Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On November 5, 2007, Force Protection, Inc. (the Company) announced that it had received an order from the U.S. Marine Corps for the purchase of services in support of operation of the Mine Resistant Ambush Protected (MRAP) Vehicles University, which is an MRAP training program at Red River Army Depot. This award was made pursuant to the U.S. Marine Corps delivery order under Contract Agreement No. M67854-07-D-5031, filed as exhibit 10.1 to Company s Current Report on Form 8-K filed on February 5, 2007.

The total approximate value of the order is $83.6 million, as confirmed by the U.S. Department of Defense. The Company had previously announced that the order had an estimated value of $91.8. On November 8, 2007, the Company issued a corrective press release with respect to the value of this order.

Pursuant to the Company s agreement with General Dynamics Land Systems, a portion of the work under this contract will be performed by General Dynamics Land Systems pursuant to a subcontract. Work under the contract is scheduled for completion by November 2008.

On November 8, 2007, the Company announced that it has received a contract from the U.S. Army s Tank Automotive and Armaments Command, or TACOM, for the production of an additional 29 Buffalo mine-protected vehicles. The approximate total value of the contract is $22.3 million.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. The Company generally uses words such as believe, may, could, will, intend, expect, anticipate, plan, and similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements. Ye place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements for many reasons, including the risks described in the Company s Form 10-K and other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Although management believes the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, they relate only to events as of the date on which the statements are made, and the Company s future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements may not meet these expectations. The Company does not intend to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this document to conform these statements to actual results or to changes in expectations, except as required by law.
