Edgar Filing: Innoviva, Inc. - Form DEFA14A

On March 27, 2017, Innoviva, Inc. made the following statement:

The facts clearly show that our strategy is producing results for shareholders. We are confident shareholders will recognize the value of our strategy and business model and reject Sarissa's unqualified nominees and its persistent misrepresentation of our process. Through our active collaboration with GlaxoSmithKline, we are growing profits while maintaining low costs and expenses. This supports our plan to continue returning capital to shareholders, including a capital return plan for 2017 of up to $150 million. In Sarissa's hasty attempt to take effective control of Innoviva's Board they have refused to engage to discuss these facts, which board and management would gladly discuss with any shareholder.
