Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including (i) approval of Cedars 's shareholders, (ii) approval of regulatory authorities and (iii) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the consummation of the Merger. In addition, each party 's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including (i) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (ii) material compliance of the other party with its covenants and (iii) each of the net equity value and the allowance for loan losses of Cedars meeting certain minimum thresholds.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Cedars and First Community and provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, either Cedars or First Community may be required to pay the other party a termination fee of $3,600,000.
