Registration Statement No. 333-229674

April 5, 2019

Dear Stockholders of Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc.:

On December 6, 2018, First Midwest Bancorp, Inc. ("First Midwest") and Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc. ("Bridgeview") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger ("merger agreement") that provides for the combination of our two companies. Bridgeview will hold a special meeting of its stockholders at which holders of shares of Bridgeview voting common stock will be asked to vote to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, as described in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

Under the merger agreement, Bridgeview will merge with and into First Midwest, with First Midwest being the surviving company (the "merger"). Following the merger at such time as First Midwest may determine, Bridgeview Bank Group, an Illinois state chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of Bridgeview, will merge with and into First Midwest Bank, an Illinois state chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of First Midwest, with First Midwest Bank being the surviving bank (the "bank merger"). Following the bank merger, First Midwest Bank will continue its corporate existence as a commercial bank organized under the laws of the State of Illinois.

Upon completion of the merger, each holder of shares of Bridgeview common stock will receive 0.2767 of a share (the "exchange ratio") of First Midwest common stock in exchange for each share of Bridgeview common stock held immediately prior to the completion of the merger, plus a fixed amount of cash equal to $1.79, which amount of cash is subject to certain adjustments (as so adjusted, the "cash consideration" and, collectively with the First Midwest common stock issued in the merger, the "merger consideration").

All unvested Bridgeview restricted stock awards outstanding immediately prior to the merger will become fully vested upon completion of the merger, and the holders thereof will be entitled to receive the same merger consideration for the shares of Bridgeview common stock subject to such awards as all other holders of Bridgeview common stock. Additionally, Bridgeview will take all actions necessary to cause the holders of options for Bridgeview common stock to execute agreements prior to the merger to cancel such options in exchange for a lump sum cash payment equal to, on a per share basis, the merger consideration less the exercise price for such options.

The exchange ratio is not subject to adjustment but the value of the First Midwest common stock to be received by holders of Bridgeview common stock in the merger will fluctuate based on the trading price of First Midwest common stock. The cash consideration of $1.79 per share of Bridgeview common stock is subject to potential increases or decreases based on the occurrence of certain events as provided in the merger agreement. These events and the corresponding adjustments are summarized as follows:

Edgar Filing: FIRST MIDWEST BANCORP INC - Form 424B3

if any of the specified leases or contracts related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business have not been disposed of as of February 28, 2019, the cash consideration will be reduced by a multiple of the amounts remaining under such agreements;

if there are any outstanding principal balances under any mortgage loans related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business remaining as of March 1, 2019 totaling more than $500,000 in the aggregate, the cash consideration will be reduced by all or a portion of the outstanding principal loan balances depending on the aggregate amount of such balances outstanding at that time;

the cash consideration will be increased or decreased depending on whether or not Bridgeview sells the real property identified in the merger agreement (the "identified real property") prior to the completion of the merger and the price at which it may be sold;

if Bridgeview sells any of the life insurance contracts identified in the merger agreement prior to the completion of the merger, the cash consideration may be increased or decreased based on whether the life insurance contract is sold for greater or less than its book value determined pursuant to the merger agreement; however, if Bridgeview fails to sell any of the life insurance contracts identified in the merger agreement, an independent insurance consultant will be engaged to solicit three bids for each of the unsold life insurance contracts and the cash consideration will be increased or decreased based on such bids as provided in the merger agreement;

if Bridgeview sells or otherwise disposes of certain assets identified in the merger agreement (the "identified assets"), the cash consideration will be increased or decreased by the difference between the proceeds of the disposition and the assumed value of each asset as determined pursuant to the merger agreement;

if Bridgeview is unable to cure or remove any conditions listed on the title of any real property transferred to First Midwest or there are any costs or expenses necessary to address any environmental conditions at any real property transferred to First Midwest, the cash consideration may be reduced; and if Bridgeview's adjusted tangible common equity as of its December 31, 2018 fiscal year-end is different than the minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity identified in the merger agreement, the cash consideration will be increased or decreased based on whether the year-end adjusted tangible common equity is greater or less than the identified minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity.

Due to the fact that certain of these adjustments may not be determinable prior to the date of the special meeting, at the time of the vote on the merger agreement at the special meeting, holders of Bridgeview common stock may not know the amount of cash consideration they will receive as part of the merger consideration. Based on information available as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the range of the adjustments to the cash consideration of $1.79 per share of Bridgeview common stock is reasonably expected to result in a decrease of between $0.18 per share of Bridgeview common stock and a decrease of $0.62 per share of Bridgeview common stock.

First Midwest common stock trades on the Nasdaq Stock Market under the symbol "FMBI." The following table shows the implied value of the merger consideration that would be received by Bridgeview stockholders in exchange for each share of Bridgeview common stock if the per share price of First Midwest common stock was $21.87, which was the closing per share price of First Midwest common stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market on December 6, 2018, the last completed trading day before the announcement of the merger, and if such price was $20.90, which was the closing per share price of First Midwest common stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market on April 2, 2019.

	Closing Price of First Midwest Common Stock on Nasdaq		Exchange Ratio	Cash Consideration Per Bridgeview Common Share*	Total Consideration Per Share of Bridgeview Common Stock*
December 6, 2018	$	21.87	0.2767	$ 1.79	$ 7.84

*

The information presented does not reflect the actual value of the merger consideration that will be received by holders of Bridgeview common stock in the merger. This amount assumes no adjustments to the cash consideration of $1.79 per share. The cash consideration is subject to certain adjustments as described above and in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. The value of the merger consideration at the closing of the merger will be based partially on the price of First Midwest common stock on the date the merger is completed plus the cash consideration. The information presented above solely illustrates the implied value of the merger consideration based on the price of First Midwest common stock on December 6, 2018 and on April 2, 2019 and the assumed cash consideration of $1.79 per share of Bridgeview common stock (without adjustment).

Based on the number of shares of Bridgeview common stock and the number of restricted stock awards outstanding on April 2, 2019, we expect that the payment of the merger consideration will require First Midwest to issue approximately 4,728,586 shares of First Midwest common stock in connection with the merger. In addition, based on the number of issued and outstanding shares of First Midwest common stock and Bridgeview common stock as of April 2, 2019, and based on the exchange ratio of 0.2767, holders of shares of Bridgeview common stock as of immediately prior to the closing of the merger will hold, in the aggregate, approximately 4.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of First Midwest common stock immediately following the effectiveness of the merger.

Bridgeview has three classes of common stock: common stock ("Bridgeview voting common stock"), non-voting common stock ("Bridgeview non-voting common stock"), and Series A non-voting common stock ("Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock"). Approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview voting common stock.

All of the directors and executive officers of Bridgeview, collectively holding an aggregate 3,208,847 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (which includes 8,334 shares of outstanding Bridgeview restricted common stock, or approximately 30% of the outstanding voting shares) and certain other Bridgeview stockholders who collectively own an additional 3,330,586 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (or approximately 32% of the outstanding voting shares) as of the Bridgeview record date, have signed voting agreements with First Midwest agreeing to vote for approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Accordingly, the holders of approximately 62% of the outstanding voting shares entitled to vote on the merger have entered into voting agreements with First Midwest to vote in favor of the merger proposal. Each of the holders of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock has agreed to waive its rights to, among other things, elect to receive in the merger securities that are comparable in rights and restrictions to the Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock, and the holders of in excess of a majority of the shares of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock have agreed to accept in the merger the conversion of the shares of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock into shares of First Midwest common stock, which majority acceptance would satisfy the approval provisions of the Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock as set forth in Bridgeview's certificate of incorporation, as amended.

The special meeting of holders of Bridgeview common stock will be held at the offices of Vedder Price P.C., located at 222 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois 60601 on May 8, 2019, at 12:00 p.m. Central Time.

Bridgeview's board of directors unanimously recommends that holders of Bridgeview voting common stock vote "FOR" the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and "FOR" one or more adjournments of the Bridgeview special meeting, including adjournments to permit the further solicitation of proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

We cannot complete the merger without the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by holders of Bridgeview voting common stock. It is important that your shares be represented and voted regardless of the size of your holdings. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting of Bridgeview stockholders, we urge you to submit a proxy to have your shares voted in advance of the special meeting by using one of the methods described in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

The accompanying proxy statement/prospectus provides important information regarding the special meeting and a detailed description of the merger agreement, the merger, certain related transactions and agreements and the matters to be presented at the special meeting. We encourage you

Please pay particular attention to the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus for a discussion of the risks relating to the proposed merger.

We hope to see you at the special meeting and look forward to the successful completion of the merger.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON MAY 8, 2019

To the Stockholders of Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc.:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special meeting of the holders of common stock, par value $0.10 per share ("Bridgeview common stock"), of Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Bridgeview"), will be held at the offices of Vedder Price P.C., located at 222 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois 60601 on May 8, 2019, at 12:00 p.m. Central Time (the "Bridgeview special meeting"), for the purpose of considering and voting upon the following matters:

1. Merger Proposal. Approval by the holders of Bridgeview common stock, $0.10 par value per share ("Bridgeview voting common stock"), of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 6, 2018, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus (the "merger agreement"), by and between First Midwest Bancorp, Inc. ("First Midwest") and Bridgeview, and the transactions contemplated thereby (the "merger proposal"), including the merger of Bridgeview with and into First Midwest, with First Midwest being the surviving corporation (the "merger");
2. Adjournment Proposal. Approval by the holders of Bridgeview voting common stock of one or more adjournments of the Bridgeview special meeting, if determined necessary and advisable, including adjournments to permit the further solicitation of proxies in favor of the merger proposal (the "Bridgeview adjournment proposal"); and
3. Other Business. Transaction of such other business as may properly come before the Bridgeview special meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof.

We have fixed the close of business on April 1, 2019, as the record date for determining those stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Bridgeview special meeting and any adjournments of the Bridgeview special meeting. There are three classes of Bridgeview common stock: Bridgeview voting common stock, non-voting common stock, $0.10 par value per share ("Bridgeview non-voting common stock"), and Series A non-voting common stock, $0.10 par value per share ("Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock"). Only holders of record of Bridgeview voting common stock at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of and to vote on the proposals at the Bridgeview special meeting and any adjournments of the Bridgeview special meeting.

Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview voting common stock. As a result, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against approval of the merger proposal. Approval of the Bridgeview adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Bridgeview voting common stock present in person or represented by proxy. Abstentions will have the same effect as votes against approval of the Bridgeview adjournment proposal, and broker non-votes will have no effect on the approval of the Bridgeview adjournment proposal assuming a quorum has been established.

All of the directors and executive officers of Bridgeview, collectively holding an aggregate 3,208,847 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (which includes 8,334 shares of outstanding restricted Bridgeview voting common stock, or approximately 30% of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview voting common stock) and certain other Bridgeview stockholders who collectively own an additional 3,330,586 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (or approximately 32% of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview voting common stock) as of the Bridgeview record date, have signed voting agreements with First Midwest agreeing to vote for approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and the other matters required to be approved or adopted to effect the merger and any other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Accordingly, the holders of approximately 62% of the outstanding voting shares entitled to vote on the merger have entered into voting agreements with First Midwest to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

If you wish to attend the Bridgeview special meeting and your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee, you must bring with you an account statement showing that you owned shares of Bridgeview common stock as of the record date and a "legal proxy" form signed by the bank, broker, trustee or other nominee to confirm your beneficial ownership of the shares.

Under Delaware law, Bridgeview stockholders who do not vote in favor of the merger proposal will have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares of Bridgeview common stock as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery if the merger of Bridgeview with and into First Midwest is completed, but only if they submit a written demand for such an appraisal prior to the vote on the adoption of the merger proposal and comply with the other Delaware law procedures explained in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. Bridgeview stockholders who do not vote in favor of the merger proposal and who submit a written demand for such an appraisal prior to the vote on the adoption of the merger proposal and comply with the other Delaware law procedures will not receive the merger consideration.

Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the Bridgeview special meeting in person, please complete, date, sign and return the enclosed proxy card in the enclosed envelope to ensure that your shares of Bridgeview voting common stock will be represented and voted at the Bridgeview special meeting if you are unable to attend.

The board of directors of Bridgeview has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger, has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of Bridgeview and its stockholders and unanimously recommends that holders of Bridgeview voting common stock vote "FOR" the merger proposal and vote "FOR" the Bridgeview adjournment proposal.

We encourage you to read the entire accompanying proxy statement/prospectus carefully (including any documents incorporated therein by reference). Please pay particular attention to the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus for a discussion of the risks relating to the proposed merger.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Peter J. Haleas
Chairman of the Board of Directors

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus and may not contain all the information that is important to you. We urge you to carefully read this entire document and the documents referenced herein for a more complete understanding of the merger between First Midwest and Bridgeview. In addition, we incorporate by reference into this document important business and financial information about First Midwest. You may obtain the information incorporated by reference into this document without charge by following the instructions in the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information." Each item in this summary includes a page reference directing you to a more complete description of that item.

Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this proxy statement/prospectus to "First Midwest" refer to First Midwest Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation; references to "First Midwest Bank" refer to First Midwest Bank, an Illinois state chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of First Midwest; references to "Bridgeview" refer to Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation; references to "Bridgeview Bank" refer to Bridgeview Bank Group, an Illinois state chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of Bridgeview; and references to "we," "our" or "us" refer to First Midwest and Bridgeview.

We Propose a Merger of First Midwest and Bridgeview (Page 29)

We propose that Bridgeview will merge with and into First Midwest, with First Midwest being the surviving company (the "merger"). As a result of the merger, the separate existence of Bridgeview will terminate. Following the merger at such time as First Midwest may determine, Bridgeview's wholly owned bank subsidiary, Bridgeview Bank, will merge with and into First Midwest's wholly owned bank subsidiary, First Midwest Bank, with First Midwest Bank being the surviving bank (the "bank merger"). Following the bank merger, First Midwest Bank will continue its corporate existence as a commercial bank organized under the laws of the State of Illinois. We expect to complete the merger and the bank merger in the second quarter of 2019, although delays may occur.

Bridgeview plans to hold its special meeting of stockholders at the offices of Vedder Price P.C., located at 222 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois 60601 on May 8, 2019, at 12:00 p.m. Central Time (the "Bridgeview special meeting"). Bridgeview has three classes of common stock: common stock, $0.10 par value per share ("Bridgeview voting common stock"), non-voting common stock, $0.10 par value per share ("Bridgeview non-voting common stock"), and Series A non-voting common stock, $0.10 par value per share ("Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock" and, collectively with Bridgeview non-voting common stock, "Bridgeview non-voting stock"). At the Bridgeview special meeting, holders of Bridgeview voting common stock will be asked to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger (the "merger proposal").

You can vote at the Bridgeview special meeting to approve the merger proposal if you owned Bridgeview voting common stock at the close of business on April 1, 2019 (the "Bridgeview record date"). As of that date, there were 10,525,882 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. A holder of Bridgeview voting common stock can cast one vote for each share of Bridgeview voting common stock owned on that date.

Bridgeview's Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends That Holders of Bridgeview Voting Common Stock Vote "FOR" the Merger Proposal (Page 24)

Bridgeview's board of directors (i) believes that the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 6, 2018, between Bridgeview and First Midwest (the "merger agreement"), and the transactions contemplated thereby are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Bridgeview and its stockholders, (ii) has unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and (iii) unanimously recommends that holders of Bridgeview voting common stock vote "FOR" the merger proposal.

Table of Contents

All of the directors and executive officers of Bridgeview, collectively holding an aggregate 3,208,847 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (which includes 8,334 shares of outstanding Bridgeview restricted common stock, or approximately 30% of the outstanding voting shares) and certain Bridgeview stockholders who collectively own an additional 3,330,586 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (or approximately 32% of the outstanding voting shares) as of the Bridgeview record date, have signed voting agreements with First Midwest agreeing to vote for approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Accordingly, the holders of approximately 62% of the outstanding voting shares entitled to vote on the merger have entered into voting agreements with First Midwest to vote in favor of the merger proposal. Each of the holders of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock has agreed to waive its rights to, among other things, elect to receive in the merger securities that are comparable in rights and restrictions to the Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock, and the holders of in excess of a majority of the shares of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock have agreed to accept in the merger the conversion of the shares of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock into shares of First Midwest common stock, which majority acceptance would satisfy the approval provisions of the Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock as set forth in Bridgeview's certificate of incorporation, as amended.

Bridgeview Stockholders Will Receive Shares of First Midwest Common Stock in the Merger (Page 61)

Upon completion of the merger, each holder of shares of Bridgeview voting common stock and Bridgeview non-voting stock (collectively, "Bridgeview common stock"), will receive 0.2767 of a share (the "exchange ratio") of First Midwest common stock, par value $0.01 per share ("First Midwest common stock"), in exchange for each share of Bridgeview common stock held immediately prior to the completion of the merger, plus a fixed amount of cash equal to $1.79, which amount is subject to certain adjustments (the "cash consideration" and, collectively with the First Midwest common stock received, the "merger consideration").

The exchange ratio is not subject to adjustment but the value of the First Midwest common stock to be received by holders of Bridgeview common stock in the merger will fluctuate based on the trading price of First Midwest common stock. The cash consideration of $1.79 per share of Bridgeview common stock is subject to potential increases or decreases based on the occurrence of certain events as provided in the merger agreement. These events and the corresponding adjustments are summarized as follows:

if any of the specified leases or contracts related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business have not been disposed of as of February 28, 2019, the cash consideration will be reduced by a multiple of the amounts remaining under such agreements;

if there are any outstanding principal balances under any mortgage loans remaining related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business as of March 1, 2019 totaling more than $500,000 in the aggregate, the cash consideration will be reduced by all or a portion of the outstanding principal loan balances depending on the aggregate amount of such balances outstanding at that time;

the cash consideration will be increased or decreased depending on whether or not Bridgeview sells the real property identified in the merger agreement (the "identified real property") prior to the completion of the merger and the price at which it may be sold;

if Bridgeview sells any of the life insurance contracts identified in the merger agreement prior to the completion of the merger, the cash consideration may be increased or decreased based on whether the life insurance contract is sold for greater or less than its book value determined pursuant to the merger agreement; however, if Bridgeview fails to sell any of the life insurance contracts identified in the merger agreement, an independent insurance consultant will be engaged to solicit three bids for each of the unsold life insurance contracts and the cash

consideration will be increased or decreased based on such bids as provided in the merger agreement;

if Bridgeview sells or otherwise disposes of certain assets identified in the merger agreement (the "identified assets"), the cash consideration will be increased or decreased by the difference between the proceeds of the disposition and the assumed value of each asset as determined pursuant to the merger agreement;

if Bridgeview is unable to cure or remove any conditions listed on the title of any real property transferred to First Midwest or there are any costs or expenses necessary to address any environmental conditions at any real property transferred to First Midwest, the cash consideration may be reduced; and if Bridgeview's adjusted tangible common equity as of its December 31, 2018 fiscal year-end is different than the minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity identified in the merger agreement, the cash consideration will be increased or decreased based on whether the year-end adjusted tangible common equity is greater or less than the identified minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity.

Due to the fact that certain of these adjustments may not be determinable at the time of the vote on the merger agreement on the date of the special meeting, stockholders of Bridgeview common stock may not know the amount of cash consideration they will receive as part of the merger consideration. Based on information available as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the range of the adjustments to the cash consideration of $1.79 per share of Bridgeview common stock is reasonably expected to result in a decrease of between $0.18 per share of Bridgeview common stock and a decrease of $0.62 per share of Bridgeview common stock.

Instead of fractional shares of First Midwest common stock, Bridgeview stockholders will receive cash for any fractional shares based on the per share volume weighted average price of the First Midwest common stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the trading day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger.

The following table shows the implied value of the merger consideration that would be received by Bridgeview stockholders in exchange for each share of Bridgeview common stock if the per share price of a share of First Midwest common stock was $21.87, which was the closing per share price of First Midwest common stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market on December 6, 2018, the last completed trading day before the announcement of the merger, and if such price was $20.90, which was the closing per share price of First Midwest common stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market on April 2, 2019.

	Closing Price of First Midwest Common Stock on Nasdaq	Exchange Ratio	Cash Consideration Per Bridgeview Common Share*	Total Consideration Per Share of Bridgeview Common Stock*
December 6, 2018	$ 21.87	0.2767	$ 1.79	$ 7.84

The information presented does not reflect the actual value of the merger consideration that will be received by holders of Bridgeview common stock in the merger. This amount assumes no adjustments to the cash consideration of $1.79 per share. The cash consideration is subject to certain adjustments as described in this proxy statement/prospectus. The value of the merger consideration at the closing of the merger will be based partially on the price of First Midwest common stock on the date the merger is completed plus the cash consideration. The information presented above solely illustrates the implied value of the merger consideration based on the price of First

Midwest common stock on December 6, 2018 and on April 2, 2019 and the assumed cash consideration of $1.79 per share of Bridgeview common stock (without adjustment).

All unvested Bridgeview restricted stock awards outstanding immediately prior to the merger will become fully vested upon completion of the merger, and the holders thereof will be entitled to receive the same merger consideration for the shares of Bridgeview common stock subject to such awards as all other holders of Bridgeview common stock. Additionally, Bridgeview will take all actions necessary to cause the holders of options for Bridgeview common stock to execute agreements prior to the merger to cancel such options in exchange for a lump sum cash payment equal to, on a per share basis, the merger consideration less the exercise price for such options.

Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (Page 52)

Subject to certain circumstances described below, and based on certain representations, covenants and assumptions, all of which must continue to be true and accurate in all material respects as of the effective time of the merger, in the opinion of Chapman and Cutler LLP ("Chapman and Cutler") and Vedder Price P.C. ("Vedder Price"), for United States federal income tax purposes, the merger will be treated as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

Provided that the merger qualifies as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes, you may recognize gain, but you will not recognize loss, upon the exchange of your shares of Bridgeview common stock for shares of First Midwest common stock and cash. If the sum of the fair market value of the First Midwest common stock and the amount of cash you receive in exchange for your shares of Bridgeview common stock (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of First Midwest common stock) exceeds the adjusted basis of your shares of Bridgeview common stock, you will recognize taxable gain equal to the lesser of the amount of such excess or the amount of cash you receive in the exchange (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of First Midwest common stock). Generally, any gain recognized upon the exchange will be capital gain, and any such capital gain will be long-term capital gain if you have established a holding period of more than one year for your shares of Bridgeview common stock. Depending on certain facts specific to you, any gain could instead be characterized as ordinary dividend income. In addition, you generally will recognize gain or loss with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of First Midwest common stock.

For a complete description of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the transaction, see "The Merger Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger." You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you of the merger.

Prohibition on Bridgeview Dividends; First Midwest's Dividend Policy Will Continue After the Merger (Pages 66 and 85)

Bridgeview is generally prohibited from paying cash dividends to holders of its common stock prior to completion of the merger.

First Midwest expects to continue its common stock dividend practice after the merger, but this practice is subject to the determination and discretion of First Midwest's board of directors and may change at any time. This determination depends on a variety of factors, including cash requirements, financial condition and earnings, legal and regulatory considerations and other factors. In the first three quarters of 2018, First Midwest declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.11 per share of First Midwest common stock and in the fourth quarter of 2018 and the first quarter of 2019, First Midwest declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.12 per share of First Midwest common stock.

Bridgeview has not declared or paid a dividend in 2018 or 2019.

Opinion of Bridgeview's Financial Advisor (Page 39)

On November 29, 2018 and December 6, 2018, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. ("Sandler") rendered its oral and written opinion, respectively, to the board of directors of Bridgeview that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the various factors, assumptions and limitations set forth in such opinion, the merger consideration in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Bridgeview common stock.

The full text of the written opinion of Sandler, dated December 6, 2018, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the opinion of Sandler set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. Bridgeview stockholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. Sandler's written opinion was addressed to the board of directors of Bridgeview (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the proposed merger and was directed only to the merger consideration in the proposed merger and did not address any other aspect of the merger. Sandler expressed no opinion as to the fairness of the consideration to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Bridgeview or as to the underlying decision by Bridgeview to engage in the merger. The issuance of Sandler's opinion was approved by a fairness opinion committee of Sandler. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any Bridgeview stockholders as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the proposed merger or any other matter.

Certain Directors and Executive Officers May Have Interests in the Merger That Differ from Your Interests (Page 57)

Certain directors and executive officers of Bridgeview and/or Bridgeview Bank have interests in the merger other than their interests as stockholders, including:

To the extent a director or executive officer holds unvested restricted stock awards, upon completion of the merger, such awards will become fully earned and vested per the terms of the Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc. Amended and Restated 2015 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Bridgeview Stock Plan") and the award agreements issued thereunder, and the shares of Bridgeview common stock subject to such awards will be converted into First Midwest common stock and cash, and to the extent a director or officer holds vested or unvested stock options, the options will be cancelled and terminated in exchange for a cash payment as discussed in the "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration," subject to any required withholding tax. As of the date of the merger agreement, directors and executive officers of Bridgeview and Bridgeview Bank, as a group, held 8,334 unvested restricted stock awards and 2,055,948 vested and 653,550 unvested stock options.

Bridgeview is party to employment agreements with Peter J. Haleas, Thomas P. Haleas and Bryan Griffin. The employment agreements provide for severance payments and benefits in the event that Bridgeview terminates their employment without just cause or in the event that they terminate with good reason. Good reason includes a reduction in base salary; a material reduction in target bonus opportunity other than an across-the-board reduction ordered by an applicable regulator of Bridgeview; the assignment of duties inconsistent with the senior executive's position, duties, responsibilities or authority; or a requirement for the senior executive to relocate to an office more than 15 miles from the senior executive's current office location. Bridgeview is party to change in control agreements with Peter J. Haleas, Gerald E. Pfeiffer, Bryan Griffin and Nicolas S. Mando (whom we will also refer to both individually and collectively as "change in control senior executive"), which entitles each change in control senior executive to a payment. Both the employment agreements and change in control agreements include restrictive covenants for one year following termination of employment, and to abide by confidentiality provisions indefinitely.

Thomas P. Haleas's employment will be terminated effective as of the merger, and pursuant to his employment agreement (as amended) with Bridgeview, upon such termination he will become entitled to a severance payment, certain benefits and title to the car utilized by him while employed by Bridgeview. In the event that Gerry Pfeiffer is terminated, he is not entitled to any severance payment other than the change in control payment mentioned above.

First Midwest has entered into offer letters for employment with Peter J. Haleas and Bryan Griffin contingent upon the merger. In recognition of Peter J. Haleas' agreement to enter into a new confidentiality and restrictive covenant agreement with First Midwest, as a retention incentive, and in lieu of a cash payment, the offer letter provides for receipt of title to the car he utilized while employed by Bridgeview. The offer letters also provide that upon termination of the senior executive's employment with First Midwest, the senior executives will receive the severance payments and benefits described in the executives' employment agreements with Bridgeview. Bryan Griffin's offer letter confirms his continued employment with First Midwest and includes certain compensation and benefits (which are commensurate with other senior level executives) as well as a new confidentiality and restrictive covenant agreement. First Midwest may determine to enter into new offer letters or other new employment arrangements with executive officers of Bridgeview that would be effective upon completion of the merger.

Bridgeview retained Sandler to serve as its financial advisor in connection with the merger. Pursuant to the engagement letter entered into between Bridgeview and Sandler, as compensation for Sandler's financial advisory services provided to Bridgeview, Bridgeview agreed to pay Sandler a success fee equal to one percent (1.00%) of the purchase consideration if the per share price, as defined in the engagement letter, is less than $10.10, one and fifteen-one hundredths percent (1.15%) of the purchase consideration if the per share price is greater than $10.10 but less than $10.60, one and three-tenths percent (1.30%) of the purchase consideration if the per share price is greater than $10.60 but less than $11.10 and one and forty five-one hundredths percent (1.45%) of the purchase consideration if the per share price is greater than $11.10.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, directors and officers of Bridgeview will be entitled to certain ongoing indemnification and coverage under directors' and officers' liability insurance policies following the merger.

Table of Contents

Bridgeview's board of directors was aware of these additional interests and considered them when they adopted the merger agreement and approved the merger. These additional interests of directors and officers are discussed further below in "The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger."

Holders of Bridgeview Common Stock Have Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal (Page 78)

If you are a holder of Bridgeview common stock, you may elect to dissent from the merger and exercise appraisal rights by following the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL"). For more information regarding your right to dissent from the merger and exercise appraisal rights, please see "The Merger Agreement Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal of Holders of Bridgeview Common Stock" on page 78. We have also attached a copy of the relevant provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

We Have Agreed When and How Bridgeview Can Consider Third-Party Acquisition Proposals (Page 69)

We have agreed that Bridgeview will not, and will cause its subsidiaries and its subsidiaries' representatives, agents, advisors and affiliates not to, solicit or encourage proposals from other parties regarding acquiring Bridgeview or its businesses. In addition, we have agreed that Bridgeview will not engage in negotiations with or provide confidential information to a third party regarding acquiring Bridgeview or its businesses. However, if Bridgeview receives an unsolicited acquisition proposal from a third party, Bridgeview can participate in negotiations with and provide confidential information to the third party if, among other steps, Bridgeview's board of directors concludes in good faith that the proposal is superior to First Midwest's merger proposal. Bridgeview's receipt of a superior proposal or participation in such negotiations does not give Bridgeview the right to terminate the merger agreement.

Approval of the Merger Agreement and the Transactions Contemplated Thereby Requires the Affirmative Vote of the Holders of a Majority of the Outstanding Shares of Bridgeview Voting Common Stock (Page 25)

In order to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview voting common stock as of the Bridgeview record date of April 1, 2019 must vote in favor of that matter. As of the Bridgeview record date, Bridgeview's directors and executive officers collectively held an aggregate 3,208,847 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (which includes 8,334 shares of outstanding Bridgeview restricted common stock)(or approximately 30% of the outstanding voting shares) entitled to vote at the special meeting. All of the directors and executive officers of Bridgeview and certain other Bridgeview stockholders who collectively own an additional 3,330,586 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (or approximately 32% of the outstanding voting shares) as of the Bridgeview record date, have signed voting agreements with First Midwest agreeing to vote for approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Accordingly, the holders of approximately 62% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the merger have entered into voting agreements with First Midwest to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Under the terms of the Bridgeview Stock Plan and award agreements thereunder, recipients of restricted stock awards are entitled to vote on behalf of the underlying shares of Bridgeview common stock, even while subject to vesting requirements, from the date of grant until such awards are forfeited, whereas holders of stock options do not have voting rights with respect to the shares of Bridgeview common stock underlying the unexercised stock options.

For a list of the number of shares of Bridgeview common stock held by (i) each director and executive officer of Bridgeview, (ii) all directors and executive officers of Bridgeview as a group, and (iii) significant stockholders of Bridgeview, see "Security Ownership of Certain Bridgeview Beneficial Owners and Management."

Certain Bridgeview Stockholders Have Agreed to Vote Their Shares "FOR" the Merger (Page 83 and Annex 1-B to Appendix A)

As an inducement to and condition of First Midwest's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, all of the directors and executive officers of Bridgeview and Bridgeview Bank, collectively holding an aggregate 3,208,847 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (which includes 8,334 shares of outstanding Bridgeview restricted common stock)(or approximately 30% of the outstanding voting shares) and certain other individuals or entities who collectively own an additional 3,330,586 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (or approximately 32% of the outstanding voting shares) as of the Bridgeview record date, entered into voting agreements, pursuant to which, among other things, they agreed to vote all of their shares of Bridgeview voting common stock in favor of approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and the other matters required to be approved or adopted to effect the merger and any other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Accordingly, the holders of approximately 62% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the merger have entered into voting agreements with First Midwest to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

We Must Meet Several Conditions to Complete the Merger (Page 73)

Our obligations to complete the merger depend on a number of conditions being met. These include:

the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by holders of a majority of the shares of Bridgeview voting common stock;

the approval of the conversion of the Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock into First Midwest common stock in the merger (the "conversion proposal") by holders of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock, which the holders of in excess of a majority of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock have agreed to approve; the receipt of the required approvals of federal and state regulatory authorities;

the listing on the Nasdaq Stock Market of the shares of First Midwest common stock to be issued in the merger;

the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, for the registration of the shares of First Midwest common stock to be issued in the merger;

the absence of any government action or other legal restraint or prohibition that would prohibit the merger or make it illegal;

the adjusted tangible common equity of Bridgeview as of its December 31, 2018 fiscal year-end will have been determined;

as to each of us, the representations and warranties of the other party to the merger agreement being true and correct in all material respects (except for representations and warranties qualified by the words "material" or "Material Adverse Effect," and certain representations and warranties regarding Bridgeview's capitalization, which are required to be true and correct in all respects) as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger, and the other party to the merger agreement having performed in all material respects all of its obligations and complied in all material respects with all of its agreements and covenants under the merger agreement;

as to each of us, the receipt of a legal opinion that, for United States federal income tax purposes, the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. This opinion will be based on customary assumptions and on factual representations made by First Midwest and Bridgeview and will be subject to various limitations; with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), the receipt of a legal opinion from Bridgeview's outside counsel, Vedder Price, as to certain corporate matters, including Bridgeview's due incorporation and legal standing, the legal status of Bridgeview's capital stock and the due authorization and execution of the merger agreement; with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), the number of dissenting shares of Bridgeview common stock must not exceed 7.5% of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview common stock;

with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), the receipt by Bridgeview of required third-party approvals;

with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), Bridgeview's closing adjusted tangible common equity, as defined in the merger agreement, must be greater than or equal to the minimum adjusted tangible common equity, as defined in the merger agreement; with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), the ten-day average of Bridgeview's consolidated deposits, excluding a deposit account identified in the merger agreement (the "identified deposit account"), as determined pursuant to the merger agreement, must be greater than or equal to $950,000,000 for the ten-day period ending on the day immediately prior to the closing date;

with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), Bridgeview's closing consolidated total loans (excluding loans held for sale) must be greater than or equal to $750,000,000; with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), the environmental and title review process of Bridgeview's real property set forth in the merger agreement will be completed in accordance with the provisions of the merger agreement; with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), the receipt by First Midwest of the resignations, effective as of the effective time of the merger, of each director and officer of Bridgeview determined pursuant to the merger agreement and each director and executive officer of Bridgeview Bank determined pursuant to the merger agreement;

with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), the receipt by First Midwest of a certificate by Bridgeview stating that it and Bridgeview Bank are not and have not been United States real property holding corporations; with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), a material adverse effect, as defined in the merger agreement, has not occurred to Bridgeview;

with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), the receipt by First Midwest of a certificate from certain officers of Bridgeview certifying the number of shares of Bridgeview stock outstanding as of the closing date;

with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), no action, suit, claim or proceeding will be pending against or affecting Bridgeview or First Midwest that is seeking to prohibit or make illegal the consummation of the merger;

with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), the identified deposit account will have been closed and the extensions of credit identified in the merger agreement will have been sold by Bridgeview prior to the closing date; and with regard to First Midwest's obligation (but not Bridgeview's), Plante & Moran, PLLC will have audited Bridgeview's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2018 and will have delivered to Bridgeview an unqualified opinion on such financial statements and First Midwest will have received a certificate from the officers of Bridgeview dated as of the closing that the foregoing has occurred.

Where the law permits, either of First Midwest or Bridgeview could choose to waive a condition to its obligation to complete the merger even when that condition has not been satisfied. We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed. Although the merger agreement allows both parties to waive the tax opinion condition, neither party currently anticipates doing so.

We Must Obtain Regulatory Approvals to Complete the Merger (Page 77)

The merger and the related transactions require approval from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the "Federal Reserve"), and our application for approval has been approved by the Federal Reserve. The bank merger must also be approved by the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation (the "IDFPR"), and our application for approval has been approved by the IDFPR.

We May Terminate the Merger Agreement (Page 75)

We can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, even if Bridgeview has received approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by its stockholders. Also, either of us can decide, without the consent of the other, to terminate the merger agreement in certain circumstances, including:

if there is a continuing breach of the merger agreement by a party, and the breaching party has not cured the breach within 15 days after delivery of written notice to such breaching party, as long as that breach would entitle the non-breaching party not to complete the merger;

if there is a final denial of a required regulatory approval or an application for a required regulatory approval has been withdrawn upon the request or recommendation of the applicable governmental authority and such governmental authority would not accept the refiling of such application;

if the merger is not completed on or before the 12-month anniversary of the date of the signing of the merger agreement; or if a material adverse effect, as defined in the merger agreement, occurs with respect to the other party.

In addition, First Midwest may terminate the merger agreement:

if holders of the requisite Bridgeview voting common stock fail to approve the merger proposal or if holders of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock fail to approve the conversion proposal;

if Bridgeview's board of directors fails to recommend approval of the merger agreement, the conversion proposal and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, to its stockholders, or withdraws or materially and adversely modifies its recommendation;

if Bridgeview's board of directors recommends an acquisition proposal other than the merger, or if Bridgeview's board of directors negotiates or authorizes negotiations with a third party regarding an acquisition proposal other than the merger and those negotiations continue for at least 10 business days;

if Bridgeview has breached its covenant not to solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any acquisition proposal, in circumstances not permitted under the merger agreement;

if the number of dissenting shares of Bridgeview common stock exceeds 7.5% of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview common stock; or if the adjustment amount for any real property as determined pursuant to the merger agreement is greater than $4,000,000.

Whether or not the merger is completed, we will each pay our own fees and expenses, except that we will each pay one-half of the costs and expenses that we incur in copying, printing and distributing this proxy statement/prospectus and all listing, filing or registration fees, including fees paid for filing the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part with the SEC and any other fees paid for filings with governmental authorities, except fees paid to counsel, financial advisors and accountants.

The merger agreement also provides that Bridgeview must pay First Midwest a fee and reimburse expenses in certain situations. In particular, Bridgeview will pay First Midwest a fee of $6,400,000 plus reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by First Midwest in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement if the merger agreement is terminated and, at or prior to the termination of the merger agreement or the 12-month anniversary of the termination of the merger agreement in certain circumstances set forth in the merger agreement, any of the following occurs:

Bridgeview's board of directors submits the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, to Bridgeview stockholders without a recommendation for approval or with material and adverse conditions on such approval, or withdraws or materially and adversely modifies its recommendation;

Bridgeview enters into an agreement to engage in a competing acquisition proposal with any person other than First Midwest or any of First Midwest's subsidiaries;

Bridgeview authorizes, recommends or proposes (or publicly announces its intention to authorize, recommend or propose) an agreement to engage in a competing acquisition proposal with any person other than First Midwest or its subsidiaries or recommends that Bridgeview stockholders approve or accept such a competing acquisition proposal;

any person, other than First Midwest or its subsidiaries, acquires beneficial ownership or the right to acquire beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of any class or series of Bridgeview common stock;

Bridgeview fails to convene a stockholder meeting to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, within 45 days of the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part; or

Bridgeview breaches its covenant not to solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any acquisition proposal in circumstances not permitted under the merger agreement, which covenant is described below under "The Merger Agreement Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties."

We May Amend or Waive Merger Agreement Provisions (Page 76)

At any time before completion of the merger, either First Midwest or Bridgeview may, to the extent legally allowed, waive in writing compliance by the other with any provision contained in the merger agreement. However, once holders of Bridgeview voting common stock have approved the merger proposal, no waiver of any condition may be made that would require further approval by Bridgeview stockholders unless that approval is obtained.

First Midwest may also change the structure of the merger or the method of effecting the merger before the effective time of the merger, by notice to Bridgeview at least five business days prior to the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, by all requisite votes of the holders of Bridgeview voting common stock, so long as any change does not: (i) change the kind or amount of consideration to be received by Bridgeview stockholders; (ii) adversely affect the tax consequences of the merger to Bridgeview stockholders; (iii) adversely affect the timing of or capability of completion of the merger; or (iv) cause or could not be reasonably expected to cause any of the conditions to complete the merger to be incapable of being satisfied.

The merger agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties. Any such amendment by the parties must be approved by the board of directors of First Midwest and the board of directors of Bridgeview at any time before or after the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by the stockholders of Bridgeview, except that no amendment may be made after the receipt of such approval which requires further approval of the stockholders of Bridgeview unless such further approval is obtained. Notwithstanding the foregoing, First Midwest and Bridgeview may, without approval of their respective boards of directors, make technical changes to the merger agreement, not inconsistent with the purposes of the merger agreement, as may be required to effect or facilitate any required government approvals or acceptance of the merger or of the merger agreement or to effect or facilitate any filing or recording required for the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The Rights of Bridgeview Stockholders Following the Merger Will Be Different (Page 90)

The rights of First Midwest stockholders are governed by Delaware law and by First Midwest's restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated by-laws. The rights of Bridgeview stockholders are also governed by Delaware law, and by Bridgeview's certificate of incorporation, as amended, and by-laws. Upon completion of the merger, the rights of both stockholder groups will be governed by Delaware law and First Midwest's restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated by-laws.

- (1) Presented on a tax-equivalent basis, assuming the applicable federal income tax rate for each period presented. As a result, interest income and yields on tax-exempt securities and loans subsequent to December 31, 2017 are presented using the current federal income tax rate of 21% and prior periods are computed using the federal income tax rate at that time of 35%.
- (2) This ratio includes acquired loans that are recorded at fair value through an acquisition adjustment, which incorporates credit risk as of the acquisition date with no allowance for credit losses being established at that time. As the acquisition adjustment is accreted into income over future periods, an allowance for credit losses is established as necessary to reflect credit deterioration.

Basel III Capital Rules became effective for First Midwest on January 1, 2015. These rules revise the risk-based capital requirements and introduce a new capital measure, CET1 to risk-weighted assets. As a result, ratios subsequent to December 31, 2014 are computed using the new rules and prior periods presented are reported using the regulatory guidance applicable at that time.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus, as well as First Midwest's other filings with the SEC and Bridgeview's other communications with its stockholders, may contain certain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "PSLRA"). These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that may cause actual results to be materially different from any results, levels of activity, performance, or achievements expressed or implied by any forward-looking statement. These factors include, among other things, the factors listed below.

In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as "may," "might," "will," "would," "should," "could," "expect," "plan," "intend," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "outlook," "predict," "project," "probable," "potential," "possible," "target," "continue," "look forward," or "assume" and words of similar import. Forward-looking statements are not historical facts or guarantees of future performance or outcomes, but instead express only management's beliefs regarding future results or events, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and outside of management's control. It is possible that actual results and events may differ, possibly materially, from the anticipated results or events indicated in these forward-looking statements. We caution you not to place undue reliance on these statements. Forward-looking statements are made only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, and First Midwest and Bridgeview undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect new information or events or conditions after the date hereof.

In connection with the safe harbor provisions of the PSLRA, we are hereby identifying important factors that could affect our financial performance and could cause our actual results for future periods to differ materially from any opinions or statements expressed with respect to future periods in any forward-looking statements.

Among the factors that could impact our ability to achieve operating results, growth plan goals, and the beliefs expressed or implied in forward-looking statements are:

the risk that the business of First Midwest and Bridgeview will not be integrated successfully, or such integration may be more difficult, time consuming or costly than expected;

expected revenue synergies, cost savings and other financial or other benefits of the proposed transaction between First Midwest and Bridgeview might not be realized within the expected time frames or might be less than projected;

revenues following the merger may be lower than expected; deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption following the merger, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, may be greater than expected;

the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the merger, or the ability to obtain such regulatory approvals in a timely manner;

the potential impact of announcement or completion of the merger on relationships with third parties, including customers, employees, and competitors; business disruption following the merger, including diversion of management's attention from ongoing business operations and opportunities;

the failure of holders of Bridgeview voting common stock to approve the merger proposal; changes in the level of non-performing assets and charge-offs;

First Midwest's potential exposure to unknown contingent liabilities of Bridgeview;

Table of Contents

any interruption or breach of security resulting in failures or disruptions in customer account management, general ledger, deposit, loan, or other systems;

changes in estimates of future reserve requirements based upon the periodic review thereof under relevant regulatory and accounting requirements; changes in First Midwest's stock price before closing, including as a result of the financial performance of Bridgeview prior to closing;

inflation, interest rate, securities market and monetary fluctuations; credit and interest rate risks associated with First Midwest's and Bridgeview's respective businesses, customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices;

general economic conditions, either internationally, nationally or in the market areas in which First Midwest and Bridgeview operate or anticipate doing business, may be less favorable than expected;

changes in the economic environment, competition or other factors that may influence the anticipated growth of loans and deposits, the quality of the loan portfolio and loan and deposit pricing; changes in the competitive environment among financial holding companies and banks;

new regulatory or legal requirements or obligations with which First Midwest and Bridgeview must comply; and other economic, competitive, governmental, regulatory and technological factors affecting First Midwest's and Bridgeview's operations, products, services and prices.

The foregoing list of important factors may not be all inclusive, and we specifically decline to undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statement is made, or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. For a further discussion of these and other risks, uncertainties and other factors applicable to First Midwest and Bridgeview, see "Risk Factors" in this proxy statement/prospectus and First Midwest's other filings with the SEC incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the heading "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements," you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote on the proposals presented in this proxy statement/prospectus. You should also consider the other information in, and the other documents incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus, including in particular the risk factors associated with First Midwest's business contained under the heading "Risk Factors" in First Midwest's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018. See "Where You Can Find More Information."

Because the market price of First Midwest common stock will fluctuate, Bridgeview stockholders cannot be certain of the market value of the merger consideration they will receive.

Upon completion of the merger, each holder of shares of Bridgeview common stock, will receive a number of shares of First Midwest common stock in exchange for each share of Bridgeview common stock held immediately prior to the completion of the merger calculated based on the exchange ratio, plus the cash consideration. Any change to the market price of First Midwest common stock prior to completion of the merger will affect the value of any shares of First Midwest common stock Bridgeview stockholders receive as consideration in the merger. The market price of First Midwest common stock may fluctuate as a result of variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are outside of our control. Accordingly, at the time of the Bridgeview special meeting, Bridgeview stockholders will not know or be able to calculate the market price of First Midwest common stock that they will receive upon completion of the merger.

The cash consideration will not be determined until the effective time of the merger and Bridgeview stockholders may not be certain of the amount of the cash consideration they will receive for their Bridgeview shares in connection with the merger.

In connection with the merger, holders of Bridgeview common stock will receive $1.79 per share subject to certain adjustments that will be determined prior to completion of the merger. Due to the fact that certain of these adjustments may not be determinable prior to the date of the Bridgeview special meeting, at the time of the vote on the merger proposal at the Bridgeview special meeting, holders of Bridgeview common stock may not know the amount of cash consideration they will receive as part of the merger consideration. Based on information available as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the adjustment to the cash consideration per share of Bridgeview common stock is reasonably expected to result in a decrease of between $0.18 per share of Bridgeview common stock and a decrease of $0.62 per share of Bridgeview common stock. For a description of the potential adjustments to the cash consideration, see "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration."

Bridgeview will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Bridgeview and consequently on First Midwest. These uncertainties may impair Bridgeview's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that do business with Bridgeview to seek to change existing business relationships with Bridgeview. Retention of certain employees may be challenging during the pendency of the merger, as employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with First Midwest. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with First Midwest, First Midwest's business following the merger could be harmed. In addition, the merger agreement restricts Bridgeview from making certain acquisitions and taking other specified actions without First Midwest's consent, and generally requires Bridgeview to continue its operations in the ordinary course until the merger occurs. These restrictions may prevent Bridgeview from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. For a description of the restrictive covenants to which Bridgeview is subject, see "The Merger Agreement Conduct of Business Pending the Merger."

Combining our two companies may be more difficult, costly or time-consuming than we currently expect, and we may fail to realize the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the merger.

First Midwest and Bridgeview have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate independently. The success of the merger, including the realization of anticipated benefits and cost savings, will depend, in part, on First Midwest's ability to successfully combine and integrate Bridgeview's business into its own in a manner that permits growth opportunities and does not materially disrupt existing customer relationships or result in decreased revenues due to loss of customers. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of either company's ongoing business or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with customers and employees. As with any merger of banking institutions, there also may be business disruptions that cause us to lose customers or cause customers to take their deposits or loans out of our banks. The success of the combined company following the merger and the bank merger may depend, in part, on the ability of First Midwest to integrate the two businesses, business models and cultures. If First Midwest experiences difficulties in the integration process, including those listed above, First Midwest may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger in a timely manner or at all. First Midwest's business or results of operations or the value of its common stock may be materially and adversely affected as a result.

The market price of First Midwest common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting First Midwest common stock.

The businesses of First Midwest and Bridgeview differ in some respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of First Midwest common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of First Midwest or Bridgeview. For a discussion of the business of First Midwest and of certain factors to consider in connection with the business of First Midwest, see the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under "Where You Can Find More Information," including, in particular, the section entitled "Risk Factors" in First Midwest's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or that could have an adverse effect on the combined company following the merger.

Before the merger and the bank merger may be completed, First Midwest and Bridgeview must obtain approvals from the Federal Reserve, which has been received, and the IDFP, which has been received. Other approvals, waivers or consents from regulators may also be required. In determining whether to grant these approvals the regulators consider a variety of factors, including the regulatory standing of each party and the factors described under "The Merger Agreement Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger." An adverse development in either party's regulatory standing or these factors could result in a delay of or an inability to obtain regulatory approval. The regulators may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or the bank merger or require changes to the terms of the merger or the bank merger. Such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying or preventing completion of the merger or the bank merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of the combined company following the merger and the bank merger, any of which might have an adverse effect on the combined company following the merger. See "The Merger Agreement Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger." Regulatory approvals could also be adversely impacted based on the status of any ongoing investigation of either party or its customers, including subpoenas to provide information or investigations by a federal, state or local governmental agency. Further, delays to the regulatory approval process may occur as a result of government shutdowns, including another federal government shutdown such as the one that concluded in January 2019, which resulted in curtailed operations by the Federal Reserve, the SEC and other agencies. We cannot guarantee that we will be able to obtain all required regulatory approvals, the timing of those approvals or whether any conditions will be imposed.

Some Bridgeview directors and officers may have interests and arrangements that may have influenced their decisions to support or recommend that you approve the merger.

Bridgeview's stockholders should be aware that some of Bridgeview's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Bridgeview's stockholders generally. These interests and arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. Bridgeview's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger agreement, and in recommending that holders of Bridgeview voting common stock vote in favor of the merger proposal.

For a more complete description of these interests, see "The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger."

The merger agreement limits Bridgeview's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement contains provisions that limit Bridgeview's ability to solicit, encourage or discuss competing third-party proposals to acquire all or a significant part of Bridgeview. These provisions, which include a $6,400,000 termination fee, might discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Bridgeview from considering or proposing that acquisition, even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in the merger, or might result in a potential competing acquiror proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire Bridgeview than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

Termination of the merger agreement could negatively impact First Midwest or Bridgeview.

In the event the merger agreement is terminated, First Midwest's or Bridgeview's business may be adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the merger. The market price of First Midwest common stock might decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed. If the merger agreement is terminated and Bridgeview's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, Bridgeview stockholders cannot be certain that Bridgeview will be able to find a party willing to offer equivalent or more attractive consideration than the merger consideration provided in the merger. If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Bridgeview may be required to pay First Midwest a termination fee of $6,400,000. If the merger agreement is terminated, First Midwest or Bridgeview may experience negative reactions from its customers, vendors and employees. See "The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement."

If the merger is not completed, First Midwest and Bridgeview will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the merger.

Each of First Midwest and Bridgeview has incurred and will incur substantial expenses in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, as well as the costs and expenses of filing, printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger. If the merger is not completed, First Midwest and Bridgeview would have to recognize these expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the merger.

Holders of Bridgeview common stock will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Holders of Bridgeview common stock currently have the right to vote on matters affecting Bridgeview. Upon the completion of the merger, each Bridgeview stockholder who receives shares of First Midwest common stock will become a stockholder of First Midwest with a percentage ownership of First Midwest with respect to such shares that is smaller than the stockholder's current percentage ownership of Bridgeview. Since the exchange ratio is 0.2767 of a share of First Midwest common stock per each issued and outstanding share of Bridgeview common stock, following the effective time of the merger, the former stockholders of Bridgeview as a group would receive shares in the merger constituting approximately 4.4% of the outstanding shares of First Midwest common stock immediately after the merger based on the number of shares of First Midwest common stock and Bridgeview common stock outstanding as of April 2, 2019. Because of this, Bridgeview stockholders will have less influence on the management and policies of First Midwest than they now have on the management and policies of Bridgeview.

The opinion of Bridgeview's financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances between the signing of the merger agreement and the completion of the merger.

Bridgeview has not obtained an updated opinion from Sandler, its financial advisor, as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. Sandler's opinion was based on certain facts and assumptions regarding the operations and prospects of First Midwest and Bridgeview, general market and economic conditions and other factors. Changes in the operations and prospects of First Midwest or Bridgeview, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of First Midwest or Bridgeview may significantly alter the value of First Midwest or Bridgeview, the price of shares of First Midwest common stock by the time the merger is completed or the future price at which First Midwest common stock trades. Sandler's opinion does not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. The opinion will not address the fairness of the merger consideration from a financial point of view at the time a Bridgeview stockholder votes or at the time the merger is completed. However, Bridgeview's board of directors' recommendation that Bridgeview stockholders vote "FOR" adoption of the merger agreement is made as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of the opinion that Bridgeview received from Sandler, please refer to "The Merger Opinion of Bridgeview's Financial Advisor".

The shares of First Midwest common stock that Bridgeview stockholders will receive as a result of the merger will have different rights from shares of Bridgeview common stock.

The rights associated with Bridgeview common stock are different from the rights associated with First Midwest common stock. For a discussion of the different rights associated with First Midwest common stock, see "Comparison of Stockholder Rights."

Under certain circumstances, the merger consideration may be reduced due to environmental conditions and/or title defects on Bridgeview's real property.

The merger consideration may be subject to adjustment if certain environmental conditions exist with respect to Bridgeview's real property and/or title defects exist with respect to any of Bridgeview's real property and the estimated costs to remediate these conditions/defects is greater than $100,000. In that case, the cash consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to the diminution in value of any real property related to any environmental conditions with respect to Bridgeview's real property and/or any title defect that exists with respect to any of Bridgeview's real property. For a further description of the possible reduction, please refer to "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration".

Under certain circumstances, the merger consideration may be reduced due to Bridgeview's failure to dispose of certain assets and liabilities related to its residential home mortgage business.

The merger consideration may be subject to adjustment if certain assets and liabilities related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business are not disposed of. If any of the specified leases or contracts related to the residential home mortgage business are not sold, assigned or otherwise disposed of, the cash consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to a multiple of any amounts remaining due under those agreements. If there are any principal amounts remaining under any mortgage loans related to the residential home mortgage business, the cash consideration will be reduced by an amount based upon the principal amount remaining under those loans. For a further description of the possible adjustment, please refer to "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration".

Under certain circumstances, the merger consideration may be adjusted due to Bridgeview disposing of the identified assets.

The merger consideration may be subject to adjustment if Bridgeview sells or otherwise disposes of the identified assets for less than or greater than the assumed value of the identified assets prior to the closing date. If the proceeds from any sale or disposition of an identified asset are less than the assumed value of that asset, the cash consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between the proceeds from the disposition of any of the identified assets and the assumed value of that identified asset. If the proceeds from any sale or disposition of an identified asset are greater than the assumed value of that asset, the cash consideration will be increased by an amount equal to the difference between the proceeds from the disposition of any identified asset and the assumed value of that identified asset. For a further description of the possible adjustment, please refer to "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration".

The merger consideration may be adjusted due to Bridgeview's sale of, or failure to sell, the identified real property.

The merger consideration may be subject to adjustment if Bridgeview sells, or if Bridgeview fails to sell the identified real property. If Bridgeview sells the identified real property for less than the amount determined pursuant to the merger agreement prior to the closing date the cash consideration will be reduced by an amount dependent upon the proceeds from the sale of such identified real property. If Bridgeview sells the identified real property for greater than the amount determined pursuant to the merger agreement prior to the closing date the cash consideration will be increased by an amount dependent upon the proceeds from the sale of such identified real property. If Bridgeview fails to sell the identified real property prior to the closing date the cash consideration may be reduced. For a further description of the possible adjustment, please refer to "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration".

Under certain circumstances, the merger consideration may be adjusted due to Bridgeview's disposition of certain life insurance contracts.

The merger consideration may be subject to adjustment if Bridgeview disposes of certain life insurance contracts prior to the closing date. If Bridgeview sells any life insurance contract prior to the closing date for less than the book value applicable to such life insurance contract, the cash consideration may be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between the proceeds from the disposition of the life insurance contract and the book value applicable to the life insurance contract. If Bridgeview sells any life insurance contract for greater than the book value applicable to the life insurance contract, the cash consideration may be increased by an amount equal to the difference between the proceeds from the disposition of the life insurance contract and the book value applicable to the life insurance contract. If any life insurance contract is not sold prior to the closing date, the cash consideration will be increased or decreased based on whether the median of three bids obtained from an independent insurance consultant for the life insurance contract is greater than or less than the book value applicable to such life insurance contract. For a further description of the possible adjustment, please refer to "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration".

The merger consideration may be adjusted due to the amount of Bridgeview's year-end adjusted tangible common equity.

The merger consideration may be subject to adjustment if the Bridgeview year-end adjusted tangible common equity is different than the minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity set forth in the merger agreement. If Bridgeview's year-end adjusted tangible common equity is less than the minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity, the cash consideration may be reduced. If the Bridgeview year-end adjusted tangible common equity is greater than the minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity, the cash consideration may be increased by an amount equal to the difference between the year-end adjusted tangible common equity and the minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity. For a further description of the possible adjustment, please refer to "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration".

Completion of the merger is subject to certain conditions, and if these conditions are not satisfied or waived, the merger will not be completed.

The obligations of First Midwest and Bridgeview to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver (if permitted) of a number of conditions. The satisfaction of all of the required conditions could delay the completion of the merger for a significant period of time or prevent it from occurring. Any delay in completing the merger could cause the combined company not to realize some or all of the benefits that the combined company expects to achieve if the merger is successfully completed within its expected time frame. Further, there can be no assurance that the conditions to the closing of the merger will be satisfied or waived or that the merger will be completed. See "The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger."

In addition, if the merger is not completed on or before December 6, 2019, either First Midwest or Bridgeview may choose not to proceed with the merger. First Midwest and/or Bridgeview may also terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances. See "The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement."

BRIDGEVIEW SPECIAL MEETING

This section contains information from Bridgeview for Bridgeview stockholders about the special meeting Bridgeview has called to consider and approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by the holders of Bridgeview voting common stock. On or about April 8, 2019, Bridgeview commenced mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus to holders of Bridgeview voting common stock. Together with this proxy statement/prospectus, we are also sending to stockholders of Bridgeview's voting common stock a notice of the Bridgeview special meeting and a form of proxy card that Bridgeview's board of directors is soliciting for use at the Bridgeview special meeting and at any adjournments of the meeting.

Accordingly, the holders of approximately 62% of the outstanding voting shares entitled to vote on the merger have entered into voting agreements with First Midwest to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Bridgeview Record Date and Quorum

Record Date

Table of Contents

If you hold shares of Bridgeview voting common stock indirectly through a broker, you are considered a beneficial owner of those shares but are not the stockholder of record. In this circumstance, you are a stockholder whose shares are held in "street name" and your broker is considered the stockholder of record. We sent copies of this proxy statement/prospectus directly to all holders of record of Bridgeview voting common stock. If you are a beneficial owner whose shares are held in street name, these materials were sent to you by the broker through which you hold your shares. As the beneficial owner, you may direct your broker how to vote your shares at the Bridgeview special meeting, and the broker is obligated to provide you with a voting instruction form for you to use for this purpose.

Quorum Requirements

A quorum is required to transact business and consider each proposal at the Bridgeview special meeting. The presence at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview voting common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. All shares of Bridgeview voting common stock present in person or represented by proxy, including abstentions, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the Bridgeview special meeting but shares represented by a proxy from a broker indicating that such person has not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other person entitled to vote the shares, which we refer to as "broker non-votes," will not be counted as shares present.

Vote Required; Treatment of Abstentions and Failure to Vote

Merger Proposal

Approval of the merger proposal, requires the affirmative vote of Bridgeview stockholders representing a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview voting common stock as of the close of business on the Bridgeview record date. If you fail to submit a proxy card or vote in person at the Bridgeview special meeting, mark "ABSTAIN" on your proxy card or fail to instruct your bank or broker for shares held in street name with respect to the proposal to approve the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" approval of the merger proposal. The merger proposal will not require the approval of the holders of First Midwest common stock under the DGCL or applicable rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market.

Bridgeview Adjournment Proposal

Approval of the Bridgeview adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Bridgeview voting common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Bridgeview special meeting. If you mark "ABSTAIN" with respect to the Bridgeview adjournment proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the Bridgeview adjournment proposal, and broker non-votes will have no effect on the approval of the Bridgeview adjournment proposal assuming a quorum has been established.

Shares Held by Directors and Officers

Each of the directors of Bridgeview, in his or her capacity as a beneficial owner of shares of Bridgeview common stock, has entered into a voting agreement with First Midwest, the form of which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex 1-B to Appendix A, in which each such director has agreed to vote all shares of Bridgeview voting common stock that he or she beneficially owns and has the power to vote in favor of the merger proposal and any other matter that is required to be approved by the stockholders of Bridgeview to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The directors also agreed to vote against any proposal made in opposition to the approval of the merger or in competition with the merger agreement and against any other acquisition proposal. See "The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger."

As of the close of business on the Bridgeview record date, Bridgeview's directors and executive officers and their affiliates collectively held approximately an aggregate of 3,208,847 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (which includes 8,334 shares of outstanding restricted Bridgeview voting common stock)(or approximately 30% of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview voting common stock) entitled to vote at the Bridgeview special meeting.

As of the Bridgeview record date, except in a fiduciary capacity, First Midwest and its subsidiaries held no shares of Bridgeview common stock, and none of its directors and executive officers and their affiliates held shares of Bridgeview common stock.

Shares Held by Other Stockholders

Certain other Bridgeview stockholders who collectively own 3,330,586 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (or approximately 32% of the outstanding voting shares) as of the Bridgeview record date, have entered into a voting agreement with First Midwest, the form of which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex I-B to Appendix A, in which each such individual or entity has agreed to vote all shares of Bridgeview voting common stock that he, she or it beneficially owns and has the power to vote in favor of the merger proposal and any other matter that is required to be approved by the stockholders of Bridgeview to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These individuals or entities also agreed to vote against any proposal made in opposition to the approval of the merger or in competition with the merger agreement and against any other acquisition proposal. Each of the holders of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock has agreed to waive its rights to, among other things, elect to receive in the merger securities that are comparable in rights and restrictions to the Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock, and the holders of in excess of a majority of the shares of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock have agreed to consent and accept in the merger the conversion of the shares of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock into shares of First Midwest common stock, which majority acceptance would satisfy the approval provisions of the Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock as set forth in Bridgeview's certificate of incorporation, as amended.

Participants in the Bridgeview Stock Plan

Bridgeview sponsors the Bridgeview Stock Plan. Under the terms of the Bridgeview Stock Plan and award agreements thereunder, recipients of restricted stock awards are entitled to vote on behalf of the underlying shares of Bridgeview common stock, even while subject to vesting requirements, from the date of grant until such awards are forfeited, whereas holders of stock options do not have voting rights with respect to the shares of Bridgeview common stock underlying the unexercised stock options. Holders of Bridgeview restricted stock will vote in the same manner as holders of Bridgeview voting common stock. As of the Bridgeview record date, shares held by participants under the Bridgeview Stock Plan represented approximately 0.08% of the shares of Bridgeview voting common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Solicitation of Proxies; Payment of Solicitation Expenses

Proxies are being solicited by Bridgeview's board of directors from stockholders of Bridgeview voting common stock. Shares of Bridgeview voting common stock represented by properly executed proxies, and that have not been revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on the proxies. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, solicitation may be made by certain directors, officers or employees of Bridgeview or its affiliates telephonically, electronically or by other means of communication. Directors, officers and employees will receive no additional compensation for such solicitation. Although Bridgeview does not anticipate using a paid proxy solicitor in connection with the special meeting, Bridgeview may do so if determined to be appropriate.

THE MERGER

The following discussion describes certain material information about the merger. We urge you to read carefully this entire document, including the merger agreement and the financial advisor opinion of Sandler delivered to the board of directors of Bridgeview, attached as Appendices A and B, respectively, to this proxy statement/prospectus, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

Terms of the Merger

First Midwest's board of directors and Bridgeview's board of directors have each unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The merger agreement provides for combining our companies through the merger of Bridgeview with and into First Midwest, with First Midwest as the surviving corporation. As a result, the separate existence of Bridgeview will terminate. Following the merger at such time as First Midwest may determine, Bridgeview Bank, Bridgeview's wholly owned bank subsidiary, will merge with and into First Midwest Bank, First Midwest's wholly owned bank subsidiary, with First Midwest Bank being the surviving bank. Following the bank merger, First Midwest Bank will continue its corporate existence as a commercial bank organized under the laws of the State of Illinois. We expect to complete the merger in the second quarter of 2019, although delays may occur.

Upon completion of the merger, each holder of shares of Bridgeview common stock will receive the merger consideration, consisting of a number of shares of First Midwest common stock in exchange for each share of Bridgeview common stock held immediately prior to the completion of the merger calculated based on the exchange ratio, plus the cash consideration, which amount of cash consideration is subject to adjustment as described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The exchange ratio of 0.2767 is not subject to adjustment but the value of the First Midwest common stock to be received by holders of Bridgeview common stock in the merger will fluctuate based on the trading price of First Midwest common stock. The cash consideration of $1.79 per share of Bridgeview common stock is subject to potential increases or decreases based on the occurrence of certain events as provided in the merger agreement. These events and the corresponding adjustments are summarized as follows:

if any of the specified leases or contracts related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business have not been disposed of as of February 28, 2019, the cash consideration will be reduced by a multiple of the amounts remaining under such agreements;

if there are any outstanding principal balances under any mortgage loans remaining related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business as of March 1, 2019 totaling more than $500,000 in the aggregate, the cash consideration will be reduced by all or a portion of the outstanding principal loan balances depending on the aggregate amount of such balances outstanding at that time;

the cash consideration will be increased or decreased depending on whether or not Bridgeview sells the identified real property prior to the completion of the merger and the price at which it may be sold;

if Bridgeview sells any of the life insurance contracts identified in the merger agreement prior to the completion of the merger, the cash consideration may be increased or decreased based on whether the life insurance contract is sold for greater or less than its book value determined pursuant to the merger agreement; however, if Bridgeview fails to sell any of the life insurance contracts identified in the merger agreement, an independent insurance consultant will be engaged to solicit three bids for each of the unsold life insurance contracts and the cash consideration will be increased or decreased based on such bids as provided in the merger agreement;

if Bridgeview sells or otherwise disposes of the identified assets, the cash consideration will be increased or decreased by the difference between the proceeds of the disposition and the assumed value of each asset as determined pursuant to the merger agreement;

if Bridgeview is unable to cure or remove any conditions listed on the title of any real property transferred to First Midwest or there are any costs or expenses necessary to address any environmental conditions at any real property transferred to First Midwest, the cash consideration may be reduced; and if Bridgeview's year-end adjusted tangible common equity is different than the minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity identified in the merger agreement, the cash consideration will be increased or decreased based on whether the year-end adjusted tangible common equity is greater or less than the minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity.

Due to the fact that certain of these adjustments may not be determinable prior to the date of the special meeting, at the time of the vote on the merger proposal at the special meeting, stockholders of Bridgeview common stock may not know the amount of cash consideration they will receive as part of the merger consideration. Based on information available as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the range of the adjustments to the cash consideration of $1.79 per share of Bridgeview common stock is reasonably expected to result in a decrease of between $0.18 per share of Bridgeview common stock and a decrease of $0.62 per share of Bridgeview common stock.

All unvested Bridgeview restricted stock awards outstanding immediately prior to the merger will become fully vested upon completion of the merger, and the holders thereof will be entitled to receive the same merger consideration for the shares of Bridgeview common stock subject to such awards as all other holders of Bridgeview common stock. Additionally, Bridgeview will take all actions necessary to cause the holders of options for Bridgeview common stock to execute agreements prior to the merger to cancel such options in exchange for a lump sum cash payment.

For additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about the conditions to the merger and the provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement, see "The Merger Agreement."

Background of the Merger

As part of its ongoing consideration and evaluation of Bridgeview's long-term business strategy, the board of directors of Bridgeview has engaged in periodic strategic reviews during which the board discussed Bridgeview's strategic direction, performance and prospects in the context of trends and developments in the markets that Bridgeview serves, the banking industry and the regulatory environment. As part of such strategic reviews, the Bridgeview board consulted with its financial and legal advisors, Sandler and Vedder Price. Among other things, these discussions have focused on the highly competitive landscape and recent bank acquisition transactions in the Chicago metropolitan market, as well as possible strategic alternatives available to Bridgeview.

During recent years, while Bridgeview continued to successfully grow its asset base and operations, Bridgeview's board of directors considered the potential benefits of a business combination and other strategic alternatives with a larger financial institution that would allow Bridgeview to continue providing high-quality and personalized services to its customers while taking advantage of economies of scale. In considering these potential business combinations and strategic alternatives, Bridgeview's board of directors has been focused on providing Bridgeview's stockholders with enhanced liquidity and long-term value.

In October 2017, Bridgeview's senior management had discussions with Sandler and Vedder Price regarding merger and acquisition activity in the Chicagoland area and then-current transaction pricing for mergers involving community banks. After reviewing and discussing this information, Bridgeview's senior management decided that it was in the best interests of Bridgeview and its stockholders to consider strategic alternatives, including potential strategic combinations.

On October 27, 2017, Bridgeview retained Sandler to contact potential strategic partners that may be interested in an acquisition of Bridgeview. At this time, Bridgeview also requested that Sandler provide a fairness opinion in the event that Bridgeview entered into any potential strategic transaction. During the period between November 20, 2017 and December 22, 2017, Sandler contacted approximately 14 parties to assess their potential interest in an acquisition of Bridgeview. After engaging in these initial discussions with many of these parties, Bridgeview entered into confidentiality agreements with four interested parties. After the confidentiality agreements were signed with these four interested parties, including First Midwest, information was made available to permit the interested parties the opportunity to conduct further preliminary due diligence. This information included a Confidential Information Memorandum ("CIM") and access to a virtual data room. However, the four interested parties did not extend any indications of interest to engage in a strategic acquisition of Bridgeview. Each of the four interested parties, as well as the majority of the other parties that were contacted and did not enter into confidentiality agreements, indicated to Bridgeview that they could not move forward due to their lack of interest in Bridgeview's nationwide residential home mortgage business, which at that time averaged $2.5 billion in annual originations. Consequently, in January 2018, Bridgeview suspended its search for a strategic partner.

In late March 2018, Bridgeview's senior management believed that industry market conditions had empirically improved and determined that it was in the best interests of Bridgeview and its stockholders to conduct a new assessment of buyer interest. Due to the lack of interest in Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business as shown in the 2017 search for a strategic partner, and upon further discussions with Sandler, Bridgeview's senior management determined that it would be advisable to market Bridgeview without its residential home mortgage division. As part of that discussion, Bridgeview's senior management determined that it would consider selling, dissolving or spinning off its residential home mortgage business into a separate entity in connection with a favorable acquisition offer and directed Sandler to again reach out to potentially interested parties.

In late March and early April 2018, Sandler reached out to approximately eight potential partners to gauge interest in a potential acquisition of Bridgeview without its residential home mortgage division. Sandler distributed a new CIM and related materials to the original four interested parties, including First Midwest, and one additional party after that party entered into a form of confidentiality agreement. Throughout March, April and May 2018, the five interested parties conducted additional due diligence on Bridgeview and its operations, including meetings with Bridgeview's senior management.

In early May 2018, two interested parties, which did not include First Midwest, provided preliminary non-binding indications of interest regarding an acquisition of Bridgeview, each on the assumption that any strategic combination would not include Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business. The valuations for these two preliminary indications ranged from $8.00 to $8.64 per share of Bridgeview common stock.

On or around May 11, 2018, Sandler reviewed and discussed with Bridgeview's senior management the two preliminary non-binding indications of interest received by Bridgeview and provided a summary of the financial terms contained in the indications of interest. Bridgeview's senior management discussed these and other relevant terms with Vedder Price. Sandler also provided Bridgeview's senior management with a summary of First Midwest's continued interest in pursuing an acquisition of Bridgeview and their desire to provide a preliminary indication of interest in late May. After discussing the current and expected indications of interest, Bridgeview's senior management determined that it was in the best interest of Bridgeview and its stockholders to allow First Midwest and the two other interested parties ("Party A" and "Party B") to conduct additional due diligence, which was conducted through June 2018.

Throughout the remainder of May and early June 2018, Sandler provided First Midwest, Party A and Party B with updated bid instructions requesting final bids by mid-June.

On or prior to June 11, 2018, Bridgeview received a non-binding indication of interest from First Midwest and an update from Party A. Party B failed to submit an updated bid.

During the next week, Bridgeview met and had discussions with its financial and legal advisors to review each of the updated non-binding indications of interest. During these meetings, Sandler made a presentation outlining the financial terms of each offer. Vedder Price also provided Bridgeview with an overview of certain other terms of each offer. After reviewing each updated offer in detail with its financial and legal advisors, Bridgeview's senior management determined that First Midwest's offer was superior to Party A's offer. Bridgeview's senior management instructed Sandler to further negotiate the terms of First Midwest's offer.

From late June through mid-August 2018, Bridgeview actively marketed its residential home mortgage division to third parties for a potential sale and took actions to dispose of certain contingent liabilities.

From late June through mid-August 2018, First Midwest continued its due diligence review of Bridgeview. Between August 17, 2018 and August 22, 2018, First Midwest and Bridgeview, through their respective financial advisors, discussed an update to First Midwest's June non-binding indication of interest based on First Midwest's additional due diligence. On August 22, 2018, First Midwest submitted an updated non-binding indication of interest with a revised purchase price of $8.76 per share of Bridgeview common stock. Pursuant to the terms of this updated non-binding indication of interest, the proposed per share merger consideration would consist of (i) a fixed exchange ratio of 0.2767 shares of First Midwest common stock and (ii) a fixed $1.31 (subject to increase based on Bridgeview achieving year-end adjusted tangible common equity above a targeted level) in cash in exchange for each outstanding share of Bridgeview common stock. The proposal indicated that several items remained to be resolved prior to signing a definitive merger agreement, including the status of the planned disposition of Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business, agreement on the valuation of certain fixed assets, further due diligence around the life insurance contracts, potential pricing adjustments related to the disposition of certain specified OREO properties, Bridgeview's year-end adjusted tangible common equity and other due diligence matters.

On August 22, 2018, in connection with the updated non-binding indication of interest, Bridgeview and First Midwest signed a 60-day exclusivity agreement with a 30-day extension period if both parties were proceeding towards a transaction. During late August and early September 2018, First Midwest continued its due diligence review of Bridgeview. In addition, Bridgeview and First Midwest negotiated the material terms of the transaction, including the proposed merger consideration and potential purchase price adjustments, including potential upward and downward adjustments. First Midwest and Bridgeview also discussed purchase price adjustments concerning Bridgeview's contingent liabilities and retention of certain life insurance contracts.

Table of Contents

On September 11, 2018, First Midwest and its outside counsel, Chapman and Cutler, provided an initial draft of the merger agreement to Vedder Price. This draft also included drafts of a form voting agreement, pursuant to which Bridgeview directors, certain senior management and certain other Bridgeview stockholders would vote in favor of the merger and other matters to be voted on in connection with the merger, and a form confidentiality, non-solicitation and non-competition agreement, which all of the directors and certain senior management of Bridgeview would be required to execute.

Throughout September and October 2018, First Midwest continued to conduct due diligence on Bridgeview, including an on-site management due diligence session between the parties on October 3, 2018, and the parties continued to negotiate the material terms of the proposed transaction and exchange drafts of a proposed merger agreement. In addition, Bridgeview continued with its strategic decision to actively market its residential home mortgage business to potential third party buyers. On October 30, 2018, Bridgeview entered into an asset purchase and assumption agreement to sell substantially all of the assets and liabilities associated with its nationwide residential home mortgage business to a third party buyer.

In early November 2018, Chapman and Cutler provided Vedder Price with an updated draft of the merger agreement and certain other ancillary documents, including the proposed forms of the voting agreement and the confidentiality, non-solicitation and non-competition agreement. As part of the continuing discussion and negotiation between Bridgeview and First Midwest, and taking into consideration the expected level of Bridgeview's year-end adjusted tangible common equity above a targeted level, the updated draft of the merger agreement included a revised proposed per share merger consideration amount consisting of (i) 0.2767 shares of First Midwest common stock and (ii) approximately $1.79 in cash in exchange for each outstanding share of Bridgeview common stock, subject to certain adjustments. Following receipt of the updated draft merger agreement, the parties continued to negotiate the terms of the proposed transaction.

Throughout November 2018, the parties continued to negotiate the material terms of the proposed transaction, including in-person negotiation sessions on November 2, 2018 and November 26, 2018 and otherwise exchanging various drafts of the merger agreement and ancillary documents. The parties negotiated, among other items, the contents of the representations and warranties, certain adjustments relating to the cash component of the per share merger consideration, closing conditions, covenants regarding real estate, and certain employment matters. During this time, the parties agreed that the cash consideration amount of the per share merger consideration would be subject to upward or downward pricing adjustments at closing with respect to certain OREO and if Bridgeview failed to dispose of its residential home mortgage business, specified Bridgeview Bank premises or identified life insurance contracts. In addition, the cash consideration amount of the per share merger consideration would be subject to upward or downward pricing adjustments depending upon the amount of the adjusted tangible common equity as of December 31, 2018.

On November 14, 2018, First Midwest's board of directors met with members of First Midwest's executive management team. At this meeting, First Midwest's board of directors considered the proposed transaction and discussed, among other things, the then-current draft of the merger agreement, the strategic rationale, financial terms, consideration and integration risk for the transaction. First Midwest's executive management team communicated, and the board of directors also considered, the advice of Stephens, Inc. ("Stephens"), First Midwest's financial advisor, and Chapman and Cutler, First Midwest's legal advisor, with respect to the proposed transaction. Following these discussions, First Midwest's board of directors unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and declared the merger and other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to be advisable and in the best interests of First Midwest and its stockholders. First Midwest's board of directors then directed management and its advisors to finalize and execute a definitive merger agreement, subject to final approval by First Midwest's chairman of the board of directors. First Midwest's chairman of the board of directors subsequently confirmed approval of the merger agreement prior to execution on December 6, 2018. The board of directors of First Midwest Bank also unanimously approved the bank merger and recommended to its sole stockholder, First Midwest, that it approve the bank merger, which was subsequently approved by First Midwest.

On November 29, 2018, Bridgeview's board of directors held a special meeting to consider the terms of the proposed merger with First Midwest, including the merger agreement. As an initial matter, Vedder Price directed the attention of Bridgeview's board of directors to a memorandum summarizing the board of directors' fiduciary duties and reviewed the memorandum with the directors in connection with their review and consideration of the transaction and the terms of the proposed merger with First Midwest. Bridgeview's board of directors was reminded that this information regarding the board of directors' fiduciary duties had been provided and discussed at prior board meetings.

Following this discussion, representatives of Sandler reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and discussed in detail their financial analyses as of the date of the meeting, including those described under "Opinion of Bridgeview's Financial Advisor." In particular, it was noted that the implied aggregate transaction value, on a fully diluted basis and based on the contemporaneous trading price of First Midwest common stock, was approximately $151.7 million, with approximately 78% of the merger consideration payable in shares of First Midwest common stock and approximately 22% in cash. The implied value to Bridgeview on a per share basis was $8.22 per share as of November 28, 2018. At this meeting, Sandler delivered an oral opinion to the board (which was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion, dated as of December 6, 2018) to the effect that, based upon and subject to various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken as described in its opinion, the per share merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Bridgeview common stock, as described under "Opinion of Bridgeview's Financial Advisor."

After further discussion among members of Bridgeview's board of directors, Vedder Price led a comprehensive review of the definitive transaction documents, including the merger agreement, and directed the attention of the board of directors of Bridgeview to a memorandum summarizing the terms of the merger agreement that had been provided to each member of the board.

During the meeting, Bridgeview's management and financial advisors reported on, and the board of directors of Bridgeview discussed in detail, the reverse due diligence process undertaken by Bridgeview and its advisors with respect to First Midwest. Bridgeview's management reported favorably regarding the complementary culture and business objectives of First Midwest and Bridgeview, noting that the respective customer focus, geographic coverage and historical relationships with borrowers and customers of First Midwest and Bridgeview evidenced that the two companies shared a similar business orientation.

Following extensive discussion and after considering the foregoing and the proposed terms of the transaction documents, and taking into account the strategic rationale, financial terms, consideration, integration risk and business rationale of consummating a merger with First Midwest, including the factors described in the section titled "Bridgeview's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Bridgeview," the board of directors, having determined that the terms of First Midwest's proposal, the related merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, were fair to and in the best interests of Bridgeview and its stockholders, unanimously approved and declared advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and the per share merger consideration, at the meeting. The board directed that the merger agreement be submitted to holders of Bridgeview's voting common stock for approval, and recommended that holders of Bridgeview voting common stock vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Between November 29, 2018 and December 6, 2018, the parties continued to discuss and finalize the terms of the proposed transaction.

In early December 2018, certain holders of Bridgeview voting common stock and Series A non-voting common stock entered into non-disclosure agreements with Bridgeview so as to provide Bridgeview's management the ability to discuss the proposed transaction with those Bridgeview stockholders and request that such parties execute voting agreements, pursuant to which those certain Bridgeview stockholders would vote in favor of the merger and other matters to be voted upon in connection with the merger.

The merger agreement and related documents were executed by the parties on December 6, 2018. The transaction was announced the evening of December 6, 2018 in a press release issued by First Midwest.

First Midwest's Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the First Midwest board of directors evaluated the merger in consultation with First Midwest management and considered information provided by First Midwest's financial and legal advisors, as well as a number of factors, including the following material factors:

management's view that the acquisition of Bridgeview provides an attractive opportunity to strengthen First Midwest's presence in Chicago and greater Chicagoland;

Bridgeview's community banking orientation and its compatibility with First Midwest and its subsidiaries; management's assessment that Bridgeview presents a strong banking franchise that is consistent with First Midwest Bank's relationship-based banking model while adding talent and depth to First Midwest Bank's operations;

management's review of the business, operations, earnings and financial condition, including capital levels and asset quality, of Bridgeview and Bridgeview Bank;

management's review of Bridgeview Bank's loan portfolio and asset quality;

management's belief that Bridgeview Bank's core deposit base was strong and that a substantial portion of these deposits would be retained following completion of the merger;

management's due diligence review of Bridgeview and Bridgeview Bank and the discussions with Stephens and Chapman and Cutler related thereto and to other transactional matters;

the projected earnings per share accretion expected to occur as a result of the proposed transactions;

the projected tangible book value earn-back period of approximately three years, which is an important investor metric;

the expectation of management that First Midwest will maintain its strong capital ratios upon completion of the proposed transactions;

the fact that stockholders of Bridgeview who hold Bridgeview voting common stock will have an opportunity to approve the merger;

projected efficiencies, including reductions in Bridgeview's total non-interest expense base, to come from integrating certain of Bridgeview's operations into First Midwest's existing operations;

the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including the exchange ratio for the merger consideration, the expected tax treatment and the deal protection and termination fee provisions, which First Midwest reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors;

Bridgeview Bank's compatibility with First Midwest Bank, which First Midwest management believes should facilitate integration and implementation of the merger and the bank merger and should provide the opportunity to mitigate integration risks and increase potential returns;

the nature and amount of payments and other benefits to be received by Bridgeview and Bridgeview Bank management in connection with the transactions pursuant to existing Bridgeview benefit plans and compensation arrangements and the merger agreement;

the fact that, concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, all of the directors and executive officers of Bridgeview who beneficially owned in the aggregate approximately 30% of Bridgeview's outstanding voting common stock as of December 6, 2018, were entering into (i) voting agreements with First Midwest agreeing to vote for approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (ii) restrictive covenant agreements with First Midwest;

the fact that, concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, certain Bridgeview stockholders who beneficially owned in the aggregate an additional approximately 32% of Bridgeview's outstanding voting common stock as of December 6, 2018, were entering into voting agreements with First Midwest agreeing to vote for approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; and the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the transactions and the expected likelihood that such regulatory approvals will be received in a reasonably timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions.

First Midwest's board of directors believes that the merger and the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of First Midwest and its stockholders.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by First Midwest's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes a summary of all material factors considered by First Midwest's board of directors. First Midwest's board of directors further considered various risks and uncertainties related to each of these factors and the ability to complete the merger. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by First Midwest's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger, First Midwest's board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered. In considering the factors described above, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. First Midwest's board of directors collectively made its determination with respect to the merger based on the conclusion reached by its members, based on the factors that each of them considered appropriate, that the merger is in the best interests of First Midwest stockholders and that the benefits expected to be achieved from the merger were achievable and outweigh the potential risks and vulnerabilities.

It should be noted that this explanation of the First Midwest board of directors' reasoning and all other information presented in this section includes information that is forward-looking in nature, and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

Bridgeview's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Bridgeview

After careful consideration, the Bridgeview board of directors, at a meeting held on November 29, 2018, unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement were advisable and in the best interests of Bridgeview and its stockholders and approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. The Bridgeview board of directors has concluded that the merger offers Bridgeview stockholders an attractive opportunity to achieve the board of directors' strategic business objectives, including increasing stockholder value and enhancing liquidity for Bridgeview stockholders. In addition, the Bridgeview board of directors believes that the customers and communities served by Bridgeview Bank will benefit from the merger. Accordingly, the Bridgeview board of directors recommends that Bridgeview stockholders vote "FOR" approval and adoption of the merger agreement at the Bridgeview special meeting.

In reaching its decision, the Bridgeview board of directors, with advice from Bridgeview's management, as well as its legal counsel, Vedder Price, and financial advisor, Sandler, considered a number of financial, legal and market factors, including the following:

the opportunity for Bridgeview stockholders to have increased liquidity upon receipt of the First Midwest common stock portion of the merger consideration, in exchange for Bridgeview common stock, because Bridgeview is a private company with no public trading market for its shares whereas First Midwest common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Stock Market under the symbol "FMBI";

the cash component of the merger consideration offers Bridgeview stockholders the opportunity to realize cash for a portion of their shares of Bridgeview common stock with immediate value;

the fact that the merger consideration offers Bridgeview stockholders the opportunity to participate in the future growth and opportunities of the combined company;

the Bridgeview board of directors' belief that Bridgeview stockholders and customers will benefit from combining with a larger financial institution which will be better equipped to respond to economic and financial services industry developments and should be better positioned to develop and build on its position in existing markets;

information with respect to the businesses, earnings, operations, financial condition, prospects, capital levels and asset quality of Bridgeview and First Midwest, both individually and as a combined company;

the Bridgeview board of directors' familiarity with, and understanding of, Bridgeview's business, results of operations, asset quality, operating markets, financial and market position and expectations concerning Bridgeview's future earnings and prospects;

the compatibility of Bridgeview's geographical footprint with that of First Midwest and the expansion of product and service availability to the customers of and communities currently served by Bridgeview;

the complementary aspects of Bridgeview's and First Midwest's businesses, including customer focus, geographic coverage, business orientation and operations, First Midwest's strong deposit market share and First Midwest's strengths in relationship-based commercial lending;

that the cash exchange amount of the merger consideration is subject to possible upward adjustment between signing and closing in the event that any of the following occur: (i) net recoveries made on the identified assets exceed specified dollar thresholds, (ii) net proceeds received from the sale of the identified real property exceeds the specified dollar threshold, (iii) net proceeds received from the sale of specific life insurance contracts exceeds the book value of the applicable life insurance contracts and (iv) Bridgeview's final year-end adjusted tangible common equity is greater than Bridgeview's minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity; that the cash exchange amount of the merger consideration is subject to possible downward adjustment between signing and closing in the event that any of the following occur: (i) title defects and environmental remediation costs exceed the specified dollar threshold, (ii) Bridgeview fails to complete the disposition of Bridgeview Bank's mortgage division, (iii) net proceeds received from the sale of the identified real property is less than the specified dollar threshold, (iv) net proceeds received from the sale of specific life insurance contracts is less than the book value of the applicable life insurance contracts and (v) Bridgeview's final year-end adjusted tangible common equity is less than Bridgeview's minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity;

the market value of First Midwest common stock prior to the execution of the merger agreement and the prospects for future appreciation in the stock;

the Bridgeview board of directors' understanding of the current and prospective environment in which Bridgeview and First Midwest operate, including national, regional and local economic conditions, the interest rate environment, the competitive and regulatory environments for financial institutions generally, and the perceived risks and uncertainties attendant to Bridgeview's operation as an independent banking organization;

the financial presentation of Bridgeview's financial advisor, Sandler, to the Bridgeview board of directors on November 29, 2018, and the delivery of the written opinion of Sandler, dated December 6, 2018, to the board of directors of Bridgeview, to the effect that as of such date and based on and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken described in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of Bridgeview common stock, as further described under "Opinion of Bridgeview's Financial Advisor";

the potential risk of diverting management's attention and resources from the operation of Bridgeview's business to the merger, and the possibility of employee attrition or adverse effects on customer and business relationships as a result of the announcement and pendency of the merger;

the risks that certain of the conditions to the consummation of the merger set forth in the merger agreement are not satisfied in a timely manner, or at all;

the potential risks and costs associated with successfully integrating Bridgeview's business, operations and employees with those of First Midwest, including the risk of not realizing all of the anticipated benefits of the merger or not realizing them in the expected time frame;

First Midwest's substantial experience as an acquirer of financial institutions and proven track record of successfully integrating acquired financial institutions;

the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger, consideration of the relevant factors assessed by the regulators for the approvals and the parties' evaluation of those factors, including First Midwest's record of successfully receiving regulatory approvals for acquisitions in a timely manner, and the expectations that such approvals could be received in a reasonably timely manner and without the imposition of burdensome conditions;

the quality and experience of First Midwest's management team;

the dividend payment history of First Midwest;

the risk that the merger may not be consummated or that the closing may be unduly delayed, including as a result of factors outside either party's control;

the satisfactory results of Bridgeview's management's reverse due diligence of First Midwest;

the right of the Bridgeview stockholders to exercise dissenters' rights, as further described under "Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal of Holders of Bridgeview Common Stock";

the fact that the directors and officers of Bridgeview have interests in the merger that are different from or in addition to those of Bridgeview stockholders; and the fact that the receipt of the First Midwest common stock portion of the merger consideration may be tax-free to Bridgeview stockholders based on the expected tax treatment of the merger as a "reorganization" for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as further described under "The Merger Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger".

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by Bridgeview's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes a summary of all material factors considered by Bridgeview's board of directors. Bridgeview's board of directors in approving the merger agreement further considered various risks and uncertainties related to each of these factors and the ability to complete the merger. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by Bridgeview's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger, Bridgeview's board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered. In considering the factors described above, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. Bridgeview's board of directors collectively made its determination with respect to the merger based on the conclusion reached by its members, in light of factors that each of them considered appropriate, that the merger is in the best interests of Bridgeview and Bridgeview stockholders and that the benefits expected to be achieved from the merger were achievable and outweigh the potential risks and vulnerabilities. The Bridgeview board of directors realized that there can be no assurance about future results, including results expected or considered in the factors listed above.

After considering the foregoing and other relevant factors and risks, and their overall impact on the stockholders and other constituencies of Bridgeview, Bridgeview's board of directors concluded that the anticipated benefits of the merger outweighed the anticipated risks of the transaction. Accordingly, Bridgeview's board of directors unanimously approved and deemed advisable the merger agreement and the merger, and the board of directors unanimously recommends that Bridgeview stockholders vote "FOR" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and "FOR" the Bridgeview adjournment proposal.

It should be noted that this explanation of the Bridgeview board of directors' reasoning and all other information presented in this section includes information that is forward-looking in nature, and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

Opinion of Bridgeview's Financial Advisor

Bridgeview retained Sandler to act as financial advisor to Bridgeview's board of directors in connection with Bridgeview's consideration of a possible business combination. Bridgeview selected Sandler as its financial advisor because Sandler is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler acted as financial advisor to Bridgeview in connection with the proposed merger and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the November 29, 2018 meeting at which Bridgeview's board of directors considered the merger and the merger agreement, Sandler delivered to the board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on December 6, 2018, to the effect that, as of December 6, 2018, the merger consideration per share of Bridgeview common stock, as may be adjusted in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, was fair to the holders of Bridgeview common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler's opinion is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of Bridgeview common stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to Bridgeview's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger agreement and the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Bridgeview as to how such stockholder should vote at any meeting of stockholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the merger. Sandler's opinion was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share merger consideration to the holders of Bridgeview common stock and did not address the underlying business decision of Bridgeview to engage in the merger, the form or structure of the merger or the other transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Bridgeview or the effect of any other transaction in which Bridgeview might engage. Sandler also did not express any opinion as to the amount of compensation to be received in the merger by any officer, director, or employee of Bridgeview or First Midwest, or class of such persons, if any, relative to the amount of compensation to be received by any other stockholder. Sandler's opinion was approved by Sandler's fairness opinion committee.

In connection with its opinion, Sandler reviewed and considered, among other things:

a draft of the merger agreement, dated December 4, 2018;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Bridgeview that Sandler deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of First Midwest that Sandler deemed relevant;

certain internal financial projections for Bridgeview for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2023, as provided by the senior management of Bridgeview; publicly available mean analyst earnings per share and dividends per share estimates for First Midwest for the years ending December 31, 2018, December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate and dividend payout ratio for First Midwest for the years thereafter, as reviewed with the senior management of First Midwest;

the pro forma financial impact of the merger on First Midwest based on certain assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings, as reviewed with the senior management of First Midwest (collectively, the "Pro Forma Assumptions");

the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for First Midwest common stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for First Midwest common stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded;

a comparison of certain financial information for Bridgeview and First Midwest with similar financial institutions for which information is publicly available;

the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the bank and thrift industry (on a nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available;

the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler considered relevant.

Sandler also discussed with certain members of senior management of Bridgeview the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Bridgeview and held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of First Midwest and its representatives regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of First Midwest.

In performing its review, Sandler relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by Sandler from public sources, that was provided to Sandler by Bridgeview or First Midwest or their respective representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler and Sandler assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion without any independent verification or investigation. Sandler further relied on the assurances of the respective senior managements of Bridgeview and First Midwest that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would have made any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler was not asked to undertake, and did not undertake, an independent verification of any of such information and Sandler did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc. or First Midwest, or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor was Sandler furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O'Neill rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Bridgeview or First Midwest. Sandler did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Bridgeview or First Midwest, or the combined entity after the merger, and Sandler did not review any individual credit files relating to Bridgeview or First Midwest. Sandler assumed, with Bridgeview's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Bridgeview and First Midwest were adequate to cover such losses and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler used certain internal financial projections for Bridgeview for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2023, as provided by the senior management of Bridgeview. In addition, Sandler used publicly available mean analyst earnings per share and dividends per share estimates for First Midwest for the years ending December 31, 2018, December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate and dividend payout ratio for First Midwest for the years thereafter, as reviewed with the senior management First Midwest. Sandler also received and used in its pro forma analyses the Pro Forma Assumptions, as reviewed with the senior management of First Midwest. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of Bridgeview and First Midwest confirmed to Sandler that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements as to the future financial performance of Bridgeview and First Midwest, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and Sandler assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. Sandler expressed no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information was based. Sandler also assumed that there had been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Bridgeview or First Midwest since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler. Sandler assumed in all respects material to Sandler's analysis that Bridgeview and First Midwest would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to Sandler's analysis.

Sandler also assumed, with Bridgeview's consent, that (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement would comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements were true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements would perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements were not and would not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Bridgeview, First Midwest or the merger or any related transactions, and (iii) the merger and any related transactions would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements. Finally, with Bridgeview's consent, Sandler relied upon the advice that Bridgeview received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Sandler expressed no opinion as to any such matters.

Sandler's opinion was necessarily based on financial, regulatory, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler as of, the date thereof. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect Sandler's opinion. Sandler has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date thereof. Sandler expressed no opinion as to the trading value of First Midwest common stock at any time or what the value of First Midwest common stock would be once it is actually received by the holders of Bridgeview common stock.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Sandler's opinion or the presentation made by Sandler to Bridgeview's board of directors, but is a summary of the material analyses performed and presented by Sandler. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler's comparative analyses described below is identical to Bridgeview or First Midwest and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Bridgeview and First Midwest and the companies to which they were compared. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion, rather, Sandler made its determination as to the fairness of the per share merger consideration to the holders of Bridgeview common stock on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

Table of Contents

In performing its analyses, Sandler also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Bridgeview, First Midwest, and Sandler. The analyses performed by Sandler are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to Bridgeview's board of directors at its November 29, 2018 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Bridgeview common stock or First Midwest common stock or the prices at which Bridgeview or First Midwest common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Bridgeview's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of Bridgeview's board of directors with respect to the fairness of the merger.

Summary of Proposed Merger Consideration

Sandler reviewed the financial terms of the proposed transaction. Sandler calculated an implied purchase price per share of $8.22, or an aggregate implied transaction value of approximately $151.7 million, consisting of the sum of (i) the implied value of 0.2767 shares of First Midwest common stock based on the closing price of First Midwest common stock on November 28, 2018, plus (ii) $1.79 (which amount of cash is subject to certain adjustments as discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus). Based upon financial information for Bridgeview as of or for the most recent available completed quarter ("MRQ") ended September 30, 2018, and internal financial projections for Bridgeview for the year ending December 31, 2019, as provided by the senior management of Bridgeview, Sandler calculated the following implied transaction metrics:

Net Present Value Analyses

Sandler performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Bridgeview common stock, assuming Bridgeview performed in accordance with internal financial projections for Bridgeview for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, as provided by the senior management of Bridgeview. To approximate the terminal value of a share of Bridgeview common stock at December 31, 2022, Sandler applied price to 2022 earnings multiples ranging from 12.0x to 17.0x and multiples of December 31, 2022 tangible book value ranging from 120% to 170%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 11.0% to 15.0%, which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Bridgeview common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of Bridgeview common stock of $4.35 to $7.16 when applying multiples of earnings per share and $6.09 to $10.04 when applying multiples of tangible book value per share.

Sandler also considered and discussed with Bridgeview's board of directors how this analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to earnings. To illustrate this impact, Sandler performed a similar analysis, assuming Bridgeview's earnings varied from 15% above projections to 15% below projections. This analysis resulted in the following range of per share values for Bridgeview common stock, applying the price to 2022 earnings multiples range of 12.0x to 17.0x referred to above and a discount rate of 12.68%.

Sandler also performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of First Midwest common stock, assuming that First Midwest performed in accordance with publicly available mean analyst earnings per share and dividend per share estimates for First Midwest for the years ending December 31, 2018, December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate and dividend payout ratio for First Midwest for the years thereafter, as reviewed with the senior management of First Midwest. To approximate the terminal value of a share of First Midwest common stock at December 31, 2022, Sandler applied price to 2022 earnings multiples ranging from 12.0x to 17.0x and multiples of December 31, 2022 tangible book value ranging from 180% to 230%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 13.0%, which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of First Midwest common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of First Midwest common stock of $18.69 to $29.96 when applying multiples of earnings per share and $21.63 to $31.58 when applying multiples of tangible book value per share.

Sandler noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis

Sandler analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger on First Midwest, assuming the merger closed at the end of the fourth calendar quarter of 2018. Sandler utilized the following information and assumptions: (a) publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share and dividends per share estimates for First Midwest for the years ending December 31, 2018, December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share and dividend payout ratio for First Midwest for the years thereafter, as reviewed with the senior management of First Midwest; (b) internal earnings per share projections for Bridgeview for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2023, as provided by the senior management of Bridgeview; and (c) certain assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings, as reviewed with the senior management of First Midwest. The analysis indicated that the merger could be accretive to First Midwest's estimated earnings per share (excluding one-time transaction costs and expenses) from December 31, 2020 through December 31, 2023 and dilutive to First Midwest's estimated tangible book value per share at close and at December 31, 2019, December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021 and accretive to First Midwest's estimated tangible book value per share at December 31, 2022 through December 31, 2023.

In connection with this analysis, Sandler considered and discussed with Bridgeview's board of directors how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the merger, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler's Relationship

Sandler is acting as Bridgeview's financial advisor in connection with the merger and will receive a fee for such services, which fee is contingent upon the closing of the merger. At the time of announcement of the merger, Sandler's fee was approximately $1.45 million. Sandler also received a $250,000 fee from Bridgeview for rendering its opinion, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the transaction fee becoming payable to Sandler upon closing of the merger. Bridgeview has also agreed to indemnify Sandler against certain claims and liabilities arising out of Sandler's engagement and to reimburse Sandler for certain of its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with Sandler's engagement.

Sandler did not provide any other investment banking services to Bridgeview in the two years preceding the date of its opinion; provided, however, subsequent to the announcement of the merger, Bridgeview engaged Sandler to act as introducing broker to help facilitate the sale of certain Bridgeview life insurance contracts. In the two years preceding the date of Sandler's opinion, Sandler provided certain investment banking services to First Midwest. Most recently, Sandler acted as financial advisor to First Midwest in connection with First Midwest's acquisition of Northern States Financial Corporation, which transaction closed in October 2018, and financial advisor to First Midwest in connection with First Midwest's acquisition of Standard Bancshares, Inc. which closed in January 2017. In addition, Sandler acted as book manager in connection with First Midwest's offer and sale of subordinated debt in September 2016. Sandler has advised Bridgeview that Sandler may provide, and receive compensation for, investment banking services to First Midwest in the future, including during the pendency of the merger. In the ordinary course of Sandler's business as a broker-dealer, Sandler may purchase securities from and sell securities to Bridgeview, First Midwest and their respective affiliates. Sandler may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of First Midwest and its affiliates for Sandler's own account and for the accounts of Sandler's customers.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following discussion addresses the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Bridgeview common stock. The discussion is based on the provisions of the Code, its legislative history, U.S. Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) and all of which are subject to differing interpretations. Tax considerations under foreign, state or local laws, or any federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax, are not addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus.

For purposes of this discussion, we use the term "U.S. holder" to mean a beneficial owner that is:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions;

a trust that (i) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more U.S. persons or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to United States federal income taxation on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion applies only to Bridgeview stockholders that hold their Bridgeview common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment), and does not address all aspects of United States federal taxation that may be relevant to persons with "applicable financial statements" within the meaning of Section 451(b) of the Code; regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

persons whose "functional currency" is not the U.S. dollar; and stockholders who acquired their shares of Bridgeview common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option, as a restricted stock award, or otherwise as compensation.

If a partnership or other entity taxed as a partnership holds Bridgeview common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partner and partnership. Partnerships and partners in such a partnership should consult their tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

The parties intend for the merger to be treated as a "reorganization" for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is a condition to Bridgeview's obligation to complete the merger that Bridgeview receives a written opinion of its counsel, Vedder Price, dated as of the closing date, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to First Midwest's obligation to complete the merger that First Midwest receives an opinion of its counsel, Chapman and Cutler, dated as of the closing date, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on the assumption that the merger will be completed in the manner set forth in the merger agreement and the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, and on representation letters provided by First Midwest and Bridgeview to be delivered at the time of the closing. Those opinions will also be based on the assumption that the representations found in the representation letters are, as of the effective time, true and complete without qualification and that the representation letters are executed by appropriate and authorized officers of First Midwest and Bridgeview. If any of the assumptions or representations upon which such opinions are based is inconsistent with the actual facts with respect to the merger, the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

Table of Contents

In addition, neither of the tax opinions given in connection with the merger or in connection with the filing of the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service or any court. Neither First Midwest nor Bridgeview has sought or intends to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger, and consequently, there is no guarantee that the Internal Revenue Service will treat the merger as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or that a court would not sustain a position to the contrary to any of the positions set forth herein.

The actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex and will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within our control. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including without limitation the applicability and effect of the 3.8% Medicare tax on unearned income, the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of any changes in those laws.

Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger. Based upon the facts and representations contained in the representation letters received from First Midwest and Bridgeview in connection with the filing of the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, it is the opinion of Chapman and Cutler and Vedder Price that for United States federal income tax purposes, the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

By virtue of qualifying as a reorganization, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger will be as follows:

No gain or loss will be recognized by Bridgeview as a result of the merger;

Gain (but not loss) may be recognized by U.S. common stockholders of Bridgeview who receive First Midwest common stock and cash in exchange for common stock of Bridgeview pursuant to the merger, in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the First Midwest common stock and cash received by a U.S. common stockholder of Bridgeview exceeds such U.S. holder's basis in its Bridgeview common stock and (ii) the amount of cash received by such U.S. holder of Bridgeview common stock (in each case, excluding any cash received instead of fractional share interests in First Midwest common stock which is discussed below under "Cash Received In Lieu of a Fractional Share");

The basis of First Midwest common stock received by Bridgeview stockholders in connection with the merger will, in the aggregate, be the same as the basis, in the aggregate, of Bridgeview stock surrendered by such Bridgeview stockholder in the merger, decreased by the amount of cash received in the merger (other than cash received instead of fractional share interests in First Midwest common stock), and increased by any gain recognized by the stockholder in the merger, other than with respect to cash received instead of fractional share interests in First Midwest common stock (regardless of whether such gain is classified as capital gain or as dividend income);

The holding period of First Midwest common stock received by a Bridgeview stockholder will be determined by including such stockholder's holding period for Bridgeview common stock exchanged therefor, provided that such stock was held by such stockholder as a capital asset at the time of the exchange;

First Midwest will not recognize gain or loss as a result of the merger of Bridgeview with and into First Midwest;

Table of Contents

The basis of the assets of Bridgeview transferred to First Midwest in the merger will be the same in the hands of First Midwest as the basis of such assets in the hands of Bridgeview immediately prior to the transfer;

The holding periods of the assets of Bridgeview transferred to First Midwest in the merger in the hands of First Midwest will include the periods during which such assets were held by Bridgeview; and

First Midwest will succeed to and take into account the items of Bridgeview described in Code Section 381(c), including net operating losses and earnings and profits, subject to certain conditions and limitations.

If a U.S. holder of Bridgeview common stock acquired different blocks of shares of Bridgeview common stock at different times or at different prices, such holder's basis and holding period may be determined with reference to each block of Bridgeview common stock. A loss realized on the exchange of one block of shares cannot be used to offset a gain realized on the exchange of another block of shares, but a U.S. holder will generally be able to reduce its capital gains by other recognized capital losses in determining its income tax liability. Any such holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the manner in which First Midwest common stock received in the exchange should be allocated among different blocks of Bridgeview common stock and with respect to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of First Midwest common stock received in the merger.

In some cases, if a U.S. holder of Bridgeview common stock actually or constructively owns First Midwest common stock other than First Midwest common stock received pursuant to the merger, gain recognized pursuant to the merger could be treated as having the effect of a distribution of a dividend under the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Code, in which case such gain would be treated as dividend income. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends upon each holder's particular circumstances, including the application of constructive ownership rules, holders of Bridgeview common stock should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules to their particular circumstances.

Cash Received In Lieu of a Fractional Share. A U.S. holder of Bridgeview common stock who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of First Midwest common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share for cash in a redemption by First Midwest. As a result, such U.S. holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in his or her fractional share interest as set forth above. This gain or loss will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, such U.S. holder's holding period for such shares is greater than one year. For U.S. holders of Bridgeview common stock that are non-corporate holders, long-term capital gain generally will be taxed at a U.S. federal income tax rate that is lower than the rate for ordinary income or for short-term capital gains. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. See the above discussion regarding blocks of stock that were purchased at different times or at different prices.

Medicare Tax on Unearned Income. In addition, net investment income of certain high-income individual taxpayers may also be subject to an additional 3.8% tax (i.e., the net investment income tax) on the lesser of (i) his or her net investment income for the relevant taxable year or (ii) the excess of his or her modified adjusted gross income for the taxable year over a certain threshold (between $125,000 and $250,000 depending on the individual's U.S. federal income tax filing status). A similar regime applies to estates and trust. Net investment income generally would include any capital gain (or dividend income) realized in connection with a merger.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of cash to a U.S. holder of Bridgeview common stock pursuant to the merger are subject to information reporting and may, under certain circumstances, be subject to backup withholding, unless such stockholder provides First Midwest with its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder of Bridgeview common stock under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against such U.S. holder's federal income tax liability; provided that such U.S. holder timely furnishes the required information to the Internal Revenue Service.

A U.S. holder of Bridgeview common stock who receives First Midwest common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger. Each U.S. holder of Bridgeview common stock who is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and who is a "significant holder" that receives First Midwest common stock in the merger will be required to file a statement with such U.S. federal income tax return in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-3 setting forth information regarding the parties to the merger, the date of the merger, such holder's basis in the Bridgeview common stock surrendered and the fair market value of First Midwest common stock and cash received in the merger. A "significant holder" is a holder of Bridgeview common stock who, immediately before the merger, owned at least 1% of the outstanding stock of Bridgeview (by vote or value) or held securities of Bridgeview with a basis for federal income tax purposes of at least $1 million.

Tax Implications to Non-U.S. Stockholders. For purposes of this discussion, the term "non-U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of Bridgeview common stock (other than an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) that is not a U.S. holder. The rules governing the U.S. federal income taxation of non-U.S. holders are complex, and no attempt will be made herein to provide more than a limited summary of those rules. Any gain a non-U.S. holder recognizes from the exchange of Bridgeview common stock for First Midwest common stock and cash in the merger generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income taxation unless (i) the gain is effectively connected with a trade or business conducted by the non-U.S. holder in the United States, or (ii) in the case of a non-U.S. holder who is an individual, such stockholder is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the sale and other conditions are met. Non-U.S. holders described in (i) above will be subject to tax on gain recognized at applicable U.S. federal income tax rates and, in addition, non-U.S. holders that are corporations (or treated as corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes) may be subject to a branch profits tax equal to 30% (or a lesser rate under an applicable income tax treaty) on their effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, which would include such gain. Non-U.S. holders described in (ii) above will be subject to a flat 30% tax on any gain recognized, which may be eliminated or reduced by an applicable treaty or offset by U.S. source capital losses.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Under Sections 1471 and 1474 of the Code, commonly referred to as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FACTA"), a holder of Bridgeview common stock could be subject to a 30% U.S. withholding tax on gross proceeds from its exchange of stock for cash received (if any) pursuant to the merger if it holds its stock through a foreign financial institution that has not entered into an agreement with the U.S. government to report certain information regarding accounts with or interests in the institution held by certain United States persons and by certain non-U.S. entities that are wholly or partially owned by United States persons, or that has been designated as a "nonparticipating foreign financial institution" if it is subject to an intergovernmental agreement between the United States and a foreign country, or if other conditions are met. The adoption of, or implementation of, an intergovernmental agreement between the United States and an applicable foreign country, or future U.S. Treasury regulations, may modify these requirements. Holders of Bridgeview common stock should consult their own tax advisors on how these rules may apply to cash payments (if any) made in exchange for their stock pursuant to the merger in light of their own individual circumstances.

Table of Contents

The preceding discussion is intended only as a summary of material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to you. Thus, you are strongly encouraged to consult your tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences resulting from the merger, including without limitation tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, and other tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws, including without limitation the applicability and effect of the 3.8% Medicare tax on unearned income, the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Accounting Treatment

First Midwest will account for the merger as a purchase by First Midwest of Bridgeview under GAAP. Under the purchase method of accounting, the total consideration paid in connection with the merger is allocated among Bridgeview's assets, liabilities and identified intangibles based on the fair values of the assets acquired, the liabilities assumed and the identified intangibles. The difference between the total consideration paid in connection with the merger and the fair values of the assets acquired, the liabilities assumed and the identified intangibles, if any, is allocated to goodwill. The results of operations of Bridgeview will be included in First Midwest's results of operations from the date of acquisition.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

General

In considering the recommendations of Bridgeview's board of directors with respect to the merger, you should be aware that certain directors and executive officers of Bridgeview have agreements or arrangements that provide them with interests in the merger, including financial interests, that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the other stockholders of Bridgeview. Bridgeview's board of directors was aware of these interests during its deliberations of the merits of the merger and in determining to recommend that holders of Bridgeview voting common stock vote in favor of the merger proposal (and thereby approve the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger). These interests are described in more detail below, and certain of them are quantified in the narrative below.

Stock Ownership

As of April 2, 2019, Bridgeview's directors and executive officers and their affiliates held approximately 3,208,847 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (which includes 8,334 shares of outstanding restricted Bridgeview voting common stock), representing approximately 30% of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview voting common stock. For more information, see "Security Ownership of Certain Bridgeview Beneficial Owners and Management."

Treatment of Bridgeview Restricted Stock Awards

To the extent a director or executive officer of Bridgeview holds unvested restricted stock awards, at the effective time of the merger, such awards will become fully earned and vested per the terms of the Bridgeview Stock Plan and the award agreements issued thereunder, and the shares of Bridgeview voting common stock subject to such awards, will be converted to First Midwest voting common stock plus the cash consideration as discussed in the below section titled "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration," subject to any required withholding tax. As of the date of the merger agreement, only Thomas P. Haleas, who serves as Bridgeview's Executive Vice President, held unvested Bridgeview restricted stock under the Plan, in the amount of 8,334 shares of unvested restricted stock. Upon the effective time of the merger, Thomas P. Haleas will vest in all such 8,334 shares of restricted stock.

Table of Contents

Based on the closing price per share of First Midwest common stock of $20.90 as of April 2, 2019, the latest practicable date before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.2767, as a result of the exchange of his Bridgeview unvested restricted stock holdings as of the Bridgeview record date that vest upon the effective time of the merger, it is estimated that Thomas P. Haleas would receive First Midwest common stock equal to a net cash value of approximately $48,196 plus cash consideration equal to approximately $14,918 (assuming no adjustments to the cash consideration), prior to any applicable tax withholdings.

Treatment of Bridgeview Stock Option Awards

To the extent a director or executive officer of Bridgeview holds vested or unvested stock option awards, at the effective time of the merger, such awards will, upon execution of an option cancellation agreement by such option holder, be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a lump sum cash payment in an amount equivalent to the merger consideration per share of Bridgeview common stock underlying the option awards less the exercise price for such options, subject to any required withholding tax. As of April 2, 2019, directors and executive officers of Bridgeview and Bridgeview Bank, as a group, held vested and unvested option awards relating to 2,709,498 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock under the Bridgeview Stock Plan. William L. Conaghan, who formerly served as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Bridgeview and Bridgeview Bank until his death on March 28, 2019, held vested option awards relating to 509,221 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock, Thomas P. Haleas, who serves as the Executive Vice President of Bridgeview and Bridgeview Bank, held vested option awards relating to 1,176,386 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock and unvested option awards relating to 653,550 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock (or collectively, vested and unvested option awards relating to 1,829,836 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock), Bryan Griffin, who serves as the Senior Vice President of Bridgeview Bank, held vested option awards relating to 185,171 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock, and Nicolas S. Mando, who serves as the Chief Operating Officer of Bridgeview and Bridgeview Bank, held vested option awards relating to 92,585 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock. Upon the effective time of the merger, Thomas P. Haleas will vest in option awards relating to 653,550 shares of Bridgeview voting common stock. Based on the closing price per share of First Midwest common stock of $20.90 as of April 2, 2019, the latest practicable date before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.2767 plus $1.79 of cash consideration (assuming no adjustments), it is estimated that Thomas P. Haleas, Bryan Griffin, Nicolas S. Mando and the estate of William L. Conaghan would receive, as soon as reasonably practicable following the effective time of the merger, a cash payment in an amount equal to approximately $6,080,600, $615,330, $307,663 and $1,692,157, respectively, prior to any applicable tax withholdings, in exchange for the stock option awards.

Employment Agreements

Bridgeview is party to employment agreements with each of Peter J. Haleas, Bryan Griffin and Thomas P. Haleas (whom we will refer to both individually and collectively as "senior executives"). The employment agreements provide for certain severance benefits in the event the senior executive's employment is terminated by Bridgeview without just cause or by the senior executive for good reason. Good reason includes a reduction in base salary; a material reduction in target bonus opportunity other than an across-the-board reduction ordered by an applicable regulator of Bridgeview; the assignment of duties inconsistent with the senior executive's position, duties, responsibilities or authority; or a requirement for the senior executive to relocate to an office more than 15 miles from the senior executive's current office location. In the event the merger is consummated and Peter J. Haleas's employment is terminated, among other benefits, Peter J. Haleas would be entitled to, assuming a closing of the merger on May 15, 2019, an amount of cash equal to approximately $1,205,000 plus a minimum bonus of approximately $33,200 (equal to twenty percent (20%) of his annual bonus opportunity). Thomas P. Haleas will receive an amount of cash equal to $100,000 and title to the car utilized by him while employed by Bridgeview. Such individuals will also be eligible to receive reimbursement for COBRA continuation coverage. There is no severance payment due Bryan Griffin under his employment agreement in the event the merger is consummated.

Thomas P. Haleas's employment will be terminated effective as of the merger, and pursuant to his employment agreement with Bridgeview (as amended), he will receive the severance and benefits described above. In the event that Gerry Pfeiffer is terminated, he is not entitled to any severance payment, but would, in any event, receive the change in control payment described below.

Subsequent to the execution of the merger agreement, Peter J. Haleas and Bryan Griffin agreed to become employees of First Midwest and entered into offer letters for employment with First Midwest setting forth the terms and conditions of employment with First Midwest Bank following the merger, in addition to a new confidentiality and restrictive covenants agreement. The terms and conditions of the offer letters include an annualized base salary amount of $225,000 for Peter J. Haleas beginning on the first business day following the effectiveness of the merger through December 31, 2019 and an annualized base salary amount of $240,000 for Bryan Griffin. With respect to Peter J. Haleas, in addition and in recognition of his agreement to enter into a new confidentiality and restrictive covenants agreement, as a retention incentive, and in lieu of a cash payment, the offer letter with First Midwest provides for receipt of title to the car he utilized while employed by Bridgeview. With respect to Bryan Griffin, in addition to and in recognition of his agreement to enter into a new confidentiality and restrictive covenants agreement, as a retention incentive, he will be eligible to receive a one-time bonus of $80,000 payable in cash in two installments, with $40,000 being paid 60 days after commencing employment and $40,000 being paid one year after commencing employment. Bryan Griffin's offer letter also provides that under the terms of his employment with First Midwest he continues to be entitled to the change in control payment described below. The offer letter for Peter J. Haleas provides that upon termination of his employment with First Midwest, he will receive the severance payments and benefits described above. Their change in control payments will be paid at the time of the change in control as described below. First Midwest may determine to enter into additional employment arrangements with executive officers of Bridgeview that would be effective upon completion of the merger.

Change in Control Agreements

Bridgeview is party to change in control agreements with the change in control senior executives. In the event the merger is consummated it will constitute a change of control under these change in control agreements. In the event of a change in control, the change in control senior executives would be entitled to receive, $500,000 in the case of Peter J. Haleas, $650,000 in the case of Gerald E. Pfeiffer, $550,000 in the case of Bryan Griffin, and $570,000 in the case of Nicolas S. Mando, in each case prior to any applicable tax withholdings. In the case of Bryan Griffin and Nicolas S. Mando, the payment will be made one year after the change in control, provided that should Bryan Griffin or Nicolas S. Mando be terminated without cause within one year after the change in control, the payment to Bryan Griffin will still be made one year after the change in control and the payment to Nicolas S. Mando will be made on the date of termination. In the case of the other executives, the payment will be made at the time of the change in control. In the event of a change in control, the estate of William L. Conaghan would be entitled to receive $650,000 on the date of the change in control, if the change in control occurs within 90 days of March 28, 2019.

Involvement of Sandler as Financial Advisor

Bridgeview retained Sandler to serve as its financial advisor in connection with the merger with First Midwest. Pursuant to the engagement letter entered into between Bridgeview and Sandler, as compensation for the latter's financial advisory services provided to Bridgeview, Bridgeview agreed to pay a success fee equal to one percent (1.0%) of the aggregate purchase price, as defined in the engagement letter. The success fee has the potential to increase on a graduated basis should there be an increase in the value of the merger consideration. Under this formula, the maximum success fee would be 1.45% of the aggregate purchase price in the event the price per share equals or exceeds $11.10 per share.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the merger, First Midwest will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the directors and officers of Bridgeview (when acting in such capacity) against all costs and liabilities arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or before the completion of the merger, in accordance with Bridgeview's certificate of incorporation, as amended, and by-laws, to the extent permitted by law.

The merger agreement also provides that for a period of six years after the merger is completed, First Midwest will maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance that provides at least the same coverage and amounts, and contains terms and conditions no less advantageous, as that portion of coverage currently provided by Bridgeview that serves to reimburse the present and former officers and directors of Bridgeview with respect to claims against such directors and officers arising from facts or events which occurred before the completion of the merger, provided that the total premium therefor is not in excess of 200% of the last annual premium paid prior to the date of the merger agreement.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following discussion describes the material provisions of the merger agreement. We urge you to read the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A and incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, carefully and in its entirety. The description of the merger agreement in this proxy statement/prospectus has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties made by and to the parties thereto as of specific dates. The statements embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of that contract between the parties and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of that contract. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts.

Structure

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, Bridgeview will merge with and into First Midwest, with First Midwest being the surviving company. As a result, the separate existence of Bridgeview will terminate. Following the merger at such time as First Midwest may determine, Bridgeview Bank will merge with and into First Midwest Bank. First Midwest Bank will be the surviving bank and will continue its corporate existence as a commercial bank organized under the laws of the State of Illinois.

Merger Consideration

Upon completion of the merger, each holder of shares of Bridgeview common stock will receive the merger consideration, consisting of a number of shares of First Midwest common stock plus the cash consideration in exchange for each share of Bridgeview common stock held immediately prior to the completion of the merger.

The exchange ratio of 0.2767 is not subject to adjustment but the value of the First Midwest common stock to be received by stockholders of Bridgeview common stock in the merger will fluctuate based on the trading price of First Midwest common stock. The trading price of First Midwest common stock may fluctuate as a result of a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are outside our control. Accordingly, at the time of the Bridgeview special meeting, Bridgeview stockholders will not know or be able to calculate the value of First Midwest common stock that they will receive upon completion of the merger.

The cash consideration of $1.79 per share of Bridgeview common stock is subject to potential increases or decreases based on the occurrence of certain events as provided in the merger agreement. These events and the corresponding adjustments are summarized as follows:

if any of the specified leases related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business have not been disposed of as of February 28, 2019, the aggregate cash consideration will be reduced by a multiple of the remaining amounts payable under such leases, depending on the number of leases that remain as follows:

if one lease has not been disposed of, the cash consideration will be reduced by one and one-half the remaining amount payable under such lease;

if two or more leases have not been disposed of, the cash consideration will be reduced by three times the aggregate remaining amounts payable under such leases;

if any of the specified contracts related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business have not been disposed of as of February 28, 2019, the aggregate cash consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to three times of the remaining amounts payable by Bridgeview under such contracts;

if there is any outstanding principal balance under any mortgage loans related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business remaining as of March 1, 2019 that in the aggregate exceeds $500,000, the aggregate cash consideration will be reduced by: (i) an amount equal to the aggregate outstanding principal balance of any mortgage loans related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business that remain if the aggregate outstanding principal balance of any mortgage loans related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business that remain is greater than $500,000 but less than $1,000,000 (ii) $1,000,000 if the aggregate outstanding principal balance of any mortgage loans related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business that remain is greater than $1,000,000 but less than $5,000,000 and (iii) 20% of the outstanding principal loan balances of any mortgage loans related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business that remain if the aggregate outstanding principal balance of any mortgage loans related to Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business that remain is greater than $5,000,000;

As of April 4, 2019, no adjustment to the cash consideration is expected in connection with Bridgeview's residential home mortgage business.

if Bridgeview sells the identified real property prior to the completion of the merger, the cash consideration will be adjusted as follows:

if the net sale price is less than the agreed upon price set forth in the merger agreement, the aggregate cash consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to $150,000, plus the difference between the agreed upon price set forth in the merger agreement and the net sales price of the property;

if the net sale price is equal to the agreed upon price set forth in the merger agreement, the aggregate cash consideration will be reduced by $150,000;

if the net sale price is greater than the agreed upon price set forth in the merger agreement, but less than the agreed upon price set forth in the merger agreement, the aggregate cash consideration will be reduced by $150,000 minus the difference between the sale price and the agreed upon price set forth in the merger agreement;

if the net sale price is greater than the agreed upon price set forth in the merger agreement, the aggregate cash consideration will be increased by the difference between the net sale price and the agreed upon price set forth in the merger agreement;

if Bridgeview fails to sell the identified real property prior to the closing, the aggregate cash consideration will be reduced by $3,000,000 ($0.15 per share of Bridgeview common stock);

if Bridgeview sells any of the life insurance contracts identified in the merger agreement prior to March 31, 2019, the cash consideration may be increased or decreased based on whether the life insurance contract is sold for greater or less than its book value determined pursuant to the merger agreement; however, if Bridgeview fails to sell any of the life insurance contracts identified in the merger agreement prior to January 15, 2019, an independent insurance consultant will be engaged to solicit three bids for each of the unsold life insurance contracts; thereafter, if Bridgeview fails to sell any of the life insurance contracts identified in the merger agreement prior to February 28, 2019, Bridgeview and First Midwest will cause the independent insurance consultant to promptly solicit and obtain, prior to March 31, 2019, bids to purchase each unsold life insurance contract from three potential bona fide buyers and the cash

consideration will be increased or decreased based on whether the median of the three bids is greater or less than the book value determined pursuant to the merger agreement for the applicable life insurance contract; provided, however, that if any life insurance contract is sold after March 31, 2019 but prior to the completion of the merger, for the purposes adjusting the cash consideration, it will be treated as if it were sold prior to March 31, 2019 and the cash consideration will be adjusted in accordance with first clause of this bullet point;

if Bridgeview sells or otherwise disposes of the identified assets, the cash consideration will be increased or decreased by the difference between the proceeds of the disposition and the assumed value of each asset as determined pursuant to the merger agreement;

if certain environmental conditions and/or title defects exist with respect to Bridgeview's real property and the total cost to remediate and/or cure such conditions or defects is greater than $100,000, the cash received by the holders of Bridgeview common stock in connection with the merger will be reduced by such cost in excess of $100,000 up to an aggregate amount of $4,000,000 ($0.20 per share of Bridgeview common stock). If such cost in excess of $100,000 exceeds $4,000,000, First Midwest may terminate the merger agreement or reduce the aggregate cash component of the consideration by $4,000,000 and, subject to the satisfaction of all other conditions, proceed to the closing of the merger; and if Bridgeview's adjusted tangible common equity as of its December 31, 2018 fiscal year-end is different than the minimum year-end adjusted tangible common equity identified in the merger agreement, the aggregate cash consideration will be increased or decreased as follows:

if the year-end adjusted tangible common equity is greater than $116,958,159, the aggregate cash consideration will be increased by such difference;

if the year-end adjusted tangible common equity is less than $116,958,159, the aggregate cash consideration will be decreased by such difference up to a maximum decrease of $9,558,159, or up to a maximum decrease of $0.48 per share of Bridgeview common stock.

Due to the fact that certain of these adjustments may not be determinable prior to the date of the Bridgeview special meeting, at the time of the vote on the merger proposal at the Bridgeview special meeting, holders of Bridgeview common stock may not know the amount of cash consideration they will receive as part of the merger consideration. Based on information available as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the range of the adjustments to the cash consideration of $1.79 per share of Bridgeview common stock is reasonably expected to result in a decrease of between $0.18 per share of Bridgeview common stock and a decrease of $0.62 per share of Bridgeview common stock.

All unvested Bridgeview restricted stock awards outstanding immediately prior to the merger will become fully vested upon completion of the merger, and the holders thereof will be entitled to receive the same merger consideration for the shares of Bridgeview common stock subject to such awards as all other holders of Bridgeview common stock. Additionally, Bridgeview will take all actions necessary to cause the holders of options for Bridgeview common stock to execute agreements prior to the merger to cancel such options in exchange for a lump sum cash payment.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates; Fractional Shares

Conversion. The conversion of Bridgeview common stock into the right to receive the merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger.

Exchange Procedures. Prior to the completion of the merger, First Midwest will deposit with its transfer agent or with a depository or trust institution of recognized standing selected by it and reasonably satisfactory to Bridgeview, which we refer to as the "exchange agent," (i) certificates or, at First Midwest's option, evidence of shares in book-entry form, representing the shares of First Midwest common stock to be issued under the merger agreement and (ii) cash payable as part of the merger consideration in lieu of any fractional shares of First Midwest common stock to be issued under the merger agreement. As promptly as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will provide you with instructions in order to exchange your certificates representing shares of Bridgeview common stock for the merger consideration to be received in the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. No interest will accrue or be paid with respect to any First Midwest common stock or cash to be delivered upon surrender of Bridgeview stock certificates.

If any First Midwest stock certificate is to be issued, or cash payment made, in a name other than that in which the Bridgeview stock certificate surrendered in exchange for the merger consideration is registered, the Bridgeview stock certificate must be properly endorsed or accompanied by an appropriate instruments of transfer, as applicable, and the person requesting the exchange must pay any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of the new First Midwest certificate or the payment of the cash consideration in a name other than that of the registered holder of the Bridgeview stock certificate surrendered, or must establish to the satisfaction of First Midwest and the exchange agent that any such taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

Dividends and Distributions. Until your Bridgeview common stock is surrendered for exchange, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time with respect to First Midwest common stock into which shares of Bridgeview common stock may have been converted will accrue but will not be paid. When such Bridgeview common stock has been duly surrendered, First Midwest will pay any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest. After the effective time, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Bridgeview of any shares of Bridgeview common stock. If shares of Bridgeview common stock are presented for transfer after the completion of the merger, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration into which the shares of Bridgeview common stock have been converted.

Withholding. The exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the merger consideration payable to any Bridgeview stockholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under any federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If the exchange agent withholds any amounts, these amounts will be treated for all purposes as having been paid to the stockholders from whom they were withheld.

No Fractional Shares Will Be Issued. First Midwest will not issue fractional shares of First Midwest common stock in the merger. There will be no dividends or distributions with respect to any fractional shares of First Midwest common stock or any voting or other rights with respect to any fractional shares of First Midwest common stock. Instead of fractional shares of First Midwest common stock, First Midwest will pay to each Bridgeview stockholder an amount in cash for any fractional shares based on the per share volume weighted average price of the First Midwest common stock on Nasdaq from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the trading day immediately preceding the day on which the merger occurs.

Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Bridgeview Common Stock Certificates. If you have lost a certificate representing Bridgeview common stock, or it has been stolen or destroyed, First Midwest will issue to you the First Midwest common stock or cash in lieu of fractional shares payable under the merger agreement if you submit an affidavit of that fact and, if requested by First Midwest, if you post bond in a customary amount as indemnity against any claim that may be made against First Midwest about ownership of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate.

For a description of First Midwest common stock and a description of the differences between the rights of Bridgeview stockholders and First Midwest stockholders, see "Description of First Midwest Capital Stock" and "Comparison of Stockholder Rights."

Effective Time

We plan to complete the merger on a business day designated by First Midwest, and consented to by Bridgeview, that is within 30 days after the satisfaction or waiver of the last remaining conditions to the merger, other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions. The time the merger is completed is the effective time of the merger. See " Conditions to Completion of the Merger."

We anticipate that we will complete the merger during the second quarter of 2019. However, completion could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals or for other reasons. There can be no assurances as to if or when these approvals will be obtained or as to whether or when the merger will be completed. If we do not complete the merger by December 6, 2019, either party may terminate the merger agreement without penalty, unless the failure to complete the merger by this date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe its obligations under the merger agreement. See " Conditions to Completion of the Merger" and " Regulatory Approvals Required for the Mergers."

Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties

Bridgeview has agreed that it will not, and will cause its subsidiaries and its and its subsidiaries' representatives, agents, advisors and affiliates not to, solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any other acquisition proposal. Bridgeview has also agreed that it will not engage in any negotiations concerning any other acquisition proposal, or provide any confidential or non-public information to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to any other acquisition proposal.

However, if Bridgeview receives an unsolicited bona fide acquisition proposal and Bridgeview's board of directors concludes in good faith (after consultation with its financial and outside legal advisors) that it constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to a superior proposal, Bridgeview may furnish non-public information and participate in negotiations or discussions if its board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with such legal advisors, that failure to take those actions would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law. Before providing any non-public information, Bridgeview must have provided First Midwest with written notice of its intention to provide such nonpublic information and enter into a confidentiality agreement with the third party no less favorable to it than the confidentiality agreement with First Midwest. While Bridgeview has the right to enter into negotiations regarding a superior proposal under the foregoing circumstances, the merger agreement does not allow Bridgeview to terminate the merger agreement solely because it has received a superior proposal, entered into such negotiations or decided to accept such offer.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the terms "acquisition proposal" and "superior proposal" have the following meanings:

The term "acquisition proposal" means, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement:

a tender or exchange offer to acquire more than 20% of the voting power in Bridgeview or its significant subsidiaries;

a proposal for a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving Bridgeview or its significant subsidiaries; or any other proposal to acquire more than 20% of the voting power in, or more than 20% of the business, assets or deposits of, Bridgeview or its significant subsidiaries.

The term "superior proposal" means a bona fide written acquisition proposal (with the references to 20% deemed references to 50%) that Bridgeview's board of directors concludes in good faith to be more favorable from a financial point of view to its stockholders than the First Midwest merger after:

receiving the advice of its financial advisors; taking into account the likelihood of completion of the proposed transaction (as compared to, and with due regard for, the terms of the merger agreement); and taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal.

Bridgeview has agreed to cease immediately any activities, negotiations or discussions conducted before the date of the merger agreement with any other persons with respect to acquisition proposals and to use reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar agreement relating to such acquisition proposals. Bridgeview has also agreed to notify First Midwest within one business day of receiving any acquisition proposal and the substance of the proposal.

In addition, Bridgeview has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from its stockholders approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

However, if Bridgeview's board of directors (after consultation with, and based on the advice of, outside legal counsel) determines in good faith that, because of an acquisition proposal that Bridgeview's board of directors concludes in good faith constitutes a superior proposal, to continue to recommend such items to its stockholders would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, it may submit such items without recommendation and communicate the basis for its lack of recommendation to its stockholders. Bridgeview agreed that before taking such action with respect to an acquisition proposal, it will give First Midwest at least ten business days to respond to the proposal and will consider any amendment or modification to the merger agreement proposed by First Midwest.

Under certain circumstances, including if the merger agreement is terminated in the event Bridgeview breaches certain obligations described above, Bridgeview must pay First Midwest a fee equal to $6,400,000. See " Termination of the Merger Agreement."

Other Agreements

In addition to the agreements we have described above, we have also agreed in the merger agreement to take several other actions, such as:

we agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to complete the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

we agreed that First Midwest and Bridgeview will give notice to the other party of any fact, event or circumstance that is reasonably likely to result in any material adverse effect, as defined in the merger agreement, or that would constitute a breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement that reasonably could be expected to give rise to the failure of a condition to the merger to be satisfied;

we agreed that First Midwest and Bridgeview will supplement their respective representations and warranties in the merger agreement with respect to any matter arising after the date of the merger agreement which would render any such representations and warranties inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect;

we agreed that Bridgeview will convene a special meeting of its stockholders within 45 days from the date the registration statement, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, becomes effective to consider and vote on the merger proposal;

we agreed that First Midwest will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the shares of First Midwest common stock to be issued in the merger to be approved for listing on the Nasdaq Stock Market (subject to official notice of issuance) as promptly as practicable, and in any event before the effective time of the merger;

we agreed that, subject to applicable law, First Midwest and Bridgeview will cooperate with each other and prepare promptly and file all necessary documentation to obtain all required permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of third parties and governmental entities, including applications for the required regulatory approvals and this proxy statement/prospectus and the registration statement for the First Midwest common stock to be issued in the merger of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part;

we agreed to cooperate on stockholder and employee communications and press releases;

we agreed that Bridgeview will not take any actions that would cause the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to be subject to any takeover laws;

we agreed that Bridgeview will provide First Midwest, and First Midwest's officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives, reasonable access during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the effective time of the merger to the books, records, properties, personnel and other information of Bridgeview as First Midwest may reasonably request;

we agreed that Bridgeview will provide First Midwest with copies of documents filed Bridgeview pursuant to the requirements of federal or state banking or securities laws and all other information concerning the business, properties and personnel of Bridgeview and its subsidiaries as First Midwest may reasonably request, including providing First Midwest with biweekly general ledger reports beginning with the first full biweekly period following December 6, 2018 and until the effective time of the merger;

we agreed to keep any non-public information confidential;

we agreed that First Midwest and Bridgeview will execute and deliver supplemental indentures and other documents and instruments required for the assumption of Bridgeview's outstanding debt, guarantees, securities, and other agreements;

we agreed that, upon completion of the merger, First Midwest will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the directors and officers of Bridgeview (when acting in such capacity) against all costs and liabilities arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or before the completion of the merger, in accordance with Bridgeview's certificate of incorporation, as amended, and by-laws, to the extent permitted by law;

we agreed that, prior to the closing of the merger, Bridgeview will obtain a prepaid tail policy of directors' and officers' liability coverage that provides directors' and officers' liability insurance with respect to actions and omissions occurring prior to the closing date;

we agreed that Bridgeview will, prior to the closing of the merger, take all actions necessary to terminate the Bridgeview Bank 401(k) Plan;

we agreed that, following the effective time of the merger, First Midwest or its subsidiaries will cause Bridgeview's employees to be covered by a severance policy whereby certain employees of Bridgeview and Bridgeview Bank will be entitled to receive certain severance benefits as provided in the merger agreement if they incur a qualifying involuntary termination of employment after the effective time of the merger;

we agreed that First Midwest will cause each employee benefit plan of First Midwest in which Bridgeview employees are eligible to participate (other than a cash or equity compensation plan) to take into account, for purposes of eligibility and vesting (and not for benefit accrual) thereunder, the service of such employees with Bridgeview as if such service were with First Midwest, to the same extent that such service was credited under a comparable plan of Bridgeview, and, with respect to welfare benefit plans of First Midwest in which employees of Bridgeview are eligible to participate, First Midwest agreed to waive any preexisting conditions, waiting periods and actively at work requirements under such plans;

we agreed that for purposes of each First Midwest health plan, First Midwest will cause any eligible expenses incurred by employees of Bridgeview who are employees of Bridgeview or Bridgeview Bank on the closing date of the merger and their covered dependents during the portion of the plan year of the comparable plan of Bridgeview or Bridgeview Bank ending on the date such employee's participation in the corresponding First Midwest plan begins to be taken into account under such First Midwest plan for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such employee and his or her covered dependents for the applicable plan year of the First Midwest plan;

we agreed to use our commercially reasonable efforts to plan, execute and complete the conversion of the processing, reporting, payment and other operating systems of Bridgeview

Bank to those of First Midwest Bank by the closing of the merger, or at such later time as First Midwest may determine, provided that such conversion will not become effective prior to the closing of the merger;

we agreed that Bridgeview will order (and Bridgeview will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be delivered to First Midwest) title commitments, surveys and title documents for real property owned by Bridgeview or its subsidiaries in order to determine, as provided in the merger agreement, whether there are any defects to the title of such real property;

we agreed that First Midwest is authorized to obtain certain environmental examinations within a timeframe set forth in the merger agreement of any real property owned or leased by Bridgeview, or any real property acquired after the date of the merger agreement, at Bridgeview's cost and expense, in order to determine, as provided in the merger agreement, whether certain environmental conditions exist on such real property;

we agreed that if certain environmental conditions and/or title defects exist with respect to Bridgeview's real property and the total cost to remediate and/or cure such conditions or defects (the "real property adjustment amount") is greater than $100,000, the cash consideration will be reduced by an amount equal the (i) the real property adjustment amount up to an aggregate amount of $4,000,000, divided by (ii) the number of outstanding shares of Bridgeview common stock, however, if the real property adjustment amount is greater than $4,000,000, First Midwest may reduce the cash consideration by $4,000,000 divided by the number of outstanding shares of Bridgeview common stock or terminate the merger agreement;

we agreed that Bridgeview will use its commercially reasonable efforts to dispose of its residential home mortgage business prior to February 28, 2019, subject to adjustments to the cash consideration relating thereto;

we agreed that if, after the effective time of the merger, any further action is necessary to carry out the purposes of the merger agreement or to vest First Midwest with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the merger, the then current officers and directors of each party to the merger agreement and their respective subsidiaries will take or cause to be taken such necessary action.

See "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration" for a description of certain cash consideration adjustments relating to the foregoing agreements.

Table of Contents

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated by either First Midwest or Bridgeview at any time before or after Bridgeview has received approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby:

by our mutual agreement;

if the other party is in a continuing breach of a representation, warranty or covenant contained in the merger agreement, as long as that breach has not been cured within 15 days following written notice thereof and that breach would also allow the non-breaching party not to complete the merger;

if any governmental entity that must grant a regulatory approval has denied approval of the merger, bank merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by final and non-appealable action, or if an application for a required regulatory approval has been withdrawn upon the request or recommendation of the applicable governmental authority and such authority would not accept the refiling of such application, but not by a party whose failure to comply with any provision of the merger agreement caused, or materially contributed to, such denial or withdrawal request;

if the merger is not completed on or before December 6, 2019, unless the failure to complete the merger by this date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to comply with any of the provisions of the merger agreement; or if a material adverse effect, as defined in the merger agreement, occurs with respect to the other party.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by First Midwest at any time before or after the stockholders of Bridgeview approve the merger proposal:

if holders of the requisite Bridgeview common stock fail to approve the merger proposal or if holders of Bridgeview Series A non-voting common stock fail to approve the conversion proposal;

if Bridgeview's board of directors fails to recommend approval of the merger agreement, the conversion proposal and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, to its stockholders, or withdraws or materially and adversely modifies its recommendation;

if Bridgeview's board of directors recommends an acquisition proposal other than the merger, or if Bridgeview's board of directors negotiates or authorizes negotiations with a third party regarding an acquisition proposal other than the merger and those negotiations continue for at least 10 business days, except that negotiations will not include the request and receipt of information from any person that submits an acquisition proposal, or discussions regarding such information for the sole purpose of ascertaining the terms of the acquisition proposal and determining whether Bridgeview's board of directors will, in fact, engage in or authorize negotiations;

if Bridgeview has breached its covenant not to solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any acquisition proposal, in circumstances not permitted under the merger agreement, as described above under " Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties";

if the number of dissenting shares of Bridgeview common stock exceeds 7.5% of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview common stock; or if the real property adjustment amount is greater than $4,000,000.

The merger agreement also provides that Bridgeview must pay First Midwest a fee equal to $6,400,000 plus reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by First Midwest in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement if, on or prior to the termination of the merger agreement or the 12 month anniversary of the termination of the merger agreement in certain circumstances set forth in the merger agreement, both (i) the merger agreement is terminated and (ii) any of the following circumstances occur:

Bridgeview's board of directors submits the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, to Bridgeview stockholders without a recommendation for approval or with material and adverse conditions on such approval, or withdraws or materially and adversely modifies its recommendation;

Bridgeview enters into an agreement to engage in a competing acquisition proposal with any person other than First Midwest or any of First Midwest's subsidiaries;

Bridgeview authorizes, recommends or proposes (or publicly announces its intention to authorize, recommend or propose) an agreement to engage in a competing acquisition proposal with any person other than First Midwest or its subsidiaries or recommends that Bridgeview stockholders approve or accept such a competing acquisition proposal;

any person, other than First Midwest or its subsidiaries, acquires beneficial ownership or the right to acquire beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of any class or series of Bridgeview common stock;

Bridgeview fails to convene a stockholder meeting to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, within 45 days of the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part; or

Bridgeview breaches its covenant not to solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any acquisition proposal in circumstances not permitted under the merger agreement, which covenant is described above under " Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties."

Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

At any time before completion of the merger, either First Midwest or Bridgeview may, to the extent legally allowed, waive in writing compliance by the other with any provision contained in the merger agreement or amend the merger agreement. However, once holders of Bridgeview common stock have approved the merger proposal, no waiver of any condition or amendment may be made that would require further approval by Bridgeview stockholders unless that approval is obtained.

First Midwest may also change the structure of the merger or the method of effecting the merger before the effective time of the merger, by notice to Bridgeview at least five business days prior to the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, by all requisite votes of the holders of Bridgeview common stock, so long as any change does not: (i) change the kind or amount of consideration to be received by Bridgeview stockholders; (ii) adversely affect the tax consequences of the merger to Bridgeview stockholders; (iii) adversely affect the timing of or capability of completion of the merger; or (iv) cause or could not be reasonably expected to cause any of the conditions to complete the merger to be incapable of being satisfied.

The merger agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties. Any such amendment by the parties must be approved by the board of directors of First Midwest and the board of directors of Bridgeview at any time before or after the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by the stockholders of Bridgeview, except that no amendment may be made after the receipt of such approval which requires further approval of the stockholders of Bridgeview unless such further approval is obtained. Notwithstanding the foregoing, First Midwest and Bridgeview may without approval of their respective boards of directors, make technical changes to the merger agreement, not inconsistent with the purposes of the merger agreement, as may be required to effect or facilitate any required government approvals or acceptance of the merger or of the merger agreement or to effect or facilitate any filing or recording required for the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Mergers

We have agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the regulatory approvals required for the merger. We refer to these approvals, along with the expiration of any statutory waiting periods related to these approvals, as the "requisite regulatory approvals." These include approval from the Federal Reserve and the IDFP. We received approval from the Federal Reserve and the IDFP. The merger and the related transactions cannot proceed in the absence of the requisite regulatory approvals.

We are not aware of any other material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the parties' completion of the merger other than those described below. We presently contemplate that if any additional governmental approvals or actions are required, these approvals or actions will be sought. However, we cannot assure you that any of these additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

Federal Reserve. Completion of the merger requires approval by the Federal Reserve pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the "BHC Act"), which has been received.

The Federal Reserve is prohibited from approving any merger transaction under Section 3 of the BHC Act (i) that would result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize, or to attempt to monopolize, the business of banking in any part of the United States, or (ii) whose effect in any section of the United States may be to substantially lessen competition, or to tend to create a monopoly or in any other manner restrain trade, unless the Federal Reserve finds that the anti-competitive effects of the merger transaction are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the merger transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

In addition, among other things, in reviewing the merger, the Federal Reserve must consider (i) the financial condition and future prospects of First Midwest, Bridgeview and their respective subsidiary banks, (ii) the competence, experience, and integrity of the officers, directors and principal stockholders of First Midwest, Bridgeview and their respective subsidiary banks, (iii) the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, including the record of performance under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended, (iv) the companies' effectiveness in combating money-laundering activities, (v) First Midwest's and its subsidiaries' record of compliance with applicable community reinvestment laws and (vi) the risk to the stability of the United States banking or financial system presented by the merger and the related transactions.

Completion of the bank merger requires approval by the Federal Reserve pursuant to the Bank Merger Act, and such approval has been received. In evaluating an application filed under the Bank Merger Act, the Federal Reserve uses substantially the same criteria as used when evaluating applications filed pursuant to the BHC Act as described above.

Pursuant to the BHC Act and the Bank Merger Act, a transaction approved by the Federal Reserve is subject to a waiting period ranging from 15 to 30 days, during which time the U.S. Department of Justice may challenge the merger on antitrust grounds and seek appropriate relief. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of such an approval, unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. In reviewing the merger, the U.S. Department of Justice could analyze the merger's effect on competition differently than the Federal Reserve, and thus, it is possible that the U.S. Department of Justice could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Reserve regarding the merger's effects on competition. A determination by the U.S. Department of Justice not to object to the merger does not prevent the filing of antitrust actions by private persons or state attorneys general.

Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation. Completion of the bank merger requires approval from the IDFPR under Section 22 of the Illinois Banking Act, and such approval has been received.

Among other things, in reviewing the bank merger, the IDFPR must consider (i) the financial condition and future prospects of First Midwest, Bridgeview and their respective subsidiary banks, (ii) the general character, experience and qualifications of the directors and management of the resulting bank, (iii) the convenience and needs of the area sought to be served by the resulting bank, (iv) the fairness of the proposed merger to all parties involved, and (v) the safety and soundness of the resulting bank following the proposed bank merger.

Dividends

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Bridgeview is prohibited from paying cash dividends to holders of its common stock. For further information, please see "Price Range of Common Stock and Dividends."

Stock Exchange Listing

First Midwest has agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to list the First Midwest common stock to be issued in the merger on the Nasdaq Stock Market. It is a condition to the completion of the merger that those shares be approved for listing on the Nasdaq Stock Market, subject to official notice of issuance. Following the merger, First Midwest expects that its common stock will continue to trade on the Nasdaq Stock Market under the symbol "FMBI."

Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates

First Midwest has registered its shares of common stock to be issued in the merger with the SEC under the Securities Act. No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of shares of First Midwest common stock issued in the merger will be imposed solely as a result of the merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of shares of First Midwest common stock issued to any Bridgeview stockholder who is or becomes an "affiliate" of First Midwest for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. The term "affiliate" is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act as a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, First Midwest or the combined company, as the case may be, and generally includes executive officers, directors and stockholders beneficially owning 10% or more of First Midwest's outstanding common stock.

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal of Holders of Bridgeview Common Stock

The following discussion is a summary of the material statutory procedures to be followed by a holder of Bridgeview common stock in order to dissent from the merger and perfect appraisal rights. If you want to exercise appraisal rights, you should review carefully Section 262 of the DGCL and are urged to consult a legal advisor before electing or attempting to exercise these rights because the failure to precisely follow all the necessary legal requirements may result in the loss of such appraisal rights. This description is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the relevant provisions of the DGCL, which are reprinted in their entirety as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. Bridgeview stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights must strictly comply with these provisions.

Stockholders of Bridgeview as of the Bridgeview record date may exercise appraisal rights in connection with the merger by complying with Section 262 of the DGCL. Completion of the merger is subject to, among other things, the holders of no more than 7.5% of the outstanding shares of Bridgeview common stock electing to exercise their appraisal rights.

If you hold one or more shares of Bridgeview common stock, you are entitled to appraisal rights under Delaware law and have the right to dissent from the merger, have your shares appraised by the Delaware Court of Chancery and receive the "fair value" of such shares (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger) as of completion of the merger in place of the merger consideration, as determined by the court, if you strictly comply with the procedures specified in Section 262 of the DGCL. Any such Bridgeview stockholder awarded "fair value" for such stockholder's shares by the Delaware Court of Chancery would receive payment of that fair value in cash, together with interest, if any, in lieu of the right to receive the merger consideration, and accordingly, such stockholder awarded "fair value" for their shares would not receive any shares of First Midwest common stock following the completion of the merger. Such fair value amount may differ from the value of the consideration that you would otherwise receive in the merger.

The following is a summary of the statutory procedures that you must follow if you elect to exercise your appraisal rights under the DGCL. The following summary does not constitute any legal or other advice, nor does it constitute a recommendation that you exercise your rights to seek appraisal under Section 262 of the DGCL. This summary is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262 of the DGCL, the text of which is set forth in full in Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, where a merger agreement is to be submitted for adoption at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, must notify each of its stockholders entitled to appraisal rights that appraisal rights are available and include in the notice a copy of Section 262 of the DGCL. This proxy statement/prospectus constitutes Bridgeview's notice to its stockholders that appraisal rights are available in connection with the merger, and the full text of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C. A holder of Bridgeview common stock who wishes to exercise appraisal rights or who wishes to preserve the right to do so should review the following discussion and Appendix C carefully. Failure to strictly comply with the procedures of Section 262 of the DGCL in a timely and proper manner will result in the loss of appraisal rights. A stockholder who loses his, her or its appraisal rights will be entitled to receive only the per share merger consideration.

How to exercise and perfect your right to dissent. Bridgeview stockholders wishing to exercise the rights to seek an appraisal of its shares must do ALL of the following:

you must not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. Because a proxy that is signed and submitted but does not otherwise contain voting instructions will, unless revoked, be voted in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, if you vote by proxy and wish to exercise your appraisal rights you must vote against the adoption of the merger agreement or abstain from voting your shares;

you must deliver to Bridgeview a written demand for appraisal before the vote on the adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting and all demands for appraisal must reasonably inform Bridgeview of your identity and your intention to demand appraisal of your shares of common stock;

you must continuously hold the shares from the date of making the demand through the effective date of the merger. You will lose your appraisal rights if you transfer the shares before the effective date of the merger; and you or the surviving company must file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery requesting a determination of the fair value of the shares within 120 days after the effective date of the merger. The surviving company is under no obligation to file any such petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery and has no intention of doing so. Accordingly, it is the obligation of the Bridgeview stockholders demanding appraisal to initiate all necessary action to perfect their appraisal rights in respect of shares of Bridgeview common stock within the time prescribed in Section 262 of the DGCL.

Voting, in person or by proxy, against, abstaining from voting on or failing to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement will not constitute a written demand for appraisal as required by Section 262 of the DGCL. The written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote.

Who May Exercise Appraisal Rights. Any holder of shares of Bridgeview common stock wishing to exercise appraisal rights must deliver to Bridgeview, before the vote on the adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting at which the merger proposal will be submitted to the Bridgeview stockholders, a written demand for the appraisal of such stockholder's shares, and that stockholder must not submit a blank proxy or vote in favor of the merger proposal. A holder of shares of Bridgeview common stock wishing to exercise appraisal rights must hold of record the shares on the date the written demand for appraisal is made and must continue to hold the shares of record through the effective date of the merger. A demand for appraisal must be executed by or on behalf of the stockholder of record and must reasonably inform Bridgeview of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends to demand appraisal of his, her or its shares of Bridgeview common stock.

Only a holder of record of shares of Bridgeview common stock is entitled to demand appraisal rights for the shares registered in that holder's name. Beneficial owners who do not also hold their shares of common stock of record may not directly make appraisal demands to Bridgeview. The beneficial holder must, in such cases, have the owner of record, such as a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, submit the required demand in respect of those shares of common stock of record. A record owner, such as a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, who holds shares of Bridgeview common stock as a nominee for others, may exercise his, her or its right of appraisal with respect to the shares of Bridgeview common stock held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising this right for other beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand should state the number of shares of Bridgeview common stock as to which appraisal is sought. Where no number of shares of Bridgeview common stock is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares of Bridgeview common stock held in the name of the record owner.

IF YOU HOLD YOUR SHARES IN BANK OR BROKERAGE ACCOUNTS OR OTHER NOMINEE FORMS, AND YOU WISH TO EXERCISE APPRAISAL RIGHTS, YOU SHOULD CONSULT WITH YOUR BANK, BROKERAGE FIRM OR OTHER NOMINEE, AS APPLICABLE, TO DETERMINE THE APPROPRIATE PROCEDURES FOR THE BANK, BROKERAGE FIRM OR OTHER NOMINEE TO MAKE A DEMAND FOR APPRAISAL OF THOSE SHARES. IF YOU HAVE A BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN SHARES HELD OF RECORD IN THE NAME OF ANOTHER PERSON, SUCH AS A BANK, BROKERAGE FIRM OR OTHER NOMINEE, YOU MUST ACT PROMPTLY TO CAUSE THE RECORD HOLDER TO FOLLOW PROPERLY AND IN A TIMELY MANNER THE STEPS NECESSARY TO PERFECT YOUR APPRAISAL RIGHTS.

If you own shares of Bridgeview common stock jointly with one or more other persons, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, demand for appraisal must be executed by or for you and all other joint owners. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner and expressly disclose the fact that, in exercising the demand, such person is acting as agent for the record owner. If you hold shares of Bridgeview common stock through a broker who in turn holds the shares through a central securities depository nominee such as Cede & Co., a demand for appraisal of such shares must be made by or on behalf of the depository nominee and must identify the depository nominee as record holder.

You should sign every communication.

First Midwest's actions after completion of the merger. If the merger is completed, the surviving company will give written notice of the effective date of the merger within 10 days after the effective date to you if you did not vote in favor of the merger agreement and you made a written demand for appraisal in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL. At any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger, you have the right to withdraw the demand and to accept the merger consideration in accordance with the merger agreement for your shares of Bridgeview common stock, provided that you have not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined an appraisal proceeding as a named party. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, but not later, either you, provided you have complied with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL, or the surviving company may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery, with a copy served on the surviving company in the case of a petition filed by you, demanding a determination of the value of the shares of Bridgeview common stock held by all stockholders entitled to appraisal rights. The surviving company is under no obligation to file an appraisal petition and has no intention of doing so. If you desire to have your shares appraised, you should initiate any petitions necessary for the perfection of your appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262 of the DGCL.

Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, provided you have complied with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL, you will be entitled to receive from the surviving company, upon written request, a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and with respect to which Bridgeview has received demands for appraisal, and the aggregate number of holders of those shares. The surviving company must mail this statement to you within the later of 10 days of receipt of the request or 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal. If you are the beneficial owner of shares of stock held in a voting trust or by a nominee on your behalf you may, in your own name, file an appraisal petition or request from the surviving company the statement described in this paragraph.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by you or another record holder of Bridgeview common stock who has properly exercised appraisal rights in accordance with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL, and a copy of the petition is delivered to the surviving company, the surviving company will then be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to provide the Chancery Court with a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all holders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares. The Delaware Court of Chancery will then determine which stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights and may require the stockholders demanding appraisal who hold certificated shares to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings and the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss any stockholder who fails to comply with this direction from the appraisal proceedings. Where appraisal proceedings are not dismissed or the demand for appraisal is not successfully withdrawn, the appraisal proceeding will be conducted as to the shares of Bridgeview common stock owned by such stockholders, in accordance with the rules of the Delaware Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. The Delaware Court of Chancery will thereafter determine the fair value of the shares of Bridgeview common stock at the effective time held by stockholders entitled to appraisal rights, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. Unless the Delaware Court of Chancery in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment will be compounded quarterly and will accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. When the value is determined, the Delaware Court of Chancery will direct the payment of such value, with interest thereon, if any, to the stockholders entitled to receive the same, upon surrender by such stockholders of their stock certificates in the case of shares represented by certificates and forthwith in the case of uncertificated shares.

In determining the fair value, the Delaware Court of Chancery is required to take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the factors that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that "proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court" should be considered and that "[f]air price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company." The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that, in making this determination of fair value, the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise and any other factors which could be ascertained as of the date of the merger which throw any light on future prospects of the merged corporation. Section 262 of the DGCL provides that fair value is to be "exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger." In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a "narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value," but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court construed Section 262 of the DGCL to mean that "elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered."

An opinion of an investment banking firm as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration payable in a merger is not an opinion as to, and does not in any manner address, fair value under Section 262 of the DGCL. The fair value of their shares as determined under Section 262 of the DGCL could be greater than, the same as, or less than the value of the merger consideration. We do not anticipate offering more than the per share merger consideration to any stockholder exercising appraisal rights and reserve the right to assert, in any appraisal proceeding, that, for purposes of Section 262, the "fair value" of a share of Bridgeview common stock is less than the per share merger consideration.

If no party files a petition for appraisal within 120 days after the effective time, then you will lose the right to an appraisal, and will instead receive the merger consideration described in the merger agreement, without interest thereon, less any withholding taxes.

The Delaware Court of Chancery may determine the costs of the appraisal proceeding and may allocate those costs to the parties as the Delaware Court of Chancery determines to be equitable under the circumstances. However, costs do not include attorneys and expert witness fees. Each stockholder exercising appraisal rights is responsible for its own attorneys and expert witnesses expenses, although, upon application of a stockholder, the Delaware Court of Chancery may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal.

If you have duly demanded an appraisal in compliance with Section 262 of the DGCL you may not, after the effective date of the merger, vote the Bridgeview shares subject to the demand for any purpose or receive any dividends or other distributions on those shares, except dividends or other distributions payable to holders of record of shares of Bridgeview common stock as of a Bridgeview record date prior to the effective date of the merger.

If you have not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined such a proceeding as a named party you may withdraw a demand for appraisal and accept the merger consideration by delivering a written withdrawal of the demand for appraisal to the surviving company, except that any attempt to withdraw made more than 60 days after the effective date of the merger will require written approval of the surviving company, and no appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court of Chancery will be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery. Such approval may be conditioned on the terms the Delaware Court of Chancery deems just; provided, however, that this provision will not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined such proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered in the merger within 60 days after the effective date of the merger. If you fail to perfect, successfully withdraw or lose the appraisal right, your shares will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, without interest thereon, less any withholding taxes.

Failure to follow the steps required by Section 262 of the DGCL for perfecting appraisal rights may result in the loss of appraisal rights. In that event, you will be entitled to receive the merger consideration for your shares in accordance with the merger agreement. In view of the complexity of the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL, if you are a Bridgeview stockholder and are considering exercising your appraisal rights under the DGCL, you should consult your own legal advisor.

THE PROCESS OF DEMANDING AND EXERCISING APPRAISAL RIGHTS REQUIRES STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH TECHNICAL PREREQUISITES. IF YOU WISH TO EXERCISE YOUR APPRAISAL RIGHTS, YOU SHOULD CONSULT WITH YOUR OWN LEGAL COUNSEL IN CONNECTION WITH COMPLIANCE UNDER SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL. TO THE EXTENT THERE ARE ANY INCONSISTENCIES BETWEEN THE FOREGOING SUMMARY AND SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL, THE DGCL WILL GOVERN.

Voting Agreements

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, and as a condition to First Midwest's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, all of the directors and executive officers of Bridgeview who beneficially owned in the aggregate approximately 30% of Bridgeview voting common stock and certain Bridgeview stockholders who beneficially owned in the aggregate approximately 32% of Bridgeview voting common stock as of December 6, 2018, have entered into voting agreements with First Midwest. Accordingly, the holders of approximately 62% of the outstanding voting shares entitled to vote on the merger have entered into voting agreements with First Midwest. A copy of the form of these voting agreements is attached as Annex I-B to Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Under the voting agreement, each such stockholder has agreed, with respect to the shares of Bridgeview common stock owned of record or beneficially by the stockholder, that at any meeting of Bridgeview stockholders in relation to the merger agreement and transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and at the special stockholders meeting or any other meeting or action of Bridgeview stockholders called in relation to such matters, the stockholder will vote, or cause to be voted, such shares as follows:

vote in favor of the adoption of the merger proposal, including the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, any other matters required to be approved or adopted in order to effect the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the conversion proposal; and not vote in favor of any competing acquisition proposal or any action that is intended or could reasonably be expected to materially impede, interfere with, delay or materially and adversely affect the merger or any transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The voting agreement also contains restrictions on the sale, transfer, assignment, pledge or other disposition of the stockholder's shares or the voting rights thereunder prior to the effective time of the merger, unless the proposed transferee executes and delivers an agreement in which it agrees to comply with the requirements of the voting agreement.

The voting agreement will terminate automatically upon the termination of the merger agreement, in the event the board of directors of Bridgeview submits the merger agreement to the Bridgeview stockholders without a recommendation for approval or upon the eight-month anniversary of the closing date of the merger.

Restrictive Covenant Agreements

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, and as a condition to First Midwest's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, all of the directors and executive officers of Bridgeview who beneficially owned in the aggregate approximately 30% of Bridgeview's outstanding common stock as of the Bridgeview record date, have entered into restrictive covenant agreements with First Midwest. Copies of the forms of these restrictive covenant agreements are attached as Annex 2-B to Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Under the restrictive covenant agreements, each director has agreed to keep secret and confidential certain information related to Bridgeview, Bridgeview Bank and their respective businesses and certain directors have agreed to refrain from competing against the business of Bridgeview and soliciting the customers or employees of Bridgeview for between six (6) and eighteen (18) months following the effective time of the merger.

Dividends and Other Matters

In the first three quarters of 2018, First Midwest declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.11 per share of First Midwest common stock and, in the fourth quarter of 2018 and the first quarter of 2019, First Midwest declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.12 per share of First Midwest common stock. The actual payment of future dividends will depend on various factors including the discretion of First Midwest's board of directors, earnings, cash requirements, the financial condition of First Midwest, applicable state law and government regulations and other factors deemed relevant by First Midwest's board of directors, which may change at any time.

First Midwest may repurchase shares of its common stock in accordance with applicable legal and regulatory guidelines. The actual amount of shares repurchased will depend on various factors, including: the discretion of First Midwest's board of directors, market conditions, legal and regulatory limitations and considerations affecting the amount and timing of repurchase activity, the company's capital position, internal capital generation and alternative potential investment opportunities.

First Midwest's primary source of liquidity is dividend payments from First Midwest Bank. In addition to requirements to maintain adequate capital above regulatory minimums, First Midwest Bank is limited in the amount of dividends it can pay to First Midwest under the Illinois Banking Act. Under this law, First Midwest Bank is permitted to declare and pay dividends in amounts up to the amount of its accumulated net profits, provided that it retains in its surplus at least one-tenth of its net profits since the date of the declaration of its most recent dividend until those additions to surplus, in the aggregate, equal the paid-in capital of First Midwest Bank. While it continues its banking business,

Table of Contents

First Midwest Bank may not pay dividends in excess of its net profits then on hand (after deductions for losses and bad debts). In addition, First Midwest Bank is limited in the amount of dividends it can pay under the Federal Reserve Act and Regulation H. For example, dividends cannot be paid that would constitute a withdrawal of capital, dividends cannot be declared or paid if they exceed a bank's undivided profits and a bank may not declare or pay a dividend if all dividends declared during the calendar year are greater than current year net income plus retained net income of the prior two years without Federal Reserve approval.

Since First Midwest is a legal entity separate and distinct from First Midwest Bank, its dividends to stockholders are not subject to the bank dividend guidelines discussed above. However, First Midwest is subject to other regulatory policies and requirements related to the payment of dividends, including requirements to maintain adequate capital above regulatory minimums. The Federal Reserve and the IDFPB are authorized to determine that the payment of dividends by First Midwest would be an unsafe or unsound practice and to prohibit payment under certain circumstances related to the financial condition of a bank or bank holding company. The Federal Reserve has taken the position that dividends that would create pressure or undermine the safety and soundness of a subsidiary bank are inappropriate. Due to the current financial and economic environment, the Federal Reserve indicated that bank holding companies should carefully review their dividend policy and discourages payment ratios that are at maximum allowable levels, unless both asset quality and capital are very strong.

Bridgeview has not paid any dividends to holders of its common stock during 2019 or the last two most recent fiscal years. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Bridgeview is generally prohibited from paying cash dividends to holders of its common stock prior to completion of the merger.

DESCRIPTION OF FIRST MIDWEST CAPITAL STOCK

As a result of the merger, Bridgeview stockholders who receive shares of First Midwest common stock in the merger will become stockholders of First Midwest. First Midwest stockholder's rights will be governed by Delaware law and the restated certificate of incorporation and the amended and restated by-laws of First Midwest as may be amended and in effect from time to time. The following description of the material terms of First Midwest's capital stock, including the common stock to be issued in the merger, reflects the anticipated state of affairs upon completion of the merger. We urge all Bridgeview stockholders to read the applicable provisions of Delaware law, First Midwest's restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated by-laws and federal law governing bank holding companies carefully and in their entirety. Copies of First Midwest's restated certificate of incorporation and First Midwest's amended and restated by-laws have been filed with the SEC. To find out where copies of these documents can be obtained, see "Where You Can Find More Information."

General

First Midwest's authorized capital stock consists of 250,000,000 shares of First Midwest common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 1,000,000, shares of preferred stock, without par value. As of the Bridgeview record date, there were 107,000,522 shares of First Midwest common stock, including 932,660 shares of restricted stock, outstanding and no shares of First Midwest preferred stock outstanding. In addition, as of the Bridgeview record date, 992,335 shares of First Midwest common stock were reserved for issuance upon vesting of awards of performance shares and restricted stock units under First Midwest's equity compensation plans.

Because First Midwest is a holding company, the rights of First Midwest to participate in any distribution of assets of any subsidiary upon its liquidation or reorganization or otherwise (and thus the ability of First Midwest stockholders to benefit indirectly from such distribution) would be subject to the prior claims of creditors of that subsidiary, except to the extent that First Midwest itself may be a creditor of that subsidiary with recognized claims. Claims on First Midwest's subsidiaries by creditors other than First Midwest will include substantial obligations with respect to deposit liabilities and purchased funds.

Preferred Stock

First Midwest's restated certificate of incorporation authorizes the First Midwest board of directors to authorize the issuance of shares of First Midwest preferred stock without stockholder approval. The First Midwest board of directors is authorized to divide the preferred stock into series and, subject to applicable law, to fix for any series of preferred stock the number of shares of such series and the voting powers (if any), designations and preferences, priorities, qualifications, privileges, limitations, restrictions, options, conversion rights, dividend features, retirement features, liquidation features, redemption features and any other special or relative rights that may be desired for any such series. Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company"), a Delaware corporation, provides a full range of banking services to individual and corporate customers through its subsidiary bank, Bridgeview Bank Group ("Bank"). The Company is subject to competition from other financial and nonfinancial institutions providing financial services in its customer service area which is primarily communities located in the Greater Chicago area. The Bank's division, BBMC Mortgage ("BBMC"), operates as an approved residential lender with Freddie Mac ("FHLMC"), Federal National Mortgage Association ("FNMA"), FHA and other private investors and was lending in most states throughout the U.S. in 2018.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP) and reporting practices applicable to the banking industry. The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying footnotes. Material estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant changes in the near term relate to the allowance for loan losses, valuation of other real estate owned, the valuation and classification of investment securities, the valuation of deferred tax assets, the fair value of derivative instruments and certain key assumptions related to the defined benefit plan. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies adhered to in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements.

Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements of Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc. include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary Bank. The Bank has the following wholly owned subsidiaries: Bridgeview Capital Solutions, LLC (BCS), Bridgeview Commercial Finance, Broadway Clark Building Corporation, and Mill Tax Corporation. Significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. BBMC Mortgage, LLC (previously a subsidiary of the Bank) was merged into the Bank in 2016.

In the second half of 2018, the Company determined that it was in its best interests to divest of its mortgage division, BBMC. On October 30, 2018, the Company entered into a Purchase and Assumption Agreement (the "Agreement") with Synergy One Lending, Inc. ("S1") for S1 to acquire selected BBMC assets (principally consisting of leasehold improvements and branch lease-related prepaid rent and security deposits totaling approximately $2,356) and assume selected liabilities (principally lease and vendor contract obligations). The Agreement resulted in a staged transfer of these assets and liabilities in the last two months of 2018. No significant gain or loss was recognized as a result of this sale of assets and assumption of liabilities. During this time and concluding approximately January 31, 2019, the Company/BBMC wound down to zero its locked loan commitment file, held for sale loan portfolio originated within BBMC, and all mortgage banking operations.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of reporting cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, amounts due from banks, federal funds sold and interest-bearing deposits in banks that are either due on demand or have an original maturity of ninety days or less.

Certificates of Deposit

Certificates of deposit in banks have a range of remaining maturities from 8 months to 44 months. Individual bank certificates do not exceed the FDIC insurance coverage limit of $250,000.

Investment Securities

The Company classifies its debt and marketable equity securities in one of two categories: held-to-maturity or available-for-sale. Held-to-maturity securities are those debt securities in which the Company has the ability and intent to hold until maturity. All other securities are classified as available-for-sale.

Held-to-maturity securities are stated at amortized cost which represents actual cost adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts. Available-for-sale securities are stated at fair value with unrealized gains/losses, net of related deferred income taxes, recorded in equity as a separate component of accumulated other comprehensive income ("AOCI"). In late 2017, management determined that, in order to provide for improved investment portfolio management opportunities, all held-to-maturity securities should be reclassified to available-for-sale.

Purchased premiums and discounts are recognized in interest income over the estimated life of the security, using the level-yield method. In determining the estimated life of a mortgage-backed security, certain judgments are required as to the timing and amount of future principal prepayments. These judgments are made based on the actual performance of the underlying security and general market consensus regarding changes in mortgage interest rates and underlying prepayment estimates.

Purchases and sales of securities are recognized on a trade date basis and are determined using the specific identification method. On a quarterly basis, the Company makes an assessment to determine whether there have been any events or circumstances to indicate that a security for which there is an unrealized loss is impaired on an other-than-temporary ("OTTI") basis. This determination requires significant judgment. OTTI is considered to have occurred (1) if management intends to sell the security; (2) if it is more likely than not we will be required to sell the security before recovery of its amortized cost; or (3) the present value of the expected cash flows is not sufficient to recover the entire amortized cost basis. Presentation of OTTI is made in the statement of operations on a gross basis with a reduction for the amount of OTTI recognized in OCI. Once an other-than-temporary impairment is recorded, when future cash flows can be reasonably estimated, future cash flows are re-allocated between interest and principal cash flows to provide for a level-yield on the security.

Federal Home Loan Bank Stock

As a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago (FHLBC), the Company is required to hold FHLBC stock. The stock is carried at cost, which approximates fair value. This equity security is restricted in that it can only be sold back to the FHLBC or another member at par. In addition, the Company may have limitations on the timing of redemptions of this stock. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Loans Held for Sale

Loans held for sale ("LHFS") represents mortgage and small business loan originations intended to be sold in the secondary market. The Company utilizes the Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities and has elected to value all LHFS originated or purchased in the future at fair value. Therefore, all LHFS at December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2017 are recorded at fair value. At December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2017, the fair value adjustment to loans held for sale amounted to $2,473 and $5,039, respectively, and is included in net realized gain on sales of loans and other mortgage banking income on the consolidated statements of operations. Fair value is determined on an aggregate basis based on commitments from investors to purchase such loans and upon prevailing market rates.

During the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, the Company sold approximately 4% and 5%, respectively, of its mortgage loans originated to Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp. ("FHLMC") and Federal National Mortgage Association ("FNMA"). During the same time periods, the Company also sold loans to 51 and 34 institutional investors, respectively.

During 2018, the Company had 2 investors that individually purchased greater than 10% of its loans sold; cumulatively, those investors purchased 28% of loans sold. During 2017, the Company had 3 investors that individually purchased greater than 10% of its loans sold; cumulatively, those investors purchased 45% of loans sold. During the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, approximately 54% and 61% of loan originations, respectively, were mortgage refinancings compared to 46% and 39%, respectively, new home purchases.

Loans

Loans are carried at the principal amount outstanding, net of unearned income, net deferred fees or costs, and any direct principal charge-offs. Interest income on loans is accrued based on principal amounts outstanding. Loan origination fees, fees for commitments that are expected to be exercised and certain direct loan origination costs are deferred and the net amount amortized over the estimated life of the related loan or commitment period as a yield adjustment. Other credit-related fees are recognized as fee income when earned.

Loans are considered past due or delinquent if the required principal and interest payments have not been received as of the date the payment is due. Generally, loans are placed on nonaccrual status: (a) when either principal or interest payments are 90 days or more past due based upon contractual terms or (b) when an individual analysis of a borrower's creditworthiness indicates a loan should be placed on nonaccrual status rather than waiting until the loan becomes 90 days past due. A loan may not be placed on nonaccrual if the loan is well secured and in the process of collection. When a loan is placed on nonaccrual status, unpaid interest accrued to income in the current year is reversed and unpaid interest from prior years is charged against the allowance for loan losses. Subsequent receipts of nonaccrual loans are recorded as a reduction of principal and interest income may only be recorded on a cash basis after recovery of principal is reasonably assured. Nonaccrual loans are returned to accrual status when all delinquent principal and interest payments become current in accordance with the terms of the loan agreement and when the financial position of the borrower and other relevant factors indicate there is little doubt as to collectibility.

Loans are generally charged-off when deemed uncollectible. A loss is recorded at that time if the net realizable value can be quantified and it is less than the associated principal and interest.

A loan is considered impaired when, based upon current information and events, it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect the scheduled payments of principal or interest when due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Factors considered by management in determining impairment include payment status, collateral value and the probability of collecting scheduled principal and interest payments when due.

The impairment is measured based upon the present value of expected cash flows or, alternatively, the observable market price of the loans or the fair value of the collateral. The amounts of the impairment, if any, and any subsequent changes, are included as specific reserves as a component of the allowance for loan losses.

A loan is accounted for as a troubled-debt restructuring when a borrower is experiencing financial difficulties that leads to a restructuring of the loan and the Company grants concessions to the borrower in the restructuring that it would not otherwise consider. These concessions may include rate reductions, principal forgiveness, extensions of maturity date and other actions intended to minimize potential losses. Restructured loans can involve loans remaining on nonaccrual, moving to nonaccrual or continuing on accrual status, depending on the individual facts and circumstances of the borrower.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The allowance for loan losses ("ALLL") is maintained at a level that the Company believes is sufficient to absorb credit losses inherent in the loan portfolio. The ALLL is established as losses are estimated to have occurred through a provision for loan losses charged to earnings. Loans are charged against the ALLL when management believes that the collectability of the principal is unlikely. Recoveries on loans previously charged-off are credited to the ALLL when received. The ALLL is evaluated for adequacy on a regular basis and takes into account evaluation of collectability of existing loans, prior loss experience, market and economic data, along with management judgment. While management uses the best information available, this evaluation is inherently subjective as it requires estimates that are susceptible to significant revision as more information becomes available.

The allowance consists of provisions for probable losses that have been identified related to specific borrowing relationships that are considered to be impaired (a specific component) as well as probable losses inherent in the loan portfolio that are not specifically identified (a general component). The general component is based upon loan type and is based upon historical loss experience adjusted for qualitative factors and uncertainties that could affect management's estimate of probable losses.

Other Real Estate Owned

Other real estate owned is comprised of property acquired through, or in lieu of, loan foreclosure. These properties are held for sale and are initially recorded at the lower of the recorded investment in the loan at the time of acquisition or fair value less estimated cost to sell at the date of foreclosure. Any write-downs in the carrying value of a property at the time of acquisition are charged against the allowance for loan losses. Any subsequent write-downs to reflect current fair market value less disposition costs, as well as any gains or losses on disposition, as well as revenues and expenses from operations are included in other real estate owned net expenses.

Premises, Furniture and Equipment

Land is carried at cost. Buildings, equipment and leasehold improvements are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. The provision for depreciation and amortization is computed on a straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets or the terms of the lease.

These assets are evaluated periodically for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. Impairment exists when the expected undiscounted future cash flows of a long lived asset are less than its carrying value. Impairment losses are recorded in other non-interest expense in the consolidated statements of operations.

See Note 2 for additional information regarding the Uptown building and related parking lots.

Life Settlement Contracts

The Company owns life insurance settlement contracts on three unaffiliated individuals. The Company elected to account for the contracts using the investment method, by which continuing premiums paid are capitalized. At December 31, 2018, the carrying value of the contracts was $9,069, while the realizable face value of the contracts was $29,949. The Company routinely quantifies the expected proceeds from the insurance contracts against the carrying amount of contracts plus anticipated future premiums and capitalizable direct costs. If the expected proceeds will not recover the anticipated investment including estimated future premiums, then an impairment is recognized. See Note 2 regarding a December 2018 impairment charge associated with the Company's intent to sell these contracts as determined at December 31, 2018. During 2018 and 2017, premium expense of $505

Derivative Instruments

The Company enters into commitments to originate loans whereby the interest rate on the loan is determined prior to funding (interest rate lock commitments). Interest rate lock commitments on mortgage loans that are intended to be sold are considered to be derivatives. The Company does not designate these derivatives as hedging instruments and accordingly, recognizes the change in their fair value as other noninterest income in the consolidated statements of operations. The fair value for interest rate lock commitments is based on secondary market execution prices for similar commitments at December 31, net of estimated direct costs and an estimate of the probability the loan will close. The derivative for interest rate lock commitments is included in other assets in the consolidated balance sheets.

The Company enters into commitments to sell loans to investors whereby the agreed-upon price for the loan or group of loans is determined prior to the sale of the loans. These commitments have expiration dates ranging from 7 days to 60 days, and are typically made on a best efforts basis or mandatory basis. The Company utilizes best efforts commitments on a portion of the open pipeline of loans which become mandatory upon the closing of the underlying loan and a pair-off fee may be charged if the commitment to deliver the loan is not met. The Company enters into forward trade commitments with counter parties on a majority of the open pipeline of loans designated for mandatory delivery by utilizing forward MBS trades. Both best efforts commitments and forward MBS trades economically hedge changes to loan prices locked by the Company, but not yet originated or sold. All mandatory basis commitments and forward trade commitments are considered derivative instruments. The Company does not designate these derivatives as hedging instruments and accordingly, recognizes the change in their fair value as other noninterest income in the consolidated statements of operations. The fair value of mandatory forward sale and forward trade commitments is based on secondary market execution prices for similar commitments at the reporting date. The derivative for mandatory sales commitments is included in other assets or other liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets.

Income Taxes

The Company and its subsidiaries file a consolidated Federal income tax return. The provision for income taxes is based upon income reported in the consolidated statements of income, rather than the amounts reported on the Company's income tax return.

Deferred income taxes are provided from all significant types of income and expense that are recognized in different periods for financial reporting purposes and income tax reporting purposes. Temporary differences are differences between the amounts of assets and liabilities reported for financial statement purposes and their tax bases.

Deferred tax assets are recognized for temporary differences that will be deductible in future years' tax returns and for operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. This approach requires the Company to take into account changes in the tax rates when valuing deferred tax assets and liabilities recorded in the consolidated statements of operations. Deferred and current tax assets are recognized only if it is more likely than not, based on technical merits, that a tax position will be realized or sustained upon examination by the relevant taxing authority. To the extent a current or deferred tax asset is established which is not more likely than not to be realized, a valuation allowance will be established against the asset.

The Company will periodically review and evaluate the status of uncertain tax positions and may establish tax reserves for positions that may not be realized. The amount of any such reserves are based on the standards for determining such reserves as set forth in current accounting guidance and our estimates of amounts that may ultimately be due or owed, including interest.

Loss Contingencies

Loss contingencies, including claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business, are recorded as liabilities when the likelihood of loss is probable and an amount or range of loss can be reasonably estimated. In addition, loss contingencies include potential losses that may be incurred on contractually required buy-backs of certain mortgage loans previously sold.

Commitments

In the ordinary course of business, the Company has entered into off-balance sheet financial instruments consisting of commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit. Such financial instruments are recorded in the consolidated financial statements when they become funded.

Stock Compensation Plan

U.S. GAAP requires that the compensation cost relating to share-based payment transactions be recognized in financial statements. That cost is measured based on the calculated value of the equity or liability instruments issued. These provisions cover a wide range of share-based compensation arrangements including stock options, restricted share plans, performance-based awards, share appreciation rights, and employee share purchase plans. U.S. GAAP also requires entities to measure the cost of employee services received in exchange for stock options or restricted stock based on the grant-date calculated value or fair value, respectively, of the award and to recognize the cost, as compensation expense, over the period the employee is required to provide the services for the awards, which is usually the vesting period.

Comprehensive income (loss) consists of two components, reported net income and other comprehensive income (loss). Other comprehensive income (loss) refers to revenue, expenses, gains and losses that under U.S. GAAP are recorded as an element of equity but are excluded from reported net income. The Company includes changes in unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities net of taxes, in other comprehensive income (loss) in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income and consolidated statements of changes in shareholders' equity.

The components of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) were as follows:

	December 31,
	2018	2017
Unrealized losses on available-for-sale investment securities	$ (2,895)	$ (836)
Tax effect	753	335
Net accumulated other comprehensive income (loss)	$ (2,142)	$ (501)

Transfers of Financial Assets

Transfers of financial assets are accounted for as sales when control over the assets have been surrendered. Control over transferred assets is deemed to be surrendered when (1) the assets have been isolated from the Company, (2) the transferee obtains the right (free of conditions that constrain it from taking advantage of the right) to pledge or exchange the transferred assets, and (3) the Company does not maintain effective control over the transferred assets through an arrangement to repurchase them before their maturity.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year line item amounts in the consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Common Stock Book Value

The Company utilizes a performance measurement of book value per common share and fully diluted book value per common share. Management calculates book value per common share based on total shareholders' equity less the amount of preferred stock divided by the total outstanding common shares. Fully diluted book value per share assumes all outstanding restricted stock is issued and all stock options with a strike price below current book value per share are exercised. Shareholders' equity and outstanding common shares are adjusted to account for the issuance of the new shares of common stock issued at the strike price. The implicit shareholders' equity is divided by the assumed common shares outstanding after the referenced stock options are exercised and the restricted stock is issued.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2016-02 Topic 842 "Leases". This guidance modifies the lease accounting for lessees to report both operating and finance leases on the balance sheet. A "right of use" asset and a lease commitment liability will be shown on the balance sheet. This ASU will be effective for the Company in the year ending December 31, 2020. Management is currently assessing the impact to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In June 2016, FASB issued ASU 2016-13 Topic 326 "Financial Instruments - Credit Losses". The new ASU guidance introduces a measurement of expected losses on certain types of financial instruments, i.e. loans and investments. It also modifies the impairment model on available-for-sale debt securities and provides an accounting model for purchased financial assets with credit deterioration since their origination. This ASU will be effective for the Company in the year ending December 31, 2022. Management is currently assessing the impact to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In 2014, FASB issued ASU 2014-09 Topic 606, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers". The new revenue recognition standard is based on a core principle of recognizing revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The ASU does not apply to financial instruments. This ASU will be effective for the Company in the year ending December 31, 2019. Management is currently assessing the impact to the Company's consolidated financial statements, but does not anticipate a significant change as revenue from financial instruments, which include loans, loans held for sale, investment securities and derivative instruments, are scoped out of the standard.

Subsequent Events

The financial statements and related disclosures include evaluation of significant events occurring after year end up through and including March 11, 2019, which is the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 2 PROPOSED MERGER TRANSACTION

On December 6, 2018, the Company announced that it had entered into a definitive agreement to be acquired by First Midwest Bancorp, Inc. ("FMBI"). The merger agreement provides for a fixed exchange ratio of 0.2767 shares of FMBI common stock for each share of Company stock, plus $1.79 in cash for each share of Company common stock, with the cash portion subject to certain adjustments specified in the merger agreement. FMBI is a publicly-traded bank holding company headquartered in Chicago with over $15 billion of assets currently.

As the merger agreement provided for the cash portion of the purchase price to be improved if the Company disposed of specified assets at various dates prior to the closing of the proposed merger transaction, the Company embarked upon actions and transactions that adversely impacted the 2018 consolidated statement of operations but enhanced the per share cash purchase price. The actions, while resulting in an enhanced per share cash price, resulted in the intent to sell and related write-down or disposition of assets on a more accelerated basis at liquidating prices that were, in some cases, substantially below the Company's carrying values. Such merger-related activities reflected in the 2018 consolidated statement of operations included the following: 1) approximately $6.8 million in other asset and other real estate losses, 2) approximately $2.6 million in write-down of life settlement contracts, and 3) approximately $1.9 million write-down in connection with the proposed sale of the Uptown building and related parking lots.

It should be noted that the final amounts impacting the cash portion of the purchase price (whether increasing or decreasing such cash price) will not be known until just prior to the closing of the merger transaction.

The transaction is subject to customary regulatory approvals, the approval of Company stockholders, and the completion of various closing conditions specified in the merger agreement, and is anticipated to close in the second quarter of 2019.

NOTE 3 CASH AND DUE FROM BANKS

The Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago (FRB) requires the Bank to maintain cash reserve balances in cash on hand or on deposit with the FRB of approximately $19,938 and $12,595 at December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

The Company primarily lends to businesses and consumers in the market areas in which the Company operates.

There were no loans made or outstanding during 2018 and 2017 to executive officers, directors and to parties to which the Company, the Bank, or their executive officers and directors have the ability to significantly influence management or operating policies (related parties). Related party deposits are not considered to be material to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

The Company utilizes an internal asset classification system as a means of reporting problem or potential problem loans. Under its risk rating system, the Company classifies problem or potential problem loans as "Special Mention," "Substandard," and "Doubtful." Loans deemed to be "Loss" are immediately charged off. Substandard loans include those characterized by the distinct possibility that the Company will sustain some loss if the deficiencies are not corrected. Loans classified as Doubtful have all the weaknesses inherent in those classified as Substandard with the added characteristic that the weaknesses present make collection or liquidation in full, on the basis of current existing facts, conditions and values, highly questionable or perhaps impossible. Loans that do not currently expose the Company to sufficient risk to warrant classification in one of the aforementioned categories, but possess weaknesses that deserve management's close attention, are deemed Special Mention. Risk weightings are updated any time conditions warrant. Loans not meeting the criteria noted above are considered pass-related loans.

The Company's credit risk quality indicators at December 31, 2018 and 2017, by loan segment and class are summarized below:

Impaired loans and troubled debt restructured loans are presented as segments as class disclosures are not deemed to be meaningful to the financial statements as a whole.

Periodically, the Company will restructure a note to a troubled borrower into two separate notes (A/B structure), charging off the entire B portion of the note. The A note is structured with appropriate loan-to-value and cash flow coverage ratios that provide for a high likelihood of repayment. The A note is classified as a nonperforming note until the borrower has displayed a historical payment performance for a reasonable time period subsequent to the restructuring. A period of sustained

Certain of these leases contain renewal options to extend for a period from two to ten years. Other leases contain escalation charges calling for rentals to be adjusted for increased real estate taxes and other operating expenses. The cost of such rentals and other potential lease charges are not included in the future minimum lease payment schedule below:

Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago

The Bank has a line of credit for short and long term advances from the FHLB of Chicago. The line of credit and all advances are secured by approximately $446,986 and $352,432 of qualifying residential real estate loans at December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively, and certain other investments. As of December 31, 2018, the Bank had $194,463 in available borrowing capacity on this line of credit. The maximum 2018 and 2017, and has no maturity. There were no borrowings on this line as of December 31, 2018 and 2017.

The Company had a mortgage warehouse line of credit with a non-affiliated bank, which provides for a maximum borrowing capacity of $30,000. This line of credit was repaid and terminated in 2018. The line of credit was used to support the origination of mortgage loans and was secured by the corresponding portfolio of mortgage loans held for sale. Interest on outstanding advances is calculated using the mortgage loan note rate that secures the advance less .35%. The interest rate was subject to an increase of 4.00% for advances for mortgage loans not sold within 60 days.

NOTE 10 SUBORDINATED DEBENTURES

The Company has established two business trusts (Bridgeview Statutory Trust I and Bridgeview Capital Trust II) that have issued floating rate capital securities ("capital securities") which are guaranteed by the Company.

The Company owns all of the equity in each of these two trusts. In accordance with ASC Topic 810, the Company does not consolidate these trusts. The trusts used the proceeds from the issuance of their capital securities to buy floating rate junior debentures ("debentures") issued by the Company. These debentures are the trusts' only assets and the interest payment from the debentures finance the distributions paid on the capital securities. These debentures are unsecured and rank junior and are subordinate in the right of payment to all senior debt of the Company.

The subordinated debentures as of December 31, 2018 are summarized as follows:

	Balance	Interest Rate	Maturity
Bridgeview Statutory Trust I	$ 15,464	6.11%(a)	July 31, 2031
Bridgeview Capital Trust II	15,464	5.79%(b)	January 7, 2033
Total	$ 30,928

(a) Interest payable at the 3-month LIBOR plus 3.58%

(b) Interest payable at the 3-month LIBOR plus 3.35%.

The capital securities are subject to mandatory redemption upon payment of the debentures. The maturity dates of both debentures may be shortened if certain conditions are met, or at any time within 120 days following the occurrence and continuation of certain changes in either tax treatment or the capital treatment of the debentures or the capital securities. If the debentures are redeemed before they mature, the redemption price will be the principal amount plus any accrued but unpaid interest and any premium due for early redemption. The Company has the right to terminate both debentures and cause the debentures to be distributed to the holders of the capital securities in liquidation of such trust.

Each issue of capital securities carries an interest rate identical to that of the related debenture. The subordinated debentures have been structured to qualify as Tier 1 capital for regulatory purposes and the dividends paid on such are tax deductible. However, the debentures cannot be used to constitute more than 25% of the Company's core Tier 1 capital under Federal Reserve Board guidelines inclusive of these debentures. The Company utilized the proceeds of these issuances to inject capital into the Bank.

Net operating loss carryforward and other deferred tax assets are available for the Company to utilize within statutory expiration periods. The net operating loss carryforward for Federal purposes approximated $53,299 and $61,075, in the aggregate, for a tax benefit of $11,193 and $12,826 as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively. The net operating loss carryforward will begin to expire in 2031.

The net operating loss carryforward for the State of Illinois approximates $65,878 and $72,394, in the aggregate, for a benefit of $6,258 and $6,877, in the aggregate, at December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively. The first substantial part of the state tax net operating loss carryforward that begins to expire is in 2022.

A deferred tax asset or liability is recognized for the tax consequences of temporary differences in the recognition of revenue and expense along with unrealized gains and losses for financial and tax reporting purposes. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some of the deferred tax assets may not be realized. The Company periodically conducts an analysis to assess the need for a valuation allowance for its deferred tax asset. As part of this assessment, all available evidence, including both positive and negative, is considered to determine whether based on the weight of such evidence, a valuation allowance for the deferred tax asset was needed. The future realization of the tax benefit depends on the existence of sufficient taxable income within the carryback and carryforward periods.

As a result of the Company raising equity capital through the issuance of common stock in June 2015, certain deferred tax assets may be limited due to this change in control transaction, as defined by the Internal Revenue Code Section 382. Due to this Section 382 limitation, the Company's ability to utilize all of its deferred tax assets may be reduced. Thus, the Company has established a valuation reserve against these deferred tax assets as of December 31, 2018 and 2017 of $1,984. The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. Federal jurisdiction, the State of Illinois and 27 other states.

The income tax benefit was greater than or less than the amounts computed by applying the federal statutory rate (21% for 2018 and 34% for 2017) because of the following:

	2018	2017
Tax computed at statutory rate	$ (139)	$ 3,768
Increase (decrease) in income taxes resulting from:
State tax provision, net of federal benefit	280	578
Tax exempt income, net of interest expense disallowance	(94)	(521)
Nondeductible expenses	181	336
Deferred tax adjustments for changes in Federal and State income tax rates	(250)	5,842

NOTE 12 EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

The Bank has a 401(k) plan whereby substantially all employees participate in the plan. Employees may contribute up to 40 percent of their compensation subject to certain limits based on federal tax laws. The Bank makes a discretionary matching contribution equal to a uniform percentage or dollar amount of an employee's compensation contributed to the plan. Matching contributions vest to the employee equally over a five-year period. For the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, expense attributable to the plan amounted to $589 and $526, respectively.

The Bank has an established Employee Cash Profit Sharing Plan to promote the long-term financial interest of the Company. The Plan is open to all employees except for those people who are the following:

Executive Officers

Covered under a sales or a commission based incentive plan

Employed by the Bank less than one year

The Company accrued $844 in 2018 and $469 in 2017 for anticipated payments to employees eligible to participate in this Plan. These Employee Cash Profit Sharing Plan payments were paid out subsequent to each year end.

BBMC has employment contracts with two employees which stipulate that certain compensation will be deferred. In addition to other compensation, the employees are collectively entitled to 4% of BBMC's quarterly profits (as contractually defined) payable in common stock of the Company (through December 31, 2017 and in cash effective January 1, 2018) within eighteen months after each calendar quarter. For this deferred compensation, the Company has expensed $141 and $346 in 2018 and 2017, respectively. The number of shares previously issued to these employees was determined by the Company's stock book value and a conversion factor, as defined. For this deferred compensation, the Company has accrued $260 and $797 as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Defined Benefit Plan

The Bank had a defined benefit pension plan assumed in the 2003 acquisition of Uptown Bancorp, Inc. that was frozen effective July 15, 2003. During 2017, the Uptown Plan was terminated and plan liabilities were settled through either lump sum distributions to plan participants or annuity contracts purchased from a third-party insurance company that provided for the payment of vested benefits to those participants that did not elect the lump sum option. As of December 31, 2017, there were no remaining plan assets. Contributions totaling $156 were made to the plan during 2017. As a result of the pension termination, unrecognized losses, which previously were recorded in accumulated other comprehensive loss on the consolidated balance sheets, were recognized as expense and the pension plan settlement loss of $6.3 million was recorded on the consolidated statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Total recognized in other comprehensive income (loss)	472
Net periodic pension benefit (expense) recognized	(170)

NOTE 13 STOCK BASED COMPENSATION

Under the Company's 2015 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended (formerly known as Stock Option Incentive Plan) ("Plan"), the Company may award restricted shares and stock options to key officers, employees, directors, or consultants for up to 3,440,900 shares of nonvoting common stock. The remaining number of shares that may be granted under this plan as of December 31, 2018 is 174,940. The compensation expense of these awards is recognized on a straight-line basis during the vesting periods and is measured using the fair market value of the shares on the grant date. The share awards are generally vested over a two to three year period. The Plan provides for restrictions on employment and change of control.

In 2008, the Company issued non-voting Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock Series A and Series B, as part of the Troubled Asset Relief Program Capital Purchase Program of the United States Department of Treasury ("Treasury"). The original issued amount sold to the Treasury was 38,000 shares of the Series A, at an aggregate price of $38,000 and 1,900 shares of the Series B at an aggregate price of $1,900. The Series A and Series B Preferred Stock paid a cumulative dividend rate of 9% per annum.

The Treasury sold the Series A and Series B Preferred Stock to unaffiliated third parties during the fourth quarter of 2013. In June 2015, the Company repurchased 37,950 shares of Series A and 950 shares of Series B from these third parties at an average price of 63.4% of the liquidation preference value of these shares.

During the fourth quarter of 2017, the Company repurchased all of the remaining outstanding Preferred Stock (50 shares of Series A and 950 shares of Series B) for a total purchase price of $1,000,000. Accumulated unpaid dividends in the amount of $950,000 were also paid at the time of the Series B purchase. At December 31, 2018 and 2017, there are no unpaid accumulated dividends and no outstanding preferred stock.

NOTE 15 COMMITMENTS AND OFF-BALANCE SHEET INSTRUMENTSFinancial Instruments

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into a variety of financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk to meet the financial needs of its customers. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit. These instruments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk in excess of the amount recognized in the consolidated balance sheets.

Financial instruments whose approximate contract amounts represent credit risk at December 31, 2018 and 2017 are as follows:

	Contract Amounts
	2018	2017
Commitments to extend credit	$ 85,087	$ 72,358
Commitments to originate mortgage loans
Commitments with locked interest rates	$ 53,386	$ 126,766
Commitments without locked interest rates		34,803
Total commitment to originate mortgage loans	$ 53,386	$ 161,569
Standby letters of credit	$ 17,500	$ 17,217
Forward Contracts	$ 124,986	$ 196,558

Commitments to extend credit and commitments to originate mortgage loans are agreements to lend funds to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since many of the commitments to extend credit are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements.

Certain commitments to extend mortgage loans are to borrowers who have entered into a locked interest rate commitment. Interest rate lock commitments are commitments to lend to borrowers in the future at a predetermined interest rate. These locked interest rate commitments qualify as derivative instruments. The fair value of these locked interest rate commitments was a gain of $350 and $1,322 as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Standby letters of credit are conditional commitments issued by the Bank to guarantee the performance of a third party. Funding of standby letters of credit generally are contingent upon the failure of a customer to perform according to the terms of the underlying contract with the third party and most often issued in favor of the third party to ensure the borrower adequately completes the construction. In the event of a customer's nonperformance, the Bank's credit loss exposure is equal to the contractual amount of those commitments. In this event of nonperformance, the Bank has the right to underlying collateral which is pledged toward those commitments.

Forward contracts are agreements for future delivery of loans in which the seller agrees to make delivery at a future date of a specified instrument at a specified price or yield. Risks arise primarily from movements in interest rates. These contracts are used primarily to reduce the Company's exposure to interest rate fluctuations and their impact on commitments to extend credit and loans held for sale. Most forward contracts are for terms of 7 days to 60 days with either best efforts or mandatory delivery. Contracts with best efforts delivery become mandatory upon the closing of the underlying loan. The Company had forward contracts with investors for mandatory delivery of certain loans held for sale, totaling $42,968 and $69,058 at December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively. The Company also entered into forward trade contracts with counterparties to economically hedge changes in loan prices for certain loans held for sale and a portion of the pipeline of commitments to extend credit to borrowers who have entered into a locked interest rate commitment. The notional value of these forward trade contracts with counterparties amounted to $82,000 and $127,500 at December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively. The forward contracts with investors and forward trade commitments with counterparties qualify as derivative instruments. The fair value of these mandatory forward contracts was a loss of $367 and $44 as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Litigation

Because of the nature of its activities, the Company and the Bank are subject to pending and threatened legal actions which arise in the normal course of business.

One matter arising late in 2017, Guaranteed Rate, Inc. (GR) v. Joseph Caltabiano and Bridgeview Bank Group (BBG), alleges that Caltabiano and BBG conspired to solicit GR employees to work at BBG and take customer loans and customer contact and loan information. Further, GR asserts claims for conspiracy to breach fiduciary duty and other assertions. The Company and GR settled this matter in the fourth quarter of 2018.

NOTE 16 REGULATORY CAPITAL, DIVIDENDS AND AGREEMENTS

The Company's primary source of cash is dividends from the Bank. The Bank is subject to certain restrictions on the amount of dividends that it may declare without prior regulatory approval. In addition, the dividends declared cannot be in excess of the amount which would cause the subsidiary bank to fall below the minimum required for capital adequacy purposes. During 2018 and 2017, the Bank was unable to pay dividends to the Company due to accumulated retained earnings deficits maintained throughout each reporting period. During 2018 and 2017, the Bank obtained regulatory approval to amend the Bank charter so as to decrease its capital stock and make a one-time payment to the Company.

The Company and the Bank are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary, actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the Company's and Bank's financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the Company and the Bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of the assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The capital amounts and asset classifications are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators regarding components, risk weightings and other factors. Prompt corrective action provisions are not applicable to bank holding companies.

Quantitative measures as defined by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Company and the Bank to maintain minimum amounts and ratios (as set forth in the table following) of total, common equity Tier 1, and Tier 1 capital to risk-weighted assets and of Tier 1 capital to average assets.

Note 17 Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company measures, monitors, and discloses certain of its assets and liabilities on a fair value basis. The fair value of a financial instrument is the price that would be received to sell that asset or paid to transfer that liability in an orderly transaction occurring in the principal market (or most advantageous market in the absence of a principal market) for such asset or liability. In estimating fair value, the Company utilizes valuation techniques that are consistent with the market approach, the income approach, and/or the cost approach. Such valuation techniques are consistently applied. Inputs to valuation techniques include the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. U.S. GAAP establishes a fair value hierarchy for valuation inputs that gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs. The fair value hierarchy is as follows:

Level 1 Unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities traded in active markets.

Level 2 Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability (such as interest rates, volatilities, prepayment speeds, credit risks, etc.), or inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3 Unobservable inputs for determining the fair value of assets or liabilities that reflect an entity's own assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the assets or liabilities.

A description of the valuation methodologies used for instruments measured at fair value as well as the general classification of such instruments pursuant to the valuation hierarchy follows.

Securities Available-for-Sale. Securities classified as available-for-sale are reported at fair value utilizing Level 1 and 2 inputs. The Company obtains fair value measurements from an independent pricing service. The fair value measurements consider observable data that may include dealer quotes, market spreads, cash flows, the U.S. Treasury yield curve, live trading levels, trade execution data, market consensus prepayment speeds, credit information, and the bond's terms and conditions, among other things.

Loans Held for Sale. Loans held for sale (LHFS) represent mortgage loan originations intended to be sold in the secondary market, typically within 17 days of origination. LHFS are accounted for at fair value, which is determined based on a variety of factors, including quoted market rates. LHFS are classified as Level 2 in the fair value hierarchy.

Derivative Instruments. Derivative instruments include both interest rate lock commitments and mandatory sales commitments. Interest rate lock commitments and mandatory commitments are carried at fair value. Fair value of interest rate lock commitments is estimated based on secondary market execution prices for similar loans, net of estimated direct selling costs and are classified as Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy. Fair value of mandatory commitments is estimated based on secondary market execution prices for similar commitments. Mandatory commitments are classified as Level 2 in the fair value hierarchy. A reconciliation of interest rate lock commitments from the opening balances to the closing balances is not presented as it was not deemed meaningful to this presentation.

Impaired Loans. Loans for which it is probable that payment of interest and principal will not be made in accordance with the contractual terms of the loan agreement are considered impaired. Once a loan is identified as individually impaired, management measures impairment in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The fair value of impaired loans is estimated using one of several methods, including collateral value, market value of similar debt, enterprise value, and liquidation value and discounted cash flows. The Company adjusts the estimated fair value based on the estimated costs to sell when loans are expected to be collected through the liquidation of the collateral. Those impaired loans not requiring an allowance represent loans for which the fair value of the expected repayments or collateral exceed the recorded investments in such loans. In accordance with U.S. GAAP, impaired loans where an allowance is established based on the fair value of collateral require classification in the fair value hierarchy. Collateral values are estimated using Level 3 inputs which are generally outside appraisals net of expected selling costs. The numerical range of unobservable inputs for these valuation assumptions are not meaningful to this presentation.

Other Real Estate Owned. Other real estate owned is valued based on third-party appraisals of each property and management's judgment of other relevant market conditions, net of expected selling costs, and is classified in Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

Other Financial Instruments

The fair value of a financial instrument is the current amount that would be exchanged between willing parties, other than in a forced liquidation. Fair value is best determined based upon a quoted market price. However, in many instances, there are no quoted market prices for the various financial instruments. In cases where quoted market prices are not available, fair values are based on estimates using present value or other valuation techniques. Those techniques are significantly affected by the assumptions used, including the discount rate and estimates of future cash flows. Accordingly, the aggregate fair value amounts presented may not necessarily represent the underlying fair value of the Company. The following methods and assumptions were used by the Company in estimating fair values of other financial instruments:

Cash and Cash Equivalents The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents and interest-bearing deposits in banks approximate their fair value.

Certificates of Deposit The fair value of certificates of deposit have been estimated using the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at rates currently offered for similar instruments.

Nonmarketable Equity Securities The carrying value of FHLB stock approximates fair value based on the redemption provisions of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago.

Loans The estimated fair values of loans with variable interest rates are generally presumed to approximate the recorded carrying amounts. The remaining loans with fixed payment amounts have been estimated using the present value of estimated future cash flows at rates comparable to or currently offered for loans with similar terms to borrowers of similar credit quality. Fair values of nonperforming loans are estimated using discounted cash flow analyses or underlying collateral values, where applicable.

Investments in Unconsolidated Subsidiaries The carrying value of investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries approximates their fair value.

Deposits Fair values of deposits with no stated maturities (demand, savings, NOWs, money market) are estimated to approximate their carrying amounts, which are the amounts due on demand.

Fair value of certificates of deposit with stated maturities have been estimated using the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at rates currently offered for similar instruments. Fair value of certificates maturing within one year approximates their carrying value. Time deposits include public funds time deposits.

Federal Home Loan Bank Borrowings The carrying value of the Company's variable rate borrowings approximates fair value. The fair values of the fixed rate borrowings are estimated using discounted cash flow analyses based on current incremental borrowing rates.

Other Borrowings The carrying amounts of other borrowings approximate fair value as they mature within one year and the interest rates are floating.

Subordinated Debentures The fair value of the junior subordinated debentures approximates carrying value as they carry a variable interest rate that reprices frequently and there is no active market for such debentures.

Accrued Interest The carrying values of accrued interest approximate its fair value.

Off-balance-sheet Items Off-balance-sheet commitments are not addressed for fair value disclosure considerations. Because of the difficulty in assessing and valuing the likelihood of advancing the proceeds of letters of credit and unfunded commitments, management believes it is not feasible or practicable to fairly and accurately disclose a fair value of off-balance-sheet commitments.

Limitations

Fair value estimates are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant market information and information about the financial instrument. Because no market exists for a significant portion of the Company's financial instruments, fair value estimates are based on judgments regarding future expected loss experience, current economic conditions, risk characteristics of various financial instruments, and other factors. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment and, therefore, cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates.

The Company shall take all actions necessary to ensure that, from and after the Effective Time, neither Parent nor the Surviving Corporation will be required to deliver Company Common Stock or other capital stock of the Company to any person pursuant to or in settlement of Restricted Company Common Stock.

(b) Prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall take, or cause to be taken, all action, including causing the Company Board, the compensation committee under the Company Equity Plan or any other committee the Company Board may appoint to administer the Company Equity Plan to take, or cause to be taken, all action and adopt all resolutions and causing each holder of a Company Stock Option to execute an option cancellation agreement prior to the Closing in a form satisfactory to Parent, necessary to cause any outstanding Company Stock Options, whether vested or unvested or exercisable or unexercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time, to, effective as of the Effective Time, (1) be cancelled and terminated in a manner satisfactory to Parent in its sole discretion and without the payment of any consideration (unless otherwise directed in writing by Parent) other than as provided in this Section 3.2(b), if any; (2) represent solely the right to receive any lump sum cash payment payable to the holder of such Company Stock Option pursuant to this Section 3.2(b); and (3) no longer represent the right to purchase shares of Company Common Stock or any other security of the Company, Parent, or any other person. Each holder of a Company Stock Option outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, the exercise price per share of which is less than the Merger Consideration Value Per Share (as defined below), shall be entitled to receive, in respect of and in consideration for the cancellation and termination of each such Company Stock Option, and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Time, as soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Time, an amount in cash from the Surviving Corporation, without any interest and subject to any required Tax withholding, equal to the product of (A) the excess, if any, of (i) the sum of (y) the product of the Exchange Ratio, multiplied by the per share volume weighted average price of the Parent Common Stock on Nasdaq from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the trading day immediately preceding the Closing Date as found on Bloomberg page FMBI<equity>VWAP (or its equivalent successor page if such page is not available), plus (z) the Cash Exchange Amount (collectively, the "Merger Consideration Value Per Share"), over (ii) the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option, multiplied by (B) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option; provided, however, the payment of such consideration shall be conditioned on the holder of such Company Stock Option executing an acknowledgment in a form satisfactory to Parent that such consideration represents the full satisfaction of all obligations and liabilities with respect to such Company Stock Option. In the event that the exercise price of any Company Stock Option outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time is equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration Value Per Share, no cash payment or other consideration for such Company Stock Option shall be due and payable in respect thereof and the Company Stock Option shall be cancelled and of no further force or effect as of the Effective Time, without any further action on the part of the Company, Parent or the holder of the Company Stock Option. Prior to the Closing, the Company shall take or cause to be taken such action as is necessary and reasonably satisfactory to Parent in order to terminate the Company Equity Plan as of the Effective Time.

3.3 Exchange Agent.

(a) At or before the Effective Time, Parent will deposit with its transfer agent or with a depository or trust institution of recognized standing selected by it and reasonably satisfactory to the Company (in such capacity, the "Exchange Agent"), for the benefit of the holders of certificates formerly representing shares of Company Common Stock (collectively, the "Old Certificates"), (1) certificates or, at Parent's option, evidence of shares in book entry form ("New Certificates"), representing the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable to holders of Old Certificates under this Article 3 and (2) an amount of cash equal to the aggregate cash payable to holders of Company Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement (the "Exchange Fund").

(b) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the Effective Time, but in no event later than ten (10) business days thereafter, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail or deliver to each person who was, immediately prior to the Effective Time, a holder of record of Company Common Stock, a form of letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to Old Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of such certificates to the Exchange Agent) containing instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Old Certificates in exchange for the consideration payable pursuant to this Article 3. No interest will accrue or be paid with respect to any New Certificate or cash to be delivered upon surrender of Old Certificates. If any New Certificate is to be issued or cash is to be paid in a name other than that in which the Old Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it will be a condition to the exchange that (1) the Old Certificates are properly endorsed or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer, as applicable, (2) the person requesting the exchange pay any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the issuance of the New Certificate or the making of the cash payment in a name other than the name of the holder of the surrendered Old Certificate and (3) the person requesting the exchange establish to the satisfaction of Parent (or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be) that any such Taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

(c) No dividends or other distributions with respect to Parent Common Stock having a record date after the Effective Time will be paid to any holder of Company Common Stock until such holder has surrendered the Old Certificate representing such stock as provided herein. Subject to the effect of applicable Law, following surrender of any such Old Certificates, there shall be paid to the holder of New Certificates issued in exchange therefor, without interest, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time previously payable with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock represented thereby. To the extent permitted by Law, holders of Company Common Stock who receive Parent Common Stock in the Merger shall be entitled to vote after the Effective Time at any meeting of Parent stockholders the number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock into which their respective shares of Company Common Stock are converted, regardless of whether such holders of Company Common Stock have exchanged their Old Certificates for New Certificates in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, but beginning sixty (60) days after the Effective Time, at Parent's election, no such holder shall be entitled to vote on any matter until such holder surrenders such Old Certificate for exchange as provided in Section 3.3(b).

(d) Parent and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to rely upon the Company's stock transfer books to establish the identity of those persons entitled to receive consideration pursuant to this Article 3, which books shall be conclusive with respect thereto. In the event of a dispute with respect to ownership of stock represented by any Old Certificate, Parent shall be entitled to deposit any consideration represented thereby in escrow with an independent third party and thereafter be relieved from any and all liability and obligation with respect to any claims thereto. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no party hereto shall be liable to any former holder of Company Common Stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws.

(e) The Surviving Corporation and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement such amounts as the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under any applicable Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the person in respect to whom such deduction and withholding was made by the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent. If any holder of an Old Certificate requests payment of any cash such person is entitled to pursuant to this Article 3 by means of a wire transfer in his, her or its duly executed and completed letter of transmittal, the Exchange Agent may make payment of such cash such holder is entitled to hereunder by wire transfer in accordance with such request and the cost of any such wire transfer shall be charged to the account of and deducted from the proceeds paid to such holder hereunder.

3.4 Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no fractional shares of Parent Common Stock and no certificates or scrip therefor, or other evidence of ownership thereof, will be issued in the Merger, no dividend or distribution with respect to Parent Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a stockholder of Parent; instead, Parent will pay to each holder of Company Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Parent Common Stock (after taking into account all Old Certificates delivered by such holder) an amount in cash (without interest) determined by multiplying such fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock by the per share volume weighted average price of the Parent Common Stock on Nasdaq from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the trading day immediately preceding the Closing Date as found on Bloomberg page FMBI US<equity>VWAP (or its equivalent successor page if such page is not available).

3.5 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any certificate representing shares of Company Common Stock shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent, the posting by such person of a bond in customary amount as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate the shares of Parent Common Stock and any cash, unpaid dividends or other distributions that would be payable or deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement had such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate been surrendered.

3.6 Anti-Dilution Adjustments. If prior to the Effective Time Parent changes (or the board of directors of Parent sets a related record date that will occur before the Effective Time for a change in) the number or kind of shares of Parent Common Stock outstanding by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization or similar transaction, the Exchange Ratio and the Per Share Stock Consideration will be adjusted proportionately to account for such change. If, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, prior to the Effective Time the Company changes (or the board of directors of the Company sets a related record date that will occur before the Effective Time for a change in) the number or kind of shares of Company Common Stock outstanding by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization or similar transaction, the Exchange Ratio, the Cash Exchange Amount and the Per Share Stock Consideration will be adjusted proportionately to account for such change.

3.7 Dissenters' Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Dissenting Common Shares that are outstanding as of the Effective Time will not be converted into the right to receive the consideration payable in respect of Company Common Stock pursuant to Section 3.1 hereof unless and until the holder shall have failed to perfect, or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost, his, her or its right to dissent from the Merger under the DGCL. The holder of any Dissenting Common Share shall be entitled only to such rights as may be granted to such holder pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL with respect thereto. Parent shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on all notices or other communications to be sent to holders of Dissenting Common Shares and all such notices and other communications shall be reasonably satisfactory to Parent. The Company will give Parent (a) prompt notice of any notice or demands for appraisal or payment for shares of Company Common Stock, any withdrawal of demand for payment and any other similar instruments received by the Company and (b) the opportunity to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such demands or notices at Parent's cost and expense. The Company will not, without the prior written consent of Parent, settle, offer to settle or otherwise negotiate, any such demands or notices or make or offer to make any payment in respect of any such demands or notices. Parent will pay any consideration as may be determined to be due with respect to Dissenting Common Shares pursuant to and subject to the requirements of applicable Law.

3.8 Closing Adjusted Tangible Common Equity.

(a) Not later than ten (10) days before the expected Closing Date, the Company shall deliver to Parent an estimated consolidated balance sheet of the Company, as of the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the expected Closing Date (the "Estimated Closing Balance Sheet"), which shall (1) be prepared in good faith based on all available information at such time and on a basis consistent with the audited Company Financial Statements, including the audited Company Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2018 (including the related required communications of Plante & Moran, PLLC to the audit committee and management of the Company) and (2) include a calculation of Adjusted Tangible Common Equity as of the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the expected Closing Date. The Estimated Closing Balance Sheet shall be accompanied by a certificate of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company to the effect that (i) the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet was prepared in good faith based on all available information at such time and fairly presents the consolidated financial position of Company as estimated as of the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the expected Closing Date on a basis consistent with the audited Company Financial Statements, including the audited Company Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2018 (including the related required communications of Plante & Moran, PLLC to the audit committee and management of the Company), and (ii) the calculation of Adjusted Tangible Common Equity as of the expected Closing Date contained therein was prepared in accordance with, and includes, excludes, disregards, eliminates and is reduced by all amounts required to be included, excluded, disregarded, eliminated from or reduced by, the definition of Adjusted Tangible Common Equity in this Agreement.

(b) After delivery of the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet, the parties shall work together in good faith, which in the case of the Company shall include providing Parent with such documentation and information in its possession or control as Parent shall reasonably request, to agree on an updated estimated consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the expected Closing Date (the "Final Closing Balance Sheet"), which shall (1) be prepared in good faith based on all available information at such time and on a basis consistent with the audited Company Financial Statements, including the audited Company Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2018 (including the related required communications of Plante & Moran, PLLC to the audit committee and management of the Company), and (2) include an updated calculation of Adjusted Tangible Common Equity as estimated as of the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the expected Closing Date ("Closing Adjusted Tangible Common Equity"). The Final Closing Balance Sheet, and the calculation of the Closing Adjusted Tangible Common Equity contained therein, agreed to between the parties shall become final and binding upon the parties.

(c) If, no later than the day before the expected Closing Date, the parties are unable to agree upon a Final Closing Balance Sheet, the parties shall promptly submit any items over which a disagreement remains to a recognized national or regional independent accounting firm mutually acceptable to the parties, which will act as arbitrator to resolve the remaining disputed items (the "Independent Arbitrator") and the Closing Date shall be postponed. The parties will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Independent Arbitrator to resolve any dispute and issue a Final Closing Balance Sheet confirming the correct Closing Adjusted Tangible Common Equity (as determined in accordance with this Agreement), as of a new expected Closing Date determined by the parties, within ten (10) business days following engagement. The parties will cooperate fully with, and furnish such information as may be requested to, the Independent Arbitrator. The Final Closing Balance Sheet issued by the Independent Arbitrator, as well as the amount of Closing Adjusted Tangible Common Equity set forth therein, will be final and binding on the parties. Each party will bear all costs and fees incurred by it in connection with the foregoing arbitration; provided, however, that (1) the fees and expenses of the Independent Arbitrator shall be borne by the Company and Parent in the same proportion that the aggregate amount of disputed items submitted to the Independent Arbitrator that are unsuccessfully disputed by the Company and Parent, respectively (as determined by the Independent Arbitrator), bears to the total amount of items submitted to the Independent Arbitrator, and (2) all after-tax costs, fees and expenses of the foregoing arbitration to be borne by the Company pursuant to this Section 3.8(c) shall be deducted from the final Closing Adjusted Tangible Common Equity.

(i) Financial Reports and Regulatory Filings.

(1) Parent's Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2017, and all other reports, registration statements, definitive proxy statements or information statements filed by it or any of its Subsidiaries subsequent to December 31, 2017 under the Securities Act, or under Section 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, in the form filed or as thereafter amended prior to the date hereof (collectively, the "Parent SEC Filings") with the SEC as of the date filed or amended prior to the date hereof, as the case may be, (A) complied or will comply in all material respects as to form with the applicable requirements under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, as the case may be, and (B) did not and will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Each of the statements of financial position contained in or incorporated by reference into any of the Parent SEC Filings (including the related notes and schedules) (the "Parent Financial Statements") fairly presents or will fairly present in all material respects Parent's financial position and that of its Subsidiaries as of the date of such statement, and each of the statements of income, comprehensive income and changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows in the Parent SEC Filings (including any related notes and schedules thereto) fairly presents or will fairly present in all material respects, the results of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and changes in cash flows, as the case may be, of Parent and its Subsidiaries for the periods to which those statements relate, in each case in accordance with GAAP consistently applied during the periods involved, except in each case as may be noted therein, and, with respect to the Parent Financial Statements included in any Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC by Parent prior to the date hereof, and any quarter ending after the date hereof, subject to normal year-end audit adjustments and as permitted by Form 10-Q in the case of unaudited statements and the absence of notes to such Company Financial Statements.

(2) Parent (A) has designed disclosure controls and procedures to ensure that material information relating to Parent, including its consolidated Subsidiaries, is made known to the management of Parent by others within those entities, and (B) has disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation prior to the date hereof, to Parent's auditors and the audit committee of the board of directors of Parent (i) any significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect in any material respect Parent's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data and has identified for Parent's auditors any material weaknesses in internal controls and (ii) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in Parent's internal controls.

(3) Since January 1, 2015, Parent and each of its Subsidiaries has filed all reports and statements, together with any amendments required to be made with respect thereto, that it was required to file with any applicable Governmental Authorities. As of their respective dates (and without giving effect to any amendments or modifications filed after the date of this Agreement with respect to reports and documents filed before the date of this Agreement), each of such reports and documents, including the financial statements, exhibits and schedules thereto, complied with all of the statutes, rules and regulations enforced or promulgated by the Governmental Authority with which they were filed.

(j) Absence of Certain Changes. Since January 1, 2017, no event has occurred or fact or circumstance has arisen that, individually or taken together with all other events, facts, and circumstances, has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent.

(k) Litigation. There is no action, suit, claim, hearing, dispute, investigation or proceeding pending or, to Parent's Knowledge, threatened against or affecting Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (and Parent is not aware of any basis for any such action, suit, claim, hearing, dispute, investigation, subpoena or proceeding), nor is there any judgment, order, decree, injunction or ruling of any Governmental Authority or arbitration outstanding against Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (or in the process of being issued), except, in each case, as would not, individually or in the aggregate, be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent.

(l) Compliance with Laws. Parent and each of its Subsidiaries:

(m) Regulatory Matters. As of the date hereof, neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is subject to, or has been advised that Parent or any of its Subsidiaries is reasonably likely to become subject to, any written order, decree, agreement, memorandum of understanding or similar arrangement with, or a commitment letter or similar submission to, or extraordinary supervisory letter from, or adopted any extraordinary board resolutions at the request of, any Governmental Authority charged with the supervision or regulation of financial institutions or issuers of securities or engaged in the insurance of deposits or otherwise involved with the supervision or regulation of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries.

(n) Available Funds. Parent has or will have available to it funds and shares of Parent Common Stock necessary to satisfy its obligations in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby.

ARTICLE 6

Covenants

6.1 Commercially Reasonable Efforts.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company and Parent will use commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, in good faith, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things, necessary, proper, desirable or advisable under applicable Law, so as to permit consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger as promptly as practicable and otherwise to enable consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and each will cooperate fully with, and furnish information to, the other party to that end.

(b) The Company and Parent will give prompt notice to the other of any fact, event or circumstance known to it that (1) is reasonably likely, individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, to result in any Material Adverse Effect with respect to it or (2) would cause or constitute a breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein that reasonably could be expected to give rise, individually or in the aggregate, to the failure of a condition in Article 7.

(c) From time to time on or prior to the Closing Date, each party shall promptly, after it becomes aware, supplement any of its representations and warranties contained in this Agreement relating to the period after the date hereof by delivering a supplemental Disclosure Schedule ("Supplemental Disclosure Schedule") to the other party with respect to any matter hereafter arising which would render any such representation or warranty after the date of this Agreement inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect. The information contained in any such Supplemental Disclosure Schedule shall not be deemed to have modified any of the representations and warranties of the Company or Parent contained in this Agreement or be considered Previously Disclosed unless it is accepted in writing by the other party.

6.2 Stockholder Approval. As promptly as practicable following the date upon which the Registration Statement, filed pursuant to Section 6.5, shall have become effective (but in any event within forty-five (45) days thereof), the Company Board will submit to its stockholders this Agreement, the Merger, the Company Shareholder Matters and any other matters required to be approved or adopted by such stockholders in order to carry out the intentions of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. In furtherance of that obligation, the Company will take, in accordance with applicable Law and its Constituent Documents, all action necessary, proper, desirable or advisable to convene a meeting of its stockholders (including any adjournment or postponement, the "Company Meeting") as promptly as practicable (but in any event within forty-five (45) days of the Registration Statement becoming effective) to consider and vote upon approval of this Agreement, the Merger, the Company Shareholder Matters and any such other matters. The Company and the Company Board, as applicable, will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from the Company's stockholders a vote approving this Agreement, the Merger, the Company Shareholder Matters and any such other matters, including delivering the Proxy Statement and the prospectus included therein and soliciting proxies through the Proxy Statement in accordance with applicable Law, recommending that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of this Agreement, the Merger, the Company Shareholder Matters and the other transactions contemplated hereby and, if requested by Parent, causing the Company Fairness Opinion to be updated as of the date that the proxy materials are first distributed to the stockholders of the Company. The Company shall provide Parent with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon all proxy materials prior to the distribution of such proxy materials to stockholders of the Company and all such proxy materials shall be reasonably satisfactory to Parent prior to the distribution thereof. However, if the Company Board, after consultation with (and based on the advice of) outside legal counsel, determines in good faith that, because of the receipt of an Acquisition Proposal that the Company Board concludes in good faith constitutes a Superior Proposal, it would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law to continue to recommend this Agreement, the Company Shareholder Matters and the Merger, then, in submitting this Agreement, the Company Shareholder Matters and the Merger to the Company Meeting, the Company Board may submit such items without recommendation (although the resolutions adopting such items prior to the date hereof, described in Section 5.2(e), may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Company Board may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to the stockholders in the Proxy Statement or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto to the extent required by Law; provided that the Company Board may not take any actions under this sentence until after giving Parent at least ten (10) business days to respond to such Acquisition Proposal (and after giving Parent notice of the third party in the Acquisition Proposal and the latest material terms and conditions of the Acquisition Proposal) and then taking into account any amendment or modification to this Agreement proposed by Parent.

6.3 Regulatory Applications; Third-Party Consents.

(a) The Company and Parent and their respective Subsidiaries will cooperate and use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare as promptly as practicable all documentation, to make all filings and to obtain all consents, approvals, permits and other authorizations of all Governmental Authorities necessary to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, including the Bank Merger (the "Requisite Regulatory Approvals"), and to make and obtain all other Required Third-Party Consents; notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent and the Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause an application on Form FR Y-3N to be filed with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve (acting through the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank as allowed) within thirty (30) days of the date of this Agreement. Each of the Company and Parent will have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each will consult with the other, in each case subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, with respect to all material written information submitted to any third party or any Governmental Authority in connection with the Requisite Regulatory Approvals and the Required Third-Party Consents, other than any information which is otherwise confidential. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties will act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party agrees that it will consult with the other party with respect to obtaining all material permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and each party will keep the other party apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) The Company and Parent will, upon request (but subject to applicable confidentiality requirements), furnish the other party with all information concerning itself, its Affiliates, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary, proper, desirable or advisable in connection with any filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of such other party or any of its Affiliates with or to any third party or Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and to respond to any comment letters received in connection therewith.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else in this Agreement:

(1) The Company (or any Subsidiary) shall not amend, modify, supplement or waive any of the material terms and conditions of any Material Contract without the prior written consent of Parent, nor shall the Company or any Subsidiary, without the prior written consent of Parent, pay or commit to pay to any person whose consent, waiver or approval is being sought any cash or other consideration or make any accommodation or commitment to incur any liability or other obligation to such person in connection with such consent, waiver or approval, except for immaterial customary fees and expenses expressly imposed by the terms of any such Material Contract; and

(2) Nothing shall require Parent to, and the Company and its Subsidiaries shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, agree to, take any action or commit to take any action in connection with, or agree to any condition on, or request with respect to, any Requisite Regulatory Approval or Required Third-Party Consent that would (i) materially and adversely affect the business, operation or financial condition of Parent (measured on a scale relative to the Company), (ii) require Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to make any covenants or commitments (except commitments required by any Governmental Authority not to enforce any of the covenants set forth in Article 4 of this Agreement), or complete any divestitures, whether prior to or subsequent to the Closing, (iii) have a Material Adverse Effect on Company or its Subsidiaries or (iv) restrict or impose a burden on Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including, after the Effective Time, the Company and its Subsidiaries) in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby or with respect to the business or operation of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including, after the Effective Time, the Company and its Subsidiaries) (a "Burdensome Condition").

6.4 Exchange Listing. Parent will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance, as promptly as practicable, and in any event before the Effective Time.

6.5 SEC Filings.

(a) Parent will prepare a registration statement on Form S-4 or other applicable form (the "Registration Statement") to be filed by Parent with the SEC in connection with the issuance of Parent Common Stock in the Merger (including the notice, proxy statement and prospectus and other proxy solicitation materials of the Company constituting a part thereof (the "Proxy Statement") and all related documents). The parties agree to cooperate, and to cause their Subsidiaries to cooperate, with the other party, its counsel and its accountants, in the preparation of the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement and to use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause the filing of the Registration Statement with the SEC within seventy-five (75) days following the date of this Agreement. Parent will use all reasonable efforts to cause the Registration Statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as reasonably practicable after filing thereof and to maintain the effectiveness (including by filing any necessary amendments or supplements) of such Registration Statement until the Effective Time. Parent also agrees to use all reasonable efforts to obtain all necessary state securities Law or "Blue Sky" permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated hereby. The Company agrees to promptly furnish to Parent all information concerning the Company, and its Affiliates, officers, directors and stockholders as may be reasonably requested in connection with the foregoing, in a form appropriate for use in such document or any such other use.

(b) The Company and Parent each agrees, as to itself and its Affiliates, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (1) the Registration Statement will, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (2) the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to stockholders and at the time of the Company Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which such statement was made, not misleading. The Company and Parent each further agrees that if it becomes aware that any information furnished by it would cause any of the statements in the Proxy Statement or the Registration Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other party thereof and to take appropriate steps to correct the Proxy Statement or the Registration Statement.

(c) Parent shall promptly provide the Company with all comment letters from the SEC or its staff pertaining to the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement relating to the Company. The Company will, upon request, promptly furnish Parent with all information concerning itself, its Affiliates, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary, proper, desirable or advisable in order for Parent to respond promptly to any comments received from the SEC. Parent will advise the Company, promptly after Parent receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the qualification of Parent Common Stock for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, of the initiation or threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the SEC for the amendment or supplement of the Registration Statement or for additional information.

6.6 Press Releases. Each party will consult with the other before issuing any press release, employee communication or other stockholder communication with respect to the Merger or this Agreement and will not issue any such communication or make any such public statement without the prior written consent of such other party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided that a party may, without the prior written consent of the other party (but after prior consultation, to the extent practicable in the circumstances), issue such communication or make such public statement as may be required by applicable Law or securities exchange rules. The Company and Parent will cooperate to develop all public communications of the Company and make appropriate members of management available at presentations related to the transactions contemplated hereby as reasonably requested by the other party.

6.7 Acquisition Proposals. The Company agrees that it will not, and will cause its Subsidiaries and its and its Subsidiaries' Representatives, agents, advisors and affiliates (including the Company FA) not to, solicit or encourage in any way inquiries or proposals with respect to, or engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential nonpublic information to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to, any Acquisition Proposal; provided that, in the event the Company receives an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal and the Company Board concludes in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal, the Company may, and may permit its Subsidiaries and its and its Subsidiaries' Representatives to, furnish or cause to be furnished nonpublic information and participate in such negotiations or discussions to the extent that the Company Board concludes in good faith (and based on the advice of such counsel) that failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, further, that, prior to providing any nonpublic information permitted to be provided pursuant to the foregoing proviso, it shall have provided Parent with written notice of its intention to provide such nonpublic information and have entered into a confidentiality agreement with such third party on terms no less favorable to it than the confidentiality provisions set forth in the Confidentiality Agreement (without regard to any modification thereof pursuant hereto or lapse of time). The Company will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted before the date of this Agreement with any persons other than Parent with respect to any Acquisition Proposal and will use its reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal. The Company will within one (1) business day advise Parent following receipt of any Acquisition Proposal and the substance thereof (including the identity of the person making such Acquisition Proposal), and will keep Parent apprised of any related developments on a current basis.

6.8 Takeover Laws and Provisions. The Company will not take any action that would cause the transactions contemplated hereby to be subject to requirements imposed by any Takeover Law and will take or cause to be taken all commercially reasonable steps within its control to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the transactions contemplated hereby from, or if necessary challenge the validity or applicability of, any applicable Takeover Law, as now or hereafter in effect.

6.9 Access; Information.

(a) The Company agrees that upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, it will (and will cause its Subsidiaries to) afford Parent, and Parent's Representatives, such access during normal business hours throughout the period before the Effective Time to its books, records (including Tax Returns and work papers of independent auditors), properties, personnel and to such other information in its possession or control as Parent may reasonably request and, during such period, it will furnish promptly to Parent (1) a copy of each report, schedule and other document filed by it pursuant to the requirements of federal or state banking or securities Laws, and (2) all other information in its possession or control concerning the business, properties and personnel of it as Parent may reasonably request. In addition, the Company shall provide Parent final biweekly general ledger reports and reports of all new Extensions of Credit greater than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), deposits greater than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), non-performing loans, other real estate owned and Extensions of Credit in the process of being negotiated, renegotiated, extended, renewed, modified or having a forbearance granted, in each case for each biweekly period beginning with the first full week after the date hereof and through the Effective Time, as promptly as they become available. The Company agrees to promptly notify Parent of any action, suit, claim, hearing, dispute, subpoena, investigation or proceeding commenced or, to Company's Knowledge, threatened against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that is related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Company will not be required to afford access or disclose information (i) that would jeopardize attorney-client privilege; (ii) that would contravene any binding agreement with any third party; or (iii) if such disclosure would violate any Law. The parties will make appropriate substitute arrangements in circumstances where the previous sentence applies.

(b) No investigation by Parent of the business and affairs of the Company, pursuant to this Section 6.9 or otherwise, will affect or be deemed to modify or waive any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in this Agreement, or the conditions to Parent's obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) Each of Parent and the Company will hold any information it may obtain from the other in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby which is nonpublic and confidential to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the Confidentiality Agreement.

6.10 Supplemental Indentures. At or before the Effective Time, Parent and the Company will execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, by or on behalf of Parent and the Company, one or more supplemental indentures and other documents and instruments, and take or cause to be taken all such other action, required for the due assumption of the Company's outstanding debt, guarantees, securities, and (to the extent Previously Disclosed by the Company) other agreements to the extent required by the terms of such debt, guarantees, securities or other agreements.

6.11 Indemnification

(a) Following the Effective Time, to the extent permissible under applicable Law, Parent will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the present directors and officers (when acting in such capacity) of the Company, excluding for the avoidance of doubt, the former employee of Company Bank Sub disclosed on Section 6.11(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule (the "Identified Former Employee") (each, an "Indemnified Party"), against all costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities (collectively, "Costs") as incurred, and will advance expenses, in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or before the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated hereby), in accordance with the Constituent Documents of the Company in effect on the date hereof, to the extent permitted under applicable Law.

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 6.11(a), upon learning of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation described above, will promptly notify Parent; provided that failure so to notify will not affect the obligations of Parent under Section 6.11(a) unless and to the extent that Parent is actually and materially prejudiced as a consequence.

(c) The parties acknowledge and agree that prior to the Closing Date, in consultation with Parent and its advisers, the Company shall purchase (which costs and expenses shall not be considered a Transaction Expense for purposes of this Agreement), and Parent shall maintain for the duration of the Tail Coverage Period, a tail policy of directors' and officers' liability coverage that provides directors' and officers' liability insurance with respect to actions and omissions occurring on or prior to the Effective Time, subject to the following conditions:

(1) Prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall purchase, at its own expense, for the benefit of the Company and the Surviving Corporation and their respective Subsidiaries (including their respective successors) and persons who were officers or directors of the Company and its Subsidiaries prior to the Closing Date, a prepaid tail policy or policies from the Company's current directors' and officers' liability insurer providing coverages no less favorable to the insured persons than the level and scope of directors' and officers' liability as set forth in the Company's and its Subsidiaries' current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies in effect as of the Closing (together, such tail policy or policies are referred to as the "Tail Policy").

(2) The term of the Tail Policy shall be for a period of six (6) years or, if such term of coverage is not available, such other maximum period of coverage available at a cost not exceeding the Maximum Amount (as defined below) (the "Tail Coverage Period").

(3) In the event such insurer declines to provide the Tail Policy prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to identify and obtain similar coverage from another insurance carrier of substantially similar size and reputation to that of such former insurer, if such coverage is reasonably obtainable from the marketplace. If after such reasonable efforts another such insurance carrier is unable or unwilling to provide such similar coverage, the Company shall obtain the best coverage available, as determined in the reasonable judgment of the Company, for a cost up to but not exceeding the Maximum Amount (as defined below).

(4) In no event shall the Company expend, in order to provide or maintain the insurance coverages, any annual amount, in aggregate, more than two hundred percent (200%) of the current annual amount expended by the Company (the "Maximum Amount"). If the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, the Company shall use reasonable efforts to maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' insurance obtainable for a total cost equal to the Maximum Amount.

(5) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall notify the appropriate directors' and officers' liability insurers of the Merger and of all pending or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened claims, actions, suits, proceedings or investigations asserted or claimed against any officer or director of the Company or Company Bank Sub, or circumstances to the Knowledge of the Company reasonably likely to give rise thereto to the extent known by the Company or Company Bank Sub, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the applicable policies. The Company's and Company Bank Sub's directors and officers shall use reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Company (if prior to the Closing Date) or Parent (if after the Effective Time) in obtaining the above-described insurance coverages.

(6) If Parent or any of its successors or assigns consolidates with or merges into any other entity and is not the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or transfers all or substantially all of its assets to any other entity, then and in each case, but only to the extent not effected by operation of Law, Parent will cause proper provision to be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent will assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.11.

(7) The provisions of this Section 6.11 shall survive the Effective Time and are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and Representatives.

6.12 Benefits Arrangements.

(a) Termination of Company 401(k) Plan.

(1) Immediately prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall have taken or caused to be taken all such actions as may be necessary to terminate Bridgeview Bank Group 401(k) Retirement Plan (the "Company 401(k) Plan") effective on the day immediately prior to the Closing Date (contingent on the Closing of the Merger), and adopt corresponding amendments to the Company 401(k) Plan in connection therewith, to: (A) fully vest all participants; and (B) provide that the entire balance of a participant's account will be distributable in a single lump sum. Such amendments and any resolutions related to such termination, and otherwise contemplated by this Section 6.12 shall be in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Parent and the Company shall provide a draft of such amendments and resolutions to Parent for an opportunity to comment thereon.

(2) The Company or its Subsidiaries shall make contributions to the Company 401(k) Plan with respect to the plan year commencing January 1, 2018 (and if applicable any subsequent plan year commencing prior to the Effective Time) and ending on the date of the plan termination in accordance with the terms of the plan.

(3) Parent shall permit Parent's tax-qualified defined contribution plan to, following the Closing Date and pursuant to Section 401(a)(31)(D) of the Code, accept rollover contributions of "eligible rollover distributions" (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Code) of eligible amounts (including outstanding loans) distributed to employees from the Company 401(k) Plan.

(4) All vacation and paid time off that has been accrued but unused by any employee of the Company or its Subsidiaries will be paid out by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries as of the Closing Date.

(b) Severance Benefits. Following the Effective Time, Parent or its Subsidiaries shall cause the employees of the Company or the Company Bank Sub to be covered by a severance policy under which employees who incur a qualifying involuntary termination of employment will be eligible to receive severance pay in accordance with the severance pay schedule set forth on Section 6.12(b) of the Parent Disclosure Schedule. In connection with the foregoing, such terminated employees shall receive service credit for years of continuous service with the Company or its Subsidiaries for purposes of determining the amount of any severance pay under such policy, subject to a maximum severance pay amount of twenty-six (26) times the employee's base weekly pay at the time of termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Company employee or Company Bank Sub employee eligible to receive severance benefits under an employment or other agreement, or eligible to receive any change-in-control or similar payment or amount that becomes payable as a result of the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated hereby, shall be entitled to participate in the severance policy described in this Section 6.12(b) or to otherwise receive severance benefits.

(c) Participation in Parent and Parent Bank Sub Benefit Arrangements. Following the Effective Time, Parent shall maintain or cause to be maintained employee benefit plans for the benefit of employees (as a group) who are employees of the Company or the Company Bank Sub on the Closing Date ("Covered Employees") that provide employee benefits which are made available on a uniform and non-discriminatory basis to similarly situated employees of Parent and Parent Bank Sub, as applicable, in accordance with the terms and conditions of such plans in effect from time to time; provided that (i) in no event shall any Covered Employee be eligible to participate in any closed or frozen plan of Parent or Parent Bank Sub; (ii) such Covered Employees shall not participate in the Parent's 401(k) plan until the effective time of the Bank Merger set forth in Section 2.6 hereof; and (iii) except with respect to participation in the Parent's 401(k) plan as provided in clause (ii) above, until such time as Parent shall cause Covered Employees to participate in the benefit plans that are made available to similarly situated employees of Parent and Parent Bank Sub, a Covered Employee's continued participation in employee benefit plans of the Company or Company Bank Sub shall be deemed to satisfy the foregoing provisions of this sentence (it being understood that participation in Parent or Parent Bank Sub's Benefit Arrangements may commence at different times with respect to each such Benefit Arrangement). To the extent that a Covered Employee becomes eligible to participate in a Parent or Parent Bank Sub Benefit Arrangement other than a cash or equity compensation plans, Parent or Parent Bank Sub shall cause such Benefit Arrangement to take into account for eligibility and vesting purposes thereunder only (and not for benefit accrual) the service of such employees with the Company or Company Bank Sub as if such service were with Parent or Parent Bank Sub, to the same extent that such service was credited under a comparable Benefit Arrangement sponsored or maintained by the Company or Company Bank Sub, and, with respect to welfare benefit plans of Parent or Parent Bank Sub in which Covered Employees are eligible to participate, Parent agrees to cause each such welfare benefit plan to waive any preexisting conditions, waiting periods and actively at work requirements under such plans. In no event shall such recognition of service operate to duplicate any benefits of a Covered Employee with respect to the same period of service. For purposes of each Parent health plan, Parent shall cause any eligible expenses incurred by the Company Employees and their covered dependents during the portion of the plan year of the comparable plan of the Company or the Company Bank Sub ending on the date such employee's participation in the corresponding Parent plan begins to be taken into account under such Parent plan for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such employee and his or her covered dependents for the applicable plan year of the Parent plan.

(d) Amendments; No Third Party Rights. This Section 6.12 shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Section 6.12. 6.15 Environmental Assessments.

(a) The Company hereby consents to Parent obtaining, in Parent's sole discretion, within forty-five (45) days after the date of this Agreement, a Phase I Environmental Site Assessment ("Phase I") of any Real Property owned or leased by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, including OREO, at the Company's cost and expense (which costs and expenses shall be considered Transaction Expenses for purposes of this Agreement), conducted by an environmental consultant selected by Parent after consulting the Company ("Environmental Consultant"). The Company shall notify Parent as soon as practicable (but in any event within two (2) business days) of the acquisition of any real property, including OREO, by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries after the date of this Agreement ("After Acquired Real Property"). The Company hereby consents to Parent obtaining, in Parent's sole discretion, a Phase I of any After Acquired Real Property conducted by Environmental Consultant. If Parent elects to obtain a Phase I on any After Acquired Real Property, it shall do so as soon as practicable (but in any event within forty-five (45) days) of the Company notifying Parent of the acquisition of such After Acquired Real Property. (b) In the event any Phase I (including a Previously Disclosed Phase I that the Company or one of its Subsidiaries caused to be performed within three (3) years of the date hereof) discloses any Recognized Environmental Condition (as defined by ASTM E1527-13) or any other potential environmental condition that in the reasonable belief of Parent warrants further review or investigation, Parent shall reasonably promptly give notice of the same to the Company. Parent may then, within an additional forty-five (45) day period have a Phase II Environmental Site Assessment ("Phase II") conducted by Environmental Consultant; provided, however, that such forty-five (45) day period may be extended as Parent deems reasonably necessary in light of relevant weather and ground conditions. The scope of the Phase II shall be determined by Parent in its reasonable discretion after reasonable consultation with the Company and all costs and expenses associated with such Phase II testing and report shall be borne by the Company and shall be considered Transaction Expenses for purposes of this Agreement. Parent shall provide copies of the draft and final Phase I reports and Phase II reports, if any, to the Company promptly following the receipt of any such report by Parent.

(c) In the event any Phase II assessment discloses the presence of any environmental condition, including the presence of an underground storage tank or Hazardous Materials above levels allowed by applicable Environmental Laws given the commercial use of the real property, that is unsatisfactory to Parent in its reasonable discretion, Parent shall promptly obtain (but in any case within a reasonable time prior to the Closing Date), at the Company's sole cost and expense (which cost and expense shall be considered a Transaction Expense for purposes of this Agreement), from one or more environmental consultants or contractors (mutually acceptable to the parties), as appropriate, a good faith estimate (reasonably acceptable to the parties) of the cost and expense necessary to further investigate, remediate, cleanup, abate, restore and otherwise fully address such environmental condition in accordance with Environmental Laws and to the satisfaction of any relevant Governmental Authority (a "Remediation Estimate"). Parent shall cause all Remediation Estimates to be updated, as needed, through the Closing Date.

(d) In the event the sum of the Title Defect Amount, plus the sum of all Remediation Estimates in the aggregate exceeds One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) (a "Real Property Adjustment Amount"), the Cash Exchange Amount of Company Common Stock shall be reduced prior to the Closing by an amount equal to the result of: (i) the amount of the Real Property Adjustment Amount up to an aggregate amount of Four Million Dollars ($4,000,000), divided by (ii) the Fully Diluted Number. Million Dollars ($4,000,000), Parent may, in its sole discretion, elect to (A) reduce the Cash Exchange Amount by an amount equal to (1) Four Million Dollars ($4,000,000), divided by (2) the Fully Diluted Number and, subject to the satisfaction of all of the conditions set forth in Article 7 hereof, proceed to the Closing, or (B) terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(i) of this Agreement.

(e) The Company (i) hereby grants, and agrees to cause the Company Bank Sub to grant, both Parent and Environmental Consultant reasonable non-exclusive access to the Real Property for the purpose of conducting the Phase I and any Phase II assessments as set forth above; and (ii) shall reasonably cooperate, and cause its Subsidiaries to cooperate, in connection with the performance of any such assessment.

Prior to effecting any amendment to, or waiver of any term, condition or other provision of, the BBMC Sale Agreement, the Company shall and shall cause the Company Bank Sub to consult with Parent.

(b) If any Lease (as such term is defined in the BBMC Sale Agreement) applicable to the real estate listed on Schedule 1(a)(i) of the BBMC Sale Agreement is not sold, assigned, transferred, conveyed and delivered to, and assumed, satisfied and discharged by, the BBMC Sale Counterparty, or is not otherwise terminated, in each case with no further obligation, liability or recourse to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, prior to February 28, 2019 (a "Non-Disposed Lease"), the Cash Exchange Amount shall be reduced by an amount equal to the quotient of (i) three (3) times the sum of all remaining amounts (including any applicable penalties and termination fees) payable by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of all Non-Disposed Leases, divided by (ii) the Fully Diluted Number; provided, however, if there is only one Non-Disposed Lease, the Cash Exchange Amount shall be reduced by an amount equal to the quotient of (y) one and one-half (1 1/2) times the sum of all remaining amounts (including any applicable penalties and termination fees) payable by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of such Non-Disposed Lease, divided by (ii) the Fully Diluted Number.

(c) If any Contract (as such term is defined in the BBMC Sale Agreement) identified on Schedule 1(a)(v) of the BBMC Sale Agreement is not sold, assigned, transferred, conveyed and delivered to, and assumed, satisfied and discharged by, the BBMC Sale Counterparty, or is not otherwise terminated, in each case with no further obligation, liability or recourse to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, prior to February 28, 2019 (a "Non-Disposed Contract"), the Cash Exchange Amount shall be reduced by an amount (including any applicable penalties and termination fees) equal to the quotient of (i) three (3) times the sum of all remaining amounts payable by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of all Non-Disposed Contracts, divided by (ii) the Fully Diluted Number.

(d) The Cash Exchange Amount shall be reduced based on the aggregate outstanding principal balance of the BBMC Mortgage Loans on the Company's and its Subsidiaries' books as of March 1, 2019 by an amount equal to the quotient of (i) the BBMC Mortgage Loan Reduction Amount, divided by (ii) the Fully Diluted Number. For purposes of this Agreement, the "BBMC Mortgage Loan Reduction Amount" means: (a) zero (0), if the aggregate outstanding principal balance of the BBMC Mortgage Loans on the Company's and its Subsidiaries' books as of March 1, 2019 is less than Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000); (b) an amount equal to the aggregate outstanding principal balance of the BBMC Mortgage Loans on the Company's and its Subsidiaries' books as of March 1, 2019 in excess of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) but less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000), if the aggregate outstanding principal balance of the BBMC Mortgage Loans on the Company's and its Subsidiaries' books as of March 1, 2019 is in excess of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) but less than One Million Dollars

6.17 Stockholder Litigation. The Company shall give Parent the opportunity to participate at its own expense in the defense or settlement of any litigation against the Company and/or its directors or Affiliates relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and the Company shall not agree to any such settlement without Parent's prior written consent.

6.18 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action that is reasonably necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest Parent or the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the Merger, the then current officers and directors of each party to this Agreement and their respective Subsidiaries shall take, or cause to be taken, all such reasonably necessary action as may be reasonably requested by the other party, at the expense of the party who makes any such request.

6.19 Identified Assets. To the extent that the Company sells or otherwise disposes of an asset identified on Section 6.19 of the Company Disclosure Schedule ("Identified Assets") prior to the Closing Date for net consideration after all costs, fees and expenses, including any applicable Taxes ("Identified Asset Sale Proceeds"), greater than or less than the Dollar amount set forth opposite such Identified Asset on Section 6.19 of the Parent Disclosure Schedule ("Identified Asset Assumed Value"), the Identified Asset Sale Proceeds with respect to such Identified Asset in excess of or less than the Identified Asset Assumed Value with respect to such Identified Asset (an "Asset Adjustment Amount") shall increase (in the event that the Identified Asset Sale Proceeds are in excess of the Identified Asset Assumed Value) or decrease (in the event that the Identified Asset Sale Proceeds are less than the Identified Asset Assumed Value), as applicable, the Cash Exchange Amount by an amount equal to the result of (a) the Asset Adjustment Amount, as may be adjusted below (which shall be the absolute value of the Asset Adjustment Amount for purposes of this calculation if the Identified Asset Sale Proceeds with respect to such Identified Asset are less than the Identified Asset Assumed Value with respect to such Identified Asset), divided by (b) the Fully Diluted Number. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if the Identified Asset Sale Proceeds are in excess of the Identified Asset Assumed Value, the Asset Adjustment Amount as used in clause (a) of the preceding sentence shall be after-tax. For the avoidance of doubt, the sale or disposition of an Identified Asset will result in an Asset Adjustment Amount independent from any Asset Adjustment Amount applicable to any other Identified Asset. Any sale or disposition of an Identified Asset pursuant to this Section 6.19 will be on terms and conditions satisfactory to Parent and shall not include any contractual warranty, indemnification or guaranty with respect to known or unknown environmental conditions, liabilities or obligations that is not satisfactory to Parent.

Parent) must be reasonably satisfactory to Parent and, in the event of such sale, the Cash Exchange Amount shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) if the purchase price net of all transaction expenses, including any applicable Taxes, received by the Company in respect of the sale of the Identified Real Property (the "Actual Identified Real Property Sale Price") is less than

• Dollars ($ •) (the "Contemplated Identified Real Property Sale Price"), the Cash Exchange Amount shall be reduced by the quotient of (A) the sum of (i) One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000), plus (ii) the result of the Contemplated Identified Real Property Sale Price, minus the Actual Identified Real Property Sale Price, divided by (B) the Fully Diluted Number;

(2) if the Actual Identified Real Property Sale Price is equal to the Contemplated Identified Real Property Sale Price, the Cash Exchange Amount shall be reduced by the quotient of (A) One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000), divided by (B) the Fully Diluted Number;

(3) if the Actual Identified Real Property Sale Price is greater than the Contemplated Identified Real Property Sale Price but equal to or less than • Dollars ($ •), the Cash Exchange Amount shall be reduced by the quotient of (A) the result of (i) One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000), minus (ii) the result of the Actual Identified Real Property Sale Price, minus the Contemplated Identified Real Property Sale Price, divided by (B) the Fully Diluted Number; and

(4) if the Actual Identified Real Property Sale Price is greater than • Dollars ($ •), the Cash Exchange Amount shall be increased by the quotient of (A) the result of the Actual Identified Real Property Sale Price, minus the Contemplated Identified Real Property Sale Price, divided by (B) the Fully Diluted Number.

(b) If the Identified Real Property is not sold by the Company prior to the Closing Date, the Cash Exchange Amount shall be reduced by the quotient of (1) Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000), divided by (2) the Fully Diluted Number.

(c) If the Identified Real Property is sold by the Company prior to the Closing Date, prior to or contemporaneously with any such sale of the Identified Real Property, the Company Bank Sub shall enter into a lease with the purchaser of the Identified Real Property with respect to the branch located at the Identified Real Property, the terms and conditions of which must be reasonably satisfactory to Parent.

6.21 Life Settlement Contracts.

(a) If the Company sells a life settlement contract identified on Section 6.21 of the Company Disclosure Schedule (each, a "Life Settlement Contract" and collectively, the "Life Settlement Contracts") prior to the Closing Date, the terms and conditions of any such sale (which terms and conditions will not include any representation, warranty, indemnity or other provision regarding ownership of, or title to or the enforceability of such Life Settlement Contract) must be reasonably satisfactory to Parent and, in the event of such sale, the Cash Exchange Amount shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) if the purchase price net of all transaction expenses received by the Company in respect of the sale of the Life Settlement Contract (an "Actual Life Settlement Contract Sale Price") is less than the adjusted book value of such Life Settlement Contract set forth opposite such Life Settlement Contract on Section 6.21 of the Company Disclosure Schedule (the "Life Settlement Contract Book Value"), the Cash Exchange Amount shall be reduced by the quotient of (A) the result of such Life Settlement Contract Book Value minus such Actual Life Settlement Contract Sale Price, divided by (B) the Fully Diluted Number;

(2) if the Actual Life Settlement Contract Sale Price is equal to the applicable Life Settlement Contract Book Value, no adjustment to the Cash Exchange Amount shall be made pursuant to this Section 6.21 in respect of the sale of such Life Settlement Contract; and

(3) if the Actual Life Settlement Contract Sale Price is greater than the applicable Life Settlement Contract Book Value, the Cash Exchange Amount shall be increased by the quotient of (A) the result of the Actual Life Settlement Contract Sale Price, minus the sum of (i) the Life Settlement Contract Book Value plus (ii) the Tax to be incurred by the Company on the sale of such Life Settlement Contracts (assuming for such purposes the maximum federal and Illinois corporate tax rates), divided by (B) the Fully Diluted Number.

(b) If any Life Settlement Contract is not sold by the Company prior to January 15, 2019 (an "Unsold Life Settlement Contract"), the parties shall engage a third-party mutually acceptable to the parties (the "Independent Insurance Consultant") to solicit, seek out and obtain bids to purchase all Unsold Life Settlement Contracts, with such purchases to be on terms and conditions consistent with the terms and conditions of the sale of Life Settlement Contracts specified in Section 6.21(a). If there are any Unsold Life Settlement Contracts on February 28, 2019, the parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Independent Insurance Consultant to promptly solicit, seek out and obtain, prior to March 31, 2019, bids to purchase each Unsold Life Settlement Contract in accordance with the foregoing sentence from three (3) potential bona fide known buyers of life insurance policies on the secondary market similar to those constituting the Life Settlement Contracts (the "Unsold Life Settlement Contract Bids"). If there are any Unsold Life Settlement Contracts on March 31, 2019, the Cash Exchange Amount shall be adjusted for each Unsold Life Settlement Contract as follows: (1) if the median of the three Unsold Life Settlement Contract Bids applicable to the Unsold Life Settlement Contract is less than the Life Settlement Contract Book Value applicable to such Unsold Life Settlement Contract, the Cash Exchange Amount shall be reduced by the quotient of (A) the result of the Life Settlement Contract Book Value applicable to such Unsold Life Settlement Contract, minus an amount equal to the median Unsold Life Settlement Contract Bid applicable to such Unsold Life Settlement Contract, divided by (B) the Fully Diluted Number; (2) if the median of the three Unsold Life Settlement Contract Bids applicable to the Unsold Life Settlement Contract is greater than the Life Settlement Contract Book Value applicable to such Unsold Life Settlement Contract, the Cash Exchange Amount shall be increased by the quotient of (A) the result of the median Unsold Life Settlement Contract Bid applicable to such Unsold Life Settlement Contract, minus the Life Settlement Contract Book Value applicable to such Unsold Life Settlement Contract, divided by (B) the Fully Diluted Number; and (3) if the median of the three Unsold Life Settlement Contract Bids applicable to the Unsold Life Settlement Contract is equal to the Life Settlement Contract Book Value applicable to such Unsold Life Settlement Contract, no adjustment to the Cash Exchange Amount shall be made pursuant to this Section 6.21(b) in respect of such Unsold Life Settlement Contract; provided, however, that if any Unsold Life Settlement Contract shall be sold by the Company after March 31, 2019 and prior to the Closing Date, no adjustment with respect thereto shall be made pursuant to this Section 6.21(b) but instead such Life Settlement Contract shall be subject to and the Cash Exchange Amount shall be adjusted with respect thereto in accordance with Section 6.21(a) hereof.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if the Company actually receives any proceeds, net of any amounts payable to any beneficiary or other person, in respect of any Life Settlement Contract between the date hereof and the Closing Date as a result of the death of the applicable insured under such Life Settlement Contract ("Life Settlement Proceeds"), the Cash Exchange Amount shall be increased by the quotient of (A) the result of the Life Settlement Proceeds, minus the sum of (i) the Life Settlement Contract Book Value of the applicable Life Settlement Contract and (ii) the Tax to be incurred by the Company on the receipt of such Life Settlement Proceeds (assuming for such purposes the maximum federal and Illinois corporate tax rates), divided by (B) the Fully Diluted Number.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the adjustment to the Cash Exchange Amount related to a Life Settlement Contract under this Section 6.21 shall be independent of any other adjustment to the Cash Exchange Amount made under this Section 6.21 in respect of any other Life Settlement Contract.

6.22 Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity.

The Estimated Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity shall be accompanied by a certificate of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company to the effect that the calculation of the Estimated Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity was prepared in accordance with, and includes, excludes, disregards, eliminates and is reduced by all amounts required to be included, excluded, disregarded, eliminated from or reduced by, the definition of Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity in this Agreement.

(b) After delivery of the Year-End Balance Sheet and the Estimated Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity, the parties hereto shall work together in good faith, which in the case of the Company shall include providing Parent with such documentation and information in its possession or control as Parent shall reasonably request, to agree on (1) an updated consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of December 31, 2018 for purposes of calculating Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity (the "Final Year-End Balance Sheet"), which shall be prepared in good faith based on all available information at such time and on a basis consistent with the audited Company Financial Statements, including the audited Company Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2018 (including the related required communications of Plante & Moran, PLLC to the audit committee and management of the Company), and (2) an updated calculation of Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity ("Final Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity"). The Final Year-End Balance Sheet and the calculation of the Final Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity agreed to between the parties shall become final and binding upon the parties.

(c) If, no later than the day before the expected Closing Date, the parties are unable to agree upon a Final Year-End Balance Sheet and the Final Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity, the parties shall promptly submit any items over which a disagreement remains to the Independent Arbitrator and the Closing Date shall be postponed. The parties will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Independent Arbitrator to resolve any dispute and issue a Final Year-End Balance Sheet and a correct calculation of the Final Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity (as determined in accordance with this Agreement, including the definition of Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity) within ten (10) business days following engagement. The parties will cooperate fully with, and furnish such information as may be requested to, the Independent Arbitrator. The Final Year-End Balance Sheet issued by the Independent Arbitrator and the calculation of the Final Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity determined by the Independent Arbitrator in accordance with this Agreement, including the definition of Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity, will be final and binding on the parties. Each party will bear all costs and fees incurred by it in connection with the foregoing arbitration; provided, however, that (1) the fees and expenses of the Independent Arbitrator shall be borne by the Company and Parent in the same proportion that the aggregate amount of disputed items submitted to the Independent Arbitrator that are unsuccessfully disputed by the Company and Parent, respectively (as determined by the Independent Arbitrator), bears to the total amount of items submitted to the Independent Arbitrator, and (2) all after-tax costs, fees and expenses of the foregoing arbitration to be borne by the Company pursuant to this Section 6.22(c) shall be deducted from the Final Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity.

(d) If the Final Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity (as finally determined pursuant to this Section 6.22) is greater than the Minimum Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity (a "Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity Excess"), the Cash Exchange Amount will be increased by an amount equal to the quotient of (1) the Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity Excess, divided by (2) the Fully Diluted Number. If the Final Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity (as finally determined pursuant to this Section 6.22) is less than the Minimum Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity but greater than the Year-End Bottom Adjusted Tangible Common Equity (a "Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity Deficiency"), the Cash Exchange Amount will be decreased by an amount equal to the quotient of (1) the Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity Deficiency, divided by (2) the Fully Diluted Number. If the Final Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity (as finally determined pursuant to this Section 6.22) is less than the Year-End Bottom Adjusted Tangible Common Equity, the Cash Exchange Amount will be decreased by an amount equal to the quotient of (1) the result of the Minimum Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity, minus the Year-End Bottom Adjusted Tangible Common Equity, divided by (2) the Fully Diluted Number.

(e) Promptly following the final determination of the Final Year-End Balance Sheet and the Final Year-End Adjusted Tangible Common Equity in accordance with this Section 6.22, the Company shall have made corresponding entries in the Company Financial Statements with respect to the assets and liabilities of the Company Bank Sub's residential home mortgage business to the extent allowable under GAAP.

6.23 Charitable Contribution. Prior to Closing the Company shall make the charitable contribution described in Section 6.23 of the Company Disclosure Schedule (the "Identified Charitable Contribution").

6.24 Bona Fide Transactions. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and Representatives to, make all sales and dispositions required, contemplated or permitted by this Agreement in a commercially reasonable manner and in bona fide transactions.

ARTICLE 8

Termination

8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated, and the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned, at any time before the Effective Time, by the Company or Parent, whether prior to or after approval of this Agreement, the Company Shareholder Matters and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, by all requisite votes of the holders of Company Common Stock, as follows:

(a) Mutual Agreement. With the mutual written agreement of the other party.

(b) Breach. If there has occurred and is continuing: (1) a breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained herein or (2) a breach by the other party of any covenant or agreement contained herein; provided that such breach has not been cured within fifteen (15) days of written notice thereof and that such breach (under either clause (1) or (2)) would entitle the non-breaching party not to consummate the Merger under Article 7.

(c) Denial of Stockholder Approval. In the case of Parent only, it will have the right to terminate this Agreement if this Agreement, the Merger, the Company Shareholder Matters and/or the other transactions contemplated hereby are not approved by the requisite vote of the stockholders of the Company at a duly held meeting of the stockholders.

(d) Denial or Withdrawal of Application for Regulatory Approval. (1) If the approval of any Governmental Authority required for consummation of the Merger, the Bank Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby is denied by final, non-appealable action of such Governmental Authority or (2) any application, filing or notice necessary in connection with a Requisite Regulatory Approval has been withdrawn at the request or recommendation of the applicable Governmental Authority and such Governmental Authority would not accept the re-filing of such application; provided that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(d) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement has been the cause of, or materially contributed to, the foregoing.

(e) Outside Date. If the Effective Time has not occurred by the close of business on the twelve (12) month anniversary of the date hereof (the "Outside Date"); provided that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(e) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement has been the cause of, or materially contributed to, the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such date.

(f) Adverse Action. In the case of Parent only, it will have the right to terminate this Agreement if (1) the Company Board (A) submits this Agreement, the Company Shareholder Matters, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby to its stockholders without a recommendation for approval or with material and adverse conditions on such approval (or fails to reconfirm its recommendation after request to do so by Parent), or otherwise withdraws or materially and adversely modifies (or discloses its intention to withdraw or materially and adversely modify) its recommendation referred to in Section 5.2(e), (B) recommends to its stockholders an Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger or (C) negotiates or authorizes the conduct of negotiations with a third party regarding an Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger and ten (10) business days elapse without such negotiations being discontinued (it being understood and agreed that "negotiate" will not be deemed to include requesting and receiving information from, or discussing such information with, a person that submits an Acquisition Proposal for the sole purpose of ascertaining the terms of such Acquisition Proposal and determining whether the Company Board will in fact engage in or authorize negotiations) or (2) there is a material breach of Section 6.7.

(g) Dissenting Common Shares. In the case of Parent only, it will have the right to terminate this Agreement if the number of Dissenting Common Shares exceeds seven and one-half percent (7.5%) of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock.

(h) Material Adverse Effect. If a Material Adverse Effect occurs with respect to the other party.

(i) Real Property Adjustment Amount. In the case of Parent only, if the Real Property Adjustment Amount is greater than Four Million Dollars ($4,000,000).

8.2 Effect of Termination and Abandonment. Except as otherwise provided herein, a termination of this Agreement pursuant to the terms hereof shall be effective immediately upon delivery of written notice by the terminating party to the other parties hereto. If this Agreement is terminated and the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby are abandoned, no party will have any liability or further obligation under this Agreement, except that (i) Section 6.9(c), this Section 8.2, Section 8.3 and Article 9, as well as any relevant definitions, will survive termination of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect and (ii) termination will not relieve a party from liability for any willful breach by it of this Agreement.

8.3 Fee.

(a) In the event that, after the date hereof and on or before a Fee Termination Date (as defined below), (1) the Company Board submits this Agreement, the Company Shareholder Matters, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby to its stockholders without a recommendation for approval or with material and adverse conditions on such approval (or fails to re-confirm its recommendation after requested to do so by Parent), or otherwise withdraws or materially and adversely modifies (or discloses its intention to withdraw or materially and adversely modify) its recommendation referred to in Section 5.2(e), (2) the Company, without having received Parent's prior written consent, enters into an agreement to engage in an Acquisition Transaction with any person (the term "person" for purposes of this definition having the meaning assigned in Sections 3(a)(9) and 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) other than Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, (3) the Company authorizes, recommends or proposes (or publicly announces its intention to authorize, recommend or propose) an agreement to engage in an Acquisition Transaction with any person other than Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, (4) the Company Board recommends to its stockholders an Acquisition Transaction other than the Merger, (5) any person, other than Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, acquires beneficial ownership or the right to acquire beneficial ownership of twenty percent (20%) or more of the outstanding shares of any class or series of Company Stock (the term "beneficial ownership" for purposes of this definition having the meaning assigned in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations of the SEC thereunder), (6) the Company fails to convene a stockholder meeting to approve this Agreement, the Company Shareholder Matters, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby in accordance with Section 6.2 or (7) the Company breaches Section 6.7 of this Agreement (clauses (1) through (7), a "Fee Triggering Event"), then the Company will pay to Parent a cash fee (the "Fee") of Six Million Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($6,400,000) plus all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Parent in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and in connection with enforcing the payment of the Fee. The Fee will be payable, without setoff, by wire transfer in immediately available funds not later than three (3) business days following the first occurrence of a Fee Triggering Event to an account specified by Parent for such purpose. If the Fee has not been received by Parent within three (3) business days following the first occurrence of a Fee Triggering Event, interest shall accrue on the Fee at an annual rate equal to five percent (5%). The Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.3 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated hereby, and that, without these agreements, Parent would not enter into this Agreement. The amount payable by the Company pursuant to this Section 8.3(a) shall constitute liquidated damages and Parent's receipt thereof shall be Parent's sole and exclusive remedy under this Agreement for monetary damages for any breaches of representations or warranties or covenants under this Agreement by the Company except in the case of fraud or willful and material breaches of this Agreement. Except as specifically provided in the immediately preceding sentence, the parties hereto agree that this provision is without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that the parties hereto may have at law or in equity for any failure to perform, or a breach of a representation or warranty under, this Agreement.

(b) For purposes of this Section 8.3, "Fee Termination Date" means the date that the termination of this Agreement is effective; provided, however, if this Agreement is terminated by (1) Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(c) or either the Company or Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(e), or by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(b) or 8.1(g), and, prior to such termination, an Acquisition Proposal shall have been made or any person shall have publicly announced an intention (whether or not conditional) to make an Acquisition Proposal, or (2) Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(f), then the Fee Termination Date means the twelve (12) month anniversary of the termination of this Agreement.

9.2 Expenses. Except as otherwise provided herein, each party will bear all expenses incurred by it in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, except that Parent and the Company will each bear and pay one-half of the following expenses: (a) the costs (excluding the fees and disbursements of counsel, financial advisors and accountants) incurred in connection with the copying, printing and distributing the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement for the approval of the Merger and (b) all listing, filing or registration fees, including fees paid for filing the Registration Statement with the SEC and any other fees paid for filings with Governmental Authorities.

9.4 Waiver; Amendment.

(a) Any term, provision or condition of this Agreement may be waived in writing at any time by the party which is entitled to the benefits hereof; provided, however, after the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, by all requisite votes of the holders of Company Common Stock, no waiver of any term, provision or condition hereof shall be made which by Law requires further approval of the stockholders of the Company unless such further approval is obtained. Each and every right granted to any party hereunder, or under any other document delivered in connection herewith or therewith, and each and every right allowed it by Law or equity, shall be cumulative and may be exercised from time to time. The failure of any party at any time or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect such party's right at a later time to enforce the same. No waiver by any party of a condition or of the breach of any term, agreement, covenant, representation or warranty contained in this Agreement, whether by conduct or otherwise, in any one or more instances shall be deemed to be or construed as a further or continuing waiver of any such condition or breach or a waiver of any other condition or of the breach of any other term, agreement, covenant, representation or warranty of this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto. Subject to the foregoing this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto by action taken by the board of directors of Parent and the board of directors of the Company at any time before or after the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, by all requisite votes of the holders of Company Common Stock; provided, however, no amendment shall be made after the receipt of such approval which by Law requires further approval of the stockholders of the Company unless such further approval is obtained; provided, further, Parent and the Company may without approval of their respective boards of directors, make such technical changes to this Agreement, not inconsistent with the purposes hereof, as may be required to effect or facilitate any Requisite Regulatory Approvals or acceptance of the Merger or of this Agreement or to effect or facilitate any filing or recording required for the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

9.5 Alternative Structure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, before the Effective Time, Parent may by notice to the Company at least five (5) business days prior to the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, by all requisite votes of the holders of Company Common Stock, revise the structure of the Merger or otherwise revise the method of effecting the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby, provided that (a) such revision does not alter or change the kind or amount of consideration to be delivered to stockholders of the Company, (b) such revision does not adversely affect the tax consequences to the stockholders of the Company, (c) such revised structure or method is reasonably capable of consummation without significant delay in relation to the structure contemplated herein and (d) such revision does not otherwise cause, and could not reasonably be expected to cause, any of the conditions set forth in Article 7 not to be capable of being fulfilled (unless duly waived by the party entitled to the benefits thereof). This Agreement and any related documents will be appropriately amended in accordance with the terms hereof or thereof in order to reflect any such revised structure or method.

9.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts made and to be performed entirely within that State.

9.7 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (a) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (b) EACH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (c) EACH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY AND (d) EACH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.7.

Table of Contents

9.8 Entire Understanding; No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement, the other agreements and documents contemplated hereby or executed contemporaneous herewith and the Confidentiality Agreement represent the entire understanding of the parties hereto regarding the transactions contemplated hereby and supersede any and all other oral or written agreements previously made or purported to be made. Except for Section 6.11, which is intended to benefit the Indemnified Parties to the extent stated, nothing expressed or implied in this Agreement is intended to confer any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities upon any person other than the Company and Parent. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything in the Confidentiality Agreement to the contrary, the parties hereto hereby agree that the execution and delivery of this Agreement does not result in the termination of the Confidentiality Agreement, which remains in full force and effect in accordance with the terms thereof.

9.9 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, and may be delivered by means of facsimile or email (or any other electronic means such as ".pdf" or ".tiff" files), each of which shall be deemed to constitute an original, but all of which together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument.

9.10 Severability. Each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law, but in case any one or more provisions contained in this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, (a) all other provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect for so long as the economic or legal substance of the transaction contemplated hereby is not affected in a manner materially adverse to any party and (b) the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby can be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

9.11 Subsidiary and Affiliate Action. Wherever a party has an obligation under this Agreement to "cause" a Subsidiary or Affiliate of such party or any such Subsidiary's or Affiliate's officers, directors, management or employees to take, or refrain from taking, any action, or such action that may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement, such obligation of such party shall be deemed to include an undertaking on the part of such party to cause such Subsidiary or Affiliate to take such necessary action. Wherever this Agreement provides that a Subsidiary or Affiliate of a party has an obligation to act or refrain from taking any action, such party shall be deemed to have an obligation under this Agreement to cause such Subsidiary or Affiliate, or any such Subsidiary's or Affiliate's officers, directors, management or employees, to take, or refrain from taking, any action, or such action as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement. To the extent necessary or appropriate to give meaning or effect to the provisions of this Agreement or to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement, Parent and the Company, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have an obligation under this Agreement to cause any Subsidiary thereof to take, or refrain from taking, any action, and to cause such Subsidiary's officers, directors, management or employees, to take, or refrain from taking, any action otherwise contemplated herein. Any failure by an Affiliate of Parent or the Company to act or refrain from taking any action contemplated by this Agreement shall be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by Parent or the Company, respectively.

9.12 Other Remedies; Specific Performance. Except as otherwise provided herein, any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a party will be deemed cumulative with and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred hereby or by Law or equity upon such party, and the exercise by a party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at Law or in equity.

9.13 Assignment. No party may assign either this Agreement or any of its rights, interests, or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto. Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned, being a stockholder of Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), hereby acknowledges that the Company and First Midwest Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), are concurrently entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of an even date herewith (as amended or modified from time to time, the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which the Company will be merged with and into Parent (the "Merger"). A copy of the Merger Agreement has been provided to the undersigned. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein are to be deemed to have the meanings assigned to them in the Merger Agreement.

The undersigned further acknowledges that the undersigned will benefit directly and substantially from the consummation of the Merger. As an inducement to and condition of Parent's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, the undersigned hereby agrees, represents and warrants as follows:

1. Owned Shares. The undersigned owns (of record or beneficially) and has the full power and authority to vote the number of shares of Company Common Stock, Company Series A Non-Voting Common Stock and Company Nonvoting Common Stock set forth on the signature page hereof (the "Owned Shares"). For all purposes of this agreement, the Owned Shares will include any shares of Company Common Stock as to which the undersigned acquires beneficial ownership after the date hereof.

2. Agreement to Vote Owned Shares. The undersigned agrees that at the Company Meeting or any other meeting or action of the stockholders of the Company, including a written consent solicitation, the undersigned will (a) vote all of the Owned Shares (or otherwise provide a proxy or consent) in favor of, and will otherwise support, approval, and will not initiate any proxy solicitation or undertake any other efforts not to support approval, of the Merger Agreement, the Stock Conversion Proposal, Company Shareholder Matters, the Merger and any other matters required to be approved or adopted in order to effect the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and (b) not vote the Owned Shares (or otherwise provide a proxy or consent) in favor of, or otherwise support, approval of any Acquisition Proposal or any action that is intended to, or could reasonably be expected to, materially impede, interfere with, delay or otherwise materially and adversely affect the Merger or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that this agreement is entered into by the undersigned solely in his or her capacity as legal title holder of the Owned Shares and that nothing in this agreement shall prevent the undersigned from discharging his or her fiduciary duties as a member of the Company Board or as an officer of the Company.

3. Transfer of Owned Shares.

(a) The undersigned agrees that the undersigned will not, without the prior written consent of Parent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) (i) directly or indirectly, sell, transfer, pledge, assign or otherwise dispose of, or enter into any contract, option, commitment, derivative or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the sale, transfer, pledge, assignment or other disposition of, any of the Owned Shares or the voting rights thereunder (each, a "Transfer"), unless it receives (A) an irrevocable proxy, in form and substance identical to the provisions of Section 2 hereof, to vote such Owned Shares with respect to the Merger Agreement and the

Merger and otherwise, and the undersigned will vote such proxy as provided in Section 2 hereof and (B) an agreement identical in all material respects to this letter agreement executed by the transferee of the Owned Shares, and (ii) take any action or omit to take any action that would prohibit, prevent or preclude the undersigned from performing its obligations under this letter agreement.

(b) [APPLICABLE TO CERTAIN PARTIES. Except as permitted in Section 3(a), from the date hereof until the thirtieth (30th) day following the Closing Date, the undersigned agrees that the undersigned and its Affiliates will not, without the prior written consent of Parent, directly or indirectly, Transfer any Owned Shares or any share of Parent Common Stock received by the undersigned or its Affiliates in connection with the Merger or otherwise owned by the undersigned or its Affiliates. The restrictions set forth in this Section 3(b) shall not apply to Transfers of Parent Common Stock to any wholly owned subsidiary or controlled Affiliate of the undersigned; provided, further, that in the event that any such transferee ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary or controlled Affiliate of the undersigned, then such transferee shall immediately Transfer its Parent Common Stock to the undersigned or another wholly owned subsidiary or controlled Affiliate of the undersigned.]

The restrictions set forth in this Section 3(c) shall not apply to Transfers of Parent Common Stock to any wholly owned Subsidiary or controlled Affiliate of the undersigned; provided, that the undersigned and the proposed transferee comply with the requirements set forth in this agreement and the undersigned provides prior written notice to Parent of any such proposed Transfer; provided, further, that in the event that any such transferee ceases to be a wholly owned Subsidiary or controlled Affiliate of the undersigned, then such transferee shall immediately Transfer its Parent Common Stock to the undersigned or another wholly owned Subsidiary or controlled Affiliate of the undersigned. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 3 shall prevent the undersigned from entering into any contract, derivative, financial instrument or other hedging arrangement for the purpose of minimizing the financial risk associated with the undersigned's ownership of the Owned Shares, provided that such contract, derivative, instrument or other hedging arrangement does not require or otherwise provide for the Transfer of the Owned Shares to a third party.

4. Further Assurances. The undersigned will take all reasonable actions and make all reasonable efforts, and will execute and deliver all such further documents, certificates and instruments, in order to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Merger Agreement, including, without limitation, the agreement of the undersigned to vote the Owned Shares in accordance with Section 2 hereof.

10. Certain Representations and Warranties. The undersigned hereby represents and warrants to Parent that the undersigned has the right, power and authority to execute and deliver this agreement; such execution and delivery does not and will not violate, or require any consent, approval, or notice under any Law or result in the breach of any contract; and this agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the undersigned and constitutes a legal, valid and binding agreement of the undersigned, enforceable in accordance with its terms (except to the extent that enforceability hereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar Laws or equitable principles or doctrines).

WHEREAS, Parent and the Company are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger on the date hereof (the "Merger Agreement"), upon the terms and subject to the conditions of which the parties intend to effect a strategic business combination pursuant to which the Company will merge with and into Parent, with Parent as the surviving entity (the "Merger"), and the Company will cause Company Bank Sub to merge with and into First Midwest Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (the "Parent Bank Sub");

WHEREAS, Covenantor agrees to enter into this Agreement containing covenants that the parties acknowledge and agree are essential to the sale or transfer of the Company's business to Parent as a result of consummation of the Merger and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged; and

WHEREAS, Covenantor, Company and Parent acknowledge and agree that the post-Merger covenants contained herein are reasonable and necessary to protect the goodwill of the Company and Company Bank Sub that is being acquired by Parent in the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual commitments contained in this Agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Effectiveness; Effect on Prior Agreements. This Agreement shall be effective as of the date hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with the provisions thereof, this Agreement shall be null and void.

2. Confidential Information. (a) Covenantor agrees to keep secret and confidential all documents, materials and information about or relating to the Company, Company Bank Sub, any of their respective subsidiaries or any of their respective businesses, including, without limitation, information about customers or prospective customers, business contacts, transactions, contracts, intellectual property, finances, personnel, products and pricing, or corporate affairs of which Covenantor may have become aware, whether or not relating to or arising out of Covenantor's specific duties and all other documents, materials and information that should reasonably be considered confidential under any circumstance ("Confidential Information"), and Covenantor shall not disclose or make known any such Confidential Information or anything relating thereto to any person or entity except (i) in connection with the ordinary course of the Company and/or its subsidiaries' business prior to the Effective Time, consistent with past practices, (ii) officers, directors, employees, agents and advisors of Parent and its subsidiaries and (iii) to such other persons or entities as may be authorized by Parent or to the extent required by Law. Confidential Information is limited to information that is not generally known to the Company's competitors, that has not been voluntarily disclosed to the public by the Company, and that is not otherwise lawfully in the public domain.

(b) Upon Covenantor ceasing to be an executive officer or member of the Board of Directors of the Company and/or Company Bank Sub for any reason, Covenantor shall immediately return to Parent and its Subsidiaries any and all Confidential Information in Covenantor's possession or under Covenantor's control, including, without limitation, all reports, analyses, summaries, notes, or other documents or work papers, containing or based upon any Confidential Information, whether prepared by Parent or any of its subsidiaries or the Company or any of its subsidiaries, Covenantor or any other person or entity.

(c) Should any person or entity request in any manner that Covenantor disclose any Confidential Information, Covenantor shall immediately notify Parent of such request and the content of all communications and discussions relating thereto unless otherwise prohibited by Law.

(d) Covenantor is hereby notified that the immunity provisions in Section 1833 of Title 18 of the United States Code provide that an individual cannot be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for any disclosure of a trade secret that is made (1) in confidence to federal, state or local government officials, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, and is solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of the law, (2) under seal in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, or (3) to Covenantor's attorney in connection with a lawsuit for retaliation for reporting a suspected violation of law (and the trade secret may be used in the court proceedings for such lawsuit) as long as any document containing the trade secret is filed under seal and the trade secret is not disclosed except pursuant to court order.

engaging in any business (other than the Competing Business) in which Covenantor otherwise engages, or may engage, as of, or following, the date hereof.]

(2) inform any Competing Business which seeks to engage the services of Covenantor that Covenantor is bound by this Section 3 and the other terms of this Agreement;

(3) not solicit or induce or attempt to solicit or induce, directly or indirectly, any employee of the Company or Company Bank Sub, whether or not such person would commit a breach of any employment agreement by reason of leaving service, to terminate such employee's employment relationship with the Company or Company Bank Sub (or Parent or Parent Bank Sub following the Merger); and

(4) not, (x) solicit by mail, by telephone, by personal meeting, or by any other means, either directly or indirectly, any customer of the Company or Company Bank Sub (each, a "Restricted Customer"); or (y) interfere with or damage (or attempt to interfere with or damage) any relationship between Parent, Parent Bank Sub or any affiliates thereof and any such Restricted Customer. For purposes of the non-solicitation restriction contained in Section 3(a)(4)(x) and (y), "Restricted Customer" also includes any individual or entity specifically identified by the Company by written notice to Covenantor at the time of the Merger as a prospective customer of the Company, and with whom Covenantor had contact on behalf of the Company in an attempt to conduct Company business, or about whom Covenantor received Confidential Information. For purposes of clarity, the termination of Covenantor's employment with Parent, if applicable, shall not by itself be treated as a violation of Section 3(a)(4)(y).

(b) Covenantor understands and agrees that money damages are an inadequate remedy for any breach or attempted or threatened breach of this Section 3 by Covenantor and that Company and Parent and their respective Subsidiaries shall be entitled to equitable relief, including specific performance and injunctive relief as remedies for any such breach or threatened or attempted breach. Covenantor hereby consents to the granting of an injunction (temporary or otherwise) against Covenantor or to the entering of any other court order against Covenantor prohibiting and enjoining Covenantor from violating, or directing Covenantor to comply with, any provision of this Section 3. Covenantor also agrees and understands that such remedies shall be in addition to any and all remedies, including damages, available to Company, Company Bank Sub, Parent and/or any Subsidiaries or affiliates thereof against Covenantor for such breaches or threatened or attempted breaches. If Covenantor breaches any provision herein, and is not immediately or preliminarily enjoined from such breach, then, upon a court of competent jurisdiction finding such provision enforceable, the time periods relating to the restrictions above shall be tolled during the period of breach and pendency of the lawsuit until all appeal periods have expired.

4. Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between Covenantor, Parent and the Company with respect to the subject matter hereof and it is the complete, final and exclusive embodiment of the agreement with regard to this subject matter hereof, provided, however, that this Agreement shall not supersede or otherwise effect any agreement or understanding between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries on the one hand and Covenantor on the other hand that includes any confidentiality, restrictive covenant or other provisions concerning the subject matter hereof on the part of Covenantor. This Agreement is being entered into by Covenantor without reliance on any promise or representation other than those expressly contained herein, and this Agreement cannot be amended except in writing signed by all parties hereto.

In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement, and this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein. If, moreover, any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be overly broad as to duration, geographical scope, activity or subject, this Agreement shall be construed by limiting and reducing such overly broad provision, so as to be enforceable to the extent compatible with the applicable Law as it shall then appear.

5. Notices. For the purposes of this Agreement, notices, demands, and all other communications shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered either personally or by United States certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, and if to the Covenantor, delivered to the last address on file with the Company, and if to the Company, to its main offices located at 7940 South Harlem Avenue, Bridgeview, IL 60455, and if to Parent, to its main offices located at 8750 West Bryn Mawr Avenue, Suite 1300, Chicago, IL 60631 or to such other address as any such party may have furnished to the others, in writing, in accordance herewith, except that notices of change of address shall be effective only upon receipt.

6. Waiver. If either party should waive any breach of any provisions of this Agreement, such party shall not thereby be deemed to have waived any preceding or succeeding breach of the same or any other provision of this Agreement.

7. Assignment. This Agreement and any rights or obligations hereunder may be assigned by Parent to any Subsidiary of Parent or any successor in interest to Parent's or any of its Subsidiaries' businesses. This Agreement may not be assigned by Covenantor.

8. Headings. The headings of the sections hereof are inserted for convenience only and shall not be deemed to constitute a part hereof nor to affect the meaning thereof.

9. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the Laws of the State of Illinois without reference to the choice of Law principles thereof. Any claim, lawsuit or dispute involving the interpretation or enforcement of this Agreement must be held in a court of competent jurisdiction located in Cook County, Illinois. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of any state or federal court located in Cook County, Illinois, agrees that process may be served upon term in any manner authorized by the Laws of such jurisdiction and waives and covenants not to assist or plead any objection which they might otherwise have to such jurisdiction and such process.

10. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, and may be delivered by means of facsimile or email (or any other electronic means such as ".pdf" or ".tiff" files), each of which shall be deemed to constitute an original, but all of which together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument.

Board of Directors
Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc.
7940 South Harlem Avenue
Bridgeview, IL 60455

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc. ("Company") and First Midwest Bancorp, Inc. ("Parent") are proposing to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement") pursuant to which Company will merge with and into Parent with Parent as the surviving corporation in the merger (the "Merger"). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for certain shares of Company Common Stock as specified in the Agreement, shall be converted into the right to receive: (i) a fixed exchange ratio of 0.2767 (the "Exchange Ratio") fully paid and non-assessable shares of Parent Common Stock (the "Per Share Stock Consideration"), plus (ii) a fixed amount of cash equal to One Dollar and Seventy-Nine Cents ($1.79), subject to adjustment as provided for in the Agreement (the "Cash Exchange Amount"). The Per Share Stock Consideration and the Cash Exchange Amount are collectively referred to herein as the "Per Common Share Consideration." Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Per Common Share Consideration to the holders of Company Common Stock.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. ("Sandler O'Neill", "we" or "our"), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed and considered, among other things: (i) a draft of the Agreement, dated December 4, 2018; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Company that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Parent that we deemed relevant; (iv) certain internal financial projections for Company for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2023, as provided by the senior management of Company; (v) publicly available mean analyst earnings per share and dividends per share estimates for Parent for the years ending December 31, 2018, December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate and dividend payout ratio for Parent the years thereafter, as reviewed with the senior management of Parent; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on Parent based on certain assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings, as reviewed with the senior management of Parent (collectively, the "Pro Forma Assumptions"); (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Parent Common Stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for Parent Common Stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) a comparison of certain financial information for Company and Parent with similar financial institutions for which information is publicly available; (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the bank and thrift industry (on a nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available; (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Company the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Company and held similar discussions with certain members of the senior management of Parent and its representatives regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Parent.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by us from public sources, that was provided to us by Company or Parent or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by us, and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion without any independent verification or investigation. We have relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Company and Parent that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Company or Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Company or Parent. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Company or Parent, or of the combined entity after the Merger, and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to Company or Parent. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Company and Parent are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used certain internal financial projections for Company for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2023, as provided by the senior management of Company. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available mean analyst earnings per share and dividends per share estimates for Parent for the years ending December 31, 2018, December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate and dividend payout ratio for Parent the years thereafter, as reviewed with the senior management of Parent. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses the Pro Forma Assumptions, as reviewed with the senior management of Parent. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of Company and Parent confirmed to us that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements as to the future financial performance of Company and Parent, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and we assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information is based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Company or Parent since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Company and Parent will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analysis.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Company, Parent or the Merger or any related transactions, and (iii) the Merger and any related transactions will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice that Company has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement. We express no opinion as to any such matters.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, regulatory, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading value of Parent Common Stock at any time or what the value of Parent Common Stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of Company Common Stock.

We have acted as Company's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, which fee is contingent upon the closing of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the transaction fee which will become payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the Merger. Company has also agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities arising out of our engagement and to reimburse us for certain of our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our engagement.

In the two years preceding the date of this opinion, Sandler O'Neill has not provided any other investment banking services to Company. In the two years preceding the date hereof, Sandler O'Neill has provided certain investment banking services to Parent. Most recently, Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to Parent in connection with Parent's acquisition of Northern States Financial Corporation, which transaction closed in October 2018, and financial advisor to Parent in connection with Parent's acquisition of Standard Bancshares, Inc., which transaction closed in January 2017. In addition, Sandler O'Neill acted as book manager in connection with Parent's offer and sale of subordinated debt in September 2016. As we have previously advised you, we may provide, and receive compensation for, investment banking services to Parent in the future, including during the pendency of the Merger. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Company, Parent and their respective affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Parent and its affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Company in connection with its consideration of the Agreement and the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Company as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the Agreement and the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Per Common Share Consideration to the holders of Company Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Company to engage in the Merger, the form or structure of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Company or the effect of any other transaction in which Company might engage. We also do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any officer, director or employee of Company or Parent, or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholder. This opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. This opinion shall not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent; provided, however, Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in regulatory filings to be completed in connection with the Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Per Common Share Consideration is fair to holders of Company Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

B-4

APPENDIX C

Delaware General Corporation Law

§ 262 Appraisal rights

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in 1 or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 255, § 256, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that, except as expressly provided in § 363(b) of this title, no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation (or in the case of a merger pursuant to § 251(h), as of immediately prior to the execution of the agreement of merger), were either: (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in § 251(f) of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (b)(1) of this section, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a. and b. of this section; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a., b. and c. of this section.

Table of Contents

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 or § 267 of this title is not owned by the parent immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(4) In the event of an amendment to a corporation's certificate of incorporation contemplated by § 363(a) of this title, appraisal rights shall be available as contemplated by § 363(b) of this title, and the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as practicable, with the word "amendment" substituted for the words "merger or consolidation," and the word "corporation" substituted for the words "constituent corporation" and/or "surviving or resulting corporation."

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the provisions of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d), (e), and (g) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for notice of such meeting (or such members who received notice in accordance with § 255(c) of this title) with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) of this section that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228, § 251(h), § 253, or § 267 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, within the later of the consummation of the offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, later than the later of the consummation of the offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation (or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, the aggregate number of shares (other than any excluded stock (as defined in § 251(h)(6)d. of this title)) that were the subject of, and were not tendered into, and accepted for purchase or exchange in, the offer referred to in § 251(h)(2)), and, in either case, with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of this section hereof, whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder. If immediately before the merger or consolidation the shares of the class or series of stock of the constituent corporation as to which appraisal rights are available were listed on a national securities exchange, the Court shall dismiss the proceedings as to all holders of such shares who are otherwise entitled to appraisal rights unless (1) the total number of shares entitled to appraisal exceeds 1% of the outstanding shares of the class or series eligible for appraisal, (2) the value of the consideration provided in the merger or consolidation for such total number of shares exceeds $1 million, or (3) the merger was approved pursuant to § 253 or § 267 of this title.

(h) After the Court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, and except as provided in this subsection, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. At any time before the entry of judgment in the proceedings, the surviving corporation may pay to each stockholder entitled to appraisal an amount in cash, in which case interest shall accrue thereafter as provided herein only upon the sum of (1) the difference, if any, between the amount so paid and the fair value of the shares as determined by the Court, and (2) interest theretofore accrued, unless paid at that time. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and in the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e) of this section.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
