ITEM 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Due to management's expectations of the timing and extent that interest rates will increase in the future, the registrant terminated interest rate swaps on December 17, 2004, with three financial institutions that provide banking services to the registrant: JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Wachovia Bank, N.A. and Fleet National Bank (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Financial Institutions"). The notional amount of these swaps was $230,000,000 and related to the $280,000,000 6% senior notes (the "Notes") due August 1, 2012. These swaps required the registrant to make payments at a variable rate based on LIBOR and receive payments at a fixed rate of 6%.

The registrant paid approximately $10,000,000 to the Financial Institutions to terminate the swaps, which represented the fair market value of the swaps at the date of termination (fair market value represents the present value of expected net settlements due to the Financial Institutions through the maturity date of the Notes (August 1, 2012) as a result of the difference between the fixed rate of 6% and the Financial Institutions' projected variable rate based on LIBOR); there were no penalties incurred by the registrant in connection with the termination of the swaps. This amount, exclusive of a net settlement of approximately $900,000 due to the registrant through the date of termination, will be amortized to interest expense over the remaining life of the Notes. The fair market value of the swaps, totaling approximately $7,800,000 at October 31, 2004, was recorded in other non-current liabilities in the registrant's condensed consolidated balance sheet in its Form 10-Q for the quarterly period then ended.

The Notes and the interest rate swaps were previously reported in the Notes Payable and Long-term Debt note, and the Financial Instruments and Risks and Uncertainties note, to the registrant's Consolidated Financial Statements in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2004, which notes are incorporated by reference in this report.
