Item 8.01. Other Events

The Board of Directors of Applied Energetics, Inc. (the “Company”) determined that as of October 3, 2014, the Company would suspend its current business activities. As a result, the Company considers itself to be a “shell company” as such term is defined in Rule 12b-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company will not incur any material costs associated with the suspension of its activities.

The Board has suspended payment of director fees and all employees will be employed part-time and paid on an hourly basis to preserve cash.

The Company is continuing to consider strategic alternatives, including mergers, the acquisitions of one or more business or technologies and/or the disposition of one or more of our existing business.
