

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 16, 2016, Stamps.com Inc., a Delaware corporation (“SDC”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the same day, by and among ShippingEasy Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“ShippingEasy”), SDC, SEG Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of SDC (“Merger Sub”), and Tim Jugmans, as Representative (the “Agreement”). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, SDC will acquire ShippingEasy through the merger of Merger Sub with and into ShippingEasy, with ShippingEasy surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of SDC (the “Merger”). ShippingEasy is an Austin, Texas based company that offers web-based multi-carrier shipping software that allows online retailers and e-commerce merchants to organize, process, fulfill and ship their orders quickly and easily.

The Agreement provides for $55 million in aggregate merger consideration, payable in cash, subject to working capital and transaction expense adjustments.

In connection with the closing of the Merger, SDC will enter a Management Incentive Plan with two key executives of ShippingEasy providing for the issuance of up to approximately 87,000 shares of SDC common stock in total (“Incentive Shares”) if certain financial targets are met by ShippingEasy for the six month period commencing on July 1, 2016 and ending December 31, 2016, the twelve month period ending December 31, 2017 and the twelve month period ending December 31, 2018. ShippingEasy will, at closing, also enter into employment agreements, non-competition agreements and confidentiality and proprietary information agreements with these two key executives. SDC has agreed to file a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission to cover the resale of Incentive Shares, subject to exceptions for shares sellable under Rule 144.

Certain events generally within the control of SDC, such as a change of control of SDC or certain personnel related actions, can cause all of the Incentive Shares to be accelerated and issued irrespective of whether the financial targets are met.

The Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants by SDC, ShippingEasy and the securityholders of ShippingEasy. A portion of the cash purchase price is subject to an escrow to secure indemnification claims, which escrow is, with limited exceptions, the sole recourse for such claims. The Merger is subject to customary closing conditions and is expected to be consummated in early July.

No material relationship outside of the ordinary course of business exists between ShippingEasy and its securityholders and SDC and its affiliates, officers, directors or their respective associates, other than in connection with the Merger.

The foregoing summary of the Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby do not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Agreement and the other material agreements that may be entered into in connection therewith (in each case, excluding any portions thereof subject to a confidential treatment request), copies of which will be filed with SDC’s next Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.
