tutorials conducted by outside experts selected by the SLC and continuing corporate governance education.

The Audit Committee of the Board will cause to be implemented and approve a best practices guide regarding disclosure controls and procedures.

The independent directors of the Board will meet at least four times annually. The minutes of such meetings will be circulated to the entire Board in advance of the next Board meeting.

Within 60 days of the entry of judgment in connection with the Derivative Litigation, the Compensation Committee of the Board will endeavor to negotiate and approve employment agreements with executive officers of the Company, including compensation terms commensurate with those of executive officers of similarly situated companies. The Compensation Committee of the Board will retain an independent compensation consultant to provide advice with respect to executive officer and director compensation.

All future equity grants will be approved by a majority vote of the disinterested independent directors of the Board. Further, the Company's 2007 Omnibus Incentive Plan will be amended to clarify the number of shares available to be granted pursuant to the plan, and the amendment of the plan will be submitted to a stockholder vote for ratification.

The Company will hire a new investor relations officer who will report to the chief financial officer to improve and coordinate communications with stockholders, investors, analysts and the media.
