NAV, Market Price and Discount

	NAV	Closing Market Price	Discount
12/31/2018	$7.37	$6.35	13.8%

Throughout the period April 30, 2018 through December 31, 2018, the Fund's NAV was within a range of $7.23 to $9.66 (due to tender offer and distribution described below) and the Fund's market price was within a range of $6.20 to $6.90 for the same time period. Tender Offer and Distribution

On May 11, 2018, the Fund's Board approved a tender offer for shares of the Fund's common stock. The tender offer authorized the Fund to purchase up to 32% of its issued and outstanding shares at a price equal to 99% of the Fund's NAV per share at the close of business on the NYSE American Exchange on June 20, 2018, the first business day following the expiration of the offer.

The tender offer commenced on May 22, 2018 and expired on June 19, 2018. In connection with the tender offer, the Fund purchased 28,470,130 shares of capital stock at a price equal to $7.9002. The tender offer was oversubscribed and all tenders of shares were subject to pro ration (at a ratio of approximately 0.44155) in accordance with the terms of the tender offer. The Fund also paid a distribution of US$0.882 per share on June 28, 2018 to all shareholders of record as of June 15, 2018, which, in combination with the tender offer, represented an aggregate distribution of approximately 41.1% of the Fund's assets as of the close of business on April 27, 2018.

In addition, the Fund has adopted a targeted discount policy as detailed in the Fund's registration statement. The policy requires the Fund: (1) to buy back shares in the open market when the Fund's shares trade at a discount of 10% or more to NAV and (2) to undertake a 15% tender offer if the average discount exceeds 11% of NAV over any rolling twelve-month period commencing on April 27, 2018 and ending on December 31, 2019, provided that the Fund is not required to conduct more than one tender offer during such period.

Distribution Policy

Effective December 14, 2018, the Fund announced that, recognizing the higher yielding characteristics of the portfolio of the Fund, the Board has approved a policy to pay distributions quarterly, comprised of net investment income generated by dividends paid from the Fund's underlying securities. Based on estimated dividend income over the period, net of taxes and expenses, the Fund will pay a quarterly distribution at an annualized rate of 2.0% for the next 12-months ending December 31, 2019. This policy will be subject to ongoing review by the Board.

Open Market Repurchase Program

The Fund's policy is to consider buying back Fund shares on the open market when the Fund trades at a discount to the NAV that is above an established threshold and management believes such repurchases may enhance shareholder value. During the year ended December 31, 2018, the Fund repurchased 716,879 shares pursuant to its repurchase program.

Unclaimed Share Accounts

Please be advised that abandoned or unclaimed property laws for certain states require financial organizations to transfer (escheat) unclaimed property (including Fund shares) to the state. Each state has its own definition of unclaimed property, and Fund shares could be considered unclaimed property due to account inactivity (e.g., no owner-generated activity for a certain period), returned mail (e.g., when mail sent to a shareholder is returned to the Fund's transfer agent as undeliverable), or a combination of both. If your Fund shares are categorized as unclaimed, your financial advisor or the Fund's transfer agent will follow the applicable state's statutory requirements to contact you, but if unsuccessful, laws may require that the shares be escheated to the appropriate state. If this happens, you will have to contact the state to recover your property, which may involve time and expense. For more information on unclaimed property and how to maintain an active account, please contact your financial advisor or the Fund's transfer agent.

Brexit

The ongoing negotiations surrounding the UK's exit from the European Union (EU) (Brexit) have yet to provide clarity on what the outcome will be for the UK or Europe. The UK remains a member of the EU until the legally established departure date of March 29, 2019 and, until such date, all existing EU-derived laws and regulations continue to apply in the UK. Those laws may continue to apply for a transitional period, depending on whether a deal is struck and, if so, what that deal is. In any event, the UK's on-shoring of EU legislation currently envisages no policy changes to EU law. However, the EU has not yet provided any material cushion from the effects of Brexit for financial services as a matter of EU law. Whether or not a Fund invests in securities of issuers located in Europe (whether the EU, Eurozone or UK) or with significant exposure to European, EU, Eurozone or UK issuers or countries, the unavoidable uncertainties and events related to Brexit could negatively affect the value and liquidity of the Fund's investments, increase taxes and costs of business and cause volatility in currency exchange rates and interest rates. Brexit could adversely affect the performance of contracts in existence at the date of Brexit and European, UK or worldwide political, regulatory, economic or market conditions and could contribute to instability in political institutions, regulatory agencies and financial markets. Brexit could also lead to legal uncertainty and politically divergent national laws and regulations as a new relationship between the UK and EU is defined and the UK determines which EU laws to replace or replicate. Any of these effects of Brexit, and others that cannot be anticipated, could adversely affect the Fund's business, results of operations and financial condition. In addition, the risk that Standard Life Aberdeen plc, the parent of the companies that provide investment advisory and administration services to the Fund and which is headquartered in the UK, fails to adequately prepare for Brexit could have significant customer, reputation and capital impacts for Standard Life Aberdeen plc and its subsidiaries, including those providing services to the Fund; however, we have detailed contingency planning in place to seek to manage the consequences of Brexit on the Fund and to avoid any disruption on the Fund and to the services we provide. Given the fluidity and complexity of the situation, however, we cannot assure that the Fund will not be adversely impacted despite our preparations.

Report of the Investment Adviser (unaudited)

Prior to April 30, 2018, the Fund was named Aberdeen Chile Fund, Inc. the Acquiring Fund). Seven closed-end equity funds managed by Aberdeen Standard entities reorganized into the Acquiring Fund on April 27, 2018. Aberdeen Latin America Equity Fund, Inc. is the performance and accounting survivor for the Fund. Performance information for periods prior to April 30, 2018 does not reflect the Fund s current investment strategy but rather reflects the performance of the Aberdeen Latin America Equity Fund, Inc.

The Fund s performance was affected by the reorganization, tender offer and special distribution. At certain times throughout the reorganization process and the tender period, the Fund held higher cash balances than it would have under normal conditions. This includes portfolio realignment that occurred prior to the reorganizations in which securities were required to be sold due to local market restrictions. From the reorganization date through the payment of the tender offer and the special distribution, the Fund managers were completing the realignment of the portfolio which resulted in higher cash balances which impacted performance.

Market/Economic Review

Emerging markets moved sharply lower, along with other major global markets, over the year ended December 31, 2018. A confluence of factors, including persistent U.S. dollar strength, rising protectionism and signs of a slowdown in key economies, weighed on investor sentiment.

Undeterred by market jitters, the U.S. Federal Reserve raised its benchmark interest rate four times in 2018 and remained committed to its balance-sheet reduction program. Together with escalating geopolitical tensions elsewhere, this propelled the U.S. dollar higher and prompted monetary policymakers across several emerging markets to tighten their stance in an effort to protect their currencies and contain inflation. Among the worst-hit markets was Turkey, which was already pressured by deteriorating fundamentals and doubts over the central bank s independence. Similarly, South African stocks and the rand declined over the reporting period, as optimism about President Cyril Ramaphosa s leadership proved short-lived and reform progress remained sluggish.

The evolving trade dispute between the United States and China unnerved investors early in 2018 and took a toll on the mainland China economy, which began to slow as deleveraging measures came into effect. Consequently, the Chinese government eased lending conditions and lowered taxes in a bid to boost domestic consumption and private investment. Further dampening investor sentiment was volatility in the technology sector, triggered by lackluster earnings forecasts, collateral damage from the trade dispute, and heightened regulatory scrutiny at home and abroad. Other global markets linked to the integrated global supply chain, such as Korea and Taiwan, also slumped, with contraction in export orders and manufacturing data.

On the positive side, Russia performed relatively well, as oil prices were elevated before losing steam towards the end of 2018 due to a supply glut and expectations of falling demand. This provided India and Indonesia with some respite, and these markets rebounded from earlier bouts of currency weakness.

4 Aberdeen Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund, Inc.

Political developments took center stage in Latin America. Despite an extended truckers strike that stifled economic activity, Brazil outperformed the broader emerging-markets equity asset class, boosted by Jair Bolsonaro's presidential election win in October and his good showing in Congress. In contrast, Mexican stocks rallied on the conclusion of a revamped North American trade pact, but subsequently retreated following President Andrés Manuel López Obrador's decision to scrap the new Mexico City airport.

Fund Performance Review

The Aberdeen Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund returned -10.4% on a net asset value basis for the year ended December 31, 2018, but outperformed the -14.2% return of its benchmark, the Morgan Stanley Capital International (MSCI) Emerging Markets Index, for the period.

The Fund retains significant exposure to India, where Aberdeen has confidence in the quality and opportunities of the Fund's holdings, and where we believe that conditions are improving. As India is relatively insulated from global trade worries, the market has been resilient, despite several scandals in the financial sector and waning support for the ruling Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) in key states. The holding in Housing Development Finance Corp. (HDFC) was among the Fund's strongest performers for the reporting period, as investors sought higher-quality lenders after the crisis involving non-banking financial companies. Other contributors to the Fund's relative performance were consumer products maker Hindustan Unilever, given the growth in rural consumption in India, and Tata Consultancy Services, which benefited from rising IT spending.

Both the underweight allocation and stock selection in China benefited the Fund's relative performance for the reporting period. The Chinese market was hampered by investors' concerns over slowing domestic growth and the escalating trade tension with the U.S., as well as the downturn in software and Internet stocks that pressured online retailers Alibaba and JD.com, and internet services provider Baidu which the Fund does not hold. The Fund's position in internet giant Tencent Holdings performed relatively well over the reporting period. The company's earnings for the third quarter of its 2018 fiscal year rose 30% year-over-year, supported by strong growth from its advertising, mobile payments and cloud segments. This mitigated sluggishness from its online games segment, which we had expected due to the Chinese government's clampdown on new game approvals. Meanwhile, the Fund's holding in property developer China Resources

Land bolstered relative performance as its shares rose on robust results and earnings upgrades, as well as expectations that the government's stimulus would benefit the property sector.

Conversely, stock selection in the Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA) region weighed on the Fund's relative performance for the reporting period. Shares of Turkish utility company Enerjisa fell in tandem with the broad-based market sell-off due to investors' macroeconomic concerns, despite its record of relatively stable, inflation-adjusted returns. Elsewhere, the overweight allocation to MTN Group detracted from the Fund's relative performance, as the South African telecommunications company faced a dispute with the Nigerian government over allegedly illegal dividend repatriation.¹

From a sector standpoint, the Fund's underweight allocation to energy versus the benchmark was a significant detractor from relative performance for the reporting period, as oil and gas exploration and production (E&P) company stocks rose amid robust oil prices for most of 2018. The Fund's relative performance was bolstered by stock selection in the materials sector. Among individual stocks, Brazilian miner Vale posted healthy results during the reporting period, benefiting from higher iron-ore prices.

Outlook

While we do not minimize the risks, we feel that recent emerging-market concerns have been overdone and believe that investor sentiment and the Fund's higher-quality holdings should recover. As the effect from the U.S. government tax cuts and fiscal stimulus fades, we think that the U.S. dollar should ease further. Despite a temporary U.S.-China trade rapprochement, we think there will be prolonged tension, and we will continue to monitor developments. Meanwhile, we believe that China's monetary policy easing measures should support domestic consumption to stabilize growth. We think that politics will also be a key driver of emerging-market performance, with investors keeping a close eye on progress by the new presidential administrations in Mexico and Brazil, as well as elections in markets such as India, Indonesia and South Africa. At the corporate level, we believe that the Fund's holdings possess healthy fundamentals, wide economic moats,² and have experienced management teams. In our view, their solid balance sheets have been able to support improving returns to shareholders and their earnings forecasts remain positive, despite the short-term volatility.

- 1 Repatriation refers to the conversion of offshore capital back to the currency of the country in which a corporation is based.
- 2 An economic moat is a competitive advantage that one company has over other companies in the same industry.

Aberdeen Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund, Inc. 5

Report of the Investment Adviser (unaudited) (concluded)

Overall, we believe that the Fund is well-positioned to withstand future challenges and capture the medium- to long-term opportunities in emerging markets.

Risk Considerations

Past performance is not an indication of future results.

Foreign securities may be more volatile, harder to price and less liquid than U.S. securities. They are subject to different accounting and regulatory standards, currency exchange rates, political and economic risks. Fluctuation in currency exchange rates may impact the Fund's returns more greatly to the extent the Fund does not hedge currency exposure or hedging techniques are unsuccessful. The foregoing risks are enhanced in emerging market countries.

Investing a significant portion of the Fund's assets in securities of companies conducting business in a broadly related group of industries within an economic sector may make the Fund more vulnerable to unfavorable developments in that sector.

Equity stocks of small and mid-cap companies carry greater risk, and more volatility than equity stocks of larger, more established companies.

Please read the prospectus for more detailed information regarding these and other risks.

Edgar Filing: ABERDEEN EMERGING MARKETS EQUITY INCOME FUND, INC. - Form N-CSR

Historical net asset value and per share amounts for the accounting survivor of the reorganizations discussed in Note 1 of the Notes to Financial Statements have been recasted to reflect the conversion ratio of 2.9187 in effect on the date of reorganization of April 27, 2018. Ratios to Average Net Assets were not impacted.

- (c) Based on average shares outstanding.
- (d) Total investment return based on market value is calculated assuming that shares of the Fund's common stock were purchased at the closing market price as of the beginning of the period, dividends, capital gains, and other distributions were reinvested as provided for in the Fund's dividend reinvestment plan and then sold at the closing market price per share on the last day of the period. The computation does not reflect any sales commission investors may incur in purchasing or selling shares of the Fund. The total investment return based on the net asset value is similarly computed except that the Fund's net asset value is substituted for the closing market value.
- (e) Includes adjustments in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and as such, the net asset value for financial reporting purposes and the returns based upon those net asset values may differ from the net asset value and returns based upon net asset value as reported.
- (f) Ratios include the effect of Chilean taxes.
- (g) Effective April 30, 2018, the Fund entered into an expense limitation agreement to limit total ordinary operating expenses of the Fund (excluding any interest, taxes, brokerage fees, short sale dividend and interest expenses and non-routine expenses) from exceeding 1.20% of the average daily Net Assets of the Fund on an annualized basis. (See Note 3) Prior to this, there was no expense limitation agreement in place.
- (h) Effective June 26, 2018, the Fund began utilizing the revolving credit facility.
- (i) Asset coverage ratio is calculated by dividing net assets plus the amount of any borrowings, for investment purposes by the amount of the Revolving Credit Facility.
- (j) The variation in the Fund's turnover rate from 2017 to 2018 was primarily due to the reorganization of the Fund and change in investment strategy.

The renamed Fund is Aberdeen Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund, Inc. and its objective is to seek to provide both current income and long-term capital appreciation by investing, under normal market conditions, at least 80% of its net assets, plus any borrowings for investment purposes, in emerging market equity securities. The Fund intends to use leverage for investment purposes through borrowing in an amount currently estimated to be approximately 10% of total assets.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Fund is an investment company and accordingly follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standard Codification Topic 946 Financial Services-Investment Companies. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (GAAP). The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of income and expenses for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The accounting records of the Fund are maintained in U.S. Dollars.

a. Security Valuation:

The Fund values its securities at current market value or fair value, consistent with regulatory requirements. Fair value is defined in the Fund's Valuation and Liquidity Procedures as the price that could be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between willing market participants without a compulsion to transact at the measurement date.

Equity securities that are traded on an exchange are valued at the last quoted sale price on the principal exchange on which the security is traded at the Valuation Time subject to application. The Valuation Time is as of the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (usually 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time). In the absence of a sale price, the security is valued at the mean of the bid/ask price quoted at the close on the principal exchange on which the security is traded. Securities traded on NASDAQ are valued at the NASDAQ official closing price. Closed-end funds and exchange-traded funds (ETFs) are valued at the market price of the security at the Valuation Time. A security using any of these pricing methodologies is determined to be a Level 1 investment.

18 Aberdeen Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund, Inc.

December 31, 2018

Foreign equity securities that are traded on foreign exchanges that close prior to Valuation Time are valued by applying valuation factors to the last sale price or the mean price as noted above. Valuation factors are provided by an independent pricing service provider approved by the Fund's Board of Directors (the Board). These valuation factors are used when pricing the Fund's portfolio holdings to estimate market movements between the time foreign markets close and the time the Fund values such foreign securities. These valuation factors are based on inputs such as depositary receipts, indices, futures, sector indices/ETFs, exchange rates, and local exchange opening and closing prices of each security. When prices with the application of valuation factors are utilized, the value assigned to the foreign securities may not be the same as quoted or published prices of the securities on their primary markets. A security that applies a valuation factor is determined to be a Level 2 investment because the exchange-traded price has been adjusted. Valuation factors are not utilized if the independent pricing service provider is unable to provide a valuation factor or if the valuation factor falls below a predetermined threshold; in such case, the security is determined to be a Level 1 investment.

Short-term investments are comprised of cash and cash equivalents invested in short-term investment funds which are redeemable daily. The Fund sweeps available cash into the State Street Institutional U.S. Government Money Market Fund, which has elected to qualify as a government money market fund pursuant to Rule 2a-7 under the Investment Company Act as of 1940, as amended, and has an objective, which is not guaranteed, to maintain a $1.00 per share NAV. Generally, these investment types are categorized as Level 1 investments.

In the event that a security's market quotations are not readily available or are deemed unreliable (for reasons other than because the foreign exchange on which it trades closes before the Valuation Time), the security is valued at fair value as determined by the Fund's Pricing Committee, taking into account the relevant factors and surrounding circumstances using valuation policies and procedures approved by the Board. A security that has been fair valued by the Fund's Pricing Committee may be classified as Level 2 or Level 3 depending on the nature of the inputs.

In accordance with the authoritative guidance on fair value measurements and disclosures under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America, the Fund discloses the fair value of its investments using a three-level hierarchy that classifies the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure the fair value. The hierarchy assigns Level 1, the highest level, measurements to valuations based upon unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets, Level 2 measurements to valuations based upon other significant observable inputs, including adjusted quoted prices in active markets for similar assets, and Level 3, the lowest level, measurements to valuations based upon unobservable inputs that are significant to the valuation. Observable inputs are inputs that reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, which are based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. A financial instrument's level within the fair value hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Level 1 quoted prices in active markets for identical investments;

Level 2 other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, and credit risk); or Level 3 significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments).

The Fund may also invest in private equity private placement securities, which represented 0.4% of the net assets of the Fund as of December 31, 2018. The private equity private placement securities in which the Fund is invested are deemed to be restricted securities. In the absence of readily ascertainable market values, these securities are valued at fair value as determined in good faith by, or under the direction of the Board, pursuant to valuation policies and procedures established by the Board. The Fund's estimate of fair value assumes a willing buyer and a willing seller neither of whom are acting under the compulsion to buy or sell. Although these securities may be resold in privately negotiated transactions, the prices realized on such sales could differ from the prices originally paid by the Fund or the current carrying values, and the difference could be material. These securities are stated at fair value as determined by the Fund's Pricing Committee by utilizing the net asset valuations provided by the underlying funds as a practical expedient. In determining the fair value of these investments, management uses the market approach which includes as the primary input the capital balance reported; however, adjustments to the reported capital balance may be made based on various factors, including, but not limited to, the attributes of the interest held, including the rights and obligations, and any restrictions or illiquidity of such interests, and the fair value of these private equity investments. No such adjustments were made to the NAVs provided by the underlying funds.

The following is a summary of the inputs used as of December 31, 2018 in valuing the Fund's investments at fair value. The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. Please refer to the Portfolio of Investments for a detailed breakout of the security types:

Private Equity (a)				1,606,568
Total Investments				$501,437,760

Amounts listed as are $0 or round to $0.

(a) Private Equity investments are measured at the net asset valuations provided by the underlying funds as a practical expedient and have not been classified in the fair value levels. The fair value amounts presented are intended to permit reconciliation to the total investment amount presented in the Portfolio of Investments.

b. Restricted Securities:

Restricted securities are privately-placed securities whose resale is restricted under U.S. securities laws. The Funds may invest in restricted securities, including unregistered securities eligible for resale without registration pursuant to Rule 144A and privately-placed securities of U.S. and non-U.S. issuers offered outside the U.S. without registration pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "1933 Act"). Rule 144A securities may be freely traded among certain qualified institutional investors, such as the Funds, but resale of such securities in the U.S. is permitted only in limited circumstances.

c. Foreign Currency Translation:

Foreign securities, currencies, and other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. Dollars at the exchange rate of said currencies against the U.S. Dollar, as of the Valuation Time, as provided by an independent pricing service approved by the Board.

Foreign currency amounts are translated into U.S. Dollars on the following basis:

- (i) market value of investment securities, other assets and liabilities at the current daily rates of exchange; and
- (ii) purchases and sales of investment securities, income and expenses at the rate of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions.

The Fund does not isolate that portion of gains and losses on investments in equity securities due to changes in the foreign exchange rates from the portion due to changes in market prices of equity securities. Accordingly, realized and unrealized foreign currency gains and losses with respect to such securities are included in the reported net realized and unrealized gains and losses on investment transactions balances.

The Fund reports certain foreign currency related transactions and foreign taxes withheld on security transactions as components of realized gains for financial reporting purposes, whereas such foreign currency related transactions are treated as ordinary income for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Net unrealized currency gains or losses from valuing foreign currency denominated assets and liabilities at period end exchange rates are reflected as a component of net unrealized appreciation/depreciation in value of investments, and translation of other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies.

Net realized foreign exchange gains or losses represent foreign exchange gains and losses from transactions in foreign currencies and forward foreign currency contracts, exchange gains or losses realized between the trade date and settlement date on security transactions, and the difference between the amounts of interest and dividends recorded on the Fund's books and the U.S. Dollar equivalent of the amounts actually received.

Foreign security and currency transactions may involve certain considerations and risks not typically associated with those of domestic origin, including unanticipated movements in the value of the foreign currency relative to the U.S. Dollar. Generally, when the U.S. Dollar rises in value against foreign currency, the Fund's investments denominated in that foreign currency will lose value because the foreign currency is worth fewer U.S. Dollars; the opposite effect occurs if the U.S. Dollar falls in relative value.

d. Rights Issues and Warrants:

Rights issues give the right, normally to existing shareholders, to buy a proportional number of additional securities at a given price (generally at a discount) within a fixed period (generally a short-term period) and are offered at the company's discretion. Warrants are securities that give the holder the right to buy common stock at a specified price for a specified period of time. Rights issues and warrants are speculative and have no value if they are not exercised before the expiration date. Rights issues and warrants are valued at the last sale price on the exchange on which they are traded.

e. Security Transactions, Investment Income and Expenses:

Security transactions are recorded on the trade date. Realized and unrealized gains/(losses) from security and currency transactions are calculated on the identified cost basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date except for certain dividends on foreign securities, which are recorded as soon as the Fund is informed after the ex-dividend date. Interest income and expenses are recorded on an accrual basis.

f. Distributions:

The Fund records dividends and distributions payable to its shareholders on the ex-dividend date. The amount of dividends and distributions from net investment income and net realized capital gains are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP. These book basis/tax basis differences are either considered temporary or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the capital accounts based on their federal tax basis treatment; temporary differences do not require reclassification. Dividends and distributions which exceed net investment income and net realized capital gains for tax purposes are reported as return of capital.

g. Federal Income Taxes:

The Fund intends to continue to qualify as a regulated investment company by complying with the provisions available to certain investment companies, as defined in Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and to make distributions of net investment income and net realized capital gains sufficient to relieve the Fund from all federal income taxes. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required.

The Fund recognizes the tax benefits of uncertain tax positions only where the position is more likely than not to be sustained assuming examination by tax authorities. Management of the Fund has concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions that would require recognition in the financial statements. Since tax authorities can examine previously filed tax returns, the Fund's U.S. federal and state tax returns for each of the four fiscal years up to the most recent year ended December 31, 2018 are subject to such review.

h. Foreign Withholding Tax:

Dividend and interest income from non-U.S. sources received by the Fund are generally subject to non-U.S. withholding taxes. The above taxes may be reduced or eliminated under the terms of applicable U.S. income tax treaties with some of these countries. The Fund accrues such taxes when the related income is earned.

Income received by the Fund from sources within Chile and other foreign countries may be subject to withholding and other taxes imposed by Chile and such other countries. The Fund incurs foreign Chilean taxes on income as well as realized gains generated from Chilean securities where there is no Chilean market presence. In order to have market presence, a Chilean security must have either: (i) transactions greater than or equal to 1,000 Chilean UF (Unidad de Fomentos, a unit of account used in Chile) in 25% or more of the last 180 days; or (ii) a market maker acting in accordance with General Regulation No. 327 of the Superintendencia de Valores y Seguros, the primary Chilean securities and insurance supervisor. For the year ended December 31, 2018, the Fund incurred $442,942 of such expense.

In addition, when the Fund sells securities within certain countries in which it invests, the capital gains realized may be subject to tax. Based on these market requirements and as required under GAAP, the Fund accrues deferred capital gains tax on securities currently held that have unrealized appreciation within these countries. The amount of deferred capital gains tax accrued is reported on the Statement of Operations as part of the Net Change in Unrealized Appreciation/Depreciation on Investments.

i. Partnership Accounting Policy:

The Fund records its pro-rata share of the income/(loss) and capital gains/(losses) allocated from the private equity investments, which are classified as partnerships, and adjusts the cost of the underlying partnerships accordingly. These amounts are included in the Fund's Statement of Operations.

j. Repurchase Agreements

The Fund may enter into a repurchase agreement under the terms of a Master Repurchase Agreement. It is the Fund's policy that its custodian/counterparty segregate the underlying collateral securities, the value of which exceeds the principal amount of the repurchase transaction, including accrued interest. The repurchase price generally equals the price paid by the Fund plus interest negotiated on the basis of current short-term rates. To the extent that any repurchase transaction exceeds one business day, the collateral is valued on a daily basis to determine its adequacy. If the counterparty to a repurchase agreement defaults and the value of the collateral declines, or if bankruptcy proceedings are commenced with respect to the counterparty of the security, realization of the collateral by the Fund may be delayed or limited. Repurchase agreements are subject to contractual netting arrangements with the Fund's repurchase agreement counterparty, Fixed Income Clearing Corp. To the extent the Fund enters into repurchase agreements, additional information on individual repurchase agreements is included in the Portfolio of Investments. As of and during the year ended December 31, 2018, the Fund did not hold any repurchase agreements.

3. Agreements and Transactions with Affiliates

a. Investment Adviser:

Aberdeen Asset Managers Limited (AAML or the Adviser) serves as the Fund's investment adviser with respect to all investments. AAML is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Standard Life Aberdeen plc. Prior to April 28, 2018, AAML received, as compensation for its advisory services from the Fund, an annual fee, calculated weekly and paid quarterly, equal to 1.00% of the first $100 million of the Fund's average weekly market value or net assets (whichever is lower), 0.90% of the next $50 million and 0.80% of amounts above $150 million. AAML had agreed to contractually waive 0.02% of its annual advisory fee in an advisory fee waiver agreement. Effective April 28, 2018, AAML receives, an annual fee, calculated weekly and paid quarterly, equal to 0.90% of the first $250 million, 0.80% of amounts $250-$500 million and 0.75% of amounts over $500 million. For the year ended December 31, 2018, AAML earned $3,738,949 for advisory services, of which it waived $13,386 pursuant to the Waiver Agreement.

Effective April 30, 2018 AAML entered into a written contract (the Expense Limitation Agreement) with the Fund that is effective through April 30, 2020. The Expense Limitation Agreement limits the total ordinary operating expenses of the Fund (excluding any interest, taxes, brokerage fees, short sale dividend and interest expenses and non-routine expenses) from exceeding 1.20% of the average daily Net Assets of the Fund on an annualized basis. Through December 31, 2018, AAML waived a total of $70,875.

b. Fund Administration:

Aberdeen Standard Investments, Inc. (formerly, Aberdeen Asset Management Inc.) (ASI), an affiliate of the Adviser, is the Fund's Administrator, pursuant to an agreement under which ASI receives a fee paid by the Fund, at an annual fee rate of 0.08% of the Fund's average monthly net assets. For the year ended December 31, 2018, ASI earned $353,486 from the Fund for administration services. (This fee is the net amount paid to ASI adjusted for the portion paid to BTG Pactual Chile as described below).

BTG Pactual Chile S.A. Administradora de Fondos de Inversion de Capital Extranjero (formerly, Celfin Capital S.A. Administradora de Fondos de Capital Extranjero) (BTG Pactual Chile) served as the Fund's Chilean administrator through August 31, 2018. For its services, BTG Pactual Chile was paid a fee out of the administration fee payable to ASI calculated weekly and paid quarterly at an annual rate of 0.05% of the Fund's average weekly market value of its Chilean holdings. In addition, BTG Pactual Chile received a supplemental administration fee, annual reimbursement of out of pocket expenses and an accounting fee from the Fund. For the year ended December 31, 2018, the administration fees, supplemental administration fees and accounting fees earned by BTG Pactual Chile amounted to $2,515, $53,771 and $6,009, respectively.

c. Investor Relations:

Under the terms of the Investor Relations Services Agreement, ASI provides and/or engages third parties to provide investor relations services to the Fund and certain other funds advised by AAML or its affiliates as part of an Investor Relations Program. Under the Investor Relations Services Agreement, the Fund owes a portion of the fees related to the Investor Relations Program (the Fund's Portion). However, investor relations services fees are limited by ASI so that the Fund will only pay up to an annual rate of 0.05% of the Fund's average weekly net assets. Any difference between the capped rate of 0.05% of the Fund's average weekly net assets and the Fund's Portion is paid for by ASI.

Pursuant to the terms of the Investor Relations Services Agreement, ASI (or third parties hired by ASI), among other things, provides objective and timely information to shareholders based on publicly-available information; provides information efficiently through the use of technology while offering shareholders immediate access to knowledgeable investor relations representatives; develops and maintains effective communications with investment professionals from a wide variety of firms; creates and maintains investor relations communication materials such as fund manager interviews, films and webcasts, published white papers, magazine articles and other relevant materials discussing the Fund's investment results, portfolio positioning and outlook; develops and maintains effective communications with large institutional shareholders; responds to specific shareholder questions; and reports activities and results to the Board and management detailing insight into general shareholder sentiment.

During the year ended December 31, 2018, the Fund incurred investor relations fees and expenses of approximately $102,530. For the year ended December 31, 2018, ASI did not contribute to the investor relations fees for the Fund because the Fund's contribution was below 0.05% of the Fund's average weekly net assets on an annual basis.

4. Investment Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities (excluding short-term securities) for the year ended December 31, 2018, were $670,912,405 and $1,657,483,167, respectively.

22 Aberdeen Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund, Inc.

5. Capital

The authorized capital of the Fund is 100 million shares of $0.001 par value per share common stock. As of December 31, 2018, there were 59,782,149 shares of common stock issued and outstanding.

a. Tender Offer and Distribution

On May 11, 2018, the Fund's Board approved a tender offer for shares of the Fund's common stock. The tender offer authorized the Fund to purchase up to 32% of its issued and outstanding shares at a price equal to 99% of the Fund's NAV per share at the close of business on the NYSE American Exchange on June 20, 2018, the first business day following the expiration of the offer. The tender offer commenced on May 22, 2018 and expired on June 19, 2018. In connection with the tender offer, the Fund purchased 28,470,130 shares of capital stock at a price equal to $7.9002. The tender offer was oversubscribed and all tenders of shares were subject to pro ration (at a ratio of approximately 0.44155) in accordance with the terms of the tender offer. The Fund also paid a distribution of US$0.882 per share on June 28, 2018 to all shareholders of record as of June 15, 2018, which, in combination with the tender offer, represented an aggregate distribution of approximately 41.1% of the Fund's assets as of the close of business April 27, 2018.

6. Open Market Repurchase Program

The Board has authorized, but does not require, Fund management to make open market purchases from time to time in an amount up to 10% of the Fund's outstanding shares, in accordance with Rule 10b-18 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and other applicable federal securities laws. Such purchases may be made when, in the reasonable judgment of Fund management, such repurchases may enhance shareholder value. The Fund reports repurchase activity on the Fund's website on a monthly basis. For the year ended December 31, 2018, the Fund repurchased 716,879 shares pursuant to its repurchase agreement.

7. Credit Facility

On June 26, 2018, the Fund entered into a revolving credit facility of $65,000,000 with The Bank of Nova Scotia for a 1-year term. The outstanding balance on the loan as of December 31, 2018 was $49,000,000 and the average interest rate on the revolving credit facility was 2.94%. The interest expense is accrued on a daily basis and is payable to The Bank of Nova Scotia on a monthly basis. The amounts borrowed from the revolving credit facility may be invested to return higher rates than the rates in the Fund's portfolio. However, the cost of leverage could exceed the income earned by the Fund on the proceeds of such leverage. To the extent that the Fund is unable to invest the proceeds from the use of leverage in assets which pay interest at a rate which exceeds the rate paid on the leverage, the yield on the Fund's common stock will decrease. In addition, in the event of a general market decline in the value of assets in which the Fund invests, the effect of that decline will be magnified in the Fund because of the additional assets purchased with the proceeds of the leverage. Non-recurring expenses in connection with the implementation of the loan facility will reduce the Fund's performance.

8. Private Equity Investments

Certain of the Fund's investments, listed in the chart below, are restricted as to resale and are valued at fair value as determined in good faith by, or under the direction of, the Board under procedures established by the Board in the absence of readily ascertainable market values.

9. Portfolio Investment Risks

a. Risks Associated with Foreign Securities and Currencies

Investments in securities of foreign issuers carry certain risks not ordinarily associated with investments in securities of U.S. issuers. These risks include future political and economic developments, and the possible imposition of exchange controls or other foreign governmental laws and restrictions. In addition, with respect to certain countries, there is the possibility of expropriation of assets, confiscatory taxation, and political or social instability or diplomatic developments, which could adversely affect investments in those countries.

Certain countries also may impose substantial restrictions on investments in their capital markets by foreign entities, including restrictions on investments in issuers of industries deemed sensitive to relevant national interests. These factors may limit the investment opportunities available and result in a lack of liquidity and high price volatility with respect to securities of issuers from developing countries. Foreign securities may also be harder to price than U.S. securities.

The value of foreign currencies relative to the U.S. dollar fluctuates in response to market, economic, political, regulatory, geopolitical or other conditions. A decline in the value of a foreign currency versus the U.S. dollar reduces the value in U.S. dollars of investments denominated in that foreign currency. This risk may impact the Fund more greatly to the extent the Fund does not hedge its currency risk, or hedging techniques used by the Adviser are unsuccessful.

b. Risks Associated with Emerging Markets

The emerging countries securities markets are substantially smaller, less liquid and more volatile than the major securities markets in the United States. A high proportion of the securities of many companies in emerging countries may be held by a limited number of persons, which may limit the number of securities available for investment by the Fund. The limited liquidity of emerging country securities markets may also affect the Fund's ability to acquire or dispose of securities at the price and time it wishes to do so.

24 Aberdeen Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund, Inc.

c. Risks Associated with Restricted Securities

The Fund, subject to local investment limitations, may invest up to 30% of its assets (at the time of commitment) in illiquid equity securities, including securities of private equity funds (whether in corporate or partnership form) that invest primarily in emerging markets. When investing through another investment fund, the Fund will bear its proportionate share of the expenses incurred by that underlying fund, including management fees. Such securities are expected to be illiquid and may involve a high degree of business and financial risk and may result in substantial losses. Because of the current absence of any liquid trading market for these investments, the private equity funds may take longer to liquidate than would be the case for publicly traded securities. Although these securities may be resold in privately negotiated transactions, the prices realized on such sales could be substantially less than those originally paid by the Fund or the current carrying values and these differences could be material. Further, companies whose securities are not publicly traded may not be subject to the disclosures and other investor protection requirements applicable to companies whose securities are publicly traded.

d. China Risk

The economy of China differs from the U.S. and other more established economies in such respects as structure, general development, government involvement, wealth distribution, rate of inflation, growth rate, allocation of resources and capital reinvestment, and some of these differences are unfavorable to investors. Therefore, investing in China involves a high degree of risk and special considerations not typically associated with investing in other more established economies or securities markets. The Fund invests in China A shares. China A shares are shares in mainland China-based companies that trade on Chinese stock exchanges and are usually only available to foreign investors through a quota license or by purchasing Shanghai and Shenzhen Stock Exchange-listed securities via brokers in Hong Kong through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect programs (collectively, "Stock Connect"). Investing in China A shares may involve special risk considerations such as volatility in the China A share market and uncertainty regarding taxation.

The Fund's ability to freely trade in China A shares as a foreign investor through the quota license or Stock Connect may be limited by quota and repatriation restrictions, and utilizing Stock Connect is subject to trading, clearance and settlement procedures in China that are relatively new and untested.

e. Illiquid Securities Risk

Illiquid securities are assets that a Fund reasonably expects cannot be sold or disposed of in current market conditions in seven calendar days or less without the sale or disposition significantly changing the market value of the asset. An inability to sell a portfolio position can adversely affect a Fund's value or prevent the Fund from being able to take advantage of other investment opportunities. Illiquid securities and relatively less liquid securities may also be difficult to value.

The Adviser employs procedures and tests using third-party and internal data inputs that seek to assess and manage the liquidity of a Fund's portfolio holdings. These procedures and tests take into account a Fund's investment strategy and liquidity of portfolio investments during both normal and foreseeable stressed conditions, cash-flow projections during both normal and reasonable foreseeable stressed conditions, relevant market, trading and other factors, and monitor whether liquidity should be adjusted based on changed market conditions. These procedures and tests are designed to assist a Fund in determining its ability to meet redemption requests in various market conditions. In light of the dynamic nature of markets, there can be no assurance that these procedures and tests will enable a Fund to ensure that it has sufficient liquidity to meet redemption requests.

f. Sector Risk

To the extent that the Fund has a significant portion of its assets invested in securities of companies conducting business in a broadly related group of industries within an economic sector, the Fund may be more vulnerable to unfavorable developments in that economic sector than funds that invest more broadly.

Financial Sector Risk. To the extent that the financials sector represents a significant portion of the Fund's investments, the Fund will be sensitive to changes in, and its performance may depend to a greater extent on, factors impacting this sector. Performance of companies in the financials sector may be adversely impacted by many factors, including, among others, government regulations, economic conditions, credit rating downgrades, changes in interest rates, and decreased liquidity in credit markets. The impact of more stringent capital requirements, recent or future regulation of any individual financial company, or recent or future regulation of the financials sector as a whole cannot be predicted. In recent years, cyber attacks and technology malfunctions and failures have become increasingly frequent in this sector and have caused significant losses.

g. Valuation Risk

The price that the Fund could receive upon the sale of any particular portfolio investment may differ from the Fund's valuation of the investment, particularly for securities that trade in thin or volatile markets or that are valued using a fair valuation methodology or a price provided by an independent pricing service. As a result, the price received upon the sale of an investment may be less than the value ascribed by the Fund, and the Fund could realize a greater than expected loss or lower than expected gain upon the sale of the investment. The Fund's ability to value its investments may also be impacted by technological issues and/or errors by pricing services or other third-party service providers.

(h) Market Events Risk

The global financial crisis that began in 2008 caused a significant decline in the value and liquidity of many securities and unprecedented volatility in the markets. Policy and legislative changes in countries around the world are affecting many aspects of financial regulation. The impact of these changes on the markets, and the practical implications for market participants, may not be fully known for some time. In addition, economies and financial markets throughout the world are becoming increasingly interconnected. As a result, whether or not a Fund invests in securities of issuers located in or with significant exposure to countries experiencing economic and financial difficulties, the value and liquidity of the Fund's investments may be negatively affected by such events.

For example, whether or not the Fund invests in securities of issuers located in Europe (whether the EU, Eurozone or UK) or with significant exposure to European, EU, Eurozone or UK issuers or countries, the unavoidable uncertainties and events related to Brexit could negatively affect the value and liquidity of a Fund's investments, increase taxes and costs of business and cause volatility in currency exchange rates and interest rates. Brexit could adversely affect the performance of contracts in existence at the date of Brexit and European, UK or worldwide political, regulatory, economic or market conditions and could contribute to instability in political institutions, regulatory agencies and financial markets. Brexit could also lead to legal uncertainty and politically divergent national laws and regulations as a new relationship between the UK and EU is defined and as the UK determines which EU laws to replace or replicate. Any of these effects of Brexit, and others that cannot be anticipated, could adversely affect the Fund's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Please read the prospectus for more detailed information regarding these and other risks.

10. Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Fund may provide general indemnifications pursuant to certain contracts and organizational documents. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is dependent on future claims that may be made against the Fund, and therefore, cannot be estimated; however, based on experience, the risk of loss from such claims is considered remote.

11. Tax Information

The U.S. federal income tax basis of the Fund's investments and the net unrealized appreciation as of December 31, 2018 were as follows:

			Net
			Unrealized
Tax Basis of			Appreciation/
Investments	Appreciation	Depreciation	(Depreciation)
$569,400,606	$14,600,837	$(82,563,683)	$(67,962,846)

Income and capital gains distributions are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP. The tax character of distributions paid during the years ended December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2017 was as follows:

	December 31, 2018	December 31, 2017

As of December 31, 2018, the components of accumulated earnings on a tax basis were as follows:

Total accumulated earnings/(losses) net	$(77,765,037)

* As of December 31, 2018, the Fund has a capital loss carryforward available of $10,149,411, which consisted of long-term post RIC-Mod losses with no expiration date. Under the Regulated Investment Company Modernization Act of 2010, the Fund will be permitted to carry forward capital losses incurred in taxable years beginning after December 22, 2010 for an unlimited period.

 The tax basis of components of distributable earnings differs from the amounts reflected in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities by temporary book/tax differences. These differences are primarily due to timing differences due to wash sales, passive foreign investment companies, partnership adjustments and merger CLCO outstanding.

GAAP requires that certain components of net assets be adjusted to reflect permanent differences between financial and tax reporting. Accordingly, the table below details the necessary reclassifications, which are a result of permanent differences primarily attributable to foreign currency gains and losses, passive foreign investment companies, partnership adjustments and merger related adjustments. These reclassifications have no effect on net assets or NAVs per share.

12. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

On August 17, 2018, the SEC voted to adopt amendments to certain of its disclosure requirements that have become redundant, duplicative, overlapping, outdated, or superseded, in light of other SEC disclosure requirements, U.S. GAAP, or changes in the information environment. The SEC will also be referring certain SEC disclosure requirements that overlap with, but require information incremental to, U.S. GAAP to the FASB for potential incorporation into U.S. GAAP. The amendments are intended to facilitate the disclosure of information to investors and simplify compliance without significantly altering the total mix of information provided to investors. The amendments became effective November 5, 2018.

On August 28, 2018, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2018-13, Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820): Disclosure Framework Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Fair Value Measurement. ASU 2018-13 includes removals, additions and modifications to the disclosure requirements for fair value measurements that are intended to improve the effectiveness of disclosures in the notes to financial statements. The amendments in ASU 2018-13 are effective for all entities for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2019. An entity is permitted to early adopt any removed or modified disclosures upon issuance of this ASU and delay adoption of the additional disclosures until their effective date. ASI has evaluated ASU 2018-13 and determined that there is no significant impact on the Fund's financial statements. ASI has early adopted the following ASU 2018-13 guidance in the Fund's financial statements pertaining to the removal of (i) the amount of and reasons for transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy and (ii) the policy for timing of transfers between levels.

13. Fund Reorganizations

Effective April 27, 2018, the Aberdeen Chile Fund, Inc. (the Acquiring Fund) acquired all of the assets and assumed all of the liabilities of the Aberdeen Emerging Markets Smaller Company Opportunities Fund, Inc. (ABE), Aberdeen Israel Fund, Inc. (ISL), Aberdeen Indonesia Fund, Inc. (IF), Aberdeen Latin America Equity Fund, Inc. (LAQ), Aberdeen Singapore Fund, Inc. (SGF), Aberdeen Greater China Fund, Inc. (GCH) and The Asia Tigers Fund, Inc. (GRR) (the Acquired Funds) pursuant to plans of reorganization approved by the Board of Directors on October 4, 2017 except GRR, which was approved on October 31, 2017. On April 30, 2018, the Acquiring Fund changed its name to Aberdeen Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund, Inc.

The acquisition was accomplished by a tax-free exchange as follows:

49,853,913 shares of the Acquired Funds, fair valued at $769,560,237 for 79,611,470 shares of the Acquiring Fund.

The investment portfolio and cash of the Acquired Funds, with a fair value of $768,833,828 and identified cost of $669,191,819 were the principal assets acquired by the Acquiring Fund. For financial reporting purposes, assets received and shares issued by the Acquiring Fund were recorded at value; however, the cost basis of the investments received from each of the Acquired Funds was carried forward to align ongoing reporting of the Acquiring Fund realized and unrealized gains and losses with amounts distributable to shareholders for tax purposes. The Acquiring Fund acquired capital loss carryovers of $13,689,302 which is subject to loss limitations from the Acquired Funds. Immediately prior to the merger, the investment portfolio and cash of the Acquiring Fund was $80,843,745.

Assuming that the reorganizations had been completed on January 1, 2018, the Acquiring Fund s pro forma results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2018 are as follows:

Net investment income	$8,515,347
Net realized and unrealized loss from investments	(107,586,486)
Net decrease in net assets from operations	(99,071,139)

Because the combined investment portfolios have been managed as a single integrated portfolio since the acquisition was completed, it is not practicable to separate the amounts of revenue and earnings of the Acquired Funds that have been included in the Statement of Operations since April 27, 2018.

The financial highlights for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2016, before the effects of the adjustments to recast the per share operating performance amounts to reflect the reorganization as described in Note 1, were audited by other auditors whose report, dated February 27, 2017, expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial highlights.

We also have audited the adjustments to the 2016, 2015, and 2014 financial highlights to recast the per share operating performance amounts for the reorganization as described in Note 1. In our opinion, such adjustments are appropriate and have been properly applied. We were not engaged to audit, review, or apply any procedures to the 2016, 2015, or 2014 financial highlights of the Fund other than with respect to the adjustments and, accordingly, we do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on the 2016, 2015, or 2014 financial highlights taken as a whole.

Supplemental Information (unaudited)Board Approval of Investment Advisory Agreement

The Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act") and the terms of the investment advisory agreement (the "Advisory Agreement") between the Aberdeen Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") and Aberdeen Asset Managers Limited (the "Adviser" or "AAML") require that the Advisory Agreement be approved annually at an in-person meeting by the Board of Directors (the "Board"), including a majority of the Directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the Advisory Agreement and are not interested persons of the Fund, as defined in the 1940 Act (the "Independent Directors").

At its in-person meeting held on December 11, 2018 (the Meeting), the Board voted unanimously to renew the Advisory Agreement between the Fund and the Adviser. In considering whether to approve the continuation of the Fund's Advisory Agreement, the Board members received and considered a variety of information provided by the Adviser relating to the Fund, the Advisory Agreement and the Adviser, including information regarding the nature, extent and quality of services provided by the Adviser under the Advisory Agreement, comparative investment performance, fee and expense information of a peer group of funds selected by Strategic Insight Mutual Fund Research and Consulting, LLC (SI), an independent third-party provider of investment company data and other performance information for relevant benchmark indices. Among other items, the Board's materials for the Meeting also included: (i) a memorandum from the Independent Directors' independent legal counsel on the responsibilities of the Board in considering the approval of the investment advisory arrangement under the 1940 Act and Maryland law; (ii) a report prepared by the Adviser in response to a request submitted by the Independent Directors' independent legal counsel on behalf of the Independent Directors; (iii) information on the investment performance of the Fund and the performance of a peer group of funds and the Fund's performance benchmark, including, with respect to the Fund's performance and accounting predecessor (the Predecessor Fund), information for the Fund for periods prior to the completion of the reorganization of Aberdeen Emerging Markets Smaller Company Opportunities Fund, Inc., Aberdeen Indonesia Fund, Inc., Aberdeen Israel Fund, Inc., Aberdeen Greater China Fund, Inc., The Asia Tigers Fund, Inc., Aberdeen Latin America Equity Fund, Inc. and Aberdeen Singapore Fund, Inc. with and into Aberdeen Chile Fund, Inc. (the Reorganization) and the renaming of the Fund on April 30, 2018; (iv) information regarding the Fund's expenses and advisory fees, including information comparing the Fund's expenses to those of a peer group of funds and information about applicable fee breakpoints and expense limitations; and (v) information regarding the profitability of the Advisory Agreement to the Adviser.

The Independent Directors were advised by separate independent legal counsel throughout the process and also consulted in executive sessions with their counsel regarding consideration of the renewal of the Advisory Agreement. In determining whether to approve the continuation of the Advisory Agreement, the Board, including the Independent Directors, did not identify any single factor as determinative. Individual Directors may have evaluated the information presented differently from one another and given different weights to various factors. Matters considered by the Board, including the Independent Directors, in connection with its approval of the continuation of the Advisory Agreement include the factors listed below.

In addition, the Board considered other matters such as: (i) the Fund's investment objective and strategy following the Reorganization, (ii) the Adviser's investment personnel and operations, (iii) the resources devoted by the Adviser to the Fund, (iv) the Adviser's record of compliance with the Fund's investment policies and restrictions, policies on personal securities transactions and other compliance policies, (v) the Adviser's financial condition and stability, (vi) the allocation of the Fund's brokerage, and the use, if any, of soft commission dollars to pay the Fund's expenses and to pay for research and other similar services, and (vii) possible conflicts of interest. Throughout the process, the Board members had the opportunity to ask questions of and request additional information from management.

The Board also noted that in addition to the materials provided by the Adviser in connection with the Board's consideration of the renewal of the Advisory Agreement, the Board received and reviewed materials in advance of each regular quarterly meeting that contained information about the Fund's investment performance and information relating to the services provided by the Adviser.

As part of their deliberations, the Board members considered the following:

Investment performance of the Fund and the Adviser. The Board received and reviewed with management, among other performance data, information that compared the Fund's return to comparable investment companies focused on emerging markets investments. The Board also received and considered performance information compiled by SI as compared with the funds in the Fund's Morningstar category (the Morningstar Group).

In addition, the Board received and reviewed: information regarding the Fund's total return on a net and gross basis and relative to the Fund's benchmark; the effects of the Reorganization and subsequent tender offer on the performance of the Predecessor Fund and the Fund and the Fund's and Predecessor Fund's share performance and premium/discount information. The Board also received and considered information about the Fund's and Predecessor Fund's total return against its Morningstar Group average and other comparable Aberdeen-managed funds. The Directors considered management's discussion of the factors contributing to differences in performance, including differences in the investment strategies, restrictions and risks of each of these other funds. The Directors also received information about changes made to the Fund in connection with and following the Reorganization. Additionally, the Board took into account information about the Fund's discount/premium ranking relative to its Morningstar Group and management's discussion of the Fund's performance. The Board also considered the Adviser's performance and reputation generally, the responsiveness of the Adviser to Director concerns about performance and the willingness of the Adviser to take steps intended to improve performance. The Board concluded that overall Fund performance supported continuation of the Advisory Agreement.

The nature, extent and quality of the services provided to the Fund under the Advisory Agreement. The Directors also considered the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by the Adviser to the Fund and the resources dedicated to the Fund by the Adviser and its affiliates. Among other things, The Board reviewed the background and experience of the Adviser's senior management personnel and the qualifications, background and responsibilities of the portfolio managers primarily responsible for the day-to-day portfolio management services for the Fund. The Directors took into account the Adviser's investment experience and considered information regarding the Adviser's compliance with applicable laws and Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulatory inquiries or audits of the Fund and/or the Adviser. The Board also considered the Adviser's risk management processes. The Board noted that they received information on a regular basis from the Fund's Chief Compliance Officer regarding the Adviser's compliance policies and procedures and considered the Adviser's brokerage policies and practices. The Directors also considered the financial condition of the Adviser and the Adviser's ability to provide quality service to the Fund. Management reported to the Board on, among other things, its business plans and organizational changes. The Directors took into account their knowledge of management and the quality of the performance of management's duties through Board meetings, discussion and reports during the preceding year.

Economies of Scale. The Board considered management's discussion of the Fund's management fee structure and determined that the management fee structure was reasonable and reflected economies of scale being shared between each of the Fund and the Adviser. The Directors reviewed the changes to the Fund's management fee structure that were made in connection with the Reorganization. The Board considered management's explanation of the economies of scale realized as a result of the Reorganization and noted that an increase in the size of the Fund's portfolio would likely reduce Fund expenses further. The Board based its determination on various factors, including how the Fund's management fees compared relative to a peer group consisting of other comparable closed-end funds (the Peer Group) at higher asset levels and that the Fund's management fee schedule provided breakpoints at higher asset levels to adjust for anticipated economies in the event of asset increases. The Board also considered that the Adviser had entered into an expense limitation agreement with the Fund, pursuant to which the Adviser agreed to waive a portion of its advisory fee and/or reimburse certain expenses as a means of limiting the Fund's total annual operating expenses for a period of time.

The costs of the services provided and profits realized by the Adviser and its affiliates from their relationships with the Fund. The Board reviewed with management the effective annual management fee rate paid by the Fund to the Adviser for investment management services. The Board received and took into account information compiled at the request of the Fund by SI that compared the Fund's effective annual management fee rate with the fees paid by its Peer Group. The Board considered the management fee structure, including that management fees for the Fund following the Reorganization were based on the Fund's average weekly net assets rather than total managed assets following the Reorganization. Management noted that due to the unique strategy and structure of the Fund, Aberdeen did not have any closed-end funds that were directly comparable to the Fund. Although there were no other substantially similar AAML-advised investment vehicles against which to compare the Fund's advisory fees, the Adviser provided information for other Aberdeen products with similar investment strategies to those of the Fund where available. In evaluating the Fund's advisory fees, the Board took into account the demands, complexity and quality of the investment management of the Fund.

In addition to the foregoing, the Board considered the Fund's fees and expenses as compared to its Peer Group, consisting of closed-end funds in the Fund's Morningstar expense category as compiled by SI.

The Board also considered other factors, which included but were not limited to the following:

- whether the Fund has operated in accordance with its investment objective, the Fund's record of compliance with its investment restrictions, and the compliance programs of the Adviser.
- the nature, quality, cost and extent of administrative services performed by Aberdeen Asset Management Inc. (ASI), an affiliate of the Adviser, under a separate agreement covering administrative services.
- the effect of any market and economic volatility on the performance, asset levels and expense ratios of the Fund.
- so-called fallout benefits to the Adviser or ASI, such as the benefits of research made available to ASI by reason of brokerage commissions generated by the Fund's securities transactions or reputational and other indirect benefits. The Board considered any possible conflicts of interest associated with these fallout and other benefits, and the reporting, disclosure and other processes in place to disclose and monitor such possible conflicts of interest.

In accordance with legal requirements in the various jurisdictions in which they operate, and their own Conflicts of Interest policies, all subsidiaries of Aberdeen Asset Management PLC, (together Aberdeen), have in place arrangements to identify and manage Conflicts of Interest that may arise between them and their clients or between their different clients. Where Aberdeen does not consider that these arrangements are sufficient to manage a particular conflict, it will inform the relevant client(s) of the nature of the conflict so that the client(s) may decide how to proceed.

The portfolio managers' management of other accounts, may give rise to potential conflicts of interest in connection with their management of a Fund's investments, on the one hand, and the investments of the other accounts, on the other. The other accounts may have the same investment objective as a fund. Therefore, a potential conflict of interest may arise as a result of the identical investment objectives, whereby the portfolio manager could favor one account over another. However, Aberdeen believes that these risks are mitigated by the fact that: (i) accounts with like investment strategies managed by a particular portfolio manager are generally managed in a similar fashion, subject to exceptions to account for particular investment restrictions or policies applicable only to certain accounts, differences in cash flows and account sizes, and similar factors; and (ii) portfolio manager personal trading is monitored to avoid potential conflicts. In addition, Aberdeen has adopted trade allocation procedures that require equitable allocation of trade orders for a particular security among participating accounts.

In some cases, another account managed by the same portfolio manager may compensate Aberdeen based on the performance of the portfolio held by that account. The existence of a performance-based fee may create additional conflicts of interest for the portfolio manager in the allocation of management time, resources and investment opportunities.

Another potential conflict could include instances in which securities considered as investments for the Fund also may be appropriate for other investment accounts managed by Aberdeen or its affiliates. Whenever decisions are made to buy or sell securities by the Fund and one or more of the other accounts simultaneously, Aberdeen may aggregate the purchases and sales of the securities and will allocate the securities transactions in a manner that it believes to be equitable under the circumstances. As a result of the allocations, there may be instances where the Fund will not participate in a transaction that is allocated among other accounts. While these aggregation and allocation policies could have a detrimental effect on the price or amount of the securities available to a fund from time to time, it is the opinion of Aberdeen that the benefits from the Aberdeen organization outweigh any disadvantage that may arise from exposure to simultaneous transactions. Aberdeen has adopted policies that are designed to eliminate or minimize conflicts of interest, although there is no guarantee that procedures adopted under such policies will detect each and every situation in which a conflict arises.

With respect to non-discretionary model delivery accounts, the Adviser will deliver model changes subsequent to commencing trading on behalf of discretionary accounts. Model changes are typically delivered on a security by security basis. The timing of such delivery is determined by the Adviser and will depend on the anticipated market impact of trading. Market impact includes, but is not limited to, factors such as liquidity and price impact. When minimal market impact is anticipated, the Adviser typically delivers security level model changes after such time when approximately two-thirds of the full discretionary order has been executed. Although the Adviser anticipates delivering model changes of such securities after approximately two-thirds of the discretionary order has been executed, the Adviser may deliver model changes prior to or substantially after two-thirds have been executed depending on prevailing market conditions and trader discretion. With respect to securities for which the Adviser anticipates a more significant market impact, the Adviser intends to withhold model deliver changes until such time when the entire discretionary order has been fully executed. Anticipated market impact on any given security is determined at the sole discretion of the Adviser based on prior market experience and current market conditions. Actual market impact may vary significantly from anticipated market impact. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, the Adviser may provide order instructions simultaneously or prior to completion of trading for other accounts if the trade represents a relatively small proportion of the average daily trading volume of the particular security or other instrument.

The Adviser does not trade for non-discretionary model delivery clients. Because model changes may be delivered to non-discretionary model clients prior to the completion of the Adviser's discretionary account trading, The Adviser may compete against these clients in the market when attempting to execute its orders for its discretionary accounts. As a result, discretionary clients may experience negative price and liquidity impact due to multiple market participants attempting to trade in a similar direction on the same security.

Timing delays or other operational factors associated with the implementation of trades may result in non-discretionary and model delivery clients receiving materially different prices relative to other client accounts. This may create performance dispersions within accounts with the same or similar investment mandate.

Investment decisions for strategies that have model delivery clients may cause a fund to compete against such model delivery clients that hold and trade in a same security as a fund.

Aberdeen's remuneration policies are designed to support its business strategy as a leading international asset manager. The objective is to attract, retain and reward talented individuals for the delivery of sustained, superior returns for Aberdeen's clients and shareholders. Aberdeen operates in a highly competitive international employment market, and aims to maintain its strong track record of success in developing and retaining talent.

Aberdeen's policy is to recognize corporate and individual achievements each year through an appropriate annual bonus scheme. The aggregate value of awards in any year is dependent on the Aberdeen group's overall performance and profitability. Consideration is also given to the levels of bonuses paid in the market. Individual awards, which are payable to all members of staff, are determined by a rigorous assessment of achievement against defined objectives.

A long-term incentive plan for key staff and senior employees comprises of a mixture of cash and deferred shares in Aberdeen PLC, or after August 2017, Standard Life Aberdeen plc, or select Aberdeen funds (where applicable). Overall compensation packages are designed to be competitive relative to the investment management industry.

Base Salary

Edgar Filing: ABERDEEN EMERGING MARKETS EQUITY INCOME FUND, INC. - Form N-CSR

Aberdeen's policy is to pay a fair salary commensurate with the individual's role, responsibilities and experience, and having regard to the market rates being offered for similar roles in the asset management sector and other comparable companies. Any increase is generally to reflect inflation and is applied in a manner consistent with other Aberdeen employees; any other increases must be justified by reference to promotion or changes in responsibilities.

Annual Bonus

The Remuneration Committee of Aberdeen determines the key performance indicators that will be applied in considering the overall size of the bonus pool. In line with practice amongst other asset management companies, individual bonuses are not subject to an absolute cap. However, the aggregate size of the bonus pool is dependent on the Aberdeen group's overall performance and profitability. Consideration is also given to the levels of bonuses paid in the market. Individual awards are determined by a rigorous assessment of achievement against defined objectives, and are reviewed and approved by the Remuneration Committee.

Aberdeen has a deferral policy which is intended to assist in the retention of talent and to create additional alignment of executives' interests with Aberdeen's sustained performance and, in respect of the deferral into funds, managed by Aberdeen, to align the interest of asset managers with our clients.

Staff performance is reviewed formally at least once a year. The review process evaluates the various aspects that the individual has contributed to Aberdeen, and specifically, in the case of portfolio managers, to the relevant investment team. Discretionary bonuses are based on client service, asset growth and the performance of the respective portfolio manager. Overall participation in team meetings, generation of original research ideas and contribution to presenting the team externally are also evaluated.

In the calculation of a portfolio management team's bonus, Aberdeen takes into consideration investment matters (which include the performance of funds, adherence to the company investment process, and quality of company meetings) as well as more subjective issues such as team participation and effectiveness at client presentations. To the extent performance is factored in, such performance is not judged against any specific benchmark and is evaluated over the period of a year - January to December. The pre- or after-tax performance of an individual account is not considered in the determination of a portfolio manager's discretionary bonus; rather the review process evaluates the overall performance of the team for all of the accounts the team manages.

Portfolio manager performance on investment matters is judged over all of the accounts the portfolio manager contributes to and is documented in the appraisal process. A combination of the team's and individual's performance is considered and evaluated.

Although performance is not a substantial portion of a portfolio manager's compensation, Aberdeen also recognizes that fund performance can often be driven by factors outside one's control, such as (irrational) markets, and as such pays attention to the effort by portfolio managers to ensure integrity of our core process by sticking to disciplines and processes set, regardless of momentum and hot themes. Short-terming is thus discouraged and trading-oriented managers will thus find it difficult to thrive in the Aberdeen environment. Additionally, if any of the aforementioned undue risks were to be taken by a portfolio manager, such trend would be identified via Aberdeen's dynamic compliance monitoring system.

(1) On December 6, 2011, the Board of Directors of the Fund (previously named Aberdeen Chile Fund, Inc.) authorized an open market repurchase program, which authorized management to make open market purchases from time to time in an amount up to 10% of the Fund's outstanding shares. On December 12, 2017, consistent with Regulation M, which prohibits a fund from purchasing its shares during a restricted period following the announcement of a tender offer by that fund, the Board of Directors approved a suspension of the Fund's open market repurchase program until the completion of a tender offer of the Fund's shares (the "Tender Offer") following the Reorganizations, discussed below. Purchases pursuant to the program were permitted to be made when, in the reasonable judgment of Fund management, such repurchases may enhance shareholder value. The Fund acquired the assets, subject to the liabilities, of Aberdeen Emerging Markets Smaller Company Opportunities Fund, Inc., Aberdeen Israel Fund, Inc., Aberdeen Indonesia Fund, Inc., Aberdeen Latin America Equity Fund, Inc., Aberdeen Singapore Fund, Inc., Aberdeen Greater China Fund, Inc. and The Asia Tigers Fund, Inc. after close of regular business on April 27, 2018 (the "Reorganizations"). Effective April 30, 2018, the Fund was renamed Aberdeen Emerging Markets Equity Income Fund, Inc., changed its investment objective and strategy and began to trade on the NYSE American Exchange under the ticker symbol "AEF". The Board announced on October 4, 2017, that subject to the completion of the Reorganizations, the Fund will also establish a targeted discount policy, which will seek to manage the Fund's discount by: (1) committing the Fund to buy back shares in the open market when the Fund's shares trade at a discount of 10% or more to NAV and (2) undertaking a 15% tender offer if the average discount exceeds 11% over any rolling twelve-month period commencing on the closing of the consolidation and ending on December 31, 2019. Following the completion of the Tender Offer, on June 12, 2018, the Board authorized an open market repurchase program to purchase issued and outstanding ordinary shares whenever the Fund trades at a discount of 10% or more to its NAV.

(2) On May 11, 2018, the Fund's Board of Directors approved a Tender Offer for shares of the Fund's common stock. The tender offer authorized the Fund to purchase up to 32% of its issued and outstanding shares at a price equal to 99% of the Fund's net asset value per share at the close of business on the NYSE American on June 20, 2018, the first business day following the expiration of the offer. The Tender Offer commenced on May 22, 2018 and expired on June 19, 2018. In connection with the Tender Offer, the Fund purchased 28,470,130 shares of capital stock at a price equal to $7.9002 per share. The Tender Offer was oversubscribed and all tenders of shares were subject to pro ration (at a ratio of approximately 0.44155) in accordance with the terms of the Tender Offer.
