Re: Review of unaudited interim consolidated financial statements
for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2007

We have reviewed the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Digital Power Corporation ("the Company") and its subsidiaries as of September 30, 2007, and the related consolidated statements of operations for the three-month and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the statement of changes in shareholders' equity for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2007 and the statements of cash flows for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2007 and 2006. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our review in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the consolidated interim financial statements referred to above for them to be in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1:-

GENERAL

Digital Power Corporation ("the Company" or "DPC") was incorporated in 1969, under the General Corporation Law of the State of California. The Company has a wholly-owned subsidiary, Digital Power Limited ("DPL"), located in the United Kingdom. The Company and its subsidiary are currently engaged in the design, manufacture, sale and distribution of switching power supplies and converters. The Company has two reportable geographic segments - North America (sales through DPC) and Europe (sales through DPL).

NOTE 2:-

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. The significant accounting policies applied in the annual financial statements of the Company as of December 31, 2006, are applied consistently in these financial statements. In addition, the following accounting policy is applied:

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2007, and for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 are unaudited and reflect all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and operating results for the interim periods. The condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto, together with management's discussion and analysis of the financial condition and results of operations, contained in the Company Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. The results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007, are not necessarily indicative of the results for the entire fiscal year ending December 31, 2007.

b. Accounting for stock-based compensation:

The Company has several stock-based employee compensation plans, which are described more fully in Note 5. Prior to January 1, 2006, the Company accounted for those plans under the recognition and measurement provisions of APB Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees" ("APB 25"), and related Interpretations, as permitted by FASB Statement No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" ("SFAS 123"). Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted the fair value recognition provisions of FASB Statement No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment" ("SFAS 123(R)"), using the modified-prospective-transition method.

Under that transition method, compensation cost recognized in the first quarter of 2006 includes compensation cost for all share-based payments granted subsequent to January 1, 2006, based on the grant-date fair value estimated in accordance with the provisions of SFAS 123(R). On December 31, 2005, the Company accelerated all of its unvested outstanding employees' stock options, and therefore, no compensation costs were included for share-based payments granted prior to January 1, 2006 in the first quarter of 2006.

The Company and its subsidiaries apply SFAS 123 and Emerging Issues Task Force No. 96-18, "Accounting for Equity Instruments that are Issued to Other than Employees for Acquiring, or in Conjunction with Selling, Goods or Services" ("EITF 96-18"), with respect to options issued to non-employees. SFAS 123 requires use of an option valuation model to measure the fair value of the options at the grant date.

c. FIN 48, "Uncertainty in Income Taxes":

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued FASB interpretation ("FIN") No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an Interpretation of FASB Statement 109" ("FIN 48"). FIN 48 establishes a single model to address accounting for uncertain tax positions. FIN 48 clarified the accounting for income taxes by prescribing the minimum recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. FIN 48 also provides guidance on derecognition, measurement, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. The Company adopted the provisions of FIN 48 effective January 1, 2007. As a result of the implementation of FIN 48, the Company recorded an increase of $ 6 associated with the liability for unrecognized tax benefits, which was accounted for as a reduction to the retained earnings balance as of January 1, 2007. There have been no changes to the unrecognized tax benefits during the current period.

NOTE 4:- ACCOUNTING FOR STOCK BASED COMPENSATION

a. Share Option Plans:

1. Under the Company's stock option plans, options may be granted to employees, officers, consultants, service providers and directors of the Company or its subsidiaries.
2. As of September 30, 2007, the Company has authorized, by several Incentive Share Option Plans, the grant of options to officers, management, other key employees and others of up to 2,272,200 of the Company's Common shares. As of September 30, 2007, an aggregate of 668,715 of the Company's options are still available for future grant.

3. The options granted generally become fully exercisable after four years and expire no later than 10 years from the approval date of the option plan under the terms of grant. Any options that are forfeited or cancelled before expiration become available for future grants.

A summary of the Company's employee share option activity (except options to consultants and service providers) and related information is as follows:

	Nine months ended September 30, 2007
	Amount of options	Weighted average exercise price	Weighted average remaining contractual term (years)	Aggregate intrinsic value *)
Outstanding at the beginning of the period	901,225	$ 1.12	6.63

Outstanding at the end of the period	971,190	$ 1.18	6.22	$ 646,320
Exercisable options at the end of the period	798,890	$ 1.05	5.33	$ 585,845

*) Calculation of aggregate intrinsic value is based on the share price of the Company's Common shares as of September 30, 2007 ($ 1.77 per share).

Grants for the nine months ended September 30, 2006:

Under the provisions of SFAS 123(R), the fair value of each option is estimated on the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option valuation model that uses the assumptions noted in the following table. Because Black-Scholes option valuation models incorporate various judgmental assumptions for inputs, those assumptions are disclosed. Expected volatility is based exclusively on historical volatility of the entity's stock as allowed by SFAS 123(R). The Company uses historical information with respect to the employee options exercised to estimate the expected term of options granted, representing the period of time that options granted are expected to be outstanding. The risk-free interest rate of period within the contractual life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

With the exception of historical facts stated herein, the matters discussed in this report are "forward looking" statements that involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from projected results. Such "forward looking" statements include, but are not necessarily limited to, statements regarding anticipated levels of future revenues and earnings from operations of the Company. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include, in addition to other factors identified in this report, dependence on the electronic equipment industry, competition in the power supply industry, dependence on manufacturers in China and other risks factors detailed in the Company's Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2006. Readers of this report are cautioned not to put undue reliance on "forward looking" statements that are, by their nature, uncertain as reliable indicators of future performance. The Company disclaims any intent or obligation to publicly update these "forward looking" statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

GENERAL

We are engaged in the business of designing, developing, manufacturing, marketing, selling and distributing switching power supplies to the industrial, telecommunication, and data communication, medical and military industries. Revenues are generated from sales to distributors, who will then resell our products to end customers who are often referred to as OEM's (original equipment manufacturers) and direct sales to OEM's that may involve the use of manufacturer representatives. Domestic refers to as revenue or operations that is principally in North America, while International refers to revenue or operations that is principally out of Europe. Domestically and in Europe, the company will sell to 'Commercial' customers who typically buy standard or modified standard product that are sellable to multiple customers while 'military' customers typically utilize custom power supplies and Commercial Off The Shelf Supplies (COTS) that are typically sold to multiple customers. Digital Power custom supplies for the Military are typically sold through its European Subsidiary, Digital Power Limited.

We have continued our efforts to increase sales of our products to existing and new customers, and have continued our strategy to utilize our contract manufactures in Asia and our Design Partners. While we believe our revenues have increased to a sufficient amount to exceed our expenses, we may be subject to net losses in an individual quarter. We believe that our cash and cash equivalents will be sufficient to fund those losses for at least 12 months.

The Company's corporate office, which contains our administrative, sales, and engineering functions, is located in Fremont, California. In addition the Company has a wholly owned subsidiary, Digital Power Limited ("DPL"), located in Salisbury, England.

ITEM 3. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

(a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures. We maintain “disclosure controls and procedures,” as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or the Exchange Act, that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. In designing and evaluating our disclosure controls and procedures, management recognized that disclosure controls and procedures, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the disclosure controls and procedures are met. Our disclosure controls and procedures have been designed to meet reasonable assurance standards. Additionally, in designing disclosure controls and procedures, our management necessarily was required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible disclosure controls and procedures. The design of any disclosure controls and procedures also is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions.

Based on their evaluation as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, or persons performing similar functions, have concluded that, as of that date, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level.

(b) Changes in internal control over financial reporting. There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act) identified in connection with management’s evaluation during our last fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
