Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On February 26, 2013, S&W Seed Company (the "Company") entered into a new employment agreement with its President and Chief Executive Officer, Mark S. Grewal (the "Employment Agreement"), pursuant to which Mr. Grewal will continue to serve in these positions for a three-year term, effective January 1, 2013 (the "Effective Date"). The Employment Agreement provides for an employment term commencing on the Effective Date and ending on December 31, 2016. Mr. Grewal also serves as a member of the Company's Board of Directors, and he will continue to serve as a director under the Employment Agreement subject to the Company's corporate governance and director election policies and procedures.

The Employment Agreement sets forth Mr. Grewal's initial base salary at the annual rate of $300,000 and the right to receive periodic bonuses in the future at the discretion of the Company's Compensation Committee. All components of Mr. Grewal's compensation under the Employment Agreement, including base salary and bonuses, will be subject to regular review by the Compensation Committee.

The Employment Agreement also provides that, while employed, Mr. Grewal will be entitled to participate in the Company's equity incentive plans (as administered by the Compensation Committee), as well as other Company benefit and perquisite plans and policies in accordance with their terms as in effect from time to time, on the same basis as such benefits are generally made available to other executive officers of the Company. Mr. Grewal will be provided with an automobile at the Company's expense and will also receive a one-time payment of $5,000 as reimbursement for automobile insurance, maintenance and repairs incurred during the term of Mr. Grewal's prior employment agreement.

If Mr. Grewal's employment is terminated by the Company without cause, he will be entitled to compensation and other benefits (such as accrued but unused vacation) that have accrued but not yet been paid, and subject to his execution and delivery of a release of claims against the Company, he will be entitled to receive from the Company: a cash severance payment equal to six months of Mr. Grewal's base salary immediately prior to his termination and the full vesting of all stock options or other equity grants awarded to him pursuant to the Company's equity incentive plans. If Mr. Grewal's employment is discontinued as the result of a change of control, he will be entitled to compensation and other benefits that have accrued but not yet been paid, a cash severance payment equal to twelve months of Mr. Grewal's base salary immediately prior to the change of control, and the full vesting of all stock options or other equity grants awarded to him pursuant to the Company's equity incentive plans. If Mr. Grewal's employment is terminated for cause, he will only be entitled to the compensation and other benefits that have accrued but not yet been paid, and all future vesting of equity awards then held by him will cease immediately. In the event that Mr. Grewal's employment is terminated due to Mr. Grewal's death or disability, he will be entitled to receive compensation and other benefits that have accrued but not yet been paid and any equity awards held by him will vest if and to the extent provided in the applicable plan and award agreements.

The summary description of the Employment Agreement contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by, and should be read in conjunction with, the complete text of the Employment Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

On February 26, 2013, the Company issued a press release announcing the Employment Agreement. A copy of the press release is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K..
