5.

Debt Restructuring

Effective January 30, 2003 the Company entered into an agreement with FremantleMedia Enterprises Ltd. ("Fremantle") to modify its existing $7.58 million debt by restricting its security to the assets and undertaking of the Company on the effective date, prior to giving effect to the acquisition and financing transactions detailed in notes 3 and 4 (the "Net Assets"). The debt has no fixed repayment dates. Interest, which continues to accrue at 10% per annum, and principal are payable from the income streams of the Net Assets, subject to priority interests. Prepayment of the principal amount of the debt is not permitted. For a period of 90 days commencing December 31, 2004, Fremantle may convert the unpaid balance of its debt, if any, into common shares of the Company. (See note 3 (b)). For a period of 90 days commencing December 31, 2004, Fremantle may convert the unpaid balance of its accrued interest, if any, into common shares of the Company, subject to regulatory approval.

The Company recorded a gain on settlement of the debt in the amount of $3.5 million, being the difference between the fair value of the new debt instrument and the carrying amount of the original instrument. Costs of $21,273 associated with the new debt instrument were expensed during the period.

Release and Reconstitution of Loan Guarantee

Effective January 30, 2003 the Company entered into an agreement with Comerica Bank - California ("Comerica") to modify its existing $1.68 million loan guarantee. The obligation has no maturity date. For a period of 90 days commencing December 31, 2004, Comerica may convert the unpaid balance of its obligation, if any, into common shares of the Company. (See note 3 (b)).

The modification of the Comerica obligations results in a settlement, as the present value of cash flows under the terms of the modified instrument is at least 10% different from the present value of the remaining cash flows under the terms of the original instrument. The Company recorded a gain on settlement of the obligation in the amount of $1.62 million, being the difference between the fair value of the new debt instrument and the carrying amount of the original instrument. English versions or adequate summaries in the English language of such materials may be furnished in lieu of original English translations.

Notwithstanding General Instruction B, no other documents or reports, including prospectuses or offering circulars relating to entirely foreign offerings, need be furnished unless the issuer otherwise has prepared or caused to be prepared English translations, English versions or summaries in English thereof. If no such English translations, versions or summary have been prepared, it will be sufficient to provide a brief description in English of any such documents or reports. In no event are copies of original language documents or reports required to be furnished.
