Settlement of Class Action Lawsuit

Lattice Semiconductor Corporation (the Company ) announced today that it has reached an agreement in principle with plaintiffs to settle the consolidated class action lawsuit filed in 2004 against the Company and certain of its current and former executive officers. The agreement does not contain any admission of fault or wrongdoing on the part of the Company or any of the individual defendants in the litigation.

Edgar Filing: LATTICE SEMICONDUCTOR CORP - Form 8-K

The agreement among the parties provides that plaintiffs will receive an aggregate amount of $3,500,000, inclusive of fees and expenses of counsel, in exchange for a release of the Company and the individual defendants from all claims asserted in the litigation. The Company expects the entire amount of the settlement to be paid by its insurer under the terms of the Company's director and officer liability insurance policy.

The agreement in principle is subject to the negotiation and completion of the usual and customary documentation for such a settlement, including a Stipulation of Settlement, and is subject to and conditioned upon final court approval. A press release issued by the Company regarding the Settlement is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.
