PROXY STATEMENT

SOLICITATION AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

The following information is furnished in connection with the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Barnwell Industries, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), to be held on March 1, 2004 at 9:30 a.m., Central Standard Time, at the Sheraton Shreveport Hotel, 1419 East 70th Street, Shreveport, Louisiana.

The accompanying Proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company, and the Company will bear the cost of such solicitation. Solicitation of proxies will be primarily by mail. Proxies may also be solicited by regular employees of the Company by telephone at a nominal cost. Brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries will be requested to forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of Common Stock (as defined below) and will be reimbursed for their expenses. All properly executed proxies will be voted as instructed.

Stockholders who execute proxies may revoke them by delivering subsequently dated proxies or by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company at any time before such proxies are voted. No proxy will be voted if the stockholder attends the meeting and elects to vote in person.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Form of Proxy are first being sent to stockholders on or about January 15, 2004.

VOTING AT THE MEETING

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on January 5, 2004 (the "Record Date") will be entitled to vote at the annual meeting and any adjournment thereof. As of the Record Date, 1,314,510 shares of common stock, par value $0.50, of the Company (the "Common Stock") were issued and outstanding. Each share of Common Stock outstanding as of the Record Date is entitled to one vote on any proposal presented at the meeting. With respect to abstentions, the shares will be considered present at the meeting for a particular proposal, but since they are not affirmative votes for the proposal, they will have the same effect as a vote withheld on the election of directors or a vote against such other proposal, as the case may be. Brokers and nominees may be precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to certain matters to be acted upon, other than the election of directors. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, your shares may not be voted on these matters. Shares represented by such broker nonvotes will, however, be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the meeting nine directors of the Company are proposed to be elected, each elected director to hold office until the next annual meeting and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The persons named as proxies in the enclosed Proxy are executive officers of the Company and, unless contrary instructions are given, they will vote the shares represented by the Proxy for the election to the Board of Directors of the persons named below. The election of directors will require a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any of the nominees for director will be unable to serve; however, in the event any of the nominees should withdraw or otherwise become unavailable for reasons not presently known, the persons named as proxies may vote for other persons in place of such nominees.

DIRECTORS AND NOMINEES TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The following table sets forth, as to the directors and nominees for election: (1) such person's name; (2) the year in which such person was first elected a director of the Company; (3) such person's age; (4) all positions and offices with the Company held by such person; (5) the business experience of such person during the past five years; and (6) certain other directorships, if any, held by such person.

The Board of Directors has a standing Compensation Committee, a standing Audit Committee, and a standing Executive Committee. It has no standing nominating committee. The members of the Compensation Committee are Mr. Hunter, Chairman, and Messrs. Jacobson, Anderson, Gardner, Johnston and Morton Kinzler, with Mr. Morton Kinzler being a non-voting member. The Compensation Committee (i) determines the annual compensation of the Company's senior officers; (ii) recommends, if appropriate, new employee benefit plans to the Board of Directors; (iii) administers all employee benefit plans and (iv) makes determinations in connection therewith as may be necessary or advisable. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003, the Compensation Committee held one meeting.

The members of the Audit Committee are Mr. Jacobson, Chairman, and Messrs. Gardner, Anderson, Hunter and Ms. Kranz. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent (as independence is defined in Section 121(A) of the American Stock Exchange listing standards). The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee to set forth its responsibilities. The Audit Committee reviews the services of the independent accountants employed by the Company to audit the consolidated financial statements of the Company. The Audit Committee reviews periodically major issues regarding accounting and auditing principles and practices, the adequacy of internal controls that could affect the consolidated financial statements as well as all related party transactions and potential conflict of interest situations. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003, the Audit Committee held four meetings.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements with management, and the Audit Committee has discussed with KPMG LLP, the independent auditors, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU § 380), as such may be modified or supplemented. The Audit Committee has also received the written disclosures and the letter from KPMG LLP that are required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committee) as may be modified or supplemented, and has discussed with KPMG LLP the independent auditor's independence. Based upon its discussions with management and with KPMG LLP, the Audit Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed to the Company by the Company's independent auditors for professional services rendered by the independent auditors for the audit of the annual financial statements and review of financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-QSBs or services to the Company in connection with statutory or regulatory filings or engagements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003 totaled $151,950 and for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002 totaled $137,000.

Audit-Related Fees

The aggregate fees billed to the Company by the Company's independent auditors for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements other than Audit Fees for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003 totaled $0 and for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002 totaled $0.

Tax Fees

The aggregate fees billed to the Company by the Company's independent auditors for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003 totaled $68,800 and for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002 totaled $47,000.

All Other Fees

Aggregate fees billed to the Company by the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003 other than those billed for the annual audit, the quarterly reviews of the consolidated financial statements, fees related to the audit or review of the Company's consolidated financial statements or services related to tax advice, tax compliance or tax planning totaled $0 and for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002 totaled $0. The Audit Committee believes that the provision of non-audit services during the 2003 fiscal year does not affect the accountants' ability to maintain independence with respect to the Company.

Pre-approval Policies and Procedures

The Audit Committee's pre-approval policies and procedures are as follows: (1) the Audit Committee reviews with the Company's independent accountants the scope of their audit and report thereon, including any questions and recommendations that may arise relating to such audit and report or the Company's internal accounting and auditing procedures. The Audit Committee must pre-approve any auditing services provided to the Company by the independent accountants and has the authority to engage independent counsel and other advisors; (2) at a meeting of the Audit Committee in conjunction with the preparation and filing of the Company's report on Form 10-KSB following the Company's fiscal year-end, the Audit Committee reviews, the Company's independent accountants' (a) audit fees; (b) audit-related fees; (c) tax fees; and (d) all other fees billed for products and services provided by the Company's independent accountants; (3) following such review, the Audit Committee requests that the Company's independent accountants estimate their fees for the following year's tax services and fees for other non-audit services; (4) upon review of such estimated fees, the Audit Committee may pre-approve the provision of such products and services and the payment therefor; and (5) at subsequent meetings of the Audit Committee, the Committee reviews the status of the provision of all products and services from the Company's independent auditor to the Company and payment therefor, and may pre-approve the provision of additional products and services as necessary.

During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003, the Executive Committee held no meetings.

The Board of Directors held three meetings during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003. All directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Committees of the Board on which each of them served.

(1)

Mr. Steckley was granted 30,000 incentive units on June 1, 1998. The value of such units directly relates to Barnwell of Canada, Limited's ("BOC's") net income and to changes in the value of BOC's oil and gas reserves since 1998, with adjustments for changes in commodities prices and subject to other terms and conditions. Such adjusted reserve value is then divided by the number of shares of the Company's outstanding common stock to determine the value of each unit. These units become exercisable over 4 years from the date of grant and expire 10 years from such date. At September 30, 2003, the U.S. dollar equivalent of the value of the vested portion of such units was $437,000. This is an increase of US$214,000 over the value of these units at September 30, 2002.

All amounts shown for Mr. Steckley represent the average U.S. dollar equivalent during each fiscal year of payments made to him in Canadian dollars.

Directors who are not officers of the Company receive an annual fee of $12,500 and are reimbursed for expenses incurred with respect to meeting attendance. The Chairman of the Compensation Committee receives an additional $9,000 annual fee. The Chairman of the Audit Committee receives an additional $20,000 annual fee. The members of the Executive and Compensation Committees, other than the Chairmen, receive an additional $1,500 annual fee. The members of the Audit Committee, other than the Chairman, receive an additional $7,500 annual fee. In lieu of payment of such fees to Mr. Hazelhoff-Roelfzema, the Company reimburses him for certain expenses incurred in connection with his service as a director. Mr. Terry Johnston, a director of the Company, is also reimbursed for certain expenses incurred with respect to services he performs for Kaupulehu Developments, a real estate partnership which is majority owned by the Company.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Barnwell Kona Corporation ("BKC"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and Nearco, Inc. ("Nearco"), an entity controlled by Mr. Terry Johnston, a member of the Board of Directors of the Company, own approximately 55.2% and 28.9%, respectively, of Cambridge Hawaii Limited Partnership ("CHLP"). CHLP is a Hawaii limited partnership, of which BKC is the sole general partner. The principal asset of CHLP is a 49.9% interest in Kaupulehu Developments, a Hawaii real estate partnership ("KD"). Mr. Johnston also indirectly owns another approximately 14.9% of CHLP. Barnwell Hawaiian Properties, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company ("BHP") owns a 50.1% interest in KD.

In connection with the acquisition by Nearco of its interest in CHLP, BKC made two loans to Nearco, one on April 12, 2001 in the amount of $1,463,000 and one on August 28, 2001 in the amount of $18,000. Each loan was evidenced by a non-interest bearing promissory note secured by Nearco's entire interest in CHLP.

On January 31, 2002, Nearco and BKC entered into a Note Modification and Extension Agreement pursuant to which (i) Nearco paid in full the August 28, 2001 promissory note for $18,000 issued to BKC; (ii) Nearco paid $82,000 of principal on the $1,463,000 note issued to BKC on April 12, 2001, thereby reducing the balance to $1,381,000; (iii) the maturity date of the April 12, 2001 promissory note was extended until December 31, 2002; and (iv) commencing February 1, 2002, interest on the outstanding balance of the April 12, 2001 loan increased to the rate of 10% per annum. On January 1, 2003, this note went into default and began to accrue interest at the default rate of 12% per annum. On January 8, 2003, Nearco paid $58,000 in accrued interest on the note and made a $70,000 principal payment, reducing the principal amount of the note to $1,311,000. Nearco thereafter made four quarterly interest payments on the note totaling $158,000, which were owing through the date hereof.

The April 12, 2001 note, as modified on January 31, 2002, is subordinated to a $600,000 note issued by Nearco to a third party, which became due on January 31, 2003. This note has a current outstanding principal balance of $450,000 and accrues interest at the rate of 8% per annum. The April 12, 2001 note has not been paid as of the date hereof. In the Company's opinion, the current value of Nearco's pledged interest in CHLP as security for the $1,311,000 balance of the April 12, 2001 promissory note is far in excess of the combined value of its April 12, 2001 note to BKC and Nearco's $450,000 note to the third party.

In 1987, BHP and CHLP agreed to pay Nearco 2% and 4%, respectively, of cash consideration received from the sale of property owned by KD. Pursuant to these agreements, in January 2003, BHP and CHLP paid fees of $42,500 and $85,000, respectively, to Nearco in connection with KD's receipt of proceeds from the exercise of options it had granted on certain residential parcels. In addition, Nearco was paid $218,000 in fiscal 2003 as a fee for services Nearco performed, of which $93,000 was in excess of the aggregate equity interest of Terry Johnston's affiliates in KD. The Company believes the fees are fair and reasonable compensation for such services.

In June, 1995, the Company issued $2,000,000 of convertible notes due July 1, 2003 for an aggregate price of $2,000,000. $400,000 of such notes were purchased by Mr. Morton H. Kinzler, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company, $200,000 were purchased by Mr. Martin Anderson, a director of the Company, $200,000 were purchased by Dr. Joseph E. Magaro, a beneficial owner of 16.0% of the Company's shares and $100,000 were purchased by Dr. R. David Sudarsky, a beneficial owner of 9.2% of the Company's shares. See "Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management", below. The notes were payable in 20 consecutive equal quarterly installments beginning in October 1998. Interest, which was adjusted quarterly to the greater of 10% per annum or 1% over the prime rate of interest, was payable quarterly. For the period from October 1, 2002 to June 30, 2003, the notes bore interest at the weighted average rate of 10% per annum. The notes were convertible into shares of Common Stock at a price of $20.00 per share, subject to adjustment for certain events including a stock split of, or stock dividend on, the Common Stock. The notes were paid in full on June 30, 2003.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of beneficial ownership on Forms 3, 4, and 5 with the Securities and Exchange Commission and any national securities exchange on which such equity securities are registered. Based solely on the Company's review of the copies of such forms it has received and written representations from certain reporting persons that they were not required to file reports on Form 5 during the most recently completed fiscal year or prior years, the Company believes that all of its officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to them during the Company's most recently completed fiscal year.

SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The Board of Directors of the Company has appointed KPMG LLP as the firm of independent public accountants to audit the accounts of the Company for the year ending September 30, 2004. This firm expects to have a representative available by telephone at the meeting who will have an opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.
