Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On April 18, 2013, Kingsway Financial Services Inc. (the “Company”) received a letter (the “Letter”) from the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) notifying the Company that it failed to comply with NYSE Listed Company Manual Sections 204.21 and 401.02 to provide timely notification to the NYSE of the record date for the Company's upcoming 2013 Annual and Special Meeting of Stockholders at least ten days prior to such record date. Receipt of a public reprimand letter of this nature is a required disclosure under Item 3.01 of Form 8-K.

The Letter went on to note that this was the first time the Company had failed to satisfy the notice requirements of Sections 204.21 and 401.02 of the Listed Company Manual; the Company's transfer agent had provided adequate notice to the Exchange of the record date, although Exchange rules specifically require the listed company to provide notice itself directly and the Company did not respond in a timely manner to the requests from Exchange staff for confirmation of the information; the Exchange has no reason to believe that the Company's failure to comply with Listed Company Manual Sections 204.21 and 401.02 was intentional; and the Company has not fallen below the financial and other continued listing standards provided in Chapter 8 of the Listed Company Manual or failed to comply with the audit committee standards set out in Section 303A.06.

The Company views this failure to notify the NYSE as an unintentional and isolated incident. It has made, and will continue to make, every effort to comply with all NYSE rules applicable to it. The Company also notes that it (1) timely filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission its proxy statement related to its 2013 Annual and Special Meeting of Stockholders, which included a reference to such record date and (2) did give notice of the record date to its transfer agent more than ten days before the record date, and the transfer agent in turn provided such notice to the NYSE in a timely fashion. Accordingly the Company believes that such notice was generally communicated to investors and the trading markets more than ten days before the record date.

The Company confirms that the record date for its 2013 Annual and Special Meeting of Stockholders to be held on May 13, 2013 continues to be April 8, 2013.
