ITEM 8.01. Other Events.

On August 18, 2009, Shore Bancshares, Inc. (the “Company”) filed proposed responses to a comment letter dated July 30, 2009 from the Staff (the “Staff”) of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Staff’s comments relate primarily to the Company’s July 7, 2009 restatement, by way of an Amendment No. 1 to its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2009 (the “10-Q”), of its financial statements for the first quarter of 2009 in response to the recent discovery that The Felton Bank’s calculation of the allowance for credit losses with respect to several loan relationships did not reflect the full loss exposure as of March 31, 2009 as calculated pursuant to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 114.

In its response letter, the Company disclosed to the Staff that, based on management’s continuing evaluation of its disclosure controls and procedures as of March 31, 2009 in light of the error giving rise to the restatement, it expects to further amend the 10-Q (by restating Item 4 of Part I thereof) to report that the Company’s disclosure controls and procedures were not, in fact, effective at the reasonable assurance level as of March 31, 2009. In the 10-Q, as originally filed, the Company reported that management believed that the disclosure controls and procedures were, in fact, effective at the reasonable assurance level. Management has taken steps that it believes should prevent, to the extent reasonably possible, the re-occurrence of the error, which are addressed in Item 4 of Part I of the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2009.

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Statements that are not historical in nature, including statements that include the words “anticipate”, “estimate”, “should”, “expect”, “believe”, “intend”, and similar expressions, are expressions about the Company’s intentions and expectations and are not guarantees. Such forward-looking statements involve certain uncertainties, including management’s continuing evaluation of the Company’s controls and procedures. Actual events may differ materially from such forward-looking statements, and we assume no obligation to update forward-looking statements at any time except as required by law.
