On May 14, 2003, Dstage.com, Inc. ("the Company") sent a letter to Ehrhardt Keefe Steiner & Hottman PC ("EKS&H") via fax indicating the engagement of James C. Marshall, CPA PC ("Marshall") as the Company's independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company had originally notified EKS&H via email on May 9, 2003, that the Company was going to retain new independent public accountants. On May 14, 2003, the Company filed form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding the change of registrant's certifying accountant. The appointment of Marshall was approved by the Company's Board of Directors upon the recommendation of its Audit Committee.

EKS&H's report on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion. The December 31, 2002 report was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, other than a going concern uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. EKS&H was not the principal accountant for the year ended December 31, 2001.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 and through May 14, 2003, there were no disagreements with EKS&H on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to EKS&H's satisfaction, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter in connection with their report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for such year; and there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(B) of Regulation S-B.

The Company has provided EKS&H with a copy of the foregoing statements and have requested a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agrees with the statements made and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree.

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and through the date of the Board's decision, the Company did not consult Marshall with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or any other matters reportable events as set forth in Items 304(E)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-B.
