PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Maxim Integrated Products, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the first quarter of fiscal 2007 ended September 23, 2006 ("Form 10-Q") by the prescribed due date of November 2, 2006. As previously announced, the Company's Board of Directors authorized a review of certain of the Company's past stock option grants and practices, which is being conducted by a Special Committee of the Board with the assistance of outside independent legal counsel. At this time, the Special Committee has not completed its review. Until this review is completed, the Company will not be able to file its Form 10-Q. The Company intends to file the Form 10-Q as soon as possible following the completion of the Special Committee's review but does not expect that such filing will be made by November 7, 2006, the extended deadline.

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements concerning the Company's review of certain past stock option grants and practices. There can be no assurance concerning the outcome of the Special Committee's review. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include the final determinations of the Special Committee concerning matters relating to the Company's stock option grants and practices, the timing of such determinations and other actions that may be taken or required as a result of the Special Committee's review. Forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this filing, and, except as required by law, the Company does not undertake an obligation to update its forward-looking statements to reflect future events or circumstances.
